NOTICE TO MARINERS.

EXHIBITION OF A NEW REVOLVING LIGHT AT NORTH RONALDSHAY, AND ALTERATION OF THE START-POINT LIGHT FROM A REVOLVING LIGHT TO A FIXED LIGHT.

I.—NORTH RONALDSHAY LIGHTHOUSE

THE COMMISSIONERS of the NORTHERN LIGHTHOUSES hereby give Notice that a LIGHTHOUSE is being built upon the ISLAND of NORTH RONALDSHAY in ORKNEY, the Light of which will be exhibited on the Night of FRIDAY the 1st September 1854, and every night thereafter, from the going away of day-light in the evening to the return of day-light in the morning.

The following is a Description of the Lighthouse and the Appearance of the Light, by MR. DAVID STEVENSON, Engineer to the Commissioners:—

THE LIGHTHOUSE is in N. Lat. 59° 23′ 15″, and W. Long. 2° 23′ 38″; it stands on the Northern Point of the Island of North Ronaldshay, and by Compass it bears from Moul-head of Papa-Westra, W N. W. ¼ North, distance 15 nautic miles; and from Start-Point of Sanday Lighthouse, S. S. W ¼ West, distance 6¼ miles.

THE NORTH RONALDSHAY LIGHT will be known to Mariners as a REVOLVING LIGHT, producing a bright flash of the natural colour once in every 10 seconds. It will be visible all round the Compass. The Lantern is elevated 140 feet above the level of the sea; and the Light will be seen at the distance of about 18 nautic miles, and at lesser distances, according to the state of the atmosphere.

II.—START-POINT LIGHTHOUSE.

THE START-POINT Light, which is 6¼ miles from North Ronaldshay Light, being at present a REVOLVING LIGHT, producing a bright flash once in every minute, the COMMISSIONERS further give notice, that on and after the night of Friday the 1st September 1854, when the new Revolving Light at North Ronaldshay is to be exhibited, the present REVOLVING LIGHT at Start-point WILL BE CHANGED TO A FIXED LIGHT of the natural color.

General Post Office Notifications.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Mails for Madras, Ceylon and Mauritius, intended for transmission by the General Screw Steam Shipping Company's Steamer Propontis, will be closed at this Office on Monday the 10th proximo.

No After-Packet will be made up for the above Vessel.

J. R. Burlton Bennett,
Post-master General.

Fort William, General Post Office, The 26th June 1854.

Notice.

The public are informed, that in consequence of the termination of the Contract with the General Screw Steam Shipping Company, for the conveyance of the Mails to and from the Cape of Good Hope and England, it has been found necessary to revert to the route of Egypt for the transmission of Books between India and the United Kingdom, and that under the authority of Treasury Warrant, dated the 14th April 1854, this arrangement was carried into effect as regards the despatch of Books from the United Kingdom on and from the 19th idem.

In order to cover the expenses incurred in the transmission of these Books across the Isthmus of Suez, it has been decided, with concurrence of the Court of Directors of the East India Company, to increase the postage from 6*d.* to 8*d.* the half pound.

Under these circumstances above stated, this Department has been instructed to collect in future, on all Books posted in Bengal, addressed to the United Kingdom, the following rates of postage:—

	Rs.	As.	P.
For each Packet not exceeding ½ lb. in weight, ...	0	5	6
Ditto exceeding ½ lb. and not exceeding 1 lb., ...	0	11	0
Ditto exceeding 1 lb. and not exceeding 2 lbs., ...	1	5	6
Ditto exceeding 2 lbs. and not exceeding 3 lbs., ...	2	0	0

The conditions under which these Books will be transmitted through the post, at the rates above-mentioned, will remain as heretofore.

J. R. Burlton Bennett,
Post-master General of Bengal.

Bengal Coal Company.

THE Directors of the Bengal Coal Company hereby give notice to the Shareholders, that in pursuance of the powers vested in the Direction by the fifteenth Article of the Company's Deed and also in pursuance of a requisition dated the 22nd instant and signed by seven Shareholders, a special Meeting of the Shareholders will be held at noon of Wednesday the first day of November now next ensuing, for the purpose of taking into consideration the following propositions, viz. :—

1st. That the Capital of the Company be increased to the sum of fifteen lakhs (1,500,000) of rupees, the increase to be made up by funding the sum of rupees 2,96,500 from the accumulated profits now standing to the credit of Working Capital and of Profit and Loss, and by the issue 17½ New Shares, of rupees 1,000 each, and that the Shares for the portion funded as above be issued in the proportion of one quarter Share to the holder of each of the present eleven hundred and eighty-six Shares.

2nd. That with the view of extending operations where deemed advisable, the aforesaid Capital may, in the discretion of the Directors for the time being and after they shall have given four month's notice to the Shareholders of their intention be increased to the sum of rupees 16,00,000, and that the additional lakh of rupees shall be raised by the issue of 100 New Shares of rupees 1,000 each, such New Shares to be offered at par in the first instance to the Shareholders for the time being in the proportion of one New Share to every fifteen Old Shares.

3rd. That the following alterations and additions be made in and to the present Deed of the twenty-fourth day of September 1853.

1st. That in the second Article the consecutive words beginning with the word "fifty thousand" and ending with the words "inclusively and the same" be expunged, and the following words substituted "three lakhs and sixty-four thousand rupees shall form the Capital Stock of the said Company and the same shall be divided into 1,500 shares of rupees 1,000 each, to be numbered from one to fifteen hundered inclusively. Provided also that at any time hereafter it shall be lawful for the Directors for the time being in their discretion and after giving four calendar month's notice by advertisement of such their intention to increase the said Capital to the sum of sixteen lakhs of rupees by the issue of one hundred New Shares of Rs. 1,000 each, to be numbered from 1,501 to 1,600 inclusively, and that in case of the issue of such New Shares the Shareholders for the time being of the 1,500 shares shall be entitled to take the one hundred New Shares at par in the proportion of one New Share for every fifteen Old Shares held by him or them, and the several shares comprising the said Capital of the Company for the time being."

2nd. That in the thirty-first article the Clause beginning with the words "provided always" to the end of the Clause be expunged.

3rd. That in the ninth Article immediately after the words "Capital Stock of the said Company" be added the words "who shall have been registered by the Secretary or Secretaries for the time being of the said Company as an actual Proprietor of five or more Shares for three calendar months previous to such election."

4th. That in the thirteenth Article immediately after the words "persons (as the case may be")" be added the words "who shall have been registered by the Secretary or Secretaries for the time being of the said Company as an actual Proprietor of five or more Shares for three calendar months previous to such election."

Dated this twenty-eighth day of June 1854.

The 1st July 1854.

Notice.

THE public are informed, that in consequence of the termination of the Contract with the General Screw Steam Shipping Company, for the conveyance of the Mails to and from the Cape of Good Hope and England, it has been found necessary to revert to the route of Egypt for the transmission of Books between India and the United Kingdom, and that under the authority of Treasury Warrant, dated the 14th April 1854, this arrangement was carried into effect as regards the despatch of Books from the United Kingdom on and from the 19th idem.

In order to cover the expenses incurred in the transmission of these Books across the Isthmus of Suez, it has been decided, with concurrence of the Court of Directors of the East India Company, to increase the postage from 6*d.* to 8*d.* the half pound.

Under these circumstances above stated, this Department has been instructed to collect in future, on all Books posted in Bengal, addressed to the United Kingdom, the following rates of postage :—

	Rs.	As.	P.
For each Packet not exceeding ½ lb. in weight, ...	0	5	6
Ditto exceeding ½ lb. and not exceeding 1 lb., ...	0	11	0
Ditto exceeding 1 lb. and not exceeding 2 lbs., ...	1	5	6
Ditto exceeding 2 lbs. and not exceeding 3 lbs., ...	2	0	0

The conditions under which these Books will be transmitted through the post, at the rates above-mentioned, will remain as heretofore.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

EXHIBITION OF A NEW REVOLVING LIGHT AT NORTH RONALDSHAY, AND ALTERATION OF THE START-POINT LIGHT FROM A REVOLVING LIGHT TO A FIXED LIGHT.

I.—NORTH RONALDSHAY LIGHTHOUSE.

THE COMMISSIONERS of the NORTHERN LIGHTHOUSES hereby give Notice that a LIGHTHOUSE is being built upon the ISLAND of NORTH RONALDSHAY in ORKNEY, the Light of which will be exhibited on the Night of FRIDAY the 1st September 1854, and every night thereafter, from the going away of day-light in the evening to the return of day-light in the morning.

The following is a Description of the Lighthouse and the Appearance of the Light, by MR. DAVID STEVENSON, Engineer to the Commissioners:—

THE LIGHTHOUSE is in N. Lat. 59° 23′ 15″, and W. Long. 2 23′ 38″; it stands on the Northern Point of the Island of North Ronaldshay, and by Compass it bears from Moul-head of Papa-Westra, W N. W. ½ North, distance 15 nautic miles; and from Start-Point of Sanday Lighthouse, S. S. W ½ West, distance 6¼ miles.

THE NORTH RONALDSHAY LIGHT will be known to Mariners as a REVOLVING LIGHT, producing a bright flash of the natural colour once in every 10 seconds. It will be visible all round the Compass. The Lantern is elevated 140 feet above the level of the sea; and the Light will be seen at the distance of about 18 nautic miles, and at lesser distances, according to the state of the atmosphere.

II.—START-POINT LIGHTHOUSE.

THE START-POINT Light, which is 6¼ miles from North Ronaldshay Light, being at present a REVOLVING LIGHT, producing a bright flash once in every minute, the COMMISSIONERS further give notice, that on and after the night of Friday the 1st September 1854, when the new Revolving Light at North Ronaldshay is to be exhibited, the present REVOLVING LIGHT at Start-point WILL BE CHANGED TO A FIXED LIGHT of the natural color.

Rangoon Post Office Notification.

LETTERS and Newspapers, which should be addressed to RANGOON only, are frequently directed by mistake to Pegu or Burmah, and letters, &c. intended for delivery in Pegu, Prome, Bassien and other places in the Provinces, are in like manner erroneously addressed to "Rangoon, Burmah." The Rangoon Post Master begs to notify that, with such vague directions, this Department is left to find out to which of the Stations such letters should be forwarded, and from want of information, great disappointment is felt when they are despatched to the wrong Station. To obviate this, it is desirable, that parties posting letters in Calcutta or elsewhere, should be careful to direct them to their respective Stations, and to inform their Agents and Correspondents, when leaving one place for another, of their change of address, to ensure letters being directed to the proper Station. A list of places in the Pegu Provinces or in Burmah, and their distance from Rangoon, is annexed below, viz.:

Donabew,	40	miles.
Pegu,	55	,,
Sittang,	67	,,
Shoaygyeen,	90	,,
Bassein,	95	,,
Henzada,	95	,,
Tonghoo,	130	,,
Moncan,	120	,,
Thayetmyo,	200	,,

Namean,	195	,,
Prome,	200	,,
Yeagheen,	160	,,
Tapoon, Tindan, Tayngheen, Yandoon,	Below Prome.

Letters addressed to public Functionaries, whose head-quarters or residence is in Rangoon, should be addressed "Rangoon," instead of Pegu or Burmah; but if intended for delivery at other Stations, should be addressed to those Stations, the word Rangoon to be omitted.

Notice.

THE public are informed, that in consequence of the termination of the Contract with the General Screw Steam Shipping Company, for the conveyance of the Mails to and from the Cape of Good Hope and England, it has been found necessary to revert to the route of Egypt for the transmission of Books between India and the United Kingdom, and that under the authority of Treasury Warrant, dated the 14th April 1854, this arrangement was carried into effect as regards the despatch of Books from the United Kingdom on and from the 19th idem.

In order to cover the expenses incurred in the transmission of these Books across the Isthmus of Suez, it has been decided, with concurrence of the Court of Directors of the East India Company, to increase the postage from 6*d.* to 8*d.* the half pound.

Under these circumstances above stated, this Department has been instructed to collect in future, on all Books posted in Bengal, addressed to the United Kingdom, the following rates of postage:—

	Rs.	As.	P
For each Packet not exceeding ½ lb. in weight, ...	0	5	6
Ditto exceeding ½ lb. and not exceeding 1 lb., ...	0	11	0
Ditto exceeding 1 lb. and not exceeding 2 lbs., ...	1	5	6
Ditto exceeding 2 lbs. and not exceeding 3 lbs., ...	2	0	0

The conditions under which these Books will be transmitted through the post, at the rates above-mentioned, will remain as heretofore.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 12, 1854.

Fort William. Legislative Council,

The 8th July 1854.

The following Draft of a proposed Act was read in the Legislative Council for the second time, on the 8th July 1854.

An Act to provide for the levy of Duties of Customs in the Arrakan, Pegu, Martaban and Tenasserim Provinces.

Preamble. WHEREAS it is expedient that the Arrakan, Pegu, Martaban and Tenasserim Provinces should be placed, as nearly as possible, in the same position with the Provinces of Bengal and Orissa, in respect to the levy of duties of Sea Customs; that duties of River Customs should be levied on the Northern Frontier of Pegu; that the floating down of Teak Timber, and the duties payable thereon, in certain of these Provinces, should be regulated by law; and that the exportation of munitions of war from any of these Provinces into Foreign States should be prohibited; It is enacted as follows:

Acts repealed I. So much of Act VII. of 1848 as excepts the several ports of Arrakan and Tenasserim from the operation of Section III. of Act VI. of 1848; and so much of Sections XVIII., XIX. and XXXV. of Act I. of 1852 as relates to the said Provinces are repealed.

Duty on Imports by Sea. II. With the exceptions mentioned in Section III. of this Act, all goods imported by Sea into any part of the Arrakan, Pegu, Martaban and Tenasserim Provinces, from any Port not subject to the Government of the East India Company, or from the Port of Aden, or from any of the Ports in the Straits of Malacca, shall be charged with the same rates of duty as those which are or shall be charged on goods of the same description, imported from the same Ports, into the Provinces of Bengal or Orissa.

Special duty on Salt Imported by Sea. III. Salt imported by Sea into any part of the Arrakan, Pegu, Martaban and Tenasserim Provinces, shall be charged duty at the rate of eight annas a maund: provided that it shall be, in respect to Arrakan, in the power of the Governor or Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, and in respect to Pegu, Martaban and Tenasserim in the power of the Governor General of India in Council, to fix from time to time upon Salt imported by Sea any lower rate of duty that may be thought proper, in order to equalise the rate of Customs Duty upon Salt imported by Sea into any of the said Provinces with the rate of Excise Duty on Salt manufactured in the same Province. Opium imported by Sea into any part of the said Provinces shall be charged duty at the rate of twenty-four Rupees a seer, excepting Opium purchased at a Government Sale in Calcutta, which shall be free; provided that no Opium of any description shall be landed in the Provinces aforesaid without a pass from the Collector of Customs at the Port of landing, in default of which such Opium shall be confiscated.

Special Duty on Opium imported by Sea.

Duty on Exports by Sea. IV. All goods exported by Sea from any part of the Arrakan, Pegu, Martaban and Tenasserim Provinces, to any Port not subject to the Government of the East India Company, or to the Port of Aden, or to any of the Ports in the Straits of Malacca, shall be charged with the same rates of of duty as those which are or shall be charged upon goods of the same description exported to the same Ports from the Provinces of Bengal and Orissa. Provided that when goods which have paid River Frontier import duty under Section VI. of this Act, are exported by Sea under a certificate of the Collector of River Frontier

Customs, passed by the Collector of Sea Customs, the amount of River Frontier import Duty so paid, shall be accepted in full or in part payment, as the case may be, of the Sea Export Duty chargeable under this Section.

Bengal Customs Law to apply.

V. All the laws and rules relating to the levy of duties of Customs, which are or shall be in force in the Provinces of Bengal and Orissa, shall apply to the levy of duties of Sea Customs in the Arrakan, Pegu, Martaban, and Tenasserim Provinces: provided that the powers which are or shall be vested, in the Provinces of Bengal and Orissa in the Governor or Lieutenant Governor of Bengal, shall be vested in respect of Pegu, Martaban and Tenasserim, in the Governor General of India in Council.

River Frontier Duty on Imports.

VI. All goods, excepting Bullion and Coin, Precious Stones and Pearls, Grain and Pulse, and Living Animals, which shall all be free, and excepting Spirituous Liquors and Teak Timber, for which special rules are provided; imported by the river Irawaddy on the river Sitang from beyond the northern frontier of Pegu, shall be charged on passing the station of Meeaday, on the Irawaddy, or the station of on the Sitang, with a Duty of Customs of ten per centum ad valorem.

Special duty on Spirits.

Spirituous Liquors, on passing either of the said stations, shall be charged import duty at the rate of one Rupee a gallon.

Special duty on Teak.

Teak Timber, on passing either of the said stations, shall be charged import duty at such rate as shall be fixed from time to time by the Governor General of India in Council, in order to equalise the rate of duty charged on foreign Teak Timber so imported, with the price that may be fixed from time to time for permission to cut and remove Teak Timber of the same description growing in the forests of Pegu, which are State property.

Special Duty on Teak in Martaban and Tenasserim.

VII. Teak Timber floated down any river in the Martaban or Tenasserim Provinces, shall be charged with the same duty as that chargeable for the time being under Section VI. on Teak Timber passing Meeaday: and this duty shall be levied at such places on the said rivers as the Governor General of India in Council shall appoint.

Rules for Teak floated.

VIII. It shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council, in respect of the Pegu, Martaban and Tenasserim Provinces, to promulgate such rules for the time and manner of the floating of Teak Timber within the said Provinces, respectively, as may to him seem fit; and to prescribe what descriptions of Teak Timber may lawfully be floated, and what descriptions of Teak Timber may not lawfully be floated, within the said Provinces, respectively. And all Teak Timber found floating contrary to such rules or orders, shall be confiscated.

River Frontier Duty on Exports.

IX. Goods of the description specified in the Schedule annexed to this Act, exported beyond the northern frontier of Pegu by the river Irawaddy, or the river Sitang, shall be charged export duty on passing the station of Meeaday on the Irawaddy, or the station of on the Sitang, according to the rates fixed in the said Schedule; and the said Schedule shall be taken to be a part of this Act.

Valuation of Goods chargeable ad valorem.

X. The Governor General of India in Council shall have power to fix from time to time the valuation at which any article liable to ad valorem duty on passing Meeaday or shall be valued in order to the assessment of duty: and in respect of goods passing either of the said stations which are not so valued, in case of dispute respecting their value, the Collector of Customs of the station shall have power to call on the possessor of the goods to assign the value thereof; and thereupon the Collector of Customs shall have power if he pleases to purchase such goods on account of Government, at the value so assigned; paying for such goods forthwith, after deducting the duty due upon them according to the value so assigned.

Special Rule for Arms, Ammunition and Sulphur.

XI. Arms, Ammunition or Sulphur shall not be imported by Sea into the Arrakan, Pegu, Martaban or Tenasserim, Provinces; nor exported by land or by river into any Foreign Territory, from any of those Provinces; without a licence from a Collector of Customs, or other Officer having charge of the Collection of Customs: and such articles, if attempted to be so imported or exported, shall be confiscated.

No. 720 of 1854.—In order to remove the doubts which appear to exist, regarding the tenure of Brigade Commands, the Most Noble the Governor General in Council is pleased to promulgate the following rules, which have received the sanction of the Honorable the Court of Directors:

2.—The tenure of Brigade Commands is restricted to five years from the date on which each Officer enters upon the duties under the General Orders appointing him to a permanent Brigadiership, whether he be or be not entitled to Off-reckonings.

3.—In case of a Brigadier being removed on public grounds, for the interests of the Service, (or on private application,) from one station to another, he will, during the interval between making over Command at the one and assuming Command at the other, cease to draw Staff Allowance, but this period will not be reckoned within the five years' tenure.

4.—But no allowance will be made on account of absence on leave, whether under Medical certificate, or on private affairs.

5.—Under the authority of the Honorable the Court of Directors, conveyed in their letters, No. 29, of the 5th April 1837, published in Government General Order No. 154 of that year, whenever it shall appear that the continued services of any Brigadiers are indispensable to the public interests, the Government of India has the power to continue him in Command, until the decision of the Honorable Court shall be received.

6.—This regulation applies equally to the Brigadier Commandant of Artillery.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

EXHIBITION OF A NEW REVOLVING LIGHT AT NORTH RONALDSHAY, AND ALTERATION OF THE START-POINT LIGHT FROM A REVOLVING LIGHT TO A FIXED LIGHT.

I.—NORTH RONALDSHAY LIGHTHOUSE.

THE COMMISSIONERS of the NORTHERN LIGHTHOUSES hereby give Notice that a LIGHTHOUSE is being built upon the ISLAND of NORTH RONALDSHAY in ORKNEY, the Light of which will be exhibited on the Night of FRIDAY the 1st September 1854, and every night thereafter, from the going away of day-light in the evening to the return of day-light in the morning.

The following is a Description of the Lighthouse and the Appearance of the Light, by Mr. DAVID STEVENSON, Engineer to the Commissioners:—

THE LIGHTHOUSE is in N. Lat. 59° 23′ 15″, and W. Long. 2 28′ 38″; it stands on the Northern Point of the Island of North Ronaldshay, and by Compass it bears from Moul-head of Papa-Westra, W N. W. ¼ North, distance 15 nautic miles; and from Start-Point of Sanday Lighthouse, S. S. W ¼ West, distance 6½ miles.

THE NORTH RONALDSHAY LIGHT will be known to Mariners as a REVOLVING LIGHT, producing a bright flash of the natural colour once in every 10 seconds. It will be visible all round the Compass. The Lantern is elevated 140 feet above the level of the sea; and the Light will be seen at the distance of about 18 nautic miles, and at lesser distances, according to the state of the atmosphere.

II.—START-POINT LIGHTHOUSE.

THE START-POINT Light, which is 6½ miles from North Ronaldshay Light, being at present a REVOLVING LIGHT, producing a bright flash once in every minute, the COMMISSIONERS further give notice, that on and after the night of Friday the 1st September 1854, when the new Revolving Light at North Ronaldshay is to be exhibited, the present REVOLVING LIGHT at Start-point WILL BE CHANGED TO A FIXED LIGHT of the natural color.

By order of the Board,

Rangoon Post Office Notification.

Letters and Newspapers, which should be addressed to Rangoon only, are frequently directed by mistake to Pegu or Burmah, and letters, &c. intended for delivery in Pegu, Prome, Bassien and other places in the Provinces, are in like manner erroneously addressed to "Rangoon, Burmah." The Rangoon Post Master begs to notify that, with such vague directions, this Department is left to find out to which of the Stations such letters should be forwarded, and from want of information, great disappointment is felt when they are despatched to the wrong Station. To obviate this, it is desirable, that parties posting letters in Calcutta or elsewhere, should be careful to direct them to their respective Stations, and to inform their Agents and Correspondents, when leaving one place for another, of their change of address, to ensure letters being directed to the proper Station. A list of places in the Pegu Provinces or in Burmah, and their distance from Rangoon, is annexed below, viz.:

Donabew,	40	miles.
Pegu,	55	,,
Sittang,	67	,,
Shoaygyeen,	90	,,
Bassein,	95	,,
Henzada,	95	,,
Tonghoo,	130	,,
Monean,	120	,,
Thayetmyo,	200	,,
Meeaday,	205	,,
Namean,	195	,,
Prome,	200	,,
Yeagheen,	160	,,
Tapoon, Tindan, Tayngheen, Yandoon,	Below Prome.

Letters addressed to public Functionaries, whose head-quarters or residence is in Rangoon, should be addressed "Rangoon," instead of Pegu or Burmah; but if intended for delivery at other Stations, should be addressed to those Stations, the word Rangoon to be omitted.

Post Master.

Notice.

The public are informed, that in consequence of the termination of the Contract with the General Screw Steam Shipping Company, for the conveyance of the Mails to and from the Cape of Good Hope and England, it has been found necessary to revert to the route of Egypt for the transmission of Books between India and the United Kingdom, and that under the authority of Treasury Warrant, dated the 14th April 1854, this arrangement was carried into effect as regards the despatch of Books from the United Kingdom on and from the 19th idem.

In order to cover the expenses incurred in the transmission of these Books across the Isthmus of Suez, it has been decided, with concurrence of the Court of Directors of the East India Company, to increase the postage from 6*d.* to 8*d.* the half pound.

Under these circumstances above stated, this Department has been instructed to collect in future, on all Books posted in Bengal, addressed to the United Kingdom, the following rates of postage:—

	Rs.	As.	P
For each Packet not exceeding ½ lb. in weight, ...	0	5	6
Ditto exceeding ½ lb. and not exceeding 1 lb., ...	0	11	0
Ditto exceeding 1 lb. and not exceeding 2 lbs., ...	1	5	6
Ditto exceeding 2 lbs. and not exceeding 3 lbs., ...	2	0	0

The conditions under which these Books will be transmitted through the post, at the rates above-mentioned, will remain as heretofore.

Fort William. Legislative Council,

The 8th July 1854.

The following Draft of a proposed Act was read in the Legislative Council for the second time, on the 8th July 1854.

An Act to provide for the levy of Duties of Customs in the Arrakan, Pegu, Martaban and Tenasserim Provinces.

Preamble. WHEREAS it is expedient that the Arrakan, Pegu, Martaban and Tenasserim Provinces should be placed, as nearly as possible, in the same position with the Provinces of Bengal and Orissa, in respect to the levy of duties of Sea Customs; that duties of River Customs should be levied on the Northern Frontier of Pegu; that the floating down of Teak Timber, and the duties payable thereon, in certain of these Provinces, should be regulated by Law; and that the exportation of munitions of war from any of these Provinces into Foreign States should be prohibited; It is enacted as follows:

Acts repealed I. So much of Act VII. of 1848 as excepts the several ports of Arrakan and Tenasserim from the operation of Section III. of Act VI. of 1848; and so much of Sections XVIII., XIX. and XXXV. of Act I. of 1852 as relates to the said Provinces are repealed.

Duty on Imports by Sea. II. With the exceptions mentioned in Section III. of this Act, all goods imported by Sea into any part of the Arrakan, Pegu, Martaban and Tenasserim Provinces, from any Port not subject to the Government of the East India Company, or from the Port of Aden, or from any of the Ports in the Straits of Malacca, shall be charged with the same rates of duty as those which are or shall be charged on goods of the same description, imported from the same Ports, into the Provinces of Bengal or Orissa.

Special duty on Salt imported by Sea. III. Salt imported by Sea into any part of the Arrakan, Pegu, Martaban and Tenasserim Provinces, shall be charged duty at the rate of eight annas a maund: provided that it shall be, in respect to Arrakan, in the power of the Governor or Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, and in respect to Pegu, Martaban and Tenasserim in the power of the Governor General of India in Council, to fix from time to time upon Salt imported by Sea any lower rate of duty that may be thought proper, in order to equalise the rate of Customs Duty upon Salt imported by Sea into any of the said Provinces with the rate of Excise Duty on Salt manufactured in the same Province.

Special Duty on Opium imported by Sea. Opium imported by Sea into any part of the said Provinces shall be charged duty at the rate of twenty-four Rupees a seer, excepting Opium purchased at a Government Sale in Calcutta, which shall be free, provided that no Opium of any description shall be landed in the Provinces aforesaid without a pass from the Collector of Customs at the Port of landing, in default of which such Opium shall be confiscated.

Duty on Exports by Sea. IV. All goods exported by Sea from any part of the Arrakan, Pegu, Martaban and Tenasserim Provinces, to any Port not subject to the Government of the East India Company, or to the Port of Aden, or to any of the Ports in the Straits of Malacca, shall be charged with the same rates of of duty as those which are or shall be charged upon goods of the same description exported to the same Ports from the Provinces of Bengal and Orissa. Provided that when goods which have paid River Frontier import duty under Section VI. of this Act, are exported by Sea under a certificate of the Collector of River Frontier

Customs, passed by the Collector of Sea Customs, the amount of River Frontier import Duty so paid, shall be accepted in full or in part payment, as the case may be, of the Sea Export Duty chargeable under this Section.

Bengal Customs Law to apply.

V. All the laws and rules relating to the levy of duties of Customs, which are or shall be in force in the Provinces of Bengal and Orissa, shall apply to the levy of duties of Sea Customs in the Arrakan, Pegu, Martaban, and Tenasserim Provinces: provided that the powers which are or shall be vested, in the Provinces of Bengal and Orissa in the Governor or Lieutenant Governor of Bengal, shall be vested in respect of Pegu, Martaban and Tenasserim, in the Governor General of India in Council.

River Frontier Duty on Imports.

VI. All goods, excepting Bullion and Coin, Precious Stones and Pearls, Grain and Pulse, and Living Animals, which shall all be free, and excepting Spirituous Liquors and Teak Timber, for which special rules are provided; imported by the river Irawaddy on the river Sitang from beyond the northern frontier of Pegu, shall be charged on passing the station of Meeaday, on the Irawaddy, or the station of on the Sitang, with a Duty of Customs of ten per centum ad valorem. Spirituous Liquors, on passing either of the said stations, shall be charged import duty at the rate of one Rupee a gallon. Teak Timber, on passing either of the said stations, shall be charged import duty at such rate as shall be fixed from time to time by the Governor General of India in Council, in order to equalise the rate of duty charged on foreign Teak Timber so imported, with the price that may be fixed from time to time for permission to cut and remove Teak Timber of the same description growing in the forests of Pegu, which are State property.

Special duty on Spirits

Special duty on Teak.

Special Duty on Teak in Martaban and Tenasserim.

VII. Teak Timber floated down any river in the Martaban or Tenasserim Provinces, shall be charged with the same duty as that chargeable for the time being under Section VI. on Teak Timber passing Meeaday: and this duty shall be levied at such places on the said rivers as the Governor General of India in Council shall appoint.

Rules for Teak floated.

VIII. It shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council, in respect of the Pegu, Martaban and Tenasserim Provinces, to promulgate such rules for the time and manner of the floating of Teak Timber within the said Provinces, respectively, as may to him seem fit; and to prescribe what descriptions of Teak Timber may lawfully be floated, and what descriptions of Teak Timber may not lawfully be floated, within the said Provinces, respectively. And all Teak Timber found floating contrary to such rules or orders, shall be confiscated.

River Frontier Duty on Exports.

IX. Goods of the description specified in the Schedule annexed to this Act, exported beyond the northern frontier of Pegu by the river Irawaddy, or the river Sitang, shall be charged export duty on passing the station of Meeaday on the Irawaddy, or the station of on the Sitang, according to the rates fixed in the said Schedule; and the said Schedule shall be taken to be a part of this Act.

Valuation of Goods chargeable ad valorem.

X. The Governor General of India in Council shall have power to fix from time to time the valuation at which any article liable to ad valorem duty on passing Meeaday or shall be valued in order to the assessment of duty: and in respect of goods passing either of the said stations which are not so valued, in case of dispute respecting their value, the Collector of Customs of the station shall have power to call on the possessor of the goods to assign the value thereof; and thereupon the Collector of Customs shall have power if he pleases to purchase such goods on account of Government, at the value so assigned; paying for such goods forthwith, after deducting the duty due upon them according to the value so assigned.

Special Rule for Arms, Ammunition and Sulphur.

XI. Arms, Ammunition or Sulphur shall not be imported by Sea into the Arrakan, Pegu, Martaban or Tenasserim, Provinces; nor exported by land or by river into any Foreign Territory, from any of those Provinces; without a licence from a Collector of Customs, or other Officer having charge of the Collection of Customs: and such articles, if attempted to be so imported or exported, shall be confiscated.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

EXHIBITION OF A NEW REVOLVING LIGHT AT NORTH RONALDSHAY, AND ALTERATION OF THE START-POINT LIGHT FROM A REVOLVING LIGHT TO A FIXED LIGHT.

I.—NORTH RONALDSHAY LIGHTHOUSE.

THE COMMISSIONERS of the NORTHERN LIGHTHOUSES hereby give Notice that a LIGHTHOUSE is being built upon the ISLAND of NORTH RONALDSHAY in ORKNEY, the Light of which will be exhibited on the Night of FRIDAY the 1st September 1854, and every night thereafter, from the going away of day-light in the evening to the return of day-light in the morning.

The following is a Description of the Lighthouse and the Appearance of the Light, by MR. DAVID STEVENSON, Engineer to the Commissioners:—

THE LIGHTHOUSE is in N Lat. 59° 23′ 15″, and W Long 2 25′ 38″, it stands on the Northern Point of the Island of North Ronaldshay, and by Compass it bears from Moul-head of Papa-Westra, W N W ½ North, distance 15 nautic miles, and from Start-Point of Sanday Lighthouse, S. S. W ¼ West, distance 6½ miles

THE NORTH RONALDSHAY LIGHT will be known to Mariners as a REVOLVING LIGHT, producing a bright flash of the natural colour once in every 10 seconds. It will be visible all round the Compass. The Lantern is elevated 140 feet above the level of the sea, and the Light will be seen at the distance of about 18 nautic miles, and at lesser distances, according to the state of the atmosphere

II.—START-POINT LIGHTHOUSE.

THE START-POINT Light, which is 6½ miles from North Ronaldshay Light, being at present a REVOLVING LIGHT, producing a bright flash once in every minute, the COMMISSIONERS further give notice, that on and after the night of Friday the 1st September 1854, when the new Revolving Light at North Ronaldshay is to be exhibited, the present REVOLVING LIGHT at Start-point WILL BE CHANGED TO A FIXED LIGHT of the natural color.

The 14th July 1854.

The Business connected with the Calcutta Post Office having been made over exclusively to the charge of the Deputy Post Master General, the public are requested from this date to address that Officer direct, on all matters connected with that Office.

J. R. Burlton Bennett,
Post-master General of Bengal.

Calcutta,
General Post Office,
The 1st July 1854.

Notice.

The public are informed, that in consequence of the termination of the Contract with the General Screw Steam Shipping Company, for the conveyance of the Mails to and from the Cape of Good Hope and England, it has been found necessary to revert to the route of Egypt for the transmission of Books between India and the United Kingdom, and that under the authority of Treasury Warrant, dated the 14th April 1854, this arrangement was carried into effect as regards the despatch of Books from the United Kingdom on and from the 19th idem.

In order to cover the expenses incurred in the transmission of these Books across the Isthmus of Suez, it has been decided, with concurrence of the Court of Directors of the East India Company, to increase the postage from 6*d.* to 8*d.* the half pound.

Under these circumstances above stated, this Department has been instructed to collect in future, on all Books posted in Bengal, addressed to the United Kingdom, the following rates of postage:—

	Rs.	As.	P.
For each Packet not exceeding ½ lb. in weight, ...	0	5	6
Ditto exceeding ½ lb. and not exceeding 1 lb., ...	0	11	0
Ditto exceeding 1 lb. and not exceeding 2 lbs., ...	1	5	6
Ditto exceeding 2 lbs. and not exceeding 3 lbs., ...	2	0	0

The conditions under which these Books wil be transmitted through the post, at the rates above-mentioned, will remain as heretofore.

J. R. Burlton Bennett,
Post-master General of Bengal.

Rangoon Post Office Notification.

Letters and Newspapers, which should be addressed to Rangoon only, are frequently directed by mistake to Pegu or Burmah, and letters, &c. intended for delivery in Pegu, Prome, Bassien and other places in the Provinces, are in like manner erroneously addressed to "Rangoon, Burmah." The Rangoon Post Master begs to notify that, with such vague directions, this Department is left to find out to which of the Stations such letters should be forwarded, and from want of information, great disappointment is felt when they are despatched to the wrong Station. To obviate this, it is desirable, that parties posting letters in Calcutta or elsewhere, should be careful to direct them to their respective Stations, and to inform their Agents and Correspondents, when leaving one place for another, of their change of address, to ensure letters being directed to the proper Station. A list of places in the Pegu Provinces or in Burmah, and their distance from Rangoon, is annexed below, viz.:

Donabew, ...	40	miles
Pegu, ...	55	,,
Sittang, ...	67	,,
Shoaygyeen, ...	90	,,
Bassein, ...	95	,,
Henzada, ...	95	,,

Tayngheen, ...
Yandoon, ...

Letters addressed to public functionaries, whose head-quarters or residence is in Rangoon, should be addressed "Rangoon," instead of Pegu or Burmah; but if intended for delivery at other Stations, should be addressed to those Stations, the word Rangoon to be omitted.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 19, 1854.

Fort William. Legislative Council,

The 8th July 1854.

The following Draft of a proposed Act was read in the Legislative Council for the second time, on the 8th July 1854.

An Act to provide for the levy of Duties of Customs in the Arrakan, Pegu, Martaban and Tenasserim Provinces.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient that the Arrakan, Pegu, Martaban and Tenasserim Provinces should be placed, as nearly as possible, in the same position with the Provinces of Bengal and Orissa, in respect to the levy of duties of Sea Customs; that duties of River Customs should be levied on the Northern Frontier of Pegu; that the floating down of Teak Timber, and the duties payable thereon, in certain of these Provinces, should be regulated by law; and that the exportation of munitions of war from any of these Provinces into Foreign States should be prohibited; It is enacted as follows:

Acts repealed

I. So much of Act VII. of 1848 as excepts the several ports of Arrakan and Tenasserim from the operation of Section III. of Act VI. of 1848; and so much of Sections XVIII., XIX. and XXXV. of Act I. of 1852 as relates to the said Provinces are repealed.

Duty on Imports by Sea.

II. With the exceptions mentioned in Section III of this Act, all goods imported by Sea into any part of the Arrakan, Pegu, Martaban and Tenasserim Provinces, from any Port not subject to the Government of the East India Company, or from the Port of Aden, or from any of the Ports in the Straits of Malacca, shall be charged with the same rates of duty as those which are or shall be charged on goods of the same description, imported from the same Ports, into the Provinces of Bengal or Orissa.

Special duty on Salt Imported by Sea.

III. Salt imported by Sea into any part of the Arrakan, Pegu, Martaban and Tenasserim Provinces, shall be charged duty at the rate of eight annas a maund: provided that it shall be, in respect to Arrakan, in the power of the Governor or Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal, and in respect to Pegu, Martaban and Tenasserim in the power of the Governor General of India in Council, to fix from time to time upon Salt imported by Sea any lower rate of duty that may be thought proper, in order to equalise the rate of Customs Duty upon Salt imported by Sea into any of the said Provinces with the rate of Excise Duty on Salt manufactured in the same Province. Opium imported by Sea into any part of the said Provinces shall be charged duty at the rate of twenty-four Rupees a seer, excepting Opium purchased at a Government Sale in Calcutta, which shall be free; provided that no Opium of any description shall be landed in the Provinces aforesaid without a pass from the Collector of Customs at the Port of landing, in default of which such Opium shall be confiscated

Duty on Exports by Sea.

IV. All goods exported by Sea from any part of the Arrakan, Pegu, Martaban and Tenasserim Provinces, to any Port not subject to the Government of the East India Company, or to the Port of Aden, or to any of the Ports in the Straits of Malacca, shall be charged with the same rates of duty as those which are or shall be charged upon goods of the same description exported to the same Ports from the Provinces of Bengal and Orissa. Provided that when goods which have paid River Frontier import duty under Section VI. of this Act, are exported by Sea under a certificate of the Collector of River Frontier

Customs, passed by the Collector of Sea Customs, the amount of River Frontier import Duty so paid, shall be accepted in full or in part payment, as the case may be, of the Sea Export Duty chargeable under this Section.

Bengal Customs Law to apply.

V All the laws and rules relating to the levy of duties of Customs, which are or shall be in force in the Provinces of Bengal and Orissa, shall apply to the levy of duties of Sea Customs in the Arrakan, Pegu, Martaban, and Tenasserim Provinces: provided that the powers which are or shall be vested, in the Provinces of Bengal and Orissa in the Governor or Lieutenant Governor of Bengal, shall be vested in respect of Pegu, Martaban and Tenasserim, in the Governor General of India in Council.

River Frontier Duty on Imports.

VI All goods, excepting Bullion and Coin, Precious Stones and Pearls, Grain and Pulse, and Living Animals, which shall all be free, and excepting Spirituous Liquors and Teak Timber, for which special rules are provided; imported by the river Irawaddy on the river Sitang from beyond the northern frontier of Pegu, shall be charged on passing the station of Meeaday, on the Irawaddy, or the station of on the Sitang, with a

Special duty on Spirits

Duty of Customs of ten per centum ad valorem. Spirituous Liquors, on passing either of the said stations, shall be charged import duty at the rate of one Rupee a gallon. Teak

Special duty on Teak.

Timber, on passing either of the said stations, shall be charged import duty at such rate as shall be fixed from time to time by the Governor General of India in Council, in order to equalise the rate of duty charged on foreign Teak Timber so imported, with the price that may be fixed from time to time for permission to cut and remove Teak Timber of the same description growing in the forests of Pegu, which are State property.

Special Duty on Teak in Martaban and Tenasserim.

VII. Teak Timber floated down any river in the Martaban or Tenasserim Provinces, shall be charged with the same duty as that chargeable for the time being under Section VI. on Teak Timber passing Meeaday: and this duty shall be levied at such places on the said rivers as the Governor General of India in Council shall appoint.

Rules for Teak floated.

VIII. It shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council, in respect of the Pegu, Martaban and Tenasserim Provinces, to promulgate such rules for the time and manner of the floating of Teak Timber within the said Provinces, respectively, as may to him seem fit; and to prescribe what descriptions of Teak Timber may lawfully be floated, and what descriptions of Teak Timber may not lawfully be floated, within the said Provinces, respectively. And all Teak Timber found floating contrary to such rules or orders, shall be confiscated.

River Frontier Duty on Exports.

IX. Goods of the description specified in the Schedule annexed to this Act, exported beyond the northern frontier of Pegu by the river Irawaddy, or the river Sitang, shall be charged export duty on passing the station of Meeaday on the Irawaddy, or the station of on the Sitang, according to the rates fixed in the said Schedule; and the said Schedule shall be taken to be a part of this Act.

Valuation of Goods chargeable ad valorem.

X. The Governor General of India in Council shall have power to fix from time to time the valuation at which any article liable to ad valorem duty on passing Meeaday or shall be valued in order to the assessment of duty: and in respect of goods passing either of the said stations which are not so valued, in case of dispute respecting their value, the Collector of Customs of the station shall have power to call on the possessor of the goods to assign the value thereof; and thereupon the Collector of Customs shall have power if he pleases to purchase such goods on account of Government, at the value so assigned; paying for such goods forthwith, after deducting the duty due upon them according to the value so assigned.

Special Rule for Arms, Ammunition and Sulphur.

XI. Arms, Ammunition or Sulphur shall not be imported by Sea into the Arrakan, Pegu, Martaban or Tenasserim, Provinces; nor exported by land or by river into any Foreign Territory, from any of those Provinces; without a licence from a Collector of Customs, or other Officer having charge of the Collection of Customs: and such articles, if attempted to be so imported or exported, shall be confiscated.

General Post Office Notifications.

The Business connected with the Calcutta Post Office having been made over exclusiv ly to the charge of the Deputy Post Master General, the public are requested from this date to address that Officer direct, on all matters connected with that Office.

J. R. Burlton Bennett,
Post master General of Bengal.

Calcutta,
General Post Office,
The 1st July 1854.

Notice.

The public are informed, that in consequence of the termination of the Contract with the General Screw Steam Shipping Company, for the conveyance of the Mails to and from the Cape of Good Hope and England, it has been found necessary to revert to the route of Egypt for the transmission of Books between India and the United Kingdom, and that under the authority of Treasury Warrant, dated the 14th April 1854, this arrangement was carried into effect as regards the despatch of Books from the United Kingdom on and from the 19th idem.

In order to cover the expenses incurred in the transmission of these Books across the Isthmus of Suez, it has been decided, with concurrence of the Court of Directors of the East India Company, to increase the postage from 6*d.* to 8*d.* the half pound.

Under these circumstances above stated, this Department has been instructed to collect in future, on all Books posted in Bengal, addressed to the United Kingdom, the following rates of postage:—

	Rs.	As.	P
For each Packet not exceeding ½ lb. in weight, ...	0	5	6
Ditto exceeding ½ lb. and not exceeding 1 lb., ...	0	11	0
Ditto exceeding 1 lb. and not exceeding 2 lbs., ...	1	5	6
Ditto exceeding 2 lbs. and not exceeding 3 lbs., ...	2	0	0

The conditions under which these Books will be transmitted through the post, at the rates above-mentioned, will remain as heretofore.

J. R. Burlton Bennett,
Post-master General of Bengal.

Calcutta,
General Post Office,
The 15th June 1854.

Rangoon Post Office Notice.

Letters and Newspapers, which should be addressed to Rangoon only, are frequently directed by mistake to Pegu or Burmah, and letters, &c. intended for delivery in Pegu, Prome, Bassien and other places in the Provinces, are in like manner erroneously addressed to "Rangoon, Burmah." The Rangoon Post Master begs to notify that, with such vague directions, this Department is left to find out to which of the Stations such letters should be forwarded, and from want of information, great disappointment is felt when they are despatched to the wrong Station. To obviate this, it is desirable, that parties posting letters in Calcutta or elsewhere, should be careful to direct them to their respective Stations, and to inform their Agents and Correspondents, when leaving one place for another, of their change of address, to ensure letters being directed to the proper Station. A list of places in the Pegu Provinces or in Burmah, and their distance from Rangoon, is annexed below, viz.:

Donabew, ...	40	miles
Pegu, ...	55	„
Sittang, ...	67	„
Shoaygyeen, ...	90	„

Bassein, ...	95	miles
Henzada,.....	95	,,
Tonghoo,.....	130	,,
Monean, ...	120	,,
Thayetmyo,.....	200	,,
Meeaday,..... ...	205	,,

Prome, ...	200	,,
Yeagheen, ...	160	,,
Tapoon,.....
Tindan,.....	Below Prome.
Tayngheen, ...
Yandoon, ...

Letters addressed to public functionaries, whose head-quarters or residence is in Rangoon, should be addressed "Rangoon," instead of Pegu or Burmah; but if intended for delivery at other Stations, should be addressed to those Stations, the word Rangoon to be omitted.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

EXHIBITION OF A NEW REVOLVING LIGHT AT NORTH RONALDSHAY, AND ALTERATION OF THE START-POINT LIGHT FROM A REVOLVING LIGHT TO A FIXED LIGHT

I.—NORTH RONALDSHAY LIGHTHOUSE.

THE COMMISSIONERS of the NORTHERN LIGHTHOUSES hereby give Notice that a LIGHTHOUSE is being built upon the ISLAND of NORTH RONALDSHAY in ORKNEY, the Light of which will be exhibited on the Night of FRIDAY the 1st September 1854, and every night thereafter, from the going away of day-light in the evening to the return of day-light in the morning.

The following is a Description of the Lighthouse and the Appearance of the Light, by MR DAVID STEVENSON, Engineer to the Commissioners —

THE LIGHTHOUSE is in N. Lat. 59° 23′ 15″, and W Long. 2° 28′ 38″; it stands on the Northern Point of the Island of North Ronaldshay, and by Compass it bears from Moul-head of Papa-Westra, W N. W ½ North, distance 15 nautic miles; and from Start-Point of Sanday Lighthouse, S. S. W ½ West, distance 6¼ miles

THE NORTH RONALDSHAY LIGHT will be known to Mariners as a REVOLVING LIGHT, producing a bright flash of the natural colour once in every 10 seconds. It will be visible all round the Compass The Lantern is elevated 140 feet above the level of the sea; and the Light will be seen at the distance of about 18 nautic miles, and at lesser distances, according to the state of the atmosphere

II.—START-POINT LIGHTHOUSE.

THE START-POINT Light, which is 6¼ miles from North Ronaldshay Light, being at present a REVOLVING LIGHT, producing a bright flash once in every minute, the COMMISSIONERS further give notice, that on and after the night of Friday the 1st September 1854, when the new Revolving Light at North Ronaldshay is to be exhibited, the present REVOLVING LIGHT at Start-point WILL BE CHANGED TO A FIXED LIGHT of the natural color.

No 756 of 1854.—The following Notification, dated the 30th March 1854, issued by the Commissioner and Superintendent Trans-Sutlej States, is published for the guidance of Military Officers travelling in the territories under the Kangra jurisdiction.

Notification.

With a view to ensure attention to European travellers proceeding through the territory of the Rajah of Chumba, the authorities have been requested to send a respectable person to every such traveller, on his entering that territory, to ascertain his wants, and to afford him every reasonable attention and civility, while continuing in that territory.

A traveller's book will be presented along with this notification, and the traveller is hereby requested to fill in for himself, the entries indicated by the headings of its columns.

"The rate of hire to be paid to coolies, in the above territory, has been fixed by the authorities as in Kashmere, at three (3) annas for every march of ten miles, and half (½) anna additional for every one and a half mile above ten."

"Great complaints have been made, that the weights given to coolies to carry are sometimes greater than can be fairly required from them, in so hilly a country, and it is requested accordingly, that the burden allotted to a single cooly may never exceed 24 seers."

Rangoon Post Office Notice.

LETTERS and Newspapers, which should be addressed to RANGOON only, are frequently directed by mistake to Pegu or Burmah, and letters, &c. intended for delivery in Pegu, Prome, Bassien and other places in the Provinces, are in like manner erroneously addressed to "Rangoon, Burmah." The Rangoon Post Master begs to notify that, with such vague directions, this Department is left to find out to which of the Stations such letters should be forwarded, and from want of information, great disappointment is felt when they are despatched to the wrong Station. To obviate this, it is desirable, that parties posting letters in Calcutta or elsewhere, should be careful to direct them to their respective Stations, and to inform their Agents and Correspondents, when leaving one place for another, of their change of address, to ensure letters being directed to the proper Station. A list of places in the Pegu Provinces or in Burmah, and their distance from Rangoon, is annexed below, viz.:

Donabew,	40 miles.
Pegu,	55 ,,
Sittang,	67 ,,
Shoaygyeen,	90 ,,
Bassein,	95 miles.
Henzada,	95 ,,
Tonghoo,	130 ,,

Meeaday,	205 ,,
Namean,	195 ,,
Prome,	200 ,,
Yeagheen,	160 ,,
Tapoon, Tindan, Taryngheen, Yandoon,	Below Prome.

Letters addressed to public functionaries, whose head-quarters or residence is in Rangoon, should be addressed "Rangoon," instead of Pegu or Burmah; but if intended for delivery at other Stations, should be addressed to those Stations, the word Rangoon to be omitted.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

EXHIBITION OF A NEW REVOLVING LIGHT AT NORTH RONALDSHAY, AND ALTERATION OF THE START-POINT LIGHT FROM A REVOLVING LIGHT TO A FIXED LIGHT.

I.—NORTH RONALDSHAY LIGHTHOUSE.

THE COMMISSIONERS of the NORTHERN LIGHTHOUSES hereby give Notice that a LIGHTHOUSE is being built upon the ISLAND of NORTH RONALDSHAY in ORKNEY, the Light of which will be exhibited on the Night of FRIDAY the 1st September 1854, and every night thereafter, from the going away of day-light in the evening to the return of day-light in the morning.

The following is a Discription of the Lighthouse and the Appearance of the Light, by Mr. DAVID STEVENSON, Engineer to the Commissioners:—

THE LIGHTHOUSE is In N. Lat. 59° 23′ 15″, and W. Long 2° 23′ 38″; it stands on the Northern Point of the Island of North Ronaldshay, and by Compass it bears from Moul-head of Papa-Westra, W N. W. ½ North, distance 15 nautic miles; and from Start-Point of Sanday Lighthouse, S. S. W ½ West, distance 6½ miles

THE NORTH RONALDSHAY LIGHT will be known to Mariners as a REVOLVING LIGHT, producing a bright flash of the natural colour once in every 10 seconds. It will be visible all round the Compass. The Lantern is elevated 140 feet above the level of the sea; and the Light will be seen at the distance of about 18 nautic miles, and at lesser distances, according to the state of the atmosphere

II.—START-POINT LIGHTHOUSE.

THE START-POINT Light, which is 6½ miles from North Ronaldshay Light, being at present a REVOLVING LIGHT, producing a bright flash once in every minute, the COMMISSIONERS further give notice, that on and after the night of Friday the 1st September 1854, when the new Revolving Light at North Ronaldshay is to be exhibited, the present REVOLVING LIGHT at Start-point WILL BE CHANGED TO A FIXED LIGHT of the natural color.

NOTIFICATION.—The following Despatch received from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors by the last Mail, together with the papers therein referred to, is published for general information, with reference to the Notification of the 14th March last.

By order of the Most Noble the Governor General in Council,

C. ALLEN,
Offg. Secy. to the Govt. of India.

PUBLIC DEPARTMENT,

No. 37 OF 1854

Our Governor General of India in Council.

With reference to our Despatch to the Government of India in this Department, No. 2, dated 18th January last, we forward for your information, and in view to your giving such circulation to them as you may deem requisite, 20 copies of two papers, one containing the General Regulations for the Management of the French Exhibition in 1855, and the other a summary of the conditions upon which the Exhibition will be conducted

PARIS EXHIBITION OF 1855.—No. 2.

BRIEF SUMMARY OF THE CONDITIONS UPON WHICH THE EXHIBITION WILL BE CONDUCTED.

THE decrees and regulations issued by the Imperial Commission of France give full information as to the principles upon which the Imperial Government propose to conduct the Exhibition of 1855, and an attentive perusal of them is recommended to all those who desire to co-operate in securing a fair representation of British Industry on that occasion.

Those regulations appear to be conceived in the most equitable and liberal spirit; and there is no doubt that that spirit will be met in a becoming manner by the Manufacturers and other Producers of the British Empire and her Colonies.

It may be useful to sum up briefly the principal conditions upon which the Exhibition will be conducted, comprising the assistance offered to Exhibitors by the French Commission, and that which the British authorities are empowered to offer.

1. The Exhibition will open in Paris on the 1st May, 1855.
2. The French Commission will communicate only with Exhibitors from Foreign Countries through the Commission appointed by each country for that purpose.
3. No Articles will be admitted from Foreign Countries except with the sanction of such Foreign Commission.
4. Every Article produced or obtained by human industry, whether of Raw Materials, Machinery, Manufactures, or Fine Arts, is admissible, except—
   - i. Living animals and plants.
   - ii. Substances liable to become putrid from keeping
   - iii. Detonating and other dangerous substances.
   - iv. Articles of extravagant size.

5. All goods must reach Paris between the 15th January and 15th March 1855, which period may, in a few exceptional cases, be extended to the 15th April.

6. The French Commission offers to convey all goods from the French ports or frontiers to the building in Paris without charge.

7. No charge will be made for rent.

8. Exhibitors and their Agents will be admitted free to the building during the whole period of the Exhibition.

9. Plain counters and partitions will be provided without charge.

10. The French Commission will find labourers for unpacking, transporting, and arranging goods under the direction of Exhibitors or their Agents.

11. The French Commission will provide shafting, steam, or water-pressure for Machines in motion.

12. Exhibitors will be responsible for accidents, loss or damage, but the fullest precautions are promised against such events.

13. The current trade price may be affixed to any goods if the Exhibitors desire it.

14. Goods may be exhibited in bond, and no duty will be charged if re-exported.

15. Exhibited goods at present prohibited by the French Tariff may be admitted for consumption in France at an ad valorem duty of 20 per cent.

16. Arrangements will be made to insure one year's protection to designs and inventions if exhibited, without cost to the Exhibitor.

17. The goods will be examined by an international Jury, and rewards given, the nature of which will be published.

18. The British authorities will undertake all expenses of general organization and management, and will defray the expenses of the transport and custom-house agency of all goods delivered within a specified time.

19. A sufficient Staff will be provided for giving that attention to the goods of Exhibitors which was undertaken by the Commissioners for the Exhibition of 1851.

20. The expenses, which must in every case fall upon Exhibitors, will be—

i. The carriage of the goods from the manufactory or residence of the Exhibitor to London.

ii. The expense of glass-cases, shelves, brackets, awnings, hangings, or decorations of the stalls, which must all be undertaken under such restrictions as the Officers of the French Commission may impose for the sake of the general arrangements or appearance of the Exhibition.

iii. The unpacking, arrangement, and general care of the goods during the Exhibition, except as far as provided by paragraph 19.

21. Demands for space are to be sent in before the 1st of July, if possible, and in no case later than the 1st of August.

Forms of applications for space and other information may be had on application to the undersigned.

DECRETS, REGLEMENT, ET INSTRUCTIONS.

DECRETS.

NAPOLEON, par la grace de Dieu et la volonte nationale EMPEREUR DES FRANCAIS, à tous presents et à venir, SALUT.

Sur le rapport de notre Ministre secretaire d'Etat au département de l'intérieur,

AVONS DECRETE et DECRETONS ce qui suit :

ARTICLE PREMIER.—Une exposition universelle des produits agricoles et industriels s'ouvrira a Paris, dans le palais de l'Industrie, au carre de Marigny, le 1er mai 1855, et sera close le 30 septombre suivant (1).

Les produits de toutes les nations seront admis a cette exposition.

2.—L'exposition quinquennale qui, aux termes de l'article 5 de l'ordonnance du 4 Octobre 1853, devait s'ouvrir le 1er mai 1854, sera reunie a l'exposition universelle.

3. Un decret ulter eur determinera les conditions dans lesquelles se fera l'exposition universelle, le regime sous lequel seront placees les merchandises exposees, et les divers genres de produits susceptibles d'etre admis.

4.—Notre Ministre secrétaire d'Etat au département de l'interieur est chargé de l'exécution du present decret.

Fait au Palais das Tuileries, le 8 mars 1853.

Le Ministre Secretaire d'Etat au departement de l'intérieur,

Signe : F. DE PERSIGNY.

NAPOLEON, par la grace de Dieu et la volonte nationale EMPEREUR DES FRANCAIS, a tous presents et a venir, SALUT ;

Considerant qu'un das moyens les plus efficaces de contribuer au progres des arts est une exposition universelle, qui, en ouvrant un concours entre tous les artistes du monde, et en mettant au regard tant d'œuvres diverses, doit etre un puissant motif d'émulation, et offrir une source de comparaisons fécondes ;

(1) La clôture de l'exposition a été prorogée au 31 octobre. (Voi article 1, § 2, du Reglement général.)

IMPERIAL COMMISSION.

DECREES, REGULATIONS, AND INSTRUCTIONS.

DECREES.

NAPOLEON, by the grace of God, and the national will, EMPEROR OF THE FRENCH, to all whom these presents may concern, greeting :

On the report of our Minister, Secretary of State for the department of the Interior :

WE HAVE DECREED AND DO HEREBY DECREE as follows :

ART. 1.—A Universal Exhibition of agricultural and manufacturing products will be opened at Paris, in the Place of Industry on the Carre de Marigny, on the 1st May, 1855, and will close on the 30th of September, following(1).

The products of all nations will be admitted to this Exhibition.

ART. 2.—The quinquennial exhibition, which, by the terms of Art, 5 of the ordonance of the 4th of October, 1853, was to open on the 1st May, 1854, will be united to the Universal Exhibition.

ART. 3.—An ulterior decree will fix the conditions in which the Universal Exhibition will take place, the regulations under which the goods exhibited will be placed, and the various kinds of objects capable of being admitted.

ART. 4.—Our Minister, Secretary of State for the department of the Interior, is charged with the execution of the present decree.

Given at the Place of the Tuileries, this 8th of March, 1853.

Signed : NAPOLEON.

Countersigned : F. DE PERSIGNY,

Minister, Secretary of State for the Interior.

NAPOLEON, by the grace of God, and the national will, EMPEROR OF THE FRENCH, to all whom these presents may concern, greeting :

Considering that one of the most efficient means of contributing to the progress of the arts is a Universal Exhibition, which, by throwing open a competition amongst all the artists of the world, and by placing so many various works in face of each other, ought to be a powerful motive to emulation, and present an occasion for fruitful comparisons ;

(1) The fixed date for the closing of the Exhibition has been extended to October 31. (Vide Ar. 1 of the General Regulations.)

Considérant que les perfectionnements de l'industrie sont étroitement liés a ceux des beaux-arts ;

Que cependant toutes les expositions des produits industriels qui ont eu lieu jusqu'ici n'ont admis les œuvres des artistes que dans une proportion insuffisante ;

Qu'il appartient specialement ala France, dont l'industrie doit tant aux beaux-arts, de leur aseigner, dans la prochaine exposition universelle, la place qu'ils meritent ;

AVONS DECRETE et DECRETONS ce qui suit :

ARTICLE PREMIRE.—Une exposition universelle des beaux-arts aura lieu a Paris en meme temps que l'exposition universelle de l'industrie.

Le local destine a cette exposition sera ulterieurement designe.

2.—L'exposition annuelle des beaux-arts de 1854 est renvoyee a 1855, et réunie à l'exposition universelle.

3.—Notre Ministre d'Etat est charge de l'execution du present decret

Fait au Palais de de Saint-Cloud, le 22 juin 1853.

Signe : NAPOLEON.

Par l'Empereur :

Le Ministre d'Etat,

Signe : ACHILLE FOULD.

NAPOLEON, par la grace de Dieu et la volonte nationale EMPEREUR DES FRANCAIS, a tous présents et à venir, SALUT ;

Sur le rapport de notre Ministre secretaire d'Etat au département de l'agriculture, du commerce, et des travaux publics :

Vu nos décrets des 8 mars et 22 juin derniers, portant qu'il sera ouvert a Paris, le 1re mai 1855, une exposition universelle des produits de l'agriculture, do l'industrie, et des beaux-arts ;

AVONS DECRETE et DECRETONS ce que suit :

ARTICLE PREMIER.—L'exposition universelle des produits de l'agriculture, de l'industrie, et des beaux-arts, est placee sous la direction et la surveillance d'une Commission, qui sera presidee par notre bien-aime cousin le prince Napoleon.

2.—Sont nommes membres de cette Commission :

MM. Baroche, president du Conseil d'Etat ;
Elie de Beaumont, sénateur, membre de l'Institut ;

Considering that improvements in manufactures are closely connected with high perfection in the Fine-Arts ;

That, however, all the exhibitions of industrial products, which have been hitherto held, have admitted the works of artists in only a very insufficient proportion.

That besides it belongs especially to France, whose manufactures owe so much to the Fine-Arts, to assign to them in the coming Universal Exhibition, the place which they merit ;

WE HAVE DECREED AND DO HEREBY DECREE, as follows :

ART. 1.—A Universal Exhibition of the Fine-Arts will be held at Paris, at the same time as the Universal Exhibition of Industry.

The building, in which this Exhibition is to take place, will be designated hereafter.

ART. 2.—The annual exhibition of the Fine-Arts of 1854 is postponed to 1855, and united with the Universal Exhibition.

ART. 3.—Our Minister of State is charged with the execution of the present decree.

Given at the palace of Saint-Cloud, this 22nd of June, 1853.

Signed : NAPOLEON.

Countersigned : ACHILLE FOULD,
Minister of State.

The Imperial Commission assembled for the first time on the 29th of December 1853 at the Palais-Royal, Prince Napoleon presiding. His Imperial Highness, after reading the decrees instituting the Commission, delivered the following address :

MESSIEURS,

L'Empereur nous confie une noble et honorable mission, en nous chargeant d'organiser ce grand concours dans lequel la France se montrera digne d'elle-meme, par l'empressement que ses artistes et ses industriels mettront a repondre a l'appel qui leur est fait.

Notre devoir, vis-a-vis des etrangers, est de les recevoir avec un large et bienveillante hospitalite.

Toutes les opinions, en matiere d'economie politique, sont representees dans notre reunion, non pour se livrer a des discussions steriles en dehors de notre mission, mais pour concourir, avec une egale ardeur, quel que soit leur point de vue, a la reussite de cette œuvre qui doit illustrer la France et l'Europe du dixneuvieme siecle.

Sur ce point, Messieurs, nous devons etre tous d'accord.

L'Empereur a temoigne sa haute impartialite en reunissant en un meme faisceau les sommites de la politique, des sciences, des arts, de l'industrie, et du commerce.

Pour la premiere fois, a une exposition universelle de l'industrie, se trouvera reunie une exposition universelle des beaux arts.

Il appartient a notre pays de donner l'exemple de cette alliance, qui va si bien a son genie initiateur.

J'espere, Messieurs, que la confiance la plus entiere presidera a nos rapports, et je vous demande pour votre President une indulgence dont il a besoin.

Sentant mon insuffisance pour la grande mission que la confiance de l'Empereur a bien voulu me donner, j'y apporterai au moins le zele le plus ardent et la ferme volonte de bien faire, cette premiere condition du succes.

Les questions que nous aurons a resoudre sont nombreuses et compliquees ; elles touchent a une multitude d'interets divers. Je me propose de les soumettre a votre decision successivement, et a mesure qu'elles se presenteront, pour ne pas nous surcharger inutilement des le commencement de nos travaux.

Ils se divisent naturellement en deux grandes parties : les decrets que nous avons a provoquer de la part de Sa Majeste, les questions que nous avons a resoudre de notre propre autorite.

En execution du decret, notre premiere operation doit etre la nomination du vice-president de la Commission generale, et des deux vice-presidents des sections de l'industrie et des beaux-arts.

Je vous demanderai ensuite de vouloir bien m'adjoindre une Sous-Commission, pour m'aider dans l'execution des mesures que vous aurez prises. Les affaires ne peuvent se resoudre d'une façon pratique que par un petit nombre de personnes pouvant y consacrer leur aptitude speciale et leur temps.

La premiere question a examiner par cette Sous-Commission sera la preparation d'un reglement interier, pour la prompte expedition des nombreuses affaires que nous aurons a regler.

DECRET.

NAPOLEON, per la grace de Dieu et la volonte nationale, EMPEREUR DES FRANCAIS, a tous presents et a venir, salut :

Vu le projet de reglement general propose per la Commission imperiale concernant l'exposition universelle des produits de l'agriculture, de l'industrie, et des beaux-arts,

AVONS DECRETE et DECRETONS ce qui suit :

Le projet de reglement general pour l'exposition universelle, annexe au present, demeure approuve.

Fait au palais des Tuileries, le 6 avril 1854.

REGLEMENT GENERAL.

DISPOSITIONS GENERALES.

Art. 1. L'exposition universelle, instituee a Paris pour l'annee 1855, recevra les produits agricoles et industriels, ainsi que les œuvres d'art de toutes les nations.

GENTLEMEN,

The Emperor confides to us a noble and honorable mission, when he charges us to organize this grand competition, in which France will show herself worthy of her name, by the eagerness with which her artists and her manufacturers will respond to the appeal which is made to them.

Our duty towards foreigners is to receive them with a liberal and kind-hearted hospitality.

All opinions in matters of political economy are represented in our body, not for the purpose of entering into fruitless discussions, which are foreign to our mission, but of co-operating with equal ardour, whatever may be their point of view, in the success of this work, which is calculated to throw so great a lustre on the France and Europe of the nineteenth century.

On that point, Gentlemen, there cannot be any difference of opinion amongst us.

The Emperor has testified his high impartiality in assembling in the same body the leading men in politics, science, arts, manufactures, and commerce.

For the first time, an Universal Exhibition of the Fine-Arts will be adjoined to an Universal Exhibition of Industry.

It belongs to our country to set the example of this alliance, which is so well suited to our initiatory genius.

I hope, Gentlemen, that the most entire confidence will preside over our relations, and I ask you to grant me, as your President, that indulgence of which I stand in need.

Feeling my insufficiency for the great mission which the confidence of the Emperor has been pleased to confer on me, I shall at least devote to it my most ardent zeal and the firm determination to act for the best, which is the first condition of success.

The questions which we shall have to solve are numerous and complicated, and are connected with a multitude of diversified interests, I propose to submit them to your decision successively, as they will present themselves, in order not to overburden ourselves uselessly at the commencement of our labours.

They naturally divide themselves into two great parts : —the questions which may call for decrees on the part of His Majesty, and those which we can solve on our own authority.

In execution of the decree which has been published, our first operation is the nomination of the Vice-President of the general Commission, and of the two Vice-Presidents of the sections of Manufactures and of the Fine-Arts.

I shall afterwards request you to appoint a sub-commission to assist me in the execution of the measures which you shall have decided on. Business can only be got through in a practical manner by a small number of persons devoting to it their special aptitude and their time.

The first question to occupy the attention of that sub-commission will be to draw up a series of regulations for the prompt despatch of the numerous affairs which we shall have to decide on.

The general regulations, framed by the Imperial Commission for the management of the Universal Exhibition, were approved of by the following decree :

NAPOLEON, by the grace of God, and the national will, EMPEROR OF THE FRENCH, to all whom these presents may concern, greeting :

Considering the draft of the general regulations proposed by the Imperial Commission for the Universal Exhibition of the products of Agriculture, Industry, and the Fine-Arts ;

WE HAVE DECREED AND DO HEREBY DECREE, as follows :

The general regulations for the Universal Exhibition, annexed to the present decree, are hereby approved of.

Given at the Palace of the Tuileries, this 6th of April, 1854.

Signed : NAPOLEON.

Countersigned ACHILLE FOULD,
Minister of State.
P. MAGNE,
Minister, Secretary of State for Agriculture, Commerce, and Public Works.

GENERAL REGULATIONS.

GENERAL ARRANGEMENTS.

Art. 1.—The Universal Exhibition, appointed to be held at Paris in the year 1855, will receive the agricultural and manufacturing products, as well as the works of art, of all nations.

Elle s'ouvrira 1er mai et sera close le 31 octobre de la meme annee.

Art. 2. L'exposition universelle de 1855 est placee sous la direction et la surveillance de la Commission imperiale nommee par decret du 24 decembre 1853.

Art. 3. Dans chaque departement, un comite, nomme par le Prefet d'apres les instructions de la Commission imperiale, sera charge de prendre toutes les mesures utiles au succes de l'exposition, et de statuer, en temps opportun, sur l'admission et le rejet des produits presentes.

Il sera etabli en outre, si la Commission imperiale le juge necessaire, des sous-comites locaux ou des agents speciaux, dans toutes les villes et centres industriels ou le besoin en sera reconnu.

Art. 4. Des instructions speciales seront adressees, au nom de la Commission imperiale, a MM. les Ministres de la guerre et de la marine, pour l'organisation du concours de l'Algerie et des colonies francaises a l'exposition.

Art. 5. Les Gouvernements etrangers seront invites a etablir, pour le choix, l'examen, et l'envoi des produits de leurs nationaux, des comites dont la formation et la composition seront notifiees, le plus tot possible, a la Commission imperiale, afin qu'elle puisse se mettre immediatement en rapport avec ses comites.

Art. 6. Les comites departementaux, ainsi que les comites etrangers, autorises par leurs Gouvernements respectifs, correspondront directement avec la Commission imperiale, qui s'interdit toute correspondance avec les exposants ou autres particuliers tant français qu'etrangers

Art. 7. Le Français ou les etrangers qui se proposent de concourir a l'exposition devront s'adresser au comite du departement, de la colonie, ou du pays qu'ils habitent.

Les etrangers residant en France pourront s'adresser aux comites officiels de leurs pays respectifs.

Art. 8. Nul produit ne sera admis a l'exposition, s'il n'est envoye avec l'autorisation et sous le cachet des comites departementaux ou des comites etrangers.

Art. 9. Les comites etrangers et departementaux feront connaitre, aussitot que possible, le nombre presume des exposants de leur circonscription, et l'espace dont ils croiront avoir besoin.

Art. 10. Sur cette communication, la Commission imperiale fera, sans delai, operer la repartition de l'emplacement general, au prorata des demandes, entre la France et les autres nations.

Art. 11. Cette repartition operee, notification en sera immediatement faite aux comites français et etrangers, qui auront eux-memes a sub-diviser, entre les exposants de leurs circonscriptions, l'espace ainsi determine.

Art. 12. Les listes des exposants admis devront etre adressees a la Commission imperiale, au plus tard, le 30 novembre 1854.

Elles indiqueront :

1°. Les noms, prenoms (ou la raison sociale), profession, domicile, ou residence des requerants ;

2°. La nature et le nombre ou la quantite des produits qu'ils desirent exposer ;

3°. L'espace qui leur est necessaire a cet effet, en hauteur, largeur et profondeur.

Ces listes, ainsi que les autres documents venant de l'etranger, devront, autant que possible, etre accompagnes d'une traduction en langue française.

ADMISSION ET CLASSIFICATION DES PRODUITS.

Art 13. Sont admissibles a l'exposition universelle tous les produits de l'agriculture, de l'industrie, et de l'art, autres que ceux qui se classent dans les categories ci-apres :

1°. Les animaux et les plantes, a l'etat vivant ;

2°. Les matieres vegetales et animales, a l'etat frais et susceptibles d'alteration ;

3°. Les matieres detonantes, et generalement toutes les substances qui seraient reconnues dangereuses ;

4°. Et enfin, les produits qui depasseraient, par leur quantite, le but de l'exposition.

Art. 14. Les esprits ou alcohols, les huiles et essences, les acides et les sels corrosifs, et generalement les corps facilement inflammables ou de nature a produire l'incendie, ne seront admis a l'exposition que renfermes dans des vases solides et parfaitement clos ; let proprietaires de ces produits devront d'ailleurs se conformer aux mesures de surete qui leur seront prescrites.

Art. 15. La Commission imperiale aura le droit d'eliminer et d'exclure, sur la proposition des agents competents, les produits francais qui lui paraitraient nuisibles ou incompatibles avec le but de l'exposition, et ceux qui auraient ete envoyes au-dela des exigences et des convenances de l'exposition.

It will open on the 1st of May, and will close on 31st of October of the same year.

Art. 2.—The Universal Exhibition of 1855 is placed under the direction of the Imperial Commission, nominated by the decree of the 24th of December 1853.

Art. 3.—In every department, a committee, nominated by the Prefet, in accordance with the instructions of the Imperial Commission, will be charged with the necessary measures for the success of the Exhibition, and with the admission and rejection, in proper time, of the articles presented.

There shall also be appointed, should the Imperial Commission deem it necessary, local sub-committees or special agents, in every town and centre of industry, where the necessity of them may be felt.

Art. 4.—Special instructions will be addressed, in the name of the Imperial Commission, to the Ministers of War and Marine, for the exhibition of the products of Algeria and of the French colonies.

Art. 5.—The various foreign Governments will be invited to appoint, for the examination, selection, and transmission of their national products, committees, the formation and composition of which should be notified as soon as possible to the Imperial Commission, in order that it may immediately place itself in communication with such committees.

Art. 6.—The departmental committees, as well as the foreign committees authorized by their respective Governments, will correspond directly with the Imperial Commission, which will not hold any correspondence whatever with the exhibitors themselves, or with other private persons, either French or Foreigners.

Art. 7.—Such French subjects or Foreigners, as intend exhibiting, should apply to the committee of the department, colony, or country which they inhabit.

Foreigners, residing in France, may apply to the official committees of their respective countries.

Art. 8.—No article will be admitted to the Exhibition, if not sent with the authorization, and under the seal of the departmental or Foreign committees.

Art. 9.—The Foreign and departmental committees should make known, as soon as possible, the presumed number of exhibitors in their division, and the space which it is supposed they will require.

Art. 10.—On receipt of that intimation, the Imperial Commission will, without delay, proceed to the division of the general space amongst France and the other countries, in proportion to the demands sent in.

Art. 11.—When that division has been effected, notice of the same will be immediately sent to the French and Foreign committees, who will then have to sub-divide the space thus allotted to them amongst the exhibitors of their divisions.

Art. 12.—The lists of the exhibitors who are admitted must be sent to the Imperial Commission, by the 30th of November, 1854, at the latest.

These lists ought to mention :

1st. The names, christian names (or name of firm), profession and address of the parties applying ;

2nd. The nature and number, or quantity of the articles which they desire to exhibit ;

3rd. The space which they require in height, width, and depth.

These lists, as well as all other documents coming from Foreign countries, ought, as much as possible, to be accompanied by a translation into French.

ADMISSION AND CLASSIFICATION OF PRODUCTS.

Art. 13.—All the products of Agriculture, Manufactures, and Art are admissible to the Universal Exhibition, with the exception of those included in the following categories :

1st. Living animals and plants ;

2nd. Vegetable and animal substances in a fresh state, and of a nature liable to be spoiled from keeping ;

3rd. Detonating substances, and, in general, all such as may be considered dangerous ;

4th. And, finally, such objects, as, by their bulk, do not come within the scope of the Exhibition.

Art. 14.—Spirits or alcohols, oils and essences, acids and corrosive salts, and generally bodies easily inflammable, or of a nature to lead to combustion, will only be admitted to the Exhibition when contained in solid and perfectly closed vessels : the owners of such articles will, besides, be bound to conform to such measures of safety as may be prescribed to them.

Art. 15.—The Imperial Commission will have the right of excluding, on the proposition of the competent agents, such French objects as may appear to it injurious or incompatible with the object of the Exhibition, and of diminishing those which have been sent in excess of the requirements or accommodation of the Exhibition.

Art. 16 (1). Les produits formeront deux divisions distinctes : les produits de l'industrie et les œuvres d'art ; ils seront distribuées pour chaque pays, en huit groupes, comprenant trente classes, savoir :

Reception and placing of goods.

Art. 17.—The various objects, both French and Foreign, will be received at the Exhibition-Palace, from the 15th of January to the 15th of March, 1855, inclusively.

(1) A document entitled System of Classification, and specifying the division of all branches of manufactures and of all the arts, of their raw materials, their means of action and their products, amongst the thirty sections established in this article, will be published hereafter.

Toutefois, il pourra etre accorde un delai supplementair pour les articles manufactures susceptibles de souffrir d'un trop long emballage, a la condition que les dispositions necessaires pour leur exposition aient ete preparees a l'avance. Ce delai, en aucun cas, ne depassera le 15 avril.

Les produits lourds et encombrants, ou tous autres qui exigeraient des travaux considerables d'installation, devront etre envoyes avant la fin de fevrier.

Art 18. Les comites de chaque pays ou de chaque departement français sont invites a expedier, autant que possible, en un meme envoi, les produits de leur circonscription.

Art 19. L'envoi de chaque exposant, qu'il soit expedie avec ceux des autres exposants ou isolement, devra etre accompagne du bulletin d'admission delivre par l'autorite competente. Ce bulletin, en triple expedition, redige comme il est dit a l'article 12, portera, en outre, le nombre et le poids des colis, ainsi que le detail et les prix de chacun des articles composant l'envoi.

Des modeles de ce bulletin seront addresses a tous les comites français et etrangers.

Art 20 Les produits français destines a l'exposition universelle seront expedies des lieux designes par les comites departementaux et coloniaux et reexpedies de Paris aux memes lieux, aux frais de l'Etat.

Les produits etrangers ayant la meme destination seront egalement amenes aux frais de l'Etat, mais seulement a partir de la frontiere, et reexpedies dans les memes conditions.

Art. 21. Ils seront adresses au Commissaire du Classement, au palais de l'exposition.

Art. 22. L'adresse de chaque colis destine a l'exposition devra porter, en caracteres lisibles et apparents, l'indication—

Du lieux d'expedition,
Du nom de l'exposant,
De la nature des produits inclus.

MODELE D'ADRESSE.

A Monsieur le Commissaire du Classement

de l'Exposition universelle.

Au Palais de l'Exposition—PARIS.

Envoi de (noms et prenoms de l'exposant ou raison sociale), demeurant a (residence ou siege de l'etablissement), exposant de (nature du produit).

Art. 23. Les colis contenant les produits de plusieurs exposants devront porter sur l'adresse les noms de tous ces exposants, et etre accompagnes d'un bulletin d'admission pour chacun d'eux.

Art. 24. Les exposants sont invites a ne pas expedier separement de colis ayant moins d'un demi-metre cube, et a reunir sous un meme emballage, a d'autre colis de la meme classe, ceux qui seraient au dessous de cette dimension.

Art. 25. L'admission des produits a l'exposition sera gratuite.

Art. 26. Les exposants ne seront assujettis a aucune espece de retribution, soit pour location ou peage, soit a tout autre titre, pendant la duree de l'exposition.

Art. 27. La Commission imperiale pourvoira a la manutention, au placement, et a l'arrangement des produits dans l'interieur du palais de l'exposition, ainsi qu'aux travaux necessites par la mise en mouvement des machines.

Art. 28.—Les tables ou comptoirs, les planchers, clotures, barrieres, et divisions entre les diverses classes de produits, seront fournis gratuitement.

Art. 29. Les arrangements et amenagements particuliers, tels que gradins, tablettes, supports, suspensions, vitrines, draperies, tentures, peintures, et ornements, seront a la charge des exposants.

Art. 30. Ces arrangements, dispositions, et ornementations ne pourront etre executes que comformement au plan general et sous la surveillance des inspecteurs, qui determineront la hauteur et la forme des devantures des etalages, ainsi que la couleur de la peinture, des tentures, et des draperies.

Nevertheless, a supplementary delay will be accorded for such manufactured articles as are likely to suffer from being too long packed up, on condition that the arrangements necessary for their exhibition shall have been made beforehand. That delay cannot in any case extend beyond the 15th of April.

Heavy and cumbersome articles, or any others, the placing of which would require considerable labour, must be sent before the end of February.

Art. 18.—The committees of each country and of each French department are requested to send, as much as possible, in one consignment, the products of their divisions.

Art. 19.—The consignment of each exhibitor, whether sent with those of other exhibitors or separately, must be accompanied by a bulletin of admission delivered by the competent authority. This bulletin, drawn up in triplicate and in the form prescribed by Art. 12, must likewise contain the number and weight of the several packages, as well as the particulars, and price of every article composing the consignment.

Forms of these bulletins will be sent to all the committees, French and Foreign.

Art. 20.—The French objects intended for the Universal Exhibition will be forwarded from the places appointed for the purpose by the departmental and Colonial committees, and taken back from Paris to the same places, at the expense of the State.

Foreign articles, having the same destination, will likewise be conveyed to Paris at the cost of the State, but only from the French frontier, and will be sent back under the same conditions.

Art. 21.—They must be addressed to the Commissioner of Arrangement at the Exhibition-Palace.

Art. 22.—The address of each package, destined for the Exhibition, ought to indicate, in clear and legible characters—

I. The place from which it comes,
II. The name of the exhibitor,
III. The nature of the contents.

FORM OF ADDRESS.

A Monsieur le Commissaire du Classement

de l'Exposition universelle.

Au Palais de l'Exposition—PARIS.

Envoi de (here come the name and christian names of the person sending, or the name of the firm), demeurant a (residence, or seat of the establishment), exposant de (nature of the articles exhibited).

Art. 23.—Packages containing articles sent by several exhibitors must have the names of all those exhibitors inscribed on the address, and be accompanied by a separate bulletin of admission for each of them.

Art. 24.—Exhibitors are requested not to send separately packages of less dimensions than half a cubic metre, but to place in the same packing-case with other packages of the same class, such as come within these dimensions.

Art. 25.—The admission of all articles to the Exhibition will be gratuitous.

Art. 26.—Exhibitors will not be subjected to payments of any kind, either for entrance, or space, or on any other pretext whatever, during the whole time of the Exhibition.

Art. 27.—The Imperial Commission will provide for the moving, placing, and arranging of articles in the interior of the Exhibition-Palace; also, for the works necessary to set the machinery in motion.

Art. 28.—Tables, counters, flooring, enclosures, barriers, and partitions between the various sections of products, will be furnished gratuitously.

Art. 29.—All particular arrangements, such as stands, shelves, supports, suspenders, glass-cases, hangings, awnings, paintings, and ornaments will be at the charge of the exhibitors.

Art. 30.—These dispositions, arrangements and ornamentations can only be executed in conformity with the general plan and under the superintendence of inspectors, who will determine the height and form of the front of the stalls, and likewise the colour of the painting, hangings and draperies.

Art. 31. Des entrepreneurs, indiques ou acceptes par la Commission imperiale, se tiendront a la disposition des exposants. Leurs memoires, si l'exposant le desire, seront regles par des agents designes a cet effet.

Neanmoins les exposants pourront employer, avec l'autorisation de la Commission, tels ouvriers qu'ils jugeront convenables.

Art. 32. Les industriels qui desireront exposer des machines ou autres objets d'un poids ou volume considerable, et dont l'installation exigera des fondations ou des constructions particulieres, devront en faire la declaration sur leur demande d'inscription.

Art. 33. Ceux dont les machines devront etre mues a la vapeur, ceux qui exposeront des fontaines jaillissantes ou des pieces hydrauliques, devront le declarer en temps convenable, et indiquer la quantite et la pression d'eau ou de vapeur que leur sera necessaire.

Art. 34. Les produits seront disposes par nations dans l'ordre de la classification indiquee a l'article 16. Neanmoins, les produits divers d'un individu, d'une corporation, d'une ville, d'un departement, ou d'une colonie, pourront, avec l'autorisation du comite d'execution, etre exposes en groupes particuliers, lorsque cette disposition ne nuira pas a l'ordre etabli.

Art. 35. La Commission imperiale prendra toutes les mesures necessaires pour preserver les objets exposes de toute chance d'avarie. Neanmoins, si, malgre ces precautions, un sinistre venait a se declarer, elle n'entend point prendre a sa charge les degats et dommages qui pourraient en resulter. Elle les laisse aux risques et perils des exposants, ainsi que les frais d'assurances, s'ils jugeaient utile de recourir a cette garantie.

Art. 36. La Commission imperiale aura egalement soin que les produits soient surveilles par un personnel nombreux et actif; mais elle ne sera pas responsible des vols ou detournements qui pourraient etre commis.

Art. 37. Chaque exposant aura la faculte de faire garder ses produits, a l'exposition, par un representant de son choix. Declaration devra etre faite, des le debut, du nom et de la qualité de ce représentant ; il lui sera delivre une carte d'entree personnelle, qui ne pourra etre ni cedee ni pretee, a aucune periode de l'exposition, sous poine de retrait.

Art. 38.—Les representants des exposants devront se borner a repondre aux questions qui leur seront faits, et a deliver les adresses, prospectus ou prix courants qui leur seront demandes.

I leur sera interdit, sous peine d'expulsion, de solliciter l'attention des visiteurs ou de les engager a acheter les objets exposes.

Art, 39. Le prix courant de vente au commerce, a l'epoque de l'exposition des produits, pourra etre ostensiblement affiche sur l'objet expose.

L'exposant qui voudra user de cette faculte devra prealablement en faire la declaration au comite de sa circonscription, qui visera les prix apres en avoir reconnu la sincerite.

Le prix ainsi affiche sera, en cas de vente, obligatoire pour l'exposant a l'egard de l'acheteur.

Dans le cas ou la declaration serait reconnue fausse, la Commission imperiale pourra faire enlever le produit et exclure l'exposant du concours.

Art. 40. Les articles vendus ne pourront etre retires qu'apres la cloture de l'exposition.

PRODUITS ETRANGERS.—DOUANES.

Art. 41. A l'egard des produits etrangers admis a l'exposition, le palais de l'exposition sera constitue en entrepot reel.

Art 42. Ces produits, accompagnes des bulletins mentionnes en l'article 19, entreront en France par les ports et villes frontieres ci-apres designes :

Lille, Valenciennes, Forbach, Wissembourg, Strasbourg, Saint-Louis, les Verrieres-de-Joux, Pont-de-Beauvoisin, Chaparellan, Saint-Laurent du Var, Marseille, Cette, Port-Vendres, Perpignan, Bayonne, Bordeaux, Nantes, le Havre, Boulogne, Calais, et Dunkerque.

Art. 43. Les envois pourront etre adresses a des agents designes par la Commission imperiale dans chacun de ces ports ou villes. Ces agents, moyennant une retribution tarifee d'avance, se chargeront de remplir les formalites necessaires envers la douane et de diriger les produits sur le palais de l'exposition.

Art. 44. Les produits etrangers recus au palais de l'exposition seront pris en charge par les employes des douanes.

Art. 31.—Workmen, designated or approved of by the Imperial Commission, will hold themselves at the disposition of the exhibitors, and their bills will be examined by agents specially appointed for the purpose, should the exhibitors desire it.

Nevertheless, exhibitors will be at liberty to employ such workmen as they may think fit, having previously obtained the authorization of the Commission.

Art. 32.—Manufacturers wishing to exhibit machinery or other objects of extraordinary weight or size, and which will require foundations, special constructions, must make a declaration to that effect, on their demand for space.

Art. 33.—Likewise, persons intending to exhibit machinery which is to be moved by steam, or fountains throwing up water, or hydraulic engines, ought to make a declaration of their intention at an early period, and state the quantity and degree of pressure of steam or water which they may require.

Art. 34—The various products will be arranged together by nations, in the order of the classification indicated in Art. 16. Nevertheless, the different products exhibited by an individual, corporate body, city, department, or colony, may, if necessary, and with the authorization of the Executive Committee, be exhibited in separate groups when that disposition does not materially interfere with the regular arrangements.

Art. 35.—The Imperial Commission will take every measure to preserve from damage the articles exhibited. Nevertheless, if, notwithstanding these precautions, some accident should chance to occur, the Commission will not hold itself responsible for any damage which might result. These risks exhibitors must take on themselves, as likewise the expense of insurance, should they consider that precaution necessary.

Art. 36.—The Imperial Commission will likewise take care that the goods shall be watched over by an active and numerous staff; the Commission will not, however, be responsible for any thefts or frauds which may take place.

Art. 37.—Each exhibitor will have the privilege of having his goods watched over at the Exhibition by an agent chosen by himself. Notice must be given, before the Exhibition opens of the name and position of this agent. A personal card of admission will be given him, which, as long as the Exhibition remains open, he is neither to transfer nor lend, under pain of forferture.

Art. 38.—The agents of exhibitors must confine themselves to answering such questions as may be addressed to them, and to delivering cards of address, prospectuses. or lists of prices, when asked for.

They will be interdicted under pain of expulsion, from soliciting the attention of visitors, or inducing them to purchase the articles exhibited.

Art. 39.—The current trade price of any article, at the period of the Exhibition, may be prominently affixed to it.

Any exhibitor, who may wish to avail himself to this permission, must announce his intention beforehand to the local committee of his division, who will sanction the prices, on having ascertained their correctness.

The price thus affixed must, in case of a sale taking place, be strictly adhered to by the exhibitor, as regards the buyer.

In case the declaration should be proved to be false, the Imperial Commission may order the goods to be removed from the building, and the exhibitor excluded from exhibiting any longer.

Art. 40.—Articles sold cannot be removed until the close of Exhibition.

FOREIGN GOODS.—CUSTOMS.

Art. 41.—With respect to foreign goods admitted to the Exhibition, the Exhibition-Palace will be constituted a bonded warehouse.

Art. 42.—These goods, accompanied by the bulletins mentioned in Art. 19, will enter France by the ports and frontier-towns here mentioned, viz. :

Lisle, Valenciennes, Forbach, Wissemburg, Strasburg, Saint-Louis, Les-Verrieres-de-Joux, Pont-de-Beauvoisin, Chaparellan, Saint-Laurent-du-Var, Marseilles, Cette, Port Venderes, Perpignan, Bayonne, Bordeaux, Nantes, Havre, Boulogne, Calais, and Dunkirk.

Art. 43.—Packages may be directed to agents designated by the Imperial Commission in each of these ports or towns. These agents, for a certain amount of remuneration fixed beforehand, will undertake the requisite custom-house formalities, and forward the articles to the Exhibition-Palace.

Art. 44—Foreign goods, thus imported into France, will be received at the Exhibition-Palace, where they will be taken charge of by the custom-house officers.

Art. 45. L'enlevement des plombs et l'ouverture des colis n'auront lieu qu'a l'interieur du palais, en presence des exposants ou de leurs representants, et par les soins des employes de la douane.

Art. 46. Un examplaire du bulletin d'expedition, considere comme certificat d'origine, restera entre les mains de la douane; un autre sera remis au commissaire du classement de l'exposition, et le troisieme au secretariat general de la Commission imperiale.

Art. 47. Kes exposants etrangers ou leurs representants auront, apres la cloture de l'exposition, a declarer si leurs produits sont destines a la reexportation on a la consommation interieure.

Dans ce dernier cas, ils pourront en disposer immediatement, en acquittant les droits, pour la fixation desquels il sera tenu compte, par l'administration des douanes, de la depreciation qui pourrait resulter du sejour des produits a l'exposition.

Art. 48. Les marchandises prohibees seront exceptionnellement admises a la consommation interieure, moyennant le paiement d'un droit de 20 pour 100 de leur valeur reelle. Ce meme droit sera le taux maximum a percevoir sur tous les articles admis a l'exposition.

ORGANISATION INTERIEURE ET POLICE DE L'EXPOSITION.

Art. 49. L'organisation interieure et la police de de l'exposition sont placees sous l'autorite d'un comite d'execution, compose des divers chefs deservice, qui prononcera sur toutes les questions entrant dans ses attributions.

Art. 50. Un reglement, qui sera publie avant l'epoque fixee pour la reception des produits et affiche au palais de l'exposition, determinera tous les points relatifs a l'ordre du service interieur. Il fera connaitre les agents charges de venir en aide aux exposants et de veiller a l'ordre et a la securite de l'exposition.

Art. 51. Les agents et employes attaches a la partie etrangere devront parler une ou plusieurs des langues des nations avec lesquelles ils seront en rapport.

Des interpretes, designes par la Commission imperiale, seront d'ailleurs etablis sur divers points de la division etrangere.

Art. 52. Les Gouvernements etrangers seront pries d'accrediter pres de la Commission imperiale des commissaires speciaux, charges de representer leurs nationaux a l'exposition pendant les operations de reception, de classement, et d'installation des produits, et dans toutes les circonstances ou leurs interets seront engages.

PROTECTION DES DESSINS INDUSTRIELS ET DES INVENTIONS.

Art. 53. Tout exposant, inventeur ou proprietaire legal d'un procede, d'une machine, ou d'un dessin de fabrique admis a l'exposition et non encore depose ou brevete, qui en fera la demande avant l'ouverture ou dans le premier mois de l'ouverture de l'exposition, pourra obtenir de la Commission imperiale un cerficat descriptif de l'objet expose.

Art. 54. Ce certificat assurera a l'impetrant la propriete de l'objet decrit et le privilege exclusif de l'exploiter pendant la duree d'un an, a dater du 1er mai 1855, sans prejudice du brevet que l'exposant pourra prendre, dans la forme ordinaire, avant l'expiration de ce terme.

Art. 55. Toute demande de certificat d'inventeur devra etre accompagnee d'une description exacte de l'objet ou des objets a garantir, et, s'il y a lieu, d'un plan ou d'un dessin des dits objects.

Art. 56. Ces demandes, ainsi que la decision qui aura ete prise, seront inscrites sur un registre tenu ad hoc, et qui sera ulterieurement depose au ministere de l'agriculture, du commerce, et des travaux publics (bureau de l'industrie), pour servir de preuve pendant le temps determine pour la validite des certificats.

Art. 57. La delivrance de ces certificats sera gratuite.

JURY ET RECOMPENSES.

Art. 58.—L'appreciation et le jugement des produits exposes seront confies a un grand jury mixte international. Ce jury sera compose de membres titulaires et de membres suppleants, qui seront repartis en 30 jurys speciaux correspondent aux 30 classes indiquees dans l'article 16.

Art. 59. Dans la division des produits de l'industrie, le nombre des membres, pour chaque jury special, est fixe comme dans le tableau ci-apres :

Pour chacune des classes :

Art. 45.—The removal of the lead-stamps and the openings of the packages can only take place in the interior of the Palace, in presence of the exhibitors or of their agents, and by the custom-house officers.

Art. 46.—One copy of the bulletin sent with each package, to be considered as certificate of origin, will be retained by the customs department; another copy will be left with the Commissioner of Arrangement at the Exhibition; and the third will be deposited at the office of the Secretary of the Imperial Commission.

Art. 47.—Foreign exhibitors, or their agents will have to declare, after the close of the Exhibition, whether their goods are intended for re-exportation or for interior consumption.

In the latter case, they will be at liberty to dispose of them immediately, after paying the duty, in the fixing of which the Customs' authorities, will take into account the depreciation the goods may have undergone in consequence of their stay in the Exhibition.

Art. 48.—Goods, at all other times prohibited, will, by special exception, be admitted to interior consumption, on paying a duty of 20 per cent. on their actual value. That amount of duty will be the maximum levied on any article exhibited.

INTERIOR ORGANIZATION AND POLICE ARRANGEMENTS.

Art. 49.—The interior organization and police of the Exhibition are placed under the direction of an Executive Committee, composed of different heads of departments, who will decide on all questions coming under their jurisdiction.

Art. 50.—A set of regulations, published before the time fixed for the reception of goods, and posted up within the building, will decide all points relative to the order of the interior service, and will designate the persons charged to assist the exhibitors, and to watch over the order and security of the Exhibition.

Art. 51.—The agents and officers, attached to the Foreign divisions, must speak one or more of the languages of those nations, with which they are to be in communication.

Interpreters, officially designated by the Imperial Commission, will besides be placed in various parts of the Foreign division.

Art. 52.—Foreign Governments are requested to accredit to the Imperial Commissions, special commissioners, whose duty it will be to represent their countrymen at the Exhibition, during the reception, classification, and placing of the goods, and in all circumstances where their interests are concerned.

PROTECTION OF INDUSTRIAL DESIGNS AND INVENTIONS.

Art. 53.—Every exhibitor who is the inventor or legal proprietor of any process, machine, or design admitted to the Exhibition, and not yet registered or patented, may obtain from the Imperial Commission a certificate descriptive of the article exhibited, provided he make an application to that effect before the opening of the Exhibition or during the first month after the opening.

Art. 54.—This certificate will secure to the person who receives it, the property of the article therein described, as well as the exclusive privilege of employing it to the best advantage, for the period of one year from the 1st of May, 1855, without prejudice to any patent which the exhibitor may take out, in the usual manner, before the expiration of that period.

Art. 55.—Every application for an inventor's certificate should be accompanied by an accurate description of the object or objects for which protection is sought, and, should it be necessary, by a plan or drawing of the said objects.

Art. 56.—These applications, as well as the decisions arrived at with regard to them, will be entered in a register kept for the purpose, and which will be ultimately deposited at the office of the Minister of Agriculture, Commerce, and Public Works (department of industry), to serve as a proof, during the period above indicated, of the validity of the certificates.

Art. 57.—These certificates will be delivered without any charge.

JURIES AND REWARDS.

Art. 58.—The examination of the articles exhibited and the decisions with respect to the rewards to be given, will be confided to a great international mixed jury. This jury will be composed of members and deputies, who will be divided into thirty special juries, corresponding to the thirty classes mentioned in Art. 16.

Art. 59.—In the division of Products of Industry, the number of members, for each special jury, is fixed as follows:

For each of the classes :

	Titulaires.	Suppleants.
3e, 10e, 20e, et 23e	14	4

Art. 60. Le nombre de jures a fixer sera, pour la France comme pour l'etranger proportionnel au nombre d'exposant fourni par chaque pays.

Art. 61. Le comite officiel de chaque nation designera des personnes de son choix pour former le nombre de jures qui lui sera devolu.

Les jures francais seront nommes, pour les 27 premieres classes par la section de l'agriculture et de l'industrie de la Commission imperiale, et, peur les trois dernieres classes, par le section des beaux-arts.

Art. 62. Dans le cas ou le comite d'une des nations exposantes n'aurait pas designe les jures qui doivent la representer, il y sera pourvu d'office par l'assemblee generale des jures presents.

Art. 63. La Commission imperiale fera la repartition des membres du jury international entre les diverses classes. Elle fixera aussi les regles generales qui devront servir de base aux operations des jurys speciaux.

Art. 64. Chaque jury special aura un president nomme par la Commission imperiale, un vice-president et un rapporteur nommes par le jury, a la majorite absolue des voix.

Art. 65. Dans le cas ou aucun des membres n'obtiendrait la majorite absolue, le sort prononcerait entre les deux candidats reunnissant le puls grand nombre de voix.

Art. 66 Le president de chaque jury, et en son absence, le vice-president, aura voix preponderante en cas de partage.

Art. 67. Les jurys speciaux seront en outre distribues par groups, representant les industries liees entre elles par certains points d'analogie ou de similitude.

Ces groupes sont au nombre de huit, conformement aux indications de l'article 16.

Les membres chaque group nommeront leur president et leur vice-president.

Art. 68. Aucune decision ne sera arretee par l'un des jurys speciax qu'avec l'approbation du groupe auquel il appartient.

Art. 69. Les recompenses de premier ordre ne seront accordees qu'apres une revision faite per un conseil compose des presidents et vice-presidents des jurys speciaux.

Le jury des beaux-arts est excepte de cette regle.

Art. 70. Chaque jury special pourras'adjoindra, a titre d'associes ou d'experts, une ou plusieurs personnes competentes sur quelques-une des matrieres soumises a son examen. Ces personnes pourront etre prises parmi les membres titulaires ou suppleants des autres classes, et parmi les hommes de la specialite requise en dehors du jury. Les membres ainsi adjoints ne prendront part aux travaux de la classe ou ils auraient ete appeles que pour l'objet determine qui aura motive leur appel ; ils auront seulement voix consultative.

Art. 71. Les exposants qui auraient accepte les fonctions de jures, soit comme titulaires, soit comme suppleants, seront, par ce fait seul, mis hors du concours pour les recompenses.

Le jury des beaux-arts est excepte de cette regle.

Art. 72. Seront egalement exclus du concours, mais dan la classe seulement ou ils auront opere, les exposants appeles comme associes ou comme experts.

Art. 73. Chaque jury pourra, selon les circonstances, se fractionner en comites, mai sil ne pourra prendre de decision qu'a la majorite du jury entier.

Art. 74. Des commissaires speciaux, assistes des inspecteurs de l'exposition, seront charges de preparer les travaux du jury de s'assurer que les produits d'aucun exposant n'ont echappe a son examen ; de recevoir les observations et les reclemations des exposants ; de faire reparer les omissions, erreurs, ou confusions qui auraient pu etre faites ; de veiller a l'observation des regles etablies, et enfin d'expliquer ces regles aux jures toutes les fois qu'elles presenteraient matiere a interpretation.

In the division of the Fine-Arts,
Classes 28 will have 20
29 — 11

Art. 60.—The number of Jurors to be appointed, will be for France, as well as for each Foreign country, in proportion to the number of exhibitors furnished by each.

Art. 61.—The official committee of each country will designate persons to form the number of jurors which that country is entitled to nominate.

The French jurors for the first 27 classes will be nominated by the section of Agriculture and Industry of the Imperial Commission, and for the last 3 classes, by the section of the Fine-Arts.

Art. 62. In case the committee of any country exhibiting should not appoint jurors to represent it, the omission will be met by means of the general meeting of the jurors present.

Art. 63.—The Imperial Commission will make the division of the members of the international jury amongst the various classes. It will also fix the general rules which will serve as the basis for the operations of the special juries.

Art. 64.—Each special jury will have a president named by the Imperial Commission ; likewise a vice-president and a reporter, both of whom will be nominated by an absolute majority of the votes of the jury.

Art. 65.—In case none of the members should obtain the absolute majority, the two candidates who have received the greatest number of votes will decide the point by lot.

Art. 66.—The president of each jury, and in his absence the vice-president, will, in case of equality of numbers, have the casting vote.

Art. 67.—The special juries will besides be distributed into groups, representing the branches of industry, connected together by certain points of analogy or similitude.

These groups are eight in number, in conformity with the statement made in Art. 16.

The members of each group will elect their own president and vice-president.

Art. 68.—The decisions of any special jury can only be definitive when sanctioned by the group to which it belongs.

Art. 69.—Rewards of the highest degree will not be granted until after they have been revised by a council, composed of the presidents and vice-presidents of the special juries.

The jury for the Fine-Arts is excepted from this regulation.

Art. 70.—Each special jury will be at liberty to call to its assistance, as associates or experts, one or more persons, technically acquainted with any of the articles submitted to it for examination. These persons may be selected either from the members and deputies of the other classes, or from amongst persons who do not belong to the jury, but possess the required information. The members thus called in will only take part in the labors of the jury as regards the particular object for which their services were required ; they will only be entitled to take part in the discussion, and not to vote.

Art. 71.—Such exhibitors as may accept the functions of jurors or deputies, will be by that fact rendered ineligible to receive any reward.

The jury for the Fine-Arts is excepted from this regulation.

Art. 72.—Such exhibitors also as have been called in to aid juries, as associates or experts, will be held ineligible to receive a reward, but only for the particular class in which they have acted.

Art. 73.—Each jury may, according to circumstances, subdivide itself into committees : but it cannot come to any final decision without the sanction of the majority of the entire jury.

Art. 74.—Special commissioners, assisted by the inspectors of the Exhibition, will be charged to prepare the work for each jury ; to see that the goods of no exhibitor escape their examination ; to receive the observations and complaints of the exhibitors ; to have all omissions, errors, or confusions repaired ; to take care that the established rules are observed ; and to explain these rules to the juries, when necessary.

Art. 75. Les commissaires en fonctions pres du jury n'interviendront dans les deliberations que pour constater les faits, rappeler les regles, et presenter les reclamations des exposants.

Art. 76. La nature des recompenses a distribuer et les regles generales a prendre pour base des recompenses seront ulterieurement determinees par un decret, rendu sur la proposition de la Commission Imperiale.

Art. 77. Independamment des distinctions honorifiques qui pourront etre accordees, le conseil des presidents et vice-presidents aura la faculte de recommander a l'Empereur les exposants qui lui paraitraient meriter des marques speciales de gratitude publique, a raison de services hors ligne rendus a la civilisation, a l'humanite, aux sciences, et aux arts, ou des encouragements d'une autre nature, a raison de sacrifices considerables dans un but d'utilite generale, et eu egard a la position des inventeurs ou des producteurs.

DISPOSITIONS SPECIALES AUX BEAUX-ARTS.

Art. 78. Un jury francais, institue a Paris, prononcera sur l'admission des œuvres des artistes francais.

Art. 79. Les membres du jury francais d'admission seront designes par la section des beaux-arts de la Commission imperiale.

Art. 80. Le jury d'admission des beaux-arts se divisera en trois sections :

La premiere comprendra la peinture, la gravure, et la lithographie ;

La seconde, la sculpture et la gravure en medailles ;

La troisieme, l'architecture.

Chacune de ces sections prononcera a l'egard des œuvres rentrant dans sa specialite.

Art. 81. L'exposition est ouverte aux productions des artistes francais et etrangers, vivants au 22 juin 1853, date du decret constitutif de l'exposition des beaux-arts.

Art. 82. Les artistes pourront presenter a l'exposition universelle des ouvrages deja exposes precedemment ; seulement ne pourront etre admis :

1°. Les copies (excepte celles qui reproduiraient un ouvrage dans un genre different sur email, par le dessin, etc.) ;

2°. Les tableaux et autres objets sans cadre ;

3°. Les sculptures en terre non cuite.

Art. 83. Sont applicables aux œuvres d'art les articles 1 a 13, 15 a 30, 35, 36, 40, 41 a 47, 49 a 52, 58 a 77 du present Reglement.

CIRCULAIRE DU PRESIDENT DE LA COMMISSION IMPERIALE.

ADRESSEE A MM. LES PREFETS.

Paris, le 1854.

A M. le Prefet du Departement de

Monsieur le Prefet,

La Commission imperiale pour l'exposition universelle de 1855, nommee par decret du 27 decembre dernier, sous la presidence de S. A. I. le Prince Napoleon, est definitivement constituee.

Son premier soin a ete d'arreter le reglement de l'exposition. Ce travail touche a sa fin et il vous sera prochainement communique.

En attendant, la mesure la plus urgente etant d'organiser dans toute la France les comites qui seront charges des operations preliminaires a l'exposition, la Commission a decide, Monsieur le Prefet, de vous confier cette tache importante.

Vous devrez donc vous mettre, sans aucun retard, en rapport avec les chambres de commerce, les chambres consultatives des arts et manufactures, les chambres d'agriculture, les conseils academiques, et autres societes pratiques ou savantes qui peuvent exister dans votre departement, en reclamant d'urgence leur avis sur la maniere la plus efficace et la plus prompte d'etablir ces comites, le nombre de membres dont ils devront etre composes, et sur la question de savoir s'il doit en exister un seul ou plusieurs dans le departement. Vous les inviterez a vous presenter, en consequence, des listes de candidats aussi nombreuses que possible, sur lesquelles vous choisirez et nommerez le nombre de membres et les specialites qui vous paraitront le plus en rapport avec les besoins agricoles, manufacturiers, ou artistiques du departement, sans toutefois que ce nombre depasse 20 par comite.

Vos choix devront se fixer parmi les agriculteurs, ndustriels, negociants, professeurs, artistes, et parmi les

Art. 75.—These commissioners will not interfere with the deliberations of the jury, further than to bring before them facts, remind them of rules, and present the complaints of exhibitors.

Art. 76.—The nature of the rewards to be distributed and the general principles to be adopted as the basis of such rewards, will be at a later period determined by a decree based on the recommendations of the Imperial Commission.

Art. 77.—Independently of the honorary distinctions which may be granted, the Council of Presidents and Vice-Presidents will have the power of recommending to the Emperor such exhibitors as they may think deserving of special marks of public gratitude, on account of extraordinary services rendered to civilization, humanity, science, and the arts ; or of encouragements of a different kind for considerable sacrifices incurred with a view to general utility, due attention being always paid to the position of the inventors or producers.

SPECIAL ARRANGEMENTS FOR THE FINE-ARTS.

Art. 78.—A French jury, instituted at Paris, will decide on the admission of the works of French artists.

Art. 79.—The members of the French jury of admission will be nominated by the section of the Fine-Arts of the Imperial Commission.

Art. 80.—The jury of admission for the Fine-Arts will be divided into three sections :

The first will comprise painting, engraving, and lithographic works ;

The second sculpture and die-sinking ;

The third, architecture.

Each of these sections will decide with respect to works belonging to its special department.

Art 81. The Exhibition is open to the works of all French and Foreign artists, alive on the 22nd of June, 1853, the date of the decree which constitutes the Exhibition of the Fine-Arts.

Art. 82.—Artists can present to the Universal Exhibition works which have been previously exhibited ; but there cannot be admitted—

1st. Copies (excepting such as may reproduce a work in a different manner, on enamel, by drawing, etc.) ;

2nd. Pictures and other objects without frames ;

3rd. Sculptures in unbaked clay.

Art. 83.—The following articles of the present regulations are applicable to the division of the Fine-Arts :

Arts. 1 to 13 ; 15 to 30 ; 35, 36, 40 to 47 ; 49 to 52 ; and 58 to 77.

Just before these regulations were finally agreed to, the following circular was sent to all the Prefects of the 86 departments of France :—

Monsieur le Prefect,

The Imperial Commission for the Exhibition of All Nations to be held in 1855, nominated by a decree of the 27th of December last, under the presidency of H. I. H. the Prince Napoleon, is definitively constituted.

Its first care has been to draw up the regulations of the Exhibition. This work is nearly completed, and will soon be communicated to you.

Meanwhile, the most urgent measure being the organization throughout France of Committees, to be intrusted with the preliminary business of the Exhibition, the Commission has decided, M. le Prefect, on confiding to you that important duty.

You will, therefore, be pleased to put yourself in communication with the Chambers of Commerce, with the consulting Chambers of Arts and Manufactures, the Chambers of Agriculture, the Academical Councils, and the other practical or learned societies which may exist in your department, claiming urgently their advice as to the most prompt and efficacious mode of establishing these committees, the number of members of which they ought to consist, and also whether one or several ought to be established in the department. You will request them, therefore, to lay before you lists of candidates as numerous as possible, from which you will select and appoint the number of members and special men who may appear to you best informed as to the agricultural, manufacturing, and artistical requirements of the department ; that number, however, must not go beyond twenty to each committee.

Your selection ought to be made from agriculturists, manufacturers, merchants, professors, artists, and special

WEDNESDAY, JULY 26, 1854.

Legislative Council.

21st July 1854.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General of India on the 21st July 1854, and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. XV. OF 1854.

An Act to facilitate the proceedings of the Commissioners appointed to inquire into certain matters connected with the position of Sir James Brooke, Her Majesty's Commissioner and Consul General in Borneo.

Whereas the Governor General of India in Council has, by a Commission bearing date the seventh day of July, in the year of our Lord One thousand Eight hundred and Fifty-four, nominated and appointed Charles Robert Prinsep, Esq., Barrister-at-Law and Advocate-General of Fort William in Bengal, and the Hon'ble Humphrey Bohun Devereux, in the Civil Service of the East India Company on their Bengal Establishment, to inquire into certain matters connected with and arising out of the position of Sir James Brooke, Her Majesty's Commissioner and Consul General in Borneo; and whereas it is expedient that the Commissioners aforesaid should be invested with certain legal powers within the territories in the possession and under the Government of the East India Company, It is enacted as follows :

Commissioners to be sworn.

1. Each of the said Commissioners shall, before beginning to act in the execution of the Commission aforesaid, take and subscribe, before one of the Judges of Her Majesty's Supreme Court of Judicature, at Fort William in Bengal, the following oath, that is to say :—

"I do swear, that I will truly and faithfully, according to the best of my knowledge and judgment, execute the powers and trusts vested in me by the Governor General of India in Council, by a Commission bearing date the Seventh day of July, in the year of our Lord One thousand Eight hundred and Fifty-four, and by Act No. XV. of 1854. So help me God."

And the Judge of the Supreme Court, before whom such oath shall be taken, shall transmit the same to the Secretary to the Government of India in the Foreign Department, to be filed among the records of his office.

To summon witnesses, &c.

2. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners aforesaid, by a summons under their hands, or under the hand of either of them, to require the attendance before them, at a time and place to be mentioned in such summons, of any person or persons whomsoever, residing or being within the Jurisdiction of the Court of Judicature of the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore and Malacca, whose evidence shall, in the judgment of the Commissioners aforesaid, be material to any of the matters directed by the Governor General of India in Council to be enquired of, and to require the person or persons so summoned to bring and produce before them all such books, papers, deeds and writings, as to them, the said Commissioners, shall appear necessary for arriving at the truth of the matters directed to be enquired into by the said Commissioners, all which persons shall accordingly attend the said Commissioners and shall produce such books, papers, deeds and writings as shall be required of them and shall be in their custody and control, or in the custody and control of any one of them, according to the tenor of the summons. Provided always that no person shall be compellable to answer any question or to produce any book, paper, deed or writing, the answer to which, or the production of 11 All such Courts and persons as aforesaid, in addition to the matters which they are directed to notice judicially, shall take judicial notice of all matters of public history, past or present, of all divisions of time, of all matters of law, except the law of a Foreign State, of all the territories and dominions directly or indirectly under the sovereignty of the British Crown, of their geographical divisions and of the names of cities, towns, villages, rivers and mountains therein, of the commencement, continuation and termination of hostilities, with and between any States, recognised by the English Government, and may inform themselves as to any such matters and as to all matters of literature, science, art and trade, by any reference to any published books, maps or charts of authority or reputation, which contain information thereon.

Courts, &c., to take judicial notice of certain other matters.

12. When any question of Foreign law shall arise before any such Court or person as aforesaid, such Court or person may consult and take as evidence of the state of such law on the points any published code, body of law, treatise, report or written opinion, which appears to be either authoritative or good evidence of such question of law.

Courts, &c., may inform themselves on questions of Foreign law arising before them by consulting Codes, &c.

13. All maps made under the authority of Government or of any public municipal body, and not made for the purpose of any litigated question, shall, primâ facie, be deemed to be correct, and shall be admitted in evidence without further proof.

Government and public maps.

14. No one, whether an adult or infant, shall be incompetent as a witness in any such Court, or before any such person, except for defect of understanding; and if an infant be of competent understanding, he may be a witness at any age. Any person who, by reason of his immature age and want of religious belief, or who, by reason of his defect of religious belief, ought not, in the opinion of such Court or person, to be admitted to give evidence on oath or solemn affirmation, shall be admitted to give evidence on his simple affirmation, as hereinafter provided for

No one incompetent as a witness, except for want of understanding. Witnesses who from defect of religious belief, should not be sworn, &c., may be examined on their simple affirmation.

15. No one shall be excluded in any such Court, or before any such person, from giving evidence as a witness, or from acting as a Juror, who, on conscientious grounds, objects to take an oath or to make a solemn affirmation. In such a case he shall, if a witness, make a simple affirmation that he will give true evidence, or if a Juror, that he will give a true verdict according to the evidence, and the words of the usual oath or solemn affirmation shall be modified under the direction of the Court or person aforesaid into words suitable to his case.

Jurors and witnesses who, on conscientious grounds, object to take an oath, or make a solemn affirmation, may make a simple affirmation.

16 The provisions herein as to witnesses shall apply to testimony given by affidavit, or otherwise in writing, as well as to testimony orally delivered.

The provision aforesaid to apply to written testimony.

which, may criminate or tend to criminate such person, or to expose such person to any pains or penalties.

Witnesses indemnified.

3. And whereas it may appear to the Commissioners aforesaid desirable to examine as witnesses several persons touching the matters directed to be enquired into, the evidence of which persons may tend to expose them to penal consequences, every person who shall be examined as a witness and give evidence before the Commissioners aforesaid touching the matters in question, and who shall, upon such examination, make a true discovery to the best of his knowledge touching all matters to which he or she shall be so examined, shall be freed from all penal actions, forfeitures, punishments, disabilities and incapacities and all criminal prosecutions to which he or she may have been, or may become, liable or subject within any part of the said territories in the possession and under the Government of the East India Company for any thing done by such person in respect of any acts relating to which he shall be examined. Provided that where any witness shall be so examined as aforesaid, such witness shall not be indemnified under this Act, unless or until he or she shall receive from the Commissioners aforesaid, under their hands, a certificate in writing, stating that such witness has upon his or her examination made a true disclosure touching all matters to which he or she has been so examined.

Power to administer an oath, &c.

4. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners aforesaid, or one of them, to administer an oath, or in the case of persons allowed by law to make affirmation instead of taking an oath, an affirmation, in such form as to them, the said Commissioners, shall seem fit, to all persons who shall be examined before them touching the matters directed, or which may be directed to be enquired into, by them as aforesaid.

Witnesses refusing to attend or answer.

5. If any person, upon whom any such summons shall be served by the delivery thereof to him or her, or by the leaving thereof at his or her usual place of abode, being a person subject to the Court of Judicature of the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore or Malacca, shall, without reasonable cause (to be allowed by the Commissioners aforesaid,) fail to appear before them at the time and place mentioned in the summons, or shall refuse to be sworn or to make affirmation (as the case may be,) or shall not make answer to such questions as shall be put to him or her touching the matters directed, or which may hereafter be directed, to be enquired into by the Commissioners aforesaid, or shall refuse or fail, without reasonable cause (to be allowed by the Commissioners aforesaid,) to produce and show to the said Commissioners any such paper, book, deed or writing being in their possession or under their control, as to the Commissioners aforesaid shall appear necessary for arriving at the truth of the matters directed to be inquired into by them, the Commissioners aforesaid shall have the same powers in all respects touching any such person so failing to appear, or refusing to be sworn or to make affirmation, or not answering such questions as shall be put to him or her, or refusing to produce and show any such book, paper, deed, or writing as aforesaid, as the Court of Judicature of the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore and Malacca may by law exercise against any person for making default of appearance, or for refusing to be sworn or to give evidence on any issue joined in any action depending in such Court.

Penalty for false evidence.

6. Every person, who, upon examination upon oath, or affirmation before the Commissioners aforesaid, shall wilfully give false evidence, shall be liable to the pains and penalties of perjury.

Limitation of actions.

7. No action shall be brought against the Commissioners aforesaid, or any other person or persons whomsoever, for anything done in the execution of this Act, unless such action shall be brought within six calendar months next after the doing of such thing.

In what cases one Commissioner may act

8. In case of the death or resignation of either of the said Commissioners, or in the event of either of them becoming incapable of acting, it shall be lawful for the other Commissioner to act alone; and every part of this Act shall be deemed to apply to such Commissioner as if he alone had been mentioned herein.

W. MORGAN,

Clerk of the Legislative Council.

Legislative Council.

8th July 1854.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 8th of July 1854.

A Bill for the further improvement of the law of Evidence.

Courts of Justice, &c., to take judicial notice of Regulations, Acts, &c., past and future.

Act X. of 1835 repealed.

1. From the time when this Act comes into operation, all Courts of Justice, in all places, for which the Governor-General of India in Council, for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations, has power to regulate, and all persons in the same places, having by law or consent of parties authority to take evidence, shall take judicial notice of all Regulations, Acts and Ordinances, made before the 22nd day of April 1834, by the Governor-General in Council at Fort William in Bengal, by the Governor in Council of the Presidency of Fort St. George, or by the Governor in Council of the Presidency of Bombay, and having the force of law in any part of the territories of the East India Company, and of all Laws and Regulations heretofore made by the Governor-General of India in Council, and of this Act, and of all Acts and Regulations heretofore made, or hereinafter to be made by the Governor-General of India in Council, for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations, whether the same be of a public or of a private nature.

The Act No. X. of 1835 of the Indian Legislature is hereby repealed.

Courts, &c., to take judicial notice of public and private Acts of Parliament.

2. All Courts and persons as aforesaid shall take judicial notice of all Statutes of the Imperial Parliament of Great Britain and Ireland, whether public or private.

17 Any such witness giving wilfully false evidence shall be subject to be proceeded against in like manner, and to suffer, if convicted, the same punishment as if he had been sworn and had committed wilful and corrupt perjury. The indictment or charge shall be varied so as to meet the case.

Witnesses giving wilfully false evidence may be punished as if perjured

18. Husbands and wives shall be competent witnesses for each other, but this shall not extend to make the wife a witness in an action brought by the husband for damages, for adultery committed by her.

Husbands and wives competent witnesses for each other.

19 Whenever the wife may sue the husband, or the husband the wife, in any civil suit, each may be admitted as a witness in such suit against the other.

In suits by husbands against wives, or vice versâ, each may be a witness against the other.

20 The Rules of evidence in Her Majesty's Supreme Courts shall be the same as to the matters of Ecclesiastical jurisdiction, as they are on the Plea, Equity and Crown sides of the Courts respectively.

The rules of evidence on the Ecclesiastical side of the Supreme Courts to be the same as on the Plea, &c., sides.

21. One witness, in all cases, except cases of treason, shall be sufficient in law, in any such Court or before any such person, but this provision shall not affect any rule or practice of any Court that requires corroborative evidence in support of the testimony of an accomplice or of a simple witness in a case of perjury, or as to the proof of an admission or otherwise. Provided that this shall not extend to give validity to any instrument to which the attestation of witnesses is necessary.

One witness to be sufficient in law, except on treason, proviso saving rules as to confirmation.

22. In that class of cases, wherein dying declarations are evidence, they shall be received, if it be proved that the deceased was, at the time of making the declaration, and then thought himself to be, in danger of approaching death, though he still entertained, at the time of making it, hopes of recovery.

Where dying declarations are evidence, they shall be admissible though some hope of recovery remains.

23. A party may be allowed to show before any such Court or Judge, that a witness whom he produces has, at the trial or hearing, varied from a previous statement made by him, and has given unexpectedly, at the trial or hearing, evidence different from that which such person expected from him.

A party allowed to discredit his witness by showing a variation in statement by the witness.

24 A witness on cross-examination may, with the consent of such Court or person, be asked as to the contents of a writing not produced, though such writing be in the possession of the party examining, where the object is to test the accuracy or truthfulness of the witness

A witness with the consent of the Court may be asked on cross-examination as to the contents of a written instrument in the power of the cross-examiner not produced.

25. Where a copy is proved to have been made from an original writing, and appears on its production to have been made by any copying machine, it shall be taken without further proof to be a correct copy.

A copy made by a copying machine to be deemed a correct copy

26. Where an original document is out of the reach of the process of the Court, or is at so great a distance from the Court, that the best evidence of it could not be had without serious expense, it shall be lawful for the Court, on application to it, and on notice to the opposite party at a reasonable time before the hearing, to make an order for the reception of secondary evidence of its execution and contents.

When an original document is out of the reach of the process of the Court, or at a distance, secondary evidence may be received on application for that purpose.

27. An attested document may be proved as if no such attestation had existed, unless it be a document to the validity of which attestation is requisite.

An attested may be proved as an unattested document, when attestation is not essential.

28. The admission of a party to an attested instrument of its execution by himself, shall be as against him sufficient primâ facie proof of the due execution of it, though it be an instrument which is required by law to be attested.

The admission of a party to an attested instrument of its execution by himself shall be as against him good evidence, though attestation be essential to its validity.

29. The books of any person, which are proved to have been regularly kept in the way in which such books usually are, shall be admissible as corroborative, but not as independent proof of the facts which may have been stated therein when such facts become to be proved.

Books regularly kept, shall be admitted as corroborative proofs.

30. In all cases where hearsay evidence, in the shape of an entry in any book, public or private, is admissible in evidence after the death of the party who made it, on the ground of its having been made in the ordinary course of business and without motive to misrepresent, such entry shall be admissible, though the party who made it be not dead, if he is incapable of being produced as a witness to the transaction, and of giving evidence as to it by reason of his subsequent loss of understanding, or where he is at the time of the trial or hearing bonâ fide and permanently beyond the reach of the process of the Court, or cannot, after diligent search be found.

When an entry is admissible evidence after the death of a party, it shall be admissible in his lifetime, if he be incapable of being examined or be permanently absent, or cannot be found after diligent search.

31 In any case where such entry is admissible, it shall be admissible, although it appear that the party who made it had not himself personal knowledge of the matter to which such entry relates, provided it appear that he acted in making it on the personal knowledge, whether directly conveyed to him or not, of some person whose business it was to do the thing or give the information which the entry records.

Personal knowledge of the party making the entry not essential, if it were made on personal knowledge directly or indirectly conveyed.

32. In all cases where hearsay evidence is received in the shape of a declaration or entry, on the ground that it was made against the interest of the party making it, it shall be admissible in evidence, though the party who made it is alive and is capable of being produced and of giving testimony as a witness

Hearsay evidence, which is admissible, because made against the interest of the party giving it, shall be admissible, though he be alive and capable of being produced as a witness.

Entries evidence for the limited purpose of identification.

33. Any entry in any books, public or private, or any memorandum so far as such entry or memorandum merely refers to and tends to identify by name, description, number, or otherwise, any bank-Notes or other securities for the payment of money, or other property, and the payer in or receiver of them shall, in any case, where such identification is necessary to be proved, be prima facie proof for that limited purpose, if it shall be proved to have been made at or about the time of the transaction to which it relates, and without any interest in falsifying the description of such notes, securities or property, though the person who made it or he on whose information it was made is alive and capable of being produced as a witness.

Various mercantile documents made prima facie evidence of what they purport to prove.

34. Certificates of shares and of registration thereof, bills of lading, invoices, account sales, receipts usually given on the payment or deposit, or delivery of money, receipts usually given on the delivery of any goods, chattels, securities, letters, papers or other things, provided such receipts be proved to have been given in the ordinary course of business, and concurrently with or near to the time of the receipt which they evidence, warrants, orders or other documents evidencing the title to goods deposited in any public warehouse, public dock, or other such public place, shall be on proof that they were respectively given out or received as genuine, and without proof of handwriting or authority, be received as sufficient prima facie evidence of the matters which they evidence, as well between the parties to the transaction as between other parties.

A witness may refresh his memory by any document, &c., which may refresh it.

35. A witness whose memory requires to be refreshed, and who desires to refer before such Court, or before any such person as aforesaid, to any document for that purpose, shall be permitted to refresh it from any book, document or writing or inscription, whether such book, document, writing or inscription be an original or only a copy or extract, and whether that from which he refreshes his memory, or that from which it may have been taken, be of his own making or not, and whether it has or has not been in any manner made under his inspection or control.

Where statements, charges and complaints, &c., are now admissible as evidence to the extent only that they were made, the particulars thereof may be received as corroborative proof.

36. And whereas in many instances, statements, charges and complaints are received as evidence, so far only that it is competent to prove in certain cases, that a statement, or charge, or a complaint was made, but the particulars of the statement, charge or complaint are not permitted to be given in evidence; it is enacted that in all such cases the particulars shall be allowed to be received in evidence, and may be acted on as corroborative proof, but not in themselves as sufficient proof of the facts embodied in such complaint, charge or statement, respectively.

The evidence and declarations on pedigree extended.

37. The declarations in cases of pedigree of members of a family who were illegitimate and are deceased, and also of persons who, though not related by blood or marriage to the family, were intimately acquainted with its members and state, shall be admissible in evidence of their decease, in the same manner and to the same extent as those of deceased members of the family.

The evidence of declarations on questions of public right extended as to proof of particular facts.

38. When hearsay evidence is admissible on subjects of public right, it shall extend to declarations of particular acts done in assertion or derogation of, or inconsistent with the right, and to declarations of particular facts which tend to prove or disprove the right.

Evidence of a testator's intentions admissible in certain cases where it is not now admissible.

39. When a will is disputed on any ground which supposes that the will does not describe correctly the intended and free and intelligent disposition of a Testator, evidence may be received of the Testator's declarations as to his intentions, or actual disposition, provided it be proved that they were made about the time or subsequent to the time of making the will.

Comparison of hand writing allowed, though the document be not evidence in itself.

40. On an inquiry, whether a signature, or writing, or seal, is genuine, any undisputed signature, writing or seal of the party, whose signature, writing or seal is under dispute, may be compared with the disputed one, though such signature, writing or seal be on an instrument which is not, and cannot be, for general or for other purposes, evidence in the cause.

Powers of attorney may be proved by their production without further proof in certain cases.

41. And whereas the proof of the execution of powers of attorney is often attended with difficulty and expense, where they are executed at places remote from that of trial, and whereas the proof of the despatch of letters is often attained with much difficulty, and the law of evidence may with advantage be altered and rendered less strict as to such matters, it is hereby enacted that any power of attorney, which has been executed at a place distant more than 100 miles from the place wherein the action, suit or proceeding is depending, may be proved by the production of it, without further proof, where it purports, on the face of it, to have been executed before a notary public, or any Court, Judge, or other public Officer, and such power of attorney may, where it does not purport, on the face of it, to have been so executed, be proved by producing it, and proving that it has been acted on, or remitted to be acted on by competent authority, and by proving the instructions as to it.

The accompanying letter of instructions may be proved without proof of handwriting, by evidence and belief that the letter is genuine.

42. Where the instructions are contained in a letter or letters, the handwriting of which cannot, by reason of the absence of necessary witnesses, be proved, still if such letters are proved to be genuine, according to the best of the knowledge and belief of a witness having reasonable grounds for his opinion, they may be received as sufficient proof of such instructions. In all the cases aforesaid, the witness or witnesses must depose that he or they believes or believe the instrument to be genuine and authorized, and that it has not been revoked.

Letters may be proved by production of the letter-book and reasonable evidence of the probable despatch of the letter.

43. Whenever it is proved that a letter-book is kept, and that according to the usual course of business, letters are copied into such book and despatched, and the letter-book is produced, and it is proved that the letter was despatched according to the usual practice, to the best of the knowledge and belief of the witness, having reasonable ground for forming that belief, the Court may presume the despatch of that letter according to the usual course of business.

A receipt in a peons-book prima facie evidence of receipt of letter.

44. Any peon's-book or other book purporting to contain a receipt of a letter, and proved to have been kept as a book for marking the receipt of letters, shall also be sufficient primâ facie proof that such letter was received.

If the letter be described, then it shall be prima facie proof of identity of letter despatched.

45. If the letter be described in such book, it shall be also primâ facie proof of the identity of the letter.

Such identity may be inferred from circumstances.

46. If the book do not describe the letter, still the identity of the letter may be inferred from circumstances.

Power to inspect documents, though application be made upon issue joined, &c., or within twenty-one days of trial or hearing.

47. And whereas by the Act XV. of 1852, Section 6, a power was given in any action or other legal proceeding pending in any of Her Majesty's said Supreme Courts, for such Court, and each of the Judges thereof respectively, on application for such purpose by either of the litigants, to compel the opposite party to allow the party making the application to inspect all documents in the custody of, or under the control of such opposite party, relating to such action or other legal proceeding, and if necessary to take examined copies of the same, or to procure the same to be duly stamped in all cases in which, previous to the passing of that Act, a discovery might have been obtained by filing a Bill, or by any other proceeding in a Court of Equity, at the instance of the party so making application as aforesaid to the said Court or Judge, provided always that every such application should be made as aforesaid before issue joined in any such action, and twenty-one days before the trial or hearing of any other legal proceeding.

48. And whereas the preceding proviso has been found inconvenient, it is therefore hereby repealed, and it shall be lawful for the Court or Judge to grant any such inspection at any time before the trial or hearing, provided a proper case be made out for granting the same, and the application has been made under the circumstances of the case without any unreasonable delay, and in any case where the Court or Judge shall think fit to grant such inspection, such terms may be imposed as to payment of costs or otherwise, as may be expedient and just.

Proofs by affidavit in certain cases under Act VI. of 1854 is limited to all sides of the Court.

49. And whereas by the 16th Section of the Act VI. of 1854, it is provided that affidavits of particular witnesses, or affidavits as to particular facts or circumstances, may, by consent of the parties, or by leave of the Court obtained upon notice, be used in the hearing of any cause, and the same enactment is limited to proceedings on the Equity side of such Supreme Court; it is therefore enacted that the same shall extend to all Civil actions, suits and proceedings on all sides of the Court.

Provisions of the 17th Section of the said Act extended to all sides of the Court. Limitation thereon as to Crown side.

50. And whereas by the 17th Section of the same Act, it is provided that upon the hearing of any suit depending in any of the said Supreme Courts, whether commenced by Bill or Claim, and also upon the hearing of any motion, petition or other proceeding in any of the said Courts, the Court may, upon the application of any of the parties thereto, or of its own accord, require and enforce the attendance and oral examination before itself of any witness or of any party to the suit, and may also require and enforce the production of any document or documents, and may direct the costs of the attendance and examination of such witness or party to be paid by such of the parties to the suit, or in such manner as it may think fit, and it is desirable to extend this provision to all sides of the Court; it is therefore enacted that the said provisions shall extend to all sides of the Court, but that they shall not authorize or empower the Court to direct the examination of any accused person at the trial for any purpose, but shall extend only to authorize his examination as to collateral matters arising on matter unconnected with the question of his guilt or innocence.

Provisions of the 33rd Section of the said Act as to accounts extended to all sides of the Court.

51. And it is further enacted that the 33rd Section of the said Act No. VI. of 1854, which applies only to proof of accounts on the Equity side of the Court, shall extend to and embrace all accounts directed to be taken on any side of the said Court.

Provisions of the Act 8 and 9 Victoria as to proof of official documents extended to this country.

52. And whereas it is desirable to extend to this country certain of the provisions of the Act 8 and 9 Victoria, Cap. 113, entitled "An Act to facilitate the admission in evidence of certain official and other documents;" it is therefore enacted that whenever, by any Statute or Act, Regulation or Ordinance now in force, or any Statute or Act to be hereinafter in force, any certificate, certified copy, or other document shall be receivable in evidence of any particular, in any Court of Justice, the same, if it is substantially in the form and purports to be executed in the manner directed by the Statute, Act, Regulation or Ordinance which makes it evidence, shall be primâ facie evidence where it is rendered admissible without proof of any seal, stamp, signature, character or authority, which it is directed to have, or from which it is directed to proceed.

This Act shall not limit, but may extend the practice of the Courts of the East India Company in the reception of evidence. No decision to be reversed, &c., merely because evidence is improperly rejected or received.

53. The provisions in this Act contained shall apply to extend, but not to restrict the law and practice of the Courts of the East India Company or other Courts as to the reception of evidence. In no Court shall the improper admission or rejection of evidence be ground of itself for a new trial or reversal of any decision in any case, if it shall appear to the Court before which such objection is raised, that independently of the evidence admitted and objected to, there was sufficient evidence to justify the decision, or that if the rejected evidence had been received, it ought not to have varied the decision.

W. MORGAN,

Clerk of the Legislative Council.

Legislative Council,
22nd July 1854.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 22nd of July 1854.

A Bill to abolish real actions, including fines and common recoveries, and to simplify the modes of conveying land in cases to which the English Law is applicable.

Preamble.—Whereas it is expedient in cases to which the English law applies to abolish real actions including fines and common recoveries and to simplify the modes of conveying land and to exempt the purchasers of trust property from the liability to see to the application of the purchase money, it is enacted as follows:—

1. All real actions, including fines and common recoveries, are abolished, except such as may be pending when this Act comes into operation.

A married woman with her husband's concurrence, empowered to dispose of by deed acknowledged, &c. in lieu of fine, &c., property to which she is alone or with her husband entitled or has power over.

2. Every married woman who, either alone, or jointly with her husband, is possessed of, or entitled to any estate or interest in, or any power to be exercised over, any lands or hereditaments, or money subject to be invested in lands or other hereditaments which, before the passing of this Act, she might have disposed of, released, surrendered or extinguished by levying a fine, or suffering a recovery, or by joining in either of such assurances, shall have power by deed to dispose of, release, surrender or extinguish any such estate, interest or power, as fully and effectually as if she were an unmarried woman, save only that such disposition, release, surrender or extinguishment shall not be valid and effectual, unless her husband concur in the deed by which the same shall be effected nor unless the deed be acknowledged in manner hereinafter prescribed before a Judge of one of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts, or before a Judge, Magistrate, or other Covenanted Officer of the East India Company, exercising civil jurisdiction in the place wherein such deed shall be acknowledged, or before some Commissioner or Commissioners appointed either specially, for the occasion, or appointed as a permanent Commissioner by one of Her Majesty's said Courts to take such acknowledgments.

Supreme Courts may appoint, for the purpose of taking such acknowledgment, permanent or special Commissioners.

3. It shall be lawful for any of Her Majesty's said Courts to appoint, by its order under the seal of the Court, to be published in the Government Gazette of that Presidency, permanent Commissioners, either by name or office, and to appoint from time to time, under special Commissions, Special Commissioners, any one of whom shall be authorized and empowered, unless the Act is directed to be done before more than one to take, the acknowledgment of any deed by any married woman who, by reason of her place of residence, or ill-health, or other sufficient cause, shall be unable to make such acknowledgment before one of the Judges or other public Officers described in the preceding Section.

Such married woman to be examined apart before one Judge, &c., taking her acknowledgment.

4. Every such Judge or public Officer or Commissioner as aforesaid, before he shall receive the acknowledgment by any married woman of any deed to be acknowledged by her, under this Act, shall examine her apart from her husband, touching her knowledge of such deed, and shall ascertain whether she understands its object, and freely and voluntarily consents to the same, and unless she appears to understand its object, and freely and voluntarily to consent to such deed, he shall not permit her to acknowledge the same, and in such case, such deed, so far as relates to the execution thereof by such married woman, shall be void.

Such Judge, &c., shall sign a Memorandum of acknowledgment—form of it.

5. Every Judge, public Officer or Commissioner, taking such acknowledgment under this Act, shall at the time of taking the same, sign a memorandum to be endorsed on or written at the foot, or in the margin of such deed, which memorandum shall be to the following effect, viz., "this deed marked ( ) was this day produced before me and acknowledged by therein named, to be her act and deed, previous to which acknowledgment the said was examined by me separately and apart from her husband, touching her knowledge of the contents of the said deed, and her consent thereto and appeared to understand the same, and declared the same to be freely and voluntarily executed by her."

Deed to take effect from date of the acknowledgment.

6. The deed so acknowledged shall take effect from the date of acknowledgment thereof.

It shall not be necessary to prove hand-writing or authority &c., but a deed so acknowledged, and purporting to be regular, shall prove itself.

7. It shall not be necessary for any person producing a deed so acknowledged in any Court of Justice, to prove the hand-writing or authority of the Judge or other Officer, or the Commissioner taking such acknowledgment, but if such memorandum purports to have been in substance regularly made and signed, the deed shall be presumed to have been duly acknowledged by the party, until the contrary is shown.

If husband be lunatic, &c., Court may direct acknowledgment by deed without his concurrence, saving right of the husband, &c.

8. If the husband of any married woman, desirous of passing or destroying any estate, interest or power, by a deed to be acknowledged by her under this Act, shall be a lunatic, idiot, or of unsound mind, whether he shall have been found such by inquisition or not, or from any other cause, shall be incapable of executing a deed, or if his residence shall not be known, or if he shall be in prison, or living apart from his wife, either by mutual consent or by sentence of divorce, or in consequence of his being transported beyond the seas, or from any other cause whatever, it shall be lawful for any of Her Majesty's Courts, by an order to be made in a summary way upon the application of such married woman, and upon such evidence as to the Court shall seem meet to dispense with the concurrence of her husband in the deed so to be acknowledged, and any deed to be executed or acknowledged by her in pursuance of such order shall, (but without prejudice to the rights of her husband as then existing, independently of this Act,) be as valid and effectual as if he had concurred therein.

Nothing in this Act to abridge the powers of alienation which a married woman possessed before this Act came into operation.

9. Nothing in this Act contained shall abridge, extend, or affect the powers of alienation or disposition, which any married woman might have exercised over any property or rights, otherwise than by levying a fine or suffering a recovery, or by joining in one of such assurances before the passing of this Act.

Tenant in tail may dispose of or enlarge his estate by simple deed, &c.

10. Every tenant in tail or owner of an estate in inheritance less than an estate in fee simple, either at law or in equity, in any lands or hereditaments not being under any disability, shall have power to dispose of such lands and hereditaments against all persons whose estates are to take effect after the determination or in defeazance of his own, or to enlarge his said estate into an estate in fee simple absolute by any deed declaring an intention so to dispose of the said lands or hereditaments, or to enlarge his estate therein; and every tenant in tail or person possessed of an estate in inheritance less than an estate in fee simple absolute, who shall be under the disability of coverture, shall have power to dispose of or enlarge her said estate by any deed, declaring her intention so to do, and acknowledged by her before a Judge or other public Officer or a Commissioner under this Act; provided that every disposition under this Section shall be subject to the rights of all persons in respect of estates prior to the estate tail or other estate of inheritance, which is the subject of such disposition and the rights of all other persons, except those against whom such disposition is by this Act authorized to be made.

Provision to apply to money subject to be invested in lands.

11. The provisions of the last preceding Section shall, so far as circumstances will admit, apply to money subject to be invested in lands to be settled, so that any person, if the lands were purchased, would have an estate tail therein.

Contingent estates in deeds or wills, without trustees to preserve, to be protected by the law from destruction.

12. In any deed or will executed after this Act comes into operation, and disposing of immoveable property situate in India, wherein contingent estates are limited without the appointment of any trustees to preserve such contingent estates, the same shall be, to all intents and purposes, as effectually protected by the law, as if such trustees had been duly appointed.

Any estate may be conveyed, &c., by simple deed, though not operating under the Statute of uses.

13. Any estate or interest in immoveable property, situate in India, whether in possession, remainder or reversion, may, in addition to any other mode of conveyance or release, which is now valid, be conveyed, passed or released, by a simple deed expressing such intention, and with apt words to effect it, whether such deed operate under the Statute of uses or not.

No conveyance shall operate otherwise than as an innocent conveyance.

14. No conveyance of any kind shall operate to destroy, impair, or affect any estate or interests which the conveying party has no legal right to destroy, impair or affect, or beyond the extent to which he may impair or affect the same.

No release shall operate, except to release the releaser's right. Saving of releases by commercial partnerships within the scope of their ordinary authority.

15. No release executed after the time when this Act comes into operation shall operate so as to release more than the right of the releasing party, provided that this shall not extend to the release by one or more members less than the whole of any commercial or trading partnership of any debt, claim, or right of action, which it would be within the scope of the ordinary authority of a partner in such firm to release.

Not necessary in deed to add words of limitation to heirs, to give estate by inheritance. Rule in Shelley's case not to operate.

16. From the time this Act comes into operation, it shall not be necessary in any deed to be executed after such time, as to immoveable property situate in India, to add words of limitation to heirs, when the intention is to give the absolute interest to a person and his heirs general, but a gift, grant, or other conveyance of immoveable property to, or in favor of any person, shall be taken to give him the entire and absolute interest in the nature of an estate in fee simple, unless such construction is rendered inadmissible by the other contents of the deed; and when in any deed, or will executed as aforesaid, any property is given to a person for life or for other freehold interest, and afterwards in the same deed, or will, is limited to his heirs or heir special, the estates shall not unite, but the limitation to the heirs shall be a limitation of an estate to be taken by the heirs by purchase; and it shall descend as if such estates had united.

Bond-fide purchaser not required to see to application of trust-money in any case.

17. When any property is sold, the proceeds of which are subject to any trust, the bond-fide purchaser of the property shall not in any case be bound to see to the application of the purchase-money to the purposes of the trust.

Act to apply only to cases governed by English Law.

18. Nothing in this Act contained shall extend to any case to which the English Law is not applicable.

W. MORGAN,

Clerk of the Legislative Council.

Legislative Council.

22nd July 1854.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 22nd of July 1854:

A Bill for making better provision for the education of male Minors, subject to the superintendence of the Court of Wards.

General control and superintendence of the education of male minor wards vested in Collectors of Revenue.

1. The general superintendence and control of the education of every male minor, whose property has been or shall be brought under the management of the Court of Wards, in and for any part of the Presidency of Fort William, by virtue of any Act or Regulation which now is or hereafter shall be in force, is hereby vested in the Collector of Revenue, acting under the said Court of Wards in the zillah or district, wherein the principal portion of such minor's estate is situate.

II. It shall be lawful for every Collector of Revenue, in whom the superintendence of the education of any minor is vested by this Act, to direct that such minor shall reside either with or without his guardian at the sudder station of the district, or at any other place either within or beyond the limits of the district, and shall attend, for the purposes of education, such school or college as to the said Collector may seem expedient; and to make such provision as may be necessary for the proper care and suitable maintenance of the said minor whilst attending such school or college.

Collectors to have power to cause male minor wards to be educated at any school or college.

III. If it shall appear to the Collector inexpedient to place any such minor at a school or college, he shall cause such minor to be educated by a private tutor, properly qualified, either at the family residence of such minor, or at the sudder station or elsewhere, and in that case also the Collector shall have power to determine from time to time the place of residence of such minor, and to make such provision as may be necessary for his proper tuition and maintenance during the period of his education.

Or in certain cases to cause such wards to be educated privately.

IV. All charges and expenses which may be incurred on account of any male minor ward under the provisions of this Act, for college or school fees, or for other charges of tuition or education, or by reason of his residence in any place other than his own home or otherwise, shall be defrayed from the profits of his estate in the same manner as other expenses incurred, under the authority or with the sanction of the Court of Wards.

Charges and expenses incurred under this Act, to be paid out of the profits of the ward's estate.

V. It shall be lawful for the Court of Wards, on the application of a Collector, to remove from office any guardian who shall neglect or refuse to obey, or shall evade compliance with any orders passed, or directions given by such Collector under the provisions of this Act, and to cause a new guardian to be appointed in his place, whether the person so removed shall have been first invested with the guardianship of the minor upon the nomination of a Collector acting under the Court of Wards, or by a testamentary appointment confirmed by the Court of Wards, and if in any such case the guardian to be removed, shall be also the manager of the minor's estate, it shall be lawful for the Court of Wards, at its discretion, either to remove him from both the said offices, or to continue him in that of manager only.

Court of Wards to have power to remove guardians for disobedience to orders passed by a Collector under this Act.

VI. The guardian so removed shall, notwithstanding his removal, continue liable to account to the Collector for his receipts and disbursements during the period of his guardianship; and every guardian appointed in the place of a guardian so removed, shall be chosen in the same way, and shall have the same rights and powers, and be subject to the same responsibilities as persons originally appointed to be guardians of minors by a Collector of Revenue acting under the Court of Wards.

Continued liability of guardian removed, powers and responsibilities of new guardian.

VII. If a question shall arise in any Court of Justice within the territories of the East India Company touching the right to the custody of the person of any male minor whose property is under the management of the Court of Wards, the person appointed with the sanction of the Court of Wards, either originally or upon the removal of a former guardian, to be the guardian of such minor, or in the absence of any such person, the Collector of Revenue having the superintendence of the education of such minor under the provisions of this Act, shall have and be deemed entitled to the same rights and powers as would be possessed by a guardian appointed by a Court of Justice of competent jurisdiction.

Guardians appointed by the Court of Wards, or failing them, the Collector to have the same power over the persons of wards as guardians appointed by Courts of Justice.

VIII. All orders and proceedings of a Collector under the provisions of this Act shall be subject to the revision of the Court of Wards, and every person aggrieved by any such order or proceeding may prefer an appeal therefrom to the Commissioner of Revenue acting as a Court of Wards in and for the division to which such Collector belongs.

Appeal from the orders of a Collector to lie to Commissioner of Revenue acting as a Court of Wards.

" viously obtained"

2 On the 3rd December 1832, a Circular letter was addressed to the Residents and Political Agents, directing that the sale of property by British Officers to Native Chiefs, or persons of rank at the Native Courts, being particularly liable to abuse, should be altogether discontinued; and on the 29th May 1850, the Residents and Political Agents were again addressed, and furnished with copies of instructions from the Honorable Court of Directors to the same effect.

3. It has been brought to the notice of Government that, notwithstanding these repeated orders, the practice in question still prevails. The Most Noble the Governor General in Council, therefore, acting in conformity with the wishes of the Court of Directors, is pleased to notify, for general information, that the Officers of Government, of whatever rank or class, are absolutely prohibited from selling, or being concerned in the sale of property, of any amount or description, to Native Princes and Chiefs, or to their relatives or ministers, or to any Native gentlemen of rank or opulence, residing under the protection of the British Government.

4. Any disobedience of these orders will be followed by the displeasure of the Government of India, and by such other penalty as the circumstances of the case may demand.

5. These orders are to be considered applicable to all Officers of the British Government, in whatever Presidency they may be serving.

THE CHAIRMAN AND DEPUTY CHAIRMAN OF THE COURT OF DIRECTORS OF THE EAST INDIA COMPANY.

GENTLEMEN,

With reference to Sir J. C. Melvill's letter dated the 6th ultimo, I am commanded by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury to acquaint you that my Lords have authorized the Commissariat Officers in charge in New South Wales to issue the pension of Mrs. W. Smith, Widow of the late Captain W. S. Smith, of the Madras Establishment, and that they have informed him, at the same time, that you have requested that the pensions of persons on your establishment located in New South Wales and Victoria may, in order to save the delay of a reference to this country, be issued from the Commissariat Chest, on the production of certificates of last payments in India and receipt of the necessary communication from the Indian Governments, and the assistant Commissary General has been authorized to issue the same accordingly. Similar directions have been given to the Commissariat Officers in charge in

Van Dieman's Land,
Western Australia,
South Australia and New Zealand.

The enclosures of Sir J. C. Melvill's letter are herewith returned.

I am, &c.,

Rangoon Post Office Notice.

LETTERS and Newspapers, which should be addressed to RANGOON only, are frequently directed by mistake to Pegu or Burmah, and letters, &c. intended for delivery in Pegu, Prome, Bassien and other places in the Provinces, are in like manner erroneously addressed to "Rangoon, Burmah." The Rangoon Post Master begs to notify that, with such vague directions, this Department is left to find out to which of the Stations such letters should be forwarded, and from want of information, great disappointment is felt when they are despatched to the wrong Station. To obviate this, it is desirable, that parties posting letters in Calcutta or elsewhere, should be careful to direct them to their respective Stations, and to inform their Agents and Correspondents, when leaving one place for another, of their change of address, to ensure letters being directed to the proper Station. A list of places in the Pegu Provinces or in Burmah, and their distance from Rangoon, is annexed below, viz.:

Donabew,	40	miles
Pegu,	55	,,
Sittang,	67	,,
Shoaygyeen,	90	,,
Bassein,	95	miles.
Henzada,	95	,,
Tonghoo,	130	,,
Monean,	120	,,
Thayetmyo,	200	,,
Meeaday,	205	,,
Namean,	195	,,
Prome,	200	,,
Yeagheen,	160	,,
Tapoon, Tindan, Tayngheen, Yandoon,	Below Prome.

Letters addressed to public functionaries, whose head-quarters or residence is in Rangoon, should be addressed "Rangoon," instead of Pegu or Burmah; but if intended for delivery at other Stations, should be addressed to those Stations, the word Rangoon to be omitted.

7th 10th June 1854

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

EXHIBITION OF A NEW REVOLVING LIGHT AT NORTH RONALDSHAY, AND ALTERATION OF THE START-POINT LIGHT FROM A REVOLVING LIGHT TO A FIXED LIGHT.

I.—NORTH RONALDSHAY LIGHTHOUSE.

THE COMMISSIONERS of the NORTHERN LIGHTHOUSES hereby give Notice that a LIGHTHOUSE is being built upon the ISLAND of NORTH RONALDSHAY in ORKNEY, the Light of which will be exhibited on the Night of FRIDAY the 1st September 1854, and every night thereafter, from the going away of day-light in the evening to the return of day-light in the morning.

The following is a Description of the Lighthouse and the Appearance of the Light, by MR. DAVID STEVENSON, Engineer to the Commissioners:—

THE LIGHTHOUSE is in N. Lat. 59° 23′ 15″, and W. Long 2° 23′ 38″; it stands on the Northern Point of the Island of North Ronaldshay, and by Compass it bears from Moul-head of Papa-Westra, W N. W ½ North, distance 15 nautic miles; and from Start-Point of Sanday Lighthouse, S. S. W ½ West, distance 6¼ miles.

THE NORTH RONALDSHAY LIGHT will be known to Mariners as a REVOLVING LIGHT, producing a bright flash of the natural colour once in every 10 seconds. It will be visible all round the Compass. The Lantern is elevated 140 feet above the level of the sea, and the Light will be seen at the distance of about 18 nautic miles, and at lesser distances, according to the state of the atmosphere.

II.—START-POINT LIGHTHOUSE.

THE START-POINT Light, which is 6¼ miles from North Ronaldshay Light, being at present a REVOLVING LIGHT, producing a bright flash once in every minute, the COMMISSIONERS further give notice, that on and after the night of Friday the 1st September 1854, when the new Revolving Light at North Ronaldshay is to be exhibited, the present REVOLVING LIGHT at Start-point WILL BE CHANGED TO A FIXED LIGHT of the natural color.

Indian Iron.

THE RAILWAY COMPANY have to acknowledge the receipt of several communications with description and specimens of the Iron produced in India, in reply to their advertisement, the object of which was to collect all the data available on the subject before the 1st October next, when it is expected that a qualified practical Iron-viewer will be sent out from England, upon whose report, after personal inspection of the several districts indicated, should it prove favorable, the Indian Iron Company already completely re-organized, and in active operation on the Western Coast of India, will, it is believed, be prepared to despatch the men and Machinery necessary for at once establishing Iron Works on a limited but sufficient scale, upon the most eligible site which shall have been selected, with due regard to the proximity of the Materials and the convenience of cheap communication.

The Railway Company will require all the Iron that can be produced for some years from this source, and request that any parties who may have delayed sending in their information upon the subject, will endeavour to forward it previous to the 1st October, to admit of its being usefully availed of.

SATURDAY, JULY 29, 1854.

Legislative Council.

21st July 1854.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General of India on the 21st July 1854, and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. XV. OF 1854.

An Act to facilitate the proceedings of the Commissioners appointed to inquire into certain matters connected with the position of Sir James Brooke, Her Majesty's Commissioner and Consul General in Borneo.

Whereas the Governor General of India in Council has, by a Commission bearing date the seventh day of July, in the year of our Lord One thousand Eight hundred and Fifty-four, nominated and appointed Charles Robert Prinsep, Esq., Barrister-at-Law and Advocate-General of Fort William in Bengal, and the Hon'ble Humphrey Bohun Devereux, in the Civil Service of the East India Company on their Bengal Establishment, to inquire into certain matters connected with and arising out of the position of Sir James Brooke, Her Majesty's Commissioner and Consul General in Borneo; and whereas it is expedient that the Commissioners aforesaid should be invested with certain legal powers within the territories in the possession and under the Government of the East India Company, It is enacted as follows:

Commissioners to be sworn.

1. Each of the said Commissioners shall, before beginning to act in the execution of the Commission aforesaid, take and subscribe, before one of the Judges of Her Majesty's Supreme Court of Judicature, at Fort William in Bengal, the following oath, that is to say:—

"I do swear, that I will truly and faithfully, according to the best of my knowledge and judgment, execute the powers and trusts vested in me by the Governor General of India in Council, by a Commission bearing date the Seventh day of July, in the year of our Lord One thousand Eight hundred and Fifty-four, and by Act No. XV. of 1854. So help me God."

And the Judge of the Supreme Court, before whom such oath shall be taken, shall transmit the same to the Secretary to the Government of India in the Foreign Department, to be filed among the records of his office.

To summon witnesses, &c.

2. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners aforesaid, by a summons under their hands, or under the hand of either of them, to require the attendance before them, at a time and place to be mentioned in such summons, of any person or persons whomsoever, residing or being within the Jurisdiction of the Court of Judicature of the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore and Malacca, whose evidence shall, in the judgment of the Commissioners aforesaid, be material to any of the matters directed by the Governor General of India in Council to be enquired of, and to require the person or persons so summoned to bring and produce before them all such books, papers, deeds and writings, as to them, the said Commissioners, shall appear necessary for arriving at the truth of the matters directed to be enquired into by the said Commissioners, all which persons shall accordingly attend the said Commissioners and shall produce such books, papers, deeds and writings as shall be required of them and shall be in their custody and control, or in the custody and control of any one of them, according to the tenor of the summons. Provided always that no person shall be compellable to answer any question or to produce any book, paper, deed or writing, the answer to which, or the production of which, may criminate or tend to criminate such person, or to expose such person to any pains or penalties.

Witnesses indemnified.

3. And whereas it may appear to the Commissioners aforesaid desirable to examine as witnesses several persons touching the matters directed to be enquired into, the evidence of which persons may tend to expose them to penal consequences, every person who shall be examined as a witness and give evidence before the Commissioners aforesaid touching the matters in question, and who shall, upon such examination, make a true discovery to the best of his knowledge touching all matters to which he or she shall be so examined, shall be freed from all penal actions, forfeitures, punishments, disabilities and incapacities and all criminal prosecutions to which he or she may have been, or may become, liable or subject within any part of the said territories in the possession and under the Government of the East India Company for any thing done by such person in respect of any acts relating to which he shall be examined. Provided that where any witness shall be so examined as aforesaid, such witness shall not be indemnified under this Act, unless or until he or she shall receive from the Commissioners aforesaid, under their hands, a certificate in writing, stating that such witness has upon his or her examination made a true disclosure touching all matters to which he or she has been so examined.

Power to administer an oath, &c.

4. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners aforesaid, or one of them, to administer an oath, or in the case of persons allowed by law to make affirmation instead of taking an oath, an affirmation, in such form as to them, the said Commissioners, shall seem fit, to all persons who shall be examined before them touching the matters directed, or which may be directed to be enquired into, by them as aforesaid.

Witnesses refusing to attend or answer.

5. If any person, upon whom any such summons shall be served by the delivery thereof to him or her, or by the leaving thereof at his or her usual place of abode, being a person subject to the Court of Judicature of the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore or Malacca, shall, without reasonable cause (to be allowed by the Commissioners aforesaid,) fail to appear before them at the time and place mentioned in the summons, or shall refuse to be sworn or to make affirmation (as the case may be,) or shall not make answer to such questions as shall be put to him or her touching the matters directed, or which may hereafter be directed, to be enquired into by the Commissioners aforesaid, or shall refuse or fail, without reasonable cause (to be allowed by the Commissioners aforesaid,) to produce and show to the said Commissioners any such paper, book, deed or writing being in their possession or under their control, as to the Commissioners aforesaid shall appear necessary for arriving at the truth of the matters directed to be inquired into by them, the Commissioners aforesaid shall have the same powers in all respects touching any such person so failing to appear, or refusing to be sworn or to make affirmation, or not answering such questions as shall be put to him or her, or refusing to produce and show any such book, paper, deed, or writing as aforesaid, as the Court of Judicature of the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore and Malacca may by law exercise against any person for making default of appearance, or for refusing to be sworn or to give evidence on any issue joined in any action depending in such Court.

Penalty for false evidence.

6. Every person, who, upon examination upon oath, or affirmation before the Commissioners aforesaid, shall wilfully give false evidence, shall be liable to the pains and penalties of perjury.

Limitation of actions.

7. No action shall be brought against the Commissioners aforesaid, or any other person or persons whomsoever, for anything done in the execution of this Act, unless such action shall be brought within six calendar months next after the doing of such thing.

In what cases one Commissioner may act,

8. In case of the death or resignation of either of the said Commissioners, or in the event of either of them becoming incapable of acting, it shall be lawful for the other Commissioner to act alone; and every part of this Act shall be deemed to apply to such Commissioner as if he alone had been mentioned herein.

W. MORGAN,

Clerk of the Legislative Council.

Act X. of 1835 repealed.

1. From the time when this Act comes into operation, all Courts of Justice, in all places, for which the Governor-General of India in Council, for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations, has power to regulate, and all persons in the same places, having by law or consent of parties authority to take evidence, shall take judicial notice of all Regulations, Acts and Ordinances, made before the 22nd day of April 1834, by the Governor-General in Council at Fort William in Bengal, by the Governor in Council of the Presidency of Fort St. George, or by the Governor in Council of the Presidency of Bombay, and having the force of law in any part of the territories of the East India Company, and of all Laws and Regulations heretofore made by the Governor-General of India in Council, and of this Act, and of all Acts and Regulations heretofore made, or hereinafter to be made by the Governor-General of India in Council, for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations, whether the same be of a public or of a private nature.

The Act No. X of 1835 of the Indian Legislature is hereby repealed.

Courts, &c., to take judicial notice of public and private Acts of Parliament

2. All Courts and persons as aforesaid shall take judicial notice of all Statutes of the Imperial Parliament of Great Britain and Ireland, whether public or private.

3. All Courts and persons as aforesaid shall take judicial notice of all proclamations of Her Majesty, her predecessors and successors, and of the Governor-General of India in Council for the time being, and of any Governor of a Presidency.

Also of royal proclamations and of those of the Indian Government and of those of a Presidency.

4. All Courts and persons aforesaid shall take judicial notice of the official seals of all Courts.

Courts &c., to take judicial notice of the official seals of Courts.

5. All Courts shall take judicial notice of their own Members and Officers respectively, and of their Deputies or subordinate Officers or Assistants, and of the Sheriff and under Sheriffs for the time being, or other Officers acting in execution of their process, and of all Advocates, Attornies, Proctors, or other persons acting before them.

Courts shall take judicial notice of their own Members, Officers, &c.

6. All Courts and persons aforesaid shall take judicial notice of the names, titles and authorities of the persons filling for the time being any one of the following offices:—the Governor-General of India, the Lieutenant or Deputy-Governor of a Presidency, the Governor of a Presidency, the Commander-in-Chief of India, the Commander-in-Chief of a Presidency, the Bishop of Calcutta or of any other Presidency, a Member of Council, a Legislative Councillor, a Judge of any one of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts or of the Sudder Dewanny Adawlut, or of any other chief Court hereafter to be created.

Courts, &c., shall take judicial notice of certain public officers, their names, titles, &c.

7. All Courts and persons aforesaid shall take judicial notice of any Government Gazette of any country, colony or dependency, directly or indirectly under the Sovereignty or Government of the Crown of England.

Courts, &c., to take judical notice of Gazettes, including those of colonies, &c., of the Crown.

8. All Proclamations, Acts of State, nominations, appointments, and other official communications of the Government, appearing in any such Gazette, shall be proved by the production of such Gazette, and shall be primâ facie proof of the matters to which they relate and which they were intended to notify.

Proclamations, acts of state, &c., proved by the production of the Gazette.

9. Any recital contained in any Act of the Governor General of India in Council, for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations hereafter to be passed, of any fact of a public nature, shall be deemed before all Courts and persons as aforesaid to be primâ facie evidence of the truth of the fact recited.

Recitals in Acts of the Indian Legislature of public matters, primâ facie proof of the same.

10. Every advertisement or notification which appears in any Gazette or public newspaper, by virtue of any Statute, Act, Regulation or Ordinance, or Rule or Order of a Court of Justice, requiring such advertisement or notification, shall, on production of the Gazette or newspaper containing it before any such Courts or persons as aforesaid, be primâ facie proof that it was published duly under the authority from which it purports to proceed, and of the facts to which it refers and which it was intended to notify.

Advertisements or notifications by authority in the Gazette prima facie proof of the matters notified.

11. All such Courts and persons as aforesaid, in addition to the matters which they are directed to notice judicially, shall take judicial notice of all matters of public history, past or present, of all divisions of time, of all matters of law, except the law of a Foreign State, of all the territories and dominions directly or indirectly under the sovereignty of the British Crown, of their geographical divisions and of the names of cities, towns, villages, rivers and mountains therein, of the commencement, continuation and termination of hostilities, with and between any States, recognised by the English Government, and may inform themselves as to any such matters and as to all matters of literature, science, art and trade, by any reference to any published books, maps or charts of authority or reputation, which contain information thereon.

Courts, &c., to take judicial notice of certain other matters.

12. When any question of Foreign law shall arise before any such Court or person as aforesaid, such Court or person may consult and take as evidence of the state of such law on the points any published code, body of law, treatise, report or written opinion, which appears to be either authoritative or good evidence of such question of law.

Courts, &c., may inform themselves on questions of Foreign law arising before them by consulting Codes, &c.

13. All maps made under the authority of Government or of any public municipal body, and not made for the purpose of any litigated question, shall, primâ facie, be deemed to be correct, and shall be admitted in evidence without further proof.

Government and public maps.

14. No one, whether an adult or infant, shall be incompetent as a witness in any such Court, or before any such person, except for defect of understanding; and if an infant be of competent understanding, he may be a witness at any age. Any person who, by reason of his immature age and want of religious belief, or who, by reason of his defect of religious belief, ought not, in the opinion of such Court or person, to be admitted to give evidence on oath or solemn affirmation, shall be admitted to give evidence on his simple affirmation, as hereinafter provided for.

No one incompetent as a witness, except for want of understanding. Witnesses who from defect of religious belief, should not be sworn, &c., may be examined on their simple affirmation.

15. No one shall be excluded in any such Court, or before any such person, from giving evidence as a witness, or from acting as a Juror, who, on conscientious grounds, objects to take an oath or to make a solemn affirmation. In such a case he shall, if a witness, make a simple affirmation that he will give true evidence, or if a Juror, that he will give a true verdict according to the evidence, and the words of the usual oath or solemn affirmation shall be modified under the direction of the Court or person aforesaid into words suitable to his case.

Jurors and witnesses who, on conscientious grounds, object to take an oath, or make a solemn affirmation, may make a simple affirmation.

16. The provisions herein as to witnesses shall apply to testimony given by affidavit, or otherwise in writing, as well as to testimony orally delivered.

The provision aforesaid to apply to written testimony.

17. Any such witness giving wilfully false evidence shall be subject to be proceeded against in like manner, and to suffer, if convicted, the same punishment as if he had been sworn and had committed wilful and corrupt perjury. The indictment or charge shall be varied so as to meet the case.

Witnesses giving wilfully false evidence may be punished as if perjured.

18. Husbands and wives shall be competent witnesses for each other, but this shall not extend to make the wife a witness in an action brought by the husband for damages, for adultery committed by her.

Husbands and wives competent witnesses for each other.

19. Whenever the wife may sue the husband, or the husband the wife, in any civil suit, each may be admitted as a witness in such suit against the other.

In suits by husbands against wives, or vice versâ, each may be a witness against the other.

20. The Rules of evidence in Her Majesty's Supreme Courts shall be the same as to the matters of Ecclesiastical jurisdiction, as they are on the Plea, Equity and Crown sides of the Courts respectively.

The rules of evidence on the Ecclesiastical side of the Supreme Courts to be the same as on the Plea, &c., sides.

21. One witness, in all cases, except cases of treason, shall be sufficient in law, in any such Court or before any such person, but this provision shall not affect any rule or practice of any Court that requires corroborative evidence in support of the testimony of an accomplice or of a simple witness in a case of perjury, or as to the proof of an admission or otherwise. Provided that this shall not extend to give validity to any instrument to which the attestation of witnesses is necessary.

One witness to be sufficient in law, except on treason, proviso saving rules as to confirmation.

22. In that class of cases, wherein dying declarations are evidence, they shall be received, if it be proved that the deceased was, at the time of making the declaration, and then thought himself to be, in danger of approaching death, though he still entertained, at the time of making it, hopes of recovery.

Where dying declarations are evidence, they shall be admissible though some hope of recovery remains.

23. A party may be allowed to show before any such Court or Judge, that a witness whom he produces has, at the trial or hearing, varied from a previous statement made by him, and has given unexpectedly, at the trial or hearing, evidence different from that which such person expected from him.

A party allowed to discredit his witness by showing a variation in statement by the witness.

24. A witness on cross-examination may, with the consent of such Court or person, be asked as to the contents of a writing not produced, though such writing be in the possession of the party examining, where the object is to test the accuracy or truthfulness of the witness.

A witness with the consent of the Court may be asked on cross-examination as to the contents of a written instrument in the power of the cross-examiner not produced.

25. Where a copy is proved to have been made from an original writing, and appears on its production to have been made by any copying machine, it shall be taken without further proof to be a correct copy.

A copy made by a copying machine to be deemed a correct copy.

26. Where an original document is out of the reach of the process of the Court, or is at so great a distance from the Court, that the best evidence of it could not be had without serious expense, it shall be lawful for the Court, on application to it, and on notice to the opposite party at a reasonable time before the hearing, to make an order for the reception of secondary evidence of its execution and contents.

When an original document is out of the reach of the process of the Court, or at a distance, secondary evidence may be received on application for that purpose.

27. An attested document may be proved as if no such attestation had existed, unless it be a document to the validity of which attestation is requisite.

An attested may be proved as an unattested document, when attestation is not essential.

28. The admission of a party to an attested instrument of its execution by himself, shall be as against him sufficient primâ facie proof of the due execution of it, though it be an instrument which is required by law to be attested.

The admission of a party to an attested instrument of its execution by himself shall be as against him good evidence, though attestation be essential to its validity.

29. The books of any person, which are proved to have been regularly kept in the way in which such books usually are, shall be admissible as corroborative, but not as independent proof of the facts which may have been stated therein when such facts become to be proved.

Books regularly kept, shall be admitted as corroborative proofs.

30. In all cases where hearsay evidence, in the shape of an entry in any book, public or private, is admissible in evidence after the death of the party who made it, on the ground of its having been made in the ordinary course of business and without motive to misrepresent, such entry shall be admissible, though the party who made it be not dead, if he is incapable of being produced as a witness to the transaction, and of giving evidence as to it by reason of his subsequent loss of understanding, or where he is at the time of the trial or hearing bonâ fide and permanently beyond the reach of the process of the Court, or cannot, after diligent search be found.

When an entry is admissible evidence after the death of a party, it shall be admissible in his lifetime, if he be incapable of being examined or be permanently absent, or cannot be found after diligent search.

31. In any case where such entry is admissible, it shall be admissible, although it appear that the party who made it had not himself personal knowledge of the matter to which such entry relates, provided it appear that he acted in making it on the personal knowledge, whether directly conveyed to him or not, of some person whose business it was to do the thing or give the information which the entry records.

Personal knowledge of the party making the entry not essential, if it were made on personal knowledge directly or indirectly conveyed.

32. In all cases where hearsay evidence is received in the shape of a declaration or entry, on the ground that it was made against the interest of the party making it, it shall be admissible in evidence, though the party who made it is alive and is capable of being produced and of giving testimony as a witness.

Hearsay evidence, which is admissible, because made against the interest of the party giving it, shall be admissible, though he be alive and capable of being produced as a witness.

Entries evidence for the limited purpose of identification.

33. Any entry in any books, public or private, or any memorandum so far as such entry or memorandum merely refers to and tends to identify by name, description, number, or otherwise, any bank-Notes or other securities for the payment of money, or other property, and the payer in or receiver of them shall, in any case, where such identification is necessary to be proved, be prima facie proof for that limited purpose, if it shall be proved to have been made at or about the time of the transaction to which it relates, and without any interest in falsifying the description of such notes, securities or property, though the person who made it or he on whose information it was made is alive and capable of being produced as a witness.

Various mercantile documents made prima facie evidence of what they purport to prove.

34. Certificates of shares and of registration thereof, bills of lading, invoices, account sales, receipts usually given on the payment or deposit, or delivery of money, receipts usually given on the delivery of any goods, chattels, securities, letters, papers or other things, provided such receipts be proved to have been given in the ordinary course of business, and concurrently with or near to the time of the receipt which they evidence, warrants, orders or other documents evidencing the title to goods deposited in any public warehouse, public dock, or other such public place, shall be on proof that they were respectively given out or received as genuine, and without proof of handwriting or authority, be received as sufficient prima facie evidence of the matters which they evidence, as well between the parties to the transaction as between other parties.

A witness may refresh his memory by any document, &c., which may refresh it.

35. A witness whose memory requires to be refreshed, and who desires to refer before such Court, or before any such person as aforesaid, to any document for that purpose, shall be permitted to refresh it from any book, document or writing or inscription, whether such book, document, writing or inscription be an original or only a copy or extract, and whether that from which he refreshes his memory, or that from which it may have been taken, be of his own making or not, and whether it has or has not been in any manner made under his inspection or control.

Where statements, charges and complaints, &c., are now admissibleas evidence to the extent only that they were made, the particulars thereof may be received as corroborative proof.

36. And whereas in many instances, statements, charges and complaints are received as evidence, so far only that it is competent to prove in certain cases, that a statement, or charge, or a complaint was made, but the particulars of the statement, charge or complaint are not permitted to be given in evidence; it is enacted that in all such cases the particulars shall be allowed to be received in evidence, and may be acted on as corroborative proof, but not in themselves as sufficient proof of the facts embodied in such complaint, charge or statement, respectively.

The evidence and declarations on pedigree extended.

37. The declarations in cases of pedigree of members of a family who were illegitimate and are deceased, and also of persons who, though not related by blood or marriage to the family, were intimately acquainted with its members and state, shall be admissible in evidence of their decease, in the same manner and to the same extent as those of deceased members of the family.

The evidence of declarations on questions of public right extended as to proof of particular facts.

38. When hearsay evidence is admissible on subjects of public right, it shall extend to declarations of particular acts done in assertion or derogation of, or inconsistent with the right, and to declarations of particular facts which tend to prove or disprove the right.

Evidence of a testator's intentions admissible in certain cases where it is not now admissible.

39. When a will is disputed on any ground which supposes that the will does not describe correctly the intended and free and intelligent disposition of a Testator, evidence may be received of the Testator's declarations as to his intentions, or actual disposition, provided it be proved that they were made about the time or subsequent to the time of making the will.

Comparison of hand writing allowed, though the document be not evidence in itself.

40. On an inquiry, whether a signature, or writing, or seal, is genuine, any undisputed signature, writing or seal of the party, whose signature, writing or seal is under dispute, may be compared with the disputed one, though such signature, writing or seal be on an instrument which is not, and cannot be, for general or for other purposes, evidence in the cause.

Powers of attorney may be proved by their production without further proof in certain cases.

41. And whereas the proof of the execution of powers of attorney is often attended with difficulty and expense, where they are executed at places remote from that of trial, and whereas the proof of the despatch of letters is often attained with much difficulty, and the law of evidence may with advantage be altered and rendered less strict as to such matters, it is hereby enacted that any power of attorney, which has been executed at a place distant more than 100 miles from the place wherein the action, suit or proceeding is depending, may be proved by the production of it, without further proof, where it purports, on the face of it, to have been executed before a notary public, or any Court, Judge, or other public Officer, and such power of attorney may, where it does not purport, on the face of it, to have been so executed, be proved by producing it, and proving that it has been acted on, or remitted to be acted on by competent authority, and by proving the instructions as to it.

The accompanying letter of instructions may be proved without proof of handwriting, by evidence and belief that the letter is genuine.

42. Where the instructions are contained in a letter or letters, the handwriting of which cannot, by reason of the absence of necessary witnesses, be proved, still if such letters are proved to be genuine, according to the best of the knowledge and belief of a witness having reasonable grounds for his opinion, they may be received as sufficient proof of such instructions. In all the cases aforesaid, the witness or witnesses must depose that he or they believes or believe the instrument to be genuine and authorized, and that it has not been revoked.

Letters may be proved by production of the letter-book and reasonable evidence of the probable despatch of the letter.

43. Whenever it is proved that a letter-book is kept, and that according to the usual course of business, letters are copied into such book and despatched, and the letter-book is produced, and it is proved that the letter was despatched according to the usual practice, to the best of the knowledge and belief of the witness, having reasonable ground for forming that belief, the Court may presume the despatch of that letter according to the usual course of business.

A receipt in a peons-book prima facie evidence of receipt of letter.

44. Any peon's-book or other book purporting to contain a receipt of a letter, and proved to have been kept as a book for marking the receipt of letters, shall also be sufficient primâ facie proof that such letter was received.

If the letter be described, then it shall be prima facie proof of identity of letter despatched.

45. If the letter be described in such book, it shall be also primâ facie proof of the identity of the letter.

Such identity may be inferred from circumstances.

46. If the book do not describe the letter, still the identity of the letter may be inferred from circumstances.

Power to inspect documents, though application be made upon issue joined, &c., or within twenty-one days of trial or hearing.

47. And whereas by the Act XV. of 1852, Section 6, a power was given in any action or other legal proceeding pending in any of Her Majesty's said Supreme Courts, for such Court, and each of the Judges thereof respectively, on application for such purpose by either of the litigants, to compel the opposite party to allow the party making the application to inspect all documents in the custody of, or under the control of such opposite party, relating to such action or other legal proceeding, and if necessary to take examined copies of the same, or to procure the same to be duly stamped in all cases in which, previous to the passing of that Act, a discovery might have been obtained by filing a Bill, or by any other proceeding in a Court of Equity, at the instance of the party so making application as aforesaid to the said Court or Judge, provided always that every such application should be made as aforesaid before issue joined in any such action, and twenty-one days before the trial or hearing of any other legal proceeding.

48. And whereas the preceding proviso has been found inconvenient, it is therefore hereby repealed, and it shall be lawful for the Court or Judge to grant any such inspection at any time before the trial or hearing, provided a proper case be made out for granting the same, and the application has been made under the circumstances of the case without any unreasonable delay, and in any case where the Court or Judge shall think fit to grant such inspection, such terms may be imposed as to payment of costs or otherwise, as may be expedient and just.

Proofs by affidavit in certain cases under Act VI. of 1854 is limited to all sides of the Court.

49. And whereas by the 16th Section of the Act VI. of 1854, it is provided that affidavits of particular witnesses, or affidavits as to particular facts or circumstances, may, by consent of the parties, or by leave of the Court obtained upon notice, be used in the hearing of any cause, and the same enactment is limited to proceedings on the Equity side of such Supreme Court; it is therefore enacted that the same shall extend to all Civil actions, suits and proceedings on all sides of the Court.

Provisions of the 17th Section of the said Act extended to all sides of the Court. Limitation thereon as to Crown side.

50. And whereas by the 17th Section of the same Act, it is provided that upon the hearing of any suit depending in any of the said Supreme Courts, whether commenced by Bill or Claim, and also upon the hearing of any motion, petition or other proceeding in any of the said Courts, the Court may, upon the application of any of the parties thereto, or of its own accord, require and enforce the attendance and oral examination before itself of any witness or of any party to the suit, and may also require and enforce the production of any document or documents, and may direct the costs of the attendance and examination of such witness or party to be paid by such of the parties to the suit, or in such manner as it may think fit, and it is desirable to extend this provision to all sides of the Court; it is therefore enacted that the said provisions shall extend to all sides of the Court, but that they shall not authorize or empower the Court to direct the examination of any accused person at the trial for any purpose, but shall extend only to authorize his examination as to collateral matters arising on matter unconnected with the question of his guilt or innocence.

Provisions of the 33rd Section of the said Act as to accounts extended to all sides of the Court.

51. And it is further enacted that the 33rd Section of the said Act No VI. of 1854, which applies only to proof of accounts on the Equity side of the Court, shall extend to and embrace all accounts directed to be taken on any side of the said Court.

Provisions of the Act 8 and 9 Victoria as to proof of official documents extended to this country.

52. And whereas it is desirable to extend to this country certain of the provisions of the Act 8 and 9 Victoria, Cap. 113, entitled "An Act to facilitate the admission in evidence of certain official and other documents;" it is therefore enacted that whenever, by any Statute or Act, Regulation or Ordinance now in force, or any Statute or Act to be hereinafter in force, any certificate, certified copy, or other document shall be receivable in evidence of any particular, in any Court of Justice, the same, if it is substantially in the form and purports to be executed in the manner directed by the Statute, Act, Regulation or Ordinance which makes it evidence, shall be primâ facie evidence where it is rendered admissible without proof of any seal, stamp, signature, character or authority, which it is directed to have, or from which it is directed to proceed.

This Act shall not limit, but may extend the practice of the Courts of the East India Company in the reception of evidence. No decision to be reversed, &c., merely because evidence is improperly rejected or received.

53. The provisions in this Act contained shall apply to extend, but not to restrict the law and practice of the Courts of the East India Company or other Courts as to the reception of evidence. In no Court shall the improper admission or rejection of evidence be ground of itself for a new trial or reversal of any decision in any case, if it shall appear to the Court before which such objection is raised, that independently of the evidence admitted and objected to, there was sufficient evidence to justify the decision, or that if the rejected evidence had been received, it ought not to have varied the decision.

W MORGAN,

Clerk of the Legislative Council

Legislative Council.

22nd July 1853.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 22nd of July 1854.

A Bill to abolish real actions, including fines and common recoveries, and to simplify the modes of conveying land in cases to which the English Law is applicable.

Preamble—Whereas it is expedient in cases to which the English law applies to abolish real actions including fines and common recoveries and to simplify the modes of conveying land and to exempt the purchasers of trust property from the liability to see to the application of the purchase money, it is enacted as follows:—

1. All real actions, including fines and common recoveries, are abolished, except such as may be pending when this Act comes into operation.

A married woman with her husband's concurrence, empowered to dispose of by deed acknowledged, &c., in lieu of fine, &c., property to which she is alone or with her husband entitled or has power over.

2. Every married woman who, either alone or jointly with her husband, is possessed of, or entitled to any estate or interest in, or any power to be exercised over, any lands or hereditaments, or money subject to be invested in lands or other hereditaments which, before the passing of this Act, she might have disposed of, released, surrendered or extinguished by levying a fine, or suffering a recovery, or by joining in either of such assurances, shall have power by deed to dispose of, release, surrender or extinguish any such estate, interest or power, as fully and effectually as if she were an unmarried woman, save only that such disposition, release, surrender or extinguishment shall not be valid and effectual, unless her husband concur in the deed by which the same shall be effected nor unless the deed be acknowledged in manner hereinafter prescribed before a Judge of one of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts, or before a Judge, Magistrate, or other Covenanted Officer of the East India Company, exercising civil jurisdiction in the place wherein such deed shall be acknowledged, or before some Commissioner or Commissioners appointed either specially, for the occasion, or appointed as a permanent Commissioner by one of Her Majesty's said Courts to take such acknowledgments

Supreme Court may appoint, for the purpose of taking such acknowledgment, permanent or special Commissioners.

3. It shall be lawful for any of Her Majesty's said Courts to appoint, by its order under the seal of the Court, to be published in the Government Gazette of that Presidency, permanent Commissioners, either by name or office, and to appoint from time to time, under special Commissions, Special Commissioners, any one of whom shall be authorized and empowered, unless the Act is directed to be done before more than one, to take the acknowledgment of any deed by any married woman who, by reason of her place of residence, or ill-health, or other sufficient cause, shall be unable to make such acknowledgment before one of the Judges or other public Officers described in the preceding Section.

Such married woman to be examined apart before one Judge, &c., taking her acknowledgment

4. Every such Judge or public Officer or Commissioner as aforesaid, before he shall receive the acknowledgment by any married woman of any deed to be acknowledged by her, under this Act, shall examine her apart from her husband, touching her knowledge of such deed, and shall ascertain whether she understands its object, and freely and voluntarily consents to the same, and unless she appears to understand its object, and freely and voluntarily to consent to such deed, he shall not permit her to acknowledge the same, and in such case, such deed, so far as relates to the execution thereof by such married woman, shall be void.

Such Judge, &c., shall sign a Memorandum of acknowledgment—form of it.

5. Every Judge, public Officer or Commissioner, taking such acknowledgment under this Act, shall at the time of taking the same, sign a memorandum to be endorsed on or written at the foot, or in the margin of such deed, which memorandum shall be to the following effect, viz., "this deed marked ( ) was this day produced before me and acknowledged by therein named, to be her act and deed, previous to which acknowledgment the said was examined by me separately and apart from her husband, touching her knowledge of the contents of the said deed, and her consent thereto and appeared to understand the same, and declared the same to be freely and voluntarily executed by her."

Deed to take effect from date of the acknowledgment.

6. The deed so acknowledged shall take effect from the date of acknowledgment thereof.

It shall not be necessary to prove hand-writing or authority, &c., but a deed so acknowledged, and purporting to be regular, shall prove itself.

7. It shall not be necessary for any person producing a deed so acknowledged in any Court of Justice, to prove the hand-writing or authority of the Judge or other Officer, or the Commissioner taking such acknowledgment, but if such memorandum purports to have been in substance regularly made and signed, the deed shall be presumed to have been duly acknowledged by the party, until the contrary is shown.

If husband be lunatic, &c., Court may direct acknowledgment by deed without his concurrence, saving rights of the husband, &c.

8. If the husband of any married woman, desirous of passing or destroying any estate, interest or power, by a deed to be acknowledged by her under this Act, shall be a lunatic, idiot, or of unsound mind, whether he shall have been found such by inquisition or not, or from any other cause, shall be incapable of executing a deed, or if his residence shall not be known, or if he shall be in prison, or living apart from his wife, either by mutual consent or by sentence of divorce, or in consequence of his being transported beyond the seas, or from any other cause whatever, it shall be lawful for any of Her Majesty's Courts, by an order to be made in a summary way upon the application of such married woman, and upon such evidence as to the Court shall seem meet to dispense with the concurrence of her husband in the deed so to be acknowledged, and any deed to be executed or acknowledged by her in pursuance of such order shall, (but without prejudice to the rights of her husband as then existing, independently of this Act,) be as valid and effectual as if he had concurred therein.

9. Nothing in this Act contained shall abridge, extend, or affect the powers of alienation or disposition, which any married woman might have exercised over any property or rights, otherwise than by levying a fine or suffering a recovery, or by joining in one of such assurances before the passing of this Act.

Nothing in this Act to abridge the powers of alienation which a married woman possessed before this Act came into operation.

10. Every tenant in tail or owner of an estate in inheritance less than an estate in fee simple, either at law or in equity, in any lands or hereditaments not being under any disability, shall have power to dispose of such lands and hereditaments against all persons whose estates are to take effect after the determination or in defeazance of his own, or to enlarge his said estate into an estate in fee simple absolute by any deed declaring an intention so to dispose of the said lands or hereditaments, or to enlarge his estate therein; and every tenant in tail or person possessed of an estate in inheritance less than an estate in fee simple absolute, who shall be under the disability of coverture, shall have power to dispose of or enlarge her said estate by any deed, declaring her intention so to do, and acknowledged by her before a Judge or other public Officer or a Commissioner under this Act; provided that every disposition under this Section shall be subject to the rights of all persons in respect of estates prior to the estate tail or other estate of inheritance, which is the subject of such disposition; and the rights of all other persons, except those against whom such disposition is by this Act authorized to be made.

Tenant in tail may dispose of or enlarge his estate by simple deed, &c.

11. The provisions of the last preceding Section shall, so far as circumstances will admit, apply to money subject to be invested in lands to be settled, so that any person, if the lands were purchased, would have an estate tail therein.

Provision to apply to money subject to be invested in lands.

12. In any deed or will executed after this Act comes into operation, and disposing of immoveable property situate in India, wherein contingent estates are limited without the appointment of any trustees to preserve such contingent estates, the same shall be, to all intents and purposes, as effectually protected by the law, as if such trustees had been duly appointed.

Contingent estates in deeds or wills, without trustees to preserve, to be protected by the law from destruction.

13. Any estate or interest in immoveable property, situate in India, whether in possession, remainder or reversion, may, in addition to any other mode of conveyance or release, which is now valid, be conveyed, passed or released, by a simple deed expressing such intention, and with apt words to effect it, whether such deed operate under the Statute of uses or not.

Any estate may be conveyed, &c., by simple deed, though not operating under the Statute of uses.

14. No conveyance of any kind shall operate to destroy, impair, or affect any estate or interests which the conveying party has no legal right to destroy, impair or affect, or beyond the extent to which he may impair or affect the same.

No conveyance shall operate otherwise than as an innocent conveyance.

15. No release executed after the time when this Act comes into operation shall operate so as to release more than the right of the releasing party, provided that this shall not extend to the release by one or more members less than the whole of any commercial or trading partnership of any debt, claim, or right of action, which it would be within the scope of the ordinary authority of a partner in such firm to release.

No release shall operate, except to release the releaser's right. Saving of releases by commercial partnerships within the scope of their ordinary authority.

16. From the time this Act comes into operation, it shall not be necessary in any deed to be executed after such time, as to immoveable property situate in India, to add words of limitation to heirs, when the intention is to give the absolute interest to a person and his heirs general, but a gift, grant, or other conveyance of immoveable property to, or in favor of any person, shall be taken to give him the entire and absolute interest in the nature of an estate in fee simple, unless such construction is rendered inadmissible by the other contents of the deed, and when in any deed, or will executed as aforesaid, any property is given to a person for life or for other freehold interest, and afterwards in the same deed, or will, is limited to his heirs or heir special, the estates shall not unite, but the limitation to the heirs shall be a limitation of an estate to be taken by the heirs by purchase; and it shall descend as if such estates had united.

Not necessary in deed to add words of limitation to heirs, to give estate by inheritance. Rule in Shelley's case not to operate.

17. When any property is sold, the proceeds of which are subject to any trust, the bond-fide purchaser of the property shall not in any case be bound to see to the application of the purchase-money to the purposes of the trust.

Bond-fide purchaser not required to see to application of trust-money in any case.

18. Nothing in this Act contained shall extend to any case to which the English Law is not applicable.

Act to apply only to cases governed by English Law.

W. MORGAN,

Clerk of the Legislative Council.

Legislative Council.

22nd July 1854.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 22nd of July 1854.

A Bill for making better provision for the education of male Minors, subject to the superintendence of the Court of Wards.

1. The general superintendence and control of the education of every male minor, whose property has been or shall be brought under the management of the Court of Wards, in and for any part of the Presidency of Fort William, by virtue of any Act or Regulation which now is or hereafter shall be in force, is hereby vested in the Collector of Revenue, acting under the said Court of Wards in the zillah or district, wherein the principal portion of such minor's estate is situate.

General control and superintendence of the education of male minor wards vested in Collectors of Revenue.

Collectors to have power to cause male minor wards to be educated at any school or College

II. It shall be lawful for every Collector of Revenue, in whom the superintendence of the education of any minor is vested by this Act, to direct that such minor shall reside either with or without his guardian at the sudder station of the district, or at any other place either within or beyond the limits of the district, and shall attend, for the purposes of education, such school or college as to the said Collector may seem expedient; and to make such provision as may be necessary for the proper care and suitable maintenance of the said minor whilst attending such school or college.

Or in certain cases to cause such wards to be educated privately.

III. If it shall appear to the Collector inexpedient to place any such minor at a school or college, he shall cause such minor to be educated by a private tutor, properly qualified, either at the family residence of such minor, or at the sudder station or elsewhere, and in that case also the Collector shall have power to determine from time to time the place of residence of such minor, and to make such provision as may be necessary for his proper tuition and maintenance during the period of his education.

Charges and expenses incurred under this Act, to be paid out of the profits of the ward's estate.

IV. All charges and expenses which may be incurred on account of any male minor ward under the provisions of this Act, for college or school fees, or for other charges of tuition or education, or by reason of his residence in any place other than his own home or otherwise, shall be defrayed from the profits of his estate in the same manner as other expenses incurred, under the authority or with the sanction of the Court of Wards.

Court of Wards to have power to remove guardians for disobedience to orders passed by a Collector under this Act.

V. It shall be lawful for the Court of Wards, on the application of a Collector, to remove from office any guardian who shall neglect or refuse to obey, or shall evade compliance with any orders passed, or directions given by such Collector under the provisions of this Act, and to cause a new guardian to be appointed in his place, whether the person so removed shall have been first invested with the guardianship of the minor upon the nomination of a Collector acting under the Court of Wards, or by a testamentary appointment confirmed by the Court of Wards, and if in any such case the guardian to be removed, shall be also the manager of the minor's estate, it shall be lawful for the Court of Wards, at its discretion, either to remove him from both the said offices, or to continue him in that of manager only.

Continued liability of guardian removed, powers and responsibilities of new guardian

VI. The guardian so removed shall, notwithstanding his removal, continue liable to account to the Collector for his receipts and disbursements during the period of his guardianship; and every guardian appointed in the place of a guardian so removed, shall be chosen in the same way, and shall have the same rights and powers, and be subject to the same responsibilities as persons originally appointed to be guardians of minors by a Collector of Revenue acting under the Court of Wards

Guardians appointed by the Court of Wards, or failing them, the Collector to have the same power over the persons of wards as guardians appointed by Courts of Justice.

VII. If a question shall arise in any Court of Justice within the territories of the East India Company touching the right to the custody of the person of any male minor whose property is under the management of the Court of Wards, the person appointed with the sanction of the Court of Wards, either originally or upon the removal of a former guardian, to be the guardian of such minor, or in the absence of any such person, the Collector of Revenue having the superintendence of the education of such minor under the provisions of this Act, shall have and be deemed entitled to the same rights and powers as would be possessed by a guardian appointed by a Court of Justice of competent jurisdiction.

Appeal from the orders of a Collector to lie to Commissioner of Revenue acting as a Court of Wards.

VIII. All orders and proceedings of a Collector under the provisions of this Act shall be subject to the revision of the Court of Wards, and every person aggrieved by any such order or proceeding may prefer an appeal therefrom to the Commissioner of Revenue acting as a Court of Wards in and for the division to which such Collector belongs.

General Orders by the Most Noble the Governor General of India in Council.

Fort William, 27th July 1854.

No. 765 of 1854.—With reference to paras. 39 and 41 of the Government General Order No. 430, of the 21st April 1854, the Most Noble the Governor General in Council is pleased to promulgate the following rules for the issue and payment of assignments in the Department of Public Works :—

Rule 1. Supplies of Cash to the Department of Public Works shall be made only from Civil Treasuries, by means of assignments drawn by the Chief Engineers in each of the three great divisions of Bengal, the North Western Provinces and the Punjaub. In cases of unforeseen emergency, where delay might be productive of inconvenience to the public service, advances urgently required may be drawn from Civil Treasuries on the order of the Chief Civil or Military Authority of the Station, subject to the rules and conditions prescribed in the General Orders marginally* noted, such advances being eventually covered by assignments drawn by the Chief Engineers.

* G. O. C. C. 27th May 1811.
G. O. G. G. No. 19 of 16th January 1824.
G. O. G. G. No. 105 of 16th May 1828.
G. O. G. G. No. 14 of 17th January 1829.

Rule 2. The Chief Engineers shall estimate monthly the probable requirements of the Executive Officers subordinate to them, for all purposes of their respective divisions, and in accordance with such estimate, issue monthly assignments on the local treasuries in the accompanying Form No. 1.

Rule 3. The assignments shall be issued in regular serial numbers on each treasury, and advice of each assignment shall be forwarded simultaneously to the treasury concerned.

Rule 4. On the last day of each month, the Chief Engineers shall transmit a statement in the accompanying Form No. 2, of the assignments issued by them during that month to the Accountants to the Governments to which they may respectively be attached, accompanied by an estimate in a similar form of their probable requirements during the following month.

Rule 5. The amount of the Chief Engineers' assignments shall be paid on the duplicate receipts of the Officers in whose favor they are drawn. The receipts shall be issued in serial numbers from a counterfoil check-book as for drafts. Each payment shall also be noted on the back of the assignment with the signature of the Executive Officer in acknowledgment of its receipt.

Rule 6. It shall be imperative upon the Executive Officers to draw the full amount of one assignment, before availing themselves of another, and no assignment shall remain in force beyond the current year of account.

The foregoing rules will take effect from the 1st September next, and the Accountants and Chief Engineers of the Governments of Bengal, the North Western Provinces and the Punjaub, will be good enough to issue any subsidiary instructions in furtherance of those rules that they may consider expedient.

Rangoon Post Office Notice.

LETTERS and Newspapers, which should be addressed to RANGOON only, are frequently directed by mistake to Pegu or Burmah, and letters, &c. intended for delivery in Pegu, Prome, Bassien and other places in the Provinces, are in like manner erroneously addressed to "Rangoon, Burmah." The Rangoon Post Master begs to notify that, with such vague directions, this Department is left to find out to which of the Stations such letters should be forwarded, and from want of information, great disappointment is felt when they are despatched to the wrong Station. To obviate this, it is desirable, that parties posting letters in Calcutta or elsewhere, should be careful to direct them to their respective Stations, and to inform their Agents and Co respondents, when leaving one place for another, of their change of address, to ensure letters being directed to the proper Station. A list of places in the Pegu Provinces or in Burmah, and their distance from Rangoon, is annexed below, viz.:

Donabew,	40	miles
Pegu,	55	„
Sittang,	67	„
Shoaygyeen,	90	„
Bassein,	95	„
Henzada,	95	„
Tonghoo,	130	„
Monean,	120	„
Thayetmyo,	200	„
Mecaday,	205	„
Namean,	195	miles.
Prome,	200	„
Yeaghcen,	160	„
Tapoon, Tindan, Tayngheen, Yandoon,	Below Prome.

Letters addressed to public functionaries, whose head-quarters or residence is in Rangoon, should be addressed "Rangoon," instead of Pegu or Burmah; but if intended for delivery at other Stations, should be addressed to those Stations, the word Rangoon to be omitted.

Post Master.

W. BRACKEN,

CALCUTTA, CUSTOM HOUSE, WHARF DEPT., The 28th July 1854.

Collector of Govt. Customs.

NOTICE TO MARINERS.

EXHIBITION OF A NEW REVOLVING LIGHT AT NORTH RONALDSHAY, AND ALTERATION OF THE START-POINT LIGHT FROM A REVOLVING LIGHT TO A FIXED LIGHT.

I.—NORTH RONALDSHAY LIGHTHOUSE

THE COMMISSIONERS of the NORTHERN LIGHTHOUSES hereby give Notice that a LIGHTHOUSE is being built upon the ISLAND of NORTH RONALDSHAY in ORKNEY, the Light of which will be exhibited on the Night of FRIDAY the 1st September 1854, and every night thereafter, from the going away of day-light in the evening to the return of day-light in the morning.

The following is a Description of the Lighthouse and the Appearance of the Light, by Mr. DAVID STEVENSON, Engineer to the Commissioners:—

THE LIGHTHOUSE is in N. Lat. 59° 23′ 15″, and W. Long 2° 23′ 38″; it stands on the Northern Point of the Island of North Ronaldshay, and by Compass it bears from Moul-head of Papa-Westra, W N. W. ¼ North, distance 1½ nautic miles; and from Start-Point of Sanday Lighthouse, S. S. W ¼ West, distance 6¼ miles.

THE NORTH RONALDSHAY LIGHT will be known to Mariners as a REVOLVING LIGHT, producing a bright flash of the natural colour once in every 10 seconds. It will be visible all round the Compass. The Lantern is elevated 140 feet above the level of the sea; and the Light will be seen at the distance of about 18 nautic miles, and at lesser distances, according to the state of the atmosphere.

II.—START-POINT LIGHTHOUSE.

THE START-POINT Light, which is 6¼ miles from North Ronaldshay Light, being at present a REVOLVING LIGHT, producing a bright flash once in every minute, the COMMISSIONERS further give notice, that on and after the night of Friday the 1st September 1854, when the new Revolving Light at North Ronaldshay is to be exhibited, the present REVOLVING LIGHT at Start-point WILL BE CHANGED TO A FIXED LIGHT of the natural color.

Notice.

BE it published for the information of those concerned, that on a certain day in the month of July 1854, Rumanath Mullick, of Burra Bazar, went to Mr. H. Swinhoe's Office, and asked him whether he had dispensed with the services of Tarachand Banerjea, to which Mr. Swinhoe answered in the affirmative, and in an angry tone desired Rumanath Mullick to go to Messrs. Owen and Banerjee's Office. The above was the cause for changing the Attornies.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 2, 1854.

Legislative Council.

21*st July* 1854.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General of India on the 21st July 1854, and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. XV. OF 1854.

An Act to facilitate the proceedings of the Commissioners appointed to inquire into certain matters connected with the position of Sir James Brooke, Her Majesty's Commissioner and Consul General in Borneo.

Whereas the Governor General of India in Council has, by a Commission bearing date the seventh day of July, in the year of our Lord One thousand Eight hundred and Fifty-four, nominated and appointed Charles Robert Prinsep, Esq., Barrister-at-Law and Advocate-General of Fort William in Bengal, and the Hon'ble Humphrey Bohun Devereux, in the Civil Service of the East India Company on their Bengal Establishment, to inquire into certain matters connected with and arising out of the position of Sir James Brooke, Her Majesty's Commissioner and Consul General in Borneo; and whereas it is expedient that the Commissioners aforesaid should be invested with certain legal powers within the territories in the possession and under the Government of the East India Company, It is enacted as follows :

Commissioners to be sworn.

I. Each of the said Commissioners shall, before beginning to act in the execution of the Commission aforesaid, take and subscribe, before one of the Judges of Her Majesty's Supreme Court of Judicature, at Fort William in Bengal, the following oath, that is to say :—

"I do swear, that I will truly and faithfully, according to the best of my knowledge and judgment, execute the powers and trusts vested in me by the Governor General of India in Council, by a Commission bearing date the Seventh day of July, in the year of our Lord One thousand Eight hundred and Fifty-four, and by Act No. XV. of 1854. So help me God."

And the Judge of the Supreme Court, before whom such oath shall be taken, shall transmit the same to the Secretary to the Government of India in the Foreign Department, to be filed among the records of his office.

To summon witnesses, &c.

II. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners aforesaid, by a summons under their hands, or under the hand of either of them, to require the attendance before them, at a time and place to be mentioned in such summons, of any person or persons whomsoever, residing or being within the Jurisdiction of the Court of Judicature of the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore and Malacca, whose evidence shall, in the judgment of the Commissioners aforesaid, be material to any of the matters directed by the Governor General of India in Council to be enquired of, and to require the person or persons so summoned to bring and produce before them all such books, papers, deeds and writings, as to them, the said Commissioners, shall appear necessary for arriving at the truth of the matters directed to be enquired into by the said Commissioners, all which persons shall accordingly attend the said Commissioners and shall produce such books, papers, deeds and writings as shall be required of them and shall be in their custody and control, or in the custody and control of any one of them, according to the tenor of the summons. Provided always that no person shall be compellable to answer any question or to produce any book, paper, deed or writing, the answer to which, or the production of which, may criminate or tend to criminate such person, or to expose such person to any pains or penalties.

Witnesses indemnified.

III. And whereas it may appear to the Commissioners aforesaid desirable to examine as witnesses several persons touching the matters directed to be enquired into, the evidence of which persons may tend to expose them to penal consequences, every person who shall be examined as a witness and give evidence before the Commissioners aforesaid touching the matters in question, and who shall, upon such examination, make a true discovery to the best of his knowledge touching all matters to which he or she shall be so examined, shall be freed from all penal actions, forfeitures, punishments, disabilities and incapacities and all criminal prosecutions to which he or she may have been, or may become, liable or subject within any part of the said territories in the possession and under the Government of the East India Company for any thing done by such person in respect of any acts relating to which he shall be examined. Provided that where any witness shall be so examined as aforesaid, such witness shall not be indemnified under this Act, unless or until he or she shall receive from the Commissioners aforesaid, under their hands, a certificate in writing, stating that such witness has upon his or her examination made a true disclosure touching all matters to which he or she has been so examined.

Power to administer an oath, &c.

IV. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners aforesaid, or one of them, to administer an oath, or in the case of persons allowed by law to make affirmation instead of taking an oath, an affirmation, in such form as to them, the said Commissioners, shall seem fit, to all persons who shall be examined before them touching the matters directed, or which may be directed to be enquired into, by them as aforesaid.

Witnesses refusing to attend or answer.

V. If any person, upon whom any such summons shall be served by the delivery thereof to him or her, or by the leaving thereof at his or her usual place of abode, being a person subject to the Court of Judicature of the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore or Malacca, shall, without reasonable cause (to be allowed by the Commissioners aforesaid,) fail to appear before them at the time and place mentioned in the summons, or shall refuse to be sworn or to make affirmation (as the case may be,) or shall not make answer to such questions as shall be put to him or her touching the matters directed, or which may hereafter be directed, to be enquired into by the Commissioners aforesaid, or shall refuse or fail, without reasonable cause (to be allowed by the Commissioners aforesaid,) to produce and show to the said Commissioners any such paper, book, deed or writing being in their possession or under their control, as to the Commissioners aforesaid shall appear necessary for arriving at the truth of the matters directed to be inquired into by them, the Commissioners aforesaid shall have the same powers in all respects touching any such person so failing to appear, or refusing to be sworn or to make affirmation, or not answering such questions as shall be put to him or her, or refusing to produce and show any such book, paper, deed, or writing as aforesaid, as the Court of Judicature of the Settlement of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore and Malacca may by law exercise against any person for making default of appearance, or for refusing to be sworn or to give evidence on any issue joined in any action depending in such Court.

Penalty for false evidence.

VI. Every person, who, upon examination upon oath, or affirmation before the Commissioners aforesaid, shall wilfully give false evidence, shall be liable to the pains and penalties of perjury.

Limitation of actions.

VII. No action shall be brought against the Commissioners aforesaid, or any other person or persons whomsoever, for anything done in the execution of this Act, unless such action shall be brought within six calendar months next after the doing of such thing.

In what cases one Commissioner may act.

VIII. In case of the death or resignation of either of the said Commissioners, or in the event of either of them becoming incapable of acting, it shall be lawful for the other Commissioner to act alone; and every part of this Act shall be deemed to apply to such Commissioner as if he alone had been mentioned herein.

W. MORGAN,

Clerk of the Legislative Council.

Legislative Council.

29th July 1854

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General of India on the 28th July 1854, and is hereby promulgated for general information.

ACT No. XVI. OF 1854.

An Act to amend Regulation XI. of 1831 of the Bengal Code.

WHEREAS the provisions of Section III. and Section VII. of Regulation XI. 1831, have been found inconvenient, and whereas it is expedient that Regulation XI. 1831 as amended by this Act, should be extended to the whole of the Provinces of Benares; it is enacted as follows:—

Sections III. and VII. Regulation XI. 1831 repealed

I. Sections III. and VII. Regulation XI 1831 of the Bengal Code are hereby repealed

Darogahs of Police to be subject to Tehseeldars.

II. Wherever any Tehseeldar shall have Police jurisdiction under the provisions of Section II of the said Regulation XI. 1831, every Darogah of Police hereafter appointed within the local limits of the Police jurisdiction of such Tehseeldar, shall be subordinate to, and subject to the control of such Tehseeldar, in his capacity of Chief Police Thaunadar.

Regulation XI. 1831, as amended, extended to Benares.

III. Regulation XI 1831, as amended by this Act, shall extend to the whole of the Province of Benares, and all powers vested by the said Regulation in the Governor General in Council, may be exercised by the Lieutenant-Governor of the North-Western Provinces.

W. MORGAN,

Clerk of the Legislative Council.

Legislative Council.

The provision aforesaid to apply to written testimony.

17. Any such witness giving wilfully false evidence shall be subject to be proceeded against in like manner, and to suffer, if convicted, the same punishment as if he had been sworn and had committed wilful and corrupt perjury. The indictment or charge shall be varied so as to meet the case.

Witnesses giving wilfully false evidence may be punished as if perjured.

18. Husbands and wives shall be competent witnesses for each other, but this shall not extend to make the wife a witness in an action brought by the husband for damages, for adultery committed by her.

Husbands and wives competent witnesses for each other.

19. Whenever the wife may sue the husband, or the husband the wife, in any civil suit, each may be admitted as a witness in such suit against the other.

In suits by husbands against wives, or vice versâ, each may be a witness against the other.

20. The Rules of evidence in Her Majesty's Supreme Courts shall be the same as to the matters of Ecclesiastical jurisdiction, as they are on the Plea, Equity and Crown sides of the Courts respectively.

The rules of evidence on the Ecclesiastical side of the Supreme Courts to be the same as on the Plea, &c., sides.

21. One witness, in all cases, except cases of treason, shall be sufficient in law, in any such Court or before any such person, but this provision shall not affect any rule or practice of any Court that requires corroborative evidence in support of the testimony of an accomplice or of a simple witness in a case of perjury, or as to the proof of an admission or otherwise. Provided that this shall not extend to give validity to any instrument to which the attestation of witnesses is necessary.

One witness to be sufficient in law, except on treason, proviso saving rules as to confirmation.

22. In that class of cases, wherein dying declarations are evidence, they shall be received, if it be proved that the deceased was, at the time of making the declaration, and then thought himself to be, in danger of approaching death, though he still entertained, at the time of making it, hopes of recovery.

Where dying declarations are evidence, they shall be admissible though some hope of recovery remains.

23. A party may be allowed to show before any such Court or Judge, that a witness whom he produces has, at the trial or hearing, varied from a previous statement made by him, and has given unexpectedly, at the trial or hearing, evidence different from that which such person expected from him.

A party allowed to discredit his witness by showing a variation in statement by the witness.

24. A witness on cross-examination may, with the consent of such Court or person, be asked as to the contents of a writing not produced, though such writing be in the possession of the party examining, where the object is to test the accuracy or truthfulness of the witness.

A witness with the consent of the Court may be asked on cross-examination as to the contents of a written instrument in the power of the cross-examiner not produced.

25. Where a copy is proved to have been made from an original writing, and appears on its production to have been made by any copying machine, it shall be taken without further proof to be a correct copy.

A copy made by a copying machine to be deemed a correct copy.

26. Where an original document is out of the reach of the process of the Court, or is at so great a distance from the Court, that the best evidence of it could not be had without serious expense, it shall be lawful for the Court, on application to it, and on notice to the opposite party at a reasonable time before the hearing, to make an order for the reception of secondary evidence of its execution and contents.

When an original document is out of the reach of the process of the Court, or at a distance, secondary evidence may be received on application for that purpose.

27. An attested document may be proved as if no such attestation had existed, unless it be a document to the validity of which attestation is requisite.

An attested may be proved as an unattested document, when attestation is not essential.

28. The admission of a party to an attested instrument of its execution by himself, shall be as against him sufficient primâ facie proof of the due execution of it, though it be an instrument which is required by law to be attested.

The admission of a party to an attested instrument of its execution by himself shall be as against him good evidence, though attestation be essential to its validity.

29. The books of any person, which are proved to have been regularly kept in the way in which such books usually are, shall be admissible as corroborative, but not as independent proof of the facts which may have been stated therein when such facts become to be proved.

Books regularly kept, shall be admitted as corroborative proofs.

When an entry is admissible evidence after the death of a party, it shall be admissible in his lifetime, if he be incapable of being examined or be permanently absent, or cannot be found after diligent search.

30. In all cases where hearsay evidence, in the shape of an entry in any book, public or private, is admissible in evidence after the death of the party who made it, on the ground of its having been made in the ordinary course of business and without motive to misrepresent, such entry shall be admissible, though the party who made it be not dead, if he is incapable of being produced as a witness to the transaction, and of giving evidence as to it by reason of his subsequent loss of understanding, or where he is at the time of the trial or hearing bond fide and permanently beyond the reach of the process of the Court, or cannot, after diligent search be found.

Personal knowledge of the party making the entry not essential, if it were made on personal knowledge directly or indirectly conveyed.

31. In any case where such entry is admissible, it shall be admissible, although it appear that the party who made it had not himself personal knowledge of the matter to which such entry relates, provided it appear that he acted in making it on the personal knowledge, whether directly conveyed to him or not, of some person whose business it was to do the thing or give the information which the entry records.

Hearsay evidence, which is admissible, because made against the interest of the party giving it, shall be admissible, though he be alive and capable of being produced as a witness.

32. In all cases where hearsay evidence is received in the shape of a declaration or entry, on the ground that it was made against the interest of the party making it, it shall be admissible in evidence, though the party who made it is alive and is capable of being produced and of giving testimony as a witness.

Entries evidence for the limited purpose of identification.

33. Any entry in any books, public or private, or any memorandum so far as such entry or memorandum merely refers to and tends to identify by name, description, number, or otherwise, any bank-notes or other securities for the payment of money, or other property, and the payer in or receiver of them shall, in any case, where such identification is necessary to be proved, be prima facie proof for that limited purpose, if it shall be proved to have been made at or about the time of the transaction to which it relates, and without any interest in falsifying the description of such notes, securities or property, though the person who made it or he on whose information it was made is alive and capable of being produced as a witness.

Various mercantile documents made prima facie evidence of what they purport to prove.

34. Certificates of shares and of registration thereof, bills of lading, invoices, account sales, receipts usually given on the payment or deposit, or delivery of money, receipts usually given on the delivery of any goods, chattels, securities, letters, papers or other things, provided such receipts be proved to have been given in the ordinary course of business, and concurrently with or near to the time of the receipt which they evidence, warrants, orders or other documents evidencing the title to goods deposited in any public warehouse, public dock, or other such public place, shall be on proof that they were respectively given out or received as genuine, and without proof of handwriting or authority, be received as sufficient prima facie evidence of the matters which they evidence, as well between the parties to the transaction as between other parties.

A witness may refresh his memory by any document, &c., which may refresh it.

35. A witness whose memory requires to be refreshed, and who desires to refer before such Court, or before any such person as aforesaid, to any document for that purpose, shall be permitted to refresh it from any book, document or writing or inscription, whether such book, document, writing or inscription be an original or only a copy or extract, and whether that from which he refreshes his memory, or that from which it may have been taken, be of his own making or not, and whether it has or has not been in any manner made under his inspection or control.

Where statements, charges and complaints, &c., are now admissible as evidence to the extent only that they were made, the particulars thereof may be received as corroborative proof.

36. And whereas in many instances, statements, charges and complaints are received as evidence, so far only that it is competent to prove in certain cases, that a statement, or charge, or a complaint was made, but the particulars of the statement, charge or complaint are not permitted to be given in evidence; it is enacted that in all such cases the particulars shall be allowed to be received in evidence, and may be acted on as corroborative proof, but not in themselves as sufficient proof of the facts embodied in such complaint, charge or statement, respectively.

The evidence and declarations on pedigree extended.

37. The declarations in cases of pedigree of members of a family who were illegitimate and are deceased, and also of persons who, though not related by blood or marriage to the family, were intimately acquainted with its members and state, shall be admissible in evidence of their decease, in the same manner and to the same extent as those of deceased members of the family.

The evidence of declarations on questions of public right extended as to proof of particular facts.

38. When hearsay evidence is admissible on subjects of public right, it shall extend to declarations of particular acts done in assertion or derogation of, or inconsistent with the right, and to declarations of particular facts which tend to prove or disprove the right.

Evidence of a testator's intentions admissible in certain cases where it is not now admissible.

39. When a will is disputed on any ground which supposes that the will does not describe correctly the intended and free and intelligent disposition of a Testator, evidence may be received of the Testator's declarations as to his intentions, or actual disposition, provided it be proved that they were made about the time or subsequent to the time of making the will.

Comparison of hand writing allowed, though the document be not evidence in itself.

40. On an inquiry, whether a signature, or writing, or seal, is genuine, any undisputed signature, writing or seal of the party, whose signature, writing or seal is under dispute, may be compared with the disputed one, though such signature, writing or seal be on an instrument which is not, and cannot be, for general or for other purposes, evidence in the cause.

41. And whereas the proof of the execution of powers of attorney is often attended with difficulty and expense, where they are executed at places remote from that of trial, and whereas the proof of the despatch of letters is often attained with much difficulty, and the law of evidence may with advantage be altered and rendered less strict as to such matters, it is hereby enacted that any power of attorney, which has been executed at a place distant more than 100 miles from the place wherein the action, suit or proceeding is depending, may be proved by the production of it, without further proof, where it purports, on the face of it, to have been executed before a notary public, or any Court, Judge, or other public Officer, and such power of attorney may, where it does not purport, on the face of it, to have been so executed, be proved by producing it, and proving that it has been acted on, or remitted to be acted on by competent authority, and by proving the instructions as to it.

Powers of attorney may be proved by their production without further proof in certain cases.

42. Where the instructions are contained in a letter or letters, the handwriting of which cannot, by reason of the absence of necessary witnesses, be proved, still if such letters are proved to be genuine, according to the best of the knowledge and belief of a witness having reasonable grounds for his opinion, they may be received as sufficient proof of such instructions. In all the cases aforesaid, the witness or witnesses must depose that he or they believes or believe the instrument to be genuine and authorized, and that it has not been revoked.

The accompanying letter of instructions may be proved without proof of handwriting, by evidence and belief that the letter is genuine.

43. Whenever it is proved that a letter-book is kept, and that according to the usual course of business, letters are copied into such book and despatched, and the letter-book is produced, and it is proved that the letter was despatched according to the usual practice, to the best of the knowledge and belief of the witness, having reasonable ground for forming that belief, the Court may presume the despatch of that letter according to the usual course of business.

Letters may be proved by production of the letter-book and reasonable evidence of the probable despatch of the letter.

44. Any peon's-book or other book purporting to contain a receipt of a letter, and proved to have been kept as a book for marking the receipt of letters, shall also be sufficient primâ facie proof that such letter was received.

A receipt in a peons-book prima facie evidence of receipt of letter.

45. If the letter be described in such book, it shall be also primâ facie proof of the identity of the letter.

If the letter be described, then it shall be prima facie proof of identity of letter despatched.

46. If the book do not describe the letter, still the identity of the letter may be inferred from circumstances.

Such identity may be inferred from circumstances.

47. And whereas by the Act XV. of 1852, Section 6, a power was given in any action or other legal proceeding pending in any of Her Majesty's said Supreme Courts, for such Court, and each of the Judges thereof respectively, on application for such purpose by either of the litigants, to compel the opposite party to allow the party making the application to inspect all documents in the custody of, or under the control of such opposite party, relating to such action or other legal proceeding, and if necessary to take examined copies of the same, or to procure the same to be duly stamped in all cases in which, previous to the passing of that Act, a discovery might have been obtained by filing a Bill, or by any other proceeding in a Court of Equity, at the instance of the party so making application as aforesaid to the said Court or Judge, provided always that every such application should be made as aforesaid before issue joined in any such action, and twenty-one days before the trial or hearing of any other legal proceeding.

Power to inspect documents, though application be made upon issue joined, &c., or within twenty-one days of trial or hearing.

48. And whereas the preceding proviso has been found inconvenient, it is therefore hereby repealed, and it shall be lawful for the Court or Judge to grant any such inspection at any time before the trial or hearing, provided a proper case be made out for granting the same, and the application has been made under the circumstances of the case without any unreasonable delay, and in any case where the Court or Judge shall think fit to grant such inspection, such terms may be imposed as to payment of costs or otherwise, as may be expedient and just.

49. And whereas by the 16th Section of the Act VI. of 1854, it is provided that affidavits of particular witnesses, or affidavits as to particular facts or circumstances, may, by consent of the parties, or by leave of the Court obtained upon notice, be used in the hearing of any cause, and the same enactment is limited to proceedings on the Equity side of such Supreme Court; it is therefore enacted that the same shall extend to all Civil actions, suits and proceedings on all sides of the Court.

Proofs by affidavit in certain cases under Act VI. of 1854 is limited to all sides of the Court.

50. And whereas by the 17th Section of the same Act, it is provided that upon the hearing of any suit depending in any of the said Supreme Courts, whether commenced by Bill or Claim, and also upon the hearing of any motion, petition or other proceeding in any of the said Courts, the Court may, upon the application of any of the parties thereto, or of its own accord, require and enforce the attendance and oral examination before itself of any witness or of any party to the suit, and may also require and enforce the production of any document or documents, and may direct the costs of the attendance and examination of such witness or party to be paid by such of the parties to the suit, or in such manner as it may think fit, and it is desirable to extend this provision to all sides of the Court; it is therefore enacted that the said provisions shall extend to all sides of the Court, but that they shall not authorize or empower the Court to direct the examination of any accused person at the trial for any purpose, but shall extend only to authorize his examination as to collateral matters arising on matter unconnected with the question of his guilt or innocence.

Provisions of the 17th Section of the said Act extended to all sides of the Court. Limitation thereon as to Crown side.

51. And it is further enacted that the 33rd Section of the said Act No. VI. of 1854, which applies only to proof of accounts on the Equity side of the Court, shall extend to and embrace all accounts directed to be taken on any side of the said Court.

Provisions of the 33rd Section of the said Act as to accounts extended to all sides of the Court.

52. And whereas it is desirable to extend to this country certain of the provisions of the Act 8 and 9 Victoria, Cap. 113, entitled "An Act to facilitate the admission in evidence of certain official and other documents;" it is therefore enacted that whenever, by any Statute or Act, Regulation or Ordinance now in force, or any Statute or Act to be hereinafter in force, any certificate, certified copy, or other document shall be receivable in evidence of any particular, in any Court of Justice, the same, if it is substantially in the form and purports to be executed in the manner directed by the Statute, Act, Regulation or Ordinance which makes it evidence, shall be primâ facie evidence where it is rendered admissible without proof of any seal, stamp, signature, character or authority, which it is directed to have, or from which it is directed to proceed.

Provisions of the Act 8 and 9 Victoria as to proof of official documents extended to this country.

53. The provisions in this Act contained shall apply to extend, but not to restrict the law and practice of the Courts of the East India Company or other Courts as to the reception of evidence. In no Court shall the improper admission or rejection of evidence be ground of itself for a new trial or reversal of any decision in any case, if it shall appear to the Court before which such objection is raised, that independently of the evidence admitted and objected to, there was sufficient evidence to justify the decision, or that if the rejected evidence had been received, it ought not to have varied the decision.

This Act shall not limit, but may extend the practice of the Courts of the East India Company in the reception of evidence. No decision to be reversed, &c., merely because evidence is improperly rejected or received.

W. MORGAN,

Clerk of the Legislative Council.

Legislative Council.

22nd July 1853.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 22nd of July 1854.

A Bill to abolish real actions, including fines and common recoveries, and to simplify the modes of conveying land in cases to which the English Law is applicable.

Preamble—Whereas it is expedient in cases to which the English law applies to abolish real actions including fines and common recoveries and to simplify the modes of conveying land and to exempt the purchasers of trust property from the liability to see to the application of the purchase money, it is enacted as follows:—

1. All real actions, including fines and common recoveries, are abolished, except such as may be pending when this Act comes into operation.

2. Every married woman who, either alone, or jointly with her husband, is possessed of, or entitled to any estate or interest in, or any power to be exercised over, any lands or hereditaments, or money subject to be invested in lands or other hereditaments which, before the passing of this Act, she might have disposed of, released, surrendered or extinguished by levying a fine, or suffering a recovery, or by joining in either of such assurances, shall have power by deed to dispose of, release, surrender or extinguish any such estate, interest or power, as fully and effectually as if she were an unmarried woman, save only that such disposition, release, surrender or extinguishment shall not be valid and effectual, unless her husband concur in the deed by which the same shall be effected nor unless the deed be acknowledged in manner hereinafter prescribed before a Judge of one of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts, or before a Judge, Magistrate, or other Covenanted Officer of the East India Company, exercising civil jurisdiction in the place wherein such deed shall be acknowledged, or before some Commissioner or Commissioners appointed either specially, for the occasion, or appointed as a permanent Commissioner by one of Her Majesty's said Courts to take such acknowledgments.

A married woman with her husband's concurrence, empowered to dispose of by deed acknowledged, &c., in lieu of fine, &c., property to which she is alone or with her husband entitled or has power over.

3. It shall be lawful for any of Her Majesty's said Courts to appoint, by its order under the seal of the Court, to be published in the Government Gazette of that Presidency, permanent Commissioners, either by name or office, and to appoint from time to time, under special Commissions, Special Commissioners, any one of whom shall be authorized and empowered, unless the Act is directed to be done before more than one, to take the acknowledgment of any deed by any married woman who, by reason of her place of residence, or ill-health, or other sufficient cause, shall be unable to make such acknowledgment before one of the Judges or other public Officers described in the preceding Section.

Supreme Courts may appoint, for the purpose of taking such acknowledgment, permanent or special Commissioners.

4. Every such Judge or public Officer or Commissioner as aforesaid, before he shall receive the acknowledgment by any married woman of any deed to be acknowledged by her, under this Act, shall examine her apart from her husband, touching her knowledge of such deed, and shall ascertain whether she understands its object, and freely and voluntarily consents to the same, and unless she appears to understand its object, and freely and voluntarily to consent to such deed, he shall not permit her to acknowledge the same, and in such case, such deed, so far as relates to the execution thereof by such married woman, shall be void.

Such married woman to be examined apart before one Judge, &c., taking her acknowledgment.

5. Every Judge, public Officer or Commissioner, taking such acknowledgment under this Act, shall at the time of taking the same, sign a memorandum to be endorsed on or written at the foot, or in the margin of such deed, which memorandum shall be to the following effect, viz., "this deed marked ( ) was this day produced before me and acknowledged by therein named, to be her act and deed, previous to which acknowledgment the said was examined by me separately and apart from her husband, touching her knowledge of the contents of the said deed, and her consent thereto and appeared to understand the same, and declared the same to be freely and voluntarily executed by her."

Such Judge, &c., shall sign a Memorandum of acknowledgment—form of it.

6. The deed so acknowledged shall take effect from the date of acknowledgment thereof.

Deed to take effect from date of the acknowledgment.

7. It shall not be necessary for any person producing a deed so acknowledged in any Court of Justice, to prove the hand-writing or authority of the Judge or other Officer, or the Commissioner taking such acknowledgment, but if such memorandum purports to have been in substance regularly made and signed, the deed shall be presumed to have been duly acknowledged by the party, until the contrary is shown.

It shall not be necessary to prove hand-writing or authority, &c., but a deed so acknowledged, and purporting to be regular, shall prove itself.

8. If the husband of any married woman, desirous of passing or destroying any estate, interest or power, by a deed to be acknowledged by her under this Act, shall be a lunatic, idiot, or of unsound mind, whether he shall have been found such by inquisition or not, or from any other cause, shall be incapable of executing a deed, or if his residence shall not be known, or if he shall be in prison, or living apart from his wife, either by mutual consent or by sentence of divorce, or in consequence of his being transported beyond the seas, or from any other cause whatever, it shall be lawful for any of Her Majesty's Courts, by an order to be made in a summary way upon the application of such married woman, and upon such evidence as to the Court shall seem meet to dispense with the concurrence of her husband in the deed so to be acknowledged, and any deed to be executed or acknowledged by her in pursuance of such order shall, (but without prejudice to the rights of her husband as then existing, independently of this Act,) be as valid and effectual as if he had concurred therein.

If husband be lunatic, &c., Court may direct acknowledgment by deed without his concurrence, saving right of the husband, &c.

9. Nothing in this Act contained shall abridge, extend, or affect the powers of alienation or disposition, which any married woman might have exercised over any property or rights, otherwise than by levying a fine or suffering a recovery, or by joining in one of such assurances before the passing of this Act.

Nothing in this Act to abridge the powers of alienation which a married woman possessed before this Act came into operation.

10. Every tenant in tail or owner of an estate in inheritance less than an estate in fee simple, either at law or in equity, in any lands or hereditaments not being under any disability, shall have power to dispose of such lands and hereditaments against all persons whose estates are to take effect after the determination or in defeazance of his own, or to enlarge his said estate into an estate in fee simple absolute by any deed declaring an intention so to dispose of the said lands or hereditaments, or to enlarge his estate therein; and every tenant in tail or person possessed of an estate in inheritance less than an estate in fee simple absolute, who shall be under the disability of coverture, shall have power to dispose of or enlarge her said estate by any deed, declaring her intention so to do, and acknowledged by her before a Judge or other public Officer or a Commissioner under this Act; provided that every disposition under this Section shall be subject to the rights of all persons in respect of estates prior to the estate tail or other estate of inheritance, which is the subject of such disposition; and the rights of all other persons, except those against whom such disposition is by this Act authorized to be made.

Tenant in tail may dispose of or enlarge his estate by simple deed, &c.

11. The provisions of the last preceding Section shall, so far as circumstances will admit, apply to money subject to be invested in lands to be settled, so that any person, if the lands were purchased, would have an estate tail therein.

Provision to apply to money subject to be invested in lands.

12. In any deed or will executed after this Act comes into operation, and disposing of immoveable property situate in India, wherein contingent estates are limited without the appointment of any trustees to preserve such contingent estates, the same shall be, to all intents and purposes, as effectually protected by the law, as if such trustees had been duly appointed.

Contingent estates in deeds or wills, without trustees to preserve, to be protected by the law from destruction.

13. Any estate or interest in immoveable property, situate in India, whether in possession, remainder or reversion, may, in addition to any other mode of conveyance or release, which is now valid, be conveyed, passed or released, by a simple deed expressing such intention, and with apt words to effect it, whether such deed operate under the Statute of uses or not.

Any estate may be conveyed, &c., by simple deed, though not operating under the Statute of uses.

14. No conveyance of any kind shall operate to destroy, impair, or affect any estate or interests which the conveying party has no legal right to destroy, impair or affect, or beyond the extent to which he may impair or affect the same.

No conveyance shall operate otherwise than as an innocent conveyance.

15. No release executed after the time when this Act comes into operation shall operate so as to release more than the right of the releasing party, provided that this shall not extend to the release by one or more members less than the whole of any commercial or trading partnership of any debt, claim, or right of action, which it would be within the scope of the ordinary authority of a partner in such firm to release.

No release shall operate, except to release the releaser's right. Saving of releases by commercial partnerships within the scope of their ordinary authority.

16. From the time this Act comes into operation, it shall not be necessary in any deed to be executed after such time, as to immoveable property situate in India, to add words of limitation to heirs, when the intention is to give the absolute interest to a person and his heirs general, but a gift, grant, or other conveyance of immoveable property to, or in favor of any person, shall be taken to give him the entire and absolute interest in the nature of an estate in fee simple, unless such construction is rendered inadmissible by the other contents of the deed; and when in any deed, or will executed as aforesaid, any property is given to a person for life or for other freehold interest, and afterwards in the same deed, or will is limited to his heirs or heir special, the estates shall not unite, but the limitation to the heirs shall be a limitation of an estate to be taken by the heirs by purchase; and it shall descend as if such estates had united.

Not necessary in deed to add words of limitation to heirs, to give estate by inheritance. Rule in Shelley's case not to operate.

17. When any property is sold, the proceeds of which are subject to any trust, the bonâ-fide purchaser of the property shall not in any case be bound to see to the application of the purchase-money to the purposes of the trust.

Bonâ-fide purchaser not required to see to application of trust-money in any case.

18. Nothing in this Act contained shall extend to any case to which the English Law is not applicable.

Act to apply only to cases governed by English Law.

W. MORGAN,

Clerk of the Legislative Council.

Legislative Council.

22nd July 1854.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 22nd of July 1854:

A Bill for making better provision for the education of male Minors, subject to the superintendence of the Court of Wards.

1. The general superintendence and control of the education of every male minor, whose property has been or shall be brought under the management of the Court of Wards, in and for any part of the Presidency of Fort William, by virtue of any Act or Regulation which now is or hereafter shall be in force, is hereby vested in the Collector of Revenue, acting under the said Court of Wards in the zillah or district, wherein the principal portion of such minor's estate is situate.

General control and superintendence of the education of male minor wards vested in Collectors of Revenue.

II. It shall be lawful for every Collector of Revenue, in whom the superintendence of the education of any minor is vested by this Act, to direct that such minor shall reside either with or without his guardian at the sudder station of the district, or at any other place either within or beyond the limits of the district, and shall attend, for the purposes of education, such school or college as to the said Collector may seem expedient; and to make such provision as may be necessary for the proper care and suitable maintenance of the said minor whilst attending such school or college.

Collectors to have power to cause male minor wards to be educated at any school or college.

III. If it shall appear to the Collector inexpedient to place any such minor at a school or college, he shall cause such minor to be educated by a private tutor, properly qualified, either at the family residence of such minor, or at the sudder station or elsewhere, and in that case also the Collector shall have power to determine from time to time the place of residence of such minor, and to make such provision as may be necessary for his proper tuition and maintenance during the period of his education.

Or in certain cases to cause such wards to be educated privately.

IV. All charges and expenses which may be incurred on account of any male minor ward under the provisions of this Act, for college or school fees, or for other charges of tuition or education, or by reason of his residence in any place other than his own home or otherwise, shall be defrayed from the profits of his estate in the same manner as other expenses incurred, under the authority or with the sanction of the Court of Wards.

Charges and expenses incurred under this Act, to be paid out of the profits of the ward's estate.

V. It shall be lawful for the Court of Wards, on the application of a Collector, to remove from office any guardian who shall neglect or refuse to obey, or shall evade compliance with any orders passed, or directions given by such Collector under the provisions of this Act, and to cause a new guardian to be appointed in his place, whether the person so removed shall have been first invested with the guardianship of the minor upon the nomination of a Collector acting under the Court of Wards, or by a testamentary appointment confirmed by the Court of Wards, and if in any such case the guardian to be removed, shall be also the manager of the minor's estate, it shall be lawful for the Court of Wards, at its discretion, either to remove him from both the said offices, or to continue him in that of manager only.

Court of Wards to have power to remove guardians for disobedience to orders passed by a Collector under this Act.

VI. The guardian so removed shall, notwithstanding his removal, continue liable to accounts to the Collector for his receipts and disbursements during the period of his guardianship; and every guardian appointed in the place of a guardian so removed, shall be chosen in the same way, and shall have the same rights and powers, and be subject to the same responsibilities as persons originally appointed to be guardians of minors by a Collector of Revenue acting under the Court Wards.

Continued liability of guardian removed, powers and responsibilities of new guardian.

VII. If a question shall arise in any Court of Justice within the territories of the East India Company touching the right to the custody of the person of any male minor whose property is under the management of the Court of Wards, the person appointed with the sanction of the Court of Wards, either originally or upon the removal of a former guardian, to be the guardian of such minor, or in the absence of any such person, the Collector of Revenue having the superintendence of the education of such minor under the provisions of this Act, shall have and be deemed entitled to the same rights and powers as would be possessed by a guardian appointed by a Court of Justice of competent jurisdiction.

Guardians appointed by the Court of Wards, or failing them, the Collector to have the same power over the persons of wards as guardians appointed by Courts of Justice.

VIII. All orders and proceedings of a Collector under the provisions of this Act shall be subject to the revision of the Court of Wards, and every person aggrieved by any such order or proceeding may prefer an appeal therefrom to the Commissioner of Revenue acting as a Court of Wards in and for the division to which such Collector belongs.

Appeal from the orders of a Collector to lie to Commissioner of Revenue acting as a Court of Wards.

W. MORGAN,

Clerk of the Legislative Council.

At a Half-yearly general Meeting of Subscribers to the Bengal Civil Fund, held at the Town Hall, on the 31st July 1854.

PRESENT: Messrs. E. Currie, W. Bracken, C. Allen, B. J. Colvin, H. B. Harington, G. A. C. Plowden, H. C. Hamilton, Hon'ble E. Drummond, T. C. Loch, A. R. Young, H. P. B. Riddell, G. Campbell, J. W. Dalrymple, C. T. Buckland, C. P. Hobhouse and J. A. Crawford.

B. J. COLVIN, ESQ., in the Chair.

Read the following Report submitted by the Managers:

"The Managers submit the following cases "for the consideration and decision of the Meeting.

"Subject to the approval of the Subscribers at "this Meeting, they have admitted to the benefits "of the Fund the following families:

"The widow of the late Mr. Charles Smith, "(Annuitant of 1st March "1837) who died at the "Cape of Good Hope on "the 2nd January last, admitted under the old Rules, the deceased having, before retirement, made up the prescribed sum of Rupees 25,000.

Mrs. Smith, yearly	£400
Less, private income,	318
	£82

"The widow and "five children, three "sons and two daughters, of the late Mr. "W. Maples, who died "in Calcutta on the "18th May last.

"The Meeting in January last referred to the "Managers for re-consideration the propriety of "the transfer of Rupees 82,947 from the Appropriated to the Unappropriated Fund in the "Accounts then submitted. The Managers were "also requested to bring forward a proposition for adopting the measures recommended by "Mr. Neison. The transfer referred to was made "under Rule 43, and in accordance with the intentions of the framers of the rules, thus expressed: "Your Committee recommend that "these three Rules (42, 43, and 44) be at present "made applicable only to those liabilities which "will accrue under the proposed plan on and "after the 1st January 1850." The suggestion "made in Mr. Beadon's memorandum to transfer "the sum to the 3rd column of the Appropriated "Fund could not be acted upon, because that "column represents a distinct account bearing "interest at 8 per cent., and applicable to old "pensions, whilst the sum in question was the excess in the value of new pensions, and belongs "to another account, bearing interest in part at 4 "per cent. This 4 per cent. account, indeed, is "applicable exclusively to the wives and children "of living Subscribers, whose pensions are therein "assured to the extent of Rupees 4,36,066 (overlooked in Mr. Beadon's memo.) which is steadily "increasing by the "additional" subscriptions of "Subscribers, and no part of this account has ever "been, or can be transferred to the account of old "pensions."

"It was stated in the last Report that the "capital of the Fund falls short of the present "value of all the existing Annuities, by less than "a lack of rupees, and that this deficiency is being "gradually made up. It was also shown that the "contingent liabilities are fully provided for, by "the value of the assets upon the principle of calculations adopted by the Actuaries. In this state "of the accounts, the managers did not feel justified in calling upon the Subscribers for increased "contributions, and they continue of the same "opinion. It is true that Mr. Neison made his "calculations on the assumption, that a recommendation of certain Members of the Revising "Committee, (which was rejected by the Meeting "of the 30th March 1852,) had been adopted, and "that the subscriptions were ½ per cent. higher "than they really are; but he fell apparently "into other misapprehensions, the general result "of which was to decrease unduly the value of "the assets and increase that of the liabilities. "The Managers therefore prefer to base their "estimate of the requirements of the Fund upon "the actual progress made in raising the capital "to an equality with the value of the existing "annuities; and the sufficiency of the value of "the annual income, calculated in the manner "prescribed by the actuaries to provide for the "contingent liabilities."

Proposed by Mr. Hamilton and seconded by Mr. Campbell,—That the report of the Managers be received and adopted, and their proceedings be approved.

Carried,

Messrs. H. B. Harington and A. R. Young were unanimously elected to fill the vacancies in the Management which have occurred since the date of the last General Meeting.

A vote of thanks was passed to the Chairman.

B. J. COLVIN,
Chairman.

Rangoon Post Office Notice.

LETTERS and Newspapers, which should be addressed to RANGOON only, are frequently directed by mistake to Pegu or Burmah, and letters, &c. intended for delivery in Pegu, Prome, Bassien and other places in the Provinces, are in like manner erroneously addressed to "Rangoon, Burmah." The Rangoon Post Master begs to notify that, with such vague directions, this Department is left to find out to which of the Stations such letters should be forwarded, and from want of information, great disappointment is felt when they are despatched to the wrong Station. To obviate this, it is desirable, that parties posting letters in Calcutta or elsewhere, should be careful to direct them to their respective Stations, and to inform their Agents and Correspondents, when leaving one place for another, of their change of address, to ensure letters being directed to the proper Station. A list of places in the Pegu Provinces or in Burmah, and their distance from Rangoon, is annexed below, viz.:

Donabew,	40	miles
Pegu,	55	,,
Sittang,	67	,,
Shoaygyeen,	90	,,
Bassein,	95	,,
Henzada,	95	,,
Tonghoo,	130	,,
Monean,	120	,,

Namean,	195	,,
Prome,	200	,,
Yeagheen,	160	,,
Tapoon, Tindan, Tayngheen, Yandoon,	Below Prome.

Letters addressed to public functionaries, whose head-quarters or residence is in Rangoon, should be addressed "Rangoon," instead of Pegu or Burmah; but if intended for delivery at other Stations, should be addressed to those Stations, the word Rangoon to be omitted.

Bank of Bengal,

24TH JULY 1854.

NOTICE is hereby given, that agreeably to the XXXVI. Section of the Charter Act VI. of 1839, the Annual General Meeting of Proprietors of the Bank of Bengal will be held at the Bank on Monday the 7th proximo at 11 A. M.

Published by order of the Directors,

J. B. PLUMB,
Secy. and Treasurer.

Bengal Coal Company.

THE Directors of the Bengal Coal Company hereby give notice to the Shareholders, that in pursuance of the powers vested in the Direction by the fifteenth Article of the Company's Deed and also in pursuance of a requisition dated the 22nd instant and signed by seven Shareholders, a special Meeting of the Shareholders will be held at noon of Wednesday the first day of November now next ensuing, for the purpose of taking into consideration the following propositions, viz.:—

1st. That the Capital of the Company be increased to the sum of fifteen lakhs (1,500,000) of rupees, the increase to be made up by funding the sum of rupees 2,96,500 from the accumulated profits now standing to the credit of Working Capital and of Profit and Loss, and by the issue 17½ New Shares, of rupees 1,000 each, and that the Shares for the portion funded as above be issued in the proportion of one quarter Share to the holder of each of the present eleven hundred and eighty-six Shares.

2nd. That with the view of extending operations where deemed advisable, the aforesaid Capital may, in the discretion of the Directors for the time being and after they shall have given four months' notice to the Shareholders of their intention be increased to the sum of rupees 16,00,000, and that the additional lakh of rupees shall be raised by the issue of 100 New Shares of rupees 1,000 each, such New Shares to be offered at par in the first instance to the Shareholders for the time being in the proportion of one New Share to every fifteen Old Shares.

3rd. That the following alterations and additions be made in and to the present Deed of the twenty-fourth day of September 1853.

1st. That in the second Article the consecutive words beginning with the word "fifty thousand" and ending with the words "inclusively and the same" be expunged, and the following words substituted "three lakhs and sixty-four thousand rupees shall form the Capital Stock of the said Company, and the same shall be divided into 1,500 shares of rupees 1,000 each, to be numbered from one to fifteen hundred inclusively. Provided also that at any time hereafter it shall be lawful for the Directors for the time being in their discretion and after giving four calendar months' notice by advertisement of such their intention to increase the said Capital to the sum of sixteen lakhs of rupees by the issue of one hundred New Shares of Rs. 1,000 each, to be numbered from 1,501 to 1,600 inclusively, and that in case of the issue of such New Shares the Shareholders for the time being of the 1,500 shares shall be entitled to take the one hundred New Shares at par in the proportion of one New Share for every fifteen Old Shares held by him or them, and the several shares comprising the said Capital of the Company for the time being."

2nd. That in the thirty-first Article the Clause beginning with the words "provided always" to the end of the Clause be expunged.

3rd. That in the ninth Article immediately after the words "Capital Stock of the said Company" be added the words "who shall have been registered by the Secretary or Secretaries for the time being of the said Company as an actual Proprietor of five or more Shares for three calendar months previous to such election."

4th. That in the thirteenth Article immediately after the words "persons (as the case may be") be added the words "who shall have been registered by the Secretary or Secretaries for the time being of the said Company as an actual Proprietor of five or more Shares for three calendar months previous to such election."

Dated this twenty-eighth day of June 1854.

By Order of the Directors,

GORDON, STUART AND CO.,

Secretaries, Bengal Coal Company.

Indian Iron.

THE RAILWAY COMPANY have to acknowledge the receipt of several communications with description and specimens of the Iron produced in India, in reply to their advertisement, the object of which was to collect all the data available on the subject before the 1st October next, when it is expected that a qualified practical Iron-viewer will be sent out from England, upon whose report, after personal inspection of the several districts indicated, should it prove favorable, the Indian Iron Company already completely re-organized, and in active operation on the Western Coast of India, will, it is believed, be prepared to despatch the men and Machinery necessary for at once establishing Iron Works on a limited but sufficient scale, upon the most eligible site which shall have been selected, with due regard to the proximity of the Materials and the convenience of cheap communication.

The Railway Company will require all the Iron that can be produced for some years from this source, and request that any parties who may have delayed sending in their information upon the subject, will endeavour to forward it previous to the 1st October, to admit of its being usefully availed of.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 5, 1854.

Legislative Council.

29th July 1854.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General of India on the 28th July 1854, and is hereby promulgated for general information.

ACT No. XVI. OF 1854.

An Act to amend Regulation XI. of 1831 of the Bengal Code.

WHEREAS the provisions of Section III. and Section VII. of Regulation XI. 1831, have been found inconvenient, and whereas it is expedient that Regulation XI. 1831. as amended by this Act, should be extended to the whole of the Provinces of Benares ; it is enacted as follows :—

Sections III and VII. Regulation XI. 1831 repealed.

I Sections III. and VII. Regulation XI. 1831 of the Bengal Code are hereby repealed.

Darogahs of Police to be subject to Tehseeldars.

II Wherever any Tehseeldar shall have Police jurisdiction under the provisions of Section II. of the said Regulation XI 1831, every Darogah of Police hereafter appointed within the local limits of the Police jurisdiction of such Tehseeldar, shall be subordinate to, and subject to the control of such Tehseeldar, in his capacity of Chief Police Thannadar.

Regulation XI. 1831, as amended, extended to Benares.

III. Regulation XI. 1831, as amended by this Act, shall extend to the whole of the Province of Benares, and all powers vested by the said Regulation in the Governor General in Council, may be exercised by the Lieutenant-Governor of the North-Western Provinces.

W MORGAN,

Fort William, 4th August 1854.

No. 793 of 1854.—In order to prevent undue delay on the part of Officers in embarking for Europe, on Medical certificate, the Most Noble the Governor General of India in Council is pleased to declare, that, in the event of an Officer not leaving India within two months from the announcement of his sick furlough in Government General Orders, if he belong to the Company's Service, or within two months of his arrival at the Presidency, with permission to proceed to Europe on Medical certificate, if he belong to the Royal Army, he will incur forfeiture of Indian Allowances of every description ; except when physical unfitness for a sea voyage shall have prevented his departure, in which case his Allowances will be continued to him, within the general limits of the Absentee Rules, for so long as the Medical Board shall pronounce it unsafe for him to embark on board ship.

2. This order does not dispense with the necessity for general leave to an Officer to visit the Presidency, preparatory to proceeding to Europe on Medical certificate ; nor does it imply that any Officer shall have his Regimental Allowances continued to him to the date of embarkation, who by availing himself of the period above allowed for that purpose, in addition to previous leave, shall, on the whole, have been continuously absent from duty more than six months on private affairs, or more than two years on Medical certificate.

General Post Office Notifications.

THE Business connected with the Calcutta Post Office having been made over exclusively to the charge of the Deputy Post Master General, the public are requested from this date to address that Officer direct, on all matters connected with that Office.

J. R. BURLTON BENNETT,
Post-master General of Bengal.

Calcutta, General Post Office, The 1st July 1854.

No. 2113.

NOTICE is hereby given for the information of the Public, that by a mistake on the part of the Pilot who was first engaged to take the Steamer Precursor to Sea, this Office was informed that an After-Packet might be sent to Kedgeree on the 5th instant, with the chance of overtaking the Steamer, and accordingly the Notification of yesterday's date was issued, but the Deputy Post-Master General regrets to say, that from a letter received this-day from the Admiralty Agent on board the Precursor, it would be impossible to despatch an After-Packet to ensure its arrival at Kedgeree in time for the Steamer.

Rangoon Post Office Notice.

LETTERS and Newspapers, which should be addressed to RANGOON only, are frequently directed by mistake to Pegu or Burmah, and letters, &c. intended for delivery in Pegu, Prome, Bassien and other places in the Provinces, are in like manner erroneously addressed to "Rangoon, Burmah." The Rangoon Post Master begs to notify that, with such vague directions, this Department is left to find out to which of the Stations such letters should be forwarded, and from want of information, great disappointment is felt when they are despatched to the wrong Station. To obviate this, it is desirable, that parties posting letters in Calcutta or elsewhere, should be careful to direct them to their respective Stations, and to inform their Agents and Correspondents, when leaving one place for another, of their change of address, to ensure letters being directed to the proper Station. A list of places in the Pegu Provinces or in Burmah, and their distance from Rangoon, is annexed below, viz.:

Donabew,	40	miles
Pegu,	55	,,
Sittang,	67	,,
Shoaygyeen,	90	,,
Bassein,	95	,,
Henzada,	95	,,
Tonghoo,	130	,,

Namean,	195	,,
Prome,	200	,,
Yeagheen,	160	,,
Tapoon, Tindan, Tayngheen, Yandoon,	Below Prome.

Letters addressed to public functionaries, whose head-quarters or residence is in Rangoon, should be addressed "Rangoon," instead of Pegu or Burmah; but if intended for delivery at other Stations, should be addressed to those Stations, the word Rangoon to be omitted.

Legislative Council.

5th August 1854.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 5th of August 1854, and referred to a Select Committee, who are to report thereon after the 9th of November 1854.

A Bill relating to mesne profits and to improvements made by holders under defective titles.

Preamble. Whereas it is expedient to limit the liability for mesne profits in certain cases and to secure to bonâ-fide holders under defective titles the value of improvements made by them; It is enacted as follows:—

Tenant protected from claims for mesne profits, who has bonâ-fide paid to his landlord.

I. No tenant shall be chargeable in any action for mesne profits or suit in the nature of one, with any rents or profits, which before or pending the suit he has paid over to the landlord from whom he derived his title as tenant, or to whom he had bonâ-fide attorned before the commencement of the litigation as to the title, but the claim must be asserted against the party receiving the rents and profits from such tenant.

No account for mesne profits to be carried back beyond time of notice by real title.

II. No account for mesne profits shall be carried back in any Court in any action or suit beyond the time of notice of the real title to the party against whom such demand is made and demand of possession under it unless the possession was taken by violence or with knowledge of the real title.

Such party dispossessed may rank as equitable mortgage for improvements, &c.

III. Any person who is evicted by better title from immoveable property acquired by him bonâ-fide, in the belief that he took a good holding title, shall be entitled to have the value of all buildings and other improvements which he has bonâ-fide made in the lands estimated and secured to him, and may set-off the same against the rent and profits for which he may be liable to account, and shall have for the whole of the surplus a lien on the estate, which may be enforced as the lien of an unpaid vendor for his purchase-money.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Legislative Council.

Legislative Council.

5th August 1854.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 5th of August 1854, and referred to a Select Committee, who are to report thereon after the 9th of November 1854.

A Bill to provide compensation to families, for loss occasioned by the death of a person, caused by actionable wrong.

Action for compensation to the family of a person for loss occasioned to it by his death by actionable wrong

I. It is enacted that whenever the death of a person shall be caused by wrongful act, neglect or default, and the act, neglect or default is such as would (if death had not ensued) have entitled the party injured to maintain an action and recover damages in respect thereof, then, and in every such case, the party who would have been liable, if death had not ensued, shall be liable to an action or suit for damages, notwithstanding the death of the person injured, and although the death shall have been caused under such circumstances as amount in law to felony. And it is enacted further, that every such action or suit shall be for the benefit of the wife, husband, parent and child, all or any of them of the person whose death shall have been so caused, and shall be brought by and in the name of the Executor, Administrator or Representative of the person deceased, and in every such action, the Court may give such damages as it may think proportioned to the loss resulting from such death to the parties respectively, for whom, and for whose benefit, such action shall be brought, and the amount so recovered, after deducting all costs and expenses, including the costs not recovered from the defendant, shall be divided amongst the before-mentioned parties in such shares as the Court by its verdict or sentence shall find and direct, provided always that not more than one action shall be for, and in respect of the same subject matter of complaint, and that every such action shall be brought within twelve calendar months after the death of such deceased person.

Plaintiffs shall deliver particulars, &c.

II. And it is further enacted, that on the institution of such action or suit, or as soon after as the Court shall direct the plaintiff shall deliver to the defendant, or to his Attorney or Vakeel, or person, by the practice of the Court, authorized to appear and act for him, a full particular of the person or persons, for whom, or on whose behalf, such action or suit shall be brought, and of the nature of the claim in respect of which damages shall be sought to be recovered.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Legislative Council.

Legislative Council.

5th August 1854.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 5th of August 1854, and referred to a Select Committee, who are to report thereon after the 9th of November 1854.

A Bill to improve the English Law in force in India, by extending to this Country, with some enlargement thereof, the provisions of Statute 3rd and 4th William 4th, Cap. 42, Section 2.

Actions for wrongs to survive to and against personal representatives in certain cases.

Whereas by the English Law in force in India, many actions for wrongs do not survive against the Executor or Administrator of the wrong-doer or in favor of the Executor or Administrator of the injured person, and it is desirable to extend to this country, with some enlargement thereof, certain provisions contained in a certain Act of Parliament, which has been passed for remedying these defects in the law, that is to say, the Statute 3rd and 4th William 4th, Cap. 42, Section 2; It is therefore enacted that

An action may be maintained by the Executors, Administrators or Representatives of any person deceased, for any wrong committed in the life-time of such person towards him, which has occasioned pecuniary loss to his estate, for which wrong an action might have been maintained by such person, but which, before the passing of this Act, would not have survived to his Representatives, so as such wrong or injury shall have been committed within one year, or have been without his neglect first known to him within one year before the death of such deceased person, and provided such action shall be brought within one year after the death of such person and the damages when recovered shall be part of the personal estate of such person; and further, an action may be maintained against the Executors, Administrators or Representatives of any person deceased for any such wrong committed by him in his life-time and which would not have survived against his Representatives, so as such injury shall have been committed within one year before such person's death and so as such action shall be brought within six calendar months after such Executors or Administrators shall have taken upon themselves the administration of the estate and effects of such person, and the damages to be recovered in such action shall be payable in like order of administration as the simple contract debts of such person. And when any action or suit has been commenced by the injured party in his life-time, it shall not abate by his death or be lost, whatever be its nature, but the Executors, Administrators or Representatives may continue it for the purpose of recovering the costs and expenses of suing, or any special or consequential or other loss or damage included in the action, which the injury has occasioned, or may occasion, to the estate of the deceased.

W. MORGAN,

Clerk of the Legislative Council.

Legislative Council.

5th August 1854.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 5th of August 1854, and referred to a Select Committee, who are to report thereon after the 9th of November 1854.

A Bill for discontinuing the practice of issuing Warrants for the payment of Bills of Exchange.

Whereas the issue of Warrants for the payment of money in discharge of Bills of Exchange drawn on the Treasuries of the Collectors is unnecessary, and the payment of such Bills at those Treasuries should be made without such Warrants; It is enacted as follows:—

Section 12 Regulation II. of 1793, of Section 12 Regulation V. of 1795, Section 11 Regulation XXV. of 1803, and Section 18 Regulation VIII. of 1805 of the Bengal Code, as to the payment of Bills of Exchange drawn upon Collectors, repealed.

So much of Section 12 Regulation II. of 1793, of Section 12 Regulation V. 1795, of Section 11 Regulation XXV. of 1803, and of Section 18 Regulation VIII. of 1805 of the Bengal Code, as prescribe that all issues from the Treasuries of the Collectors shall be made under a Warrant signed by the Collector and sealed with the seal of the zillah, are hereby repealed, so far as the same relate to the payment of money in discharge of Bills of Exchange drawn upon the Collector as the disbursing Officer at such Treasuries.

Rangoon Post Office Notice.

Letters and Newspapers, which should be addressed to Rangoon only, are frequently directed by mistake to Pegu or Burmah, and letters, &c. intended for delivery in Pegu, Prome, Bassein and other places in the Provinces, are in like manner erroneously addressed to "Rangoon, Burmah." The Rangoon Post Master begs to notify that, with such vague directions, this Department is left to find out to which of the Stations such letters should be forwarded, and from want of information, great disappointment is felt when they are despatched to the wrong Station. To obviate this, it is desirable, that parties posting letters in Calcutta or elsewhere, should be careful to direct them to their respective Stations, and to inform their Agents and Correspondents, when leaving one place for another, of their change of address, to ensure letters being directed to the proper Station. A list of places in the Pegu Provinces or in Burmah, and their distance from Rangoon, is annexed below, viz.:

Donabew,	40	miles
Pegu,	55	,,
Sittang,	67	,,
Shoaygyeen,	90	,,
Bassein,	95	,,
Henzada,	95	,,

Tonghoo,	130	miles.
Monean,	120	,,
Thayetmyo,	200	,,

Namean,	195	,,
Prome,	200	,,
Yeagheen,	160	,,
Tapoon, Tindan, Tayngheen, Yandoon,	Below Prome.

Letters addressed to public functionaries, whose head-quarters or residence is in Rangoon, should be addressed "Rangoon," instead of Pegu or Burmah; but if intended for delivery at other Stations, should be addressed to those Stations, the word Rangoon to be omitted.

Indian Iron.

THE RAILWAY COMPANY have to acknowledge the receipt of several communications with description and specimens of the Iron produced in India, in reply to their advertisement, the object of which was to collect all the data available on the subject before the 1st October next, when it is expected that a qualified practical Iron-viewer will be sent out from England, upon whose report, after personal inspection of the several districts indicated, should it prove favorable, the Indian Iron Company already completely re-organized, and in active operation on the Western Coast of India, will, it is believed, be prepared to despatch the men and Machinery necessary for at once establishing Iron Works on a limited but sufficient scale, upon the most eligible site which shall have been selected, with due regard to the proximity of the Materials and the convenience of cheap communication.

The Railway Company will require all the Iron that can be produced for some years from this source, and request that any parties who may have delayed sending in their information upon the subject, will endeavour to forward it previous to the 1st October, to admit of its being usefully availed of.

Legislative Council.

5th August 1854.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 5th of August 1854, and referred to a Select Committee, who are to report thereon after the 9th of November 1854.

A Bill relating to mesne profits and to improvements made by holders under defective titles.

Preamble. Whereas it is expedient to limit the liability for mesne profits in certain cases and to secure to bonâ-fide holders under defective titles the value of improvements made by them; It is enacted as follows:—

Tenant protected from claims for mesne profits, who has bonâ-fide paid to his landlord.

I. No tenant shall be chargeable in any action for mesne profits or suit in the nature of one, with any rents or profits, which before or pending the suit he has paid over to the landlord from whom he derived his title as tenant, or to whom he had bonâ-fide attorned before the commencement of the litigation as to the title, but the claim must be asserted against the party receiving the rents and profits from such tenant.

No account for mesne profits to be carried back beyond time of notice by real title.

II. No account for mesne profits shall be carried back in any Court in any action or suit beyond the time of notice of the real title to the party against whom such demand is made and demand of possession under it unless the possession was taken by violence or with knowledge of the real title.

Such party dispossessed may rank as equitable mortgage for improvements, &c.

III. Any person who is evicted by better title from immoveable property acquired by him bonâ-fide, in the belief that he took a good holding title, shall be entitled to have the value of all buildings and other improvements which he has bonâ-fide made in the lands estimated and secured to him, and may set-off the same against the rent and profits for which he may be liable to account, and shall have for the whole of the surplus a lien on the estate, which may be enforced as the lien of an unpaid vendor for his purchase-money.

W. MORGAN,

Clerk of the Legislative Council.

Legislative Council.

5th August 1854.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 5th of August 1854, and referred to a Select Committee, who are to report thereon after the 9th of November 1854.

A Bill to provide compensation to families, for loss occasioned by the death of a person, caused by actionable wrong.

Action for compensation to the family of a person for loss occasioned to it by his death by actionable wrong.

I. It is enacted that whenever the death of a person shall be caused by wrongful act, neglect or default, and the act, neglect or default is such as would (if death had not ensued) have entitled the party injured to maintain an action and recover damages in respect thereof, then, and in every such case, the party who would have been liable, if death had not ensued, shall be liable to an action or suit for damages, notwithstanding the death of the person injured, and although the death shall have been caused under such circumstances as amount in law to felony. And it is enacted further, that every such action or suit shall be for the benefit of the wife, husband, parent and child, all or any of them of the person whose death shall have been so caused, and shall be brought by and in the name of the Executor, Administrator or Representative of the person deceased, and in every such action, the Court may give such damages as it may think proportioned to the loss resulting from such death to the parties respectively, for whom, and for whose benefit, such action shall be brought, and the amount so recovered, after deducting all costs and expenses, including the costs not recovered from the defendant, shall be divided amongst the before-mentioned parties in such shares as the Court by its verdict or sentence shall find and direct, provided always that not more than one action shall be for, and in respect of the same subject matter of complaint, and that every such action shall be brought within twelve calendar months after the death of such deceased person.

Plaintiffs shall deliver particulars, &c.

II. And it is further enacted, that on the institution of such action or suit, or as soon after as the Court shall direct, the plaintiff shall deliver to the defendant, or to his Attorney or Vakeel, or person, by the practice of the Court, authorized to appear and act for him, a full particular of the person or persons, for whom, or on whose behalf, such action or suit shall be brought, and of the nature of the claim in respect of which damages shall be sought to be recovered.

W. MORGAN,

Clerk of the Legislative Council.

Legislative Council.

5th August 1854.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 5th of August 1854, and referred to a Select Committee, who are to report thereon after the 9th of November 1854.

A Bill to improve the English Law in force in India, by extending to this Country, with some enlargement thereof, the provisions of Statute 3rd and 4th William 4th, Cap. 42, Section 2.

Actions for wrongs to survive to and against personal representatives in certain cases.

Whereas by the English Law in force in India, many actions for wrongs do not survive against the Executor or Administrator of the wrong-doer or in favor of the Executor or Administrator of the injured person, and it is desirable to extend to this country, with some enlargement thereof, certain provisions contained in a certain Act of Parliament, which has been passed for remedying these defects in the law, that is to say, the Statute 3rd and 4th William 4th, Cap. 42, Section 2; It is therefore enacted that

An action may be maintained by the Executors, Administrators or Representatives of any person deceased, for any wrong committed in the life-time of such person towards him, which has occasioned pecuniary loss to his estate, for which wrong an action might have been maintained by such person, but which, before the passing of this Act, would not have survived to his Representatives, so as such wrong or injury shall have been committed within one year, or have been without his neglect first known to him within one year before the death of such deceased person, and provided such action shall be brought within one year after the death of such person and the damages when recovered shall be part of the personal estate of such person; and further, an action may be maintained against the Executors, Administrators or Representatives of any person deceased for any such wrong committed by him in his life-time and which would not have survived against his Representatives, so as such injury shall have been committed within one year before such person's death and so as such action shall be brought within six calendar months after such Executors or Administrators shall have taken upon themselves the administration of the estate and effects of such person, and the damages to be recovered in such action shall be payable in like order of administration as the simple contract debts of such person. And when any action or suit has been commenced by the injured party in his life-time, it shall not abate by his death or be lost, whatever be its nature, but the Executors, Administrators or Representatives may continue it for the purpose of recovering the costs and expenses of suing, or any special or consequential or other loss or damage included in the action, which the injury has occasioned, or may occasion, to the estate of the deceased.

W. MORGAN,

Clerk of the Legislative Council.

Legislative Council.

5th August 1854.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 5th of August 1854, and referred to a Select Committee, who are to report thereon after the 9th of November 1854.

A Bill for discontinuing the practice of issuing Warrants for the payment of Bills of Exchange.

Whereas the issue of Warrants for the payment of money in discharge of Bills of Exchange drawn on the Treasuries of the Collectors is unnecessary, and the payment of such Bills at those Treasuries should be made without such Warrants; It is enacted as follows:—

Section 12 Regulation II. of 1793, of Section 12 Regulation V. 1795, Section 11 Regulation XXV. of 1803, and Section 18 Regulation VIII. of 1805 of the Bengal Code, as to the payment of Bills of Exchange drawn upon Collectors, repealed.

So much of Section 12 Regulation II. of 1793, of Section 12 Regulation V. 1795, of Section 11 Regulation XXV. of 1803, and of Section 18 Regulation VIII. of 1805 of the Bengal Code, as prescribe that all issues from the Treasuries of the Collectors shall be made under a Warrant signed by the Collector and sealed with the seal of the zillah, are hereby repealed, so far as the same relate to the payment of money in discharge of Bills of Exchange drawn upon the Collector as the disbursing Officer at such Treasuries.

Rangoon Post Office Notice.

LETTERS and Newspapers, which should be addressed to RANGOON only, are frequently directed by mistake to Pegu or Burmah, and letters, &c. intended for delivery in Pegu, Prome, Bassien and other places in the Provinces, are in like manner erroneously addressed to "Rangoon, Burmah." The Rangoon Post Master begs to notify that, with such vague directions, this Department is left to find out to which of the Stations such letters should be forwarded, and from want of information, great disappointment is felt when they are despatched to the wrong Station. To obviate this, it is desirable, that parties posting letters in Calcutta or elsewhere, should be careful to direct them to their respective Stations, and to inform their Agents and Correspondents, when leaving one place for another, of their change of address, to ensure letters being directed to the proper Station. A list of places in the Pegu Provinces or in Burmah, and their distance from Rangoon, is annexed below, viz.:

Donabew,	40	miles

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 16, 1854.

Legislative Council.

5th August 1854.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 5th of August 1854, and referred to a Select Committee, who are to report thereon after the 9th of November 1854.

A Bill relating to mesne profits and to improvements made by holders under defective titles.

Preamble. Whereas it is expedient to limit the liability for mesne profits in certain cases and to secure to bonâ-fide holders under defective titles the value of improvements made by them; It is enacted as follows:—

Tenant protected from claims for mesne profits, who has bonâ-fide paid to his landlord.

I. No tenant shall be chargeable in any action for mesne profits or suit in the nature of one, with any rents or profits, which before or pending the suit he has paid over to the landlord from whom he derived his title as tenant, or to whom he had bonâ-fide attorned before the commencement of the litigation as to the title, but the claim must be asserted against the party receiving the rents and profits from such tenant.

No account for mesne profits to be carried back beyond time of notice of real title.

II. No account for mesne profits shall be carried back in any Court in any action or suit beyond the time of notice of the real title to the party against whom such demand is made and demand of possession under it unless the possession was taken by violence or with knowledge of the real title.

Such party dispossessed may rank as equitable mortgagee for improvements, &c.

III. Any person who is evicted by better title from immoveable property acquired by him bonâ-fide, in the belief that he took a good holding title, shall be entitled to have the value of all buildings and other improvements which he has bonâ-fide made in the lands estimated and secured to him, and may set-off the same against the rent and profits for which he may be liable to account, and shall have for the whole of the surplus a lien on the estate, which may be enforced as the lien of an unpaid vendor for his purchase-money.

W. MORGAN,

Clerk of the Legislative Council.

Legislative Council.

5th August 1854.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 5th of August 1854, and referred to a Select Committee, who are to report thereon after the 9th of November 1854.

A Bill to provide compensation to families, for loss occasioned by the death of a person, caused by actionable wrong.

Action for compensation to the family of a person for loss occasioned to it by his death by actionable wrong.

I. It is enacted that whenever the death of a person shall be caused by wrongful act, neglect or default, and the act, neglect or default is such as would (if death had not ensued) have entitled the party injured to maintain an action and recover damages in respect thereof, then, and in every such case, the party who would have been liable, if death had not ensued, shall be liable to an action or suit for damages, notwithstanding the death of the person injured, and although the death shall have been caused under such circumstances as amount in law to felony. And it is enacted further, that every such action or suit shall be for the benefit of the wife, husband, parent and child, all or any of them of the person whose death shall have been so caused, and shall be brought by and in the name of the Executor, Administrator or Representative of the person deceased, and in every such action, the Court may give such damages as it may think proportioned to the loss resulting from such death to the parties respectively, for whom, and for whose benefit, such action shall be brought, and the amount so recovered, after deducting all costs and expenses, including the costs not recovered from the defendant, shall be divided amongst the before-mentioned parties in such shares as the Court by its verdict or sentence shall find and direct, provided always that not more than one action shall be for, and in respect of the same subject matter of complaint, and that every such action shall be brought within twelve calendar months after the death of such deceased person.

Plaintiffs shall deliver particulars, &c.

II. And it is further enacted, that on the institution of such action or suit, or as soon after as the Court shall direct, the plaintiff shall deliver to the defendant, or to his Attorney or Vakeel, or person, by the practice of the Court, authorized to appear and act for him, a full particular of the person or persons, for whom, or on whose behalf, such action or suit shall be brought, and of the nature of the claim in respect of which damages shall be sought to be recovered.

W. MORGAN,

Clerk of the Legislative Council.

Legislative Council.

5th August 1854.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 5th of August 1854, and referred to a Select Committee, who are to report thereon after the 9th of November 1854.

A Bill to improve the English Law in force in India, by extending to this Country, with some enlargement thereof, the provisions of Statute 3rd and 4th William 4th, Cap. 42, Section 2.

Actions for wrongs to survive to and against personal representatives in certain cases.

Whereas by the English Law in force in India, many actions for wrongs do not survive against the Executor or Administrator of the wrong-doer or in favor of the Executor or Administrator of the injured person, and it is desirable to extend to this country, with some enlargement thereof, certain provisions contained in a certain Act of Parliament, which has been passed for remedying these defects in the law, that is to say, the Statute 3rd and 4th William 4th, Cap. 42, Section 2; It is therefore enacted that—

An action may be maintained by the Executors, Administrators or Representatives of any person deceased, for any wrong committed in the life-time of such person towards him, which has occasioned pecuniary loss to his estate, for which wrong an action might have been maintained by such person, but which, before the passing of this Act, would not have survived to his Representatives, so as such wrong or injury shall have been committed within one year, or have been without his neglect first known to him within one year before the death of such deceased person, and provided such action shall be brought within one year after the death of such person and the damages when recovered shall be part of the personal estate of such person; and further, an action may be maintained against the Executors, Administrators or Representatives of any person deceased for any such wrong committed by him in his life-time and which would not have survived against his Representatives, so as such injury shall have been committed within one year before such person's death and so as such action shall be brought within six calendar months after such Executors or Administrators shall have taken upon themselves the administration of the estate and effects of such person, and the damages to be recovered in such action shall be payable in like order of administration as the simple contract debts of such person. And when any action or suit has been commenced by the injured party in his life-time, it shall not abate by his death or be lost, whatever be its nature, but the Executors, Administrators or Representatives may continue it for the purpose of recovering the costs and expenses of suing, or any special or consequential or other loss or damage included in the action, which the injury has occasioned, or may occasion, to the estate of the deceased.

W. MORGAN,

Clerk of the Legislative Council.

Legislative Council.

5th August 1854.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 5th of August 1854, and referred to a Select Committee, who are to report thereon after the 9th of November 1854.

A Bill for discontinuing the practice of issuing Warrants for the payment of Bills of Exchange.

Whereas the issue of Warrants for the payment of money in discharge of Bills of Exchange drawn on the Treasuries of the Collectors is unnecessary, and the payment of such Bills at those Treasuries should be made without such Warrants; It is enacted as follows:—

Section 12 Regulation II. of 1793, of Section 12 Regulation V. 1795, of Section 11 Regulation XXV. of 1803, and of Section 18 Regulation VIII. of 1805 of the Bengal Code, as to the payment of Bills of Exchange drawn upon Collectors, repealed.

So much of Section 12 Regulation II. of 1793, of Section 12 Regulation V. 1795, of Section 11 Regulation XXV. of 1803, and of Section 18 Regulation VIII. of 1805 of the Bengal Code, as prescribe that all issues from the Treasuries of the Collectors shall be made under a Warrant signed by the Collector and sealed with the seal of the zillah, are hereby repealed, so far as the same relate to the payment of money in discharge of Bills of Exchange drawn upon the Collector as the disbursing Officer at such Treasuries.

W. MORGAN,

Clerk of the Legislative Council.

Legislative Council.

12th August 1854.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General of India on the 12th of August 1854, and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. XVII. OF 1854.

An Act for the management of the Post Office; for the regulation of the duties of Postage, and for the punishment of offences against the Post Office.

Repeal of former Acts.

I. Act No. XVII. of 1837, Act No. XX. of 1838, and Act No. XVII. of 1839 are hereby repealed, except so far as they repeal the whole, or any part of any other Act or Regulation, and except as to any act or offence which shall have been done or committed, or to any money which shall have become due, or to any fine or penalty which shall have been incurred, or to any proceedings which shall have been commenced, before this Act shall come into operation.

Exclusive privilege of carrying letters vested in the East India Company.

II. Wheresoever, within the territories under the Government of the East India Company, posts or post communications are, or shall be established by the East India Company, the said East India Company shall have the exclusive privilege of conveying by post, from one place to another, all letters other than letters conveyed by Her Majesty's mails, except in the following cases, and shall also have the exclusive privilege of performing all the incidental services of receiving, collecting, sending, dispatching, and delivering all letters, except in the following cases, that is to say :

1. Letters sent by a private friend in his way, journey, or travel, so as such letters be delivered by such friend to the person to whom they shall be directed, without hire, reward, or other profit or advantage, for receiving, carrying, or delivering the same.

2. Letters solely concerning the affairs of the sender or receiver thereof, sent by a messenger on purpose.

3. Letters solely concerning goods or other property sent either by sea or land, to be delivered with the goods or property which such letters concern, without hire, reward, or other profit or advantage, for receiving, carrying, or delivering such letters.

But nothing herein contained shall authorize any person to make a collection of such excepted letters for the purpose of sending them in the manner hereby authorized.

Prohibitions.

III. Wheresoever, within the said territories, posts or post communications are, or shall be established by the East India Company, the following persons are expressly forbidden to collect, carry, or deliver any letter or letters, or to receive any letter for the purpose of carrying or delivering the same, although they shall not receive hire or reward for so doing, that is to say :

1. Common carriers of passengers or goods, and their drivers, servants, or agents ; except letters solely concerning goods in their carriages.

2. Owners and Commanders of ships, steamboats, or other vessels passing on any river or canal, or to or from any port in the territories under the Government of the East India Company, and their servants or agents ; except letters solely concerning goods on board.

Penalties for breach of privilege.

IV. Every person who shall convey otherwise than by the post a letter not excepted from the said exclusive privilege shall, for every letter so conveyed, forfeit a sum not exceeding fifty rupees ; and every person who shall be in the practice of so conveying letters not so excepted shall, for every week during which the practice shall be continued, forfeit a further sum not exceeding five hundred rupees ; and every person who shall perform otherwise than by the post any services incidental to conveying letters from place to place, whether by receiving, taking up, ordering, collecting, carrying, or delivering a letter or letters not excepted from the said exclusive privilege, shall forfeit for every such letter a sum not exceeding fifty rupees ; and every person who shall be in the practice of so performing any such incidental services shall, for every week during which the practice shall be continued, forfeit a further sum not exceeding five hundred rupees ; and every person who shall send a letter not excepted from the said exclusive privilege otherwise than by the post, or shall either tender or deliver a letter not so excepted in order to be sent otherwise than by the post, shall forfeit for every such letter a sum not exceeding fifty rupees ; and every person who shall be in the practice of committing any of the acst last mentioned shall, for every week during which the practice shall be continued, forfeit a further sum not exceeding five hundred rupees ; and every person who shall make a collection of excepted letters for the purpose of sending them otherwise than by the post shall forfeit for every such letter a sum not exceeding fifty rupees ; and every person who shall be in the practice of making a collection of excepted letters for such purpose shall forfeit, for every week during which the practice shall continue, a further sum not exceeding five hundred rupees. Every person who shall carry, receive, or deliver a letter, or collect letters contrary to the provisions of Section III. of this Act, shall forfeit for every such letter a sum not exceeding fifty rupees ; and every person who shall be in the practice of committing any of the acts last mentioned shall, for every week during which the practice shall be continued, forfeit a further sum not exceeding five hundred rupees.

Appointment of Officers.

V. For carrying on the service of the Post Office, it shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council to appoint, or to authorize the local Governments to appoint, such Officer or Officers, with such official styles or designations, and to vest them with, and delegate to them such powers not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, as the said Governor General of India in Council may deem expedient.

Postage rates on letters.

VI. Wheresoever posts or post communications are, or shall be established by the East India Company, postage, if pre-paid by a stamp or stamps, as hereinafter provided, shall be charged by weight on letters transmitted by the letter post by sea or land, or partly by sea and partly by land, according to the following scale :

On every letter not exceeding a quarter of a tolah in weight, six pies.

On every letter exceeding a quarter of a tolah, and not exceeding half a tolah in weight, one anna.

On every letter exceeding half a tolah, but not exceeding one tolah in weight, two annas.

On every letter exceeding one tolah, and not exceeding one tolah and a half in weight, three annas.

On every letter exceeding one tolah and a half, and not exceeding two tolahs in weight, four annas.

And for every tolah in weight above two tolahs, two additional annas; and every fraction of a tolah above two tolahs shall be charged as one additional tolah.

Every packet or other article transmitted by the letter post shall be deemed a letter within the meaning of this Section, unless it be a packet or other article on which a different rate of postage shall be chargeable under this Act.

The rates of postage specified in this and the following Section may be charged on all letters or other articles which shall pass through any Post Office, provided that such postage shall not be charged on letters or other articles received through Her Majesty's Mails, when such letters or articles are delivered at the place of receipt; nor on any letter or article transmitted by Her Majesty's Mails, when posted at the place of dispatch of such Mails; nor on any newspaper received by sea otherwise than through the East India Company's post and delivered at the place of receipt; nor on any newspaper posted for dispatch by sea otherwise than through the East India Company's post when posted at the place of dispatch.

Postage rates on newspapers, &c.

VII. Wheresoever posts or post communications are, or shall be established by the East India Company, postage on newspapers, pamphlets, and other printed or engraved papers transmitted by the letter post by sea or land, or partly by sea and partly by land, shall be charged by weight according to the following scale:

1. On every imported newspaper, pamphlet, or other printed or engraved paper—

If the same shall not exceed six tolahs in weight, two annas

If the same shall exceed six, but shall not exceed twelve tolahs in weight, four annas.

If the same shall exceed twelve tolahs in weight, there shall be charged and taken two additional annas for every six tolahs in weight above twelve tolahs; and every fraction of six tolahs above twelve tolahs shall be charged as six additional tolahs.

2. On every newspaper, pamphlet, or other printed or engraved paper not imported—

If the same shall not exceed three and a half tolahs in weight, two annas.

If the same shall exceed three and a half tolahs, and not exceed six tolahs in weight, four annas.

If the same shall exceed six tolahs in weight, there shall be charged and taken two additional annas for every three tolahs in weight above six tolahs; and every fraction of three tolahs above six tolahs in weight shall be charged as three additional tolahs.

An extra or supplement to any newspaper, bearing the same date as the newspaper and transmitted therewith under the same cover, shall be deemed part of the newspaper.

Nothing contained in this Act shall be construed to oblige any person to send any newspaper, pamphlet, or other printed or engraved paper through the Post Office, but it shall be lawful for all persons to send the same in any other manner.

Newspapers, &c., how to be sent by post.

VIII. A newspaper, pamphlet, or other printed or engraved paper shall not be sent by the letter post at the rates prescribed in the preceding Section, unless the following conditions be observed, that is to say:

1. It shall be without a cover, or in a short cover open at both ends.

2. There shall be no word printed on such newspaper, pamphlet, or other printed or engraved paper after its publication, or upon the cover thereof, nor any writing or mark upon it or upon the cover of it, except the name and address of the person to whom it is sent, and the name and address of the sender.

3. There shall be no paper or thing enclosed in or with any such newspaper, pamphlet, or other printed or engraved paper.

When to be charged with letter postage.

IX. Any newspaper, pamphlet, or other printed or engraved paper sent by the letter post, in respect of which the above conditions shall not be observed, shall, together with any thing enclosed in or with the same, be charged with postage at the rate which would be charged on an unstamped letter of equal weight.

Proof sheets.

X. Proof sheets marked as such may be sent by the letter post at the rates prescribed for newspapers, provided the contents be correctly certified on the cover by the signature in full of the sender, otherwise the same shall be charged with postage at the rate which would be charged on an unstamped letter of equal weight.

Inland banghy postage.

XI. Inland banghy postage shall be charged by weight and distance, on parcels sent by the banghy post, according to the following scale:

For Distances.		If not exceeding in weight
		20 Tolahs.		100 Tolahs.		200 Tolahs.		300 Tolahs.		400 Tolahs.		500 Tolahs.		600 Tolahs.
	Miles.	Rs.	As.	Rs.	As.	Rs.	As.	Rs.	As.	Rs.	As.	Rs.	As.	Rs.	As.

Provided that several letters shall not be enclosed in a banghy parcel under a penalty not exceeding fifty rupees, and letter postage shall be chargeable on every letter contained therein.

Books, pamphlets, &c.

XII. Books, pamphlets, packets of newspapers, and of printed or engraved papers other than newspapers, provided they do not exceed one hundred and twenty tolahs in weight, and be sent without covers or packed in short covers open at both ends, and provided the postage thereon be pre-paid by means of a proper stamp or stamps to be affixed thereon as hereinafter provided, shall, if sent by the banghy post, or by sea as banghy parcels, or partly by the banghy post and partly by sea, be charged with the following rates of postage, without reference to the distance to which they may be carried:

If not exceeding twenty tolahs in weight, one anna.

If exceeding twenty tolahs, but not exceeding forty tolahs in weight, two annas.

And for every twenty tolahs in weight above forty tolahs, there shall be charged and taken one additional anna; and every fraction of twenty tolahs above forty tolahs shall be charged as twenty additional tolahs.

If any such book, pamphlet, or packet exceed one hundred and twenty tolahs, or if the postage chargeable thereon be not pre-paid as aforesaid, it shall be subject to the rate of postage prescribed for banghy parcels in the preceding Section of this Act.

Table of distances.

XIII. Banghy postage, when chargeable by distance under Section XI., shall be calculated and charged according to a Polymetrical Table of distances, showing, as accurately as practicable, the distance by the nearest road between every two Post Office Stations in India, which Table shall be prepared by order of the Governor General of India in Council and corrected from time to time as need be. Each Post Master General shall prepare from the aforesaid Polymetrical Table, in the English and Vernacular languages, for the use of every Post Office under his control, a list of all the other Post Offices of India, arranged alphabetically and showing the distance of each of them from the Post Office for the use of which it is made; and such list shall be affixed in some conspicuous place in such Post Office.

Limitation of weight of letters where there is a banghy post.

XIV. Where there is a banghy post established on any line of road, no letter or other article exceeding twelve tolahs in weight shall be conveyed by the letter post on that line of road, except in such cases, and under such restrictions as the Governor General of India in Council may direct; and every letter or other article not exceeding twelve tolahs in weight shall be conveyed by the letter post, unless expressly directed to be sent by the banghy post.

Where there is no banghy post.

XV. Where there is no banghy post established on any line of road, letters, parcels, and packets exceeding twelve tolahs, and not exceeding forty tolahs in weight, shall be received and transmitted by the letter post. Letters shall be charged according to the scale in Section VI., and newspapers, pamphlets, and other printed or engraved papers according to the scale in Section VII. of this Act, as the case may be;

Letters and other articles exceeding twelve tolahs, but not exceeding forty tolahs.

parcels and packets shall be charged with banghy postage according to the scale in Section XI. or Section XII. of this Act, as the case may be, if it be certified in writing on such parcel or packet, under the full signature and address of the sender, that it does not contain any letter or other written communication, or any newspaper, pamphlet, or other printed or engraved paper. If any such certificate be false, any such thing contained in such certified letter or other article shall be charged with postage according to the rates specified in Section VI. or Section VII. of this Act as if sent separately, and the sender will be subject to the penalty hereinafter provided.

Parcels exceeding forty tolahs.

Parcels exceeding forty tolahs, and not exceeding six hundred tolahs in weight, shall be transmitted along any such line as banghy parcels; but it shall be in the discretion of the Post Master or Deputy Post Master, to whom such parcels are brought for dispatch, to forward them at such times and in such manner as may be convenient.

Where banghy parcels and letter mails are conveyed in the same carriage.

XVI. Whenever the Post Master General of any Presidency shall have notified in the official Gazette, that the banghy post is conveyed in the same carriage with the letter post along any line of road, it shall not be lawful to send by the banghy post any letter or written communication of less weight than twelve tolahs, or any packet of newspapers; and every person who shall knowingly send by the banghy post, along any such line of road, any such letter, written communication, or newspaper enclosed in a parcel, shall forfeit for every such offence a sum not exceeding fifty rupees, and postage shall be charged for every such letter, packet, or newspaper, as if sent separately by the letter post.

Ship postage on parcels.

XVII. On all parcels chargeable under Section XI. with banghy postage according to distance when conveyed by land, ship postage shall be charged when they are conveyed by means of the East India Company's post by sea according to the following scale, viz.:

On every parcel not exceeding one hundred tolahs in weight, eight annas.

And for every hundred tolahs in weight above one hundred tolahs, eight additional annas; and every fraction of one hundred tolahs above one hundred tolahs shall be charged as one hundred additional tolahs; and if such parcel be conveyed by the East India Company's post, partly by banghy and partly by sea, ship postage shall be charged in addition to inland banghy postage.

Limitation of weight and dimensions of parcels.

XVIII. No parcel exceeding six hundred tolahs in weight, or three feet in length, or one foot in breadth, or one foot in depth, or two thousand five hundred and ninety-two cubic inches in bulk, shall be received at any Post Office for dispatch either by ship or steamboat, or by banghy post, except in such cases and under such restrictions as the Governor General of India in Council shall direct. On parcels exceeding six hundred tolahs in weight, when so forwarded, there shall be charged and taken an additional single rate of banghy postage according to distance for every hundred tolahs above six hundred tolahs, and every fraction of one hundred tolahs above six hundred tolahs shall be charged as one hundred additional tolahs.

Ship and inland postage on foreign covers must be pre-paid.

XIX. Letters and newspapers posted for dispatch, either by Her Majesty's Mails or otherwise to Ceylon, or to any place to which a post communication shall not have been established by the East India Company, upon which the full amount of postage chargeable under this Act has not been pre-paid by a postage stamp or stamps, shall not be dispatched, but shall be dealt with as unclaimed letters are hereinafter directed to be dealt with. No parcel shall be received for dispatch as above to any such place, unless the full amount of postage chargeable thereon shall be pre-paid in money or by a postage stamp or stamps. Provided that nothing in this Section shall be construed to require the pre-payment of British postage on letters, parcels, or other articles, upon which the pre-payment of such postage has been left optional by Her Majesty's Post Master General.

Postage on letters, &c., not pre-paid.

XX. Subject to any alteration which may be made by virtue of the power hereinafter vested in the Governor General of India in Council, letters posted for dispatch, either by sea or land, to any place to which a post communication is, or shall be established by the East India Company, upon which the postage chargeable under Section VI. of this Act has not been pre-paid by a postage stamp or stamps, shall be forwarded to their destination, and upon every such letter double postage shall be charged on delivery. Newspapers, pamphlets, and other printed and engraved papers so posted, not pre-paid by a postage stamp or stamps, shall be forwarded to their destination, and the postage chargeable on them shall be levied on delivery: but no money shall be received at any Post Office in pre-payment of postage on any letter, newspaper, pamphlet, or other printed or engraved paper so posted. On parcels so posted, the postage chargeable according to Section XI. or Section XVII. may be pre-paid in money or by a postage stamp or stamps: when not pre-paid, they shall be forwarded to their destination, and the postage thereon shall be levied on delivery.

Governor General in Council may direct pre-payment of postage in all cases.

XXI. It shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council at any time to direct that all or any letters, packets, parcels, or other articles, shall not be forwarded by post, unless the postage thereof shall be pre-paid by means of a proper stamp or stamps; or that on all or any letters, packets, parcels, or other articles on which the postage shall not be pre-paid by a stamp or stamps, or otherwise, as the said Governor General in Council shall direct, there shall be charged such higher rates of postage as from time to time may be deemed expedient, not exceeding double the rates of postage hereinbefore specified.

Letters, &c., with insufficient stamps, how charged.

XXII. If any letter be posted, having affixed thereto a postage stamp or stamps, the value of which shall be less than the rate of postage to which such letter would be liable if duly and properly stamped when posted, there shall be charged on such letter a postage of double the amount of the difference between the value of the stamp affixed thereto and the postage to which such letter would be liable as aforesaid if duly and properly stamped when posted. If any parcel, newspaper, pamphlet, or other printed or engraved paper shall be so posted, having affixed thereto any such stamp or stamps, the value of which shall be less than the rate of postage to which the same would be otherwise liable under this Act, there shall be charged thereon a postage equal to the amount of the difference between the value of the stamp or stamps affixed thereto, and the postage to which such parcel, newspaper, pamphlet, or other printed or engraved paper shall be otherwise liable, as aforesaid

Re-directed letters.

XXIII. On every letter or packet, which shall be re-directed and forwarded by the letter post, from any place to which it shall have been conveyed by the letter post, there shall be charged for the postage thereof from the place at which the same shall be re-directed, in addition to all other postage paid or due thereon, the rate of postage to which it would be liable, if posted and pre-paid by stamp at the place where it shall be re-directed.

No dangerous substance to be sent by post.

XXIV. No person shall knowingly post, or send, or tender, or deliver in order to be sent by the post, any letter, parcel, or packet containing any explosive or other dangerous material or substance; and any person contravening this prohibition shall forfeit for every such offence a sum not exceeding two hundred rupees.

Governor General of India in Council may alter the rates of postage.

XXV. It shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council at any time to authorize the levy of postage at rates different from those prescribed in this Act, provided there be no increase made thereby in any particular of the rates so prescribed, except as provided in Section XXI of this Act.

Letters and packets once put into the Post Office.

XXVI. No person having delivered into any Post Office any letter, parcel, or packet shall be entitled to recall the same; but nothing in this Section shall prevent the re-delivery of any such letter, parcel, or packet to the sender thereof, subject to such rules and regulations, if any, as the Governor General of India in Council may direct; but newspapers, pamphlets, or other printed or engraved papers may be so recalled or restored, provided that the person claiming the same shall satisfy the Officer in charge of the Post Office that he was the sender thereof, and provided the amount of postage which would have been due thereon, if the same had been forwarded, be paid.

Steam postage.

XXVII The postage charged on letters and packets by Her Majesty's Post Master General, under the name of Steamer or British packet postage, or by any other denomination, shall, after the rates of such postage have been published in the official Gazette of any Presidency, be recovered in the same manner as postage chargeable under this Act.

Postage stamps

XXVIII. All letters and other articles, having a stamp or stamps affixed thereto, (such stamp or stamps in every case being affixed on the outside and being equal in value to the rate or rates of postage to which such letters or other articles are liable under this Act,) shall, provided the stamp or stamps shall not have been used before, be considered as pre-paid.

XXIX. The Governor General of India in Council shall cause postage stamps to be provided, denoting such values as the said Governor General of India in Council may direct, and shall give such orders, and make such other regulations relative thereto, as may be deemed expedient.

How to be provided.

XXX. Postage stamps provided as aforesaid shall be under the care and management of such Officer or Officers as the Governor General of India in Council shall direct; and all sums of money realized by the sale of postage stamps shall be carried in the public accounts to the credit of the Post Office.

Postage stamps to be under management of any Officer to be appointed

XXXI. The Governor General of India in Council may make rules for the appointment and government of vendors of postage stamps, and thereby direct how and under what terms and conditions postage stamps may be supplied to them for sale; and whether any and what security shall be given by such vendors, and whether any and what remuneration or discount shall be allowed to them, and how and in what manner and at what time or times such vendors shall keep and render their accounts and pay over the proceeds of any sales made by them or re-deliver the stamps entrusted to them.

Vendors of postage stamps to be appointed.

XXXII. Government vendors of postage stamps shall be bound by such rules, and in case of any wilful breach thereof, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding two hundred rupees, in addition to any other proceedings to which they may be liable.

Vendors to be bound by rules.

XXXIII. Any Government vendor of postage stamps, who shall be convicted of refusing or unnecessarily delaying, without reasonable excuse, to furnish postage stamps to any person desiring to purchase the same, and tendering in lawful currency the full value thereof, (the stamp vendor having in his possession for sale sufficient stamps of the description and value required,) shall be subject to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees.

Penalty of vendor refusing to supply stamps.

XXXIV. Any Government vendor of postage stamps, convicted of taking from a purchaser a higher price than the value denoted on the stamps sold, shall be deemed guilty of extortion, and shall be punished, on conviction, with imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for any term not exceeding six months, or to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees, and shall also be liable to refund to the purchaser the whole amount proved to have been taken in excess, which amount may be recovered by such purchaser before a Magistrate in the same manner as any penalty under this Act.

Penalty of vendor selling stamps for higher price than the value denoted thereby.

XXXV. Clause 1. If any person shall forge or counterfeit, or cause or procure to be forged or counterfeited, any die, plate, or other instrument used for the purpose of making postage stamps; or if any person shall forge or imitate, or cause to be forged or imitated, any postage stamp; or if any person shall knowingly, and without lawful excuse (the proof of which excuse shall lie on the person accused,) have in his possession any false, forged or counterfeited die, plate, or other instrument resembling, or intended to resemble, either wholly or in part, any die, plate, or instrument used for the purpose aforesaid; or if any person shall stamp or mark any paper or other substance with any such false, forged, or counterfeit die, plate, or instrument as aforesaid; or if any person shall knowingly use, utter, sell, or expose for sale, or shall knowingly and without lawful excuse (the proof of which excuse shall lie on the person accused) have in his possession any paper or other substance having thereon the impression of any such false, forged, or counterfeit die, plate, or other instrument as aforesaid; or having thereon any counterfeit stamp resembling, or intended to resemble, or to be mistaken for a postage stamp, such person so offending, and every person knowingly aiding, abetting, or assisting such person in committing any such offence, shall be punished with imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding seven years, and shall also be liable to fine.

Penalties for forging stamps, &c.

Clause 2. Any Officer of Police may seize and transmit to the Magistrate any such forged or counterfeit die, plate, or other instrument, or any such forged or counterfeit postage stamp.

Forged stamps may be seized.

Clause 3. Any Officer of Police having power by law to search for stolen property may, subject to the provisions under which he is empowered to make such search, proceed to search houses or other places in which there may be reasonable cause to suspect that there is any such forged or counterfeit article, and shall seize and transmit to the Magistrate any such counterfeit article that may be found therein.

And searched for.

XXXVI. If any person shall fraudulently remove any postage stamp from any letter or other thing to which such stamp shall have been affixed; or if any person shall knowingly use any such stamp or stamps so fraudulently removed; or if any person shall fraudulently erase or remove, from any such stamp or stamps, any writing or other matter or thing thereon written or impressed, every person so offending shall forfeit a sum not exceeding two hundred rupees for every such offence.

Penalties for evading postage stamp duties.

XXXVII. The person to whom any letter or other article, the postage of which has not been paid, shall be delivered, shall not be bound to pay the postage if he forthwith return the same unopened, but if he open the same, he shall be bound to pay the postage due thereon. If he forthwith return the same unopened, the sender of the letter or packet shall be bound to pay the postage thereof. If any person shall refuse to pay any postage which he is legally bound to pay for any letter or other article, the same may be recovered for the use of the East India Company by any Post Master General, or by any Officer in charge of a Post Office, by order of a Post Master General, in the same manner as a fine may be recovered under this Act; and it shall be lawful for the Officer in charge of any Post Office to withhold from the person so refusing, until such postage be paid, any other letter or packet addressed to that person, not being superscribed as on the public service. Provided always, that if a letter or other article shall appear to the satisfaction of the Post Master of the Office of delivery to have been maliciously sent for the purpose of annoying the person to whom it is addressed, the Post Master of the delivery Office may remit the postage.

Postage on unpaid letters, &c., to be paid by the receiver.

Registered letters.

XXXVIII. Any person posting a letter or other article shall be entitled to require that it shall be registered at the receiving Post Office and that a receipt shall be granted for such registered letter or article, and it shall be lawful for the Governor General in Council to direct, that, in addition to any rates of postage payable under this Act, a fee not exceeding four annas shall be charged on any letter or other article which the sender thereof shall require to be so registered, and such registration fee shall be paid on the letter or other article being delivered at the Post Office.

Expresses.

XXXIX. It shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council to fix and order any rate of postage to be charged for the conveyance of letters or other articles by express, in addition to or instead of any other rates of postage chargeable on such letters and articles under this Act.

Commanders of inward bound vessels carrying mails, how to proceed.

XL. When any vessel arrives by sea at any place within the territories under the Government of the East India Company at which there is a Post Office, the Commander of such vessel shall, as speedily as possible, cause every letter and packet on board of such vessel, which is directed to that place, and not excepted from the exclusive privilege of the Post Office, to be delivered either at the Post Office or to some Officer of the Post Office authorized to receive the same; and if there be on board any letter or packet directed to any other place, and not excepted from the exclusive privilege aforesaid, the said Commander shall, as speedily as possible, report the same to the Post Master of the place at which he has arrived, and shall act according to the directions he may receive from such Post Master, and the receipt of such Post Master shall discharge such Commander from all responsibility in respect of such letter or packet. Every Commander of a vessel who shall wilfully disobey any of the directions contained in this Section, shall be punished with a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees

Penalty.

Detention of letters on board prohibited.

XLI. Every person, being either the Commander of a vessel inward-bound, or any one on board such vessel, who shall, within the said territories, knowingly have in his possession any letter not excepted from the privilege of the Post Office, after any part of the letters on board the said vessel shall have been sent to the Post Office, shall forfeit for every such letter a sum not exceeding fifty rupees, whether the letter be in the baggage or on the person of the offender or otherwise in his custody; and every such person who shall detain any such letter after demand made for the same by an Officer of the Post Office shall forfeit for every such letter a sum not exceeding one hundred rupees.

Bounty money.

XLII. For every letter delivered by the Commander of any ship in conformity with the directions of Section XL. of this Act, the Officer in charge of the Post Office shall pay to the said Commander the sum of one anna; and the sum of one anna shall be chargeable as postage on such letter in addition to any other postage chargeable thereon under this Act. Provided that no payment shall be made to the Commander of any vessel on account of the delivery of any letter, unless the claim of such Commander shall be preferred before the vessel leaves the place at which the letter was delivered, or before the expiration of two months from the date of the arrival of such vessel. Provided also, that nothing contained in Sections XL., XLI. and XLII. of this Act shall extend to any letter or packet conveyed by Her Majesty's Mails.

Commanders of outward bound vessels to receive mails on board.

XLIII. The Commander of every vessel leaving any place in the said territories by sea shall receive on board of such vessel every letter and packet which he shall be required so to receive by any Officer of the Post Office, and shall give a receipt for such letter or packet; and every Commander of a vessel who shall wilfully disobey any direction contained in this Section shall be punished with a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees.

Unclaimed letters, &c.

XLIV. Clause 1. A list of all letters, packets, and parcels posted and addressed to persons who cannot be found, shall be prepared daily in every Post Office and exposed for not less than two weeks in the most conspicuous part of such Office; and all such letters, packets, and parcels, which shall have remained three weeks unclaimed in any Office, shall, if the sender's name and address are written on the cover, be returned to the Posting Office to be delivered to the sender free of all charge; all letters, packets, and parcels, of which the sender's name and address cannot be ascertained, unless they be opened, shall, after remaining unclaimed for three weeks as above, be forwarded to the Office of the Post Master General of the Presidency.

To be opened, &c.

Clause 2. The Post Master General, or some person duly appointed for the purpose and bound to secrecy, shall immediately open all such letters, packets, or parcels, and if the address of the sender can be discovered, shall enclose them in dead letter covers and return them to the sender. All letters, packets, and parcels, of which neither the person addressed nor the sender can be found, shall, after they have remained unclaimed in the Office of the Post Master General for one year, be destroyed

Money, &c. found therein.

Clause 3. All money found in any unclaimed letter, packet, or parcel shall be paid into the Public Treasury, and all other valuable property found as above shall be sold by the Post Master General of the Presidency, or by some one duly authorized by him for that purpose, and the proceeds of the sale shall be paid into the Public Treasury for the benefit of any person who may have a right thereto, after deducting all sums due from such person for postage.

Refused letters, &c.

XLV. Letters, parcels, or packets rejected unopened by the person to whom they are addressed shall be forthwith sent to the Office of the Post Master General of the Presidency, who shall open the letter, parcel, or packet, and take measures to recover the postage from the sender, or shall at his discretion destroy the letter, parcel, or packet; and all money, or other valuable property, which such letter, parcel, or packet may contain shall be disposed of in the manner prescribed in the preceding Section, with respect to such money or property contained in unclaimed letters.

Franking abolished.

XLVI. On and after the passing of this Act, the privilege of sending and receiving letters and packets by the post, free of postage, whether official or otherwise, shall wholly cease; and all letters and packets, to which any such privilege now extends, shall henceforth be charged with the same rates of postage as any other letters sent by the post. Provided that letters and packets on the public service, certified to be such by the signature of any public officer, authorized in that behalf by the Governor General of India in Council, shall be forwarded by the post as if they were duly stamped, and the postage due thereon shall be charged to the several public departments, from which such letters or packets are sent, in such manner as the said Governor General of India in Council shall direct.

Letters on the public service duly certified as such, how to be charged.

Penalty for false certificate.

XLVII. Every person who shall, for the purpose of defrauding the Post Office Revenue, wilfully certify, by writing, on any official or other letter or packet delivered at any Post Office for conveyance by post, that which is not true in respect of such letter or packet, or in respect of the whole of its contents, or shall knowingly send or deliver, or attempt to send or deliver for conveyance by post, any letter or packet with any such false certificate thereon; and every person who shall knowingly send, or permit to be sent by post, under color or pretence of an official communication, any letter, paper, writing, or other enclosure of a private nature; and every person who shall aid, abet, or conceal any of the offences in this Section above-mentioned, shall, for every such offence, forfeit a sum not exceeding five hundred rupees.

Letters, &c., suspected to contain contraband articles, or writing in contravention of this Act, how to be dealt with.

XLVIII. If any Officer in charge of a Post Office shall suspect that any letter, parcel, or packet, lying for delivery at his Office, contains any contraband article, or any article on which duty is owing to Government, or that any letter, parcel, or packet lying for delivery at the Post Office, contains any writing or enclosure in contravention of the provisions of Sections VIII., XV., XVI., or XLVII. of this Act, it shall be lawful for such Officer to summon the person to whom the letter, parcel, or packet is directed to attend at the Post Office by himself or agent within forty-eight hours after the arrival thereof at that Post Office, and to open the same in the presence of the person to whom it is directed, or of that person's agent, and if that person shall not so attend by himself or agent, then to open it in the absence of that person. Provided that if the Officer in charge be under the rank of a Post Master, he shall call in two respectable persons as witnesses before he shall open a letter, parcel, or packet in the absence of the person to whom it is addressed. Provided also, that in all cases the opened letter, parcel, or packet shall be subsequently delivered to the person to whom it is addressed, unless it be required for ulterior proceedings, and that the opening of the same, and the circumstances connected therewith, shall be immediately reported to the Post Master General. It shall also be lawful for any Officer in charge of a Post Office to refuse to forward any parcel or packet through the Post Office by sea to any foreign port or to any place not on the continent of India, unless such parcel be accompanied by a Custom House Pass.

Government not responsible for loss.

XLIX. The Government shall not be responsible for any loss or damage which may occur in respect of anything entrusted to the Post Office for conveyance, and no person employed by the Government in the Post Office Department shall be responsible for any such loss or damage, unless that person shall cause such loss or damage negligently, maliciously, or fraudulently.

Penalty for secreting, opening, or making away with letters, &c., by persons employed in the Post Office.

L. Whoever being in the employ of the Government in the Post Office Department shall fraudulently secrete, make away with, or appropriate any letter, parcel, or packet which may have been entrusted to him, or anything contained in any such letter, parcel, or packet, or shall mutilate or break open any such letter, parcel, or packet, or any bangly parcel or box, with the intention of fraudulently appropriating anything therein contained, shall be punished with imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding seven years, and shall also be liable to fine.

Penalty for detaining mails.

LI. It shall not be lawful for any person, unless acting by express order of the Government, to detain, except for a criminal offence, a Post Office messenger, whilst carrying the mails, or to detain any carriage or horse upon which the mails are being carried, or on any pretence to open a packet in transit from one Post Office to another; and every person who shall be guilty of any of the above-mentioned offences shall be punished with a fine not exceeding five hundred rupees.

Penalty for retaining letters, &c., delivered by mistake.

LII. Every person who shall fraudulently retain, or wilfully secrete, or make away with, or keep or detain, or, being required to deliver up by an Officer of the Post Office, shall neglect or refuse to deliver up a post letter or other article which ought to have been delivered to any other person, or a post letter bag containing a letter or other article or packet which shall have been sent by the post, shall be punished, on conviction before a Magistrate, with imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding two years, and shall also be liable to fine.

Penalty for neglect on the part of persons employed to carry mails.

LIII. Every person employed to convey or deliver any post-bag, or any letter, parcel, or packet sent by post, who shall be guilty while so employed of any act of drunkenness, carelessness, or other misconduct, whereby the safety of any such bag or letter, parcel or packet shall be endangered; or who shall loiter or make delay in the conveyance or delivery of any such bag, letter, parcel, or packet; or who shall not use proper care and diligence safely to convey or deliver any such bag, letter, parcel, or packet, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees; and any person employed to deliver a letter, parcel, or packet sent by the post, who shall not duly deliver the same, shall, within a reasonable time, not exceeding twenty-four hours, report the fact at the Post Office where he received such letter, parcel, or packet, and return the same; and if any such person shall wilfully make a false report, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees.

Penalty for embezzlement by persons employed in the Post Office.

LIV. Whoever being in the employ of the Government in the Post Office Department, and being entrusted to receive money for postage duty or any other public purpose, shall fraudulently appropriate the same, shall be punished, on conviction before a Magistrate, with imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding two years, and shall also be liable to fine.

Penalty for fraudulently altering marks on letters, &c., by persons employed in the Post Office.

LV. Whoever being in such employ as is described in Section LIV. shall fraudulently put any wrong mark on any letter, parcel, or packet, or shall fraudulently alter, remove, or cause to disappear, any mark or stamp which is on any letter or packet, or shall fraudulently use or place with or upon any letter or packet any stamp which shall have been removed from any other letter or cover, or shall aid, abet, or conceal any of the above-named acts, shall be punished, on conviction before a Magistrate, with imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding two years, and shall also be liable tofine.

Penalty for incorrectly preparing documents, or secreting documents by persons employed in the Post Office.

LVI. Whoever being in such employ as is described in Section LIV., and being entrusted with the preparing or keeping of any document, shall with a fraudulent intention prepare that document incorrectly, or alter that document, or shall aid, abet, or conceal any of the above-named acts, or secrete or destroy that document, shall be punished, on conviction before a Magistrate, with imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding two years, and shall also be liable to fine.

Penalty for sending letters without charging postage, by persons employed as above.

LVII. Whoever being in such employ as is described in Section LIV., shall send by the post, or put into any post bag, any unstamped letter, parcel, or packet, upon which postage has not been paid or charged in the manner prescribed in this Act, intending thereby to defraud the Government of the postage on such letter, parcel, or packet, or shall aid, abet, or conceal any such acts, shall be punished, on conviction before a Magistrate, with imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding two years, and shall also be liable to fine.

Fines how to be recovered.

LVIII. Any person, whether a European British subject or not, who shall be guilty of any offence for which, according to the provisions of this Act, he shall be liable to a fine only, shall be punishable, for such offence, by any Justice of the Peace for any of the Presidency Towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, Magistrate, Joint Magistrate, or person lawfully exercising the powers of Magistrate; and any person hereby made punishable by a Justice of the Peace shall be punishable upon summary conviction.

Conviction to be quashed on merits only. Form of conviction, &c.

LIX. No conviction, order, or judgment of any Justice of the Peace shall be quashed for error of form or procedure, but only on the merits, and it shall not be necessary to state on the face of the conviction, order, or judgment, the evidence on which it proceeds, but the depositions taken, or a copy of them, shall be returned with the conviction, order, or judgment, in obedience to any writ of certiorari, and if no jurisdiction appears on the face of the conviction, order, or judgment, but the depositions taken supply that defect, the conviction, order, or judgment shall be aided by what so appears in such depositions.

Magistrate may refer charge to his Assistant.

LX. A Magistrate may refer for trial and decision any charge of an offence hereby made punishable by fine only to any of his Assistants, or to any Deputy Magistrate lawfully appointed to exercise the powers of a Covenanted Assistant, and in such case every such Assistant or Deputy Magistrate may exercise all the powers vested in a Magistrate, subject to all the rules applicable to criminal cases deputed to such Assistants or Magistrates acting judicially.

Government may authorize Assistants and Deputy Magistrates to exercise certain powers.

LXI. The local Government may give general authority to any such Assistant or Deputy Magistrate to exercise, without reference by a Magistrate, any of the powers which they are hereby rendered competent to exercise upon reference by a Magistrate, subject to appeal to the Magistrate from any conviction by such Assistant or Deputy Magistrate, within one month from the date of the conviction. Provided that a Magistrate may at any time call from any of his Assistants, or from any Deputy Magistrate subordinate to him, any case pending before such Assistant or Deputy Magistrate.

Fines how levied.

LXII. All fines imposed under the authority of this Act, for offences punishable by fine only, by any Justice of the Peace, Magistrate, Joint Magistrate, or person lawfully exercising the powers of a Magistrate, or by any Assistant to a Magistrate or Deputy Magistrate, may, in case of non-payment thereof, be levied by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the offender, by warrant under the hand of any of the above-named Officers, and in case any such fine shall not be forthwith paid, any such Officer may order the offender to be apprehended and detained in safe custody until the return can be conveniently made to such warrant of distress, unless such party shall give security to the satisfaction of such Officer for his appearance at such place and time as shall be appointed for the return of the warrant of distress, and such Officer may take such security by way of recognizance or otherwise; and if upon the return of such warrant, it shall appear that no sufficient distress can be had whereon to levy such fine, and the same shall not be forthwith paid, or in case it shall appear to the satisfaction of such Officer by the confession of the party or otherwise, that he has not sufficient goods and chattels whereupon such fine or sum of money could be levied if a warrant of distress were issued, any such Officer, by warrant under his hand, may commit the offender to prison, there to be imprisoned only, or to be imprisoned and kept to hard labor, according to the discretion of such Officer, for any term not exceeding two calendar months, where the amount of the fine shall not exceed fifty rupees, and for any term not exceeding four calendar months where the amount shall not exceed one hundred rupees, and for any term not exceeding six calendar months in any other case: the commitment to be determinable in each of the cases aforesaid on payment of the amount.

Imprisonment if no sufficient distress, &c.

LXIII. A share not exceeding one moiety of every fine imposed and recovered under this Act may be awarded to the informer.

Moiety of fines to Informer.

LXIV. No proceedings shall be taken for the recovery of any such fine without an order of Government, or an order in writing of the Director General of the Post Office, or of a Post Master General.

No proceedings to be taken without an order.

LXV. If any servant of the East India Company, who shall be employed by the said Company in the Post Office Department, or shall be appointed a vendor of postage stamps, or entrusted by the said Company or any of the said local Governments with the sale of postage stamps within the dominions of any Foreign Prince or State in alliance with the said Company, in which a post shall be established by the said Company, shall, within the dominions of such Prince or State, commit any act hereby prohibited, or omit to do any act hereby required to be done, by any person similarly employed, appointed, or entrusted as aforesaid within the territories under the Government of the said Company, such servant of the said Company shall be guilty of an offence, and, on conviction thereof, shall be punished in the same manner as if such act had been done or omitted within the said last-mentioned territories, and every such person may be tried, convicted, and punished, either by fine or otherwise, according to the nature of the offence, by any Court or Officer duly empowered by the Governor General of India in Council to take cognizance of offences committed in such dominions by servants of the East India Company, or by any Court or Magistrate, or other competent Officer, in any part of the territories within the Government of the East India Company, in the same manner as if the offence had been committed in such part of the said territories.

Servants of East India Company committing offences in Foreign States in alliance.

LXVI. The word "Magistrate" in this Act shall include Joint Magistrates and persons lawfully exercising the powers of Magistrates, and the word "fine" shall include a penalty or forfeiture, or a sum of money due upon a forfeited recognizance.

Interpretation.

LXVII. It shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council to frame rules for the conduct of the Post Office not inconsistent with this Act, and therein to prescribe the regulations, conditions, and restrictions according to which all letters and other articles shall be posted, forwarded, conveyed, and delivered.

Governor General in Council may frame rules.

LXVIII. Unless the Governor General of India in Council shall otherwise order, nothing in this Act shall authorize the charge of postage upon printed books, magazines, reviews, or pamphlets (whether British, Colonial, or Foreign) sent through the post from the United Kingdom to any place to which there shall be a post established by the East India Company, or from such place to the United Kingdon, provided the British postage chargeable thereon be pre-paid.

Books, &c., sent by post to or from the United Kingdom.

LXIX. It shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council, by an order in Council, to direct that postage shall not be chargeable under this Act on any letters or other articles to be specified in such order sent through the post from any part of the British Dominions to any place to which there shall be a post established by the East India Company, or from such place to any part of the British Dominions, subject to such conditions, as to the pre-payment of British postage or otherwise, as the Governor General of India in Council may think fit.

Governor General in Council may exempt from postage letters sent to or from the United Kingdom.

LXX. It shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council to frame Rules for the management of all or any Zemindaree, Thannah, or other District dawks, and to declare, from time to time, what portions of this Act shall be applicable to such dawks and to persons employed in connexion therewith.

District dawks.

LXXI. This Act shall commence and take effect from and after the first day of October, 1854.

Commencement of Act.

Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

12th August, 1854.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General of India, on the 12th of August 1854, and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. XVIII. OF 1854.

An Act relating to Railways in India.

WHEREAS it is expedient, that all Railways which have been, or shall be opened by any Railway Company, under the superintendence and control of the East India Company, for the public conveyance of passengers or goods in any part of the territories in the possession and under the Government of the said Company, should be subject to the same regulations; It is enacted as follows :—

Preamble.

I. No person shall enter any carriage used on any such Railway, for the purpose of travelling therein, without having first paid his fare, and obtained a ticket. Every person desirous of travelling on such Railway shall, upon payment of his fare, be furnished with a ticket, specifying the class of carriage and the distance for which the fare has been paid, and shall, when required, show his ticket to any servant of the said Company, duly authorized to examine the same, and shall deliver up such ticket upon demand, to any of the Company's servants duly authorized to collect tickets. Any person, not producing or delivering up his ticket, as aforesaid, shall be liable to pay the fare from the place whence the train originally started, unless he can prove, that he has travelled a less distance only, in which case he shall be liable to pay the fare only from the place whence he has travelled.

Fares to be pre-paid

Passenger tickets to be given up on demand.

Penalty.

II. At the intermediate Stations, the fares shall be deemed to be accepted, and the tickets furnished only upon condition that there be room in the train for which the tickets shall be furnished. In case there shall not be room for all the passengers to whom tickets shall have been furnished, those who shall have obtained tickets for the longest distance shall have the preference; and those who shall have obtained tickets for the same distance shall have the preference, according to the order in which they shall have received their tickets. Provided, that all Officers and troops of Her Majesty, or of the East India Company, on duty, and all other persons on the business of the East India Company, who, by virtue of any contract with the East India Company, shall be entitled to be conveyed on such Railway in preference to, or in priority over the public, shall be entitled to such preference and priority without reference to the distance for which, or the order in which they shall have received their tickets.

At intermediate Stations, fares and tickets to be conditional.

Proviso.

III. Any person who shall defraud or attempt to defraud any such Railway Company, by travelling, or attempting to travel upon such Railway, without having previously paid his fare; or by riding in or upon a carriage of a higher class than that for which he shall have paid his fare; or by continuing his journey in or upon any of the carriages of the Company beyond the place for which he shall have paid his fare, without previously paying the fare for the additional distance, and with intent to avoid payment thereof; or who shall knowingly and wilfully refuse or neglect, on arriving at the point to which he shall have paid his fare, to quit such carriage; or who shall, in any other manner whatever, attempt to evade the payment of his fare, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees for each offence.

Penalty for fraud.

IV. Any passenger, who shall get into or upon, or attempt to get into or upon, or shall quit or attempt to quit any carriage upon any such Railway, while such carriage is in motion; or who shall ride or attempt to ride upon any such Railway, on the steps, or any other part of a carriage, except on those parts which are intended for the accommodation of passengers; shall be liable to a fine, not exceeding twenty rupees for each offence.

Fine for entering carriage in motion.

Or riding on the steps.

V. Any person other than the engine-man and fire-man, and assistant fire-man, if any, who, without the special licence of the Superintendent of locomotives, shall ride or attempt to ride upon any locomotive engine or tender upon any such Railway; and any person other than the guard or breaksmen, who, without such licence as aforesaid, shall ride, or attempt to ride upon such Railway, in or upon any luggage-van or goods-waggon, or other vehicle not appropriated to the carriage of passengers, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty rupees for each offence.

Fine for riding on engine, tender or luggage-van.

VI If any person shall smoke, either on the premises, or in or upon any of the carriages belonging to any such Railway Company, except in places or carriages which may be specially provided for the purpose, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty rupees for each offence; and if any person persist in infringing this regulation after being warned to desist by any of the servants of the Company, such person, in addition to incurring the liability above-mentioned, may be removed by any of the servants of the Company from any such carriage, and from the premises of the Company, and shall forfeit his fare.

Smoking prohibited.

VII. Any person who shall be in a state of intoxication, or shall commit any nuisance or act of indecency in any Railway carriage, or upon any part of the premises of any such Railway Company; or who shall wilfully and without lawful excuse interfere with the comfort of any passenger on such Railway, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty rupees; and in addition to such liability the offender may be removed by any of the servants of the Company from any such carriage, and also from the premises of the Company, and shall forfeit his fare.

Penalty for intoxication or nuisance.

VIII. If any special carriage, or portion of a carriage, or any private room or apartment, shall be provided by any such Railway Company for the exclusive use of females, any male person who without lawful excuse shall enter such carriage, or portion of a carriage, or any such room or apartment, knowing the same to be exclusively appropriated as aforesaid, or shall remain therein after having been informed of its exclusive appropriation, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees, and may be removed therefrom, and also from the premises of the Company by any of the servants of the Company, and shall forfeit his fare.

Penalty for entering private room or carriage.

IX. No such Railway Company shall in any case be answerable for loss or injury to any passengers' luggage, unless it shall have been booked and separately paid for.

No liability for Passengers' luggage.

X. No such Railway Company shall in any case be answerable for loss of, or injury to any gold or silver, coined or uncoined, manufactured or unmanufactured, or any precious stones, jewellery, watches, clocks or time pieces of any description, trinkets, Government securities, bills of exchange, promissory notes, Bank-notes, orders or other securities for payment of money, Government stamped paper, postage stamps, maps, writings, title-deeds, paintings, engravings, pictures, plated articles, glass, china, silks in a manufactured or unmanufactured state, and whether wrought up or not wrought up with other materials, shawls, lace, or any of them contained in any parcel or package which shall have been delivered to such Railway Company, either to be carried for hire or to accompany the person of any passenger, unless the value and nature of such articles shall have been declared by the person or persons sending or delivering the same and an increased charge for the safe conveyance of the same shall have been accepted by some person specially authorized to enter into such engagements on behalf of the said Railway Company.

No liability for loss of gold, silver, &c., unless in case of special engagement.

XI. The liability of such Railway Company for loss or injury to any articles or goods to be carried by them other than those specially provided for by this Act, shall not be deemed or construed to be limited or in any wise affected by any public notice given, or any private contract made by them; but such Railway Company shall be answerable for such loss or injury when it shall have been caused by gross negligence or misconduct on the part of their agents or servants.

Public notice or private Contract not to limit liability.

Remedy for non-payment of the carriage of goods.

XII. If any person shall fail to pay on demand any sum due to any such Railway Company for the conveyance of any goods, it shall be lawful for the Company to detain all or any part of such goods, or, if the same shall have been removed from the premises of the Company, any other goods of such person which shall then be on their premises, or shall thereafter come into their possession; and also to sell by public auction sufficient of such goods, to realize the sum payable as aforesaid and all charges and expenses of such detention and sale, and out of the proceeds of the sale to retain the sum so payable together with the charges and expenses aforesaid, rendering the overplus, if any, of the money arising by such sale, and such of the goods as shall remain unsold, to the person entitled thereto; or the Company may recover any such sum by action at law.

Written account of goods to be given on demand.

XIII. The owner or person having the care of any goods which shall have been carried upon any such Railway, or shall be brought on to the premises of any such Railway Company for the purpose of being carried on their Railway, shall, on demand by any servant of the Company appointed to receive goods to be carried on that part of the Railway on which such goods shall have been carried, or shall be about to be carried, deliver to such servant an exact account in writing signed by him of the number or quantity and description of such goods.

Penalty for false account.

XIV. If any such owner or person as aforesaid, shall wilfully fail to give such account to such servant of the Company; or if he shall wilfully give a false account thereof, he shall, for every such offence, be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees for every ton of goods, or for any parcel exceeding one hundred weight; and to a fine not exceeding twenty rupees for any quantity of goods less than a ton or for any parcel less than one hundred weight.

Carriage of goods of a dangerous nature.

XV. No person shall carry upon any such Railway any dangerous goods; or be entitled to require any such Railway Company to carry upon such Railway any luggage or goods which, in the judgment of the Company or any of their servants, shall be of a dangerous nature; and if any person shall carry upon such Railway any dangerous goods, or shall deliver to such Railway Company any such goods for the purpose of being carried upon such Railway, without distinctly marking their nature on the outside of the package containing the same, or otherwise giving notice in writing of the nature thereof to the book-keeper or other servant of the Company to whom the same shall be delivered for the purpose of being so carried, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred rupees for every such offence; and it shall be lawful for any such Company or any of their servants to refuse to carry any luggage or parcel that they may suspect to contain goods of a dangerous nature, and to require the same to be opened to ascertain the fact previously to carrying the same; and in case any such luggage or parcel shall be received by the Company for the purpose of being carried on the Railway, it shall be lawful for the Company or any of their servants to stop the transit thereof, until they shall be satisfied as to the nature of the contents of the baggage or parcel.

Penalty for obstructing servant in his duty.

XVI. Any person who shall wilfully obstruct or impede any officer or servant of the Company in the discharge of his duty on such Railway, or any of the works, stations or premises connected therewith, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees.

Penalty for trespass.

XVII. Any person who shall trespass upon any such Railway, or upon any of the lands, stations, or other premises belonging to the Company, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty rupees; and if any such person shall refuse to leave such Railway or premises on being requested to do so by any officer or servant of the Company, or by any other person on behalf of the Company, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees, and may be immediately removed from such Railway or premises by such officer, servant, or other person as aforesaid.

Penalty for driving an animal upon or across Railway.

XVIII. Any person who shall wilfully ride, lead, or drive upon or across any such Railway, any animal, except in directly crossing the said Railway at any road or place appointed for that purpose, at a time at which he shall be lawfully authorized so to do, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees for each offence.

Precaution if Railway crosses road.

XIX. If the Railway cross any public carriage road on a level, the Railway Company shall erect, and at all times maintain good and efficient gates, either across the Railway, or across the road on each side of the Railway where the same shall communicate with the road, and shall employ proper persons to open and shut such gates; if such gates be across the road they shall be kept constantly closed, except during the time when horses, cattle, carts, or carriages, passing along the same, shall have to cross the Railway, and the gates shall be of such dimensions and so constructed as when closed to fence in the Railway, and prevent cattle or horses passing along the road from entering upon the Railway. If the gates be across the Railway, they shall be kept closed except when engines or carriages passing along the Railway shall have occasion to cross the road, and shall be of such dimensions and so constructed as when open to fence in the Railway, and prevent cattle, carriages, or passengers from entering upon the Railway:

Proviso.

provided that it shall be lawful for the local Government in any case to order that the gates shall be across the road or across the Railway as the Government may think fit, and in such case the gates shall be erected, maintained, and closed accordingly.

Penalty.

If any Railway Company shall wilfully fail to comply with the provision of this Section they shall forfeit a sum not exceeding two hundred rupees for each offence, and any Magistrate or Justice of the Peace may, in case any such gates be not erected or maintained, order the Company to erect and maintain the same within a time to be specified in the order, and in case of wilful failure on the part of the Railway Company to comply with such order, they shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred rupees for every day that they shall wilfully fail so to do.

Railway to be fenced. Penalty for not fencing.

XX. Every such Railway Company shall be bound to erect and maintain good and sufficient fences on each side of their Railway; or, failing therein, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees for every offence; and it shall be lawful for a Magistrate or Justice of the Peace to order the Company to erect or repair any such fence within a time to be specified in the order, and, upon failure of the Company to comply with such order they shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees for every day that they fail so to do.

Liability of owner of animal trespassing.

XXI. The owner of any animal which shall trespass or stray upon any such Railway, or upon any lands belonging to such Railway Company, except for want of the erection or maintenance of any fence or gate which the Company is bound to erect and maintain, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten rupees for each animal; and it shall be lawful for the Company, or any of their servants, to take or drive every animal which shall be found so trespassing to the nearest Police Station, there to be detained until the highest amount of fine incurred by such trespass and the expense of feeding and keeping the animal be paid, or until a Magistrate shall otherwise order. A Magistrate may, upon proof of the trespass, cause such animal to be sold by public auction, and the proceeds of the sale, after deducting therefrom such fine or such a sum, not exceeding ten rupees for each animal, as the Magistrate shall award to be paid in lieu of the fine to which the owner is hereby made liable, and such further sum as the Magistrate shall order to be paid for the expenses of detaining, feeding, and selling such animal, shall be returned to the owner of the animal on demand.

Penalty for injury to carriage, &c.

XXII. Any person who shall unlawfully and wilfully remove or deface the number plates, or remove or extinguish any lamp on any carriage belonging to any such Railway Company; or shall wilfully or negligently damage or injure any carriage, engine, waggon, truck, warehouse, building, machine, fence, or any other matter or thing belonging to such Railway Company, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees.

Penalty for opening or not properly shutting gates.

XXIII. If any person for whose use or accommodation any gate shall have been set up by any such Railway Company on either side of such Railway, or any other person, shall open such gate; or pass, or attempt to pass, or drive, or attempt to drive any carriage, cattle, or other animal or thing across the said Railway at a time when any engine or train approaching along the same shall be in sight; or shall at any time omit to shut and fasten such gate, as soon as he and any carriage, cattle, or other animal or thing under his charge, shall have passed through the same, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees.

Offender may be apprehended.

XXIV. If any person shall commit any offence hereby made punishable by fine, and the name and address of such person shall be unknown, or there be reason to believe that the offender will abscond, any officer or servant of the Company, or any police officer, or other person whom such officer or servant may call to his aid, may, without any warrant or written authority, lawfully apprehend and detain such offender until he can be taken before a Magistrate or other officer having jurisdiction over the offence, or shall give sufficient security for his appearance before such Magistrate or other officer, or shall be otherwise discharged by due course of law.

Penalty for wilful act or omission endangering a passenger.

XXV. Whoever shall wilfully do any act, or shall wilfully omit to do what he is legally bound to do, intending by such act or omission to cause, or knowing that he is thereby likely to cause the safety of any person travelling or being upon any such Railway to be endangered, shall be liable to be transported beyond sea for the term of his life, or to be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding seven years.

Penalty for wilful act or omission in a Railway officer.

XXVI. If any officer or servant of such Railway Company shall wilfully do any act which he is legally prohibited from doing; or shall wilfully or negligently omit to do what he is legally bound to do, and if, in consequence of such act or omission, the safety of any person travelling or being upon such Railway shall be endangered, such officer or servant shall be liable to be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding three years, or to fine, or to both.

Penalty for drunkenness or breach of duty by Railway officer.

XXVII. Any officer or servant of such Railway Company who shall be in a state of intoxication, whilst actually employed upon the Railway, or any of the works connected therewith, in the discharge of any duty, and any officer or servant of such Company who negligently shall omit to perform his duty, or shall perform the same in an improper manner, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees; and if the duty in any of the cases in this Section above-mentioned be such, that the omission or negligent performance thereof would be likely to endanger the safety of any person travelling or being upon such Railway, such officer or servant shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, be liable to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding one year, or to fine, or to both.

Penalty for an act not wilful.

XXVIII. If any person shall rashly or negligently and without lawful excuse do any act which shall be likely to endanger the safety of any person travelling or being upon such Railway, he shall, upon conviction before a Magistrate, be liable to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding one year, or to fine, or to both.

Rule of construction of this Act.

XXIX. In the construction of this Act, every officer and servant of such Railway Company shall be deemed to be legally bound to do every thing necessary for, or conducive to the safety of the public which he shall be required to do by any Regulation which shall be made by the Company, and allowed by the Governor General of India in Council, and of which Regulation such officer or servant shall have notice; and every such officer and servant shall be deemed to be legally prohibited from doing every act which shall be likely to cause danger, and which by any such Regulation he shall be prohibited from doing; and every person employed by or on behalf of such Railway Company to do any act upon the Railway, shall be deemed to be a servant of the Company.

Jurisdiction of Magistrate, &c., to fine.

XXX. Any person, whether a European British subject or not, who shall be guilty of any offence, for which, according to the provisions of this Act, he shall be liable to a fine only, shall be punishable for such offence by any Justice of the Peace for any of the Presidency Towns of Calcutta Madras and Bombay, Magistrate, Joint Magistrate, or person lawfully exercising the powers of a Magistrate, whether the offence shall have been committed within the local limits of the jurisdiction of such officer or not, and any person hereby made punishable by a Justice of the Peace, shall be punishable upon summary conviction.

Conviction to be quashed on merits only—form of conviction, &c.

XXXI No conviction, order, or judgment of any Justice of the Peace, shall be quashed for error of form or procedure, but only on the merits; and it shall not be necessary to state on the face of the conviction, order, or judgment, the evidence on which it proceeds; but the depositions taken, or a copy of them, shall be returned with the conviction, order, or judgment, in obedience to any writ of certiorari, and if no jurisdiction appears on the face of the conviction, order, or judgment, but the depositions taken supply that defect, the conviction, order, or judgment shall be aided by what so appears in such depositions.

Magistrate may refer case to his Assistant or Deputy.

XXXII. A Magistrate may refer for trial and decision any charge of an offence hereby made punishable by fine only to any of his Assistants, or to any Deputy Magistrate lawfully appointed to exercise the powers of a covenanted assistant, and in such case every such Assistant or Deputy Magistrate may exercise all the powers vested in a Magistrate, subject to all the rules applicable to criminal cases deputed to such Assistants or Deputy Magistrate, acting judicially.

Local Government may authorize Assistant, &c.

XXXIII. The local Government may give general authority to any such Assistant or Deputy Magistrate to exercise, without reference by a Magistrate, any of the powers which they are hereby rendered competent to exercise upon reference by a Magistrate, subject to appeal to the Magistrate from any conviction by such Assistant or Deputy Magistrate, within one month from the date of conviction. Provided that a Magistrate may at any time call from any of his Assistants, or from any Deputy Magistrate subordinate to him, any case pending before such assistant or Deputy Magistrate.

Proviso.

Fines how to be recovered.

XXXIV. All fines imposed under the authority of this Act for offences punishable by fine only by any Justice of the Peace, Magistrate, Joint Magistrate, or person lawfully exercising the powers of a Magistrate, or by any Assistant to a Magistrate, or Deputy Magistrate, may, in case of non-payment thereof, be levied by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the offender, by warrant under the hand of any of the above-named officers; and in case any such fine shall not be forthwith paid, any such officer may order the offender to be apprehended and detained in safe custody until the return can be conveniently made to such warrant of distress, unless the offender shall give security to the satisfaction of such officer for his appearance at such place and time as shall be appointed for the return of the warrant of distress, and such officer may take such security by way of recognizance or otherwise; and if upon the return of such warrant it shall appear that no sufficient distress can be had whereon to levy such fine, and the same shall not be forthwith paid, or in case it shall appear to the satisfaction of such officer, by the confession of the offender or otherwise, that he has not sufficient goods and chattels whereupon such fine or sum of money could be levied if a warrant of distress were issued, any such officer may, by warrant under his hand, commit the offender to prison, there to be imprisoned only, or to be imprisoned and kept to hard labor, according to the discretion of such officer, for any term not exceeding two calendar months when the amount of the fine shall not exceed fifty rupees, and for any term not exceeding four calendar months when the amount shall not exceed one hundred rupees, and for any term not exceeding six calendar months in any other case, the commitment to be determinable in each of the cases aforesaid on payment of the amount.

Jurisdiction in Madras and Bombay Presidencies.

XXXV. The heads of district police and ameens of police in the Presidency of Madras, and district or joint police officers in the Presidency of Bombay, may punish, to the extent of the powers conferred upon them respectively in petty offences, any offence hereby made punishable by fine not exceeding twenty rupees.

Enforcing payment of fare by passenger not producing ticket.

XXXVI. Payment of any fare to which any passenger not producing or delivering up his ticket shall be liable under Section I. of this Act, may be enforced in the same manner as any fine imposed by this Act.

Apprehension of offenders.

XXXVII. Every person who shall be guilty of any offence mentioned in Sections XXV., XXVI, XXVII. and XXVIII., of this Act, may be lawfully apprehended without any warrant or written authority, by any servant or officer of the Company, or by any other person whom such officer or servant shall call to his aid, or by any police officer of such grade, as shall, by any law in force for the time being, be entrusted in any case with the power of arrest without a warrant; and every person so apprehended shall, with all convenient despatch, be carried and conveyed before a Magistrate or Justice of the Peace, or other officer lawfully authorized to punish the offender or to commit him for trial.

Construction.

XXXVIII. In the construction of this Act, unless where a contrary intention appears from the context, the word "Magistrate" shall include a Joint Magistrate, and any person lawfully exercising the powers of a Magistrate; words in the singular number shall include the plural, words in the plural shall include the singular; and words in the masculine gender shall include the feminine; and the word "fine" shall include a sum of money due upon a forfeited recognizance.

XXXIX. Acts No. III. of 1853 and No. XII. of 1853, are hereby repealed, except as to acts done, offences committed, and liabilities incurred before the passing of this Act.

Acts repealed.

XL. Every Railway within the said territories used for the public conveyance of passengers or goods shall, until the contrary be proved, be presumed to be a Railway within the meaning of this Act, and every Company to whom any such Railway shall belong, shall, until the contrary be proved, be presumed to be a Railway Company within the meaning of this Act.

All Indian Railways to be within the Act.

XLI. Every such Railway Company shall, within forty-eight hours after the occurrence upon the Railway belonging to such Company of any accident attended with serious personal injury, give notice thereof to the local Government; and if any such Company omit to give such notice, they shall forfeit the sum of fifty rupees for every day during which the omission to give the same shall continue.

Penalty for omitting to report accident.

XLII. The local Government may order and direct any such Railway Company to make up and deliver to them a return of serious accidents occurring in the course of the public traffic upon the Railway belonging to such Company, whether attended with personal injury or not, in such form and manner as the Government shall deem necessary and require for their information, with a view to the public safety; and if any such returns shall not be so delivered within fourteen days after the same shall have been required, every such Company shall forfeit the sum of fifty rupees for every day during which the said Company shall neglect to deliver the same.

Local Government may require a return of accidents.

Penalty.

XLIII. A copy of this Act, and of the General Regulations, Time Tables, and Tariff of Charges which shall from time to time be published by any Railway Company, with the sanction of the local Government, shall be exhibited in some conspicuous place at each Station of every Railway so that they may be easily seen and read; and all such documents shall be so exhibited in English and in the Vernacular language of the district in which the Station is situate, and in such other language, if any, as shall be required by order of the local Government

Copy and translation of Acts to be shown at Railway Stations.

Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

12th August 1854.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 12th of August 1854.

A Bill for the amendment of Procedure in cases of regular appeal to the Sudder Court in the Presidency of Fort St. George.

WHEREAS it is desirable to simplify and shorten the procedure in regular appeals to the Court of Sudder Udalut in the said Presidency, it is enacted as follows:—

Preamble.

I. Clause 1st. In modification of Clause fifth, Section X., Regulation V of 1802, every petition of regular appeal in a case appealable to the Sudder Court, shall be presented to the Court in which the decision was passed within six weeks from the day of the decision. Such petitions of appeal shall, except in cases of petitions under Section XII. of this Act, contain only notice that the party, being dissatisfied with the decision, is desirous of appealing from it.

Petition of regular appeal, when and to what Court to be presented, and what to contain.

Clause 2nd. The Sudder Court may extend the time for presenting such petition of appeal to the lower Court, upon being satisfied that there is sufficient cause for such extension of time. The application for such extension of time may be made directly to the Sudder Court, or through the intervention of the lower Court, at the option of the applicant

Time for presenting petition of appeal may be extended To what Court and how application to be made.

II. On presentation of a petition of regular appeal to the Court in which the decision was passed, notice thereof to the respondent, as well as a proclamation to the same effect, shall immediately issue from that Court, and a copy of the proclamation shall be forthwith fixed up in some conspicuous part of the Court House of the said Court. If the notice cannot be personally served, the proclamation shall at once be fixed upon the door of the respondent's dwelling house, or in some conspicuous place in the village or place where he usually resides; or in cases in which the respondent shall not have a fixed residence within the jurisdiction of the Company's Courts, the proclamation may be fixed upon the door of his house of business or cutcherry, or the notice may be served on his known local agent In case the proclamation cannot be fixed, or the notice served in the manner abovementioned, the proclamation shall be fixed up in such other place if any, as the said last mentioned Court shall direct The Nazir shall make a return to the Court stating when and where, the notice and proclamation have been served or fixed up. The return of the Nazir shall be filed in Court, and shall form part of the record of the case, and such return shall be published by fixing up the same in some conspicuous part of the Court House of the lower Court.

Notice to be given to respondent—and proclamation to issue.

III. Clause 1st. The rule in Section XI., Regulation V. of 1802, which directs copies of all original papers transmitted to the Sudder Court with the record of an appealed case to be made out and deposited in the Court, in lieu of the originals, is hereby modified, and it shall be necessary to copy, authenticate, and deposit only the exhibits in the case, and also any other papers of importance, including the pleadings, or any parts of them, which either of the parties shall require to be copied, authenticated, and deposited in the lower Court, previously to their being transmitted to the Sudder Court

Of what original papers copies are to be deposited.

Clause 2nd If either of the parties require any papers to be copied, authenticated and deposited, such party shall, either by himself, or his pleader, or authorized agent give notice in writing thereof to the lower Court, before the expiration of fourteen days from the time of the publication of the return of the Party requiring any paper to be copied, to give notice thereof.

Nazir, as aforesaid: such notice shall specify the papers which the party requires to be copied, authenticated, and deposited.

Clause 3rd. Either party may by himself, or his pleader or authorized agent, before the presentation of an appeal, give notice in writing to the lower Court specifying any papers or documents which he requires to be copied, authenticated, and deposited, in the event of an appeal being prepared.

Party may require papers to be copied in anticipation of appeal.

IV. The petition of appeal together with the record of the lower Court, shall be certified to the Sudder Court as soon as conveniently may be, after the presentation of the petition of appeal, provided that the same shall not be certified within the time allowed to the parties for specifying the papers which they desire to be copied, authenticated, and deposited.

Petition and record when to be certified to the Sudder Court.

Proviso.

V. On arrival of the appeal record at the Sudder Court, notice shall be affixed in the Court House of the said Court, requiring the appellant to file, within six weeks from the date thereof, his grounds of objection to the decision of the Court below. Within the said space of six weeks the appellant shall file in the said Sudder Court his grounds of objection to the decision.

Notice to appellant to file objections.

VI. Clause 1st. On the filing of the grounds of objection by the appellant, notice shall be affixed in the Court House of the Sudder Court requiring the respondent to file his grounds of objection, if any, to appeal, or the decision of the lower Court, within four weeks from the date of such notice.

Notice to respondent to file objection.

Clause 2nd. Within the said space of four weeks, the respondent shall file any grounds of objection which he has to the appeal, or which relate to such parts of the decision as are involved in the appeal.

When respondent to file objections.

Clause 3rd. If the respondent shall desire to object to any part of the decision of the lower Court not involved in the appeal, he may present a separate petition of appeal to the Sudder Court within the said space of four weeks, or within such further time as the said Sudder Court shall allow for that purpose.

In what case respondent may file a separate petition of appeal.

Clause 4th. The respondent shall, in such case, file with his petition of appeal, his grounds of objection to that part of the decision to which his appeal relates, otherwise his appeal shall not be received.

Ground of objection to be filed therewith.

VII. Clause 1st. At the expiration of the time allowed to the respondent for filing his grounds of objection, and for filing a separate petition of appeal in the Sudder Court, the record shall be deemed complete, and the case ready to be called up for decision, on any day which the Sudder Court may notify, unless the respondent, within such time, file a separate petition of appeal in the Sudder Court.

Record when to be deemed complete.

Clause 2nd. If the respondent file a separate petition of appeal in the Sudder Court, notice shall be fixed up in the Court House of the Sudder Court, to the effect that the respondent has filed such separate appeal; and the notice shall require the appellant to file any grounds of objection which he may have thereto, within the space of four weeks from the date of the notice.

Notice of separate petition of appeal to be given.

Clause 3rd. Within such space of four weeks, the appellant may file any grounds of objection which he has to such appeal, or which relate to that part of the decision which is involved in the respondent's appeal. At the expiration of the time allowed for filing such grounds of objection by the appellant, the record shall be deemed complete, and the case ready to be called up for decision on any day which the Sudder Court shall notify for that purpose.

Appellant to file objections.

Record when to be deemed complete.

Clause 4th. If the appeal of either party, be dismissed, or withdrawn, the appeal of the other may be heard alone; otherwise the two appeals, and the proceedings thereon, shall form one record, unless the Sudder Court shall otherwise order.

Hearing of appeals.

VIII. The respondent shall not be allowed to present a separate petition of appeal in the Sudder Court, if he shall previously have presented a petition of appeal to the lower Court.

In what case respondent not to present a separate petition of appeal.

IX. Clause 1st. All grounds of objection which shall be filed by either the appellant or the respondent, shall be stated distinctly and concisely, without any argument or narrative of facts; and shall be numbered consecutively, and, except in the cases hereinafter mentioned, shall be on paper bearing the stamp duty prescribed by Section XIX Regulation XIII. of 1816.

Objections to be distinctly stated, and to be numbered, also to be written on stamped paper.

Exception.

Clause 2nd. The Sudder Court may extend the time for filing grounds of objection, either by an appellant or respondent, upon special application for that purpose, and upon sufficient reasons being shown, to the satisfaction of the said Court, for such extension of time. In such case, the objections may be filed within such extended time.

Sudder Court may extend the time for filing objections.

X. Either party may, by leave of the Sudder Court or any Judge thereof, at any time before the hearing, amend his grounds of objection, or add grounds of objection to those filed, upon such terms and conditions, and within such time as the said Court or Judge may order. The said Court may also, upon the hearing of any appeal, allow either party to amend his grounds of objection, or to add further grounds, or to urge, and be heard by himself or his pleader, in support of any objection not included in his grounds of objection, upon such terms and conditions, as to postponement of the cause, and as to the payment of costs or otherwise, as the Court shall think just, to prevent the opposite party or his pleader from being taken by surprise, or otherwise. Without such leave of the Court, neither party shall be allowed to urge or to be heard in support of any objection not included in his grounds of objection filed. But the Court shall not be confined to such grounds of objection on deciding the cause.

By leave of the Sudder Court ground of objection may be amended or added. The parties, but not the Court, to be confined to the objections stated.

XI. Clause 1*st.* The Sudder Court may call up for hearing and decision on any day the Court shall notify, and without regard to the place in which the case stands in the general list of appeals, any grounds of objection filed by the respondent, or the appellant, to the appeal of the opposite party; and the Sudder Court may hear and decide upon such grounds of objection, before calling the case up for decision, upon the grounds of objection to the decision of the lower Court.

Sudder Court may fix a day to hear and determine objections to the appeal before the regular time for hearing the appeal.

Clause 2*nd.* If the grounds of objection filed by the appellant, and respondent, shall be upon point of law only, and shall not raise any question of fact, the Sudder Court may order the case to be called up for hearing and decision, on any day which the said Court shall notify, without regard to the place in which it stands in the general list of appeals pending in the said Court.

Appeal involving objections of law only may be called on for decision at any fixed time.

Clause 3*rd.* If the grounds of objection filed shall raise questions of law and fact, and it shall appear to the Sudder Court, that the decision of the law may render it unnecessary to determine any question of fact so raised, the Court may order the case to be called up for decision upon the law alone, in the first instance, in the manner pointed out in the last preceding Section, and if the decision of the case upon the law, shall render it unnecessary to determine any question of fact, the said Court shall pass a final decision in the case; otherwise the Court shall determine the law only, and the case shall be afterwards set down in the list of regular appeals for hearing upon the question or questions of fact, and shall be determined in the same manner as any other regular appeal.

Appeal involving objections of law and fact how to be heard.

XII. If any party to a regular suit be desirous of being admitted to appeal in forma pauperis to the Sudder Court, the following procedure shall be adopted:

Appeal in formâ pauperis

Clause 1*st.* The appellant shall present his petition to the lower Court according to the rules prescribed by Section I. of this Act, provided that a petition to appeal in forma pauperis against any decision passed before this Act shall come into operation, may be presented within three months from the day of the decision.

Petition when to be presented.

Proviso

Clause 2*nd.* Petitions of appeal by parties desirous to appeal in forma pauperis, shall contain a statement to that effect, and also a Schedule of the whole real and personal property belonging to the petitioner, and the estimated value of such property, and shall be written on paper bearing the stamp duty of two rupees per sheet.

Form of Petition.

Clause 3*rd.* Upon the presentation of such petition, the notice to the respondent, and the proclamation, shall state that the appellant desires to appeal in forma pauperis.

Notice thereof and proclamation.

Clause 4*th.* On arrival of the appeal record at the Sudder Court, the same procedure shall be adopted in that Court as in other cases of regular appeal, except, that after the filing of the grounds of objection by the appellant, and before notice shall be given requiring the respondent to file his grounds of objection, the Sudder Court shall determine, according to the rules now applicable to the determination of such cases, whether or not, the appellant shall be allowed to appeal in forma pauperis.

Procedure on such appeal.

When Sudder Court is to determine whether appeal shall be in forma pauperis.

Clause 5*th.* If the Sudder Court allow the petitioner to appeal in forma pauperis notice shall be given to the respondent to file his grounds of objection in the manner provided by Section VI. of this Act, and the same procedure shall be adopted subsequently thereto, as in other cases of regular appeal under this Act. The rules and conditions now applicable to persons admitted by the Sudder Court to appeal in forma pauperis, shall continue in force; except where the same are inconsistent with any of the provisions of this Act.

Notice to respondent to file objections to pauper appeals.

Rules of Sudder as to pauper appeals to continue in force.

Clause 6*th.* If the Sudder Court refuse to allow the petitioner to appeal in forma pauperis, the said Court may make an order to the effect, that the appellant, upon filing a petition of appeal in that Court upon paper bearing the stamp duty prescribed by Section XIII., and Clause 2, Section XXIII., Regulation XIII. of 1816 may proceed with the appeal, according to the rules prescribed by this Act in the case of persons not appealing as paúpers.

What order may be made upon refusal to allow appeal in forma pauperis.

Clause 7*th.* Upon such order being made, the appellant shall file his petition, and re-file his objections upon paper stamped with the stamp duty, required by Clause 5th of this Section, within two weeks from the date of such order, or within such further time, as the said Court may allow for that purpose; otherwise the appeal shall stand dismissed.

Appellant how to proceed upon such order.

Clause 8*th.* Upon the refiling of the grounds of objection according to the provisions of the last preceding Clause, notice of the order and of the re-filing of such objections shall be given to the respondent in the manner prescribed by Section VI. of this Act, and the respondent shall be required to file his grounds of objection, if any, according to the provisions of that Section. The procedure subsequent to such notice, shall be according to the general provisions of this Act.

Notice of order to be given to respondent. Subsequent procedure thereon.

Clause 9*th.* If an appellant shall petition to appeal in formâ pauperis, his grounds of objection may be written on plain paper

In pauper appeals appellant's objections may be on unstamped paper.

XIII. If an appellant shall be admitted to appeal or a respondent to defend in formâ pauperis, all grounds of objection subsequently filed by either party may be written on plain paper

All subsequent objections may be on unstamped paper.

XIV. No decision shall be reversed or altered, nor shall any case be remanded upon appeal to the Sudder Court, on account of any error, defect, or irregularity not productive of injury to either party, nor opposed to any express enactment contained in the general Regulations or Acts of Government.

No decision to be reversed by reason of error not productive of injury, &c.

XV. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to regular appeals preferred from decrees passed before the passing of this Act, which appeals shall be subject to all the forms and rules in force previous to the passing of this Act.

Act not to be retrospective.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

12th August 1854.

The following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 12th of August 1854.

A Bill to amend the Law of Evidence in the Civil Courts of the East India Company in the Madras Presidency.

WHEREAS the law of evidence administered by the Civil Courts of the Presidency of Fort St. George in Madras, and the rules for the attendance and examination of witnesses and the production of documents in Courts, require amendment, It is enacted as follows :—

Preamble.

I. Section VII. Regulation III. of 1802, Section XX. Regulation IV. of 1802, Clauses 1st and 2nd, Section XXIX. Regulation VI of 1816, and Section XIV. Regulation VIII. of 1816 of the Madras Code, so far as they are inconsistent with the provisions of this Act ; and Section XXII. Regulation VII. of 1809, are hereby repealed.

Repeal of former Regulations.

II. In any regular or summary suit, appeal, or proceeding in any of the Civil Courts of the East India Company, and also in any summary suit or other proceeding of a civil nature before any Court, Officer, or other person having by law or by consent of parties authority to examine witnesses, any party to such suit, appeal, or proceeding, shall be competent and entitled to give evidence as a witness either on his own behalf or on behalf of any other party to the suit, appeal, or proceeding ? in the same manner as if he were not a party to the same. Provided that no party to a suit, appeal, or proceeding, who shall offer himself as a witness therein, shall, without the consent of all parties thereto, be examined otherwise than in open Court, in such manner as the Court may direct having regard to the usages and customs of the country, unless such examination shall be taken under, and subject to the Rules prescribed by Section XXXII. or XXXVIII. of this Act.

Parties to suits competent as witnesses.

Proviso.

III. No person shall, by reason of any interest in the result of any suit or of any interest connected therewith, or by reason of relationship to any of the parties thereto, be incompetent to give evidence in any such suit.

Abolishes incompetency on ground of interest or relationship.

IV. A husband or wife shall be competent to give evidence for or against the other provided that the examination shall take place in open Court in such manner as the Court may direct having regard to the usages and customs of the country, or that it be taken and read, and subject to the Rules prescribed in Section XXXII. or XXXVIII. of this Act ; provided also that any communication made by husband or wife to the other during their marriage shall be deemed a privileged communication, and shall not be disclosed without the consent of the person making the same, unless such communication shall relate to a matter in dispute in a suit pending between such husband and wife.

Husband or wife when a competent witness for or against the other.

Proviso.

V. Any party to a suit may be compelled to give evidence as a witness therein and also to produce any document in his possession or power, in the same manner, by the same process, and subject to the same Rules, as if he were not a party to the suit, except so far as is otherwise provided by this Act. Provided that no Court need to compel the attendance of any party to such suit, for the purpose of giving evidence therein, if such party shall satisfy the Court that he has no personal knowledge of any material subject of inquiry in the suit, and that he cannot give any material evidence therein. Nothing in this Clause shall exempt any party to a suit from being summoned to produce a document.

Party to suit compellable to give evidence and produce documents.

Proviso.

VI. After the parties in a suit, in which according to the practice of the Court a day is fixed for the hearing, shall have filed their exhibits and lists of witnesses, the Court shall, by an order in writing, appoint a day, not less than fifteen days after the date thereof, for the examination of witnesses and the hearing of the suit.

Court to appoint a day for the hearing.

VII. The list of witnesses required to be furnished in any suit shall include the names of all the witnesses, whether the parties to the suit or not, whom the party filing the list may intend to call as witnesses, or whom he may require to be summoned to give evidence or produce any document, also a list of the documents which he may require to be produced.

What the list of witnesses shall include.

VIII. If any party to a suit shall require the attendance of any other party thereto as a witness to be enforced, he shall by himself or his pleader make a special application to the Court for an order for a summons to compel the attendance of the party, and shall show to the satisfaction of the Court sufficient grounds in support of such application, otherwise a summons shall not be issued. In cases in which, according to the practice of the Court, a day is fixed for the hearing, the application shall be made before such day shall be fixed.

Special application to compel attendance of part to a suit as a witness.

IX. The Court, upon the application of the pleader of any party to a suit whose attendance as witness is required, or without such application, if the Court think fit so to do, may, before making such order, cause notice to be given to the party or his pleader fixing a day for such party to show cause why he should not attend and give evidence, and may also, from time to time if necessary, for good and sufficient cause, enlarge the time for such purpose.

Court may cause notice to be given to a party to show cause why he should not attend.

Written declaration of party receivable.

X. Clause 1.—In support of the cause shown, the Court shall receive a declaration in writing of the party, if signed by him, and delivered into the Court by himself or his pleader.

Penalty for false statement.

Clause 2. If the party making such declaration shall wilfully and corruptly make any false statement therein, he shall be liable to the punishment provided for the offence of making a false allegation in a petition to a Judicial Court, by Section II. Regulation I. of 1832.

Summons to issue if no sufficient cause shown.

XI. If no sufficient cause be shown on the day fixed or upon any subsequent day to which the Court shall enlarge the time for that purpose, the Court shall cause a summons to be issued for compelling the party to attend and give evidence.

Summons to produce material document may be issued.

XII. The Court, on the requisition of any party to a suit, or his pleader, may cause a summons to be issued to every person who shall be required to produce any material document. Previously to the issuing of any summons for the attendance of any person to give evidence or produce a document, the party requiring the same shall pay into Court such sum as shall appear to the Court to be reasonable, to defray the travelling and other expenses of such person in passing to and from the Court in which he may be required to attend and give evidence, and for one day's attendance thereat. In fixing the sum to be paid into Court, regard shall be had to the rules, if any, established by the Court or Board, if any, to which such Court shall be subordinate. The sum so paid into Court shall be tendered to the witness at the time of serving the summons if it can be served personally. In addition to the sum so paid into Court, the Court before whom any person who may attend in pursuance of a summons or proclamation to give evidence or produce any document, may order such further sum to be paid to the person so attending by the person causing the summons or proclamation to be issued, as may appear to be necessary to defray his travelling and other expenses, and also the expenses of his detention under the summons or proclamation, and in case of default in payment, may order such sum to be levied by attachment and sale of the goods of the person ordered to pay the same, and the witness shall be bound to give evidence or produce any document until such sum shall be paid.

Expenses of witness to be fixed and paid into Court before summons, and tendered to witness at time of service.

Court may direct a further payment.

Form of summons

XIII. Every summons for the attendance of a witness to give evidence, or to produce a document, shall require the intended witness to attend at a time and place to be named in the summons, and shall also state whether the attendance of the witness is required for the purpose of giving evidence, or producing a document, or for both purposes. If a witness, whether a party to the suit or not, is required to attend, and to produce before the Court any document alleged by the party summoning him to be in his possession or power, a direction to attend the Court with such document shall be inserted in the summons, and the document which the witness may be so called upon to produce shall be described in the summons with convenient certainty.

How service of summons to be made.

XIV. Every such summons shall, if possible, be served personally upon the person thereby required to attend, by showing the original to such person, and at the same time delivering or tendering to him a copy thereof.

Time of service of summons.

XV. Such service must be made a sufficient time before the time specified therein for his attendance, to allow the witness a reasonable time for preparation, and for travelling to the place at which his attendance is required.

Person summoned to produce a document may depute another to do so.

XVI. Any person, whether a party to the suit or not, may be summoned to produce a document without being summoned to give evidence, and any person summoned merely to produce a document shall be deemed to have complied with the summons if he cause such document to be produced, instead of attending personally to produce the same.

Person summoned as a witness bound to attend.

XVII. Any person who shall be summoned to appear and give evidence shall be bound to attend at the time and place named for that purpose.

Person summoned to produce a document need not be sworn.

XVIII. Any person attending to produce a document may be called upon to produce the same without being sworn or examined as a witness.

In what case a witness is bound to produce his title-deeds.

XIX. A witness, not a party to the suit or proceeding in which he is summoned, shall not be bound to produce his own title-deeds, unless he shall have agreed in writing with the party requiring the production thereof, or with some person through whom he claims to produce such deeds.

Witness or party not bound to produce a State paper, &c.

XX. A witness, whether a party or not, shall not be bound to produce any document relating to affairs of State, the production of which would be contrary to good policy, nor any document held by him for any other person who would not be bound to produce it if in his own possession.

Party not bound to produce irrelevant document, or correspondence with his legal advisers, unless he offers himself as a witness.

XXI. A witness, being a party to the suit, shall not be bound to produce any document in his possession or power which is not relevant or material to the case of the party requiring its production, nor any writing or correspondence which may have passed between him and any legal professional adviser. If any party, however, offer himself as a witness, he shall be bound to produce any such writing or correspondence in his custody, possession, or power, if revelant or material to the case of the party requiring its production.

XXII. Every witness summoned to produce a document shall, if the same be in his custody, possession, or power, be bound to produce it, or cause it to be produced to the Court, although there be a valid objection to the right of the party calling for it to compel its production, or to the reading or putting it in as evidence, or to the disclosure of the contents thereof, the validity of any such objection made by the person producing the document shall be determined by the Court; and for the better determination thereof, it shall be lawful for the Court to receive any admissible evidence which the person producing the document may give respecting it; and it shall also be lawful for the Court to inspect the document, and if necessary to call to its assistance any person whom it may appoint to interpret the same. Such person, however, shall be previously sworn truly to interpret the same to the Court alone, and not to disclose the contents thereof except to the Court, unless the Court shall order the document to be given in evidence. If the Court shall be of opinion that such document shall not be produced, the Court shall not disclose the contents thereof to the parties, or take any note, or make any mention of the contents or effect thereof in its judgment or proceedings, but shall return the document at once to the party producing the same, having previously marked the same for the purpose of identification, and shall record in its proceedings that a document, identifying it by the mark put upon it, was called for by the person, naming him who shall call for its production, that the person having the possession of the document, naming him, objected to its production; and the reasons, if any, for such objection, together with the reasons of the Court for refusing to compel its production. If the Court shall refuse to enforce the production of a document, or to receive the same in evidence, the Court of appeal may, upon a regular appeal, compel the production of such document, and if such Court shall think that the production of the same ought to have been enforced, or that it ought to have been received in evidence, may themselves enforce its production, and receive it in evidence, and decide the case upon such document coupled with the other evidence given in the suit.

Court may call for and inspect, and may also examine witnesses to ascertain the admissibility of a document; if deemed inadmissible, reason must be recorded.

On appeal production may be enforced.

XXIII. A barrister, attorney, or vakeel, shall not, without the consent of his client, disclose any communication made by the client to him in the course of his professional employment, nor any advice given by him professionally to his client, nor the contents of any document of his client, the knowledge of which he shall have acquired in the course of his professional employment. The privilege, however, is that of the client, and if any party to a suit shall give evidence therein at his own instance, he shall be deemed thereby to have waived his privilege, and to have consented to the disclosure by such barrister, attorney, or vakeel, of any such matter as aforesaid, which may be relevant, and which the barrister, attorney, or vakeel would have been bound to disclose, but for the privilege of his client, and the barrister, attorney, or vakeel shall be bound upon examination to disclose any such matter.

Legal adviser not to disclose professional communication to client.

What shall be deemed a waiver by client of this privilege.

XXIV. If any witness, whether a party to a suit or not, to whom any summons to give evidence or produce a document shall have been personally delivered, shall, without lawful excuse, fail to comply with such summons as required by this Act; or attending, or being present in Court, shall, without lawful excuse, refuse to give evidence, or to subscribe his deposition, or to produce any document in his custody or possession, named in such summons as aforesaid, upon being required by the Court so to do, the Court shall have full power and authority to issue an order in writing to the nazir to apprehend and bring the witness before the Court; or, if he be already before the Court, to take him into custody. And such Court may impose on such witness a fine not exceeding five hundred rupees for his default or refusal, realizable by attachment and sale of his property, and may commit him to close custody until he shall consent to give his evidence, or to sign his deposition, or to produce the document; and any such fine as aforesaid shall be levied and recovered by attachment and sale of the property of such person. Provided that no fine imposed under the provisions of this Section shall exceed the amount of the property in dispute in the suit. If any such person shall abscond, or keep out of the way, so that he cannot be seized or brought before the Court, his property shall be liable to attachment and sale in the same manner as is provided by Section XXVII. of this Act, with respect to a witness on whom the service of a summons cannot be effected. If such person shall be a party to the suit, the Court, instead of proceeding in the manner above pointed out, may, if the witness be a plaintiff, appellant, or petitioner, dismiss the complaint, appeal or petition, with costs against such party; or if such party be a defendant or respondent, may hear and decide the case against such defendant or respondent ex-parte. If any such complaint, appeal, or petition shall be dismissed for such cause, the complainant or petitioner shall be debarred from preferring any other petition, appeal, or complaint in respect of the same matter.

Penalty for non-compliance with summons.

Proviso.

XXV. Any person present in Court, whether a party or not, may be called upon and compelled by the Court to give evidence, and produce any document then and there in his actual possession or in his power, in the same manner and subject to the same rules as if he had been summoned to attend and give evidence, or to produce such document, and may be punished in like manner for any refusal to obey the order of the Court.

Person present may be compelled by Court to give evidence, &c., without summons.

XXVI. Any person, whether a party to the suit or not, to whom a summons to attend and give evidence, or produce a document, shall be personally delivered, and who shall, without lawful excuse, neglect or refuse to obey such summons, or who shall be proved to have absconded, or kept out of the way to avoid being served with such summons; and any person who, being in Court, and upon being required by the Court to give evidence, or produce a document in his possession, shall, without lawful excuse, refuse to give evidence, or sign his deposition, or to produce a document in his possession, shall, in addition to any proceedings under this Act, be liable to the party at whose request the summons shall have been issued, or at whose instance he shall be required to give evidence or produce the document, for all damages which he may sustain in consequence of such neglect or refusal, or of such absconding or keeping out of the way as aforesaid, to be recovered in civil action.

Person not obeying summons, &c., liable for damages in a civil action.

After proclamation the property of a witness may be attached and sold.

XXVII. If a person, whether a party to a suit or not, for whose attendance either to give evidence or produce a document a summons shall be issued, cannot, after diligent search, to be certified by a return of the nazir, be found, the Court upon proof that the evidence of such witness, or the production of the document is material, and that the witness absconds, or keeps out of the way to avoid being served with a summons, and that he could not, after diligent search, be found or served with the summons, may cause a proclamation requiring the attendance of such person to give evidence, or produce the document at a time and place to be named therein, to be affixed in the presence, and with the attestation of two respectable householders in some conspicuous place, upon or near to his house or place of abode, and if such person shall not attend at the time and place to be named in such proclamation, and it be proved to the satisfaction of the Court that the witness cannot be found, his property, real and personal, to such amount as the Court shall deem reasonable, (but subject to the same limitation as to the articles exempt from attachment as in case of attachment for arrears of rent,) shall be liable, under an order of the Court, to attachment and sale. Proviso. Provided always, that when the order for attachment and sale shall have been issued by any Court subordinate to the Court of Sudder Dewanny Adawlut, a summary appeal shall lie within one month from the date of the order of the subordinate Court to the Court to which its orders are generally appealable; and that the Rules for the time being in force in regard to sales made in execution of decrees, as to the mode and period of attachment and the place or manner of sale, and as to claims of third parties to property attached and notified for sale, shall be held applicable to such sales.

Costs of attachment and proceedings thereon.

XXVIII. Clause 1.—The cost of the attachment shall be borne in the first instance by the party applying for it, and the Court issuing the summons and attachment shall not proceed to sale of the property, but shall order the same to be released from attachment if the witness shall appear and satisfy the Court that he did not abscond, or keep out of the way to avoid service of a summons, and that he had not notice of the proclamation in time to attend at the time and place named therein. Upon the appearance of such witness the Court shall make such order in regard to the costs of the attachment as it shall deem fit. If the witness appearing shall fail to satisfy the Court that he did not abscond, or keep out of the way to avoid service of a summons, and that he had not such notice of the proclamation as aforesaid, it shall be in the discretion of the Court to order the property attached or any part thereof to be forfeited and sold for the purpose of satisfying all costs incurred in consequence of such defaulter absconding, or keeping out of the way, and such fine, not exceeding the amount in dispute in the suit, as the Court may deem fit to impose upon the witness, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, and the condition in life of the witness, or the Court may order the property to be released from attachment upon payment of such costs and fine as aforesaid.

Appeal from order for attachment.

Clause 2.—An order made in pursuance of this Section shall be subject to appeal in the same manner and within the same period, as an appeal against an order for attachment and sale under the last preceding Section of this Act.

Appeal from orders as to fines, &c.

XXIX. All orders as to fines, or the levying thereof, or as to imprisonment under this Act, shall be subject to a similar appeal within one month from the date of the order.

Postponing case on account of non-attendance of witness, &c.

XXX. It shall not be necessary to postpone the hearing or decision of a case for the non-production of a document, or for the evidence of a witness who may neglect or refuse to attend, or who shall abscond or keep out of the way, or who cannot be served with a summons, beyond such period as shall appear proper to the Court, having regard to all the circumstances of the case; Proviso. provided that when a summons shall have been issued for the attendance of a plaintiff or appellant in a suit to give evidence, or produce a document, the Court shall, at the request of the defendant or respondent, unless there be good reason to the contrary, postpone the hearing or decision until the plaintiff or appellant can be personally summoned, or shall attend and give evidence, or produce the document required; and that where a summons shall have been issued for the attendance of a defendant or respondent to give evidence or produce a document, the hearing or decision shall, upon the application of the plaintiff or appellant, be postponed in like manner, unless there be good reason to the contrary, until the defendant or respondent can be personally summoned, or shall attend and give evidence, or produce the document required.

Oral evidence how to be taken.

XXXI. On the day appointed for the hearing, the evidence of the attending witnesses shall be taken orally in open Court, in the presence and hearing, and under the personal direction and superintendence of the Judge. The evidence of each witness given upon such examination shall be taken down in writing, by or in the presence, and under the superintendence of the Judge, not ordinarily by question and answer, but in the form of a narrative, and when completed shall be read over to the witness, and signed by him in the presence of the Judge and of the parties to the suit or their vakeels, or such of them as may think fit to attend. In case the witness shall refuse to sign the deposition, the Judge shall sign the same, and record the reason, if any, given by the witness for such refusal, together with such remarks thereon as the Judge shall think fit to make. It shall be in the discretion of the Judge to take down, or cause to be taken down, any particular question and answer if there shall appear any special reason for doing so, or any party or his vakeel, shall require it. If any question put to a witness be objected to by either of the parties, or their vakeels, and the Court shall allow the same to be put, the question and answer shall be taken down, and the objection, and the name of the party making it, shall be noticed in taking down the depositions, together with the decision of the Court upon the objection. The Judge shall also record such remarks as he may think material respecting the demeanour of any witness whilst under examination.

Evidence of purdah wom n.

XXXII. In cases where the evidence is needed of females, who, according to the custom of the country, ought not to be compelled to appear as witnesses in a Court of Justice, and in which the Court shall be of opinion that the ends of justice require and justify it, such Court may issue a commission to any Officer of the Court or other person, to be named in such commission, for the examination of such females in the hearing of the parties to the suit or their vakeels, in such manner as the Court may direct, having regard to the custom and usage of the country, and with liberty to the parties or their vakeels, to cross-examine, anything in Section V., Act VII. 1841, to the contrary notwithstanding.

On or before the day fixed for trial the hearing may be postponed Notice thereof to be given to witnesses— in certain cases witnesses actually attending may be examined.

XXXIII. On or before the day appointed for trial, the Court may, for any sufficient reason, such as the unavoidable absence of any material witness, or for other good cause, on the application of either party, postpone the hearing to another day, to be named, on such terms as to the payment to the opposite party of his costs occasioned by the postponement, and otherwise as to the Court shall seem reasonable. In such case notice in writing shall be given to each of the witnesses to attend and give evidence, or to produce a document on the substituted day, instead of the day mentioned in their summonses, if there be time to do so and the judge shall so order. The notice shall be served in the same manner as a summons. The service of such notice shall have the same effect as if the substituted day had been originally named in such summons as the day for the appearance in Court to give evidence or produce a document, and all the provisions in this Act relating to summonses to give evidence or produce documents, shall extend to such notices in the same manner as if such notices had been expressly mentioned in such provisions. If the application be too late to serve such notices, the Court may order that the examination of any witness who may be present, or shall attend in pursuance of a summons shall be proceeded with, and that the further hearing of the case, after the examination of such witness, shall alone be postponed.

Trial how to proceed.

XXXIV. Unless the hearing be postponed in manner aforesaid, it shall commence on the day appointed, or as soon afterwards as the business which may be pending before the Court and may be entitled to priority, will allow, and the recording of evidence on the trial of any suit when begun under the rules above enacted, shall, unless there be good and sufficient reason to the contrary, (which reason shall be recorded) continue on the same day, or on consecutive business days, until the whole of the evidence of the witnesses present shall be heard. The parties or such of them as desire it shall then be heard either by themselves or their pleaders orally on the merits of the case as regards the issues both of fact and law, and after considering the arguments and evidence, the Judge shall record his judgment under Act XII. of 1843.

Court may, after hearing the evidence, of its own accord call for further evidence before hearing the pleaders or recording judgment.

XXXV. If the Court, after the evidence of all the witnesses shall have been heard, and before hearing the pleaders or recording the judgment, shall think it necessary for the ends of justice to inspect any document or to examine any party to the suit, or any other person whose evidence may appear to be material, the Court, of its own accord, may cause such party or person to be summoned to attend as a witness, to give evidence, or to produce such document, if in his possession, on a day to be appointed, and may examine such party or person as a witness in open Court, or in such other manner as the Court may direct, upon any question which the party or witness may be bound to answer and the Court may think necessary, and may also compel the production of any document mentioned in such summons, which any such person may have in his possession or power, and be bound to produce. Any witness so called shall be subject to the cross-examination of either party, or his vakeel. If such person, whether a party or not, shall be a female who, according to the custom of the country, ought not to be compelled to appear as a witness in a Court of Justice, the Court may order such person to be examined in the manner provided by Section XXXII. of this Act, upon such questions as it may direct. The Commissioner or other person authorized to take the examination in such case, may put such further questions as in his judgment may be necessary, or may arise out of the answers to be given to the questions directed by the Court.

Court may require witnesses to remain out of Court.

XXXVI. The Judge may cause public notice to be given in Court, either before or during the examination of any witness, requiring all or any other witnesses, whether parties or not, who have been summoned or inserted in the list of witnesses in the same cause, to leave and to remain out of Court until further order. Any witness in a cause who, without lawful excuse, shall wilfully remain in or come into Court, contrary to such notice, shall be punishable in the same manner as for a contempt of Court in open Court. Whenever such notice shall be given, the consequence of disobedience thereto shall be publicly explained at the time of giving the notice.

Penalty for disobedience.

By what rules a party is to be examined and how punishable for false evidence.

XXXVII. Any party to a suit, appeal, or proceeding who may be examined as a witness therein, shall, except as otherwise provided by this Act, be examined according to the rules for the time being in force as to the examination of witnesses not being parties to the suit, and shall be punishable for any false evidence given by him, in the same manner as if he were not a party.

Interpretation of word "witness" in Act. VII. 1841.

XXXVIII. The words "witness" and "witnesses" in Act VII 1841, shall respectively include any party or parties to a suit, and the said Act shall be read as if the words "or party" "or parties" had been used in such Act, in conjunction with the words "witness" or "witnesses" respectively. Provided that the deposition of a party taken under the provisions of this Section, at the instance of any opposite party, may be read in evidence by, or on behalf of such last-mentioned party, without the proof required by Section V. of the said Act. Provided also that no deposition of any party taken under the provisions of this Section shall be read or used in evidence unless taken and read at the instance of some opposite party, or unless it shall be proved that the deponent is unable, from sickness or infirmity, to attend to be personally examined, or is, without collusion, or any reference to the suit, at so great a distance from the Court, that in the judgment of the Court it would be unreasonable to require his personal attendance in Court for the purpose of giving such evidence, in which last-mentioned case it shall be discretionary with the Court, having regard to the nature of the case and of the evidence given, either to allow or to refuse such deposition to be read.

Proviso.

No appeal from Judge's order as to summons, &c.

XXXIX. No appeal shall lie from any order or decision of a Judge with respect to summoning or examining any party to a suit, or as to allowing a deposition to be read under the Section next preceding Document referred to in pleading to be filed.

XL. If any party to any such suit as aforesaid shall, in any pleading or statement, refer to any document in his possession or power, as a material proof or document in support of his claim or defence, he shall file such document with the pleading or statement, unless the Court shall, for good and sufficient cause, extend the time for filing the same; and any adverse party shall be entitled, by himself or his vakeel, to inspect and take a copy of the document.

Interpretation Clause.

XLI. In the construction of this Act, unless where it is otherwise expressly provided, or there is something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction, or which would render such construction inapplicable to the case, the word "Court" shall mean any Civil Court of the East India Company, and shall include any Judge or other Officer or person mentioned in Section II. of this Act; the word "Judge" shall be understood to mean the chief judicial authority presiding in any such Court, and shall include any Officer or person having, by law, or consent of parties, authority to examine witnesses and to act judicially; the word "suit" shall be deemed to mean and include any suit, appeal or proceeding mentioned in Section II; the word "witness" shall include all persons competent and liable to give evidence, whether parties to any suit or proceeding, or not. Words importing the masculine gender or singular number shall include the feminine gender or plural number, and vice versa.

The Deputy Post Master General regrets to inform the public, that from a communication received from the Post Master of Tezpore it appears, that the Calcutta Mails of the 22nd ultimo, for Tezpore, Assam, Seebsaugor and Debrooghur, and also the Mails for those places sent from Gowhatty and Mungledye on the 31st idem, were totally lost, with the Dak Boat, on the night of the latter date, at "Pobamaree Chapree," a little above Mungledye. The accident is attributable to the falling in of the bank, which fell on the boat, and caused the same to sink immediately.

Rangoon Post Office Notice.

LETTERS and Newspapers, which should be addressed to RANGOON only, are frequently directed by mistake to Pegu or Burmah, and letters, &c. intended for delivery in Pegu, Prome, Bassien and other places in the Provinces, are in like manner erroneously addressed to "Rangoon, Burmah." The Rangoon Post Master begs to notify that, with such vague directions, this Department is left to find 'out to which of the Stations such letters should be forwarded, and from want of information, great disappointment is felt when they are despatched to the wrong Station. To obviate this, it is desirable, that parties posting letters in Calcutta or elsewhere, should be careful to direct them to their respective Stations, and to inform their Agents and Correspondents, when leaving one place for another, of their change of address, to ensure letters being directed to the proper Station. A list of places in the Pegu Provinces or in Burmah, and their distance from Rangoon, is annexed below, viz.:

Donabew	40	miles.
Pegu,	55	„
Sittang,	67	„
Shoaygyeen,	90	„

Letters addressed to public functionaries, whose head-quarters or residence is in Rangoon, should be addressed "Rangoon," instead of Pegu or Burmah; but if intended for delivery at other Stations, should be addressed to those Stations, the word Rangoon to be omitted.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 19, 1854.

Legislative Council.

12th August 1854.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General of India on the 12th of August 1854, and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. XVII. OF 1854.

An Act for the management of the Post Office, for the regulation of the duties of Postage, and for the punishment of offences against the Post Office.

I. Act No. XVII. of 1837, Act No. XX. of 1838, and Act No. XVII. of 1839 are hereby repealed, except so far as they repeal the whole, or any part of any other Act or Regulation, and except as to any act or offence which shall have been done or committed, or to any money which shall have become due, or to any fine or penalty which shall have been incurred, or to any proceedings which shall have been commenced, before this Act shall come into operation.

Repeal of former Acts.

II. Wheresoever, within the territories under the Government of the East India Company, posts or post communications are, or shall be established by the East India Company, the said East India Company shall have the exclusive privilege of conveying by post, from one place to another, all letters other than letters conveyed by Her Majesty's mails, except in the following cases and shall also have the exclusive privilege of performing all the incidental services of receiving, collecting, sending, dispatching, and delivering all letters, except in the following cases, that is to say :

Exclusive privilege of carrying letters vested in the East India Company.

1. Letters sent by a private friend in his way, journey, or travel, so as such letters be delivered by such friend to the person to whom they shall be directed, without hire, reward, or other profit or advantage, for receiving, carrying, or delivering the same.

2. Letters solely concerning the affairs of the sender or receiver thereof, sent by a messenger on purpose.

3. Letters solely concerning goods or other property sent either by sea or land, to be delivered with the goods or property which such letters concern, without hire, reward, or other profit or advantage, for receiving, carrying, or delivering such letters.

But nothing herein contained shall authorize any person to make a collection of such excepted letters for the purpose of sending them in the manner hereby authorized.

III. Wheresoever, within the said territories, posts or post communications are, or shall be established by the East India Company, the following persons are expressly forbidden to collect, carry, or deliver any letter or letters, or to receive any letter for the purpose of carrying or delivering the same, although they shall not receive hire or reward for so doing, that is to say :

Prohibitions.

1. Common carriers of passengers or goods, and their drivers, servants, or agents ; except letters solely concerning goods in their carriages.

2. Owners and Commanders of ships, steamboats, or other vessels passing on any river or canal, or to or from any port in the territories under the Government of the East India Company, and their servants or agents ; except letters solely concerning goods on board.

Penalties for breach of privilege.

IV. Every person who shall convey otherwise than by the post a letter not excepted from the said exclusive privilege shall, for every letter so conveyed, forfeit a sum not exceeding fifty rupees; and every person who shall be in the practice of so conveying letters not so excepted shall, for every week during which the practice shall be continued, forfeit a further sum not exceeding five hundred rupees; and every person who shall perform otherwise than by the post any services incidental to conveying letters from place to place, whether by receiving, taking up, ordering, collecting, carrying, or delivering a letter or letters not excepted from the said exclusive privilege, shall forfeit for every such letter a sum not exceeding fifty rupees; and every person who shall be in the practice of so performing any such incidental services shall, for every week during which the practice shall be continued, forfeit a further sum not exceeding five hundred rupees; and every person who shall send a letter not excepted from the said exclusive privilege otherwise than by the post, or shall either tender or deliver a letter not so excepted in order to be sent otherwise than by the post, shall forfeit for every such letter a sum not exceeding fifty rupees; and every person who shall be in the practice of committing any of the acts last mentioned shall, for every week during which the practice shall be continued, forfeit a further sum not exceeding five hundred rupees; and every person who shall make a collection of excepted letters for the purpose of sending them otherwise than by the post shall forfeit for every such letter a sum not exceeding fifty rupees; and every person who shall be in the practice of making a collection of excepted letters for such purpose shall forfeit, for every week during which the practice shall continue, a further sum not exceeding five hundred rupees. Every person who shall carry, receive, or deliver a letter, or collect letters contrary to the provisions of Section III. of this Act, shall forfeit for every such letter a sum not exceeding fifty rupees; and every person who shall be in the practice of committing any of the acts last mentioned shall, for every week during which the practice shall be continued, forfeit a further sum not exceeding five hundred rupees.

Appointment of Officers.

V. For carrying on the service of the Post Office, it shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council to appoint, or to authorize the local Governments to appoint, such Officer or Officers, with such official styles or designations, and to vest them with, and delegate to them such powers not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, as the said Governor General of India in Council may deem expedient.

Postage rates on letters.

VI. Wheresoever posts or post communications are, or shall be established by the East India Company, postage, if pre-paid by a stamp or stamps, as hereinafter provided, shall be charged by weight on letters transmitted by the letter post by sea or land, or partly by sea and partly by land, according to the following scale:

On every letter not exceeding a quarter of a tolah in weight, six pies.

On every letter exceeding a quarter of a tolah, and not exceeding half a tolah in weight, one anna.

On every letter exceeding half a tolah, but not exceeding one tolah in weight, two annas.

On every letter exceeding one tolah, and not exceeding one tolah and a half in weight, three annas.

On every letter exceeding one tolah and a half, and not exceeding two tolahs in weight, four annas.

And for every tolah in weight above two tolahs, two additional annas; and every fraction of a tolah above two tolahs shall be charged as one additional tolah.

Every packet or other article transmitted by the letter post shall be deemed a letter within the meaning of this Section, unless it be a packet or other article on which a different rate of postage shall be chargeable under this Act.

The rates of postage specified in this and the following Section may be charged on all letters or other articles which shall pass through any Post Office, provided that such postage shall not be charged on letters or other articles received through Her Majesty's Mails, when such letters or articles are delivered at the place of receipt; nor on any letter or article transmitted by Her Majesty's Mails, when posted at the place of dispatch of such Mails; nor on any newspaper received by sea otherwise than through the East India Company's post and delivered at the place of receipt; nor on any newspaper posted for dispatch by sea otherwise than through the East India Company's post, when posted at the place of dispatch.

Postage rates on newspapers, &c.

VII. Wheresoever posts or post communications are, or shall be established by the East India Company, postage on newspapers, pamphlets, and other printed or engraved papers transmitted by the letter post by sea or land, or partly by sea and partly by land, shall be charged by weight according to the following scale:

1. On every imported newspaper, pamphlet, or other printed or engraved paper—

If the same shall not exceed six tolahs in weight, two annas.

If the same shall exceed six, but shall not exceed twelve tolahs in weight, four annas.

If the same shall exceed twelve tolahs in weight, there shall be charged and taken two additional annas for every six tolahs in weight above twelve tolahs; and every fraction of six tolahs above twelve tolahs shall be charged as six additional tolahs.

2. On every newspaper, pamphlet, or other printed or engraved paper not imported—

If the same shall not exceed three and a half tolahs in weight, two annas.

If the same shall exceed three and a half tolahs, and not exceed six tolahs in weight, four annas.

If the same shall exceed six tolahs in weight, there shall be charged and taken two additional annas for every three tolahs in weight above six tolahs; and every fraction of three tolahs above six tolahs in weight shall be charged as three additional tolahs.

An extra or supplement to any newspaper, bearing the same date as the newspaper and transmitted therewith under the same cover, shall be deemed part of the newspaper.

Nothing contained in this Act shall be construed to oblige any person to send any newspaper, pamphlet, or other printed or engraved paper through the Post Office, but it shall be lawful for all persons to send the same in any other manner.

VIII. A newspaper, pamphlet, or other printed or engraved paper shall not be sent by the letter post at the rates prescribed in the preceding Section, unless the following conditions be observed, that is to say :

Newspapers, &c., how to be sent by post.

1. It shall be without a cover, or in a short cover open at both ends.

2. There shall be no word printed on such newspaper, pamphlet, or other printed or engraved paper after its publication, or upon the cover thereof, nor any writing or mark upon it or upon the cover of it, except the name and address of the person to whom it is sent, and the name and address of the sender.

3. There shall be no paper or thing enclosed in or with any such newspaper, pamphlet, or other printed or engraved paper.

IX. Any newspaper, pamphlet, or other printed or engraved paper sent by the letter post, in respect of which the above conditions shall not be observed, shall, together with any thing enclosed in or with the same, be charged with postage at the rate which would be charged on an unstamped letter of equal weight.

When to be charged with letter postage.

X. Proof sheets marked as such may be sent by the letter post at the rates prescribed for newspapers, provided the contents be correctly certified on the cover by the signature in full of the sender, otherwise the same shall be charged with postage at the rate which would be charged on an unstamped letter of equal weight.

Proof sheets

XI. Inland banghy postage shall be charged by weight and distance, on parcels sent by the banghy post, according to the following scale :

Inland banghy postage.

For Distances	Miles.	If not exceeding in weight: 20 Tolahs. Rs. As.	100 Tolahs. Rs. As.	200 Tolahs. Rs. As.	300 Tolahs. Rs. As.	400 Tolahs. Rs. As.	500 Tolahs. Rs. As.	600 Tolahs. Rs. As.
Not exceeding,	100	0 2	0 4	0 6	0 12	1 0	1 4	1 8
Not exceeding,	300	0 6	0 12	1 8	2 4	3 0	3 12	4 8
Not exceeding,	600	0 12	1 8	3 0	4 8	6 0	7 8	9 0
Not exceeding,	900	1 2	2 4	4 8	6 12	9 0	11 4	13 8
Not exceeding,	1200	1 8	3 0	6 0	9 0	12 0	15 0	18 0
Exceeding, ...	1200	1 14	12	7 8	11 4	15 0	18 12	22 8

Provided that several letters shall not be enclosed in a banghy parcel under a penalty not exceeding fifty rupees, and letter postage shall be chargeable on every letter contained therein.

XII. Books, pamphlets, packets of newspapers, and of printed or engraved papers other than newspapers, provided they do not exceed one hundred and twenty tolahs in weight, and be sent without covers or packed in short covers open at both ends, and provided the postage thereon be pre-paid by means of a proper stamp or stamps to be affixed thereon as hereinafter provided, shall, if sent by the banghy post, or by sea as banghy parcels, or partly by the banghy post and partly by sea, be charged with the following rates of postage, without reference to the distance to which they may be carried :

Books, pamphlets, &c.

If not exceeding twenty tolahs in weight, one anna.

If exceeding twenty tolahs, but not exceeding forty tolahs in weight, two annas.

And for every twenty tolahs in weight above forty tolahs, there shall be charged and taken one additional anna; and every fraction of twenty tolahs above forty tolahs shall be charged as twenty additional tolahs.

If any such book, pamphlet, or packet exceed one hundred and twenty tolahs, or if the postage chargeable thereon be not pre-paid as aforesaid, it shall be subject to the rate of postage prescribed for banghy parcels in the preceding Section of this Act.

XIII. Banghy postage, when chargeable by distance under Section XI., shall be calculated and charged according to a Polymetrical Table of distances, showing, as accurately as practicable, the distance by the nearest road between every two Post Office Stations in India, which Table shall be prepared by order of the Governor General of India in Council and corrected from time to time as need be. Each Post Master General shall prepare from the aforesaid Polymetrical Table, in the English and Vernacular languages for the use of every Post Office under his control, a list of all the other Post Offices of India, arranged alphabetically and showing the distance of each of them from the Post Office for the use of which it is made; and such list shall be affixed in some conspicuous place in such Post Office.

Table of distances.

XIV. Where there is a banghy post established on any line of road, no letter or other article exceeding twelve tolahs in weight shall be conveyed by the letter post on that line of road, except in such cases, and under such restrictions as the Governor General of India in Council may direct; and every letter or other article not exceeding twelve tolahs in weight shall be conveyed by the letter post, unless expressly directed to be sent by the banghy post.

Limitation of weight of letters where there is a banghy post.

XV. Where there is no banghy post established on any line of road, letters, parcels, and packets exceeding twelve tolahs, and not exceeding forty tolahs in weight, shall be received and transmitted by the letter post. Letters shall be charged according to the scale in Section VI., and newspapers, pamphlets, and other printed or engraved papers according to the scale in Section VII. of this Act, as the case may be;

Where there is no banghy post.

Letters and other articles exceeding twelve tolahs, but not exceeding forty tolahs.

parcels and packets shall be charged with banghy postage according to the scale in Section XI. or Section XII. of this Act, as the case may be, if it be certified in writing on such parcel or packet, under the full signature and address of the sender, that it does not contain any letter or other written communication, or any newspaper, pamphlet, or other printed or engraved paper. If any such certificate be false, any such thing contained in such certified letter or other article shall be charged with postage according to the rates specified in Section VI. or Section VII. of this Act as if sent separately, and the sender will be subject to the penalty hereinafter provided.

Certificate.

Parcels exceeding forty tolahs.

Parcels exceeding forty tolahs, and not exceeding six hundred tolahs in weight, shall be transmitted along any such line as banghy parcels; but it shall be in the discretion of the Post Master or Deputy Post Master, to whom such parcels are brought for dispatch, to forward them at such times and in such manner as may be convenient.

XVI. Whenever the Post Master General of any Presidency shall have notified in the official Gazette, that the banghy post is conveyed in the same carriage with the letter post along any line of road, it shall not be lawful to send by the banghy post any letter or written communication of less weight than twelve tolahs, or any packet of newspapers; and every person who shall knowingly send by the banghy post, along any such line of road, any such letter, written communication, or newspaper enclosed in in a parcel, shall forfeit for every such offence a sum not exceeding fifty rupees, and postage shall be charged for every such letter, packet, or newspaper, as if sent separately by the letter post.

Where banghy parcels and letter mails are conveyed in the same carriage.

XVII. On all parcels chargeable under Section XI. with banghy postage according to distance when conveyed by land, ship postage shall be charged when they are conveyed by means of the East India Company's post by sea according to the following scale, viz.:

Ship postage on parcels.

On every parcel not exceeding one hundred tolahs in weight, eight annas.

And for every hundred tolahs in weight above one hundred tolahs, eight additional annas; and every fraction of one hundred tolahs above one hundred tolahs shall be charged as one hundred additional tolahs; and if such parcel be conveyed by the East India Company's post, partly by banghy and partly by sea, ship postage shall be charged in addition to inland banghy postage.

XVIII. No parcel exceeding six hundred tolahs in weight, or three feet in length, or one foot in breadth, or one foot in depth, or two thousand five hundred and ninety-two cubic inches in bulk, shall be received at any Post Office for dispatch either by ship or steamboat, or by banghy post, except in such cases and under such restrictions as the Governor General of India in Council shall direct. On parcels exceeding six hundred tolahs in weight, when so forwarded, there shall be charged and taken an additional single rate of banghy postage according to distance for every hundred tolahs above six hundred tolahs; and every fraction of one hundred tolahs above six hundred tolahs shall be charged as one hundred additional tolahs.

Limitation of weight and dimensions of parcels.

XIX. Letters and newspapers posted for dispatch, either by Her Majesty's Mails or otherwise to Ceylon, or to any place to which a post communication shall not have been established by the East India Company, upon which the full amount of postage chargeable under this Act has not been pre-paid by a postage stamp or stamps, shall not be dispatched, but shall be dealt with as unclaimed letters are hereinafter directed to be dealt with. No parcel shall be received for dispatch as above to any such place, unless the full amount of postage chargeable thereon shall be pre-paid in money or by a postage stamp or stamps. Provided that nothing in this Section shall be construed to require the pre-payment of British postage on letters, parcels, or other articles, upon which the pre-payment of such postage has been left optional by Her Majesty's Post Master General.

Ship and inland postage on foreign covers must be pre-paid.

XX. Subject to any alteration which may be made by virtue of the power hereinafter vested in the Governor General of India in Council, letters posted for dispatch, either by sea or land, to any place to which a post communication is, or shall be established by the East India Company, upon which the postage chargeable under Section VI. of this Act has not been pre-paid by a postage stamp or stamps, shall be forwarded to their destination, and upon every such letter double postage shall be charged on delivery. Newspapers, pamphlets, and other printed and engraved papers so posted, not pre-paid by a postage stamp or stamps, shall be forwarded to their destination, and the postage chargeable on them shall be levied on delivery: but no money shall be received at any Post Office in pre-payment of postage on any letter, newspaper, pamphlet, or other printed or engraved paper so posted. On parcels so posted, the postage chargeable according to Section XI. or Section XVII. may be pre-paid in money or by a postage stamp or stamps: when not pre-paid, they shall be forwarded to their destination, and the postage thereon shall be levied on delivery.

Postage on letters, &c., not pre-paid.

XXI. It shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council at any time to direct that all or any letters, packets, parcels, or other articles, shall not be forwarded by post, unless the postage thereof shall be pre-paid by means of a proper stamp or stamps; or that on all or any letters, packets, parcels, or other articles on which the postage shall not be pre-paid by a stamp or stamps, or otherwise, as the said Governor General in Council shall direct, there shall be charged such higher rates of postage as from time to time may be deemed expedient, not exceeding double the rates of postage hereinbefore specified.

Governor General in Council may direct pre-payment of postage in all cases.

XXII. If any letter be posted, having affixed thereto a postage stamp or stamps, the value of which shall be less than the rate of postage to which such letter would be liable if duly and properly stamped when posted, there shall be charged on such letter a postage of double the amount of the difference between the value of the stamp affixed thereto and the postage to which such letter would be liable as aforesaid if duly and properly stamped when posted. If any parcel, newspaper, pamphlet, or other printed or engraved paper shall be so posted, having affixed thereto any such stamp or stamps, the value of which shall be less than the rate of postage to which the same would be otherwise liable under this Act, there shall be charged thereon a postage equal to the amount of the difference between the value of the stamp or stamps affixed thereto, and the postage to which such parcel, newspaper, pamphlet, or other printed or engraved paper shall be otherwise liable, as aforesaid.

Re-directed letters.

XXIII. On every letter or packet, which shall be re-directed and forwarded by the letter post, from any place to which it shall have been conveyed by the letter post, there shall be charged for the postage thereof from the place at which the same shall be re-directed, in addition to all other postage paid or due thereon, the rate of postage to which it would be liable, if posted and pre-paid by stamp at the place where it shall be re-directed.

No dangerous substance to be sent by post.

XXIV. No person shall knowingly post, or send, or tender, or deliver in order to be sent by the post, any letter, parcel, or packet containing any explosive or other dangerous material or substance; and any person contravening this prohibition shall forfeit for every such offence a sum not exceeding two hundred rupees.

Governor General of India in Council may alter the rates of postage.

XXV. It shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council at any time to authorize the levy of postage at rates different from those prescribed in this Act, provided there be no increase made thereby in any particular of the rates so prescribed, except as provided in Section XXI. of this Act.

Letters and packets once put into the Post Office.

XXVI. No person having delivered into any Post Office any letter, parcel, or packet shall be entitled to recall the same; but nothing in this Section shall prevent the re-delivery of any such letter, parcel, or packet to the sender thereof, subject to such rules and regulations, if any, as the Governor General of India in Council may direct; but newspapers, pamphlets, or other printed or engraved papers may be so recalled or restored, provided that the person claiming the same shall satisfy the Officer in charge of the Post Office that he was the sender thereof, and provided the amount of postage which would have been due thereon, if the same had been forwarded, be paid.

Steam postage.

XXVII. The postage charged on letters and packets by Her Majesty's Post Master General, under the name of Steamer or British packet postage, or by any other denomination, shall, after the rates of such postage have been published in the official Gazette of any Presidency, be recovered in the same manner as postage chargeable under this Act.

Postage stamps.

XXVIII. All letters and other articles, having a stamp or stamps affixed thereto, (such stamp or stamps in every case being affixed on the outside and being equal in value to the rate or rates of postage to which such letters or other articles are liable under this Act,) shall, provided the stamp or stamps shall not have been used before, be considered as pre-paid.

How to be provided.

XXIX. The Governor General of India in Council shall cause postage stamps to be provided, denoting such values as the said Governor General of India in Council may direct, and shall give such orders, and make such other regulations relative thereto, as may be deemed expedient.

Postage stamps to be under management of any Officer to be appointed.

XXX. Postage stamps provided as aforesaid shall be under the care and management of such Officer or Officers as the Governor General of India in Council shall direct; and all sums of money realized by the sale of postage stamps shall be carried in the public accounts to the credit of the Post Office.

Vendors of postage stamps to be appointed.

XXXI. The Governor General of India in Council may make rules for the appointment and government of vendors of postage stamps, and thereby direct how and under what terms and conditions postage stamps may be supplied to them for sale; and whether any and what security shall be given by such vendors, and whether any and what remuneration or discount shall be allowed to them, and how and in what manner and at what time or times such vendors shall keep and render their accounts and pay over the proceeds of any sales made by them or re-deliver the stamps entrusted to them.

Vendors to be bound by rules.

XXXII. Government vendors of postage stamps shall be bound by such rules, and in case of any wilful breach thereof, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding two hundred rupees, in addition to any other proceedings to which they may be liable.

Penalty of vendor refusing to supply stamps.

XXXIII. Any Government vendor of postage stamps, who shall be convicted of refusing or unnecessarily delaying, without reasonable excuse, to furnish postage stamps to any person desiring to purchase the same, and tendering in lawful currency the full value thereof, (the stamp vendor having in his possession for sale sufficient stamps of the description and value required,) shall be subject to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees.

Penalty of vendor selling stamps for higher price than the value denoted thereby.

XXXIV. Any Government vendor of postage stamps, convicted of taking from a purchaser a higher price than the value denoted on the stamps sold, shall be deemed guilty of extortion, and shall be punished, on conviction, with imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for any term not exceeding six months, or to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees, and shall also be liable to refund to the purchaser the whole amount proved to have been taken in excess, which amount may be recovered by such purchaser before a Magistrate in the same manner as any penalty under this Act.

Penalties for forging stamps, &c.

XXXV. Clause 1. If any person shall forge or counterfeit, or cause or procure to be forged or counterfeited, any die, plate, or other instrument used for the purpose of making postage stamps; or if any person shall forge or imitate, or cause to be forged or imitated, any postage stamp; or if any person shall knowingly, and without lawful excuse (the proof of which excuse shall lie on the person accused,) have in his possession any false, forged or counterfeited die, plate, or other instrument resembling, or intended to resemble, either wholly or in part, any die, plate, or instrument used for the purpose aforesaid; or if any person shall stamp or mark any paper or other substance with any such false, forged, or counterfeit die, plate, or instrument as aforesaid; or if any person shall knowingly use, utter, sell, or expose for sale, or shall knowingly and without lawful excuse (the proof of which excuse shall lie on the person accused) have in his possession any paper or other substance having thereon the impression of any such false, forged, or counterfeit die, plate, or other instrument as aforesaid; or having thereon any counterfeit stamp resembling, or intended to resemble, or to be mistaken for a postage stamp, such person so offending, and every person knowingly aiding, abetting, or assisting such person in committing any such offence, shall be punished with imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding seven years, and shall also be liable to fine.

Forged stamps may be seized.

Clause 2. Any Officer of Police may seize and transmit to the Magistrate any such forged or counterfeit die, plate, or other instrument, or any such forged or counterfeit postage stamp.

And searched for.

Clause 3. Any Officer of Police having power by law to search for stolen property may, subject to the provisions under which he is empowered to make such search, proceed to search houses or other places in which there may be reasonable cause to suspect that there is any such forged or counterfeit article, and shall seize and transmit to the Magistrate any such counterfeit article that may be found therein.

Penalties for evading postage stamp duties.

XXXVI. If any person shall fraudulently remove any postage stamp from any letter or other thing to which such stamp shall have been affixed; or if any person shall knowingly use any such stamp or stamps so fraudulently removed; or if any person shall fraudulently erase or remove, from any such stamp or stamps, any writing or other matter or thing thereon written or impressed, every person so offending shall forfeit a sum not exceeding two hundred rupees for every such offence.

Postage on unpaid letters, &c., to be paid by the receiver.

XXXVII. The person to whom any letter or other article, the postage of which has not been paid, shall be delivered, shall not be bound to pay the postage if he forthwith return the same unopened, but if he open the same, he shall be bound to pay the postage due thereon. If he forthwith return the same unopened, the sender of the letter or packet shall be bound to pay the postage thereof. If any person shall refuse to pay any postage which he is legally bound to pay for any letter or other article, the same may be recovered for the use of the East India Company by any Post Master General, or by any Officer in charge of a Post Office, by order of a Post Master General, in the same manner as a fine may be recovered under this Act; and it shall be lawful for the Officer in charge of any Post Office to withhold from the person so refusing, until such postage be paid, any other letter or packet addressed to that person, not being superscribed as on the public service. Provided always, that if a letter or other article shall appear to the satisfaction of the Post Master of the Office of delivery to have been maliciously sent for the purpose of annoying the person to whom it is addressed, the Post Master of the delivery Office may remit the postage.

Registered letters.

XXXVIII. Any person posting a letter or other article shall be entitled to require that it shall be registered at the receiving Post Office and that a receipt shall be granted for such registered letter or article, and it shall be lawful for the Governor General in Council to direct, that, in addition to any rates of postage payable under this Act, a fee not exceeding four annas shall be charged on any letter or other article which the sender thereof shall require to be so registered, and such registration fee shall be paid on the letter or other article being delivered at the Post Office.

Expresses.

XXXIX. It shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council to fix and order any rate of postage to be charged for the conveyance of letters or other articles by express, in addition to or instead of any other rates of postage chargeable on such letters and articles under this Act.

Commanders of inward bound vessels carrying mails, how to proceed.

XL. When any vessel arrives by sea at any place within the territories under the Government of the East India Company at which there is a Post Office, the Commander of such vessel shall, as speedily as possible, cause every letter and packet on board of such vessel, which is directed to that place, and not excepted from the exclusive privilege of the Post Office, to be delivered either at the Post Office or to some Officer of the Post Office authorized to receive the same; and if there be on board any letter or packet directed to any other place, and not excepted from the exclusive privilege aforesaid, the said Commander shall, as speedily as possible, report the same to the Post Master of the place at which he has arrived, and shall act according to the directions he may receive from such Post Master, and the receipt of such Post Master shall discharge such Commander from all responsibility in respect of such letter or packet. Every Commander of a vessel who shall wilfully disobey any of the directions contained in this Section, shall be punished with a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees.

Penalty.

Detention of letters on board prohibited.

XLI. Every person, being either the Commander of a vessel inward-bound, or any one on board such vessel, who shall, within the said territories, knowingly have in his possession any letter not excepted from the privilege of the Post Office, after any part of the letters on board the said vessel shall have been sent to the Post Office, shall forfeit for every such letter a sum not exceeding fifty rupees, whether the letter be in the baggage or on the person of the offender or otherwise in his custody; and every such person who shall detain any such letter after demand made for the same by an Officer of the Post Office shall forfeit for every such letter a sum not exceeding one hundred rupees.

Bounty money.

XLII. For every letter delivered by the Commander of any ship in conformity with the directions of Section XL. of this Act, the Officer in charge of the Post Office shall pay to the said Commander the sum of one anna; and the sum of one anna shall be chargeable as postage on such letter in addition to any other postage chargeable thereon under this Act. Provided that no payment shall be made to the Commander of any vessel on account of the delivery of any letter, unless the claim of such Commander shall be preferred before the vessel leaves the place at which the letter was delivered, or before the expiration of two months from the date of the arrival of such vessel. Provided also, that nothing contained in Sections XL., XLI. and XLII. of this Act shall extend to any letter or packet conveyed by Her Majesty's Mails.

Commanders of outward bound vessels to receive mails on board.

XLIII. The Commander of every vessel leaving any place in the said territories by sea shall receive on board of such vessel every letter and packet which he shall be required so to receive by any Officer of the Post Office, and shall give a receipt for such letter or packet; and every Commander of a vessel who shall wilfully disobey any direction contained in this Section shall be punished with a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees.

Unclaimed letters, &c.

XLIV. Clause 1. A list of all letters, packets, and parcels posted and addressed to persons who cannot be found, shall be prepared daily in every Post Office and exposed for not less than two weeks in the most conspicuous part of such Office; and all such letters, packets, and parcels, which shall have remained three weeks unclaimed in any Office, shall, if the sender's name and address are written on the cover, be returned to the Posting Office to be delivered to the sender free of all charge; all letters, packets, and parcels, of which the sender's name and address cannot be ascertained, unless they be opened, shall, after remaining unclaimed for three weeks as above, be forwarded to the Office of the Post Master General of the Presidency.

To be opened, &c.

Clause 2. The Post Master General, or some person duly appointed for the purpose and bound to secrecy, shall immediately open all such letters, packets, or parcels, and if the address of the sender can be discovered, shall enclose them in dead letter covers and return them to the sender. All letters, packets, and parcels, of which neither the person addressed nor the sender can be found, shall, after they have remained unclaimed in the Office of the Post Master General for one year, be destroyed.

Money, &c. found therein.

Clause 3. All money found in any unclaimed letter, packet, or parcel shall be paid into the Public Treasury, and all other valuable property found as above shall be sold by the Post Master General of the Presidency, or by some one duly authorized by him for that purpose, and the proceeds of the sale shall be paid into the Public Treasury for the benefit of any person who may have a right thereto, after deducting all sums due from such person for postage.

Refused letters, &c.

XLV. Letters, parcels, or packets rejected unopened by the person to whom they are addressed shall be forthwith sent to the Office of the Post Master General of the Presidency, who shall open the letter, parcel, or packet, and take measures to recover the postage from the sender, or shall at his discretion destroy the letter, parcel, or packet; and all money, or other valuable property, which such letter, parcel, or packet may contain shall be disposed of in the manner prescribed in the preceding Section, with respect to such money or property contained in unclaimed letters.

Franking abolished.

XLVI. On and after the passing of this Act, the privilege of sending and receiving letters and packets by the post, free of postage, whether official or otherwise, shall wholly cease; and all letters and packets, to which any such privilege now extends, shall henceforth be charged with the same rates of postage as any other letters sent by the post. Provided that letters and packets on the public service, certified to be such by the signature of any public officer, authorized in that behalf by the Governor General of India in Council, shall be forwarded by the post as if they were duly stamped, and the postage due thereon shall be charged to the several public departments, from which such letters or packets are sent, in such manner as the said Governor General of India in Council shall direct.

Letters on the public service only certified as such, how to be charged.

Penalty for false certificate.

XLVII. Every person who shall, for the purpose of defrauding the Post Office Revenue, wilfully certify, by writing, on any official or other letter or packet delivered at any Post Office for conveyance by post, that which is not true in respect of such letter or packet, or in respect of the whole of its contents, or shall knowingly send or deliver, or attempt to send or deliver for conveyance by post, any letter or packet with any such false certificate thereon; and every person who shall knowingly send, or permit to be sent by post, under color or pretence of an official communication, any letter, paper, writing, or other enclosure of a private nature; and every person who shall aid, abet, or conceal any of the offences in this Section above-mentioned, shall, for every such offence, forfeit a sum not exceeding five hundred rupees.

Letters, &c., suspected to contain contraband articles, or writing in contravention of this Act, how to be dealt with.

XLVIII. If any Officer in charge of a Post Office shall suspect that any letter, parcel, or packet, lying for delivery at his Office, contains any contraband article, or any article on which duty is owing to Government, or that any letter, parcel, or packet lying for delivery at the Post Office, contains any writing or enclosure in contravention of the provisions of Sections VIII., XV., XVI., or XLVII. of this Act, it shall be lawful for such Officer to summon the person to whom the letter, parcel, or packet is directed to attend at the Post Office by himself or agent within forty-eight hours after the arrival thereof at that Post Office, and to open the same in the presence of the person to whom it is directed, or of that person's agent, and if that person shall not so attend by himself or agent, then to open it in the absence of that person. Provided that if the Officer in charge be under the rank of a Post Master, he shall call in two respectable persons as witnesses before he shall open a letter, parcel, or packet in the absence of the person to whom it is addressed. Provided also, that in all cases the opened letter, parcel, or packet shall be subsequently delivered to the person to whom it is addressed, unless it be required for ulterior proceedings, and that the opening of the same, and the circumstances connected therewith, shall be immediately reported to the Post Master General. It shall also be lawful for any Officer in charge of a Post Office to refuse to forward any parcel or packet through the Post Office by sea to any foreign port or to any place not on the continent of India, unless such parcel be accompanied by a Custom House Pass.

Government not responsible for loss.

XLIX. The Government shall not be responsible for any loss or damage which may occur in respect of anything entrusted to the Post Office for conveyance, and no person employed by the Government in the Post Office Department shall be responsible for any such loss or damage, unless that person shall cause such loss or damage negligently, maliciously, or fraudulently.

Penalty for secreting, opening, or making away with letters, &c., by persons employed in the Post Office.

L. Whoever being in the employ of the Government in the Post Office Department shall fraudulently secrete, make away with, or appropriate any letter, parcel, or packet which may have been entrusted to him, or anything contained in any such letter, parcel, or packet, or shall mutilate or break open any such letter, parcel, or packet, or any banghy parcel or box, with the intention of fraudulently appropriating anything therein contained, shall be punished with imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding seven years, and shall also be liable to fine.

Penalty for detaining mails.

LI. It shall not be lawful for any person, unless acting by express order of the Government, to detain, except for a criminal offence, a Post Office messenger, whilst carrying the mails, or to detain any carriage or horse upon which the mails are being carried, or on any pretence to open a packet in transit from one Post Office to another; and every person who shall be guilty of any of the above-meutioned offences shall be punished with a fine not exceeding five hundred rupees.

Penalty for retaining letters, &c., delivered by mistake.

LII. Every person who shall fraudulently retain, or wilfully secrete, or make away with, or keep or detain, or, being required to deliver up by an Officer of the Post Office, shall neglect or refuse to deliver up a post letter or other article which ought to have been delivered to any other person, or a post letter bag containing a letter or other article or packet which shall have been sent by the post, shall be punished, on conviction before a Magistrate, with imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding two years, and shall also be liable to fine.

Penalty for neglect on the part of persons employed to carry mails.

LIII. Every person employed to convey or deliver any post-bag, or any letter, parcel, or packet sent by post, who shall be guilty while so employed of any act of drunkenness, carelessness, or other misconduct, whereby the safety of any such bag or letter, parcel or packet shall be endangered; or who shall loiter or make delay in the conveyance or delivery of any such bag, letter, parcel, or packet; or who shall not use proper care and diligence safely to convey or deliver any such bag, letter, parcel, or packet, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees; and any person employed to deliver a letter, parcel, or packet sent by the post, who shall not duly deliver the same, shall, within a reasonable time, not exceeding twenty-four hours, report the fact at the Post Office where he received such letter, parcel, or packet, and return the same; and if any such person shall wilfully make a false report, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees.

Penalty for embezzlement by persons employed in the Post Office.

LIV. Whoever being in the employ of the Government in the Post Office Department, and being entrusted to receive money for postage duty or any other public purpose, shall fraudulently appropriate the same, shall be punished, on conviction before a Magistrate, with imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding two years, and shall also be liable to fine.

Penalty for fraudulently altering marks on letters, &c., by persons employed in the Post Office.

LV. Whoever being in such employ as is described in Section LIV. shall fraudulently put any wrong mark on any letter, parcel, or packet, or shall fraudulently alter, remove, or cause to disappear, any mark or stamp which is on any letter or packet, or shall fraudulently use or place with or upon any letter or packet any stamp which shall have been removed from any other letter or cover, or shall aid, abet, or conceal any of the above-named acts, shall be punished, on conviction before a Magistrate, with imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding two years, and shall also be liable to fine.

Penalty for incorrectly preparing documents, or secreting documents by persons employed in the Post Office.

LVI. Whoever being in such employ as is described in Section LIV., and being entrusted with the preparing or keeping of any document, shall, with a fraudulent intention, prepare that document incorrectly, or alter that document, or shall aid, abet, or conceal any of the above-named acts, or secrete or destroy that document, shall be punished, on conviction before a Magistrate, with imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding two years, and shall also be liable to fine.

Penalty for sending letters without charging postage, by persons employed as above.

LVII. Whoever being in such employ as is described in Section LIV., shall send by the post, or put into any post bag, any unstamped letter, parcel, or packet, upon which postage has not been paid or charged in the manner prescribed in this Act, intending thereby to defraud the Government of the postage on such letter, parcel, or packet, or shall aid, abet, or conceal any such acts, shall be punished, on conviction before a Magistrate, with imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding two years, and shall also be liable to fine.

Fines how to be recovered.

LVIII. Any person, whether a European British subject or not, who shall be guilty of any offence for which, according to the provisions of this Act, he shall be liable to a fine only, shall be punishable, for such offence, by any Justice of the Peace for any of the Presidency Towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, Magistrate, Joint Magistrate, or person lawfully exercising the powers of Magistrate; and any person hereby made punishable by a Justice of the Peace shall be punishable upon summary conviction.

Conviction to be quashed on merits only. Form of conviction, &c.

LIX. No conviction, order, or judgment of any Justice of the Peace shall be quashed for error of form or procedure, but only on the merits, and it shall not be necessary to state on the face of the conviction, order, or judgment, the evidence on which it proceeds, but the depositions taken, or a copy of them, shall be returned with the conviction, order, or judgment, in obedience to any writ of certiorari, and if no jurisdiction appears on the face of the conviction, order, or judgment, but the depositions taken supply that defect, the conviction, order, or judgment shall be aided by what so appears in such depositions.

Magistrate may refer charge to his Assistant.

LX. A Magistrate may refer for trial and decision any charge of an offence hereby made punishable by fine only to any of his Assistants, or to any Deputy Magistrate lawfully appointed to exercise the powers of a Covenanted Assistant, and in such case every such Assistant or Deputy Magistrate may exercise all the powers vested in a Magistrate, subject to all the rules applicable to criminal cases deputed to such Assistants or Magistrates acting judicially.

Government may authorize Assistants and Deputy Magistrates to exercise certain powers.

LXI. The local Government may give general authority to any such Assistant or Deputy Magistrate to exercise, without reference by a Magistrate, any of the powers which they are hereby rendered competent to exercise upon reference by a Magistrate, subject to appeal to the Magistrate from any conviction by such Assistant or Deputy Magistrate, within one month from the date of the conviction. Provided that a Magistrate may at any time call from any of his Assistants, or from any Deputy Magistrate subordinate to him, any case pending before such Assistant or Deputy Magistrate.

Fines how levied.

LXII. All fines imposed under the authority of this Act, for offences punishable by fine only, by any Justice of the Peace, Magistrate, Joint Magistrate, or person lawfully exercising the powers of a Magistrate, or by any Assistant to a Magistrate or Deputy Magistrate, may, in case of non-payment thereof, be levied by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the offender, by warrant under the hand of any of the above-named Officers, and in case any such fine shall not be forthwith paid, any such Officer may order the offender to be apprehended and detained in safe custody until the return can be conveniently made to such warrant of distress, unless such party shall give security to the satisfaction of such Officer for his appearance at such place and time as shall be appointed for the return of the warrant of distress, and such Officer may take such security by way of recognizance or otherwise; and if upon the return of such warrant, it shall appear that no sufficient distress can be had whereon to levy such fine, and the same shall not be forthwith paid, or in case it shall appear to the satisfaction of such Officer by the confession of the party or otherwise, that he has not sufficient goods and chattels whereupon such fine or sum of money could be levied if a warrant of distress were issued, any such Officer, by warrant under his hand, may commit the offender to prison, there to be imprisoned only, or to be imprisoned and kept to hard labor, according to the discretion of such Officer, for any term not exceeding two calendar months, where the amount of the fine shall not exceed fifty rupees, and for any term not exceeding four calendar months where the amount shall not exceed one hundred rupees, and for any term not exceeding six calendar months in any other case: the commitment to be determinable in each of the cases aforesaid on payment of the amount.

Imprisonment if no sufficient distress, &c.

Moiety of fines to Informer.

LXIII. A share not exceeding one moiety of every fine imposed and recovered under this Act may be awarded to the informer.

No proceedings to be taken without an order.

LXIV. No proceedings shall be taken for the recovery of any such fine without an order of Government, or an order in writing of the Director General of the Post Office, or of a Post Master General.

Servants of East India Company committing offences in Foreign States in alliance.

LXV. If any servant of the East India Company, who shall be employed by the said Company in the Post Office Department, or shall be appointed a vendor of postage stamps, or entrusted by the said Company or any of the said local Governments with the sale of postage stamps within the dominions of any Foreign Prince or State in alliance with the said Company, in which a post shall be established by the said Company, shall, within the dominions of such Prince or State, commit any act hereby prohibited, or omit to do any act hereby required to be done, by any person similarly employed, appointed, or entrusted as aforesaid within the territories under the Government of the said Company, such servant of the said Company shall be guilty of an offence, and, on conviction thereof, shall be punished in the same manner as if such act had been done or omitted within the said last-mentioned territories, and every such person may be tried, convicted, and punished, either by fine or otherwise, according to the nature of the offence, by any Court or Officer duly empowered by the Governor General of India in Council to take cognizance of offences committed in such dominions by servants of the East India Company, or by any Court or Magistrate, or other competent Officer, in any part of the territories within the Government of the East India Company, in the same manner as if the offence had been committed in such part of the said territories.

Interpretation.

LXVI. The word "Magistrate" in this Act shall include Joint Magistrates and persons lawfully exercising the powers of Magistrates, and the word "fine" shall include a penalty or forfeiture, or a sum of money due upon a forfeited recognizance.

Governor General in Council may frame rules.

LXVII. It shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council to frame rules for the conduct of the Post Office not inconsistent with this Act, and therein to prescribe the regulations, conditions, and restrictions according to which all letters and other articles shall be posted, forwarded, conveyed, and delivered.

Books, &c., sent by post to or from the United Kingdom.

LXVIII. Unless the Governor General of India in Council shall otherwise order, nothing in this Act shall authorize the charge of postage upon printed books, magazines, reviews, or pamphlets (whether British, Colonial, or Foreign) sent through the post from the United Kingdom to any place to which there shall be a post established by the East India Company, or from such place to the United Kingdon, provided the British postage chargeable thereon be pre-paid.

LXIX. It shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council, by an order in Council, to direct that postage shall not be chargeable under this Act on any letters or other articles to be specified in such order sent through the post from any part of the British Dominions to any place to which there shall be a post established by the East India Company, or from such place to any part of the British Dominions, subject to such conditions, as to the pre-payment of British postage or otherwise, as the Governor General of India in Council may think fit.

Governor General in Council may exempt from postage letters sent to or from the United Kingdom.

LXX. It shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council to frame Rules for the management of all or any Zemindaree, Thannah, or other District dawks, and to declare, from time to time, what portions of this Act shall be applicable to such dawks and to persons employed in connexion therewith.

District dawks.

LXXI. This Act shall commence and take effect from and after the first day of October, 1854.

Commencement of Act.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

12th August, 1854.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General of India, on the 12th of August 1854, and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT NO. XVIII. OF 1854.

An Act relating to Railways in India.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient, that all Railways, which have been, or shall be opened by any Railway Company, under the superintendence and control of the East India Company, for the public conveyance of passengers or goods in any part of the territories in the possession and under the Government of the said Company, should be subject to the same regulations; It is enacted as follows :—

Fares to be pre-paid.

I. No person shall enter any carriage used on any such Railway, for the purpose of travelling therein, without having first paid his fare, and obtained a ticket. Every person desirous of travelling on such Railway shall, upon payment of his fare, be furnished with a ticket, specifying the class of carriage and the distance for which the fare has been paid, and shall, when required, show his ticket to any servant of the said Company, duly authorized to examine the same, and shall deliver up such ticket upon demand, to any of the Company's servants duly authorized to collect tickets. Any person, not producing or delivering up his ticket, as aforesaid, shall be liable to pay the fare from the place whence the train originally started, unless he can prove, that he has travelled a less distance only, in which case he shall be liable to pay the fare only from the place whence he has travelled.

Passenger tickets to be given up on demand.

Penalty.

II. At the intermediate Stations, the fares shall be deemed to be accepted, and the tickets furnished only upon condition that there be room in the train for which the tickets shall be furnished. In case there shall not be room for all the passengers to whom tickets shall have been furnished, those who shall have obtained tickets for the longest distance shall have the preference; and those who shall have obtained tickets for the same distance shall have the preference, according to the order in which they shall have received their tickets. Provided, that all Officers and troops of Her Majesty, or of the East India Company, on duty, and all other persons on the business of the East India Company, who, by virtue of any contract with the East India Company, shall be entitled to be conveyed on such Railway in preference to, or in priority over the public, shall be entitled to such preference and priority without reference to the distance for which, or the order in which they shall have received their tickets.

At intermediate Stations, fares and tickets to be conditional.

Proviso.

III. Any person who shall defraud or attempt to defraud any such Railway Company, by travelling, or attempting to travel upon such Railway, without having previously paid his fare; or by riding in or upon a carriage of a higher class than that for which he shall have paid his fare; or by continuing his journey in or upon any of the carriages of the Company beyond the place for which he shall have paid his fare, without previously paying the fare for the additional distance, and with intent to avoid payment thereof; or who shall knowingly and wifully refuse or neglect, on arriving at the point to which he shall have paid his fare, to quit such carriage; or who shall, in any other manner whatever, attempt to evade the payment of his fare, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees for each offence.

Penalty for fraud.

IV. Any passenger, who shall get into or upon, or attempt to get into or upon, or shall quit or attempt to quit any carriage upon any such Railway, while such carriage is in motion; or who shall ride or attempt to ride upon any such Railway, on the steps, or any other part of a carriage, except on those parts which are intended for the accommodation of passengers; shall be liable to a fine, not exceeding twenty rupees for each offence.

Fine for entering carriage in motion.

Or riding on the steps.

V. Any person other than the engine-man and fire-man, and assistant fire-man, if any, who, without the special licence of the Superintendent of locomotives, shall ride or attempt to ride upon any locomotive engine or tender upon any such Railway; and any person other than the guard or breaksmen, who, without such licence as aforesaid, shall ride, or attempt to ride upon such Railway, in or upon any luggage-van or goods-waggon, or other vehicle not appropriated to the carriage of passengers, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty rupees for each offence.

Fine for riding on engine, tender or luggage-van.

VI. If any person shall smoke, either on the premises, or in or upon any of the carriages belonging to any such Railway Company, except in places or carriages which may be specially provided for the purpose, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty rupees for each offence; and if any person persist in infringing this regulation after being warned to desist by any of the servants of the Company, such person, in addition to incurring the liability above-mentioned, may be removed by any of the servants of the Company from any such carriage, and from the premises of the Company, and shall forfeit his fare.

Smoking prohibited.

Penalty for intoxication or nuisance.

VII. Any person who shall be in a state of intoxication, or shall commit any nuisance or act of indecency in any Railway carriage, or upon any part of the premises of any such Railway Company; or who shall wilfully and without lawful excuse interfere with the comfort of any passenger on such Railway, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty rupees; and in addition to such liability the offender may be removed by any of the servants of the Company from any such carriage, and also from the premises of the Company, and shall forfeit his fare.

Penalty for entering private room or carriage.

VIII. If any special carriage, or portion of a carriage, or any private room or apartment, shall be provided by any such Railway Company for the exclusive use of females, any male person who without lawful excuse shall enter such carriage, or portion of a carriage, or any such room or apartment, knowing the same to be exclusively appropriated as aforesaid, or shall remain therein after having been informed of its exclusive appropriation, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees, and may be removed therefrom, and also from the premises of the Company by any of the servants of the Company, and shall forfeit his fare.

No liability for Passengers' luggage.

IX. No such Railway Company shall in any case be answerable for loss or injury to any passengers' luggage, unless it shall have been booked and separately paid for.

No liability for loss of gold, silver, &c., unless in case of special engagement.

X. No such Railway Company shall in any case be answerable for loss of, or injury to any gold or silver, coined or uncoined, manufactured or unmanufactured, or any precious stones, jewellery, watches, clocks or time-pieces of any description, trinkets, Government securities, bills of exchange, promissory notes, Bank-notes, orders or other securities for payment of money, Government stamped paper, postage stamps, maps, writings, title-deeds, paintings, engravings, pictures, plated articles, glass, china, silks in a manufactured or unmanufactured state, and whether wrought up or not wrought up with other materials, shawls, lace, or any of them contained in any parcel or package which shall have been delivered to such Railway Company, either to be carried for hire or to accompany the person of any passenger, unless the value and nature of such articles shall have been declared by the person or persons sending or delivering the same and an increased charge for the safe conveyance of the same shall have been accepted by some person specially authorized to enter into such engagements on behalf of the said Railway Company.

Public notice or private Contract not to limit liability.

XI. The liability of such Railway Company for loss or injury to any articles or goods to be carried by them other than those specially provided for by this Act, shall not be deemed or construed to be limited or in any wise affected by any public notice given, or any private contract made by them; but such Railway Company shall be answerable for such loss or injury when it shall have been caused by gross negligence or misconduct on the part of their agents or servants.

Remedy for non-payment of the carriage of goods.

XII. If any person sall fail to pay on demand any sum due to any such Railway Company for the conveyance of any goods, it shall be lawful for the Company to detain all or any part of such goods, or, if the same shall have been removed from the premises of the Company, any other goods of such person which shall then be on their premises, or shall thereafter come into their possession; and also to sell by public auction sufficient of such goods, to realize the sum payable as aforesaid and all charges and expenses of such detention and sale, and out of the proceeds of the sale to retain the sum so payable together with the charges and expenses aforesaid, rendering the overplus, if any, of the money arising by such sale, and such of the goods as shall remain unsold, to the person entitled thereto; or the Company may recover any such sum by action at law.

Written account of goods to be given on demand.

XIII. The owner or person having the care of any goods which shall have been carried upon any such Railway, or shall be brought on to the premises of any such Railway Company for the purpose of being carried on their Railway, shall, on demand by any servant of the Company appointed to receive goods to be carried on that part of the Railway on which such goods shall have been carried, or shall be about to be carried, deliver to such servant an exact account in writing signed by him of the number or quantity and description of such goods.

Penalty for false account.

XIV. If any such owner or person as aforesaid, shall wilfully fail to give such account to such servant of the Company; or if he shall wilfully give a false account thereof, he shall, for every such offence, be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees for every ton of goods, or for any parcel exceeding one hundred weight; and to a fine not exceeding twenty rupees for any quantity of goods less than a ton or for any parcel less than one hundred weight.

Carriage of goods of a dangerous nature.

XV. No person shall carry upon any such Railway any dangerous goods; or be entitled to require any such Railway Company to carry upon such Railway, any luggage or goods which, in the judgment of the Company or any of their servants, shall be of a dangerous nature; and if any person shall carry upon such Railway any dangerous goods, or shall deliver to such Railway Company any such goods for the purpose of being carried upon such Railway, without distinctly marking their nature on the outside of the package containing the same, or otherwise giving notice in writing of the nature thereof to the book-keeper or other servant of the Company to whom the same shall be delivered for the purpose of being so carried, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred rupees for every such offence; and it shall be lawful for any such Company or any of their servants to refuse to carry any luggage or parcel that they may suspect to contain goods of a dangerous nature, and to require the same to be opened to ascertain the fact previously to carrying the same; and in case any such luggage or parcel shall be received by the Company for the purpose of being carried on the Railway, it shall be lawful for the Company or any of their servants to stop the transit thereof, until they shall be satisfied as to the nature of the contents of the baggage or parcel.

Penalty for obstructing servant in his duty.

XVI. Any person who shall wilfully obstruct or impede any officer or servant of the Company in the discharge of his duty on such Railway, or any of the works, stations or premises connected therewith, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees.

Penalty for trespass.

XVII. Any person who shall trespass upon any such Railway, or upon any of the lands, stations, or other premises belonging to the Company, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty rupees; and if any such person shall refuse to leave such Railway or premises on being requested to do so by any officer or servant of the Company, or by any other person on behalf of the Company, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees, and may be immediately removed from such Railway or premises by such officer, servant, or other person as aforesaid.

Penalty for driving an animal upon or across Railway.

XVIII. Any person who shall wilfully ride, lead, or drive upon or across any such Railway, any animal, except in directly crossing the said Railway at any road or place appointed for that purpose, at a time at which he shall be lawfully authorized so to do, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees for each offence.

Precaution if Railway crosses road.

XIX. If the Railway cross any public carriage road on a level, the Railway Company shall erect, and at all times maintain good and efficient gates, either across the Railway, or across the road on each side of the Railway where the same shall communicate with the road, and shall employ proper persons to open and shut such gates; if such gates be across the road they shall be kept constantly closed, except during the time when horses, cattle, carts, or carriages, passing along the same, shall have to cross the Railway, and the gates shall be of such dimensions and so constructed as when closed to fence in the Railway, and prevent cattle or horses passing along the road from entering upon the Railway. If the gates be across the Railway, they shall be kept closed except when engines or carriages passing along the Railway shall have occasion to cross the road, and shall be of such dimensions and so constructed as when open to fence in the Railway, and prevent cattle, carriages, or passengers from entering upon the Railway:

Proviso.

provided that it shall be lawful for the local Government in any case to order that the gates shall be across the road or across the Railway as the Government may think fit, and in such case the gates shall be erected, maintained, and closed accordingly.

Penalty.

If any Railway Company shall wilfully fail to comply with the provision of this Section they shall forfeit a sum not exceeding two hundred rupees for each offence, and any Magistrate or Justice of the Peace may, in case any such gates be not erected or maintained, order the Company to erect and maintain the same within a time to be specified in the order, and in case of wilful failure on the part of the Railway Company to comply with such order, they shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred rupees for every day that they shall wilfully fail so to do.

Railway to be fenced. Penalty for not fencing.

XX. Every such Railway Company shall be bound to erect and maintain good and sufficient fences on each side of their Railway; or, failing therein, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees for every offence; and it shall be lawful for a Magistrate or Justice of the Peace to order the Company to erect or repair any such fence within a time to be specified in the order, and upon failure of the Company to comply with such order they shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees for every day that they fail so to do.

Liability of owner of animal trespassing.

XXI. The owner of any animal which shall trespass or stray upon any such Railway, or upon any lands belonging to such Railway Company, except for want of the erection or maintenance of any fence or gate which the Company is bound to erect and maintain, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten rupees for each animal; and it shall be lawful for the Company, or any of their servants, to take or drive every animal which shall be found so trespassing to the nearest Police Station, there to be detained until the highest amount of fine incurred by such trespass and the expense of feeding and keeping the animal be paid, or until a Magistrate shall otherwise order. A Magistrate may, upon proof of the trespass, cause such animal to be sold by public auction, and the proceeds of the sale, after deducting therefrom such fine or such a sum, not exceeding ten rupees for each animal, as the Magistrate shall award to be paid in lieu of the fine to which the owner is hereby made liable, and such further sum as the Magistrate shall order to be paid for the expenses of detaining, feeding, and selling such animal, shall be returned to the owner of the animal on demand.

Penalty for injury to carriage, &c.

XXII. Any person who shall unlawfully and wilfully remove or deface the number plates, or remove or extinguish any lamp on any carriage belonging to any such Railway Company; or shall wilfully or negligently damage or injure any carriage, engine, waggon, truck, warehouse, building, machine, fence, or any other matter or thing belonging to such Railway Company, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees.

Penalty for opening or not properly shutting gates.

XXIII. If any person for whose use or accommodation any gate shall have been set up by any such Railway Company on either side of such Railway, or any other person, shall open such gate; or pass, or attempt to pass, or drive, or attempt to drive any carriage, cattle, or other animal or thing across the said Railway at a time when any engine or train approaching along the same shall be in sight; or shall at any time omit to shut and fasten such gate, as soon as he and any carriage, cattle, or other animal or thing under his charge, shall have passed through the same, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees.

Offender may be apprehended.

XXIV. If any person shall commit any offence hereby made punishable by fine, and the name and address of such person shall be unknown, or there be reason to believe that the offender will abscond, any officer or servant of the Company, or any police officer, or other person whom such officer or servant may call to his aid, may, without any warrant or written authority, lawfully apprehend and detain such offender until he can be taken before a Magistrate or other officer having jurisdiction over the offence, or shall give sufficient security for his appearance before such Magistrate or other officer, or shall be otherwise discharged by due course of law.

Penalty for wilful act or omission endangering a passenger.

XXV. Whoever shall wilfully do any act, or shall wilfully omit to do what he is legally bound to do, intending by such act or omission to cause, or knowing that he is thereby likely to cause the safety of any person travelling or being upon any such Railway to be endangered, shall be liable to be transported beyond sea for the term of his life, or to be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding seven years.

Penalty for wilful act or omission in a Railway officer.

XXVI. If any officer or servant of such Railway Company shall wilfully do any act which he is legally prohibited from doing; or shall wilfully or negligently omit to do what he is legally bound to do, and if, in consequence of such act or omission, the safety of any person travelling or being upon such Railway shall be endangered, such officer or servant shall be liable to be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding three years, or to fine, or to both.

Penalty for drunkenness or breach of duty by Railway officer.

XXVII. Any officer or servant of such Railway Company who shall be in a state of intoxication, whilst actually employed upon the Railway, or any of the works connected therewith, in the discharge of any duty, and any officer or servant of such Company who negligently shall omit to perform his duty, or shall perform the same in an improper manner, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees; and if the duty in any of the cases in this Section above-mentioned be such, that the omission or negligent performance thereof would be likely to endanger the safety of any person travelling or being upon such Railway, such officer or servant shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, be liable to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding one year, or to fine, or to both

Penalty for an act not wilful.

XXVIII. If any person shall rashly or negligently and without lawful excuse do any act which shall be likely to endanger the safety of any person travelling or being upon such Railway, he shall, upon conviction before a Magistrate, be liable to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding one year, or to fine, or to both.

Rule of Construction of this Act.

XXIX. In the construction of this Act, every officer and servant of such Railway Company, shall be deemed to be legally bound to do every thing necessary for, or conducive to the safety of the public which he shall be required to do by any Regulation which shall be made by the Company, and allowed by the Governor General of India in Council, and of which Regulation such officer or servant shall have notice; and every such officer and servant shall be deemed to be legally prohibited from doing every act which shall be likely to cause danger, and which by any such Regulation he shall be prohibited from doing; and every person employed by or on behalf of such Railway Company to do any act upon the Railway, shall be deemed to be a servant of the Company.

Jurisdiction of Magistrate, &c., to fine.

XXX. Any person, whether a European British subject or not, who shall be guilty of any offence, for which, according to the provisions of this Act, he shall be liable to a fine only, shall be punishable for such offence by any Justice of the Peace for any of the Presidency Towns of Calcutta Madras and Bombay, Magistrate, Joint Magistrate, or person lawfully exercising the powers of a Magistrate, whether the offence shall have been committed within the local limits of the jurisdiction of such officer or not, and any person hereby made punishable by a Justice of the Peace, shall be punishable upon summary conviction.

Conviction to be quashed on merits only—form of conviction, &c.

XXXI. No conviction, order, or judgment of any Justice of the Peace, shall be quashed for error of form or procedure, but only on the merits; and it shall not be necessary to state on the face of the conviction, order, or judgment, the evidence on which it proceeds; but the depositions taken, or a copy of them, shall be returned with the conviction, order, or judgment, in obedience to any writ of certiorari, and if no jurisdiction appears on the face of the conviction, order, or judgment, but the depositions taken supply that defect, the conviction, order, or judgment shall be aided by what so appears in such depositions.

Magistrate may refer case to his Assistant or Deputy.

XXXII. A Magistrate may refer for trial and decision any charge of an offence hereby made punishable by fine only to any of his Assistants, or to any Deputy Magistrate lawfully appointed to exercise the powers of a covenanted assistant, and in such case every such Assistant or Deputy Magistrate may exercise all the powers vested in a Magistrate, subject to all the rules applicable to criminal cases deputed to such Assistants or Deputy Magistrate, acting judicially.

Local Government may authorize Assistant, &c.

XXXIII. The local Government may give general authority to any such Assistant or Deputy Magistrate to exercise, without reference by a Magistrate, any of the powers which they are hereby rendered competent to exercise upon reference by a Magistrate, subject to appeal to the Magistrate from any conviction by such Assistant or Deputy Magistrate, within one month from the date of conviction. Provided that a Magistrate may at any time call from any of his Assistants. or from any Deputy Magistrate subordinate to him, any case pending before such assistant or Deputy Magistrate.

Proviso.

Fines how to be recovered.

XXXIV. All fines imposed under the authority of this Act for offences punishable by fine only by any Justice of the Peace, Magistrate, Joint Magistrate, or person lawfully exercising the powers of a Magistrate, or by any Assistant to a Magistrate, or Deputy Magistrate, may, in case of non-payment thereof, be levied by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the offender, by warrant under the hand of any of the above-named officers; and in case any such fine shall not be forthwith paid, any such officer may order the offender to be apprehended and detained in safe custody until the return can be conveniently made to such warrant of distress, unless the offender shall give security to the satisfaction of such officer for his appearance at such place and time as shall be appointed for the return of the warrant of distress, and such officer may take such security by way of recognizance or otherwise; and if upon the return of such warrant it shall appear that no sufficient distress can be had whereon to levy such fine, and the same shall not be forthwith paid, or in case it shall appear to the satisfaction of such officer, by the confession of the offender or otherwise, that he has not sufficient goods and chattels whereupon such fine or sum of money could be levied if a warrant of distress were issued, any such officer may, by warrant under his hand, commit the offender to prison, there to be imprisoned only, or to be imprisoned and kept to hard labor, according to the discretion of such officer, for any term not exceeding two calendar months when the amount of the fine shall not exceed fifty rupees, and for any term not exceeding four calendar months when the amount shall not exceed one hundred rupees, and for any term not exceeding six calendar months in any other case, the commitment to be determinable in each of the cases aforesaid on payment of the amount.

Jurisdiction in Madras and Bombay Presidencies.

XXXV. The heads of district police and ameens of police in the Presidency of Madras, and district or joint police officers in the Presidency of Bombay, may punish, to the extent of the powers conferred upon them respectively in petty offences, any offence hereby made punishable by fine not exceeding twenty rupees.

Enforcing payment of fare by passenger not producing ticket.

XXXVI. Payment of any fare to which any passenger not producing or delivering up his ticket shall be liable under Section I. of this Act, may be enforced in the same manner as any fine imposed by this Act.

Apprehension of offenders.

XXXVII. Every person who shall be guilty of any offence mentioned in Sections XXV., XXVI, XXVII. and XXVIII., of this Act, may be lawfully apprehended without any warrant or written authority, by any servant or officer of the Company, or by any other person whom such officer or servant shall call to his aid, or by any police officer of such grade, as shall, by any law in force for the time being, be entrusted in any case with the power of arrest without a warrant; and every person so apprehended shall, with all convenient despatch, be carried and conveyed before a Magistrate or Justice of the Peace, or other officer lawfully authorized to punish the offender or to commit him for trial.

Construction.

XXXVIII. In the construction of this Act, unless where a contrary intention appears from the context, the word "Magistrate" shall include a Joint Magistrate, and any person lawfully exercising the powers of a Magistrate; words in the singular number shall include the plural, words in the plural shall include the singular; and words in the masculine gender shall include the feminine; and the word "fine" shall include a sum of money due upon a forfeited recognizance.

Acts repealed.

XXXIX. Acts No. III. of 1853 and No. XII. of 1853, are hereby repealed, except as to acts done, offences committed, and liabilities incurred before the passing of this Act.

All Indian Railways to be within the Act.

XL. Every Railway within the said territories used for the public conveyance of passengers or goods shall, until the contrary be proved, be presumed to be a Railway within the meaning of this Act, and every Company to whom any such Railway shall belong, shall, until the contrary be proved, be presumed to be a Railway Company within the meaning of this Act.

Penalty for omitting to report accident.

XLI. Every such Railway Company shall, within forty-eight hours after the occurrence upon the Railway belonging to such Company of any accident attended with serious personal injury, give notice thereof to the local Government; and if any such Company omit to give such notice, they shall forfeit the sum of fifty rupees for every day during which the omission to give the same shall continue.

Local Government may require a return of accidents.

XLII. The local Government may order and direct any such Railway Company to make up and deliver to them a return of serious accidents occurring in the course of the public traffic upon the Railway belonging to such Company, whether attended with personal injury or not, in such form and manner as the Government shall deem necessary and require for their information, with a view to the public safety; and if any such returns shall not be so delivered within fourteen days after the same shall have been required, every such Company shall forfeit the sum of fifty rupees for every day during which the said Company shall neglect to deliver the same.

Penalty.

Copy and translation of Acts to be shown at Railway Stations.

XLIII. A copy of this Act, and of the General Regulations, Time Tables, and Tariff of Charges which shall from time to time be published by any Railway Company, with the sanction of the local Government, shall be exhibited in some conspicuous place at each Station of every Railway so that they may be easily seen and read; and all such documents shall be so exhibited in English and in the Vernacular language of the district in which the Station is situate, and in such other language if any, as shall be required by order of the local Government.

Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

12th August 1854.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 12th of August 1854.

A Bill for the amendment of Procedure in cases of regular appeal to the Sudder Court in the Presidency of Fort St. George.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is desirable to simplify and shorten the procedure in regular appeals to the Court of Sudder Udalut in the said Presidency, it is enacted as follows:—

I. Clause 1*st*. In modification of Clause fifth, Section X., Regulation V. of 1802, every petition of regular appeal in a case appealable to the Sudder Court, shall be presented to the Court in which the decision was passed within six weeks from the day of the decision. Such petitions of appeal shall, except in cases of petitions under Section XII. of this Act, contain only notice that the party, being dissatisfied with the decision, is desirous of appealing from it.

Petition of regular appeal, when and to what Court to be presented, and what to contain.

Clause 2*nd*. The Sudder Court may extend the time for presenting such petition of appeal to the lower Court, upon being satisfied that there is sufficient cause for such extension of time. The application for such extension of time may be made directly to the Sudder Court, or through the intervention of the lower Court, at the option of the applicant.

Time for presenting petition of appeal may be extended. To what Court and how application to be made.

II. On presentation of a petition of regular appeal to the Court in which the decision was passed, notice thereof to the respondent, as well as a proclamation to the same effect, shall immediately issue from that Court, and a copy of the proclamation shall be forthwith fixed up in some conspicuous part of the Court House of the said Court. If the notice cannot be personally served, the proclamation shall at once be fixed upon the door of the respondent's dwelling house, or in some conspicuous place in the village or place where he usually resides; or in cases in which the respondent shall not have a fixed residence within the jurisdiction of the Company's Courts, the proclamation may be fixed upon the door of his house of business or cutcherry, or the notice may be served on his known local agent. In case the proclamation cannot be fixed, or the notice served in the manner abovementioned, the proclamation shall be fixed up in such other place, if any, as the said last mentioned Court shall direct. The Nazir shall make a return to the Court stating when and where the notice and proclamation have been served or fixed up. The return of the Nazir shall be filed in Court, and shall form part of the record of the case, and such return shall be published by fixing up the same in some conspicuous part of the Court House of the lower Court.

Notice to be given to respondent—and proclamation to issue.

III. Clause 1*st*. The rule in Section XI., Regulation V. of 1802, which directs copies of all original papers transmitted to the Sudder Court with the record of an appealed case to be made out and deposited in the Court, in lieu of the originals, is hereby modified, and it shall be necessary to copy, authenticate, and deposit only the exhibits in the case, and also any other papers of importance, including the pleadings, or any parts of them, which either of the parties shall require to be copied, authenticated, and deposited in the lower Court, previously to their being transmitted to the Sudder Court.

Of what original papers copies are to be deposited.

Clause 2*nd*. If either of the parties require any papers to be copied, authenticated and deposited, such party shall, either by himself, or his pleader, or authorized agent, give notice in writing thereof to the lower Court, before the expiration of fourteen days from the time of the publication of the return of the Nazir, as aforesaid: such notice shall specify the papers which the party requires to be copied, authenticated, and deposited.

Party requiring any paper to be copied, to give notice thereof.

Clause 3*rd*. Either party may by himself, or his pleader or authorized agent, before the presentation of an appeal, give notice in writing to the lower Court specifying any papers or documents which he requires to be copied, authenticated, and deposited, in the event of an appeal being prepared.

Party may require papers to be copied in anticipation of appeal.

IV. The petition of appeal together with the record of the lower Court, shall be certified to the Sudder Court as soon as conveniently may be, after the presentation of the petition of appeal, provided that the same shall not be certified within the time allowed to the parties for specifying the papers which they desire to be copied, authenticated, and deposited.

Petition and record when to be certified to the Sudder Court.

Proviso.

V. On arrival of the appeal record at the Sudder Court, notice shall be affixed in the Court House of the said Court, requiring the appellant to file, within six weeks from the date thereof, his grounds of objection to the decision of the Court below. Within the said space of six weeks the appellant shall file in the said Sudder Court his grounds of objection to the decision.

Notice to appellant to file objections.

VI. Clause 1*st*. On the filing of the grounds of objection by the appellant, notice shall be affixed in the Court House of the Sudder Court requiring the respondent to file his grounds of objection, if any, to appeal, or to the decision of the lower Court, within four weeks from the date of such notice.

Notice to respondent to file objection.

Clause 2*nd*. Within the said space of four weeks, the respondent shall file any grounds of objection which he has to the appeal, or which relate to such parts of the decision as are involved in the appeal.

When respondent to file objections.

Clause 3*rd*. If the respondent shall desire to object to any part of the decision of the lower Court not involved in the appeal, he may present a separate petition of appeal to the Sudder Court within the said space of four weeks, or within such further time as the said Sudder Court shall allow for that purpose.

In what case respondent may file a separate petition of appeal.

Clause 4*th*. The respondent shall, in such case, file with his petition of appeal, his grounds of objection to that part of the decision to which his appeal relates, otherwise his appeal shall not be received.

Ground of objection to be filed therewith.

VII. Clause 1*st*. At the expiration of the time allowed to the respondent for filing his grounds of objection, and for filing a separate petition of appeal in the Sudder Court, the record shall be deemed complete, and the case ready to be called up for decision, on any day which the Sudder Court may notify, unless the respondent, within such time, file a separate petition of appeal in the Sudder Court.

Record when to be deemed complete.

Clause 2*nd*. If the respondent file a separate petition of appeal in the Sudder Court, notice shall be fixed up in the Court House of the Sudder Court, to the effect that

Notice of separate petition of appeal to be given.

the respondent has filed such separate appeal; and the notice shall require the appellant to file any grounds of objection which he may have thereto, within the space of four weeks from the date of the notice.

Appellant to file objections.

Clause 3*rd.* Within such space of four weeks, the appellant may file any grounds of objection which he has to such appeal, or which relate to that part of the decision which is involved in the respondent's appeal. At the expiration of the time allowed for filing such grounds of objection by the appellant, the record shall be deemed complete, and the case ready to be called up for decision on any day which the Sudder Court shall notify for that purpose.

Record when to be deemed complete.

Clause 4*th.* If the appeal of either party, be dismissed, or withdrawn, the appeal of the other may be heard alone; otherwise the two appeals, and the proceedings thereon, shall form one record, unless the Sudder Court shall otherwise order.

Hearing of appeals.

VIII. The respondent shall not be allowed to present a separate petition of appeal in the Sudder Court, if he shall previously have presented a petition of appeal to the lower Court.

In what case respondent not to present a separate petition of appeal.

IX. Clause 1*st.* All grounds of objection which shall be filed by either the appellant or the respondent, shall be stated distinctly and concisely, without any argument or narrative of facts; and shall be numbered consecutively, and, except in the cases hereinafter mentioned, shall be on paper bearing the stamp duty prescribed by Section XIX Regulation XIII. of 1816.

Objections to be distinctly stated, and to be numbered, also to be written on stamped paper.

Exception.

Clause 2*nd.* The Sudder Court may extend the time for filing grounds of objection, either by an appellant or respondent, upon special application for that purpose, and upon sufficient reasons being shown, to the satisfaction of the said Court, for such extension of time. In such case, the objections may be filed within such extended time.

Sudder Court may extend the time for filing objections.

X. Either party may, by leave of the Sudder Court or any Judge thereof, at any time before the hearing, amend his grounds of objection, or add grounds of objection to those filed, upon such terms and conditions, and within such time as the said Court or Judge may order. The said Court may also, upon the hearing of any appeal, allow either party to amend his grounds of objection, or to add further grounds, or to urge, and be heard by himself or his pleader, in support of any objection not included in his grounds of objection, upon such terms and conditions, as to postponement of the cause, and as to the payment of costs or otherwise, as the Court shall think just, to prevent the opposite party or his pleader from being taken by surprise, or otherwise Without such leave of the Court, neither party shall be allowed to urge or to be heard in support of any objection not included in his grounds of objection filed. But the Court shall not be confined to such grounds of objection on deciding the cause,

By leave of the Sudder Court ground of objection may be amended or added. The parties, but not the Court, to be confined to the objections stated.

XI. Clause 1*st.* The Sudder Court may call up for hearing and decision on any day the Court shall notify, and without regard to the place in which the case stands in the general list of appeals, any grounds of objection filed by the respondent, or the appellant, to the appeal of the opposite party; and the Sudder Court may hear and decide upon such grounds of objection, before calling the case up for decision, upon the grounds of objection to the decision of the lower Court.

Sudder Court may fix a day to hear and determine objections to the appeal before the regular time for hearing the appeal.

Clause 2*nd.* If the grounds of objection filed by the appellant, and respondent, shall be upon point of law only, and shall not raise any question of fact, the Sudder Court may order the case to be called up for hearing and decision, on any day which the said Court shall notify, without regard to the place in which it stands in the general list of appeals pending in the said Court.

Appeal involving objections of law only may be called on for decision at any fixed time.

Clause 3*rd.* If the grounds of objection filed shall raise questions of law and fact, and it shall appear to the Sudder Court, that the decision of the law may render it unnecessary to determine any question of fact so raised, the Court may order the case to be called up for decision upon the law alone, in the first instance, in the manner pointed out in the last preceding Section, and if the decision of the case upon the law, shall render it unnecessary to determine any question of fact, the said Court shall pass a final decision in the case; otherwise the Court shall determine the law only, and the case shall be afterwards set down in the list of regular appeals for hearing upon the question or questions of fact, and shall be determined in the same manner as any other regular appeal.

Appeal involving objections of law and fact how to be heard.

XII. If any party to a regular suit be desirous of being admitted to appeal in forma pauperis to the Sudder Court, the following procedure shall be adopted:

Appeal in formâ pauperis.

Clause 1*st.* The appellant shall present his petition to the lower Court according to the rules prescribed by Section I. of this Act, provided that a petition to appeal in forma pauperis against any decision passed before this Act shall come into operation, may be presented within three months from the day of the decision.

Petition when to be presented.

Proviso.

Clause 2*nd.* Petitions of appeal by parties desirous to appeal in forma pauperis, shall contain a statement to that effect, and also a Schedule of the whole real and personal property belonging to the petitioner, and the estimated value of such property, and shall be written on paper bearing the stamp duty of two rupees per sheet.

Form of Petition.

Clause 3*rd.* Upon the presentation of such petition, the notice to the respondent, and the proclamation, shall state that the appellant desires to appeal in forma pauperis.

Notice thereof and proclamation.

Clause 4th. On arrival of the appeal record at the Sudder Court, the same procedure shall be adopted in that Court as in other cases of regular appeal, except, that after the filing of the grounds of objection by the appellant, and before notice shall be given requiring the respondent to file his grounds of objection, the Sudder Court shall determine, according to the rules now applicable to the determination of such cases, whether or not, the appellant shall be allowed to appeal in forma pauperis.

Procedure on such appeal.

When Sudder Court is to determine whether appeal shall be in forma pauperis.

Clause 5th. If the Sudder Court allow the petitioner to appeal in forma pauperis notice shall be given to the respondent to file his grounds of objection in the manner provided by Section VI. of this Act, and the same procedure shall be adopted subsequently thereto, as in other cases of regular appeal under this Act. The rules and conditions now applicable to persons admitted by the Sudder Court to appeal in forma pauperis, shall continue in force; except where the same are inconsistent with any of the provisions of this Act.

Notice to respondent to file objections to pauper appeals.

Rules of Sudder as to pauper appeals to continue in force.

Clause 6th. If the Sudder Court refuse to allow the petitioner to appeal in forma pauperis, the said Court may make an order to the effect, that the appellant, upon filing a petition of appeal in that Court upon paper bearing the stamp duty prescribed by Section XIII., and Clause 2, Section XXIII., Regulation XIII. of 1816 may proceed with the appeal, according to the rules prescribed by this Act in the case of persons not appealing as paupers.

What order may be made upon refusal to allow appeal in forma pauperis.

Clause 7th. Upon such order being made, the appellant shall file his petition, and re-file his objections upon paper stamped with the stamp duty, required by Clause 5th of this Section, within two weeks from the date of such order, or within such further time, as the said Court may allow for that purpose; otherwise the appeal shall stand dismissed.

Appellant how to proceed upon such order.

Clause 8th. Upon the refiling of the grounds of objection according to the provisions of the last preceding Clause, notice of the order and of the re-filing of such objections shall be given to the respondent in the manner prescribed by Section VI. of this Act, and the respondent shall be required to file his grounds of objection, if any, according to the provisions of that Section. The procedure subsequent to such notice, shall be according to the general provisions of this Act.

Notice of order to be given to respondent. Subsequent procedure thereon.

Clause 9th. If an appellant shall petition to appeal in formâ pauperis, his grounds of objection may be written on plain paper.

In pauper appeals appellant's objections may be on unstamped paper.

XIII. If an appellant shall be admitted to appeal or a respondent to defend in formâ pauperis, all grounds of objection subsequently filed by either party may be written on plain paper.

All subsequent objections may be on unstamped paper.

XIV. No decision shall be reversed or altered, nor shall any case be remanded upon appeal to the Sudder Court, on account of any error, defect, or irregularity not productive of injury to either party, nor opposed to any express enactment contained in the general Regulations or Acts of Government.

No decision to be reversed by reason of error not productive of injury, &c.

XV. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to regular appeals preferred from decrees passed before the passing of this Act, which appeals shall be subject to all the forms and rules in force previous to the passing of this Act.

Act not to be retrospective.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

12th August 1854.

The following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 12th of August 1854.

A Bill to amend the Law of Evidence in the Civil Courts of the East India Company in the Madras Presidency.

WHEREAS the law of evidence administered by the Civil Courts of the Presidency of Fort St. George in Madras, and the rules for the attendance and examination of witnesses and the production of documents in Courts, require amendment, It is enacted as follows:—

Preamble.

I. Section VII. Regulation III. of 1802, Section XX. Regulation IV. of 1802, Clauses 1st and 2nd, Section XXIX. Regulation VI of 1816, and Section XIV. Regulation VIII. of 1816 of the Madras Code, so far as they are inconsistent with the provisions of this Act; and Section XXII. Regulation VII. of 1809, are hereby repealed.

Repeal of former Regulations.

II. In any regular or summary suit, appeal, or proceeding in any of the Civil Courts of the East India Company, and also in any summary suit or other proceeding of a civil nature before any Court, Officer, or other person having by law or by consent of parties authority to examine witnesses, any party to such suit, appeal, or proceeding, shall be competent and entitled to give evidence as a witness either on his own behalf or on behalf of any other party to the suit, appeal, or proceeding; in the same manner as if he were not a party to the same. Provided that no party to a suit, appeal, or proceeding, who shall offer himself as a witness therein, shall, without the consent of all parties thereto, be examined otherwise than in open Court, in such manner as the Court may direct having regard to the usages and customs of the country, unless such examination shall be taken under, and subject to the Rules prescribed by Section XXXII. or XXXVIII. of this Act.

Parties to suits competent as witnesses.

Proviso.

III. No person shall, by reason of any interest in the result of any suit or of any interest connected therewith, or by reason of relationship to any of the parties thereto, be incompetent to give evidence in any such suit.

Abolishes incompetency on ground of interest or relationship.

Husband or wife when a competent witness for or against the other.

IV. A husband or wife shall be competent to give evidence for or against the other provided that the examination shall take place in open Court in such manner as the Court may direct having regard to the usages and customs of the country, or that it be taken and read, and subject to the Rules prescribed in Section XXXII. or XXXVIII. of this Act; provided also that any communication made by husband or wife to the other during their marriage shall be deemed a privileged communication, and shall not be disclosed without the consent of the person making the same, unless such communication shall relate to a matter in dispute in a suit pending between such husband and wife.

Proviso.

Party to suit compellable to give evidence and produce documents.

V. Any party to a suit may be compelled to give evidence as a witness therein and also to produce any document in his possession or power, in the same manner, by the same process, and subject to the same Rules, as if he were not a party to the suit, except so far as is otherwise provided by this Act. Provided that no Court need to compel the attendance of any party to such suit, for the purpose of giving evidence therein, if such party shall satisfy the Court that he has no personal knowledge of any material subject of inquiry in the suit, and that he cannot give any material evidence therein. Nothing in this Clause shall exempt any party to a suit from being summoned to produce a document.

Proviso.

Court to appoint a day for the hearing.

VI. After the parties in a suit, in which according to the practice of the Court a day is fixed for the hearing, shall have filed their exhibits and lists of witnesses, the Court shall, by an order in writing, appoint a day, not less than fifteen days after the date thereof, for the examination of witnesses and the hearing of the suit.

What the list of witnesses shall include.

VII. The list of witnesses required to be furnished in any suit shall include the names of all the witnesses, whether the parties to the suit or not, whom the party filing the list may intend to call as witnesses, or whom he may require to be summoned to give evidence or produce any document, also a list of the documents which he may require to be produced.

Special application to compel attendance of party to a suit as a witness.

VIII. If any party to a suit shall require the attendance of any other party thereto as a witness to be enforced, he shall by himself or his pleader make a special application to the Court for an order for a summons to compel the attendance of the party, and shall show to the satisfaction of the Court sufficient grounds in support of such application, otherwise a summons shall not be issued. In cases in which, according to the practice of the Court, a day is fixed for the hearing, the application shall be made before such day shall be fixed.

Court may cause notice to be given to a party to show cause why he should not attend.

IX. The Court, upon the application of the pleader of any party to a suit whose attendance as witness is required, or without such application, if the Court think fit so to do, may, before making such order, cause notice to be given to the party or his pleader fixing a day for such party to show cause why he should not attend and give evidence, and may also, from time to time if necessary, for good and sufficient cause, enlarge the time for such purpose.

Written declaration of party receivable.

X. Clause 1.—In support of the cause shown, the Court shall receive a declaration in writing of the party, if signed by him, and delivered into the Court by himself or his pleader.

Penalty for false statement.

Clause 2. If the party making such declaration shall wilfully and corruptly make any false statement therein, he shall be liable to the punishment provided for the offence of making a false allegation in a petition to a Judicial Court, by Section II. Regulation I. of 1832.

Summons to issue if no sufficient cause shown.

XI. If no sufficient cause be shown on the day fixed or upon any subsequent day to which the Court shall enlarge the time for that purpose, the Court shall cause a summons to be issued for compelling the party to attend and give evidence.

Summons to produce material document may be issued.

XII. The Court, on the requisition of any party to a suit, or his pleader, may cause a summons to be issued to every person who shall be required to produce any material document.

Expenses of witness to be fixed and paid into Court before summons, and tendered to witness at time of service.

Previously to the issuing of any summons for the attendance of any person to give evidence or produce a document, the party requiring the same shall pay into Court such sum as shall appear to the Court to be reasonable, to defray the travelling and other expenses of such person in passing to and from the Court in which he may be required to attend and give evidence, and for one day's attendance thereat. In fixing the sum to be paid into Court, regard shall be had to the rules, if any, established by the Court or Board, if any, to which such Court shall be subordinate. The sum so paid into Court shall be tendered to the witness at the time of serving the summons if it can be served personally. In addition to the sum so paid into Court, the Court before whom any person who may attend in pursuance of a summons or proclamation to give evidence or produce any document, may order such further sum to be paid to the person so attending by the person causing the summons or proclamation to be issued, as may appear to be necessary to defray his travelling and other expenses, and also the expenses of his detention under the summons or proclamation, and in case of default in payment, may order such sum to be levied by attachment and sale of the goods of the person ordered to pay the same, and the witness shall be bound to give evidence or produce any document until such sum shall be paid.

Court may direct a further payment.

Form of summons

XIII. Every summons for the attendance of a witness to give evidence, or to produce a document, shall require the intended witness to attend at a time and place to be named in the summons, and shall also state whether the attendance of the witness is required for the purpose of giving evidence, or producing a document, or for both purposes. If a witness, whether a party to the suit or not, is required to attend, and to produce before the Court any document alleged by the party summoning him to be in his possession or power, a direction to attend the Court with such document shall be inserted in the summons, and the document which the witness may be so called upon to produce shall be described in the summons with convenient certainty.

How service of summons to be made.

XIV. Every such summons shall, if possible, be served personally upon the person thereby required to attend, by showing the original to such person, and at the same time delivering or tendering to him a copy thereof.

Time of service of summons.

XV. Such service must be made a sufficient time before the time specified therein for his attendance, to allow the witness a reasonable time for preparation, and for travelling to the place at which his attendance is required.

Person summoned to produce a document may depute another to do so.

XVI. Any person, whether a party to the suit or not, may be summoned to produce a document without being summoned to give evidence, and any person summoned merely to produce a document shall be deemed to have complied with the summons if he cause such document to be produced, instead of attending personally to produce the same.

Person summoned as a witness bound to attend.

XVII. Any person who shall be summoned to appear and give evidence shall be bound to attend at the time and place named for that purpose.

Person summoned to produce a document need not be sworn.

XVIII. Any person attending to produce a document may be called upon to produce the same without being sworn or examined as a witness.

In what case a witness is bound to produce his title-deeds.

XIX. A witness, not a party to the suit or proceeding in which he is summoned, shall not be bound to produce his own title-deeds, unless he shall have agreed in writing with the party requiring the production thereof, or with some person through whom he claims to produce such deeds.

Witness or party not bound to produce a State paper, &c.

XX. A witness, whether a party or not, shall not be bound to produce any document relating to affairs of State, the production of which would be contrary to good policy, nor any document held by him for any other person who would not be bound to produce it if in his own possession.

Party not bound to produce irrelevant document, or correspondence with his legal advisers, unless he offers himself as a witness.

XXI. A witness, being a party to the suit, shall not be bound to produce any document in his possession or power which is not relevant or material to the case of the party requiring its production, nor any writing or correspondence which may have passed between him and any legal professional adviser. If any party, however, offer himself as a witness, he shall be bound to produce any such writing or correspondence in his custody, possession, or power, if relevant or material to the case of the party requiring its production.

Court may call for and inspect, and may also examine witnesses to ascertain the admissibility of a document; if deemed inadmissible, reason must be recorded.

XXII. Every witness summoned to produce a document shall, if the same be in his custody, possession, or power, be bound to produce it, or cause it to be produced to the Court, although there be a valid objection to the right of the party calling for it to compel its production, or to the reading or putting it in as evidence, or to the disclosure of the contents thereof, the validity of any such objection made by the person producing the document shall be determined by the Court; and for the better determination thereof, it shall be lawful for the Court to receive any admissible evidence which the person producing the document may give respecting it; and it shall also be lawful for the Court to inspect the document, and if necessary to call to its assistance any person whom it may appoint to interpret the same. Such person, however, shall be previously sworn truly to interpret the same to the Court alone, and not to disclose the contents thereof except to the Court, unless the Court shall order the document to be given in evidence. If the Court shall be of opinion that such document shall not be produced, the Court shall not disclose the contents thereof to the parties, or take any note, or make any mention of the contents or effect thereof in its judgment or proceedings, but shall return the document at once to the party producing the same, having previously marked the same for the purpose of identification, and shall record in its proceedings that a document, identifying it by the mark put upon it, was called for by the person, naming him who shall call for its production, that the person having the possession of the document, naming him, objected to its production; and the reasons, if any, for such objection, together with the reasons of the Court for refusing to compel its production. If the Court shall refuse to enforce the production of a document, or to receive the same in evidence, the Court of appeal may, upon a regular appeal, compel the production of such document, and if such Court shall think that the production of the same ought to have been enforced, or that it ought to have been received in evidence, may themselves enforce its production, and receive it in evidence, and decide the case upon such document coupled with the other evidence given in the suit.

On appeal production may be enforced.

Legal adviser not to disclose professional communication to client.

XXIII. A barrister, attorney, or vakeel, shall not, without the consent of his client, disclose any communication made by the client to him in the course of his professional employment, nor any advice given by him professionally to his client, nor the contents of any document of his client, the knowledge of which he shall have acquired in the course of his professional employment. The privilege, however, is that of the client, and if any party to a suit shall give evidence therein at his own instance, he shall be deemed thereby to have waived his privilege, and to have consented to the disclosure by such barrister, attorney, or vakeel, of any such matter as aforesaid, which may be relevant, and which the barrister, attorney, or vakeel would have been bound to disclose, but for the privilege of his client, and the barrister, attorney, or vakeel shall be bound upon examination to disclose any such matter.

What shall be deemed a waiver by client of this privilege.

XXIV. If any witness, whether a party to a suit or not, to whom any summons to give evidence or produce a document shall have been personally delivered, shall, without lawful excuse, fail to comply with such summons as required by this Act; or attending, or being present in Court, shall, without lawful excuse, refuse to give evidence, or to subscribe his deposition, or to produce any document in his custody or possession, named in such summons as aforesaid, upon being required by the Court so to do, the Court shall have full power and authority to issue an order in writing to the nazir to apprehend and bring the witness before the Court; or, if he be already before the Court, to take him into custody. And such Court may impose on such witness a fine not exceeding five hundred rupees for his default or refusal, realizable by attachment and sale of his property, and may commit him to close custody until he shall consent to give his evidence, or to sign his deposition, or to produce the document; and any such fine as aforesaid shall be levied and recovered by attachment and sale of the property of such person. Provided that no fine imposed under the provisions of this Section shall exceed the amount of the property in dispute in the suit. If any such person shall abscond, or keep out of the way, so that he cannot be seized or brought before the Court, his property shall be liable to attachment and sale in the same manner as is provided by Section XXVII. of this Act, with respect to a witness on whom the service of a summons cannot be effected. If such person shall be a party to the suit, the Court, instead of proceeding in the manner above pointed out, may, if the witness be a plaintiff, appellant, or petitioner, dismiss the complaint, appeal or petition, with costs against such party; or if such party be a defendant or respondent, may hear and decide the case against such defendant or respondent ex-parte. If any such complaint, appeal, or petition shall be dismissed for such cause, the complainant or petitioner shall be debarred from preferring any other petition, appeal, or complaint in respect of the same matter.

Penalty for non-compliance with summons.

Proviso.

XXV. Any person present in Court, whether a party or not, may be called upon and compelled by the Court to give evidence, and produce any document then and there in his actual possession or in his power, in the same manner and subject to the same rules as if he had been summoned to attend and give evidence, or to produce such document, and may be punished in like manner for any refusal to obey the order of the Court.

Person present may be compelled by Court to give evidence, &c., without summons.

XXVI. Any person, whether a party to the suit or not, to whom a summons to attend and give evidence, or produce a document, shall be personally delivered, and who shall, without lawful excuse, neglect or refuse to obey such summons, or who shall be proved to have absconded, or kept out of the way to avoid being served with such summons; and any person who, being in Court, and upon being required by the Court to give evidence, or produce a document in his possession, shall, without lawful excuse, refuse to give evidence, or sign his deposition, or to produce a document in his possession, shall, in addition to any proceedings under this Act, be liable to the party at whose request the summons shall have been issued, or at whose instance he shall be required to give evidence or produce the document, for all damages which he may sustain in consequence of such neglect or refusal, or of such absconding or keeping out of the way as aforesaid, to be recovered in civil action.

Person not obeying summons, &c., liable for damages in a civil action.

XXVII. If a person, whether a party to a suit or not, for whose attendance either to give evidence or produce a document a summons shall be issued, cannot, after diligent search, to be certified by a return of the nazir, be found, the Court upon proof that the evidence of such witness, or the production of the document is material, and that the witness absconds, or keeps out of the way to avoid being served with a summons, and that he could not, after diligent search, be found or served with the summons, may cause a proclamation requiring the attendance of such person to give evidence, or produce the document at a time and place to be named therein, to be affixed in the presence, and with the attestation of two respectable householders in some conspicuous place, upon or near to his house or place of abode, and if such person shall not attend at the time and place to be named in such proclamation, and it be proved to the satisfaction of the Court that the witness cannot be found, his property, real and personal, to such amount as the Court shall deem reasonable, (but subject to the same limitation as to the articles exempt from attachment as in case of attachment for arrears of rent,) shall be liable, under an order of the Court, to attachment and sale. Provided always, that when the order for attachment and sale shall have been issued by any Court subordinate to the Court of Sudder Dewanny Adawlut, a summary appeal shall lie within one month from the date of the order of the subordinate Court to the Court to which its orders are generally appealable; and that the Rules for the time being in force in regard to sales made in execution of decrees, as to the mode and period of attachment and the place or manner of sale, and as to claims of third parties to property attached and notified for sale, shall be held applicable to such sales.

After proclamation the property of a witness may be attached and sold.

Proviso.

XXVIII. Clause 1.—The cost of the attachment shall be borne in the first instance by the party applying for it, and the Court issuing the summons and attachment shall not proceed to sale of the property, but shall order the same to be released from attachment if the witness shall appear and satisfy the Court that he did not abscond, or keep out of the way to avoid service of a summons, and that he had not notice of the proclamation in time to attend at the time and place named therein. Upon the appearance of such witness the Court shall make such order in regard to the costs of the attachment as it shall deem fit. If the witness appearing shall fail to satisfy the Court that he did not abscond, or keep out of the way to avoid service of a summons, and that he had not such notice of the proclamation as aforesaid, it shall be in the discretion of the Court to order the property attached or any part thereof to be forfeited and sold for the purpose of satisfying all costs incurred in consequence of such defaulter absconding, or keeping out of the way, and such fine, not exceeding the amount in dispute in the suit, as the Court may deem fit to impose upon the witness, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, and the condition in life of the witness, or the Court may order the property to be released from attachment upon payment of such costs and fine as aforesaid.

Costs of attachment and proceedings thereon.

Clause 2.—An order made in pursuance of this Section shall be subject to appeal in the same manner and within the same period, as an appeal against an order for attachment and sale under the last preceding Section of this Act.

Appeal from order for attachment.

XXIX. All orders as to fines, or the levying thereof, or as to imprisonment under this Act, shall be subject to a similar appeal within one month from the date of the order.

Appeal from orders as to fines, &c.

XXX. It shall not be necessary to postpone the hearing or decision of a case for the non-production of a document, or for the evidence of a witness who may neglect or refuse to attend, or who shall abscond or keep out of the way, or who cannot be served with a summons, beyond such period as shall appear proper to the Court, having regard to all the circumstances of the case; provided that when a summons shall have been issued for the attendance of a plaintiff or appellant in a suit to give evidence, or produce a document, the Court shall, at the request of the defendant or respondent, unless there be good reason to the contrary, postpone the hearing or decision until the plaintiff or appellant can be personally summoned, or shall attend and give evidence, or produce the document required; and that where a summons shall have been issued for the attendance of a defendant or respondent to give evidence or produce a document, the hearing or decision shall, upon the application of the plaintiff or appellant, be postponed in like manner, unless there be good reason to the contrary, until the defendant or respondent can be personally summoned, or shall attend and give evidence, or produce the document required.

Postponing case on account of non-attendance of witness, &c.

Proviso.

XXXI. On the day appointed for the hearing, the evidence of the attending witnesses shall be taken orally in open Court, in the presence and hearing, and under the personal direction and superintendence of the Judge. The evidence of each witness given upon such examination shall be taken down in writing, by or in the presence, and under the superintendence of the Judge, not ordinarily by question and answer, but in the form of a narrative, and when completed shall be read over to the witness, and signed by him in the presence of the Judge and of the parties to the suit or their vakeels, or such of them as may think fit to attend. In case the witness shall refuse to sign the deposition, the Judge shall sign the same, and record the reason, if any, given by the witness for such refusal, together with such remarks thereon as the Judge shall think fit to make. It shall be in the discretion of the Judge to take down, or cause to be taken down, any particular question and answer if there shall appear any special reason for doing so, or any party or his vakeel, shall require it. If any question put to a witness be objected to by either of the parties, or their vakeels, and the Court shall allow the same to be put, the question and answer shall be taken down, and the objection, and the name of the party making it, shall be noticed in taking down the depositions, together with the decision of the Court upon the objection. The Judge shall also record such remarks as he may think material respecting the demeanour of any witness whilst under examination.

Oral evidence how to be taken.

XXXII. In cases where the evidence is needed of females, who, according to the custom of the country, ought not to be compelled to appear as witnesses in a Court of Justice, and in which the Court shall be of opinion that the ends of justice require and justify it, such Court may issue a commission to any Officer of the Court or other person, to be named in such commission, for the examination of such females in the hearing of the parties to the suit or their vakeels, in such manner as the Court may direct, having regard to the custom and usage of the country, and with liberty to the parties or their vakeels, to cross-examine, anything in Section V., Act VII. 1841, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Evidence of purdah women.

XXXIII. On or before the day appointed for trial, the Court may, for any sufficient reason, such as the unavoidable absence of any material witness, or for other good cause, on the application of either party, postpone the hearing to another day, to be named, on such terms as to the payment to the opposite party of his costs occasioned by the postponement, and otherwise as to the Court shall seem reasonable. In such case notice in writing shall be given to each of the witnesses to attend and give evidence, or to produce a document on the substituted day, instead of the day mentioned in their summonses, if there be time to do so and the judge shall so order. The notice shall be served in the same manner as a summons. The service of such notice shall have the same effect as if the substituted day had been originally named in such summons as the day for the appearance in Court to give evidence or produce a document, and all the provisions in this Act relating to summonses to give evidence or produce documents, shall extend to such notices in the same manner as if such notices had been expressly mentioned in such provisions. If the application be too late to serve such notices, the Court may order that the examination of any witness who may be present, or shall attend in pursuance of a summons shall be proceeded with, and that the further hearing of the case, after the examination of such witness, shall alone be postponed.

On or before the day fixed for trial the hearing may be postponed. Notice thereof to be given to witnesses—in certain cases witnesses actually attending may be examined.

XXXIV. Unless the hearing be postponed in manner aforesaid, it shall commence on the day appointed, or as soon afterwards as the business which may be pending before the Court and may be entitled to priority, will allow, and the recording of evidence on the trial of any suit when begun under the rules above enacted, shall, unless there be good and sufficient reason to the Trial how to proceed.

contrary. (which reason shall be recorded) continue on the same day, or on consecutive business days, until the whole of the evidence of the witnesses present shall be heard. The parties or such of them as desire it shall then be heard either by themselves or their pleaders orally on the merits of the case as regards the issues both of fact and law, and after considering the arguments and evidence, the Judge shall record his judgment under Act XII. of 1843.

Court may, after hearing the evidence, of its own accord call for further evidence before hearing the pleaders or recording judgment.

XXXV. If the Court, after the evidence of all the witnesses shall have been heard, and before hearing the pleaders or recording the judgment, shall think it necessary for the ends of justice to inspect any document or to examine any party to the suit, or any other person whose evidence may appear to be material, the Court, of its own accord, may cause such party or person to be summoned to attend as a witness, to give evidence, or to produce such document, if in his possession, on a day to be appointed, and may examine such party or person as a witness in open Court, or in such other manner as the Court may direct, upon any question which the party or witness may be bound to answer and the Court may think necessary, and may also compel the production of any document mentioned in such summons, which any such person may have in his possession or power, and be bound to produce. Any witness so called shall be subject to the cross-examination of either party, or his vakeel. If such person, whether a party or not, shall be a female who, according to the custom of the country, ought not to be compelled to appear as a witness in a Court of Justice, the Court may order such person to be examined in the manner provided by Section XXXII. of this Act, upon such questions as it may direct. The Commissioner or other person authorized to take the examination in such case, may put such further questions as in his judgment may be necessary, or may arise out of the answers to be given to the questions directed by the Court.

Court may require witnesses to remain out of Court.

XXXVI. The Judge may cause public notice to be given in Court, either before or during the examination of any witness, requiring all or any other witnesses, whether parties or not, who have been summoned or inserted in the list of witnesses in the same cause, to leave and to remain out of Court until further order. Any witness in a cause who, without lawful excuse, shall wilfully remain in or come into Court, contrary to such notice, shall be punishable in the same manner as for a contempt of Court in open Court. Whenever such notice shall be given, the consequence of disobedience thereto shall be publicly explained at the time of giving the notice.

Penalty for disobedience.

By what rules a party is to be examined and how punishable for false evidence.

XXXVII. Any party to a suit, appeal, or proceeding who may be examined as a witness therein, shall, except as otherwise provided by this Act, be examined according to the rules for the time being in force as to the examination of witnesses not being parties to the suit, and shall be punishable for any false evidence given by him, in the same manner as if he were not a party.

Interpretation of word "witness" in Act. VII. 1841.

XXXVIII. The words "witness" and "witnesses" in Act VII. 1841, shall respectively include any party or parties to a suit, and the said Act shall be read as if the words "or party" "or parties" had been used in such Act, in conjunction with the words "witness" or "witnesses" respectively. Provided that the deposition of a party taken under the provisions of this Section, at the instance of any opposite party, may be read in evidence by, or on behalf of such last-mentioned party, without the proof required by Section V. of the said Act. Provided also that no deposition of any party taken under the provisions of this Section shall be read or used in evidence unless taken and read at the instance of some opposite party, or unless it shall be proved that the deponent is unable, from sickness or infirmity, to attend to be personally examined, or is, without collusion, or any reference to the suit, at so great a distance from the Court, that in the judgment of the Court it would be unreasonable to require his personal attendance in Court for the purpose of giving such evidence, in which last-mentioned case it shall be discretionary with the Court, having regard to the nature of the case and of the evidence given, either to allow or to refuse such deposition to be read.

Proviso.

No appeal from Judge's order as to summons, &c.

XXXIX. No appeal shall lie from any order or decision of a Judge with respect to summoning or examining any party to a suit, or as to allowing a deposition to be read under the Section next preceding.

Document referred to in pleading to be filed

XL. If any party to any such suit as aforesaid shall, in any pleading or statement, refer to any document in his possession or power, as a material proof or document in support of his claim or defence, he shall file such document with the pleading or statement, unless the Court shall, for good and sufficient cause, extend the time for filing the same; and any adverse party shall be entitled, by himself or his vakeel, to inspect and take a copy of the document.

Interpretation Clause.

XLI. In the construction of this Act, unless where it is otherwise expressly provided, or there is something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction, or which would render such construction inapplicable to the case, the word "Court" shall mean any Civil Court of the East India Company, and shall include any Judge or other Officer or person mentioned in Section II. of this Act; the word "Judge" shall be understood to mean the chief judicial authority presiding in any such Court, and shall include any Officer or person having, by law, or consent of parties, authority to examine witnesses and to act judicially; the word "suit" shall be deemed to mean and include any suit, appeal or proceeding mentioned in Section II.; the word "witness" shall include all persons competent and liable to give evidence, whether parties to any suit or proceeding, or not. Words importing the masculine gender or singular number shall include the feminine gender or plural number, and vice versa.

Act when to operate.

XLII. This Act shall come into operation on the

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

RULES FOR THE MANAGEMENT OF THE POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT.

Passed by the Governor General of India in Council on the 12th of August 1854.

All existing orders passed by Government rescinded.

I. ALL existing Rules, General Orders and Proclamations issued by the Government, for the guidance of the Post Office Departments of the different Presidencies and Settlements of India, saving such as relate to Dawk Travelling and matters of account, shall cease to have effect from 1st of October next, and the following Rules and Orders shall be substituted for the same, to be in force at all Post Office Stations in any of the Presidencies, Settlements, or Possessions of the East India Company, and to take effect from the above-mentioned date.

Receipt of letters, &c., for despatch by land or sea.

II. Letters, papers and parcels shall be received at every Post Office, for despatch by land or sea, to every part of India, to Ceylon, and to every other part of the world with which there is a Post Office communication. Unless specially superscribed for the first despatch by land or by sea, or by some particular ship, they shall be sent by such route as shall appear to the Post Master to afford the means of most speedy and secure transmission. Letters and papers not exceeding 12 tolahs in weight shall also be received at every Receiving House or other place which the Post Master General may appoint. Letters, papers and parcels shall likewise be received for despatch by post as above at every Thannah or District Dawk Office.

Receipt of letters for Foreign countries vid Great Britain or Ireland.

III. Letters, papers or parcels required to be transmitted vid Great Britain or Ireland to foreign countries must, unless the pre-payment of postage from the United Kingdom to such countries be optional, be addressed to the care of an agent or other person in the United Kingdom, by whom the foreign postage demandable at the London General or other Post Office may be paid. Such postage cannot be received in this country, and unless it be paid through an agent as above described, the letters are liable to be returned to India.

Name of sender of any letter, &c., not to be demanded.

IV. The name of the sender of any letter, paper or parcel shall not be demanded in any Post Office, whether the postage be pre-paid or not.

Letters to be received at any station for delivery at such station.

V. Letters, papers or parcels shall be received at any Presidency or Provincial Post Office, or Receiving House, for delivery at the same station, within the ordinary range of delivery.

Limitation as to weight of parcels.

VI. Parcels exceeding 600 tolahs in weight may be received at the discretion of any Officer in charge of a Post Office for despatch along any line of road on which the banghy parcels are not carried by foot-runners; but no parcel exceeding 2,000 tolahs in weight shall be received at any Post Office for despatch by banghy or letter mail under any circumstances whatever.

Parcels received from seaward in excess of maximum weight how to be treated.

VII. Parcels received by post from seaward, exceeding the maximum weight, which may be sent by banghy post, shall be made over to the Collector of Customs for publication in his lists of Unclaimed Packages.

Newspapers, &c., not to be detained for examination, but to be forwarded marked "Doubtful."

VIII. Newspapers or other printed or engraved papers, packed in open covers, or letters certified to be on the Public Service, respecting any of which there is reason to believe that the provisions of the Post Office Act have been infringed, shall not be detained for examination at the Despatching Office, but shall be forwarded marked "Doubtful." The Post Master receiving such letters, &c., by the mail, shall then be guided by the instructions laid down in Section XLVIII. of the Post Office Act; but unless for the causes specified above, and in Sections XXXVII. and XLVIII. of the Post Office Act, all Post Office authorities are prohibited from detaining any letter, paper or packet received for delivery by post.

Letters, papers and parcels to be weighed at Office of despatch.

IX. All letters, newspapers or other papers and packets received for despatch by post, or banghy post, shall be weighed at the Post Office of despatch, and shall be stamped with the office stamp, and marked single, double, &c., as the case may be; and all letters, &c., the full postage on which has not been pre-paid by stamps, shall have the postage to which they are severally liable marked on them. Service letters shall never be re-weighed prior to delivery, nor newspapers, except in case of suspicion. Banghy parcels shall in all cases be re-weighed on delivery. The re weighing of private letters shall be at the discretion of the Officer in charge.

Examination of Post Office records not permitted to the public.

X. Persons not belonging to the Department shall not be admitted into the interior, nor permitted to examine the records of any Post Office, without the special permission of the Post Master General, to whom, or to the Post Master, applications for information or redress must be made, either in person, or in writing, by the party requiring the same.

Hours of receipt at Presidency Post Offices.

XI. At each Presidency Post Office, banghy parcels will be received every day, Sundays excepted, for despatch, from 10 A. M. till 5 P. M., and newspapers and letters every day till 6 P. M., after which hours, respectively, they will be received till 7 P. M., on payment of an extra half-rupee each, which shall be credited to Government.

At Receiving Houses.

XII. At Receiving Houses and places where there are letter boxes, letters, papers and packets not exceeding 12 tolahs in weight will be received daily from 11 A. M. to 4 P. M., or at such other hours as may be determined by the Post Master General, provided that no Receiving House shall remain open for less than five hours daily, and that letter-boxes for letters unpaid and pre-paid by stamps be kept open, day and night, except for a quarter of an hour subsequent to the time fixed for the closing of each mail.

XIII. At Provincial Post Offices, banghy parcels will be received for despatch from 10 A. M. till 4 P M., and letters and newspapers till 5 P. M., after which hours respectively they will be received till 5¾ P. M., on the sender paying an extra half-rupee each, to be appropriated as provided in Section XI.

At Provincial Post Offices.

XIV. Although all Post Offices will be open for receipt of letters, papers and parcels as above, official references shall be made to Post Office authorities only between the hours of 11 and 5, Sundays excepted.

Office hours for reference.

XV. At each Presidency Post Office, there shall be three deliveries daily, the first delivery not to be later than 7, the second at 11 A. M., and the third at 3 P. M., at which hours, respectively, the peons shall quit the Office with the letters, &c. entrusted to them. All letters, papers and parcels received from 3 P. M. till 5 A. M. shall be sent out at the first delivery, all from 5 to 10 A. M. at the second delivery, and all from 10 A. M. to 3 P. M. at the third delivery, and mails received after 3 P. M. shall not ordinarily be opened till the following morning, except when received by Express or from seaward.

Delivery of letters, &c., at Presidency Post Offices.

XVI. At Provincial Post Offices the delivery of letters, papers and parcels must depend upon the hour of the arrival of the mails at each station, after which they shall be delivered with all possible despatch.

At Provincial Post Offices.

XVII. The delivering peons are prohibited from going out of their usual course to deliver letters, papers or parcels, and from delivering them without immediate payment of the exact amount of postage; and they are not bound to give change. Should they be subject to detention, they are not to deliver the letters, papers or parcels, but to return them in the evening to the Post Office for delivery the following day.

Immediate payment of postage required.

XVIII. Whatever postage is marked on a letter, paper or parcel must be paid at once on delivery, after which any complaint of overcharge will be duly attended to. In all complaints of over-charge or unnecessary delay in delivering letters, papers or parcels, the covers or envelopes bearing the Post Office stamp must be presented for inspection; and when any complaints are preferred against any peon, the number on his badge should be specified.

Complaints how to be preferred.

XIX. From each Presidency Post Office the mails shall be despatched daily at 8 P. M. and the banghies as soon after as possible.

Despatch of mails from Presidency Post Offices.

XX. At Provincial Post Offices the packets for all mails to be despatched in the course of the night shall be finally closed at 6 P. M.; but for mails which usually pass in the course of the day, the packets shall be made up half an hour before the time appointed for the arrival of such mails, which are in no case to be subjected to any detention beyond the regulated time. Notice of the hour at which such packet is closed shall be hung up outside the Office, both in English and in the language of the district, after which hour, letters, papers or parcels received shall not be forwarded till the following day, unless such mails should not arrive until after 6 P. M., in which case a second packet shall be made up.

From Provincial Post Offices.

XXI. The Post Master at any station, or person in charge of the Office, shall have power to refuse letters, papers or parcels bearing the apperance of having been opened and re-closed, or otherwise improperly dealt with, unless the writer or sender thereof shall attest with his full signature, that they were sent in that state.

Letters, &c., damaged, not to be received.

XXII. In order to protect, as far as possible, the public mails from the chance of robbery, Officers in charge of Post Offices shall not knowingly receive coin, bullion, precious stones or jewels for despatch, either by letter or banghy post.

Post Offices not to receive valuables for despatch.

XXIII. The servants at the several Post Offices are prohibited from giving change to parties sending or receiving letters in any case.

Post Office prohibited from giving change.

XXIV. Letters will be registered on payment of a fee of 4 annas, and parties posting such letters will be furnished with a receipt bearing the address of the letter and the office stamp. The fee must in all cases be paid in money. On the delivery of a registered letter, a receipt for the same must be given to the delivery peon.

Registered letters.

XXV. Receipts will not be granted for any letters or papers received at any Post Office for despatch, except in the case of registered letters; and will be granted for parcels only when presented ready written, either in books or on separate slips of paper along with the parcels. Receipts so presented will be duly stamped.

Receipts will not be given for letters, &c.

XXVI. On the arrival of any ship or vessel off any British Indian port, a printed notice, under the signature of the Post Master of the port or station, shall be delivered to the Commander by the first boat despatched to board the vessel, according to the requisition of which, the Commander shall proceed to dispose of such packets as he may have on board, as directed in Section XL. of the Post Office Act, a copy of which Clause shall be communicated to the said Commander.

Notice to arriving vessels for disposal of packets.

XXVII. The Master Attendant of each Presidency port, or such other Officer as may be directed by Government, shall furnish the Post Master with early intimation of the intended departure of all vessels to any part of the world, and the Post Master shall cause a list of the vessels for which packets are open to be published weekly in the official Gazette of his own Presidency.

Master Attendant to notify intended departure for all vessels.

Post Master to publish weekly lists

XXVIII. The Post Master shall also cause to be published weekly, in the official Gazette of the Presidency, a notice of the several dates up to which packets have been despatched by each vessel carrying a mail, that may have left the port.

Post Master to publish weekly notice of packets despatched.

XXIX. All public despatches are to be made up in the most compact form possible, and whenever two or more letters are despatched from any one Office to the same individual, by the same day's post, they are to be put up under one cover, provided they do not, in the aggregate, exceed 12 tolahs weight

Public despatches to be compactly made up.

When bulk of mails exceeds regulated weight how to be disposed of.

XXX. When the number of covers received at any Post Office shall cause the weight of the mail to exceed the regulated weight, the Post Master is authorized to keep back a portion of the heavier public despatches and imported newspapers till the following day, but private letters and public letters marked "Despatch" shall not be kept back.

Expresses.

XXXI. Despatches to be transmitted by Express must bear on the face of them the words "By Express," and the signature in full of the Officer sending them.

Public Officers to employ them sparingly under a penalty.

XXXII. As the employment of Expresses interferes with the celerity and regularity of the ordinary mails, and is attended with expense, public Officers are enjoined to employ them as sparingly as possible, and any public Officer despatching an Express, when the exigency of the Public Service does not, in the opinion of the authority to whom he is subordinate, require it, will be held answerable for the expenses attending that method of transmission. Public Expresses from a Presidency Post Office can only be ordered by a Secretary to Government.

Expresses for private persons.

XXXIII. Expresses may be employed by private individuals at the discretion of the Post Master applied to, on payment being made at the rate of 4 annas per mile in advance.

Commanding Officers may receive letters for their own Regiments.

XXXIV. Letters directed to Native Officers, or men of their Regiments or Detachments, shall be delivered to an Orderly, or any other fit person, who shall be deputed by the Officer Commanding the Regiment or Detachment to receive the same; but letters on which postage may be due shall not be delivered to such person, unless the postage be first paid.

Letters addressed to public Officers on private affairs to be prepaid by stamps.

XXXV. Letters which individuals address on their private affairs to any Government Officer must be sent pre-paid by stamps; and this rule is to be understood to include letters transmitting Bills of Exchange, Promissory Notes, Receipts, Government Securities, &c., to the Accountant General, Government Agent, or any other public Officer. When public Officers write letters on such subjects to individuals, they shall subscribe on the envelopes, with their official signatures, the words "Bearing Postage."

Postage on letters on Public Service to be charged to the Department to which Officers signing them belong.

XXXVI. The postage on letters and parcels sent on the Public Service, by the public Officers mentioned in the subjoined lists, shall be charged to the Departments to which they severally belong; such letters must be addressed according to the subjoined form :—

Offg. Secy. to the Govt. of India.

GENERAL RULES RELATING TO THE RECEIPT, DESPATCH AND DELIVERY OF LETTERS BY DISTRICT POSTS.

Approved of by the Governor General of India in Council on the 12th August 1854.

1. WHEREVER any local establishment may be maintained for the conveyance or delivery of the Police, Revenue or other official communications, it shall also be made use of for the conveyance and delivery of private correspondence, and be designated a District Post.

2. All Office or Road establishments, attached to any District Post, will be under the control and management of the Officer to whom they may be entrusted by the Local Government.

3. Such Police Stations and other Public Offices, as may be selected by the Local Government, shall be constituted District Post Offices, but this shall remain under the management and supervision of the same officials who are at present in charge of them.

4. A Letter Box, with a slit in the top or side, shall be fixed in a conspicuous place outside of every District Post Office. The words "Letter Box," in English and the Vernacular of the district, shall be painted on each box in legible characters.

5. All letters (except those to be specially registered,) intended for despatch from any District Post Office, must be dropped into the Letter Box. No receipt will be given. Every letter posted at a District Post Office must have its proper postage stamp affixed to it.

6. Any person wishing to post a registered letter at any District Post Office can do so on payment of a registry fee of four annas, in addition to the ordinary postage chargeable on the letter, according to its weight. A receipt in the proper form must, in all cases, be given to the poster of a registered letter, whether it be demanded or not. One anna of the registration fee will be allowed to the person registering the letter, the remaining three annas must be sent with the letter by the same day's despatch to the nearest Post Office.

7. Every District Post Office will be supplied by the Post Office Department with registered letter covers, forms of receipt and of register, and with the rules relating to registered letters.

8. Except when it may be opened for the purpose of taking out the letters preparatory to their despatch, the Letter Box shall remain locked, the key being in custody of the person in charge of the Office.

9. Fifteen minutes before the hour at which the despatches of the Office are usually made up, the Letter Box will be opened and the letters in it taken out. Those addressed to places to which there is a direct communication through the District Post will be separated from all other letters, sorted and packed in covers addressed to the Officer in charge of the District Post Office from which they will be delivered. The remaining letters will be made up into one packet and addressed to the nearest Post Office with which he has a communication.

10. A Chulan or Letter Bill in the Vernacular (Form 1) will be sent with every packet despatched from a District Office to a Post Office. The Deputy Post Master or person in charge of the Post Office will, after satisfying himself that the contents of the packet agree with the Chulan, copy the entries into his register, sign, and by the next day's despatch return the Chulan. The receipted Chulans will be filed and form the only record in any District Post Office of the despatches made from it.

11. All Chulans are to be numbered consecutively in a series, commencing on the 1st of May; and if any District Post Office is in the habit of sending packets to more than one Post Office, the Chulans sent to each Post Office will be numbered in a separate series.

12. All letters sent from one District Post Office to another will be accompanied by a Chulan (Form 2), which will be receipted and returned to the Despatching Office, to be filed as a record.

13. All letters received at any Post Office, to the address of persons resident in the same district, but beyond the limits of any ordinary post delivery, will, if the Post Office be at the head-quarters of the district, be sent with a Chulan (Form 1) to the Officer in charge of the District Post, to be by him sorted and forwarded to the District Post Offices of the several sub-divisions in which the residence of the addressees may be situated.

14. Persons in charge of Post Offices in the interior of districts receiving letters for persons residing beyond the limits of their ordinary delivery, but within the sub-division of a District Post Office with which they have direct communication, will send them, if pre-paid, for delivery to that Office, with a Chulan (Form 1.) Letters for persons resident in the district, but within a sub-division with which the Receiving Office has no direct communication, must be sent to the Post Office of the head-quarters of the district. All letters bearing postage for delivery in the interior must be sent to the Post Office at the head-quarters of the district.

15. Officers in charge of District Post Offices will carefully compare with the Chulan the contents of every packet received. If the Chulan is correct, it will be receipted and returned; if not correct, the discrepancies will be noted thereon.

16. A delivery book (Form 3,) showing the names of persons entrusted with the delivery of letters, will be kept in every District Post Office, and be the only record of letters received for delivery.

17. Letters will be delivered by such persons and under such rules as the Local Government may from time to time determine. Every person, through whom any District Post letter may be delivered, is authorized to receive a fee of one pice (a fourth of an anna) for his own use, in addition to any unpaid postage which may be due on it.

18. All postage realized on letters sent from any Post Office for delivery through the District Post will be remitted every Saturday to the Post Office at the head-quarters of the district with the remittance book (Form 4.) The person in charge of the Post Office will give a receipt for the amount in the opposite column and return the book by the first despatch. At the close of the month, a balance will be struck, showing the postage still due to the Post Office on letters which have been received; this balance will be brought forward and a new account commenced on the 1st of the following month.

19. All letters, which from any cause cannot be delivered, will be returned with as little delay as possible to the Post Office from which they were received, and if any unpaid postage be due on them, credit for the amount will be taken in the remittance book. Unpaid letters are never, under any circumstances, to be sent from one District Post Office to another.

20. A monthly memorandum (Form 5,) showing the number of letters received for delivery at each District Post Office, will be prepared by the person in charge and sent on the 2nd of the following month to the Officer in charge of the Post Office at the head-quarters of the district. Persons in charge of Post Offices will prepare similar memoranda and send them to the Post Office at the head-quarters of the district. The Officer in charge will, before the 15th of each month, prepare a general statement showing the number of letters posted at, and delivered through the agency of the District Post Office in the preceding month.

The 17th August 1854.

The Business connected with the Calcutta Post Office having been made over exclusively to the charge of the Deputy Post Master General, the public are requested from this date to address that Officer direct, on all matters connected with that Office.

J. R. Burlton Bennett,
Post-master General of Bengal.

Calcutta, General Post Office,
The 1st July 1854.

No. 2259.

The Deputy Post Master General regrets to inform the public, that from a communication received from the Post Master of Tezpore it appears, that the Calcutta Mails of the 22nd ultimo, for Tezpore, Assam, Seebsaugor and Debrooghur, and also the Mails for those places sent from Gowhatty and Mungledye on the 31st idem, were totally lost, with the Dak Boat, on the night of the latter date, at "Pobamaree Chapree," a little above Mungledye. The accident is attributable to the falling in of the bank, which fell on the boat, and caused the same to sink immediately.

C. K. Dove,
Deputy Post Master General.

Rangoon Post Office Notice.

Letters and Newspapers, which should be addressed to Rangoon only, are frequently directed by mistake to Pegu or Burmah, and letters, &c. intended for delivery in Pegu, Prome, Bassein and other places in the Provinces, are in like manner erroneously addressed to "Rangoon, Burmah." The Rangoon Post Master begs to notify that, with such vague directions, this Department is left to find out to which of the Stations such letters should be forwarded, and from want of information, great disappointment is felt when they are despatched to the wrong Station. To obviate this, it is desirable, that parties posting letters in Calcutta or elsewhere, should be careful to direct them to their respective Stations, and to inform their Agents and Correspondents, when leaving one place for another, of their change of address, to ensure letters being directed to the proper Station. A list of places in the Pegu Provinces or in Burmah, and their distance from Rangoon, is annexed below, viz.:

Donabew,	40	miles
Pegu,	55	„
Sittang,	67	„
Shoaygyeen,	90	„
Bassein,	95	„

Henzada,.....	95	miles.
Tonghoo,.....	130	,,
Monean, ...	120	,,
Thayetmyo,.....	200	,,
Meeaday,.....	205	,,
Nameau,.....	195	,,
Prome, ...	200	,,
Yeagheen, ...	160	,,
Tapoon,.....
Tindan,.....	Below Prome.
Tayngheen, ...
Yandoon, ...

Letters addressed to public functionaries, whose head-quarters or residence is in Rangoon, should be addressed "Rangoon," instead of Pegu or Burmah; but if intended for delivery at other Stations, should be addressed to those Stations, the word Rangoon to be omitted.

Notice to Mariners.

DEVAAR LIGHTHOUSE.

THE COMMISSIONERS of NORTHERN LIGHTHOUSES hereby give Notice, that a LIGHTHOUSE has been built upon the ISLAND of DEVAAR, at the Entrance to the BAY of CAMPBELTOWN, in the County of ARGYLL, the Light of which will be exhibited on the Night of MONDAY 10th July 1854, and every Night thereafter, from the going away of daylight in the evening till the return of daylight in the morning.

The following is a Specification of the Lighthouse, and the Appearance of the Light, by MR. DAVID STEVENSON, Engineer to the Commissioners.

The LIGHTHOUSE is in N. Lat. 55° 25′ 45″, and W. Long. 5° 32′ 16″.

The DEVAAR LIGHT will be known to Mariners as a REVOLVING LIGHT, which shows a bright white Light once every half-minute.

The Light is elevated about 120 feet above the level of high water of ordinary spring tides, and may be seen at the distance of about 15 nautic miles, and at lesser distances, according to the state of the atmosphere: to a nearer observer, in favourable circumstances, the Light will not wholly disappear between the intervals of greatest brightness. The arc, illuminated by this Light, extends from about S. ¼ E. by compass to about W. b. N., and faces Northwards.

And the COMMISSIONERS hereby futher GIVE NOTICE, that Her Majesty, by Order in Council, dated 29th December 1853, was pleased to order and direct that, upon the Erection and Lighting of the said Light upon the Island of Devaar, there should be paid, in respect thereof, for every Vessel belonging to the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland (the same not belonging to Her Majesty or being navigated wholly in ballast) and for every Foreign Vessel, which by any Act of Parliament, Order in Council, Convention or Treaty, shall be privileged to enter the Ports of the United Kingdom, upon paying the same Duties of Tonnage as are paid by British Vessels, the same not being navigated wholly in ballast, which shall pass or derive benefit from the said Light, that is, which shall arrive at or depart from any Port or Place in the Bay or Loch of Campbeltown, if the burthen of the same shall not exceed Fifty Tons, Six-pence, and if the same shall exceed Fifty Tons, for each additional Fifty Tons, or part of Fifty Tons, Six-pence.

And Her Majesty was further pleased to order and direct, by the said Order in Council, that in respect of the said Light on Devaar, and in respect of another light in Loch Ryan, on the South side of the Basin of the Clyde erected by the said Commissioners, there shall be paid by every Vessel before described, and under the exemptions aforesaid, which shall navigate on a distinct voyage within the Great Basin of the Clyde, bounded by a line drawn from the Point of Corsewall to Glenarm in Ireland, on the South-east, and from another line drawn from the Mull of Kintyre to Fairhead, in Ireland, on the North-west, and on all other sides by the coasts of Ireland and Scotland surrounding the said Basin, a similar rate of Toll to that above set forth, being at the rate of Three-pence for each of the said Lights.

Double the said respective Tolls for every Foreign Vessel not privileged as aforesaid.

Provided always, that Vessels arriving at or departing from any port or place within Loch Ryan, or within Campbeltown Loch, and paying the rates for such respective voyages, shall not in addition be liable in payment of the rates for navigating the Basin of the Clyde.

The above rates are, by another Order in Council, declared to be subject to the following abatements on payment:—

Over-sea Vessels, Twenty-five per cent.

Coasting Vessels, Ten per cent.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 23, 1854.

Legislative Council.

12th August 1854.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General of India on the 12th of August 1854, and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. XVII. OF 1854.

An Act for the management of the Post Office, for the regulation of the duties of Postage, and for the punishment of offences against the Post Office.

Repeal of former Acts.

I. Act No. XVII. of 1837, Act No. XX. of 1838, and Act No. XVII. of 1839 are hereby repealed, except so far as they repeal the whole or any part of any other Act or Regulation, and except as to any act or offence which shall have been done or committed, or to any money which shall have become due, or to any fine or penalty which shall have been incurred, or to any proceedings which shall have been commenced, before this Act shall come into operation.

Exclusive privilege of carrying letters vested in the East India Company.

II. Wheresoever, within the territories under the Government of the East India Company, posts or post communications are, or shall be established by the East India Company, the said East India Company shall have the exclusive privilege of conveying by post, from one place to another, all letters other than letters conveyed by Her Majesty's mails, except in the following cases, and shall also have the exclusive privilege of performing all the incidental services of receiving, collecting, sending, dispatching, and delivering all letters, except in the following cases, that is to say :

1. Letters sent by a private friend in his way, journey, or travel, so as such letters be delivered by such friend to the person to whom they shall be directed, without hire, reward, or other profit or advantage, for receiving, carrying, or delivering the same.

2. Letters solely concerning the affairs of the sender or receiver thereof, sent by a messenger on purpose.

3. Letters solely concerning goods or other property sent either by sea or land, to be delivered with the goods or property which such letters concern, without hire, reward, or other profit or advantage, for receiving, carrying, or delivering such letters.

But nothing herein contained shall authorize any person to make a collection of such excepted letters for the purpose of sending them in the manner hereby authorized.

Prohibitions.

III. Wheresoever, within the said territories, posts or post communications are, or shall be established by the East India Company, the following persons are expressly forbidden to collect, carry, or deliver any letter or letters, or to receive any letter for the purpose of carrying or delivering the same, although they shall not receive hire or reward for so doing, that is to say :

1. Common carriers of passengers or goods, and their drivers, servants, or agents ; except letters solely concerning goods in their carriages.

2 Owners and Commanders of ships, steamboats, or other vessels passing on any river or canal, or to or from any port in the territories under the Government of the East India Company, and their servants or agents ; except letters solely concerning goods on board.

IV. Every person who shall convey otherwise than by the post a letter not excepted from the said exclusive privilege shall, for every letter so conveyed, forfeit a sum not exceeding fifty rupees; and every person who shall be in the practice of so conveying letters not so excepted shall, for every week during which the practice shall be continued, forfeit a further sum not exceeding five hundred rupees; and every person who shall perform otherwise than by the post any services incidental to conveying letters from place to place, whether by receiving, taking up, ordering, collecting, carrying, or delivering a letter or letters not excepted from the said exclusive privilege, shall forfeit for every such letter a sum not exceeding fifty rupees; and every person who shall be in the practice of so performing any such incidental services shall, for every week during which the practice shall be continued, forfeit a further sum not exceeding five hundred rupees; and every person who shall send a letter not excepted from the said exclusive privilege otherwise than by the post, or shall either tender or deliver a letter not so excepted in order to be sent otherwise than by the post, shall forfeit for every such letter a sum not exceeding fifty rupees; and every person who shall be in the practice of committing any of the acts last mentioned shall, for every week during which the practice shall be continued, forfeit a further sum not exceeding five hundred rupees; and every person who shall make a collection of excepted letters for the purpose of sending them otherwise than by the post shall forfeit for every such letter a sum not exceeding fifty rupees; and every person who shall be in the practice of making a collection of excepted letters for such purpose shall forfeit, for every week during which the practice shall continue, a further sum not exceeding five hundred rupees. Every person who shall carry, receive, or deliver a letter, or collect letters contrary to the provisions of Section III. of this Act, shall forfeit for every such letter a sum not exceeding fifty rupees; and every person who shall be in the practice of committing any of the acts last mentioned shall, for every week during which the practice shall be continued, forfeit a further sum not exceeding five hundred rupees.

Penalties for breach of privilege.

V. For carrying on the service of the Post Office, it shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council to appoint, or to authorize the local Governments to appoint, such Officer or Officers, with such official styles or designations, and to vest them with, and delegate to them such powers not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, as the said Governor General of India in Council may deem expedient.

Appointment of Officers.

VI. Wheresoever posts or post communications are, or shall be established by the East India Company, postage, if pre-paid by a stamp or stamps, as hereinafter provided, shall be charged by weight on letters transmitted by the letter post by sea or land, or partly by sea and partly by land, according to the following scale:

Postage rates on letters.

On every letter not exceeding a quarter of a tolah in weight, six pies.

On every letter exceeding a quarter of a tolah, and not exceeding half a tolah in weight, one anna.

On every letter exceeding half a tolah, but not exceeding one tolah in weight, two annas.

On every letter exceeding one tolah, and not exceeding one tolah and a half in weight, three annas.

On every letter exceeding one tolah and a half, and not exceeding two tolahs in weight, four annas.

And for every tolah in weight above two tolahs, two additional annas; and every fraction of a tolah above two tolahs shall be charged as one additional tolah.

Every packet or other article transmitted by the letter post shall be deemed a letter within the meaning of this Section, unless it be a packet or other article on which a different rate of postage shall be chargeable under this Act.

The rates of postage specified in this and the following Section may be charged on all letters or other articles which shall pass through any Post Office, provided that such postage shall not be charged on letters or other articles received through Her Majesty's Mails, when such letters or articles are delivered at the place of receipt; nor on any letter or article transmitted by Her Majesty's Mails, when posted at the place of dispatch of such Mails; nor on any newspaper received by sea otherwise than through the East India Company's post and delivered at the place of receipt; nor on any newspaper posted for dispatch by sea otherwise than through the East India Company's post, when posted at the place of dispatch.

VII. Wheresoever posts or post communications are, or shall be established by the East India Company, postage on newspapers, pamphlets, and other printed or engraved papers transmitted by the letter post by sea or land, or partly by sea and partly by land, shall be charged by weight according to the following scale:

Postage rates on newspapers, &c.

1. On every imported newspaper, pamphlet, or other printed or engraved paper—

If the same shall not exceed six tolahs in weight, two annas.

If the same shall exceed six, but shall not exceed twelve tolahs in weight, four annas.

If the same shall exceed twelve tolahs in weight, there shall be charged and taken two additional annas for every six tolahs in weight above twelve tolahs; and every fraction of six tolahs above twelve tolahs shall be charged as six additional tolahs.

2. On every newspaper, pamphlet, or other printed or engraved paper not imported—

If the same shall not exceed three and a half tolahs in weight, two annas.

If the same shall exceed three and a half tolahs, and not exceed six tolahs in weight, four annas.

If the same shall exceed six tolahs in weight, there shall be charged and taken two additional annas for every three tolahs in weight above six tolahs; and every fraction of three tolahs above six tolahs in weight shall be charged as three additional tolahs.

An extra or supplement to any newspaper, bearing the same date as the newspaper and transmitted therewith under the same cover, shall be deemed part of the newspaper.

Nothing contained in this Act shall be construed to oblige any person to send any newspaper, pamphlet, or other printed or engraved paper through the Post Office, but it shall be lawful for all persons to send the same in any other manner.

VIII. A newspaper, pamphlet, or other printed or engraved paper shall not be sent by the letter post at the rates prescribed in the preceding Section, unless the following conditions be observed, that is to say:

Newspapers, &c., how to be sent by post.

1. It shall be without a cover, or in a short cover open at both ends.

2. There shall be no word printed on such newspaper, pamphlet, or other printed or engraved paper after its publication, or upon the cover thereof, nor any writing or mark upon it or upon the cover of it, except the name and address of the person to whom it is sent, and the name and address of the sender.

3. There shall be no paper or thing enclosed in or with any such newspaper, pamphlet, or other printed or engraved paper.

IX. Any newspaper, pamphlet, or other printed or engraved paper sent by the letter post, in respect of which the above conditions shall not be observed, shall, together with any thing enclosed in or with the same, be charged with postage at the rate which would be charged on an unstamped letter of equal weight.

When to be charged with letter postage.

X. Proof sheets marked as such may be sent by the letter post at the rates prescribed for newspapers, provided the contents be correctly certified on the cover by the signature in full of the sender, otherwise the same shall be charged with postage at the rate which would be charged on an unstamped letter of equal weight.

Proof sheets.

XI. Inland banghy postage shall be charged by weight and distance, on parcels sent by the banghy post, according to the following scale:

Inland banghy postage.

For Distances	Miles.	If not exceeding in weight
		20 Tolahs.		100 Tolahs.		200 Tolahs.		300 Tolahs.		400 Tolahs.		500 Tolahs.		600 Tolahs.

Provided that several letters shall not be enclosed in a banghy parcel under a penalty not exceeding fifty rupees, and letter postage shall be chargeable on every letter contained therein.

XII. Books, pamphlets, packets of newspapers, and of printed or engraved papers other than newspapers, provided they do not exceed one hundred and twenty tolahs in weight, and be sent without covers or packed in short covers open at both ends, and provided the postage thereon be pre-paid by means of a proper stamp or stamps to be affixed thereon as hereinafter provided, shall, if sent by the banghy post, or by sea as banghy parcels, or partly by the banghy post and partly by sea, be charged with the following rates of postage, without reference to the distance to which they may be carried:

Books, pamphlets, &c.

If not exceeding twenty tolahs in weight, one anna.

If exceeding twenty tolahs, but not exceeding forty tolahs in weight, two annas.

And for every twenty tolahs in weight above forty tolahs, there shall be charged and taken one additional anna; and every fraction of twenty tolahs above forty tolahs shall be charged as twenty additional tolahs.

If any such book, pamphlet, or packet exceed one hundred and twenty tolahs, or if the postage chargeable thereon be not pre-paid as aforesaid, it shall be subject to the rate of postage prescribed for banghy parcels in the preceding Section of this Act.

XIII. Banghy postage, when chargeable by distance under Section XI., shall be calculated and charged according to a Polymetrical Table of distances, showing, as accurately as practicable, the distance by the nearest road between every two Post Office Stations in India, which Table shall be prepared by order of the Governor General of India in Council and corrected from time to time as need be. Each Post Master General shall prepare from the aforesaid Polymetrical Table, in the English and Vernacular languages, for the use of every Post Office under his control, a list of all the other Post Offices of India, arranged alphabetically and showing the distance of each of them from the Post Office for the use of which it is made; and such list shall be affixed in some conspicuous place in such Post Office.

Table of distances.

XIV. Where there is a banghy post established on any line of road, no letter or other article exceeding twelve tolahs in weight shall be conveyed by the letter post on that line of road, except in such cases, and under such restrictions as the Governor General of India in Council may direct; and every letter or other article not exceeding twelve tolahs in weight shall be conveyed by the letter post, unless expressly directed to be sent by the banghy post.

Limitation of weight of letters where there is a banghy post.

XV. Where there is no banghy post established on any line of road, letters, parcels, and packets exceeding twelve tolahs, and not exceeding forty tolahs in weight, shall be received and transmitted by the letter post. Letters shall be charged according to the scale in Section VI., and newspapers, pamphlets, and other printed or engraved papers according to the scale in Section VII. of this Act, as the case may be;

Where there is no banghy post.

Letters and other articles exceeding twelve tolahs, but not exceeding forty tolahs.

parcels and packets shall be charged with banghy postage according to the scale in Section XI. or Section XII of this Act, as the case may be, if it be certified in writing on such parcel or packet, under the full signature and address of the sender, that it does not contain any letter or other written communication, or any newspaper, pamphlet, or other printed or engraved paper. If any such certificate be false, any such thing contained in such certified letter or other article shall be charged with postage according to the rates specified in Section VI. or Section VII. of this Act as if sent separately, and the sender will be subject to the penalty hereinafter provided.

Certificate.

Parcels exceeding forty tolahs.

Parcels exceeding forty tolahs, and not exceeding six hundred tolahs in weight, shall be transmitted along any such line as banghy parcels; but it shall be in the discretion of the Post Master or Deputy Post Master, to whom such parcels are brought for dispatch, to forward them at such times and in such manner as may be convenient.

XVI. Whenever the Post Master General of any Presidency shall have notified in the official Gazette, that the banghy post is conveyed in the same carriage with the letter post along any line of road, it shall not be lawful to send by the banghy post any letter or written communication of less weight than twelve tolahs, or any packet of newspapers; and every person who shall knowingly send by the banghy post, along any such line of road, any such letter, written communication, or newspaper enclosed in a parcel, shall forfeit for every such offence a sum not exceeding fifty rupees, and postage shall be charged for every such letter, packet, or newspaper, as if sent separately by the letter post.

Where banghy parcels and letter mails are conveyed in the same carriage.

XVII. On all parcels chargeable under Section XI. with banghy postage according to distance when conveyed by land, ship postage shall be charged when they are conveyed by means of the East India Company's post by sea according to the following scale, viz.:

Ship postage on parcels.

On every parcel not exceeding one hundred tolahs in weight, eight annas

And for every hundred tolahs in weight above one hundred tolahs, eight additional annas; and every fraction of one hundred tolahs above one hundred tolahs shall be charged as one hundred additional tolahs; and if such parcel be conveyed by the East India Company's post, partly by banghy and partly by sea, ship postage shall be charged in addition to inland banghy postage.

XVIII. No parcel exceeding six hundred tolahs in weight, or three feet in length, or one foot in breadth, or one foot in depth, or two thousand five hundred and ninety-two cubic inches in bulk, shall be received at any Post Office for dispatch either by ship or steamboat, or by banghy post, except in such cases and under such restrictions as the Governor General of India in Council shall direct. On parcels exceeding six hundred tolahs in weight, when so forwarded, there shall be charged and taken an additional single rate of banghy postage according to distance for every hundred tolahs above six hundred tolahs; and every fraction of one hundred tolahs above six hundred tolahs shall be charged as one hundred additional tolahs.

Limitation of weight and dimensions of parcels.

XIX. Letters and newspapers posted for dispatch, either by Her Majesty's Mails or otherwise to Ceylon, or to any place to which a post communication shall not have been established by the East India Company, upon which the full amount of postage chargeable under this Act has not been pre-paid by a postage stamp or stamps, shall not be dispatched, but shall be dealt with as unclaimed letters are hereinafter directed to be dealt with. No parcel shall be received for dispatch as above to any such place, unless the full amount of postage chargeable thereon shall be pre-paid in money or by a postage stamp or stamps. Provided that nothing in this Section shall be construed to require the pre-payment of British postage on letters, parcels, or other articles, upon which the pre-payment of such postage has been left optional by Her Majesty's Post Master General.

Ship and inland postage on foreign covers must be pre-paid.

XX. Subject to any alteration which may be made by virtue of the power hereinafter vested in the Governor General of India in Council, letters posted for dispatch, either by sea or land, to any place to which a post communication is, or shall be established by the East India Company, upon which the postage chargeable under Section VI. of this Act has not been pre-paid by a postage stamp or stamps, shall be forwarded to their destination, and upon every such letter double postage shall be charged on delivery. Newspapers, pamphlets, and other printed and engraved papers so posted, not pre-paid by a postage stamp or stamps, shall be forwarded to their destination, and the postage chargeable on them shall be levied on delivery: but no money shall be received at any Post Office in pre-payment of postage on any letter, newspaper, pamphlet, or other printed or engraved paper so posted. On parcels so posted, the postage chargeable according to Section XI. or Section XVII. may be pre-paid in money or by a postage stamp or stamps: when not pre-paid, they shall be forwarded to their destination, and the postage thereon shall be levied on delivery.

Postage on letters, &c., not pre-paid.

XXI. It shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council at any time to direct that all or any letters, packets, parcels, or other articles, shall not be forwarded by post, unless the postage thereof shall be pre-paid by means of a proper stamp or stamps; or that on all or any letters, packets, parcels, or other articles on which the postage shall not be pre-paid by a stamp or stamps, or otherwise, as the said Governor General in Council shall direct, there shall be charged such higher rates of postage as from time to time may be deemed expedient, not exceeding double the rates of postage hereinbefore specified.

Governor General in Council may direct pre-payment of postage in all cases.

XXII. If any letter be posted, having affixed thereto a postage stamp or stamps, the value of which shall be less than the rate of postage to which such letter would be liable if duly and properly stamped when posted, there shall be charged on such letter a postage of double the amount of the difference between the value of the stamp affixed thereto and the postage to which such letter would be liable as aforesaid if duly and properly stamped when posted. If any parcel, newspaper, pamphlet, or other printed or engraved paper shall be so posted, having affixed thereto any such stamp or stamps, the value of which shall be less than the rate of postage to which the same would be otherwise liable under this Act, there shall be charged thereon a postage equal to the amount of the difference between the value of the stamp or stamps affixed thereto, and the postage to which such parcel, newspaper, pamphlet, or other printed or engraved paper shall be otherwise liable, as aforesaid.

Letters, &c., with insufficient stamps, how charged.

Re-directed letters.

XXIII. On every letter or packet, which shall be re-directed and forwarded by the letter post, from any place to which it shall have been conveyed by the letter post, there shall be charged for the postage thereof from the place at which the same shall be re-directed, in addition to all other postage paid or due thereon, the rate of postage to which it would be liable, if posted and pre-paid by stamp at the place where it shall be re-directed.

No dangerous substance to be sent by post.

XXIV. No person shall knowingly post, or send, or tender, or deliver in order to be sent by the post, any letter, parcel, or packet containing any explosive or other dangerous material or substance; and any person contravening this prohibition shall forfeit for every such offence a sum not exceeding two hundred rupees.

Governor General of India in Council may alter the rates of postage.

XXV. It shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council at any time to authorize the levy of postage at rates different from those prescribed in this Act, provided there be no increase made thereby in any particular of the rates so prescribed, except as provided in Section XXI. of this Act.

Letters and packets once put into the Post Office.

XXVI. No person having delivered into any Post Office any letter, parcel, or packet shall be entitled to recall the same; but nothing in this Section shall prevent the re-delivery of any such letter, parcel, or packet to the sender thereof, subject to such rules and regulations, if any, as the Governor General of India in Council may direct; but newspapers, pamphlets, or other printed or engraved papers may be so recalled or restored, provided that the person claiming the same shall satisfy the Officer in charge of the Post Office that he was the sender thereof, and provided the amount of postage which would have been due thereon, if the same had been forwarded, be paid.

Steam postage.

XXVII. The postage charged on letters and packets by Her Majesty's Post Master General, under the name of Steamer or British packet postage, or by any other denomination, shall, after the rates of such postage have been published in the official Gazette of any Presidency, be recovered in the same manner as postage chargeable under this Act.

Postage stamps.

XXVIII. All letters and other articles, having a stamp or stamps affixed thereto, (such stamp or stamps in every case being affixed on the outside and being equal in value to the rate or rates of postage to which such letters or other articles are liable under this Act,) shall, provided the stamp or stamps shall not have been used before, be considered as pre-paid.

How to be provided.

XXIX. The Governor General of India in Council shall cause postage stamps to be provided, denoting such values as the said Governor General of India in Council may direct, and shall give such orders, and make such other regulations relative thereto, as may be deemed expedient.

Postage stamps to be under management of any Officer to be appointed.

XXX. Postage stamps provided as aforesaid shall be under the care and management of such Officer or Officers as the Governor General of India in Council shall direct; and all sums of money realized by the sale of postage stamps shall be carried in the public accounts to the credit of the Post Office.

Vendors of postage stamps to be appointed.

XXXI. The Governor General of India in Council may make rules for the appointment and government of vendors of postage stamps, and thereby direct how and under what terms and conditions postage stamps may be supplied to them for sale; and whether any and what security shall be given by such vendors, and whether any and what remuneration or discount shall be allowed to them, and how and in what manner and at what time or times such vendors shall keep and render their accounts and pay over the proceeds of any sales made by them or re-deliver the stamps entrusted to them.

Vendors to be bound by rules.

XXXII. Government vendors of postage stamps shall be bound by such rules, and in case of any wilful breach thereof, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding two hundred rupees, in addition to any other proceedings to which they may be liable.

Penalty of vendor refusing to supply stamps.

XXXIII. Any Government vendor of postage stamps, who shall be convicted of refusing or unnecessarily delaying, without reasonable excuse, to furnish postage stamps to any person desiring to purchase the same, and tendering in lawful currency the full value thereof, (the stamp vendor having in his possession for sale sufficient stamps of the description and value required,) shall be subject to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees.

Penalty of vendor selling stamps for higher price than the value denoted thereby.

XXXIV. Any Government vendor of postage stamps, convicted of taking from a purchaser a higher price than the value denoted on the stamps sold, shall be deemed guilty of extortion, and shall be punished, on conviction, with imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for any term not exceeding six months, or to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees, and shall also be liable to refund to the purchaser the whole amount proved to have been taken in excess, which amount may be recovered by such purchaser before a Magistrate in the same manner as any penalty under this Act.

Penalties for forging stamps, &c.

XXXV. Clause 1. If any person shall forge or counterfeit, or cause or procure to be forged or counterfeited, any die, plate, or other instrument used for the purpose of making postage stamps; or if any person shall forge or imitate, or cause to be forged or imitated, any postage stamp; or if any person shall knowingly, and without lawful excuse (the proof of which excuse shall lie on the person accused,) have in his possession any false, forged or counterfeited die, plate, or other instrument resembling, or intended to resemble, either wholly or in part, any die, plate, or instrument used for the purpose aforesaid; or if any person shall stamp or mark any paper or other substance with any such false, forged, or counterfeit die, plate, or instrument as aforesaid; or if any person shall knowingly use, utter, sell, or expose for sale, or shall knowingly and without lawful excuse (the proof of which excuse shall lie on the person accused) have in his possession any paper or other substance having thereon the impression of any such false, forged, or counterfeit die, plate, or other instrument as aforesaid; or having thereon any counterfeit stamp resembling, or intended to resemble, or to be mistaken for a postage stamp, such person so offending, and every person knowingly aiding, abetting, or assisting such person in committing any such offence, shall be punished with imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding seven years, and shall also be liable to fine.

Forged stamps may be seized.

Clause 2. Any Officer of Police may seize and transmit to the Magistrate any such forged or counterfeit die, plate, or other instrument, or any such forged or counterfeit postage stamp.

And searched for.

Clause 3. Any Officer of Police having power by law to search for stolen property may, subject to the provisions under which he is empowered to make such search, proceed to search houses or other places in which there may be reasonable cause to suspect that there is any such forged or counterfeit article, and shall seize and transmit to the Magistrate any such counterfeit article that may be found therein.

Penalties for evading postage stamp duties.

XXXVI. If any person shall fraudulently remove any postage stamp from any letter or other thing to which such stamp shall have been affixed; or if any person shall knowingly use any such stamp or stamps so fraudulently removed; or if any person shall fraudulently erase or remove, from any such stamp or stamps, any writing or other matter or thing thereon written or impressed, every person so offending shall forfeit a sum not exceeding two hundred rupees for every such offence.

Postage on unpaid letters, &c., to be paid by the receiver.

XXXVII. The person to whom any letter or other article, the postage of which has not been paid, shall be delivered, shall not be bound to pay the postage if he forthwith return the same unopened, but if he open the same, he shall be bound to pay the postage due thereon. If he forthwith return the same unopened, the sender of the letter or packet shall be bound to pay the postage thereof. If any person shall refuse to pay any postage which he is legally bound to pay for any letter or other article; the same may be recovered for the use of the East India Company by any Post Master General, or by any Officer in charge of a Post Office, by order of a Post Master General, in the same manner as a fine may be recovered under this Act; and it shall be lawful for the Officer in charge of any Post Office to withhold from the person so refusing, until such postage be paid, any other letter or packet addressed to that person, not being superscribed as on the public service. Provided always, that if a letter or other article shall appear to the satisfaction of the Post Master of the Office of delivery to have been maliciously sent for the purpose of annoying the person to whom it is addressed, the Post Master of the delivery Office may remit the postage.

Registered letters.

XXXVIII. Any person posting a letter or other article shall be entitled to require that it shall be registered at the receiving Post Office and that a receipt shall be granted for such registered letter or article, and it shall be lawful for the Governor General in Council to direct, that, in addition to any rates of postage payable under this Act, a fee not exceeding four annas shall be charged on any letter or other article which the sender thereof shall require to be so registered, and such registration fee shall be paid on the letter or other article being delivered at the Post Office.

Expresses.

XXXIX. It shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council to fix and order any rate of postage to be charged for the conveyance of letters or other articles by express, in addition to or instead of any other rates of postage chargeable on such letters and articles under this Act.

Commanders of inward bound vessels carrying mails, how to proceed.

XL. When any vessel arrives by sea at any place within the territories under the Government of the East India Company at which there is a Post Office, the Commander of such vessel shall, as speedily as possible, cause every letter and packet on board of such vessel, which is directed to that place, and not excepted from the exclusive privilege of the Post Office, to be delivered either at the Post Office or to some Officer of the Post Office authorized to receive the same; and if there be on board any letter or packet directed to any other place, and not excepted from the exclusive privilege aforesaid, the said Commander shall, as speedily as possible, report the same to the Post Master of the place at which he has arrived, and shall act according to the directions he may receive from such Post Master, and the receipt of such Post Master shall discharge such Commander from all responsibility in respect of such letter or packet. Every Commander of a vessel who shall wilfully disobey any of the directions contained in this Section, shall be punished with a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees.

Penalty.

Detention of letters on board prohibited.

XLI. Every person, being either the Commander of a vessel inward-bound, or any one on board such vessel, who shall, within the said territories, knowingly have in his possession any letter not excepted from the privilege of the Post Office, after any part of the letters on board the said vessel shall have been sent to the Post Office, shall forfeit for every such letter a sum not exceeding fifty rupees, whether the letter be in the baggage or on the person of the offender or otherwise in his custody; and every such person who shall detain any such letter after demand made for the same by an Officer of the Post Office shall forfeit for every such letter a sum not exceeding one hundred rupees.

Bounty money.

XLII. For every letter delivered by the Commander of any ship in conformity with the directions of Section XL. of this Act, the Officer in charge of the Post Office shall pay to the said Commander the sum of one anna; and the sum of one anna shall be chargeable as postage on such letter in addition to any other postage chargeable thereon under this Act. Provided that no payment shall be made to the Commander of any vessel on account of the delivery of any letter, unless the claim of such Commander shall be preferred before the vessel leaves the place at which the letter was delivered, or before the expiration of two months from the date of the arrival of such vessel Provided also, that nothing contained in Sections XL., XLI. and XLII. of this Act shall extend to any letter or packet conveyed by Her Majesty's Mails.

Commanders of outward bound vessels to receive mails on board.

XLIII. The Commander of every vessel leaving any place in the said territories by sea shall receive on board of such vessel every letter and packet which he shall be required so to receive by any Officer of the Post Office, and shall give a receipt for such letter or packet; and every Commander of a vessel who shall wilfully disobey any direction contained in this Section shall be punished with a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees.

Unclaimed letters, &c.

XLIV Clause 1. A list of all letters, packets, and parcels posted and addressed to persons who cannot be found, shall be prepared daily in every Post Office and exposed for not less than two weeks in the most conspicuous part of such Office; and all such letters, packets, and parcels, which shall have remained three weeks unclaimed in any Office, shall, if the sender's name and address are written on the cover, be returned to the Posting Office to be delivered to the sender free of all charge; all letters, packets, and parcels, of which the sender's name and address cannot be ascertained, unless they be opened, shall, after remaining unclaimed for three weeks as above, be forwarded to the Office of the Post Master General of the Presidency.

To be opened, &c.

Clause 2. The Post Master General, or some person duly appointed for the purpose and bound to secrecy, shall immediately open all such letters, packets, or parcels, and if the address of the sender can be discovered, shall enclose them in dead letter covers and return them to the sender. All letters, packets, and parcels, of which neither the person addressed nor the sender can be found, shall, after they have remained unclaimed in the Office of the Post Master General for one year, be destroyed.

Money, &c. found therein.

Clause 3. All money found in any unclaimed letter, packet, or parcel shall be paid into the Public Treasury, and all other valuable property found as above shall be sold by the Post Master General of the Presidency, or by some one duly authorized by him for that purpose, and the proceeds of the sale shall be paid into the Public Treasury for the benefit of any person who may have a right thereto, after deducting all sums due from such person for postage.

Refused letters, &c.

XLV Letters, parcels, or packets rejected unopened by the person to whom they are addressed shall be forthwith sent to the Office of the Post Master General of the Presidency, who shall open the letter, parcel, or packet, and take measures to recover the postage from the sender, or shall at his discretion destroy the letter, parcel, or packet; and all money, or other valuable property, which such letter, parcel, or packet may contain shall be disposed of in the manner prescribed in the preceding Section, with respect to such money or property contained in unclaimed letters.

Franking abolished.

XLVI. On and after the passing of this Act, the privilege of sending and receiving letters and packets by the post, free of postage, whether official or otherwise, shall wholly cease; and all letters and packets, to which any such privilege now extends, shall henceforth be charged with the same rates of postage as any other letters sent by the post. Provided that letters and packets on the public service, certified to be such by the signature of any public officer, authorized in that behalf by the Governor General of India in Council, shall be forwarded by the post as if they were duly stamped, and the postage due thereon shall be charged to the several public departments, from which such letters or packets are sent, in such manner as the said Governor General of India in Council shall direct.

Letters on the public service duly certified as such, how to be charged.

Penalty for false certificate.

XLVII. Every person who shall, for the purpose of defrauding the Post Office Revenue, wilfully certify, by writing, on any official or other letter or packet delivered at any Post Office for conveyance by post, that which is not true in respect of such letter or packet, or in respect of the whole of its contents, or shall knowingly send or deliver, or attempt to send or deliver for conveyance by post, any letter or packet with any such false certificate thereon; and every person who shall knowingly send, or permit to be sent by post, under color or pretence of an official communication, any letter, paper, writing, or other enclosure of a private nature; and every person who shall aid, abet, or conceal any of the offences in this Section above-mentioned, shall, for every such offence, forfeit a sum not exceeding five hundred rupees.

Letters, &c., suspected to contain contraband articles, or writing in contravention of this Act, how to be dealt with.

XLVIII. If any Officer in charge of a Post Office shall suspect that any letter, parcel, or packet, lying for delivery at his Office, contains any contraband article, or any article on which duty is owing to Government, or that any letter, parcel, or packet lying for delivery at the Post Office, contains any writing or enclosure in contravention of the provisions of Sections VIII., XV., XVI., or XLVII. of this Act, it shall be lawful for such Officer to summon the person to whom the letter, parcel, or packet is directed to attend at the Post Office by himself or agent within forty-eight hours after the arrival thereof at that Post Office, and to open the same in the presence of the person to whom it is directed, or of that person's agent, and if that person shall not so attend by himself or agent, then to open it in the absence of that person. Provided that if the Officer in charge be under the rank of a Post Master, he shall call in two respectable persons as witnesses before he shall open a letter, parcel, or packet in the absence of the person to whom it is addressed. Provided also, that in all cases the opened letter, parcel, or packet shall be subsequently delivered to the person to whom it is addressed, unless it be required for ulterior proceedings, and that the opening of the same, and the circumstances connected therewith, shall be immediately reported to the Post Master General. It shall also be lawful for any Officer in charge of a Post Office to refuse to forward any parcel or packet through the Post Office by sea to any foreign port or to any place not on the continent of India, unless such parcel be accompanied by a Custom House Pass.

Government not responsible for loss.

XLIX. The Government shall not be responsible for any loss or damage which may occur in respect of anything entrusted to the Post Office for conveyance, and no person employed by the Government in the Post Office Department shall be responsible for any such loss or damage, unless that person shall cause such loss or damage negligently, maliciously, or fraudulently.

Penalty for secreting, opening, or making away with letters, &c., by persons employed in the Post Office.

L. Whoever being in the employ of the Government in the Post Office Department shall fraudulently secrete, make away with, or appropriate any letter, parcel, or packet which may have been entrusted to him, or anything contained in any such letter, parcel, or packet, or shall mutilate or break open any such letter, parcel, or packet, or any banghy parcel or box, with the intention of fraudulently appropriating anything therein contained, shall be punished with imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding seven years, and shall also be liable to fine.

Penalty for detaining mails.

LI. It shall not be lawful for any person, unless acting by express order of the Government, to detain, except for a criminal offence, a Post Office messenger, whilst carrying the mails, or to detain any carriage or horse upon which the mails are being carried, or on any pretence to open a packet in transit from one Post Office to another; and every person who shall be guilty of any of the above-mentioned offences shall be punished with a fine not exceeding five hundred rupees.

Penalty for retaining letters, &c., delivered by mistake.

LII. Every person who shall fraudulently retain, or wilfully secrete, or make away with, or keep or detain, or, being required to deliver up by an Officer of the Post Office, shall neglect or refuse to deliver up a post letter or other article which ought to have been delivered to any other person, or a post letter bag containing a letter or other article or packet which shall have been sent by the post, shall be punished, on conviction before a Magistrate, with imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding two years, and shall also be liable to fine.

Penalty for neglect on the part of persons employed to carry mails.

LIII. Every person employed to convey or deliver any post-bag, or any letter, parcel, or packet sent by post, who shall be guilty while so employed of any act of drunkenness, carelessness, or other misconduct, whereby the safety of any such bag or letter, parcel or packet shall be endangered; or who shall loiter or make delay in the conveyance or delivery of any such bag, letter, parcel, or packet; or who shall not use proper care and diligence safely to convey or deliver any such bag, letter, parcel, or packet, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees; and any person employed to deliver a letter, parcel, or packet sent by the post, who shall not duly deliver the same, shall, within a reasonable time, not exceeding twenty-four hours, report the fact at the Post Office where he received such letter, parcel, or packet, and return the same; and if any such person shall wilfully make a false report, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees.

Penalty for embezzlement by persons employed in the Post Office.

LIV. Whoever being in the employ of the Government in the Post Office Department, and being entrusted to receive money for postage duty or any other public purpose, shall fraudulently appropriate the same, shall be punished, on conviction before a Magistrate, with imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding two years, and shall also be liable to fine.

Penalty for fraudulently altering marks on letters, &c., by persons employed in the Post Office.

LV. Whoever being in such employ as is described in Section LIV. shall fraudulently put any wrong mark on any letter, parcel, or packet, or shall fraudulently alter, remove, or cause to disappear, any mark or stamp which is on any letter or packet, or shall fraudulently use or place with or upon any letter or packet any stamp which shall have been removed from any other letter or cover, or shall aid, abet, or conceal any of the above-named acts, shall be punished, on conviction before a Magistrate, with imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding two years, and shall also be liable to fine.

Penalty for incorrectly preparing documents, or secreting documents by persons employed in the Post Office

LVI. Whoever being in such employ as is described in Section LIV., and being entrusted with the preparing or keeping of any document, shall, with a fraudulent intention, prepare that document incorrectly, or alter that document, or shall aid, abet, or conceal any of the above-named acts, or secrete or destroy that document, shall be punished, on conviction before a Magistrate, with imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding two years, and shall also be liable to fine.

Penalty for sending letters without charging postage, by persons employed as above

LVII. Whoever being in such employ as is described in Section LIV., shall send by the post, or put into any post bag, any unstamped letter, parcel, or packet, upon which postage has not been paid or charged in the manner prescribed in this Act, intending thereby to defraud the Government of the postage on such letter, parcel, or packet, or shall aid, abet, or conceal any such acts, shall be punished, on conviction before a Magistrate, with imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding two years, and shall also be liable to fine.

Fines how to be recovered.

LVIII. Any person, whether a European British subject or not, who shall be guilty of any offence for which, according to the provisions of this Act, he shall be liable to a fine only, shall be punishable, for such offence, by any Justice of the Peace for any of the Presidency Towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, Magistrate, Joint Magistrate, or person lawfully exercising the powers of Magistrate; and any person hereby made punishable by a Justice of the Peace shall be punishable upon summary conviction.

Conviction to be quashed on merits only. Form of conviction, &c.

LIX. No conviction, order, or judgment of any Justice of the Peace shall be quashed for error of form or procedure, but only on the merits, and it shall not be necessary to state on the face of the conviction, order, or judgment, the evidence on which it proceeds, but the depositions taken, or a copy of them, shall be returned with the conviction, order, or judgment, in obedience to any writ of certiorari, and if no jurisdiction appears on the face of the conviction, order, or judgment, but the depositions taken supply that defect, the conviction, order, or judgment shall be aided by what so appears in such depositions.

Magistrate may refer charge to his Assistant.

LX. A Magistrate may refer for trial and decision any charge of an offence hereby made punishable by fine only to any of his Assistants, or to any Deputy Magistrate lawfully appointed to exercise the powers of a Covenanted Assistant, and in such case every such Assistant or Deputy Magistrate may exercise all the powers vested in a Magistrate, subject to all the rules applicable to criminal cases deputed to such Assistants or Magistrates acting judicially.

Government may authorize Assistants and Deputy Magistrates to exercise certain powers.

LXI. The local Government may give general authority to any such Assistant or Deputy Magistrate to exercise, without reference by a Magistrate, any of the powers which they are here by rendered competent to exercise upon reference by a Magistrate, subject to appeal to the Magistrate from any conviction by such Assistant or Deputy Magistrate, within one month from the date of the conviction. Provided that a Magistrate may at any time call from any of his Assistants, or from any Deputy Magistrate subordinate to him, any case pending before such Assistant or Deputy Magistrate.

Fines how levied.

LXII. All fines imposed under the authority of this Act, for offences punishable by fine only, by any Justice of the Peace, Magistrate, Joint Magistrate, or person lawfully exercising the powers of a Magistrate, or by any Assistant to a Magistrate or Deputy Magistrate, may, in case of non-payment thereof, be levied by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the offender, by warrant under the hand of any of the above-named Officers, and in case any such fine shall not be forthwith paid, any such Officer may order the offender to be apprehended and detained in safe custody until the return can be conveniently made to such warrant of distress, unless such party shall give security to the satisfaction of such Officer for his appearance at such place and time as shall be appointed for the return of the warrant of distress, and such Officer may take such security by way of recognizance or otherwise; and if upon the return of such warrant, it shall appear that no sufficient distress can be had whereon to levy such fine, and the same shall not be forthwith paid, or in case it shall appear to the satisfaction of such Officer by the confession of the party or otherwise, that he has not sufficient goods and chattels whereupon such fine or sum of money could be levied if a warrant of distress were issued, any such Officer, by warrant under his hand, may commit the offender to prison, there to be imprisoned only, or to be imprisoned and kept to hard labor, according to the discretion of such Officer, for any term not exceeding two calendar months, where the amount of the fine shall not exceed fifty rupees, and for any term not exceeding four calendar months where the amount shall not exceed one hundred rupees, and for any term not exceeding six calendar months in any other case; the commitment to be determinable in each of the cases aforesaid on payment of the amount.

Imprisonment if no sufficient distress, &c.

Moiety of fines to Informer.

LXIII. A share not exceeding one moiety of every fine imposed and recovered under this Act may be awarded to the informer.

No proceedings to be taken without an order.

LXIV. No proceedings shall be taken for the recovery of any such fine without an order of Government, or an order in writing of the Director General of the Post Office, or of a Post Master General.

Servants of East India Company committing offences in Foreign States in alliance.

LXV. If any servant of the East India Company, who shall be employed by the said Company in the Post Office Department, or shall be appointed a vendor of postage stamps, or entrusted by the said Company or any of the said local Governments with the sale of postage stamps within the dominions of any Foreign Prince or State in alliance with the said Company, in which a post shall be established by the said Company, shall, within the dominions of such Prince or State, commit any act hereby prohibited, or omit to do any act hereby required to be done, by any person similarly employed, appointed, or entrusted as aforesaid within the territories under the Government of the said Company, such servant of the said Company shall be guilty of an offence, and, on conviction thereof, shall be punished in the same manner as if such act had been done or omitted within the said last-mentioned territories, and every such person may be tried, convicted, and punished, either by fine or otherwise, according to the nature of the offence, by any Court or Officer duly empowered by the Governor General of India in Council to take cognizance of offences committed in such dominions by servants of the East India Company, or by any Court or Magistrate, or other competent Officer, in any part of the territories within the Government of the East India Company, in the same manner as if the offence had been committed in such part of the said territories.

Interpretation.

LXVI. The word "Magistrate" in this Act shall include Joint Magistrates and persons lawfully exercising the powers of Magistrates, and the word "fine" shall include a penalty or forfeiture, or a sum of money due upon a forfeited recognizance.

Governor General in Council may frame rules.

LXVII. It shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council to frame rules for the conduct of the Post Office not inconsistent with this Act, and therein to prescribe the regulations, conditions, and restrictions according to which all letters and other articles shall be posted, forwarded, conveyed, and delivered.

Books, &c., sent by post to or from the United Kingdom.

LXVIII. Unless the Governor General of India in Council shall otherwise order, nothing in this Act shall authorize the charge of postage upon printed books, magazines, reviews, or pamphlets (whether British, Colonial, or Foreign) sent through the post from the United Kingdom to any place to which there shall be a post established by the East India Company, or from such place to the United Kingdon, provided the British postage chargeable thereon be pre-paid.

LXIX. It shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council, by an order in Council, to direct that postage shall not be chargeable under this Act on any letters or other articles to be specified in such order sent through the post from any part of the British Dominions to any place to which there shall be a post established by the East India Company, or from such place to any part of the British Dominions, subject to such conditions, as to the pre-payment of British postage or otherwise, as the Governor General of India in Council may think fit.

Governor General in Council may exempt from postage letters sent to or from the United Kingdom.

LXX. It shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council to frame Rules for the management of all or any Zemindaree, Thannah, or other District dawks, and to declare, from time to time, what portions of this Act shall be applicable to such dawks and to persons employed in connexion therewith.

District dawks.

LXXI. This Act shall commence and take effect from and after the first day of October, 1854.

Commencement of Act.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

12th August, 1854.

THE following Act, passed by the Legislative Council, received the assent of the Most Noble the Governor General of India, on the 12th of August 1854, and is hereby promulgated for general information :—

ACT No. XVIII. OF 1854.

An Act relating to Railways in India.

WHEREAS it is expedient, that all Railways, which have been, or shall be opened by any Railway Company, under the superintendence and control of the East India Company, for the public conveyance of passengers or goods in any part of the territories in the possession and under the Government of the said Company, should be subject to the same regulations; It is enacted as follows :—

Preamble.

I. No person shall enter any carriage used on any such Railway, for the purpose of travelling therein, without having first paid his fare, and obtained a ticket. Every person desirous of travelling on such Railway shall, upon payment of his fare, be furnished with a ticket, specifying the class of carriage and the distance for which the fare has been paid, and shall, when required, show his ticket to any servant of the said Company, duly authorized to examine the same, and shall deliver up such ticket upon demand, to any of the Company's servants duly authorized to collect tickets. Any person, not producing or delivering up his ticket, as aforesaid, shall be liable to pay the fare from the place whence the train originally started, unless he can prove, that he has travelled a less distance only, in which case he shall be liable to pay the fare only from the place whence he has travelled.

Fares to be pre-paid.

Passenger tickets to be given up on demand.

Penalty.

II. At the intermediate Stations, the fares shall be deemed to be accepted, and the tickets furnished only upon condition that there be room in the train for which the tickets shall be furnished. In case there shall not be room for all the passengers to whom tickets shall have been furnished, those who shall have obtained tickets for the longest distance shall have the preference; and those who shall have obtained tickets for the same distance shall have the preference, according to the order in which they shall have received their tickets. Provided, that all Officers and troops of Her Majesty, or of the East India Company, on duty, and all other persons on the business of the East India Company, who, by virtue of any contract with the East India Company, shall be entitled to be conveyed on such Railway in preference to, or in priority over the public, shall be entitled to such preference and priority without reference to the distance for which, or the order in which they shall have received their tickets.

At intermediate Stations, fares and tickets to be conditional.

Proviso.

III. Any person who shall defraud or attempt to defraud any such Railway Company, by travelling, or attempting to travel upon such Railway, without having previously paid his fare; or by riding in or upon a carriage of a higher class than that for which he shall have paid his fare; or by continuing his journey in or upon any of the carriages of the Company beyond the place for which he shall have paid his fare, without previously paying the fare for the additional distance, and with intent to avoid payment thereof; or who shall knowingly and wilfully refuse or neglect, on arriving at the point to which he shall have paid his fare, to quit such carriage; or who shall, in any other manner whatever, attempt to evade the payment of his fare, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees for each offence.

Penalty for fraud.

IV. Any passenger, who shall get into or upon, or attempt to get into or upon, or shall quit or attempt to quit any carriage upon any such Railway, while such carriage is in motion; or who shall ride or attempt to ride upon any such Railway, on the steps, or any other part of a carriage, except on those parts which are intended for the accommodation of passengers; shall be liable to a fine, not exceeding twenty rupees for each offence.

Fine for entering carriage in motion.

Or riding on the steps.

V. Any person other than the engine-man and fire-man, and assistant fire-man, if any, who, without the special licence of the Superintendent of locomotives, shall ride or attempt to ride upon any locomotive engine or tender upon any such Railway; and any person other than the guard or breaksmen, who, without such licence as aforesaid, shall ride, or attempt to ride upon such Railway, in or upon any luggage-van or goods-waggon, or other vehicle not appropriated to the carriage of passengers, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty rupees for each offence.

Fine for riding on engine, tender or luggage-van.

VI. If any person shall smoke, either on the premises, or in or upon any of the carriages belonging to any such Railway Company, except in places or carriages which may be specially provided for the purpose, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty rupees for each offence; and if any person persist in infringing this regulation after being warned to desist by any of the servants of the Company, such person, in addition to incurring the liability above-mentioned, may be removed by any of the servants of the Company from any such carriage, and from the premises of the Company, and shall forfeit his fare.

Smoking prohibited.

Penalty for intoxication or nuisance.

VII. Any person who shall be in a state of intoxication, or shall commit any nuisance or act of indecency in any Railway carriage, or upon any part of the premises of any such Railway Company; or who shall wilfully and without lawful excuse interfere with the comfort of any passenger on such Railway, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty rupees; and in addition to such liability the offender may be removed by any of the servants of the Company from any such carriage, and also from the premises of the Company, and shall forfeit his fare.

Penalty for entering private room or carriage.

VIII. If any special carriage, or portion of a carriage, or any private room or apartment, shall be provided by any such Railway Company for the exclusive use of females, any male person who without lawful excuse shall enter such carriage, or portion of a carriage, or any such room or apartment, knowing the same to be exclusively appropriated as aforesaid, or shall remain therein after having been informed of its exclusive appropriation, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees, and may be removed therefrom, and also from the premises of the Company by any of the servants of the Company, and shall forfeit his fare.

No liability for Passengers' luggage.

IX. No such Railway Company shall in any case be answerable for loss or injury to any passengers' luggage, unless it shall have been booked and separately paid for.

No liability for loss of gold, silver, &c., unless in case of special engagement.

X. No such Railway Company shall in any case be answerable for loss of, or injury to any gold or silver, coined or uncoined, manufactured or unmanufactured, or any precious stones, jewellery, watches, clocks or time-pieces of any description, trinkets, Government securities, bills of exchange, promissory notes, Bank-notes, orders or other securities for payment of money, Government stamped paper, postage stamps, maps, writings, title-deeds, paintings, engravings, pictures, plated articles, glass, china, silks in a manufactured or unmanufactured state, and whether wrought up or not wrought up with other materials, shawls, lace, or any of them contained in any parcel or package which shall have been delivered to such Railway Company, either to be carried for hire or to accompany the person of any passenger, unless the value and nature of such articles shall have been declared by the person or persons sending or delivering the same and an increased charge for the safe conveyance of the same shall have been accepted by some person specially authorized to enter into such engagements on behalf of the said Railway Company.

Public notice or private Contract not to limit liability.

XI. The liability of such Railway Company for loss or injury to any articles or goods to be carried by them other than those specially provided for by this Act, shall not be deemed or construed to be limited or in any wise affected by any public notice given, or any private contract made by them; but such Railway Company shall be answerable for such loss or injury when it shall have been caused by gross negligence or misconduct on the part of their agents or servants.

Remedy for non-payment of the carriage of goods.

XII. If any person sall fail to pay on demand any sum due to any such Railway Company for the conveyance of any goods, it shall be lawful for the Company to detain all or any part of such goods, or, if the same shall have been removed from the premises of the Company, any other goods of such person which shall then be on their premises, or shall thereafter come into their possession; and also to sell by public auction sufficient of such goods, to realize the sum payable as aforesaid and all charges and expenses of such detention and sale, and out of the proceeds of the sale to retain the sum so payable together with the charges and expenses aforesaid, rendering the overplus, if any, of the money arising by such sale, and such of the goods as shall remain unsold, to the person entitled thereto; or the Company may recover any such sum by action at law.

Written account of goods to be given on demand.

XIII. The owner or person having the care of any goods which shall have been carried upon any such Railway, or shall be brought on to the premises of any such Railway Company for the purpose of being carried on their Railway, shall, on demand by any servant of the Company appointed to receive goods to be carried on that part of the Railway on which such goods shall have been carried, or shall be about to be carried, deliver to such servant an exact account in writing signed by him of the number or quantity and description of such goods.

Penalty for false account.

XIV. If any such owner or person as aforesaid, shall wilfully fail to give such account to such servant of the Company; or if he shall wilfully give a false account thereof, he shall, for every such offence, be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees for every ton of goods, or for any parcel exceeding one hundred weight; and to a fine not exceeding twenty rupees for any quantity of goods less than a ton or for any parcel less than one hundred weight.

Carriage of goods of a dangerous nature.

XV. No person shall carry upon any such Railway any dangerous goods; or be entitled to require any such Railway Company to carry upon such Railway, any luggage or goods which, in the judgment of the Company or any of their servants, shall be of a dangerous nature; and if any person shall carry upon such Railway any dangerous goods, or shall deliver to such Railway Company any such goods for the purpose of being carried upon such Railway, without distinctly marking their nature on the outside of the package containing the same, or otherwise giving notice in writing of the nature thereof to the bookkeeper or other servant of the Company to whom the same shall be delivered for the purpose of being so carried, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred rupees for every such offence; and it shall be lawful for any such Company or any of their servants to refuse to carry any luggage or parcel that they may suspect to contain goods of a dangerous nature, and to require the same to be opened to ascertain the fact previously to carrying the same; and in case any such luggage or parcel shall be received by the Company for the purpose of being carried on the Railway, it shall be lawful for the Company or any of their servants to stop the transit thereof, until they shall be satisfied as to the nature of the contents of the baggage or parcel.

Penalty for obstructing servant in his duty.

XVI. Any person who shall wilfully obstruct or impede any officer or servant of the Company in the discharge of his duty on such Railway, or any of the works, stations or premises connected therewith, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees.

Penalty for trespass.

XVII. Any person who shall trespass upon any such Railway, or upon any of the lands, stations, or other premises belonging to the Company, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty rupees; and if any such person shall refuse to leave such Railway or premises on being requested to do so by any officer or servant of the Company, or by any other person on behalf of the Company, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees, and may be immediately removed from such Railway or premises by such officer, servant, or other person as aforesaid.

Penalty for driving an animal upon or across Railway.

XVIII. Any person who shall wilfully ride, lead, or drive upon or across any such Railway, any animal, except in directly crossing the said Railway at any road or place appointed for that purpose, at a time at which he shall be lawfully authorized so to do, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees for each offence.

Precaution if Railway crosses road

XIX. If the Railway cross any public carriage road on a level, the Railway Company shall erect, and at all times maintain good and efficient gates, either across the Railway, or across the road on each side of the Railway where the same shall communicate with the road, and shall employ proper persons to open and shut such gates; if such gates be across the road they shall be kept constantly closed, except during the time when horses, cattle, carts, or carriages, passing along the same, shall have to cross the Railway, and the gates shall be of such dimensions and so constructed as when closed to fence in the Railway, and prevent cattle or horses passing along the road from entering upon the Railway. If the gates be across the Railway, they shall be kept closed except when engines or carriages passing along the Railway shall have occasion to cross the road, and shall be of such dimensions and so constructed as when open to fence in the Railway, and prevent cattle, carriages, or passengers from entering upon the Railway:

Proviso.

provided that it shall be lawful for the local Government in any case to order that the gates shall be across the road or across the Railway as the Government may think fit, and in such case the gates shall be erected, maintained, and closed accordingly.

Penalty

If any Railway Company shall wilfully fail to comply with the provision of this Section they shall forfeit a sum not exceeding two hundred rupees for each offence, and any Magistrate or Justice of the Peace may, in case any such gates be not erected or maintained, order the Company to erect and maintain the same within a time to be specified in the order, and in case of wilful failure on the part of the Railway Company to comply with such order, they shall be liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred rupees for every day that they shall wilfully fail so to do.

Railway to be fenced. Penalty for not fencing

XX. Every such Railway Company shall be bound to erect and maintain good and sufficient fences on each side of their Railway; or, failing therein, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees for every offence; and it shall be lawful for a Magistrate or Justice of the Peace to order the Company to erect or repair any such fence within a time to be specified in the order, and upon failure of the Company to comply with such order they shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees for every day that they fail so to do.

Liability of owner of animal trespassing

XXI. The owner of any animal which shall trespass or stray upon any such Railway, or upon any lands belonging to such Railway Company, except for want of the erection or maintenance of any fence or gate which the Company is bound to erect and maintain, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten rupees for each animal; and it shall be lawful for the Company, or any of their servants, to take or drive every animal which shall be found so trespassing to the nearest Police Station, there to be detained until the highest amount of fine incurred by such trespass and the expense of feeding and keeping the animal be paid, or until a Magistrate shall otherwise order. A Magistrate may, upon proof of the trespass, cause such animal to be sold by public auction, and the proceeds of the sale, after deducting therefrom such fine or such a sum, not exceeding ten rupees for each animal, as the Magistrate shall award to be paid in lieu of the fine to which the owner is hereby made liable, and such further sum as the Magistrate shall order to be paid for the expenses of detaining, feeding, and selling such animal, shall be returned to the owner of the animal on demand.

Penalty for injury to carriage, &c.

XXII. Any person who shall unlawfully and wilfully remove or deface the number plates, or remove or extinguish any lamp on any carriage belonging to any such Railway Company; or shall wilfully or negligently damage or injure any carriage, engine, waggon, truck, warehouse, building, machine, fence, or any other matter or thing belonging to such Railway Company, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees.

Penalty for opening or not properly shutting gates

XXIII. If any person for whose use or accommodation any gate shall have been set up by any such Railway Company on either side of such Railway, or any other person, shall open such gate; or pass, or attempt to pass, or drive, or attempt to drive any carriage, cattle, or other animal or thing across the said Railway at a time when any engine or train approaching along the same shall be in sight; or shall at any time omit to shut and fasten such gate, as soon as he and any carriage, cattle or other animal or thing under his charge, shall have passed through the same, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees.

Offender may be apprehended.

XXIV. If any person shall commit any offence hereby made punishable by fine, and the name and address of such person shall be unknown, or there be reason to believe that the offender will abscond, any officer or servant of the Company, or any police officer, or other person whom such officer or servant may call to his aid, may, without any warrant or written authority, lawfully apprehend and detain such offender until he can be taken before a Magistrate or other officer having jurisdiction over the offence, or shall give sufficient security for his appearance before such Magistrate or other officer, or shall be otherwise discharged by due course of law.

Penalty for wilful act or omission endangering a passenger.

XXV. Whoever shall wilfully do any act, or shall wilfully omit to do what he is legally bound to do, intending by such act or omission to cause, or knowing that he is thereby likely to cause the safety of any person travelling or being upon any such Railway to be endangered, shall be liable to be transported beyond sea for the term of his life, or to be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding seven years.

Penalty for wilful act or omission in a Railway officer.

XXVI. If any officer or servant of such Railway Company shall wilfully do any act which he is legally prohibited from doing; or shall wilfully or negligently omit to do what he is legally bound to do, and if, in consequence of such act or omission, the safety of any person travelling or being upon such Railway shall be endangered, such officer or servant shall be liable to be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for any term not exceeding three years, or to fine, or to both.

Penalty for drunkenness or breach of duty by Railway officer.

XXVII. Any officer or servant of such Railway Company who shall be in a state of intoxication, whilst actually employed upon the Railway, or any of the works connected therewith, in the discharge of any duty, and any officer or servant of such Company who negligently shall omit to perform his duty, or shall perform the same in an improper manner, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees; and if the duty in any of the cases in this Section above-mentioned be such, that the omission or negligent performance thereof would be likely to endanger the safety of any person travelling or being upon such Railway, such officer or servant shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, be liable to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding one year, or to fine, or to both.

Penalty for an act not wilful.

XXVIII. If any person shall rashly or negligently and without lawful excuse do any act which shall be likely to endanger the safety of any person travelling or being upon such Railway, he shall, upon conviction before a Magistrate, be liable to imprisonment, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding one year, or to fine, or to both.

Rule of Construction of this Act.

XXIX. In the construction of this Act, every officer and servant of such Railway Company, shall be deemed to be legally bound to do every thing necessary for, or conducive to the safety of the public which he shall be required to do by any Regulation which shall be made by the Company, and allowed by the Governor General of India in Council, and of which Regulation such officer or servant shall have notice; and every such officer and servant shall be deemed to be legally prohibited from doing every act which shall be likely to cause danger, and which by any such Regulation he shall be prohibited from doing; and every person employed by or on behalf of such Railway Company to do any act upon the Railway, shall be deemed to be a servant of the Company.

Jurisdiction of Magistrate, &c., to fine.

XXX. Any person, whether a European British subject or not, who shall be guilty of any offence, for which, according to the provisions of this Act, he shall be liable to a fine only, shall be punishable for such offence by any Justice of the Peace for any of the Presidency Towns of Calcutta Madras and Bombay, Magistrate, Joint Magistrate, or person lawfully exercising the powers of a Magistrate, whether the offence shall have been committed within the local limits of the jurisdiction of such officer or not, and any person hereby made punishable by a Justice of the Peace, shall be punishable upon summary conviction.

Conviction to be quashed on merits only—form of conviction, &c.

XXXI. No conviction, order, or judgment of any Justice of the Peace, shall be quashed for error of form or procedure, but only on the merits; and it shall not be necessary to state on the face of the conviction, order, or judgment, the evidence on which it proceeds; but the depositions taken; or a copy of them, shall be returned with the conviction, order, or judgment, in obedience to any writ of certiorari, and if no jurisdiction appears on the face of the conviction, order, or judgment, but the depositions taken supply that defect, the conviction, order, or judgment shall be aided by what so appears in such depositions.

Magistrate may refer case to his Assistant or Deputy.

XXXII. A Magistrate may refer for trial and decision any charge of an offence hereby made punishable by fine only to any of his Assistants, or to any Deputy Magistrate lawfully appointed to exercise the powers of a covenanted assistant, and in such case every such Assistant or Deputy Magistrate may exercise all the powers vested in a Magistrate, subject to all the rules applicable to criminal cases deputed to such Assistants or Deputy Magistrate, acting judicially.

Local Government may authorize Assistant, &c.

XXXIII. The local Government may give general authority to any such Assistant or Deputy Magistrate to exercise, without reference by a Magistrate, any of the powers which they are hereby rendered competent to exercise upon reference by a Magistrate, subject to appeal to the Magistrate from any conviction by such Assistant or Deputy Magistrate, within one month from the date of conviction. Provided that a Magistrate may at any time call from any of his Assistants, or from any Deputy Magistrate subordinate to him, any case pending before such assistant or Deputy Magistrate.

Proviso.

Fines how to be recovered.

XXXIV. All fines imposed under the authority of this Act for offences punishable by fine only by any Justice of the Peace, Magistrate, Joint Magistrate, or person lawfully exercising the powers of a Magistrate, or by any Assistant to a Magistrate, or Deputy Magistrate, may, in case of non-payment thereof, be levied by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the offender, by warrant under the hand of any of the above-named officers; and in case any such fine shall not be forthwith paid, any such officer may order the offender to be apprehended and detained in safe custody until the return can be conveniently made to such warrant of distress, unless the offender shall give security to the satisfaction of such officer for his appearance at such place and time as shall be appointed for the return of the warrant of distress, and such officer may take such security by way of recognizance or otherwise; and if upon the return of such warrant it shall appear that no sufficient distress can be had whereon to levy such fine, and the same shall not be forthwith paid, or in case it shall appear to the satisfaction of such officer, by the confession of the offender or otherwise, that he has not sufficient goods and chattels whereupon such fine or sum of money could be levied if a warrant of distress were issued, any such officer may, by warrant under his hand, commit the offender to prison, there to be imprisoned only, or to be imprisoned and kept to hard labor, according to the discretion of such officer, for any term not exceeding two calendar months when the amount of the fine shall not exceed fifty rupees, and for any term not exceeding four calendar months when the amount shall not exceed one hundred rupees, and for any term not exceeding six calendar months in any other case, the commitment to be determinable in each of the cases aforesaid on payment of the amount.

Jurisdiction in Madras and Bombay Presidencies.

XXXV. The heads of district police and ameens of police in the Presidency of Madras, and district or joint police officers in the Presidency of Bombay, may punish, to the extent of the powers conferred upon them respectively in petty offences, any offence hereby made punishable by fine not exceeding twenty rupees.

Enforcing payment of fare by passenger not producing ticket.

Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

12th August 1854.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 12th of August 1854.

A Bill for the amendment of Procedure in cases of regular appeal to the Sudder Court in the Presidency of Fort St. George.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is desirable to simplify and shorten the procedure in regular appeals to the Court of Sudder Udalut in the said Presidency, it is enacted as follows:—

I. Clause 1st. In modification of Clause fifth, Section X., Regulation V. of 1802, every petition of regular appeal in a cause appealable to the Sudder Court, shall be presented to the Court in which the decision was passed within six weeks from the day of the decision. Such petitions of appeal shall, except in cases of petitions under Section XII. of this Act, contain only notice that the party, being dissatisfied with the decision, is desirous of appealing from it.

Petition of regular appeal, when and to what Court to be presented, and what to contain.

Clause 2nd. The Sudder Court may extend the time for presenting such petition of appeal to the lower Court, upon being satisfied that there is sufficient cause for such extension of time. The application for such extension of time may be made directly to the Sudder Court, or through the intervention of the lower Court, at the option of the applicant.

Time for presenting petition of appeal may be extended. To what Court and how application to be made.

II. On presentation of a petition of regular appeal to the Court in which the decision was passed, notice thereof to the respondent, as well as a proclamation to the same effect, shall immediately issue from that Court, and a copy of the proclamation shall be forthwith fixed up in some conspicuous part of the Court House of the said Court. If the notice cannot be personally served, the proclamation shall at once be fixed upon the door of the respondent's dwelling house, or in some conspicuous place in the village or place where he usually resides; or in cases in which the respondent shall not have a fixed residence within the jurisdiction of the Company's Courts, the proclamation may be fixed upon the door of his house of business or cutcherry, or the notice may be served on his known local agent. In case the proclamation cannot be fixed, or the notice served in the manner abovementioned, the proclamation shall be fixed up in such other place, if any, as the said last mentioned Court shall direct. The Nazir shall make a return to the Court stating when and where, the notice and proclamation have been served or fixed up. The return of the Nazir shall be filed in Court, and shall form part of the record of the case, and such return shall be published by fixing up the same in some conspicuous part of the Court House of the lower Court.

Notice to be given to respondent—and proclamation to issue.

III. Clause 1st. The rule in Section XI., Regulation V. of 1802, which directs copies of all original papers transmitted to the Sudder Court with the record of an appealed case to be made out and deposited in the Court, in lieu of the originals, is hereby modified, and it shall be necessary to copy, authenticate, and deposit only the exhibits in the case, and also any other papers of importance, including the pleadings, or any parts of them, which either of the parties shall require to be copied, authenticated, and deposited in the lower Court, previously to their being transmitted to the Sudder Court.

Of what original papers copies are to be deposited.

Clause 2nd. If either of the parties require any papers to be copied, authenticated and deposited, such party shall, either by himself, or his pleader, or authorized agent, give notice in writing thereof to the lower Court, before the expiration of fourteen days from the time of the publication of the return of the Nazir, as aforesaid: such notice shall specify the papers which the party requires to be copied, authenticated, and deposited.

Party requiring any paper to be copied, to give notice thereof.

Clause 3rd. Either party may by himself, or his pleader or authorized agent, before the presentation of an appeal, give notice in writing to the lower Court specifying any papers or documents which he requires to be copied, authenticated, and deposited, in the event of an appeal being prepared.

Party may require papers to be copied in anticipation of appeal.

IV. The petition of appeal together with the record of the lower Court, shall be certified to the Sudder Court as soon as conveniently may be, after the presentation of the petition of appeal, provided that the same shall not be certified within the time allowed to the parties for specifying the papers which they desire to be copied, authenticated, and deposited.

Petition and record when to be certified to the Sudder Court.

Proviso.

V. On arrival of the appeal record at the Sudder Court, notice shall be affixed in the Court House of the said Court, requiring the appellant to file, within six weeks from the date thereof, his grounds of objection to the decision of the Court below. Within the said space of six weeks the appellant shall file in the said Sudder Court his grounds of objection to the decision.

Notice to appellant to file objections.

VI. Clause 1st. On the filing of the grounds of objection by the appellant, notice shall be affixed in the Court House of the Sudder Court requiring the respondent to file his grounds of objection, if any, to appeal, or to the decision of the lower Court, within four weeks from the date of such notice.

Notice to respondent to file objection.

Clause 2nd. Within the said space of four weeks, the respondent shall file any grounds of objection which he has to the appeal, or which relate to such parts of the decision as are involved in the appeal.

When respondent to file objections.

Clause 3rd. If the respondent shall desire to object to any part of the decision of the lower Court not involved in the appeal, he may present a separate petition of appeal to the Sudder Court within the said space of four weeks, or within such further time as the said Sudder Court shall allow for that purpose.

In what case respondent may file a separate petition of appeal.

Clause 4th. The respondent shall, in such case, file with his petition of appeal, his grounds of objection to that part of the decision to which his appeal relates, otherwise his appeal shall not be received.

Ground of objection to be filed therewith.

VII. Clause 1st. At the expiration of the time allowed to the respondent for filing his grounds of objection, and for filing a separate petition of appeal in the Sudder Court, the record shall be deemed complete, and the case ready to be called up for decision, on any day which the Sudder Court may notify, unless the respondent, within such time, file a separate petition of appeal in the Sudder Court.

Record when to be deemed complete.

Clause 2nd. If the respondent file a separate petition of appeal in the Sudder Court, notice shall be fixed up in the Court House of the Sudder Court, to the effect that

Notice of separate petition of appeal to be given.

the respondent has filed such separate appeal; and the notice shall require the appellant to file any grounds of objection which he may have thereto, within the space of four weeks from the date of the notice.

Appellant to file objections.

Clause 3*rd.* Within such space of four weeks, the appellant may file any grounds of objection which he has to such appeal, or which relate to that part of the decision which is involved in the respondent's appeal. At the expiration of the time allowed for filing such grounds of objection by the appellant, the record shall be deemed complete, and the case ready to be called up for decision on any day which the Sudder Court shall notify for that purpose.

Record when to be deemed complete.

Clause 4*th.* If the appeal of either party, be dismissed, or withdrawn, the appeal of the other may be heard alone; otherwise the two appeals, and the proceedings thereon, shall form one record, unless the Sudder Court shall otherwise order.

Hearing of appeals.

VIII. The respondent shall not be allowed to present a separate petition of appeal in the Sudder Court, if he shall previously have presented a petition of appeal to the lower Court.

In what case respondent not to present a separate petition of appeal.

IX. Clause 1*st.* All grounds of objection which shall be filed by either the appellant or the respondent, shall be stated distinctly and concisely, without any argument or narrative of facts; and shall be numbered consecutively, and, except in the cases hereinafter mentioned, shall be on paper bearing the stamp duty prescribed by Section XIX Regulation XIII. of 1816.

Objections to be distinctly stated, and to be numbered, also to be written on stamped paper.

Exception.

Clause 2*nd.* The Sudder Court may extend the time for filing grounds of objection, either by an appellant or respondent, upon special application for that purpose, and upon sufficient reasons being shown, to the satisfaction of the said Court, for such extension of time. In such case, the objections may be filed within such extended time.

Sudder Court may extend the time for filing objections.

X. Either party may, by leave of the Sudder Court or any Judge thereof, at any time before the hearing, amend his grounds of objection, or add grounds of objection to those filed, upon such terms and conditions, and within such time as the said Court or Judge may order. The said Court may also, upon the hearing of any appeal, allow either party to amend his grounds of objection, or to add further grounds, or to urge, and be heard by himself or his pleader, in support of any objection not included in his grounds of objection, upon such terms and conditions, as to postponement of the cause, and as to the payment of costs or otherwise, as the Court shall think just, to prevent the opposite party or his pleader from being taken by surprise, or otherwise. Without such leave of the Court, neither party shall be allowed to urge or to be heard in support of any objection not included in his grounds of objection filed. But the Court shall not be confined to such grounds of objection on deciding the cause.

By leave of the Sudder Court ground of objection may be amended or added. The parties, but not the Court, to be confined to the objections stated.

XI. Clause 1*st.* The Sudder Court may call up for hearing and decision on any day the Court shall notify, and without regard to the place in which the case stands in the general list of appeals, any grounds of objection filed by the respondent, or the appellant, to the appeal of the opposite party; and the Sudder Court may hear and decide upon such grounds of objection, before calling the case up for decision, upon the grounds of objection to the decision of the lower Court.

Sudder Court may fix a day to hear and determine objections to the appeal before the regular time for hearing the appeal.

Clause 2*nd.* If the grounds of objection filed by the appellant, and respondent, shall be upon point of law only, and shall not raise any question of fact, the Sudder Court may order the case to be called up for hearing and decision, on any day which the said Court shall notify, without regard to the place in which it stands in the general list of appeals pending in the said Court.

Appeal involving objections of law only may be called on for decision at any fixed time.

Clause 3*rd.* If the grounds of objection filed shall raise questions of law and fact, and it shall appear to the Sudder Court, that the decision of the law may render it unnecessary to determine any question of fact so raised, the Court may order the case to be called up for decision upon the law alone, in the first instance, in the manner pointed out in the last preceding Section, and if the decision of the case upon the law, shall render it unnecessary to determine any question of fact, the said Court shall pass a final decision in the case; otherwise the Court shall determine the law only, and the case shall be afterwards set down in the list of regular appeals for hearing upon the question or questions of fact, and shall be determined in the same manner as any other regular appeal.

Appeal involving objections of law and fact how to be heard.

XII. If any party to a regular suit be desirous of being admitted to appeal in forma pauperis to the Sudder Court, the following procedure shall be adopted:

Appeal in formâ pauperis.

Clause 1*st.* The appellant shall present his petition to the lower Court according to the rules prescribed by Section I. of this Act, provided that a petition to appeal in forma pauperis against any decision passed before this Act shall come into operation, may be presented within three months from the day of the decision.

Petition when to be presented.

Proviso.

Clause 2*nd.* Petitions of appeal by parties desirous to appeal in forma pauperis, shall contain a statement to that effect, and also a Schedule of the whole real and personal property belonging to the petitioner, and the estimated value of such property, and shall be written on paper bearing the stamp duty of two rupees per sheet.

Form of Petition.

Clause 3*rd.* Upon the presentation of such petition, the notice to the respondent, and the proclamation, shall state that the appellant desires to appeal in forma pauperis.

Notice thereof and proclamation.

Clause 4th. On arrival of the appeal record at the Sudder Court, the same procedure shall be adopted in that Court as in other cases of regular appeal, except, that after the filing of the grounds of objection by the appellant, and before notice shall be given requiring the respondent to file his grounds of objection, the Sudder Court shall determine, according to the rules now applicable to the determination of such cases, whether or not, the appellant shall be allowed to appeal in forma pauperis.

Procedure on such appeal. When Sudder Court is to determine whether appeal shall be in forma pauperis.

Clause 5th. the Sudder Court allow the petitioner to appeal in forma pauperis notice shall be given to the respondent to file his grounds of objection in the manner provided by Section VI. of this Act, and the same procedure shall be adopted subsequently thereto, as in other cases of regular appeal under this Act, The rules and conditions now applicable to persons admitted by the Sudder Court to appeal in forma pauperis, shall continue in force ; except where the same are inconsistent with any of the provisions of this Act.

Notice to respondent to file objections to pauper appeals.

Rules of Sudder as to pauper appeals to continue in force.

Clause 6th. If the Sudder Court refuse to allow the petitioner to appeal in forma pauperis, the said Court may make an order to the effect, that the appellant, upon filing a petition of appeal in that Court upon paper bearing the stamp duty prescribed by Section XIII., and Clause 2, Section XXIII., Regulation XIII. of 1816 may proceed with the appeal, according to the rules prescribed by this Act in the case of persons not appealing as paupers.

What order may be made upon refusal to allow appeal in forma pauperis.

Clause 7th. Upon such order being made, the appellant shall file his petition, and re-file his objections upon paper stamped with the stamp duty, required by Clause 5th of this Section, within two weeks from the date of such order, or within such further time, as the said Court may allow for that purpose ; otherwise the appeal shall stand dismissed.

Appellant how to proceed upon such order.

Clause 8th. Upon the refiling of the grounds of objection according to the provisions of the last preceding Clause, notice of the order and of the re-filing of such objections shall be given to the respondent in the manner prescribed by Section VI of this Act, and the respondent shall be required to file his grounds of objection, if any, according to the provisions of that Section. The procedure subsequent to such notice, shall be according to the general provisions of this Act

Notice of order to be given to respondent. Subsequent procedure thereon.

Clause 9th. If an appellant shall petition to appeal in formâ pauperis, his grounds of objection may be written on plain paper.

In pauper appeals appellant's objections may be on unstamped paper.

XIII. If an appellant shall be admitted to appeal or a respondent to defend in formâ pauperis, all grounds of objection subsequently filed by either party may be written on plain paper.

All subsequent objections may be on unstamped paper

XIV. No decision shall be reversed or altered, nor shall any case be remanded upon appeal to the Sudder Court, on account of any error, defect, or irregularity not productive of injury to either party, nor opposed to any express enactment contained in the general Regulations or Acts of Government.

No decision to be reversed by reason of error not productive of injury, &c.

XV. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to regular appeals preferred from decrees passed before the passing of this Act, which appeals shall be subject to all the forms and rules in force previous to the passing of this Act.

Act not to be retrospective.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

12th August 1854.

The following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 12th of August 1854.

A Bill to amend the Law of Evidence in the Civil Courts of the East India Company in the Madras Presidency.

WHEREAS the law of evidence administered by the Civil Courts of the Presidency of Fort St. George in Madras, and the rules for the attendance and examination of witnesses and the production of documents in Courts, require amendment, It is enacted as follows :—

Preamble.

I. Section VII. Regulation III. of 1802, Section XX. Regulation IV. of 1802, Clauses 1st and 2nd, Section XXIX. Regulation VI of 1816, and Section XIV. Regulation VIII. of 1816 of the Madras Code, so far as they are inconsistent with the provisions of this Act ; and Section XXII. Regulation VII. of 1809, are hereby repealed.

Repeal of former Regulations.

II. In any regular or summary suit, appeal, or proceeding in any of the Civil Courts of the East India Company, and also in any summary suit or other proceeding of a civil nature before any Court, Officer, or other person having by law or by consent of parties authority to examine witnesses, any party to such suit, appeal, or proceeding, shall be competent and entitled to give evidence as a witness either on his own behalf or on behalf of any other party to the suit, appeal, or proceeding in the same manner as if he were not a party to the same Provided that no party to a suit, appeal, or proceeding, who shall offer himself as a witness therein, shall, without the consent of all parties thereto, be examined otherwise than in open Court, in such manner as the Court may direct having regard to the usages and customs of the country, unless such examination shall be taken under, and subject to the Rules prescribed by Section XXXII or XXXVIII. of this Act.

Parties to suits competent as witnesses.

Proviso.

III. No person shall, by reason of any interest in the result of any suit or of any interest connected therewith, or by reason of relationship to any of the parties thereto, be incompetent to give evidence in any such suit.

Abolishes incompetency on ground of interest or relationship.

Husband or wife when a competent witness for or against the other.

IV. A husband or wife shall be competent to give evidence for or against the other provided that the examination shall take place in open Court in such manner as the Court may direct having regard to the usages and customs of the country, or that it be taken and read, and subject to the Rules proscribed in Section XXXII. or XXXVIII. of this Act; provided also that any communication made by husband or wife to the other during their marriage shall be deemed a privileged communication, and shall not be disclosed without the consent of the person making the same, unless such communication shall relate to a matter in dispute in a suit pending between such husband and wife.

Proviso.

Party to suit compellable to give evidence and produce documents.

V. Any party to a suit may be compelled to give evidence as a witness therein and also to produce any document in his possession or power, in the same manner, by the same process, and subject to the same Rules, as if he were not a party to the suit, except so far as is otherwise provided by this Act. Provided that no Court need to compel the attendance of any party to such suit, for the purpose of giving evidence therein, if such party shall satisfy the Court that he has no personal knowledge of any material subject of inquiry in the suit, and that he cannot give any material evidence therein. Nothing in this Clause shall exempt any party to a suit from being summoned to produce a document.

Proviso.

Court to appoint a day for the hearing.

VI. After the parties in a suit, in which according to the practice of the Court a day is fixed for the hearing, shall have filed their exhibits and lists of witnesses, the Court shall, by an order in writing, appoint a day, not less than fifteen days after the date thereof, for the examination of witnesses and the hearing of the suit.

What the list of witnesses shall include.

VII. The list of witnesses required to be furnished in any suit shall include the names of all the witnesses, whether the parties to the suit or not, whom the party filing the list may intend to call as witnesses, or whom he may require to be summoned to give evidence or produce any document, also a list of the documents which he may require to be produced.

Special application to compel attendance of party to a suit as a witness.

VIII. If any party to a suit shall require the attendance of any other party thereto as a witness to be enforced, he shall by himself or his pleader make a special application to the Court for an order for a summons to compel the attendance of the party, and shall show to the satisfaction of the Court sufficient grounds in support of such application, otherwise a summons shall not be issued. In cases in which, according to the practice of the Court, a day is fixed for the hearing, the application shall be made before such day shall be fixed.

Court may cause notice to be given to a party to show cause why he should not attend.

IX. The Court, upon the application of the pleader of any party to a suit whose attendance as witness is required, or without such application, if the Court think fit so to do, may, before making such order, cause notice to be given to the party or his pleader fixing a day for such party to show cause why he should not attend and give evidence, and may also, from time to time if necessary, for good and sufficient cause, enlarge the time for such purpose.

Written declaration of party receivable.

X. Clause 1.—In support of the cause shown, the Court shall receive a declaration in writing of the party, if signed by him, and delivered into the Court by himself or his pleader.

Penalty for false statement.

Clause 2. If the party making such declaration shall wilfully and corruptly make any false statement therein, he shall be liable to the punishment provided for the offence of making a false allegation in a petition to a Judicial Court, by Section II. Regulation I. of 1832.

Summons to issue if no sufficient cause shown.

XI. If no sufficient cause be shown on the day fixed or upon any subsequent day to which the Court shall enlarge the time for that purpose, the Court shall cause a summons to be issued for compelling the party to attend and give evidence.

Summons to produce material document may be issued.

XII. The Court, on the requisition of any party to a suit, or his pleader, may cause a summons to be issued to every person who shall be required to produce any material document Previously to the issuing of any summons for the attendance of any person to give evidence or produce a document, the party requiring the same shall pay into Court such sum as shall appear to the Court to be reasonable, to defray the travelling and other expenses of such person in passing to and from the Court in which he may be required to attend and give evidence, and for one day's attendance thereat. In fixing the sum to be paid into Court, regard shall be had to the rules, if any, established by the Court or Board, if any, to which such Court shall be subordinate. The sum so paid into Court shall be tendered to the witness at the time of serving the summons if it can be served personally In addition to the sum so paid into Court, the Court before whom any person who may attend in pursuance of a summons or proclamation to give evidence or produce any document, may order such further sum to be paid to the person so attending by the person causing the summons or proclamation to be issued, as may appear to be necessary to defray his travelling and other expenses, and also the expenses of his detention under the summons or proclamation, and in case of default in payment, may order such sum to be levied by attachment and sale of the goods of the person ordered to pay the same, and the witness shall be bound to give evidence or produce any document until such sum shall be paid.

Expenses of witness to be fixed and paid into Court before summons, and tendered to witness at time of service.

Court may direct a further payment.

Form of summons.

XIII. Every summons for the attendance of a witness to give evidence, or to produce a document, shall require the intended witness to attend at a time and place to be named in the summons, and shall also state whether the attendance of the witness is required for the purpose of giving evidence, or producing a document, or for both purposes. If a witness, whether a party to the suit or not, is required to attend, and to produce before the Court any document alleged by the party summoning him to be in his possession or power, a direction to attend the Court with such document shall be inserted in the summons, and the document which the witness may be so called upon to produce shall be described in the summons with convenient certainty.

How service of summons to be made.

XIV. Every such summons shall, if possible, be served personally upon the person thereby required to attend, by showing the original to such person, and at the same time delivering or tendering to him a copy thereof.

Time of service of summons.

XV Such service must be made a sufficient time before the time specified therein for his attendance, to allow the witness a reasonable time for preparation, and for travelling to the place at which his attendance is required.

Person summoned to produce a document may depute another to do so.

XVI. Any person, whether a party to the suit or not, may be summoned to produce a document without being summoned to give evidence, and any person summoned merely to produce a document shall be deemed to have complied with the summons if he cause such document to be produced, instead of attending personally to produce the same.

Person summoned as a witness bound to attend.

XVII. Any person who shall be summoned to appear and give evidence shall be bound to attend at the time and place named for that purpose.

Person summoned to produce a document need not be sworn.

XVIII. Any person attending to produce a document may be called upon to produce the same without being sworn or examined as a witness.

In what case a witness is bound to produce his title-deeds.

XIX. A witness, not a party to the suit or proceeding in which he is summoned, shall not be bound to produce his own title-deeds, unless he shall have agreed in writing with the party requiring the production thereof, or with some person through whom he claims to produce such deeds.

Witness or party not bound to produce a State paper, &c.

XX A witness, whether a party or not, shall not be bound to produce any document relating to affairs of State, the production of which would be contrary to good policy, nor any document held by him for any other person who would not be bound to produce it if in his own possession.

Party not bound to produce irrelevant document, or correspondence with his legal advisers, unless he offers himself as a witness.

XXI. A witness, being a party to the suit, shall not be bound to produce any document in his possession or power which is not relevant or material to the case of the party requiring its production, nor any writing or correspondence which may have passed between him and any legal professional adviser. If any party, however, offer himself as a witness, he shall be bound to produce any such writing or correspondence in his custody, possession, or power, if relevant or material to the case of the party requiring its production.

Court may call for and inspect, and may also examine witnesses to ascertain the admissibility of a document; if deemed inadmissible, reason must be recorded.

XXII. Every witness summoned to produce a document shall, if the same be in his custody, possession, or power, be bound to produce it, or cause it to be produced to the Court, although there be a valid objection to the right of the party calling for it to compel its production, or to the reading or putting it in as evidence, or to the disclosure of the contents thereof, the validity of any such objection made by the person producing the document shall be determined by the Court; and for the better determination thereof, it shall be lawful for the Court to receive any admissible evidence which the person producing the document may give respecting it; and it shall also be lawful for the Court to inspect the document, and if necessary to call to its assistance any person whom it may appoint to interpret the same. Such person, however, shall be previously sworn truly to interpret the same to the Court alone, and not to disclose the contents thereof except to the Court, unless the Court shall order the document to be given in evidence. If the Court shall be of opinion that such document shall not be produced, the Court shall not disclose the contents thereof to the parties, or take any note, or make any mention of the contents or effect thereof in its judgment or proceedings, but shall return the document at once to the party producing the same, having previously marked the same for the purpose of identification, and shall record in its proceedings that a document, identifying it by the mark put upon it, was called for by the person, naming him who shall call for its production, that the person having the possession of the document, naming him, objected to its production; and the reasons, if any, for such objection, together with the reasons of the Court for refusing to compel its production. If the Court shall refuse to enforce the production of a document, or to receive the same in evidence, the Court of appeal may, upon a regular appeal, compel the production of such document, and if such Court shall think that the production of the same ought to have been enforced, or that it ought to have been received in evidence, may themselves enforce its production, and receive it in evidence, and decide the case upon such document coupled with the other evidence given in the suit.

On appeal production may be enforced.

Legal adviser not to disclose professional communication to client.

XXIII. A barrister, attorney, or vakeel, shall not, without the consent of his client, disclose any communication made by the client to him in the course of his professional employment, nor any advice given by him professionally to his client, nor the contents of any document of his client, the knowledge of which he shall have acquired in the course of his professional employment. The privilege, however, is that of the client, and if any party to a suit shall give evidence therein at his own instance, he shall be deemed thereby to have waived his privilege, and to have consented to the disclosure by such barrister, attorney, or vakeel, of any such matter as aforesaid, which may be relevant, and which the barrister, attorney, or vakeel would have been bound to disclose, but for the privilege of his client, and the barrister, attorney, or vakeel shall be bound upon examination to disclose any such matter.

What shall be deemed a waiver by client of this privilege.

XXIV. If any witness, whether a party to a suit or not, to whom any summons to give evidence or produce a document shall have been personally delivered, shall, without lawful excuse, fail to comply with such summons as required by this Act; or attending, or being present in Court, shall, without lawful excuse, refuse to give evidence, or to subscribe his deposition, or to produce any document in his custody or possession, named in such summons as aforesaid, upon being required by the Court so to do, the Court shall have full power and authority to issue an order in writing to the nazir to apprehend and bring the witness before the Court; or, if he be already before the Court, to take him into custody. And such Court may impose on such witness a fine not exceeding five hundred rupees for his default or refusal, realizable by attachment and sale of his property, and may commit him to close custody until he shall consent to give his evidence, or to sign his deposition, or to produce the document; and any such fine as aforesaid shall be levied and recovered by attachment and sale of the property of such person. Provided that no fine imposed under the provisions of this Section shall exceed the amount of the property in dispute in the suit. If any such person shall abscond, or keep out of the way, so that he cannot be seized or brought before the Court, his property shall be liable to attachment and sale in the same manner as is provided by Section XXVII. of this Act, with respect to a witness on whom the service of a summons cannot be effected. If such person shall be a party to the suit, the Court, instead of proceeding in the manner above pointed out, may, if the witness be a plaintiff, appellant, or petitioner, dismiss the complaint, appeal or petition, with costs against such party; or if such party be a defendant or respondent, may hear and decide the case against such defendant or respondent ex-parte. If any such complaint, appeal, or petition shall be dismissed for such cause, the complainant or petitioner shall be debarred from preferring any other petition, appeal, or complaint in respect of the same matter.

Penalty for non-compliance with summons.

Proviso.

XXV. Any person present in Court, whether a party or not, may be called upon and compelled by the Court to give evidence, and produce any document then and there in his actual possession or in his power, in the same manner and subject to the same rules as if he had been summoned to attend and give evidence, or to produce such document, and may be punished in like manner for any refusal to obey the order of the Court.

Person present may be compelled by Court to give evidence, &c., without summons.

XXVI. Any person, whether a party to the suit or not, to whom a summons to attend and give evidence, or produce a document, shall be personally delivered, and who shall, without lawful excuse, neglect or refuse to obey such summons, or who shall be proved to have absconded, or kept out of the way to avoid being served with such summons; and any person who, being in Court, and upon being required by the Court to give evidence, or produce a document in his possession, shall, without lawful excuse, refuse to give evidence, or sign his deposition, or to produce a document in his possession, shall, in addition to any proceedings under this Act, be liable to the party at whose request the summons shall have been issued, or at whose instance he shall be required to give evidence or produce the document, for all damages which he may sustain in consequence of such neglect or refusal, or of such absconding or keeping out of the way as aforesaid, to be recovered in civil action.

Person not obeying summons, &c., liable for damages in a civil action.

XXVII. If a person, whether a party to a suit or not, for whose attendance either to give evidence or produce a document a summons shall be issued, cannot, after diligent search, to be certified by a return of the nazir, be found, the Court upon proof that the evidence of such witness, or the production of the document is material, and that the witness absconds, or keeps out of the way to avoid being served with a summons, and that he could not, after diligent search, be found or served with the summons, may cause a proclamation requiring the attendance of such person to give evidence, or produce the document at a time and place to be named therein, to be affixed in the presence, and with the attestation of two respectable householders in some conspicuous place, upon or near to his house or place of abode, and if such person shall not attend at the time and place to be named in such proclamation, and it be proved to the satisfaction of the Court that the witness cannot be found, his property, real and personal, to such amount as the Court shall deem reasonable, (but subject to the same limitation as to the articles exempt from attachment as in case of attachment for arrears of rent,) shall be liable, under an order of the Court, to attachment and sale. Provided always, that when the order for attachment and sale shall have been issued by any Court subordinate to the Court of Sudder Dewanny Adawlut, a summary appeal shall lie within one month from the date of the order of the subordinate Court to the Court to which its orders are generally appealable; and that the Rules for the time being in force in regard to sales made in execution of decrees, as to the mode and period of attachment and the place or manner of sale, and as to claims of third parties to property attached and notified for sale, shall be held applicable to such sales.

After proclamation the property of a witness may be attached and sold.

Proviso.

XXVIII. Clause 1.—The cost of the attachment shall be borne in the first instance by the party applying for it, and the Court issuing the summons and attachment shall not proceed to sale of the property, but shall order the same to be released from attachment if the witness shall appear and satisfy the Court that he did not abscond, or keep out of the way to avoid service of a summons, and that he had not notice of the proclamation in time to attend at the time and place named therein. Upon the appearance of such witness the Court shall make such order in regard to the costs of the attachment as it shall deem fit. If the witness appearing shall fail to satisfy the Court that he did not abscond, or keep out of the way to avoid service of a summons, and that he had not such notice of the proclamation as aforesaid, it shall be in the discretion of the Court to order the property attached or any part thereof to be forfeited and sold for the purpose of satisfying all costs incurred in consequence of such defaulter absconding, or keeping out of the way, and such fine, not exceeding the amount in dispute in the suit, as the Court may deem fit to impose upon the witness, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, and the condition in life of the witness, or the Court may order the property to be released from attachment upon payment of such costs and fine as aforesaid.

Costs of attachment and proceedings thereon.

Clause 2.—An order made in pursuance of this Section shall be subject to appeal in the same manner and within the same period, as an appeal against an order for attachment and sale under the last preceding Section of this Act.

Appeal from order for attachment.

XXIX. All orders as to fines, or the levying thereof, or as to imprisonment under this Act, shall be subject to a similar appeal within one month from the date of the order.

Appeal from orders as to fines, &c.

XXX. It shall not be necessary to postpone the hearing or decision of a case for the non-production of a document, or for the evidence of a witness who may neglect or refuse to attend, or who shall abscond or keep out of the way, or who cannot be served with a summons, beyond such period as shall appear proper to the Court, having regard to all the circumstances of the case; provided that when a summons shall have been issued for the attendance of a plaintiff or appellant in a suit to give evidence, or produce a document, the Court shall, at the request of the defendant or respondent, unless there be good reason to the contrary, postpone the hearing or decision until the plaintiff or appellant can be personally summoned, or shall attend and give evidence, or produce the document required; and that where a summons shall have been issued for the attendance of a defendant or respondent to give evidence or produce a document, the hearing or decision shall, upon the application of the plaintiff or appellant, be postponed in like manner, unless there be good reason to the contrary, until the defendant or respondent can be personally summoned, or shall attend and give evidence, or produce the document required.

Postponing case on account of non-attendance of witness, &c.

Proviso.

XXXI. On the day appointed for the hearing, the evidence of the attending witnesses shall be taken orally in open Court, in the presence and hearing, and under the personal direction and superintendence of the Judge. The evidence of each witness given upon such examination shall be taken down in writing, by or in the presence, and under the superintendence of the Judge, not ordinarily by question and answer, but in the form of a narrative, and when completed shall be read over to the witness, and signed by him in the presence of the Judge and of the parties to the suit or their vakeels, or such of them as may think fit to attend. In case the witness shall refuse to sign the deposition, the Judge shall sign the same, and record the reason, if any, given by the witness for such refusal, together with such remarks thereon as the Judge shall think fit to make. It shall be in the discretion of the Judge to take down, or cause to be taken down, any particular question and answer if there shall appear any special reason for doing so, or any party or his vakeel, shall require it. If any question put to a witness be objected to by either of the parties, or their vakeels, and the Court shall allow the same to be put, the question and answer shall be taken down, and the objection, and the name of the party making it, shall be noticed in taking down the depositions, together with the decision of the Court upon the objection. The Judge shall also record such remarks as he may think material respecting the demeanour of any witness whilst under examination.

Oral evidence how to be taken.

XXXII. In cases where the evidence is needed of females, who, according to the custom of the country, ought not to be compelled to appear as witnesses in a Court of Justice, and in which the Court shall be of opinion that the ends of justice require and justify it, such Court may issue a commission to any Officer of the Court or other person, to be named in such commission, for the examination of such females in the hearing of the parties to the suit or their vakeels, in such manner as the Court may direct, having regard to the custom and usage of the country, and with liberty to the parties or their vakeels, to cross-examine, anything in Section V., Act VII. 1841, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Evidence of purdah women.

XXXIII. On or before the day appointed for trial, the Court may, for any sufficient reason, such as the unavoidable absence of any material witness, or for other good cause, on the application of either party, postpone the hearing to another day, to be named, on such terms as to the payment to the opposite party of his costs occasioned by the postponement, and otherwise as to the Court shall seem reasonable. In such case notice in writing shall be given to each of the witnesses to attend and give evidence, or to produce a document on the substituted day, instead of the day mentioned in their summonses, if there be time to do so and the judge shall so order. The notice shall be served in the same manner as a summons. The service of such notice shall have the same effect as if the substituted day had been originally named in such summons as the day for the appearance in Court to give evidence or produce a document, and all the provisions in this Act relating to summonses to give evidence or produce documents, shall extend to such notices in the same manner as if such notices had been expressly mentioned in such provisions. If the application be too late to serve such notices, the Court may order that the examination of any witness who may be present, or shall attend in pursuance of a summons shall be proceeded with, and that the further hearing of the case, after the examination of such witness, shall alone be postponed.

On or before the day fixed for trial the hearing may be postponed. Notice thereof to be given to witnesses—In certain cases witnesses actually attending may be examined.

XXXIV. Unless the hearing be postponed in manner aforesaid, it shall commence on the day appointed, or as soon afterwards as the business which may be pending before the Court and may be entitled to priority, will allow, and the recording of evidence on the trial of any suit when begun under the rules above enacted, shall unless there be good and sufficient reason to the Trial how to proceed.

contrary, (which reason shall be recorded) continue on the same day, or on consecutive business days, until the whole of the evidence of the witnesses present shall be heard. The parties or such of them as desire it shall then be heard either by themselves or their pleaders orally on the merits of the case as regards the issues both of fact and law, and after considering the arguments and evidence, the Judge shall record his judgment under Act XII. of 1843.

Court may, after hearing the evidence, of its own accord call for further evidence before hearing the pleaders or recording judgment.

XXXV. If the Court, after the evidence of all the witnesses shall have been heard, and before hearing the pleaders or recording the judgment, shall think it necessary for the ends of justice to inspect any document or to examine any party to the suit, or any other person whose evidence may appear to be material, the Court, of its own accord, may cause such party or person to be summoned to attend as a witness, to give evidence, or to produce such document, if in his possession, on a day to be appointed, and may examine such party or person as a witness in open Court, or in such other manner as the Court may direct, upon any question which the party or witness may be bound to answer and the Court may think necessary, and may also compel the production of any document mentioned in such summons, which any such person may have in his possession or power, and be bound to produce. Any witness so called shall be subject to the cross-examination of either party, or his vakeel. If such person, whether a party or not, shall be a female who, according to the custom of the country, ought not to be compelled to appear as a witness in a Court of Justice, the Court may order such person to be examined in the manner provided by Section XXXII. of this Act, upon such questions as it may direct. The Commissioner or other person authorized to take the examination in such case, may put such further questions as in his judgment may be necessary, or may arise out of the answers to be given to the questions directed by the Court.

Court may require witnesses to remain out of Court.

XXXVI. The Judge may cause public notice to be given in Court, either before or during the examination of any witness, requiring all or any other witnesses, whether parties or not, who have been summoned or inserted in the list of witnesses in the same cause, to leave and to remain out of Court until further order. Any witness in a cause who, without lawful excuse, shall wilfully remain in or come into Court, contrary to such notice, shall be punishable in the same manner as for a contempt of Court in open Court. Whenever such notice shall be given, the consequence of disobedience thereto shall be publicly explained at the time of giving the notice.

Penalty for disobedience.

By what rules a party is to be examined and how punishable for false evidence.

XXXVII. Any party to a suit, appeal, or proceeding who may be examined as a witness therein, shall, except as otherwise provided by this Act, be examined according to the rules for the time being in force as to the examination of witnesses not being parties to the suit, and shall be punishable for any false evidence given by him, in the same manner as if he were not a party.

Interpretation of word "witness" in Act. VII. 1841.

XXXVIII. The words "witness" and "witnesses" in Act VII. 1841, shall respectively include any party or parties to a suit, and the said Act shall be read as if the words "or party" "or parties" had been used in such Act, in conjunction with the words "witness" or "witnesses" respectively.

Proviso.

Provided that the deposition of a party taken under the provisions of this Section, at the instance of any opposite party, may be read in evidence by, or on behalf of such last-mentioned party, without the proof required by Section V. of the said Act. Provided also that no deposition of any party taken under the provisions of this Section shall be read or used in evidence unless taken and read at the instance of some opposite party, or unless it shall be proved that the deponent is unable, from sickness or infirmity, to attend to be personally examined, or is, without collusion, or any reference to the suit, at so great a distance from the Court, that in the judgment of the Court it would be unreasonable to require his personal attendance in Court for the purpose of giving such evidence, in which last-mentioned case it shall be discretionary with the Court, having regard to the nature of the case and of the evidence given, either to allow or to refuse such deposition to be read.

No appeal from Judge's order as to summons, &c.

XXXIX. No appeal shall lie from any order or decision of a Judge with respect to summoning or examining any party to a suit, or as to allowing a deposition to be read under the Section next preceding.

Document referred to in pleading to be filed.

XL. If any party to any such suit as aforesaid shall, in any pleading or statement, refer to any document in his possession or power, as a material proof or document in support of his claim or defence, he shall file such document with the pleading or statement, unless the Court shall, for good and sufficient cause, extend the time for filing the same; and any adverse party shall be entitled, by himself or his vakeel, to inspect and take a copy of the document.

Interpretation Clause.

XLI. In the construction of this Act, unless where it is otherwise expressly provided, or there is something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction, or which would render such construction inapplicable to the case, the word "Court" shall mean any Civil Court of the East India Company, and shall include any Judge or other Officer or person mentioned in Section II. of this Act; the word "Judge" shall be understood to mean the chief judicial authority presiding in any such Court, and shall include any Officer or person having, by law, or consent of parties, authority to examine witnesses and to act judicially; the word "suit" shall be deemed to mean and include any suit, appeal or proceeding mentioned in Section II.; the word "witness" shall include all persons competent and liable to give evidence, whether parties to any suit or proceeding, or not. Words importing the masculine gender or singular number shall include the feminine gender or plural number, and vice versa.

Act when to operate.

XLII. This Act shall come into operation on the

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

19th August 1854.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 19th of August 1854, and referred to a Select Committee, who are to report thereon after the 23rd of November next :—

A Bill for the further Improvement of the Law as administered in Her Majesty's Supreme Courts; for the transfer and abridgment of the Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction thereof; and for giving additional powers in certain cases to Justices of the Peace, with regard to offences committed out of their jurisdiction.

I. The business of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts, after this Act comes into operation, shall be transacted on four divisions or sides of the Court only, viz., the Plea, the Equity, the Admiralty, and the Crown side.

Business of Supreme Courts to be transacted on four sides only, viz., Plea, Equity, Admiralty, and Crown sides.

II. In any suit brought on the Admiralty side of any of the Supreme Courts, or in any Vice-Admiralty Court in the Territories subject to the Government of the East India Company, which is likely to involve any question of nautical skill, the Court shall have power to summon from persons possessing such skill one or more, not exceeding three in number, to sit as Assessor or Assessors to the Court on the trial of the cause; but such Assessor or Assessors shall not be required to deliver his or their opinion or opinions publicly; and the Judge or Judges may retire and confer with him or them in private, and the decision of the case shall rest with the Court.

In Admiralty or Vice-Admiralty suits, Court empowered to call in Assessors.

III. The Court shall have power to allow a remuneration to each Assessor for his attendance, at the rate of one Gold Mohur each a day, and such remuneration shall be in the first instance payable by the Promovent, as part of his costs in the cause.

Remuneration of Assessors.

IV. The Assessors must swear, or solemnly affirm, or must affirm as the case may be, that they will give their opinion honestly and truly according to the Evidence.

Assessors to be sworn, &c.

V. The jurisdiction which the said Supreme Courts possessed prior to the passing of this Act on their Ecclesiastical side shall cease on that side and be transferred entirely to the Equity side of the Court, except as to suits pending at the time when this Act comes into force, and the jurisdiction as to matters of Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction shall be limited to Causes Testamentary, including Administrations and Causes Matrimonial. Provided that in any suit for restitution of conjugal rights, the Court shall be at liberty to limit its sentence to one for alimony, without making any order to compel cohabitation.

Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction to be transferred to the Equity side.

Limitation of Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction.

Proviso, as to cohabitation.

VI. The procedure as to matters which were of Ecclesiastical cognizance, and which are directed to be transferred to the Equity side, shall be that which may be in force on the Equity side, modified by the Rules and Orders of the Court, so far as it may require to be modified in order to give effect to this Act.

Procedure in Ecclesiastical matters to be the same as on the Equity side.

VII. When any Probate or Letters of Administration has, or have been granted by any one of the said Supreme Courts to any other person than the Administrator General of such Presidency, respectively, and there are Assets of the Estate in any of the other Presidencies, it shall not be necessary to obtain any fresh grant of Probate or fresh Administration in any other of such Presidencies, but the one first granted shall operate throughout the territories of British India, and shall, as to any Assets therein, be of the same force and effect as if it had been granted by the authority of the Supreme Court of the Presidency in which such Assets may be.

Probate or Letters of Administration granted by Supreme Court in one Presidency to have effect throughout British India.

VIII. Clause 1*st*. When any Letters of Administratoin shall have been granted by any other of the Supreme Courts after such first grant as aforesaid, and without the assent of the Executor or Administrator to whom such first grant has been made of Probate or Letters of Administration as the case may be, such letters shall be liable to be revoked by the Court granting the same on the application of the Executor or Administrator under the first grant; but all acts done under them in the due course of Administration shall be valid to all intents and purposes. The Administrator under the second grant shall, when it is revoked, be liable to account to the Executor or Administrator under the first, and to pay over to such Executor or Administrator under the first, whatever may remain in his hands to be distributed.

Letters of Administration granted by any Supreme Court after grant of Probate or Letters of Administration by the Supreme Court of another Presidency, may be revoked.

But acts of Administrator under the second grant to be in the meantime valid, &c.

Administrator under second grant to be accountable after revocation to Executor or Administrator under first grant.

Clause 2*nd*. When Administration, or Administration with the Will annexed, shall have been granted ex-officio to the Administrator General of one Presidency, and there are Assets belonging to the Estate in another or other Presidencies, it shall not be necessary for the Administrator General of another Presidency in which there may be Assets to take out Letters of Administration, but each may act as to the Assets within his Presidency, in the collection and distribution of them, in like manner as if he had taken out Letters of Administration in the Presidency in which he is Administrator General, and each shall be entitled to his Commission on the Assets collected and distributed by him, as though there had been separate grants of Letters of Administration to each; and the Letters of Administration to the Administrator General, by virtue of his office, shall be expressed so as to give to each Administrator General in each Presidency the right to collect and distribute the effects in his Presidency, and each shall be answerable for his own acts and defaults only, and not for those of any other Administrator General. And when any Administrator General has taken out Letters of Administration, and he has reason to believe that there are Assets in another Presidency, he shall forthwith certify under his hand to the Administrator General, of such Presidency, the fact of his having taken out such Letters of Administration, and shall give such information as he possesses as to the existence of Assets in the Presidency of the Administrator General to whom such communication is addressed. And it is further enacted, that each Administrator General shall give notice, in like manner as the Administrator General taking out Letters of Administration is obliged to give notice, that he claims to administer in his Presidency, by virtue of such grant of the Court which issued the Letters describing it, and thereupon any party disputing his right and intending to claim the right to probate, or to administer in that Presidency to which such notice relates, may apply to the Supreme Court of the Presidency of the Administrator giving such notice, for a grant to himself, and to revoke, so far as it relates to the particular Presidency, the original grant, which the said Court shall have power to do as fully as if such grant had been one of that Court. It is further enacted, that such certificate shall, on its production, be sufficient proof of the grant of such original Letters, which shall be judicially presumed to be in the regular form directed by this Act.

IX. When any suit is instituted in any of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts, on the Equity side thereof, such Court shall proceed with the suit if it embraces any matter of equitable jurisdiction, and in such suit determine all matters, whether of Law or Equity, that therein arise, and give all such consequential relief as may be necessary to give full effect to the rights determined, and in so doing shall have power to bring before it, by notice, provided such person be subject to its jurisdiction, any person not a party to the suit, whose rights may appear to be affected by the enforcement of such consequential relief.

Supreme Court may, in any Equity suit, determine questions of Law arising therein.

And may bring before it by notice persons interested, though not parties to the suit.

X. In any Bill or Claim which is filed in any of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts after the time when this Act comes into effect, for the specific performance of any agreement, the relief may be asked in the alternative for a specific performance or for damages; and the Court shall have power to award damages if it think that, under the circumstances, it would not be equitable, or proper, or practicable, to give relief by specific performance, in like manner, and to as full an extent as damages might be given in an action at Law for the same breach of agreement.

In suits for specific performance, Supreme Court may award damages instead of decreeing specific performance.

XI. When any action is instituted in any of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts, on the Plea side thereof, such Court shall proceed with the action if it embraces any matter of jurisdiction on the Plea side of the Court, and all defences on equitable grounds which might have been made the subject of an application to a Court of Equity to restrain proceedings at Law, in such a suit, under the like circumstances, shall be made matter of defence in that suit; and no Bill shall be filed to restrain or interfere with the progress of the suit on the Plea side; and in like manner the Court shall hear and determine in such action any equitable defence on the part of the Plaintiff to any set-off or counter-claim which may be pleaded by the Defendant; and it shall have power, on the application of either party, by an order in the nature of an injunction, to stay the further prosecution of the action, pending any inquiry which it may see fit to direct, and also to restrain the opposite party, either temporarily or perpetually, from doing any act with reference to the subject-matter of the suit, as a Court of Equity might have restrained such party upon a Bill filed, and praying an injunction against him.

Equitable defences allowed to actions instituted on the Plea side.

Bills to restrain progress of suits on the Plea side not allowed

Plaintiff may set up any equitable defence to set-off or counter-claim.

Court on its Plea side may make orders in the nature of injunctions

XII From the time when this Act comes into operation, Her Majesty's Supreme Courts shall have jurisdiction to try on the Plea side an action on a lost negotiable Bill of Exchange or other negotiable security, as to which, before this Act came into operation, the remedy would have been on the Equity side of the Court alone, and shall have power to order indemnity to be given by the Plaintiff recovering in such action, in like manner as it would have been ordered by the Court on the Equity side thereof, and to stay execution until such security be given. And the several Courts of Small Causes at the Presidencies of Fort William, Fort St. George, and Bombay, respectively, shall have, within the limits of their respective jurisdictions, the same jurisdiction and powers as are hereby enforced in the Supreme Courts, as to such causes of action.

Supreme Courts on their Plea side, and Courts of Small Causes to have jurisdiction to try actions on lost negotiable securities

XIII. If in any action at Law it becomes necessary for the determination of the rights of the parties to take an account which cannot be conveniently taken in open Court, the Court shall have power to direct the account to be taken in like manner as upon a Bill or Claim filed on the Equity side of the Court, and may, if there is no other question to be tried or decided in the cause, stay further proceedings therein until such account be taken, and the certificate of the Judge or Officer taking the account shall be sufficient proof of the result of such account.

Supreme Court may in any action on the Plea side direct an account to be taken in like manner as on the Equity side

And may stay proceedings till account taken

Certificate of Judge or Officer taking account to be sufficient proof of its result.

XIV. In any action or suit, whether original or continued by revivor, or in any stage thereof, wherein a question arises, whether an Executor or Administrator or other Representative has Assets to satisfy the demand, the opposite party shall not be bound to allege or to prove the existence of such Assets, but may call on the Executor or Administrator, or such Representative, either to admit Assets sufficient to satisfy the demand, or to show that he either never received any Assets of his testator or intestate, or that he has duly applied and accounted for the same.

Whenever questions arise as to whether Executor, &c., has Assets, opposite party not bound to allege or prove existence of Assets, but may call on Executor, &c., to admit Assets, or to show that he never received any, or has accounted for them.

Choses in action, &c., to be assignable at Law.

XV. All choses in action and rights, capable of being recovered and enforced at Law, and which are now assignable in Equity only, shall be assignable at Law, and in every action for the recovery thereof at Law, the Assignee shall sue for the same in his own name, and not in the name of the Assignor, and in every such action the right of the Plaintiff to recover shall be subject to any claim of set-off which the Defendant may have either against the Plaintiff personally or had against the original or any successive Assignor before notice of such assignment.

Assignee to sue in his own name.

Plaintiff's rights to be subject to any set-off of Defendant against Plaintiff himself or against the original or any subsequent Assignor before notice.

Assignee need not make Assignor party to action or suit.

XVI. It shall not be necessary to make the Assignor a party to an action at Law or suit in Equity by the Assignee of any chose in action against the party liable in respect of the matter assigned, and such party liable shall, in the absence of fraud on his part, be as effectually discharged from his original liability, by the proceedings in such action or suit, as he would have been, had the alleged Assignor of such chose in action been a party to such proceedings.

Assets in Equity to be also Assets at Law.

XVII. All Assets, which are Assets in a Court of Equity, shall also be Assets at Law, and all debts, whatever the nature of them, shall be paid pari passu after the death of any Debtor dying after the passing of this Act, by his personal Representatives, or in any suit for the administration of the Estate of the said person. Provided that this provision shall not impair or affect any mortgage, pledge, or lien, legal or equitable, whether given by the Law or the act of the party, or any payment bonâ fide made by any such Representative in ignorance of the insolvency of the Estate.

All debts after the death of Debtor, whatever their nature, to be paid pari passu

Proviso—that mortgages, pledges, &c., and payments made in ignorance of insolvency, are not to be affected by the above provision.

Receiver may bring actions with the assent of the Court by which he is appointed.

XVIII. A receiver shall have authority to bring any action in respect of the property of which he is appointed receiver, in his own name as receiver, but such action shall not be brought without the assent of the Court which has appointed him a receiver; and shall be under its control, so far as the same may be exercised without clashing with the authority of any other Court.

Persons appointed by letters ad colligendum bona may take legal Estate for the purpose of protecting it, and may bring action in same manner as Administrators.

But may not alienate Estate without leave of Court.

XIX. All persons appointed by Letters ad colligendum bona, shall take the legal Estate for the purpose of protecting the Estate, and shall have authority to bring actions in the same manner as Administrators may sue; but they shall not have authority to alienate the Estate without the order of the Court under whose authority they act.

Where Plaintiff or Defendant requires discovery in aid of any action or defence thereto, Court may, if satisfied with the affidavit of such party, direct the opposite party to answer interrogatories.

XX. When the Plaintiff or Defendant respectively require discovery in aid of an action at Law, or defence thereto, in any of Her Majesty's said Supreme Courts, it shall be lawful for such party by affidavit to state the reason why he requires discovery and as to what it is required; and the Court thereon, if it sees that such discovery ought to be given, shall direct that the party to the suit from whom the discovery is sought may answer to interrogatories to be exhibited to him for such purpose. Provided that the party asking for such discovery shall be liable to pay the cost of obtaining it, to the party giving it, whatever be the event of the suit, in like manner as if a Bill of pure discovery had been filed on the Equity side of the Court and answered. Provided always, that the Court shall have and exercise the same power to compel a full answer to such interrogatories as it might have exercised had such interrogatories been filed in a suit for discovery in the Equity side of the Court, and shall have the same power as to the costs of procuring such full answer as it would possess in the Equity side of the Court, if the answer to a Bill of Discovery were insufficient.

Proviso that the party seeking discovery must pay the costs of obtaining it.

Further proviso as to power of Court to compel a full answer and to provide for costs thereof.

XXI. And whereas it is desirable to avoid the inconvenience of making public bodies parties to suits, in which they have no interest, and where the contest is as to the right to property of which they are only the depositaries or managers for others, it is further enacted, that it shall be lawful for any of Her Majesty's Courts, upon the application of any party interested, by motion or petition in a summary way, without Bill filed, to restrain the East India Company from paying the interest due or to become due on any of the Promissory Notes of the said Company, commonly called Government Paper, or from renewing or permitting the renewal of any such Government Paper, or from parting with any Government Paper, which may have been paid into or deposited in the Public Treasury; and also to restrain any other public Company, whether incorporated or not, from permitting the transfer of any Stock or Shares in such Company, which may be standing in the name or names of any person or persons, or body politic or corporate, in the books of such Company, or from paying any dividend or dividends due or to become due thereon.

Supreme Court may, in a summary way, without Bill filed, restrain East India Company from paying interest on, or renewing or parting with, Government Paper deposited in Treasury.

And any public Company from transferring or paying dividends on any Stock or Share.

Orders made in pursuance of provisions of preceding Section to describe and specify Notes, Stock, Shares, &c., to be affected thereby.

XXII. Every order to be made upon such motion or petition as in the preceding Section mentioned, shall describe the Promissory Notes, or specify the amount of the Stock, or the particular Shares to be affected thereby, and the name or names of the person or persons, body politic or corporate, in which the same shall be standing; and upon the application of any party interested may be discharged, varied, or continued, as the justice of the case may require, by the Court granting the same, and the Court shall have power to award such costs upon any such application as it shall see fit.

Such orders may be varied or discharged, &c.

No Company or Officer of a Company to be made a party to such proceedings, except by special order of Court.

XXIII. In no case, except by special order of Court, shall any Company, or any Servant or Officer of any Company, against which proceedings may be taken under the provisions of the last Sections of this Act, be made a party, either to the application for obtaining the order to restrain, or to any application to discharge, vary, or continue such order, or to any suit or proceeding which may be instituted, either before or after the issuing of such order, for the purpose of determining the title or right to the Government Paper, or other Stock or Shares which may be the subject of such order; and in every such suit or proceeding, it shall be lawful for the Court wherein the same is pending to order the East India Company, or any of the Officers thereof, or any other public Company, or any of the Servants or Officers thereof, to deal with the Government Paper, Stock, or Shares which are the subject of the said suit or proceeding, or the interest or dividends of such Government Paper, Stock, or Shares as the said Court may deem just, although the Company or person upon whom such order is made is not a party to the suit or proceeding wherein the same is made.

But Court may order East India or other Company how to deal with the Government Paper, Stock, Shares, &c., although Company not party to suit or proceeding.

No such Company to be liable for any thing bonâ fide done, &c., in pursuance of any such order.

XXIV. No action or suit shall lie against the East India Company or any public Company, or any of the Officers or Servants thereof, respectively, for any thing bonâ fide done, or omitted to be done by them, or any of them, in pursuance of any order made under the provisions of the foregoing Sections; but any person aggrieved by such order must assert his rights against the party at whose instance the same shall have been obtained.

Remedy of party aggrieved by any such order

Where parties desirous of stating a special case cannot agree on all the facts, they may state those admitted and also those in dispute.

XXV. And whereas by Act No. XVII. of 1852, it has been made lawful for persons interested, or claiming to be interested, in any question cognizable in Her Majesty's Courts within the factories of the East India Company, on the Equity, Plea, Ecclesiastical, or Admiralty sides thereof, respectively, to concur in stating such question in the form of a special case for the opinion of such Courts, in which special case such facts and documents as may be necessary to enable the Court to decide the question raised thereby, are to be admitted and stated; and whereas it is expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act and to enable such persons, in the form of a special case, to take the opinion of the Court upon the questions of fact as well as upon the questions of law in dispute between them; it is enacted that, from the time when this Act comes into operation, it shall be lawful for any persons desirous of stating a question in the form of a special case for the opinion of the said Courts, but unable to concur upon all the facts necessary to enable the Court to determine such question, to state both the facts and documents which are admitted between them, and the questions of fact which are bonâ fide in dispute between them, and to pray for the decision of the Court upon such disputed questions of fact, and subject thereto, for its opinion upon any question of Law or Equity arising either upon the facts as admitted, or the facts as found, or upon both together; and the Committee of the Estate of any lunatic, and a husband in right of his wife, and a married woman jointly with her husband, and the guardian of an infant, and a guardian specially appointed by the Court for the purpose of concurring in a case; and the Court in the appointment of such special guardian shall respectively have, and may exercise such and the same power of concurrence in a case involving disputed issues of the fact, as heretofore they had, and might have exercised with respect to a special case stated under the said recited Act.

Committees of lunatics, guardians, &c., may concur in such statements.

In special case involving disputed facts, Court how to proceed.

XXVI. Upon any special case involving disputed questions of fact, the Court shall have power in its discretion, either to determine the case subject to its finding upon certain issues of fact, or to proceed to the trial of such issues, and to reserve its decision upon the other questions in the case, until such facts shall have been found; and upon the trial of any issues of fact requiring the examination of witnesses, it shall proceed in the same manner, and shall have the same power of examining and dealing with such witnesses as it would have had upon the trial of an issue directed under Act XXI. of 1848.

Upon the trial of issues arising out of such special case, and requiring examination of witnesses, Court to proceed as under Act XXI. of 1848.

Provisions of Act XVII. of 1852, to apply to special cases involving disputed facts, except where they are modified by this Act.

XXVII. Except so far as they are modified by this Act, all the provisions of the said recited Act XVII. of 1852, relating to the statement and determination of special cases stated under that Act, and to the effect of such determination, and to the right of having a special case re-heard, or of appealing from the decision thereon, shall extend to and apply to special cases involving disputed questions of fact.

Parties may by consent have questions in dispute between them tried without formal pleadings.

XXVIII. From the time when this Act comes into operation, it shall be lawful for any parties who are desirous to try, without formal pleadings, any question within the jurisdiction of Her Majesty's Courts, which is bonâ fide in dispute between them, to present to any of the said Courts a petition verified by affidavit, and stating that the question or questions to be tried are bonâ fide in dispute between them, and the nature thereof, and that all the litigant parties consent to have such question or questions tried without formal pleadings, and are subject to or submit themselves to the jurisdiction of the Court; and thereupon it shall be lawful for the Court to order that such question or questions shall be tried without pleadings, and to proceed to try the same as if the several issues of fact or law had been regularly raised upon formal pleadings, and to give judgment or make a decree in a summary way accordingly; and the judgment so given, or the decree so made, shall be entered, and execution shall issue thereon, and the parties shall be bound thereby, in such and the same manner and to the same extent as upon a judgment recovered, or a decree made in a regular suit.

Judgment or decree thereupon to have same effect as judgment or decree in a regular suit.

On criminal trials, where adjournment necessary, Court may at its discretion permit Jurors to go at large until time fixed for meeting again.

XXIX. When any trial for any crime in any of the Supreme Courts, by reason of its length, requires to be adjourned until another day, the Court shall, on its adjournment, permit the Jurors to go at large until the time of meeting again according to the adjournment, unless under the particular circumstances of any case such course seem inexpedient.

Court may allow Jury after retirement to be supplied with lights, food, &c.

XXX. When the Jury retire to consider their verdict, the Court may, if it see fit to do so, order them to be supplied with suitable accommodation, lights, and food, &c.

If Jury cannot agree after six hours' deliberation, but a majority of not less than 3-4ths are agreed, verdict of such majority to be as valid as if Jury unanimous.

XXXI. In any criminal trial by Jury in any of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts, if the Jury, after they have retired to consider their verdict, cannot agree thereon, then, after they have remained six hours in deliberation on the case, they may return into Court and declare their inability to agree, and if the Court shall not send them back to consider the case further, and if the majority, not being less than 3-4ths in number of the whole twelve, are agreed, the Foreman shall declare, without naming or otherwise distinguishing the individuals composing the majority or minority, that 9, 10, or 11, as the case may be, have agreed on their verdict, but that the Jurors are not unanimous; and thereupon the verdict shall be recorded as the verdict of the major part of the Jury, stating therein how many Jurors agree in that verdict, and the verdict so delivered shall, to all intents and purposes, be as valid in Law as if it had been the verdict of an unanimous Jury, and the judgment shall be entered upon it, as on a verdict of the majority given according to Law; and it shall not be necessary to record in the judgment the opinion of the minority.

If after six hours' deliberation 3-4ths of Jury are not agreed, the Court may discharge Jury, and defendant may be tried again for the same offence.

XXXII. If, after a Jury in any such criminal trial in any of the said Supreme Courts shall have been in deliberation on their verdict for a time, which, with reference to the amount of evidence in the case, shall appear to the Court ample for a full and deliberate consideration of the evidence, not being less in any case than six hours, they shall return into Court and state that 3-4ths in number are not agreed, and express their inability to agree, the Court may discharge them from giving a verdict; and in that case the Defendant shall be liable to be tried again for the same offence, but only once again, and shall not be put on his trial a third time, whatever be the result of the second trial, provided the same proceed to an end without interruption by sickness or death, or other sudden accident after the commencement of such second trial.

But in no case Defendant to be put on his trial for the same offence a third time, if the second trial proceeded to an end without interruption.

Where Jury discharged from verdict, Court empowered, under certain circumstances, to order that no second prosecution shall take place.

XXXIII. If the Court, where the Jury is so discharged as aforesaid, shall be of opinion, either from the slightness of the proof and the apparent difficulty of procuring better proof on another trial, or from the slightness of the offence in itself, or under the circumstances of its commission, that a second prosecution would not advance the interests of Justice, it shall have power to direct by its order, to be endorsed on the Record, that no other prosecution for that offence shall take place; and that order may be pleaded in bar of any other prosecution for that offence.

If after such order a second prosecution be instituted, Court may direct a plea to be preferred for the Defendant.

XXXIV. If any other prosecution should be instituted in the same Court for that offence, the Court may order the Clerk of the Crown to prepare such plea for the Defendant, if he have not counsel and desire it, and may allow him to withdraw his plea of Not Guilty at any stage of the cause before verdict, and put in the above plea.

Justices of the Peace empowered to inquire into offences committed on the High Seas or places on land beyond the limits of their Commissions.

XXXV. Where any offence which may be tried in any of the Supreme Courts has been committed on the High Seas or other place beyond the jurisdiction of any Justice of the Peace, it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace, within the limits of whose jurisdiction the offender may afterward be, on complaint or information of such offence, to issue his warrant for the apprehension of such offender, and he shall have power and authority by such warrant to order the party to be brought before himself, or some other Justice of the Peace, in the same Commission, or before a Justice of the Peace in and for the place where the offence was committed, for examination, with a view to the commitment of such person for trial before such Supreme Court; and the Justice of the Peace before whom such party shall be brought shall proceed in the same mode in such examination, and in taking and forwarding the depositions, and shall have the same powers in all respects for the summoning and enforcing the attendance of witnesses, and otherwise, as if the offence had been committed within the limits of his jurisdiction as such Justice, and the depositions taken in such mode and returned shall be subject to all Laws that apply to depositions taken before Justices of the Peace, for crimes committed on land, and which they must, conformably to Law, send up on commitment to the Supreme Court.

Private persons and public Officers to have same authority in respect of offences committed on the High Seas as on land.

XXXVI. Whenever a private person, or a public Officer, may arrest or detain, on suspicion or charge, for a reasonable time, with a view to inquiry, or to bring the arrested person before a Peace Officer or Justice of the Peace, on such matter of suspicion or charge, supposing the offence to be committed on land, such arrest and detention shall be justifiable also by such persons respectively for crimes of the same class committed at sea, but subject to the same limits as to the right of arrest and conduct in assertion of such right as apply to crimes of the same class committed on land.

Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

19th August 1854.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 19th of August 1854, and referred to a Select Committee, who are to report thereon after the 23rd of November next :—

A Bill to extend the operation of, and regulate the mode of executing Writs of Execution in Her Majesty's Supreme Courts of Judicature.

Whereas it is desirable to extend the operation of, and regulate the conduct of Writs of Execution out of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts in certain cases, It is enacted that,

Preamble.

I. Under any writ of fieri facias issued in any of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts, on any side of the Court, may be seized and taken any lands, houses, or other immoveable property of the party against whose effects such writ issues, whether his estate or interest therein be legal or equitable, as also money, bank-notes, cheques, bills of exchange, promissory notes, hoondees, Government paper, bonds, or other securities for money, and also debts belonging to the said person, and the Sheriff or other Officer having the execution of the writ shall be at liberty to pay or deliver over to the party suing out such execution any money or bank-notes which shall so be seized, or a sufficient part thereof, and shall, with the order of the Court, endorse over or transfer, and without such order shall hold any such cheques, bills of exchange, promissory notes, bonds, specialties, or other securities for money as a security or securities for the amount by such writ of fieri facias directed to be levied, or so much thereof as shall not have been otherwise levied and raised, and may, where he retains the same, sue in his own name as such Sheriff or Officer, for the recovery of the sum or sums secured thereby, or for any debt seized as aforesaid, when the time of payment thereof shall have arrived ; and the payment to such Sheriff or other Officer, or to the party entitled under such endorsement or transfer, by the party liable, with or without suit, or the recovery and levying execution against the party so liable, shall discharge him to the extent of such payment or of such recovery and levy in execution, as the case may be, from his liability on any such cheque, bill of exchange, promissory note, hoondee, bond, specialty, security, and debt ; and such Sheriff or other Officer may, and shall pay over to the party suing out such writ, the money so to be recovered, or such part thereof as may be sufficient to discharge the amount by such writ directed to be levied ; and if after satisfaction of the amount so to be levied, together with Sheriff's poundage, and all lawful charges and expenses, any surplus shall remain in the hands of such Sheriff or other Officer, the same shall be paid to the party against whom such writ shall be so issued, unless the same is duly attached in the hands of such Sheriff or other Officer. Provided that no Sheriff or other Officer shall be bound to sue any party liable upon any such cheque, bill of exchange, promissory note, hoondee, Company's paper, bond, specialty, security, or debt, unless the party suing out such execution shall give security to the Sheriff for indemnifying him from all costs and expenses to be incurred in the prosecution of such action, or to which he may become liable in consequence thereof, the nature and amount of such security to be determined, in case they cannot agree, by the proper Officer of the Court in which such action shall be brought, or if the Court shall so order, by some other person to be appointed by the Court for such purpose ; and the expense of the proceedings to obtain such security shall be deducted out of any money to be recovered in such action, and the net proceeds only in this and other cases provided for by this Act shall be considered as received in satisfaction of the debt due to the executive creditor.

Sheriff empowered under any writ of fieri facias issued on any side of Supreme Court to seize immoveable property.

And money, bank-notes, debts, &c.

And to pay money or bank-notes to executive creditor.

And with the order of the Court to endorse over, and without such order to hold cheques, bills of exchange, &c.

And to sue in his own name for amount secured by bills of exchange, &c.

Or for debts.

Proviso as to indemnity for Sheriff.

II. If the Sheriff or other Officer under any writ of fieri facias shall seize any Government paper standing in the name of, or belonging to the party against whose property such writ shall be issued, he shall have power to receive the interest due on such Government paper, whether specially endorsed or otherwise, and to sign a receipt for the same ; and also to sell and dispose of such Government paper through a broker at the market rate of the day ; and if the endorsement of such party shall be required to transfer such Government paper, the Sheriff or other public Officer shall endorse the same, thus—"A. B. by C. D., Sheriff" ; and such endorsement shall be as effectual to pass the said Government paper, and to give a good title to the holder thereof as if the same had been endorsed by the party himself or his duly constituted Attorney.

Sheriff empowered to receive interest on Government paper seized by him.

And to sell, and where endorsement necessary, to endorse such paper.

III. No debt shall be sold by the Sheriff under the process of the said Court, any Charter of any of the said Supreme Courts to the contrary notwithstanding, but the same shall be realized in the mode hereinbefore directed. Provided that nothing in this Act contained shall prevent the making of any interlocutory applications or order for the payment of any admitted debt that has been seized under a writ of execution into the hands of the Sheriff.

No debt to be sold by Sheriff

Proviso as to application for payment of admitted debt signed by Sheriff.

IV. When any property that the Sheriff or other Officer is by the first Section of this Act directed to seize shall consist of lands, houses, or other immoveable property in the possession of tenants to the party, the seizure must be effected by notice in writing to such tenants and not by actual seizure of the premises, and where the property belongs to the defendant by an equitable and not a legal title, and the trust is of that character that he is not entitled to possession of the lands, houses, or other immoveable property, or to the receipt of the rents and profits thereof himself, or his title is in remainder or reversion, then actual possession must not be taken of the property, but seizure must be made by notice to the tenants, if any, or to the party in possession as before, and also to the trustees or some or one of them, if they are known, or otherwise in such mode as the Court may direct; and all choses in action and debts which are not secured or evidenced by any of the securities before named, must be seized by means of notice only to the debtor or person liable to satisfy the said debt or claim. And after such seizure as aforesaid, no payment which is made to any person other than the Sheriff or other Officer, or to such person as he may appoint to receive it or the Court may order, shall be any discharge, unless it be made in payment of any prior debt, charge, lien, or expense, or cost, which would be good against the party against whom such execution issued, but the payment to the Sheriff or such Officer shall operate as a full discharge of the party liable, and all claims to the money must be asserted against the Sheriff or such Officer in such case; and all rival claims thereto shall be adjusted, settled, and discharged by interpleader between the parties.

When seizure of immoveable property or of chose in action or debts is to be by notice and not by actual seizure.

After such seizure no payment except under certain circumstance to any one but the Sheriff to be a discharge.

Payment to Sheriff to be full discharge.

V. As to priority of writs of execution, directed to levy money, it is enacted that the writ which is first delivered to the Sheriff shall be first executed, and that shall have priority over other writs; and that no writ of execution against property shall be delivered to the Sheriff or received by him to lie in the office without the order of the Court. And as to subsequent writs of the like kind, the money raised, whether it be of a surplus under a former writ or of the property first seized, but not sold, shall be distributed ratably amongst all the creditors having writs in the hands of the Sheriff, at any time prior to the receipt of the money by the Sheriff, according to the amount of their debts, without regard to priority. In case any dispute shall arise as to the proceeds of such execution, the Sheriff may pay the fund into Court, deducting for his cost and expenses and poundage, and other claims, if any, and the claims of the respective claimants shall be settled and adjusted in the said Court by interpleaders amongst themselves.

First writ of execution to have priority over other writs.

No writ of execution to be delivered to Sheriff, to lie in the office without the order of Court

Levy of subsequent writs to be distributed ratably among creditors having writs.

Dispute of claimants to be settled by interpleaders.

VI. If any person, against whom any writ of execution shall have issued, shall have any shares in any public Company in India, subject to the jurisdiction, or within reach of its process, and whether incorporated or not, such shares standing in his own name and in his own right, or in the name of any person in trust for him, or shall be entitled to any interest in the dividends, interest, or annual produce of such shares, it shall be lawful for the Court or a Judge, on application of the party having recovered such judgment, to make an order ex-parte to attach such shares, and such dividends, interest, or annual produce shall be attached in the books of the said public Company, to answer the purposes of such execution; and such shares shall not be suffered to be transferred, nor shall such dividends, interest, or annual produce be paid until such order of attachment shall be withdrawn, discharged, or disposed of, and no disposition in the meanwhile by such debtor shall be valid or effectual as against such party recovering such judgment and obtaining such order of attachment.

Shares, dividends, &c., may be attached in books of public Company

During such attachment shares not to be transferred, nor dividends, &c., paid.

VII. A copy of such order of attachment shall be served on the debtor, or his Attorney or Agent, and unless the said debtor or some other person interested shall, within the space of twenty days from the service of such order of attachment and copy, or from the date of the last service, or such other time as the Court or a Judge may think reasonable, show sufficient cause to the contrary, it shall be lawful for the Court or a Judge, if he shall so think fit on proof of the service of such order of attachment and copy, to make an order on all persons, corporations, and public Companies, whose act or consent is thereto necessary, to transfer the said shares belonging to the said judgment debtor, and standing in his own name or in the name of any trustee for him for his own benefit, into the name of the said Sheriff or other Officer as aforesaid, or to make payment of such dividends, interest, and annual produce to the said Sheriff; and all such persons, whose act or consent is so necessary as aforesaid, are hereby required to obey such order, and are indemnified for all things done or permitted, pursuant to such order. Provided also, that it shall be lawful for such Court or a Judge, on the application of the debtor or any person interested, to discharge or vary such order for attachment and to award such costs on such application as to the said Court or a Judge shall seem just.

Copy of order of attachment to be served on debtor.

And if he does not show good cause, Court may order transfer of shares or payment of dividends, &c., to Sheriff.

Indemnity of parties obeying such order.

VIII. If such debtor shall have an interest in any such shares, or the dividends, interest, and annual produce thereof, not vested and in possession, but contingent or in remainder or reversion, it shall be lawful for the Court or a Judge, on a like application to be made by the party obtaining such judgment, to make an order ex-parte, that such shares, dividends, interest, or annual produce, or a competent part thereof, shall stand charged with the payment of the amount for which such judgment shall have been recovered, and interest, or so much as shall remain unsatisfied unless satisfactory cause shall be shown to the contrary by the said debtor or some other person interested within a time to be named in such order, and such order shall be served on the debtor or his Attorney or Agent; and unless cause shall be shown to the contrary within the time specified in such order or at such time as the Court or a Judge may think proper, it shall be lawful for the Court or a Judge, if it or he shall so think fit on proof of the service of such order, to make the same absolute; and such order shall entitle the creditor to all such remedies as he would have been entitled to if such charge had been made in his favor by the debtor. Provided that such Court or a Judge shall, on the application of such debtor, or any person interested, have full power to discharge or vary such order, and to award such costs upon such application as the Court or a Judge may think fit.

Such order within a certain time to be absolute unless cause shown to the contrary.

Proviso as to discharge of such order in certain cases.

IX. If such debtor shall have an estate or interest in any property which shall be standing in the name of the Accountant General of the Court, or of any other Officer of the Court, or in the dividends, interest, or annual produce thereof, it shall be lawful for the Court or a Judge to make such order as to such property, and the dividends, interest, and annual produce thereof, as it or he might have made if the same had been standing in the name of a trustee for such judgment debtor.

Where interest of debtor is in property standing in name of any Officer of Court.

X. A plaintiff or defendant arrested under any writ of capias ad satisfaciendum shall be entitled to his discharge from such arrest on payment or tender to the opposite party or his Attorney in the cause, or to the Sheriff or Gaoler in whose custody such person may be under such writ, of the amount directed to be levied by such writ.

Party arrested under a capias ad satisfaciendum entitled to discharge on payment or tender of the amount of levy to opposite party or his Attorney, or to Sheriff or Gaoler.

XI. A written order under the hand of the Attorney in the cause by whom any writ of capias ad satisfaciendum shall have been issued shall justify the Sheriff, Gaoler, or person, in whose custody the party may be under such writ, in discharging such party, unless the party for whom such Attorney professes to act shall have given written notice to the contrary to such Sheriff, Gaoler, or person, in whose custody the opposite party may be, but such discharge shall not be a satisfaction of the debt unless made by the authority of the creditor, and nothing herein contained shall justify any Attorney in giving such order for discharge without the consent of his client.

Written order of Attorney issuing capias ad satisfaciendum sufficient for the discharge of a party by Sheriff or Gaoler, unless the client shall give written notice to the contrary.

Attorney not justified in giving order for discharge without the consent of his client.

XII. A Sheriff shall not be liable in an action for escape or other breach of duty to pay damages beyond the amount of the loss which his breach of duty has really occasioned, in like manner as if he had been sued in the form of an action on the case.

Sheriff not to be liable for escape, &c., beyond the amount of the loss really occasioned.

XIII. A writ of execution sued out after the commencement of this Act, if unexecuted, shall not remain in force for more than one year from the date of such writ, unless renewed in the manner hereinafter provided, but a writ of execution, whether sued out before or after the passing of this Act, may at any time before its expiration be renewed by the party issuing it for one year from the date of such renewal, and so on from time to time to time during the continuance of the renewed writ, by being marked with the seal of the Court, and with a memorandum, signed or initialed by the Officer, of the date of the day, month, and year of such renewal, or by such party giving a written notice of renewal to the Sheriff, signed by the party or his Attorney and bearing the like seal of the Court, and memorandum signed or initialed by the Officer as aforesaid; and a writ of execution so renewed shall have effect and be entitled to the same priority as the original writ would have had. Provided, however, that no writ of habere shall be renewed without the special leave of the Court or a Judge.

Writ of execution, if unexecuted, not to remain in force more than one year unless renewed.

But may be renewed from time to time.

Renewed writ entitled to same priority as its original.

Proviso as to writ of habere.

XIV. The production of a writ of execution, or of the notice renewing the same, purporting to be marked with such seal and initialed as aforesaid, showing the same to have been renewed according to this Act, shall be sufficient evidence of its having been so renewed.

Production of writ, or of notice of renewal, sufficient evidence of renewal.

XV. All property of every kind that may be seized under a writ of fieri-facias, issued from the said Supreme Courts respectively, may be seized also under a writ of sequestration issued from the same, where a sequestration is a process of the Court, and the seizure must in all cases be made in the mode directed by this Act as to seizures under writs of fieri-facias; and where a sale is ordered, it shall apply only to those seizable things which may be sold, and shall not authorize the sale of any property which is prohibited to be sold by this Act.

All property seizable under a fieri-facias may be seized under a writ of sequestration.

XVI. No writ of execution or sequestration, which shall issue out of any of Her Majesty's said Supreme Courts, shall bind the property as against any purchaser for value bonâ-fide without notice, or as against any mortgagee or pledgee, or other person having a lien, legal or equitable, as against the execution debtor, by advancing on the goods or property bonâ-fide without notice, or as against the process of any other Court, except from the time of its actual execution by seizure according to the nature of the property.

Writs of execution or sequestration not to bind property as against bonâ-fide purchasers for value without notice, &c.

Nor as against process of other Courts.

Except from time of actual execution by seizure.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

19th August 1854.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 19th of August 1854, and referred to a Select Committee, who are to report thereon after the 23rd of November next :—

A Bill for regulating the construction and management of Electric Telegraphs in India.

Preamble.

Whereas it is expedient that provision should be made for regulating the construction and management of lines of Electric Telegraph in India, it is enacted as follows :—

The E. I. Company to have the exclusive privilege of constructing Electric Telegraphs.

I. Within the territories under the Government of the East India Company, the said East India Company shall have the exclusive privilege of constructing and establishing lines of Electric Telegraph. Provided that the Governor General of India in Council shall have the power to grant a conditional licence, to any other party to construct or establish a line of Electric Telegraph within any part of such territories and to transmit messages thereby, subject to revocation of the licence in the event of the non-fulfilment by the holder thereof of any of the conditions therein stipulated.

Penalties for constructing or working unauthorized Electric Telegraphs.

II. Every person who shall, otherwise than under a licence duly granted as aforesaid, or under the special authority of Government, construct, or transmit signals along a line of Electric Telegraph within the territories of the Government of the East India Company, shall forfeit a sum not exceeding five hundred rupees, and every person who shall perform any services incidental to the transmission of signals along such a Telegraph Line, shall forfeit a sum not exceeding one hundred rupees, and for every week during which such incidental services shall continue to be performed, shall forfeit a further sum not exceeding one hundred rupees.

Government may take possession of every Telegraph established under licence.

III. The Governor General of India in Council, on the occurrence of any public emergency, is hereby authorized to take temporary possession of any or every Telegraph established under licence within the territories under the Government of the East India Company.

Governor General may frame rules for the conduct of Electric Telegraphs.

IV. It shall be lawful for the Governor General in Council to frame rules for the conduct of the Electric Telegraph not inconsistent with this Act, and therein to prescribe the regulations, conditions, and restrictions, according to which all messages and signals shall be transmitted.

Government not responsible for any loss or damage.

V. The Government shall not be responsible for any loss or damage which may occur in consequence of failing to transmit with accuracy any message entrusted to any person in charge of any Office of the Electric Telegraph for transmission, and no person employed by the Government in the Electric Telegraph Department shall be responsible for any such loss or damage, unless that person shall cause such loss or damage either through his culpable neglect, fraud, or malice.

No person to intrude into a Telegraph Office.

VI. Every person who shall intrude into a Telegraph Office without the permission of the person in charge of the Office, or shall wilfully obstruct or impede any signaller or other official in the performance of his duty, shall be liable, on conviction before a Magistrate, to fine not exceeding one hundred rupees.

Penalties for cutting the line.

VII. Every person who shall cause, or attempt to cause, any interruption to the transmission of signals along the line, by wilfully cutting or injuring the wire or line, or any portion thereof, or by wilfully injuring any instrument or apparatus, shall be liable to imprisonment, with or without labor, for a term not exceeding two years, or to fine, or to both fine and imprisonment.

Penalties for omitting to transmit messages.

VIII. Whoever, being in the employ of the Government in the Electric Telegraph Department, shall fraudulently or maliciously secrete, make away with, or omit to transmit any message which may have been entrusted to him for transmission, shall be liable to be imprisoned, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding two years, or to fine, or to both.

Penalties for preventing the transmission of messages.

IX. Every person employed to make signals along the line, who shall fraudulently or maliciously retain, or wilfully impede the transmission of a message along the line, or being required by any Officer of the Electric Telegraph Department to transmit a message, shall neglect or refuse to make the requisite signals, shall be liable to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding two years, or to fine, or to both.

Penalties for carelessness and neglect in the delivery of messages.

X. Every person employed to convey or deliver any message sent by Electric Telegraph, who shall be guilty while so employed of any act of drunkenness, carelessness, or other misconduct, whereby the safety of any such message shall be endangered, or who shall loiter or make delay in the conveyance or delivery of any such message, or who shall not use proper care and diligence safely to convey any such message, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees.

Penalties for fraud.

XI. Whoever, being in the employ of the Government in the Electric Telegraph Department, and being entrusted to receive money for the transmission or conveyance of messages or any other public purpose, shall fraudulently appropriate the same, shall be punished, on conviction before a Magistrate, with imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding two years, and shall also be liable to fine.

Penalties for altering a message.

XII. Whoever, being in such employ as is described in Section XI., shall fraudulently alter any message, shall be liable to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding two years, or to fine, or to both.

Penalties for fraudulently altering documents.

XIII. Whoever, being in such employ as is described in Section XI., and being entrusted with the preparing or keeping of any document, shall, with a fraudulent intention, prepare that document incorrectly, or alter that document, or secrete or destroy that document, shall be liable to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding two years, or to fine, or to both.

Penalties for sending messages without payment to Government.

XIV. Whoever, being in such employ as is described in Section XI., shall send by the Electric Telegraph, any message upon which the charge prescribed in the rules and regulations of the Department has not been paid, intending thereby to defraud the Government of the charge on such message, shall be punished, on conviction before a Magistrate, with a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees.

Fines how to be recovered.

XV Any person, whether a European British subject or not, who shall be guilty of any offence, for which, according to the provisions of this Act, he shall be liable to fine only, shall be punishable, for such offence, by any Justice of the Peace, for any of the Presidency Towns of Calcutta, Madras and Bombay, Magistrate, Joint Magistrate, or person lawfully exercising the powers of Magistrate ; and any person, hereby made punishable by a Justice of the Peace shall be punishable upon summary conviction.

Conviction to be quashed on merits only, Form of conviction, &c.

XVI. No conviction, order, or judgment of any Justice of the Peace shall be quashed for error of form or procedure, but only on the merits ; and it shall not be necessary to state, on the face of the conviction, order, or judgment, the evidence on which it proceeds ; but the depositions taken, or a copy of them, shall be returned with the conviction, order, or judgment, in obedience to any writ of certiorari ; and if no jurisdiction appears on the face of the conviction, order, or judgment, but the depositions taken supply that defect, the conviction, order, or judgment shall be upheld by what so appears in such depositions

Mode of realizing fines.

XVII. All fines incurred under the provisions of this Act by any person, except in respect of offences punishable by fine in addition to imprisonment, shall, upon conviction of the offender before any Magistrate, be levied, together with the costs attending the prosecution and conviction, by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the party or parties offending, by warrant under the hand of such Magistrate, and if, upon the return of such warrant, it shall appear that no sufficient distress can be had thereon, then it shall be lawful for any Magistrate, by warrant under his hand and seal, to cause such offender or offenders to be committed to prison, there to be imprisoned, according to the discretion of such Magistrate, for any term not exceeding two calendar months, where the amount of the fine shall not exceed fifty rupees, and for any term not exceeding four calendar months, where the amount of the fine shall not exceed one hundred rupees, and for any term not exceeding six calendar months in any other case, the commitment to be determinable in each of the cases aforesaid upon payment of the amount of the fine and of the costs attending the prosecution and conviction.

Authority to punish Servants of the East India Company who commit offences against this Act in foreign territory.

XVIII. If any Servant of the East India Company, who shall be employed by the said Company in the Electric Telegraph Department, shall be posted within the dominions of any Foreign Prince or State in alliance with the said Company, in which an Electric Telegraph shall be established by the said Company, shall, within the dominions of such Prince or State, commit any act hereby prohibited, or omit to do any act hereby required to be done by any person similarly employed, appointed, or entrusted as aforesaid within the territories under the Government of the said Company, such Servant of the said Company shall be guilty of an offence, and on conviction thereof, shall be punished in the same manner as if such act had been done or omitted within the said last-mentioned territories, and every such person may be convicted and punished, either by fine or otherwise, according to the nature of the offence, by any Magistrate or Court in any part of the said last-mentioned territories, in the same manner as if the offence had been committed in such part of the said territories.

Explanation of terms.

XIX. The word "Magistrate" in this Act shall include Joint Magistrates and persons lawfully exercising the powers of Magistrates ; and the word "Fine" shall include a penalty or forfeiture.

RULES FOR THE MANAGEMENT OF THE POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT.

Passed by the Governor General of India in Council, on the 12th of August 1854.

All existing orders passed by Government rescinded.

I ALL existing Rules, General Orders and Proclamations issued by the Government, for the guidance of the Post Office Departments of the different Presidencies and Settlements of India, saving such as relate to Dawk Travelling and matters of account, shall cease to have effect from 1st of October next, and the following Rules and Orders shall be substituted for the same, to be in force at all Post Office Stations in any of the Presidencies, Settlements, or Possessions of the East India Company, and to take effect from the above-mentioned date.

Receipt of letters, &c., for despatch by land or sea.

II. Letters, papers and parcels shall be received at every Post Office, for despatch by land or sea, to every part of India, to Ceylon, and to every other part of the world with which there is a Post Office communication. Unless specially superscribed for the first despatch by land or by sea, or by some particular ship, they shall be sent by such route as shall appear to the Post Master to afford the means of most speedy and secure transmission. Letters and papers not exceeding 12 tolahs in weight shall also be received at every Receiving House or other place which the Post Master General may appoint. Letters, papers and parcels shall likewise be received for despatch by post as above at every Thannah or District Dawk Office.

Receipt of letters for Foreign countries viâ Great Britain or Ireland.

III. Letters, papers or parcels required to be transmitted viâ Great Britain or Ireland to foreign countries must, unless the pre-payment of postage from the United Kingdom to such countries be optional, be addressed to the care of an agent or other person in the United Kingdom, by whom the foreign postage demandable at the London General or other Post Office may be paid. Such postage cannot be received in this country, and unless it be paid through an agent as above described, the letters are liable to be returned to India.

Name of sender of any letter, &c., not to be demanded.

IV. The name of the sender of any letter, paper or parcel shall not be demanded in any Post Office, whether the postage be pre-paid or not.

Letters to be received at any station for delivery at such station.

V. Letters, papers or parcels shall be received at any Presidency or Provincial Post Office, or Receiving House, for delivery at the same station, within the ordinary range of delivery.

Limitation as to weight of parcels.

VI. Parcels exceeding 600 tolahs in weight may be received at the discretion of any Officer in charge of a Post Office for despatch along any line of road on which the banghy parcels are not carried by foot-runners; but no parcel exceeding 2,000 tolahs in weight shall be received at any Post Office for despatch by banghy or letter mail under any circumstances whatever.

Parcels received from seaward in excess of maximum weight how to be treated.

VII Parcels received by post from seaward, exceeding the maximum weight, which may be sent by banghy post, shall be made over to the Collector of Customs for publication in his lists of Unclaimed Packages.

Newspapers, &c., not to be detained for examination, but to be forwarded marked "Doubtful."

VIII. Newspapers or other printed or engraved papers, packed in open covers, or letters certified to be on the Public Service, respecting any of which there is reason to believe that the provisions of the Post Office Act have been infringed, shall not be detained for examination at the Despatching Office, but shall be forwarded marked "Doubtful." The Post Master receiving such letters, &c., by the mail, shall then be guided by the instructions laid down in Section XLVIII. of the Post Office Act; but unless for the causes specified above, and in Sections XXXVII and XLVIII. of the Post Office Act, all Post Office authorities are prohibited from detaining any letter, paper or packet received for delivery by post.

Letters, papers and parcels to be weighed at Office of despatch.

IX. All letters, newspapers or other papers and packets received for despatch by post, or banghy post, shall be weighed at the Post Office of despatch, and shall be stamped with the office stamp, and marked single, double, &c., as the case may be; and all letters, &c., the full postage on which has not been pre-paid by stamps, shall have the postage to which they are severally liable marked on them. Service letters shall never be re-weighed prior to delivery, nor newspapers, except in case of suspicion. Banghy parcels shall in all cases be re-weighed on delivery. The re-weighing of private letters shall be at the discretion of the Officer in charge.

Examination of Post Office records not permitted to the public.

X. Persons not belonging to the Department shall not be admitted into the interior, nor permitted to examine the records of any Post Office, without the special permission of the Post Master General, to whom, or to the Post Master, applications for information or redress must be made, either in person, or in writing, by the party requiring the same.

Hours of receipt at Presidency Post Offices.

XI. At each Presidency Post Office, banghy parcels will be received every day, Sundays excepted, for despatch, from 10 A. M. till 5 P. M., and newspapers and letters every day till 6 P. M., after which hours, respectively, they will be received till 7 P. M., on payment of an extra half-rupee each, which shall be credited to Government.

At Receiving Houses.

XII. At Receiving Houses and places where there are letter boxes, letters, papers and packets not exceeding 12 tolahs in weight will be received daily from 11 A. M. to 4 P. M., or at such other hours as may be determined by the Post Master General, provided that no Receiving House shall remain open for less than five hours daily, and that letter-boxes for letters unpaid and prepaid by stamps be kept open, day and night, except for a quarter of an hour subsequent to the time fixed for the closing of each mail.

At Provincial Post Offices.

XIII. At Provincial Post Offices, banghy parcels will be received for despatch from 10 A. M. till 4 P. M., and letters and newspapers till 5 P. M., after which hours respectively they will be received till 5½ P. M., on the sender paying an extra half-rupee each, to be appropriated as provided in Section XI.

Office hours for reference.

XIV. Although all Post Offices will be open for receipt of letters, papers and parcels as above, official references shall be made to Post Office authorities only between the hours of 11 and 5, Sundays excepted.

Delivery of letters, &c., at Presidency Post Offices.

XV. At each Presidency Post Office, there shall be three deliveries daily, the first delivery not to be later than 7, the second at 11 A. M., and the third at 3 P. M., at which hours, respectively, the peons shall quit the Office with the letters, &c., entrusted to them. All letters, papers and parcels received from 3 P. M. till 5 A. M. shall be sent out at the first delivery, all from 5 to 10 A. M. at the second delivery, and all from 10 A. M. to 3 P. M. at the third delivery, and mails received after 3 P. M. shall not ordinarily be opened till the following morning, except when received by Express or from seaward.

At Provincial Post Offices.

XVI. At Provincial Post Offices the delivery of letters, papers and parcels must depend upon the hour of the arrival of the mails at each station, after which they shall be delivered with all possible despatch.

Immediate payment of postage required.

XVII. The delivering peons are prohibited from going out of their usual course to deliver letters, papers or parcels, and from delivering them without immediate payment of the exact amount of postage; and they are not bound to give change. Should they be subject to detention, they are not to deliver the letters, papers or parcels, but to return them in the evening to the Post Office for delivery the following day.

Complaints how to be preferred.

XVIII. Whatever postage is marked on a letter, paper or parcel must be paid at once on delivery, after which any complaint of over-charge will be duly attended to. In all complaints of over-charge or unnecessary delay in delivering letters, papers or parcels, the covers or envelopes bearing the Post Office stamp must be presented for inspection; and when any complaints are preferred against any peon, the number on his badge should be specified.

Despatch of mails from Presidency Post Offices.

XIX. From each Presidency Post Office the mails shall be despatched daily at 8 P. M. and the banghies as soon after as possible.

From Provincial Post Offices.

XX. At Provincial Post Offices the packets for all mails to be despatched in the course of the night shall be finally closed at 6 P. M.; but for mails which usually pass in the course of the day, the packets shall be made up half an hour before the time appointed for the arrival of such mails, which are in no case to be subjected to any detention beyond the regulated time. Notice of the hour at which such packet is closed shall be hung up outside the Office, both in English and in the language of the district, after which hour, letters, papers or parcels received shall not be forwarded till the following day, unless such mails should not arrive until after 6 P. M., in which case a second packet shall be made up.

Letters, &c., damaged, not to be received.

XXI. The Post Master at any station, or person in charge of the Office, shall have power to refuse letters, papers or parcels bearing the appearance of having been opened and re-closed, or otherwise improperly dealt with, unless the writer or sender thereof shall attest with his full signature, that they were sent in that state.

Post Offices not to receive valuables for despatch.

XXII. In order to protect, as far as possible, the public mails from the chance of robbery, Officers in charge of Post Offices shall not knowingly receive coin, bullion, precious stones or jewels for despatch, either by letter or banghy post.

Post Office prohibited from giving change.

XXIII. The servants at the several Post Offices are prohibited from giving change to parties sending or receiving letters in any case.

Registered letters.

XXIV. Letters will be registered on payment of a fee of 4 annas, and parties posting such letters will be furnished with a receipt bearing the address of the letter and the office stamp. The fee must in all cases be paid in money. On the delivery of a registered letter, a receipt for the same must be given to the delivery peon.

Receipts will not be given for letters, &c.

XXV. Receipts will not be granted for any letters or papers received at any Post Office for despatch, except in the case of registered letters; and will be granted for parcels only when presented ready written, either in books or on separate slips of paper along with the parcels. Receipts so presented will be duly stamped.

Notice to arriving vessels for disposal of packets.

XXVI. On the arrival of any ship or vessel off any British Indian port, a printed notice, under the signature of the Post Master of the port or station, shall be delivered to the Commander by the first boat despatched to board the vessel, according to the requisition of which, the Commander shall proceed to dispose of such packets as he may have on board, as directed in Section XL. of the Post Office Act, a copy of which Clause shall be communicated to the said Commander.

Master Attendant to notify intended departure for all vessels.

XXVII. The Master Attendant of each Presidency port, or such other Officer as may be directed by Government, shall furnish the Post Master with early intimation of the intended departure of all vessels to any part of the world, and the Post Master shall cause a list of the vessels for which packets are open to be published weekly in the official Gazette of his own Presidency.

Post Master to publish weekly lists.

Post Master to publish weekly notice of packets despatched.

XXVIII. The Post Master shall also cause to be published weekly, in the official Gazette of the Presidency, a notice of the several dates up to which packets have been despatched by each vessel carrying a mail, that may have left the port.

Public despatches to be compactly made up.

XXIX. All public despatches are to be made up in the most compact form possible, and whenever two or more letters are despatched from any one Office to the same individual, by the same day's post, they are to be put up under one cover, provided they do not, in the aggregate, exceed 12 tolahs weight.

XXX. When the number of covers received at any Post Office shall cause the weight of the mail to exceed the regulated weight, the Post Master is authorized to keep back a portion of the heavier public despatches and imported newspapers till the following day, but private letters and public letters marked "Despatch" shall not be kept back.

When bulk of mails exceeds regulated weight how to be disposed of.

XXXI. Despatches to be transmitted by Express must bear on the face of them the words "By Express," and the signature in full of the Officer sending them.

Expresses.

XXXII. As the employment of Expresses interferes with the celerity and regularity of the ordinary mails, and is attended with expense, public Officers are enjoined to employ them as sparingly as possible, and any public Officer despatching an Express, when the exigency of the Public Service does not, in the opinion of the authority to whom he is subordinate, require it, will be held answerable for the expenses attending that method of transmission. Public Expresses from a Presidency Post Office can only be ordered by a Secretary to Government.

Public Officers to employ them sparingly under a penalty.

XXXIII. Expresses may be employed by private individuals at the discretion of the Post Master applied to, on payment being made at the rate of 4 annas per mile in advance.

Expresses for private persons.

XXXIV. Letters directed to Native Officers, or men of their Regiments or Detachments, shall be delivered to an Orderly, or any other fit person, who shall be deputed by the Officer Commanding the Regiment or Detachment to receive the same; but letters on which postage may be due shall not be delivered to such person, unless the postage be first paid.

Commanding Officers may receive letters for their own Regiments.

XXXV. Letters which individuals address on their private affairs to any Government Officer must be sent pre-paid by stamps; and this rule is to be understood to include letters transmitting Bills of Exchange, Promissory Notes, Receipts, Government Securities, &c., to the Accountant General, Government Agent, or any other public Officer. When public Officers write letters on such subjects to individuals, they shall subscribe on the envelopes, with their official signatures, the words Bearing Postage."

Letters addressed to public Officers on private affairs to be prepaid by stamps.

XXXVI. The postage on letters and parcels sent on the Public Service, by the public Officers mentioned in the subjoined lists, shall be charged to the Departments to which they severally belong; such letters must be addressed according to the subjoined form:—

Postage on letters on Public Service to be charged to the Department to which Officers signing them belong.

XLV. At such Post Offices as have more than one delivery daily, all letters, papers and packets must be marked with a stamp, showing at which delivery they were distributed.

C. ALLEN,
Offg. Secy. to the Govt. of India.

GENERAL RULES RELATING TO THE RECEIPT, DESPATCH AND DELIVERY OF LETTERS BY DISTRICT POSTS.

Approved of by the Governor General of India in Council, on the 12th August 1854.

1. WHEREVER any local establishment may be maintained for the conveyance or delivery of the Police, Revenue or other official communications, it shall also be made use of for the conveyance and delivery of private correspondence, and be designated a District Post.

2. All Office or Road establishments, attached to any District Post, will be under the control and management of the Officer to whom they may be entrusted by the Local Government.

3. Such Police Stations and other Public Offices, as may be selected by the Local Government, shall be constituted District Post Offices, but this shall remain under the management and supervision of the same officials who are at present in charge of them.

4. A Letter Box, with a slit in the top or side, shall be fixed in a conspicuous place outside of every District Post Office. The words "Letter Box," in English and the Vernacular of the district shall be painted on each box in legible characters.

5. All letters (except those to be specially registered,) intended for despatch from any District Post Office, must be dropped into the Letter Box. No receipt will be given. Every letter posted at a District Post Office must have its proper postage stamp affixed to it.

6. Any person wishing to post a registered letter at any District Post Office can do so on payment of a registry fee of four annas, in addition to the ordinary postage chargeable on the letter, according to its weight. A receipt in the proper form must, in all cases, be given to the poster of a registered letter, whether it be demanded or not. One anna of the registration fee will be allowed to the person registering the letter, the remaining three annas must be sent with the letter by the same day's despatch to the nearest Post Office.

7. Every District Post Office will be supplied by the Post Office Department with registered letter covers, forms of receipt and of register, and with the rules relating to registered letters.

8. Except when it may be opened for the purpose of taking out the letters preparatory to their despatch, the Letter Box shall remain locked, the key being in custody of the person in charge of the Office

9. Fifteen minutes before the hour at which the despatches of the Office are usually made up, the Letter Box will be opened and the letters in it taken out. Those addressed to places to which there is a direct communication through the District Post will be separated from all other letters, sorted and packed in covers addressed to the Officer in charge of the District Post Office from which they will be delivered. The remaining letters will be made up into one packet and addressed to the nearest Post Office with which he has a communication.

10. A Chulan or Letter Bill in the Vernacular (Form 1) will be sent with every packet despatched from a District Office to a Post Office. The Deputy Post Master or person in charge of the Post Office will, after satisfying himself that the contents of the packet agree with the Chulan, copy the entries into his register, sign, and by the next day's despatch return the Chulan. The receipted Chulans will be filed and form the only record in any District Post Office of the despatches made from it.

11. All Chulans are to be numbered consecutively in a series, commencing on the 1st of May; and if any District Post Office is in the habit of sending packets to more than one Post Office, the Chulans sent to each Post Office will be numbered in a separate series.

12. All letters sent from one District Post Office to another will be accompanied by a Chulan (Form 2), which will be receipted and returned to the Despatching Office, to be filed as a record.

13. All letters received at any Post Office, to the address of persons resident in the same district, but beyond the limits of any ordinary post delivery, will, if the Post Office be at the head-quarters of the district, be sent with a Chulan (Form 1) to the Officer in charge of the District Post, to be by him sorted and forwarded to the District Post Offices of the several sub-divisions in which the residence of the addressees may be situated.

14. Persons in charge of Post Offices in the interior of districts receiving letters for persons residing beyond the limits of their ordinary delivery, but within the sub-division of a District Post Office with which they have direct communication, will send them, if pre-paid, for delivery to that Office, with a Chulan (Form 1.) Letters for persons resident in the district, but within a sub-division with which the Receiving Office has no direct communication, must be sent to the Post Office of the head-quarters of the district. All letters bearing postage for delivery in the interior must be sent to the Post Office at the head-quarters of the district.

15. Officers in charge of District Post Offices will carefully compare with the Chulan the contents of every packet received. If the Chulan is correct, it will be receipted and returned; if not correct, the discrepancies will be noted thereon.

16. A delivery book (Form 3,) showing the names of persons entrusted with the delivery of letters, will be kept in every District Post Office, and be the only record of letters received for delivery.

17. Letters will be delivered by such persons and under such rules as the Local Government may from time to time determine. Every person, through whom any District Post letter may be delivered, is authorized to receive a fee of one pice (a fourth of an anna) for his own use, in addition to any unpaid postage which may be due on it.

18. All postage realized on letters sent from any Post Office for delivery through the District Post will be remitted every Saturday to the Post Office at the head-quarters of the district with the remittance book (Form 4.) The person in charge of the Post Office will give a receipt for the amount in the opposite column and return the book by the first despatch. At the close of the month, a balance will be struck, showing the postage still due to the Post Office on letters which have been received; this balance will be brought forward and a new account commenced on the 1st of the following month.

19. All letters, which from any cause cannot be delivered, will be returned with as little delay as possible to the Post Office from which they were received and if any unpaid postage be due on them, credit for the amount will be taken in the remittance book. Unpaid letters are never, under any circumstances, to be sent from one District Post Office to another.

20. A monthly memorandum (Form 5,) showing the number of letters received for delivery at each District Post Office, will be prepared by the person in charge and sent on the 2nd of the following month to the Officer in charge of the Post Office at the head-quarters of the district. Persons in charge of Post Offices will prepare similar memoranda and send them to the Post Office at the head-quarters of the district. The Officer in charge will, before the 15th of each month, prepare a general statement showing the number of letters posted at, and delivered through the agency of the District Post Office in the preceding month.

By Order of the Most Noble the Governor General of India in Council,

C. ALLEN,
Offg. Secy. to the Govt. of India.

No. 3577, dated 18*th August* 1851.—The Most Noble the Governor General in Council is pleased to permit Major A. C. Dewar to resign his appointment of Commandant of the 1st Regiment of Cavalry, Gwalior Contingent, from the 31st instant, the date on which the leave granted to him in General Order No. 130, dated 13th January last, will expire.

No. 843 of 1854.—The Proceedings of the General Court Martial, held at Prome on the 14th of June last, for the trial of Lieutenant A. Procter, 39th Regiment Native Infantry, and doing duty with the Arracan Local Battalion, have been submitted to the Supreme Government by His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief.

Lieutenant Procter, on the 15th of December last, caused two Burmese, who had been caught in his Camp, to be shot to death by a party of the Arracan Battalion. He was accordingly tried on a charge of murder, was found guilty of manslaughter, and was sentenced by the Court Martial to three months' imprisonment in the Gaol of Calcutta, but was strongly recommended to mercy.

His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief refused to confirm the sentence and ordered Lieutenant Procter to remain in open arrest, pending the orders of Government.

In a case of so much importance, the Most Noble the Governor General in Council has deemed it necessary to record the following observations and to promulgate them for the information and guidance of the Officers of the Armies of India.

The effect of the finding of the Court Martial, and of the refusal of the Commander-in-Chief to confirm the sentence, is to exempt Lieutenant Procter from the punishment contained in the sentence, and from all other punishment by law.

The Most Noble the Governor General in Council has carefully studied the proceedings and the evidence before the Court; and although the finding of that tribunal has practically exempted Lieutenant Procter from punishment, His Lordship in Council finds it impossible to regard that Officer as free from blame or guilt.

Lieutenant Procter was in command of a detachment of 125 men of the Arracan Battalion, in the district of Tharawaddy. The greater part of that district was in a lawless state, overrun by bands of armed men under the orders of Moung Goung Gee, by some of whom Lieutenant Procter expected to be attacked. The Burmese headman of the village had informed him that two spies were to be despatched from the Camp of Moung Goung Gee to that of Lieutenant Procter.

On the 15th December, (on which day Lieutenant Procter had been re-inforced by a Company of the 10th Native Infantry,) two Burmese were seized in Lieutenant Procter's Camp. They were declared to be the spies expected. Whereupon Lieutenant Procter, within an hour after they were taken, tied them up, and had them then and there shot to death, himself giving the word of command.

The Governor General in Council cannot but regard this act as justly calling for the severest condemnation of the Supreme Government.

Lieutenant Procter's plea, that the destruction of these men as spies was justified by the custom of War, is, in the opinion of Government, utterly untenable.

Admitting to the fullest degree Lieutenant Procter's allegation that his detachment was in the midst of hostilities—that armed marauders or insurgents were in his vicinity and were expected shortly to attack him,—and that the men whom he seized were actually spies from the insurgent's Camp;—his act will in the eyes of Government still stand wholly without justification.

The destruction of these two wretches averted no danger from his force;—it could exercise no material influence on his opponents. Whatever danger might be involved in their presence as spies had been counteracted, for they were already in his power; the Governor General in Council considers it to be utterly idle to say that safe custody could be found for them only in death.

The words employed by Lieutenant Procter in his defence before the Court Martial, "you "may make it the moral of my Court Martial, "'never assume responsibility even for the purpose of saving bloodshed,'" are calculated to be effective as declamation before a court; but that they did not convince the Court Martial of his innocence, is plainly apparent from the Court's verdict; which, although it declared Lieutenant Procter not to have committed murder, and convicted him of the crime of manslaughter which he did not commit, yet pronounced his conduct culpable to the extent of feloniously taking life. Such declamation, however, when tested by facts, is void of all solid substance.

The act of Lieutenant Procter in destroying these men, was not necessary to the safe custody of two bound prisoners among 200 soldiers. It did nothing for the safety of his detachment. It could not possibly have averted attack at the moment; and the supposition cannot for an instant be admitted, that it would influence the Chief Moung Goung Gee to abstain from his opposition thereafter.

There was, therefore, no call for Lieutenant Procter assuming the responsibility of the immediate death of these men.

The Government of India must ever value highly the exhibition of energy, determination and absence of undue fear of responsibility in the Officers of the Army. But all these qualities may be possessed and displayed in the highest degree, without the commission of any such act as that for which Lieutenant Procter has been arraigned before a court Martial.

The Most Noble the Governor General in Council protests against the condemnation of it being represented as a discouragement on the part of the Government, of the exercise by the Officers of the Indian Army of a spirit of resolution, and of readiness to meet the responsibilities of every position in which the course of their service may place them

Lieutenant Procter was selected for detached employment with the Arracan Battalion. His conduct on this occasion requires that that distinction should be taken from him.

The Most Noble the Governor General in Council accordingly requests that His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief will be so good as to remove Lieutenant Procter from the Arracan Battalion, and remand him to his proper Regiment, the 39th Regiment Native Infantry, releasing him at the same time from arrest.

Rangoon Post Office Notice.

LETTERS and Newspapers, which should be addressed to RANGOON only, are frequently directed by mistake to Pegu or Burmah, and letters, &c. intended for delivery in Pegu, Prome, Bassein and other places in the Provinces, are in like manner erroneously addressed to "Rangoon, Burmah." The Rangoon Post Master begs to notify that, with such vague directions, this Department is left to find out to which of the Stations such letters should be forwarded, and from want of information, great disappointment is felt when they are despatched to the wrong Station. To obviate this, it is desirable, that parties posting letters in Calcutta or elsewhere, should be careful to direct them to their respective Stations, and to inform their Agents and Correspondents, when leaving one place for another, of their change of address, to ensure letters being directed to the proper Station. A list of places in the Pegu Provinces or in Burmah, and their distance from Rangoon, is annexed below, viz. :

Donabew, ...	40	miles
Pegu, ...	55	,,

Letters addressed to public functionaries, whose head-quarters or residence is in Rangoon, should be addressed "Rangoon," instead of Pegu or Burmah; but if intended for delivery at other Stations, should be addressed to those Stations, the word Rangoon to be omitted.

Notice to Mariners.

DEVAAR LIGHTHOUSE.

THE COMMISSIONERS of NORTHERN LIGHTHOUSES hereby give Notice, that a LIGHTHOUSE has been built upon the ISLAND of DEVAAR, at the Entrance to the BAY of CAMPBELTOWN, in the County of ARGYLL, the Light of which will be exhibited on the Night of MONDAY 10th July 1854, and every Night thereafter, from the going away of daylight in the evening till the return of daylight in the morning.

The following is a Specification of the Lighthouse, and the Appearance of the Light, by MR. DAVID STEVENSON, Engineer to the Commissioners.

The LIGHTHOUSE is in N. Lat. 55° 25′ 45″, and W. Long. 5° 32′ 16″.

The DEVAAR LIGHT will be known to Mariners as a REVOLVING LIGHT, which shows a bright white Light once every half-minute.

The Light is elevated about 120 feet above the level of high water of ordinary spring tides, and may be seen at the distance of about 15 nautic miles, and at lesser distances, according to the state of the atmosphere: to a nearer observer, in favourable circumstances, the Light will not wholly disappear between the intervals of greatest brightness. The arc, illuminated by this Light, extends from about S. ¼ E. by compass to about W. ½ N., and faces Northwards.

And the COMMISSIONERS hereby further GIVE NOTICE, that Her Majesty, by Order in Council, dated 29th December 1853, was pleased to order and direct that, upon the Erection and Lighting of the said Light upon the Island of Devaar, there should be paid, in respect thereof, for every Vessel belonging to the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland (the same not belonging to Her Majesty or being navigated wholly in ballast,) and for every Foreign Vessel, which by any Act of Parliament, Order in Council, Convention or Treaty, shall be privileged to enter the Ports of the United Kingdom, upon paying the same Duties of Tonnage as are paid by British Vessels, the same not being navigated wholly in ballast, which shall pass or derive benefit from the said Light, that is, which shall arrive at or depart from any Port or Place in the Bay or Loch of Campbeltown, if the burthen of the same shall not exceed Fifty Tons, Six-pence, and if the same shall exceed Fifty Tons, for each additional Fifty Tons, or part of Fifty Tons, Six-pence.

And Her Majesty was further pleased to order and direct, by the said Order in Council, that in respect of the said Light on Devaar, and in respect of another light in Loch Ryan, on the South side of the Basin of the Clyde erected by the said Commissioners, there shall be paid by every Vessel before described, and under the exemptions aforesaid, which shall navigate on a distinct voyage within the Great Basin of the Clyde, bounded by a line drawn from the Point of Corsewall to Glenarm in Ireland, on the South-east, and from another line drawn from the Mull of Kintyre to Fairhead, in Ireland, on the North-west, and on all other sides by the coasts of Ireland and Scotland surrounding the said Basin, a similar rate of Toll to that above set forth, being at the rate of Three-pence for each of the said Lights.

Double the said respective Tolls for every Foreign Vessel not privileged as aforesaid.

Provided always, that Vessels arriving at or departing from any port or place within Loch Ryan, or within Campbeltown Loch, and paying the rates for such respective voyages, shall not in addition be liable in payment of the rates for navigating the Basin of the Clyde.

The above rates are, by another Order in Council, declared to be subject to the following abatements on payment:—

Over-sea Vessels, Twenty-five per cent.
Coasting Vessels, Ten per cent.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 26, 1854.

Legislative Council.

19th August 1854.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 19th of August 1854, and referred to a Select Committee, who are to report thereon after the 23rd of November next:—

A Bill for the further Improvement of the Law as administered in Her Majesty's Supreme Courts; for the transfer and abridgment of the Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction thereof; and for giving additional powers in certain cases to Justices of the Peace, with regard to offences committed out of their jurisdiction.

Business of Supreme Courts to be transacted on four sides only, viz., Plea, Equity, Admiralty, and Crown sides.

I. The business of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts, after this Act comes into operation, shall be transacted on four divisions or sides of the Court only, viz., the Plea, the Equity, the Admiralty, and the Crown side.

In Admiralty or Vice-Admiralty suits, Court empowered to call in Assessors.

II. In any suit brought on the Admiralty side of any of the Supreme Courts, or in any Vice-Admiralty Court in the Territories subject to the Government of the East India Company, which is likely to involve any question of nautical skill, the Court shall have power to summon from persons possessing such skill one or more, not exceeding three in number, to sit as Assessor or Assessors to the Court on the trial of the cause; but such Assessor or Assessors shall not be required to deliver his or their opinion or opinions publicly; and the Judge or Judges may retire and confer with him or them in private, and the decision of the case shall rest with the Court.

Remuneration of Assessors.

III. The Court shall have power to allow a remuneration to each Assessor for his attendance, at the rate of one Gold Mohur each a day, and such remuneration shall be in the first instance payable by the Promovent, as part of his costs in the cause.

Assessors to be sworn, &c.

IV. The Assessors must swear, or solemnly affirm, or must affirm, as the case may be, that they will give their opinion honestly and truly according to the Evidence.

Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction to be transferred to the Equity side.

V. The jurisdiction which the said Supreme Courts possessed prior to the passing of this Act on their Ecclesiastical side shall cease on that side and be transferred entirely to the Equity side of the Court, except as to suits pending at the time when this Act comes into force, and the jurisdiction as to matters of Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction shall be limited to Causes Testamentary, including Administrations and Causes Matrimonial. Provided that in any suit for restitution of conjugal rights, the Court shall be at liberty to limit its sentence to one for alimony, without making any order to compel cohabitation.

Limitation of Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction.

Proviso, as to cohabitation.

Procedure in Ecclesiastical matters to be the same as on the Equity side.

VI. The procedure as to matters which were of Ecclesiastical cognizance, and which are directed to be transferred to the Equity side, shall be that which may be in force on the Equity side, modified by the Rules and Orders of the Court, so far as it may require to be modified in order to give effect to this Act.

Probate or Letters of Administration granted by Supreme Court in one Presidency to have effect throughout British India.

VII. When any Probate or Letters of Administration has, or have been granted by any one of the said Supreme Courts to any other person than the Administrator General of such Presidency, respectively, and there are Assets of the Estate in any of the other Presidencies, it shall not be necessary to obtain any fresh grant of Probate or fresh Administration in any other of such Presidencies, but the one first granted shall operate throughout the territories of British India, and shall, as to any Assets therein, be of the same force and effect as if it had been granted by the authority of the Supreme Court of the Presidency in which such Assets may be.

VIII. Clause 1st. When any Letters of Administration shall have been granted by any other of the Supreme Courts after such first grant as aforesaid, and without the assent of the Executor or Administrator to whom such first grant has been made of Probate or Letters of Administration as the case may be, such letters shall be liable to be revoked by the Court granting the same on the application of the Executor or Administrator under the first grant; but all acts done under them in the due course of Administration shall be valid to all intents and purposes. The Administrator under the second grant shall, when it is revoked, be liable to account to the Executor or Administrator under the first, and to pay over to such Executor or Administrator under the first, whatever may remain in his hands to be distributed.

Letters of Administration granted by any Supreme Court after grant of Probate or Letters of Administration by the Supreme Court of another Presidency, may be revoked.

But acts of Administrator under the second grant to be in the meantime valid, &c.

Administrator under second grant to be accountable after revocation to Executor or Administrator under first grant.

Clause 2nd. When Administration, or Administration with the Will annexed, shall have been granted ex-officio to the Administrator General of one Presidency, and there are Assets belonging to the Estate in another or other Presidencies, it shall not be necessary for the Administrator General of another Presidency in which there may be Assets to take out Letters of Administration, but each may act as to the Assets within his Presidency, in the collection and distribution of them, in like manner as if he had taken out Letters of Administration in the Presidency in which he is Administrator General, and each shall be entitled to his Commission on the Assets collected and distributed by him, as though there had been separate grants of Letters of Administration to each; and the Letters of Administration to the Administrator General, by virtue of his office, shall be expressed so as to give to each Administrator General in each Presidency the right to collect and distribute the effects in his Presidency, and each shall be answerable for his own acts and defaults only, and not for those of any other Administrator General. And when any Administrator General has taken out Letters of Administration, and he has reason to believe that there are Assets in another Presidency, he shall forthwith certify under his hand to the Administrator General, of such Presidency, the fact of his having taken out such Letters of Administration, and shall give such information as he possesses as to the existence of Assets in the Presidency of the Administrator General to whom such communication is addressed. And it is further enacted, that each Administrator General shall give notice, in like manner as the Administrator General taking out Letters of Administration is obliged to give notice, that he claims to administer in his Presidency, by virtue of such grant of the Court which issued the Letters describing it, and thereupon any party disputing his right and intending to claim the right to probate, or to administer in that Presidency to which such notice relates, may apply to the Supreme Court of the Presidency of the Administrator giving such notice, for a grant to himself, and to revoke, so far as it relates to the particular Presidency, the original grant, which the said Court shall have power to do as fully as if such grant had been one of that Court. It is further enacted, that such certificate shall, on its production, be sufficient proof of the grant of such original Letters, which shall be judicially presumed to be in the regular form directed by this Act.

A grant in one Presidency to the Administrator General ex-officio shall empower the Administrator General in other Presidencies, respectively, to collect and distribute Assets in each, without applying for fresh grants to the Courts of their respective Presidencies, saving rights as to Commission.

IX. When any suit is instituted in any of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts, on the Equity side thereof, such Court shall proceed with the suit if it embraces any matter of equitable jurisdiction, and in such suit determine all matters, whether of Law or Equity, that therein arise, and give all such consequential relief as may be necessary to give full effect to the rights determined, and in so doing shall have power to bring before it, by notice, provided such person be subject to its jurisdiction, any person not a party to the suit, whose rights may appear to be affected by the enforcement of such consequential relief.

Supreme court may, in any Equity suit, determine questions of Law arising therein.

And may bring before it by notice persons interested, though not parties to the suit.

X. In any Bill or Claim which is filed in any of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts after the time when this Act comes into effect, for the specific performance of any agreement, the relief may be asked in the alternative for a specific performance or for damages; and the Court shall have power to award damages if it think that, under the circumstances, it would not be equitable, or proper, or practicable, to give relief by specific performance, in like manner, and to as full an extent as damages might be given in an action at Law for the same breach of agreement.

In suits for specific performance, Supreme Court may award damages instead of decreeing specific performance.

XI. When any action is instituted in any of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts, on the Plea side thereof, such Court shall proceed with the action if it embraces any matter of jurisdiction on the Plea side of the Court, and all defences on equitable grounds which might have been made the subject of an application to a Court of Equity to restrain proceedings at Law, in such a suit, under the like circumstances, shall be made matter of defence in that suit; and no Bill shall be filed to restrain or interfere with the progress of the suit on the Plea side; and in like manner the Court shall hear and determine in such action any equitable defence on the part of the Plaintiff to any set-off or counter-claim which may be pleaded by the Defendant; and it shall have power, on the application of either party, by an order in the nature of an injunction, to stay the further prosecution of Equitable defences allowed to actions instituted on the Plea side.

Bills to restrain progress of suits on the Plea side not allowed.

Plaintiff may set up any equitable defence to set-off or counter-claim.

Court on its Plea side may make orders

In the nature of injunctions

the action, pending any inquiry which it may see fit to direct, and also to restrain the opposite party, either temporarily or perpetually, from doing any act with reference to the subject-matter of the suit, as a Court of Equity might have restrained such party upon a Bill filed, and praying an injunction against him.

Supreme Courts on their Plea side, and Courts of Small Causes to have jurisdiction to try actions on lost negotiable securities

XII From the time when this Act comes into operation, Her Majesty's Supreme Courts shall have jurisdiction to try on the Plea side an action on a lost negotiable Bill of Exchange or other negotiable security, as to which, before this Act came into operation, the remedy would have been on the Equity side of the Court alone, and shall have power to order indemnity to be given by the Plaintiff recovering in such action, in like manner as it would have been ordered by the Court on the Equity side thereof, and to stay execution until such security be given. And the several Courts of Small Causes at the Presidencies of Fort William, Fort St. George, and Bombay, respectively, shall have, within the limits of their respective jurisdictions, the same jurisdiction and powers as are hereby enforced in the Supreme Courts, as to such causes of action.

Supreme Court may in any action on the Plea side direct an account to be taken in like manner as on the Equity side

XIII. If in any action at Law it becomes necessary for the determination of the rights of the parties to take an account which cannot be conveniently taken in open Court, the Court shall have power to direct the account to be taken in like manner as upon a Bill or Claim filed on the Equity side of the Court, and may, if there is no other question to be tried or decided in the cause, stay further proceedings therein until such account be taken, and the certificate of the Judge or Officer taking the account shall be sufficient proof of the result of such account.

And may stay proceedings till account taken.

Certificate of Judge or Officer taking account to be sufficient proof of its result.

Whenever questions arise as to whether Executor, &c., has Assets, opposite party not bound to allege or prove existence of Assets, but may call on Executor, &c., to admit Assets, or to show that he never received any, or has accounted for them.

XIV. In any action or suit, whether original or continued by revivor, or in any stage thereof, wherein a question arises, whether an Executor or Administrator or other Representative has Assets to satisfy the demand, the opposite party shall not be bound to allege or to prove the existence of such Assets, but may call on the Executor or Administrator, or such Representative, either to admit Assets sufficient to satisfy the demand, or to show that he either never received any Assets of his testator or intestate, or that he has duly applied and accounted for the same.

Choses in action, &c., to be assignable at Law.

XV. All choses in action and rights, capable of being recovered and enforced at Law, and which are now assignable in Equity only, shall be assignable at Law, and in every action for the recovery thereof at Law, the Assignee shall sue for the same in his own name, and not in the name of the Assignor, and in every such action the right of the Plaintiff to recover shall be subject to any claim of set-off which the Defendant may have either against the Plaintiff personally or had against the original or any successive Assignor before notice of such assignment.

Assignee to sue in his own name.

Plaintiff's rights to be subject to any set-off of Defendant against Plaintiff himself or against the original or any subsequent Assignor before notice.

XVI. It shall not be necessary to make the Assignor a party to an action at Law or suit in Equity by the Assignee of any chose in action against the party liable in respect of the matter assigned, and such party liable shall, in the absence of fraud on his part, be as effectually discharged from his original liability, by the proceedings in such action or suit, as he would have been, had the alleged Assignor of such chose in action been a party to such proceedings.

Assignee need not make Assignor party to action or suit.

Assets in Equity to be also Assets at Law.

XVII. All Assets, which are Assets in a Court of Equity, shall also be Assets at Law, and all debts, whatever the nature of them, shall be paid pari passu after the death of any Debtor dying after the passing of this Act, by his personal Representatives, or in any suit for the administration of the Estate of the said person. Provided that this provision shall not impair or affect any mortgage, pledge, or lien, legal or equitable, whether given by the Law or the act of the party, or any payment bonâ fide made by any such Representative in ignorance of the insolvency of the Estate.

All debts after the death of Debtor, whatever their nature, to be paid pari passu.

Proviso—that mortgages, pledges, &c., and payments made in ignorance of insolvency, are not to be affected by the above provision.

Receiver may bring actions with the assent of the Court by which he is appointed.

XVIII. A receiver shall have authority to bring any action in respect of the property of which he is appointed receiver, in his own name as receiver, but such action shall not be brought without the assent of the Court which has appointed him a receiver; and shall be under its control, so far as the same may be exercised without clashing with the authority of any other Court.

Persons appointed by letters ad colligendum bona may take legal Estate for the purpose of protecting it, and may bring action in same manner as Administrators.

But may not alienate Estate without leave of Court.

XIX. All persons appointed by Letters ad colligendum bona, shall take the legal Estate for the purpose of protecting the Estate, and shall have authority to bring actions in the same manner as Administrators may sue; but they shall not have authority to alienate the Estate without the order of the Court under whose authority they act.

Where Plaintiff or Defendant requires discovery in aid of any action or defence thereto, Court may, if satisfied with the affidavit of such party, direct the opposite party to answer interrogatories.

XX. When the Plaintiff or Defendant respectively require discovery in aid of an action at Law, or defence thereto, in any of Her Majesty's said Supreme Courts, it shall be lawful for such party by affidavit to state the reason why he requires discovery and as to what it is required; and if it sees that such discovery ought to be given, shall direct that the party to the suit from whom the discovery is sought may answer to interrogatories to be exhibited to him for such purpose. Provided that the party asking for such discovery shall be liable to pay the cost of obtaining it, to the party giving it, whatever be the event of the suit, in like manner as if a Bill of pure discovery had been filed on the Equity side of the Court and answered. Provided always, that the Court shall have and exercise the same power to compel a full answer to such interrogatories as it might have exercised had such interrogatories been filed in a suit for discovery in the Equity side of the Court, and shall have the same power as to the costs of procuring such full answer as it would possess in the Equity side of the Court, if the answer to a Bill of Discovery were insufficient.

Proviso that the party seeking discovery must pay the costs of obtaining it.

Further proviso as to power of Court to compel a full answer and to provide for costs thereo

XXI. And whereas it is desirable to avoid the inconvenience of making public bodies parties to suits, in which they have no interest, and where the contest is as to the right to property of which they are only the depositaries or managers for others, it is further enacted, that it shall be lawful for any of Her Majesty's Courts, upon the application of any party interested, by motion or petition in a summary way, without Bill filed, to restrain the East India Company from paying the interest due or to become due on any of the Promissory Notes of the said Company, commonly called Government Paper, or from renewing or permitting the renewal of any such Government Paper, or from parting with any Government Paper, which may have been paid into or deposited in the Public Treasury; and also to restrain any other public Company, whether incorporated or not, from permitting the transfer of any Stock or Shares in such Company, which may be standing in the name or names of any person or persons, or body politic or corporate, in the books of such Company, or from paying any dividend or dividends due or to become due thereon.

Supreme Court may, in a summary way, without Bill filed, restrain East India Company from paying interest on, or renewing or parting with, Government Paper deposited in Treasury.

And any public Company from transferring or paying dividends on any Stock or Share.

XXII. Every order to be made upon such motion or petition as in the preceding Section mentioned, shall describe the Promissory Notes, or specify the amount of the Stock, or the particular Shares to be affected thereby, and the name or names of the person or persons, body politic or corporate, in which the same shall be standing; and upon the application of any party interested may be discharged, varied, or continued, as the justice of the case may require, by the Court granting the same, and the Court shall have power to award such costs upon any such application as it shall see fit.

Orders made in pursuance of provisions of preceding Section to describe and specify Notes, Stock, Shares, &c., to be affected thereby.

Such orders may be varied or discharged, &c.

XXIII. In no case, except by special order of Court, shall any Company, or any Servant or Officer of any Company, against which proceedings may be taken under the provisions of the last Sections of this Act, be made a party, either to the application for obtaining the order to restrain, or to any application to discharge, vary, or continue such order, or to any suit or proceeding which may be instituted, either before or after the issuing of such order, for the purpose of determining the title or right to the Government Paper, or other Stock or Shares which may be the subject of such order; and in every such suit or proceeding, it shall be lawful for the Court wherein the same is pending to order the East India Company, or any of the Officers thereof, or any other public Company, or any of the Servants or Officers thereof, to deal with the Government Paper, Stock, or Shares which are the subject of the said suit or proceeding, or the interest or dividends of such Government Paper, Stock, or Shares as the said Court may deem just, although the Company or person upon whom such order is made is not a party to the suit or proceeding wherein the same is made.

No Company or Officer of a Company to be made a party to such proceedings, except by special order of Court.

But Court may order East India or other Company how to deal with the Government Paper, Stock, Shares, &c., although Company not party to suit or proceeding.

XXIV. No action or suit shall lie against the East India Company or any public Company, or any of the Officers or Servants thereof, respectively, for any thing bonâ fide done, or omitted to be done by them, or any of them, in pursuance of any order made under the provisions of the foregoing Sections; but any person aggrieved by such order must assert his rights against the party at whose instance the same shall have been obtained.

No such Company to be liable for any thing bonâ fide done, &c., in pursuance of any such order.

Remedy of party aggrieved by any such order

XXV. And whereas by Act No. XVII. of 1852, it has been made lawful for persons interested, or claiming to be interested, in any question cognizable in Her Majesty's Courts within the factories of the East India Company, on the Equity, Plea, Ecclesiastical, or Admiralty sides thereof, respectively, to concur in stating such question in the form of a special case for the opinion of such Courts, in which special case such facts and documents as may be necessary to enable the Court to decide the question raised thereby, are to be admitted and stated; and whereas it is expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act and to enable such persons, in the form of a special case, to take the opinion of the Court upon the questions of fact as well as upon the questions of law in dispute between them; it is enacted that, from the time when this Act comes into operation, it shall be lawful for any persons desirous of stating a question in the form of a special case for the opinion of the said Courts, but unable to concur upon all the facts necessary to enable the Court to determine such question, to state both the facts and documents which are admitted between them, and the questions of fact which are bonâ fide in dispute between them, and to pray for the decision of the Court upon such disputed questions of fact, and subject thereto, for its opinion upon any question of Law or Equity arising either upon the facts as admitted, or the facts as found, or upon both together; and the Committee of the Estate of any lunatic, and a husband in right of his wife, and a married woman jointly with her hus-

Where parties desirous of stating a special case cannot agree on all the facts, they may state those admitted and also those in dispute.

Committees of lunatics, guardians, &c., may concur in such statements.

hand, and the guardian of an infant, and a guardian specially appointed by the Court for the purpose of concurring in a case; and the Court in the appointment of such special guardian shall respectively have, and may exercise such and the same power of concurrence in a case involving disputed issues of the fact, as heretofore they had, and might have exercised with respect to a special case stated under the said recited Act.

In special case involving disputed facts, Court how to proceed.

XXVI. Upon any special case involving disputed questions of fact, the Court shall have power in its discretion, either to determine the case subject to its finding upon certain issues of fact, or to proceed to the trial of such issues, and to reserve its decision upon the other questions in the case, until such facts shall have been found; and upon the trial of any issues of fact requiring the examination of witnesses, it shall proceed in the same manner, and shall have the same power of examining and dealing with such witnesses as it would have had upon the trial of an issue directed under Act XXI. of 1848.

Upon the trial of issues arising out of such special case, and requiring examination of witnesses, Court to proceed as under Act XXI. of 1848.

Provisions of Act XVII. of 1852, to apply to special cases involving disputed facts, except where they are modified by this Act.

XXVII. Except so far as they are modified by this Act, all the provisions of the said recited Act XVII. of 1852, relating to the statement and determination of special cases stated under that Act, and to the effect of such determination, and to the right of having a special case re-heard, or of appealing from the decision thereon, shall extend to and apply to special cases involving disputed questions of fact.

Parties may by consent have questions in dispute between them tried without formal pleadings.

XXVIII. From the time when this Act comes into operation, it shall be lawful for any parties who are desirous to try, without formal pleadings, any question within the jurisdiction of Her Majesty's Courts, which is bonâ fide in dispute between them, to present to any of the said Courts a petition verified by affidavit, and stating that the question or questions to be tried are bonâ fide in dispute between them, and the nature thereof, and that all the litigant parties consent to have such question or questions tried without formal pleadings, and are subject to or submit themselves to the jurisdiction of the Court; and thereupon it shall be lawful for the Court to order that such question or questions shall be tried without pleadings, and to proceed to try the same as if the several issues of fact or law had been regularly raised upon formal pleadings, and to give judgment or make a decree in a summary way accordingly; and the judgment so given, or the decree so made, shall be entered, and execution shall issue thereon, and the parties shall be bound thereby, in such and the same manner and to the same extent as upon a judgment recovered, or a decree made in a regular suit.

Judgment or decree thereupon to have same effect as judgment or decree in a regular suit.

On criminal trials, where adjournment necessary, Court may at its discretion permit Jurors to go at large until time fixed for meeting again.

XXIX. When any trial for any crime in any of the Supreme Courts, by reason of its length, requires to be adjourned until another day, the Court shall, on its adjournment, permit the Jurors to go at large until the time of meeting again according to the adjournment, unless under the particular circumstances of any case such course seem inexpedient.

Court may allow Jury after retirement to be supplied with lights, food, &c.

XXX. When the Jury retire to consider their verdict, the Court may, if it see fit to do so, order them to be supplied with suitable accommodation, lights, and food, &c.

If Jury cannot agree after six hours' deliberation, but a majority of not less than 3-4ths are agreed, verdict of such majority to be as valid as if Jury unanimous.

XXXI. In any criminal trial by Jury in any of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts, if the Jury, after they have retired to consider their verdict, cannot agree thereon, then, after they have remained six hours in deliberation on the case, they may return into Court and declare their inability to agree, and if the Court shall not send them back to consider the case further, and if the majority, not being less than 3-4ths in number of the whole twelve, are agreed, the Foreman shall declare, without naming or otherwise distinguishing the individuals composing the majority or minority, that 9, 10, or 11, as the case may be, have agreed on their verdict, but that the Jurors are not unanimous; and thereupon the verdict shall be recorded as the verdict of the major part of the Jury, stating therein how many Jurors agree in that verdict, and the verdict so delivered shall, to all intents and purposes, be as valid in Law as if it had been the verdict of an unanimous Jury, and the judgment shall be entered upon it, as on a verdict of the majority given according to Law; and it shall not be necessary to record in the judgment the opinion of the minority.

If after six hours' deliberation 3-4ths of Jury are not agreed, the Court may discharge Jury, and defendant may be tried again for the same offence.

XXXII. If, after a Jury in any such criminal trial in any of the said Supreme Courts shall have been in deliberation on their verdict for a time, which, with reference to the amount of evidence in the case, shall appear to the Court ample for a full and deliberate consideration of the evidence, not being less in any case than six hours, they shall return into Court and state that 3-4ths in number are not agreed, and express their inability to agree, the Court may discharge them from giving a verdict; and in that case the Defendant shall be liable to be tried again for the same offence, but only once again, and shall not be put on his trial a third time, whatever be the result of the second trial, provided the same proceed to an end without interruption by sickness or death, or other sudden accident after the commencement of such second trial.

But in no case Defendant to be put on his trial for the same offence a third time, if the second trial proceeded to an end without interruption.

Where Jury discharged from verdict, Court empowered, under certain circumstances, to order that no second prosecution shall take place.

XXXIII. If the Court, where the Jury is so discharged as aforesaid, shall be of opinion, either from the slightness of the proof and the apparent difficulty of procuring better proof on another trial, or from the slightness of the offence in itself, or under the circumstances of its commission, that a second prosecution would not advance the interests of Justice, it shall have power to direct by its order, to be endorsed on the Record, that no other prosecution for that offence shall take place; and that order may be pleaded in bar of any other prosecution for that offence.

XXXIV. If any other prosecution should be instituted in the same Court for that offence, the Court may order the Clerk of the Crown to prepare such plea for the Defendant, if he have not counsel and desire it, and may allow him to withdraw his plea of Not Guilty at any stage of the cause before verdict, and put in the above plea.

If after such order a second prosecution be instituted, Court may direct a plea to be preferred for the Defendant.

XXXV. Where any offence which may be tried in any of the Supreme Courts has been committed on the High Seas or other place beyond the jurisdiction of any Justice of the Peace, it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace, within the limits of whose jurisdiction the offender may afterward be, on complaint or information of such offence, to issue his warrant for the apprehension of such offender, and he shall have power and authority by such warrant to order the party to be brought before himself, or some other Justice of the Peace, in the same Commission, or before a Justice of the Peace in and for the place where the offence was committed, for examination, with a view to the commitment of such person for trial before such Supreme Court; and the Justice of the Peace before whom such party shall be brought shall proceed in the same mode in such examination, and in taking and forwarding the depositions, and shall have the same powers in all respects for the summoning and enforcing the attendance of witnesses, and otherwise, as if the offence had been committed within the limits of his jurisdiction as such Justice, and the depositions taken in such mode and returned shall be subject to all Laws that apply to depositions taken before Justices of the Peace, for crimes committed on land, and which they must, conformably to Law, send up on commitment to the Supreme Court.

Justices of the Peace empowered to inquire into offences committed on the High Seas or places on land beyond the limits of their Commissions.

XXXVI. Whenever a private person, or a public Officer, may arrest or detain, on suspicion or charge, for a reasonable time, with a view to inquiry, or to bring the arrested person before a Peace Officer or Justice of the Peace, on such matter of suspicion or charge, supposing the offence to be committed on land, such arrest and detention shall be justifiable also by such persons respectively for crimes of the same class committed at sea, but subject to the same limits as to the right of arrest and conduct in assertion of such right as apply to crimes of the same class committed on land.

Private persons and public Officers to have same authority in respect of offences committed on the High Seas as on land.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

19th August 1854.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 19th of August 1854, and referred to a Select Committee, who are to report thereon after the 23rd of November next:—

A Bill to extend the operation of, and regulate the mode of executing Writs of Execution in Her Majesty's Supreme Courts of Judicature.

Whereas it is desirable to extend the operation of, and regulate the conduct of Writs of Execution out of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts in certain cases, It is enacted that,

Preamble.

I. Under any writ of fieri facias issued in any of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts, on any side of the Court, may be seized and taken any lands, houses, or other immoveable property of the party against whose effects such writ issues, whether his estate or interest therein be legal or equitable, as also money, bank-notes, cheques, bills of exchange, promissory notes, hoondees, Government paper, bonds, or other securities for money, and also debts belonging to the said person, and the Sheriff or other Officer having the execution of the writ shall be at liberty to pay or deliver over to the party suing out such execution any money or bank-notes which shall so be seized, or a sufficient part thereof, and shall, with the order of the Court, endorse over or transfer, and without such order shall hold any such cheques, bills of exchange, promissory notes, bonds, specialties, or other securities for money as a security or securities for the amount by such writ of fieri facias directed to be levied, or so much thereof as shall not have been otherwise levied and raised, and may, where he retains the same, sue in his own name as such Sheriff or Officer, for the recovery of the sum or sums secured thereby, or for any debt seized as aforesaid, when the time of payment thereof shall have arrived; and the payment to such Sheriff or other Officer, or to the party entitled under such endorsement or transfer, by the party liable, with or without suit, or the recovery and levying execution against the party so liable, shall discharge him to the extent of such payment or of such recovery and levy in execution, as the case may be, from his liability on any such cheque, bill of exchange, promissory note, hoondee, bond, specialty, security, and debt; and such Sheriff or other Officer may, and shall pay over to the party suing out such writ, the money so to be recovered, or such part thereof as may be sufficient to discharge the amount by such writ directed to be levied; and if after satisfaction of the amount so to be levied, together with Sheriff's poundage, and all lawful charges and expenses, any surplus shall remain in the hands of such Sheriff or other Officer, the same shall be paid to the party against whom such writ shall be so issued, unless the same is duly attached in the hands of such Sheriff or other Officer. Provided that no Sheriff or other Officer shall be bound to sue any party liable upon any such cheque, bill of exchange, promissory note, hoondee, Company's paper, bond, specialty, security, or debt, unless the party suing out such execution shall give security to the Sheriff for indemnifying him from all costs and expenses to be incurred in the prosecution of such action, or to which he may become liable in consequence thereof, the nature and amount of such security to be determined, in case they cannot agree, by the proper Officer of the Court in which such action

Sheriff empowered under any writ of fieri facias issued on any side of Supreme Court to seize immoveable property.

And money, bank-notes, debts, &c.

And to pay money or bank-notes to executive creditor.

And with the order of the Court to endorse over, and without such order to hold cheques, bills of exchange, &c.

And to sue in his own name for amount secured by bills of exchange, &c.

Or for debts.

Proviso as to indemnity for Sheriff.

shall be brought, or if the Court shall so order, by some other person to be appointed by the Court for such purpose; and the expense of the proceedings to obtain such security shall be deducted out of any money to be recovered in such action, and the net proceeds only in this and other cases provided for by this Act shall be considered as received in satisfaction of the debt due to the executive creditor.

Sheriff empowered to receive interest on Government paper seized by him.

II. If the Sheriff or other Officer under any writ of fieri facias shall seize any Government paper standing in the name of, or belonging to the party against whose property such writ shall be issued, he shall have power to receive the interest due on such Government paper, whether specially endorsed or otherwise, and to sign a receipt for the same; and also to sell and dispose of such Government paper through a broker at the market rate of the day; and if the endorsement of such party shall be requied to transfer such Government paper, the Sheriff or other public Officer shall endorse the same, thus—"A. B. by C D., Sheriff"; and such endorsement shall be as effectual to pass the said Government paper, and to give a good title to the holder thereof as if the same had been endorsed by the party himself or his duly constituted Attorney.

And to sell, and where endorsement necessary, to endorse such paper.

No debt to be sold by Sheriff

III. No debt shall be sold by the Sheriff under the process of the said Court, any Charter of any of the said Supreme Courts to the contrary notwithstanding, but the same shall be realized in the mode hereinbefore directed. Provided that nothing in this Act contained shall prevent the making of any interlocutory applications or order for the payment of any admitted debt that has been seized under a writ of execution into the hands of the Sheriff.

Proviso as to application for payment of admitted debt signed by Sheriff.

When seizure of immoveable property or of choses in action or debts is to be by notice and not by actual seizure.

IV. When any property that the Sheriff or other Officer is by the first Section of this Act directed to seize, shall consist of lands, houses, or other immoveable property in the possession of tenants to the party, the seizure must be effected by notice in writing to such tenants and not by actual seizure of the premises, and where the property belongs to the defendant by an equitable and not a legal title, and the trust is of that character that he is not entitled to possession of the lands, houses, or other immoveable property, or to the receipt of the rents and profits thereof himself, or his title is in remainder or reversion, then actual possession must not be taken of the property, but seizure must be made by notice to the tenants, if any, or to the party in possession as before, and also to the trustees or some or one of them, if they are known, or otherwise in such mode as the Court may direct; and all choses in action and debts which are not secured or evidenced by any of the securities before named, must be seized by means of notice only to the debtor or person liable to satisfy the said debt or claim. And after such seizure as aforesaid, no payment which is made to any person other than the Sheriff or other Officer, or to such person as he may appoint to receive it or the Court may order, shall be any discharge, unless it be made in payment of any prior debt, charge, lien, or expense, or cost, which would be good against the party against whom such execution issued, but the payment to the Sheriff or such Officer shall operate as a full discharge of the party liable, and all claims to the money must be asserted against the Sheriff or such Officer in such case; and all rival claims thereto shall be adjusted, settled, and discharged by interpleader between the parties.

After such seizure no payment except under certain circumstance to any one but the Sheriff to be a discharge.

Payment to Sheriff to be full discharge.

V. As to priority of writs of execution, directed to levy money, it is enacted that the writ which is first delivered to the Sheriff shall be first executed, and that shall have priority over other writs; and that no writ of execution against property shall be delivered to the Sheriff or received by him to lie in the office without the order of the Court. And as to subsequent writs of the like kind, the money raised, whether it be of a surplus under a former writ or of the property first seized, but not sold, shall be distributed ratably amongst all the creditors having writs in the hands of the Sheriff, at any time prior to the receipt of the money by the Sheriff, according to the amount of their debts, without regard to priority. In case any dispute shall arise as to the proceeds of such execution, the Sheriff may pay the fund into Court, deducting for his cost and expenses and poundage, and other claims, if any, and the claims of the respective claimants shall be settled and adjusted in the said Court by interpleaders amongst themselves.

First writ of execution to have priority over other writs.

No writ of execution to be delivered to Sheriff, to lie in the office without the order of Court

Levy of subsequent writs to be distributed ratably among creditors having writs.

Dispute of claimants to be settled by interpleaders.

VI. If any person, against whom any writ of execution shall have issued, shall have any shares in any public Company in India, subject to the jurisdiction, or within reach of its process, and whether incorporated or not, such shares standing in his own name and in his own right, or in the name of any person in trust for him, or shall be entitled to any interest in the dividends, interest, or annual produce of such shares, it shall be lawful for the Court or a Judge, on application of the party having recovered such judgment, to make an order ex-parte to attach such shares, and such dividends, interest, or annual produce shall be attached in the books of the said public Company, to answer the purposes of such execution; and such shares shall not be suffered to be transferred, nor shall such dividends, interest, or annual produce be paid until such order of attachment shall be withdrawn, discharged, or disposed of, and no disposition in the meanwhile by such debtor shall be valid or effectual as against such party recovering such judgment and obtaining such order of attachment.

Shares, dividends, &c., may be attached in books of public Company.

During such attachment shares not to be transferred, nor dividends, &c., paid.

VII. A copy of such order of attachment shall be served on the debtor, or his Attorney or Agent, and unless the said debtor or some other person interested shall, within the space of twenty days from the service of such order of attachment and copy, or from the date of the last service, or such other time as the Court or a Judge may think reasonable, show sufficient cause to the contrary, it shall be lawful for the Court or a Judge, if he shall so think fit on proof of the service of such order of attachment and copy, to make an order on all persons, corporations, and public Companies, whose act or consent is thereto necessary, to transfer the said shares belonging to the said judgment debtor, and standing in his own name or in the name of any trustee for him for his own benefit, into the name of the said Sheriff or other Officer as aforesaid, or to make payment of such dividends, interest, and annual produce to the said Sheriff; and all such persons, whose act or consent is so necessary as aforesaid, are hereby required to obey such order, and are indemnified for all things done or permitted, pursuant to such order. Provided also, that it shall be lawful for such Court or a Judge, on the application of the debtor or any person interested, to discharge or vary such order for attachment and to award such costs on such application as to the said Court or a Judge shall seem just.

Copy of order of attachment to be served on debtor.

And if he does not show good cause, Court may order transfer of shares or payment of dividends, &c., to Sheriff.

Indemnity of parties obeying such order.

VIII. If such debtor shall have an interest in any such shares, or the dividends, interest, and annual produce thereof, not vested and in possession, but contingent or in remainder or reversion, it shall be lawful for the Court or a Judge, on a like application to be made by the party obtaining such judgment, to make an order ex-parte, that such shares, dividends, interest, or annual produce, or a competent part thereof, shall stand charged with the payment of the amount for which such judgment shall have been recovered, and interest, or so much as shall remain unsatisfied unless satisfactory cause shall be shown to the contrary by the said debtor or some other person interested within a time to be named in such order, and such order shall be served on the debtor or his Attorney or Agent; and unless cause shall be shown to the contrary within the time specified in such order or at such time as the Court or a Judge may think proper it shall be lawful for the Court or a Judge, if it or he shall so think fit on proof of the service of such order, to make the same absolute; and such order shall entitle the creditor to all such remedies as he would have been entitled to if such charge had been made in his favor by the debtor. Provided that such Court or a Judge shall, on the application of such debtor, or any person interested, have full power to discharge or vary such order, and to award such costs upon such application as the Court or a Judge may think fit.

Where interest of debtor in shares, dividends, &c., is not vested, but contingent, Court may make ex-parte order that such shares, &c., shall stand charged with payments.

Such order within a certain time to be absolute unless cause shown to the contrary.

Proviso as to discharge of such order in certain cases.

IX. If such debtor shall have an estate or interest in any property which shall be standing in the name of the Accountant General of the Court, or of any other Officer of the Court, or in the dividends, interest, or annual produce thereof, it shall be lawful for the Court or a Judge to make such order as to such property, and the dividends, interest, and annual produce thereof, as it or he might have made if the same had been standing in the name of a trustee for such judgment debtor.

Where interest of debtor is in property standing in name of any Officer of Court.

X. A plaintiff or defendant arrested under any writ of capias ad satisfaciendum shall be entitled to his discharge from such arrest on payment or tender to the opposite party or his Attorney in the cause, or to the Sheriff or Gaoler in whose custody such person may be under such writ, of the amount directed to be levied by such writ.

Party arrested under a capias ad satisfaciendum entitled to discharge on payment or tender of the amount of levy to opposite party or his Attorney, or to Sheriff or Gaoler.

XI. A written order under the hand of the Attorney in the cause by whom any writ of capias ad satisfaciendum shall have been issued shall justify the Sheriff, Gaoler, or person, in whose custody the party may be under such writ, in discharging such party, unless the party for whom such Attorney professes to act shall have given written notice to the contrary to such Sheriff, Gaoler, or person, in whose custody the opposite party may be, but such discharge shall not be a satisfaction of the debt unless made by the authority of the creditor, and nothing herein contained shall justify any Attorney in giving such order for discharge without the consent of his client.

Written order of Attorney issuing capias ad satisfaciendum sufficient for the discharge of a party by Sheriff or Gaoler, unless the client shall give written notice to the contrary.

Attorney not justified in giving order for discharge without the consent of his client.

XII. A Sheriff shall not be liable in an action for escape or other breach of duty to pay damages beyond the amount of the loss which his breach of duty has really occasioned, in like manner as if he had been sued in the form of an action on the case.

Sheriff not to be liable for escape, &c., beyond the amount of the loss really occasioned.

XIII. A writ of execution sued out after the commencement of this Act, if unexecuted, shall not remain in force for more than one year from the date of such writ, unless renewed in the manner hereinafter provided, but a writ of execution, whether sued out before or after the passing of this Act, may at any time before its expiration be renewed by the party issuing it for one year from the date of such renewal, and so on from time to time to time during the continuance of the renewed writ, by being marked with the seal of the Court, and with a memorandum, signed or initialed by the Officer, of the date of the day, month, and year of such renewal, or by such party giving a written notice of renewal to the Sheriff, signed by the party or his Attorney and bearing the like seal of the Court, and memorandum signed or initialed by the Officer as aforesaid; and a writ of execution so renewed shall have effect and be entitled to the same priority as the original writ would have had. Provided, however, that no writ of habere shall be renewed without the special leave of the Court or a Judge.

Writ of execution, if unexecuted, not to remain in force more than one year unless renewed.

But may be renewed from time to time.

Renewed writ entitled to same priority as its original.

Proviso as to writ of habere.

XIV. The production of a writ of execution, or of the notice renewing the same, purporting to be marked with such seal and initialed as aforesaid, showing the same to have been renewed according to this Act, shall be sufficient evidence of its having been so renewed.

Production of writ, or of notice of renewal, sufficient evidence of renewal.

XV. All property of every kind that may be seized under a writ of fieri-facias, issued from the said Supreme Courts respectively, may be seized also under a writ of sequestration issued from the same, where a sequestration is a process of the Court, and the seizure must in all cases be made in the mode directed by this Act as to seizures under writs of fieri-facias; and where a sale is ordered, it shall apply only to those seizable things which may be sold, and shall not authorize the sale of any property which is prohibited to be sold by this Act.

All property seizable under a fieri-facias may be seized under a writ of sequestration.

XVI. No writ of execution or sequestration, which shall issue out of any of Her Majesty's said Supreme Courts, shall bind the property as against any purchaser for value bonâ-fide without notice, or as against any mortgagee or pledgee, or other person having a lien, legal or equitable, as against the execution debtor, by advancing on the goods or property bonâ-fide without notice, or as against the process of any other Court, except from the time of its actual execution by seizure according to the nature of the property.

Writs of execution or sequestration not to bind property as against bonâ-fide purchasers for value without notice, &c.

Nor as against process of other Courts.

Except from time of actual execution by seizure.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

19th August 1854.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 19th of August 1854, and referred to a Select Committee, who are to report thereon after the 23rd of November next :—

A Bill for regulating the construction and management of Electric Telegraphs in India.

Whereas it is expedient that provision should be made for regulating the construction and management of lines of Electric Telegraph in India, it is enacted as follows :—

Preamble.

I. Within the territories under the Government of the East India Company, the said East India Company shall have the exclusive privilege of constructing and establishing lines of Electric Telegraph. Provided that the Governor General of India in Council shall have the power to grant a conditional licence to any other party to construct or establish a line of Electric Telegraph within any part of such territories and to transmit messages thereby, subject to revocation of the licence in the event of the non-fulfilment by the holder thereof of any of the conditions therein stipulated.

The E. I. Company to have the exclusive privilege of constructing Electric Telegraphs.

II. Every person who shall, otherwise than under a licence duly granted as aforesaid, or under the special authority of Government, construct, or transmit signals along a line of Electric Telegraph within the territories of the Government of the East India Company, shall forfeit a sum not exceeding five hundred rupees, and every person who shall perform any services incidental to the transmission of signals along such a Telegraph Line, shall forfeit a sum not exceeding one hundred rupees, and for every week during which such incidental services shall continue to be performed, shall forfeit a further sum not exceeding one hundred rupees.

Penalties for constructing or working unauthorized Electric Telegraphs.

III. The Governor General of India in Council, on the occurrence of any public emergency, is hereby authorized to take temporary possession of any or every Telegraph established under licence within the territories under the Government of the East India Company.

Government may take possession of every Telegraph established under licence.

IV. It shall be lawful for the Governor General in Council to frame rules for the conduct of the Electric Telegraph not inconsistent with this Act, and therein to prescribe the regulations, conditions, and restrictions, according to which all messages and signals shall be transmitted.

Governor General may frame rules for the conduct of Electric Telegraphs.

V. The Government shall not be responsible for any loss or damage which may occur in consequence of failing to transmit with accuracy any message entrusted to any person in charge of any Office of the Electric Telegraph for transmission, and no person employed by the Government in the Electric Telegraph Department shall be responsible for any such loss or damage, unless that person shall cause such loss or damage either through his culpable neglect, fraud, or malice.

Government not responsible for any loss or damage.

VI. Every person who shall intrude into a Telegraph Office without the permission of the person in charge of the Office, or shall wilfully obstruct or impede any signaller or other official in the performance of his duty, shall be liable, on conviction before a Magistrate, to fine not exceeding one hundred rupees

No person to intrude into a Telegraph Office.

VII. Every person who shall cause, or attempt to cause, any interruption to the transmission of signals along the line, by wilfully cutting or injuring the wire or line, or any portion thereof, or by wilfully injuring any instrument or apparatus, shall be liable to imprisonment, with or without labor, for a term not exceeding two years, or to fine, or to both fine and imprisonment.

Penalties for cutting the line.

VIII. Whoever, being in the employ of the Government in the Electric Telegraph Department, shall fraudulently or maliciously secrete, make away with, or omit to transmit any message which may have been entrusted to him for transmission, shall be liable to be imprisoned, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding two years, or to fine, or to both.

Penalties for omitting to transmit messages.

Penalties for preventing the transmission of messages.

IX. Every person employed to make signals along the line, who shall fraudulently or maliciously retain, or wilfully impede the transmission of a message along the line, or being required by any Officer of the Electric Telegraph Department to transmit a message, shall neglect or refuse to make the requisite signals, shall be liable to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding two years, or to fine, or to both.

Penalties for carelessness and neglect in the delivery of messages.

X. Every person employed to convey or deliver any message sent by Electric Telegraph, who shall be guilty while so employed of any act of drunkenness, carelessness, or other misconduct, whereby the safety of any such message shall be endangered, or who shall loiter or make delay in the conveyance or delivery of any such message, or who shall not use proper care and diligence safely to convey any such message, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees.

Penalties for fraud.

XI. Whoever, being in the employ of the Government in the Electric Telegraph Department, and being entrusted to receive money for the transmission or conveyance of messages or any other public purpose, shall fraudulently appropriate the same, shall be punished, on conviction before a Magistrate, with imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding two years, and shall also be liable to fine.

Penalties for altering a message.

XII. Whoever, being in such employ as is described in Section XI., shall fraudulently alter any message, shall be liable to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding two years, or to fine, or to both.

Penalties for fraudulently altering documents.

XIII. Whoever, being in such employ as is described in Section XI., and being entrusted with the preparing or keeping of any document, shall, with a fraudulent intention, prepare that document incorrectly, or alter that document, or secrete or destroy that document, shall be liable to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding two years, or to fine, or to both.

Penalties for sending messages without payment to Government.

XIV. Whoever, being in such employ as is described in Section XI., shall send by the Electric Telegraph, any message upon which the charge prescribed in the rules and regulations of the Department has not been paid, intending thereby to defraud the Government of the charge on such message, shall be punished, on conviction before a Magistrate, with a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees.

Fines how to be recovered.

XV. Any person, whether a European British subject or not, who shall be guilty of any offence, for which, according to the provisions of this Act, he shall be liable to fine only, shall be punishable, for such offence, by any Justice of the Peace, for any of the Presidency Towns of Calcutta, Madras and Bombay, Magistrate, Joint Magistrate, or person lawfully exercising the powers of Magistrate; and any person, hereby made punishable by a Justice of the Peace shall be punishable upon summary conviction.

Conviction to be quashed on merits only. Form of conviction, &c.

XVI. No conviction, order, or judgment of any Justice of the Peace shall be quashed for error of form or procedure, but only on the merits; and it shall not be necessary to state, on the face of the conviction, order, or judgment, the evidence on which it proceeds; but the depositions taken, or a copy of them, shall be returned with the conviction, order, or judgment, in obedience to any writ of certiorari; and if no jurisdiction appears on the face of the conviction, order, or judgment, but the depositions taken supply that defect, the conviction, order, or judgment shall be aided by what so appears in such depositions.

Mode of realizing fines.

XVII. All fines incurred under the provisions of this Act by any person, except in respect of offences punishable by fine in addition to imprisonment, shall, upon conviction of the offender before any Magistrate, be levied, together with the costs attending the prosecution and conviction, by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the party or parties offending, by warrant under the hand of such Magistrate, and if, upon the return of such warrant, it shall appear that no sufficient distress can be had thereon, then it shall be lawful for any Magistrate, by warrant under his hand and seal, to cause such offender or offenders to be committed to prison, there to be imprisoned, according to the discretion of such Magistrate, for any term not exceeding two calendar months, where the amount of the fine shall not exceed fifty rupees, and for any term not exceeding four calendar months, where the amount of the fine shall not exceed one hundred rupees, and for any term not exceeding six calendar months in any other case, the commitment to be determinable in each of the cases aforesaid upon payment of the amount of the fine and of the costs attending the prosecution and conviction.

Authority to punish Servants of the East India Company who commit offences against this Act in foreign territory.

XVIII. If any Servant of the East India Company, who shall be employed by the said Company in the Electric Telegraph Department, shall be posted within the dominions of any Foreign Prince or State in alliance with the said Company, in which an Electric Telegraph shall be established by the said Company, shall, within the dominions of such Prince or State, commit any act hereby prohibited, or omit to do any act hereby required to be done by any person similarly employed, appointed, or entrusted as aforesaid within the territories under the Government of the said Company, such Servant of the said Company shall be guilty of an offence, and on conviction thereof, shall be punished in the same manner as if such act had been done or omitted within the said last-mentioned territories, and every such person may be convicted and punished, either by fine or otherwise, according to the nature of the offence, by any Magistrate or Court in any part of the said last-mentioned territories, in the same manner as if the offence had been committed in such part of the said territories.

Explanation of terms.

XIX. The word "Magistrate" in this Act shall include Joint Magistrates and persons lawfully exercising the powers of Magistrates; and the word "Fine" shall include a penalty or forfeiture.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

RULES FOR THE MANAGEMENT OF THE POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT.

Passed by the Governor General of India in Council, on the 12th of August 1854.

I. ALL existing Rules, General Orders and Proclamations issued by the Government, for the guidance of the Post Office Departments of the different Presidencies and Settlements of India, saving such as relate to Dawk Travelling and matters of account, shall cease to have effect from 1st of October next, and the following Rules and Orders shall be substituted for the same, to be in force at all Post Office Stations in any of the Presidencies, Settlements, or Possessions of the East India Company, and to take effect from the above-mentioned date.

All existing orders passed by Government rescinded.

II. Letters, papers and parcels shall be received at every Post Office, for despatch by land or sea, to every part of India, to Ceylon, and to every other part of the world with which there is a Post Office communication. Unless specially superscribed for the first despatch by land or by sea, or by some particular ship, they shall be sent by such route as shall appear to the Post Master to afford the means of most speedy and secure transmission. Letters and papers not exceeding 12 tolahs in weight shall also be received at every Receiving House or other place which the Post Master General may appoint. Letters, papers and parcels shall likewise be received for despatch by post as above at every Thannah or District Dawk Office.

Receipt of letters, &c., for despatch by land or sea.

III. Letters, papers or parcels required to be transmitted viâ Great Britain or Ireland to foreign countries must, unless the pre-payment of postage from the United Kingdom to such countries be optional, be addressed to the care of an agent or other person in the United Kingdom, by whom the foreign postage demandable at the London General or other Post Office may be paid. Such postage cannot be received in this country, and unless it be paid through an agent as above described, the letters are liable to be returned to India.

Receipt of letters for Foreign countries viâ Great Britain or Ireland.

IV The name of the sender of any letter, paper or parcel shall not be demanded in any Post Office, whether the postage be pre-paid or not.

Name of sender of any letter, &c., not to be demanded.

V Letters, papers or parcels shall be received at any Presidency or Provincial Post Office, or Receiving House, for delivery at the same station, within the ordinary range of delivery.

Letters to be received at any station for delivery at such station.

VI Parcels exceeding 600 tolahs in weight may be received at the discretion of any Officer in charge of a Post Office for despatch along any line of road on which the banghy parcels are not carried by foot-runners; but no parcel exceeding 2,000 tolahs in weight shall be received at any Post Office for despatch by banghy or letter mail under any circumstances whatever.

Limitation as to weight of parcels.

VII. Parcels received by post from seaward, exceeding the maximum weight, which may be sent by banghy post, shall be made over to the Collector of Customs for publication in his lists of Unclaimed Packages.

Parcels received from seaward in excess of maximum weight how to be treated.

VIII. Newspapers or other printed or engraved papers, packed in open covers, or letters certified to be on the Public Service, respecting any of which there is reason to believe that the provisions of the Post Office Act have been infringed, shall not be detained for examination at the Despatching Office, but shall be forwarded marked "Doubtful." The Post Master receiving such letters, &c., by the mail, shall then be guided by the instructions laid down in Section XLVIII. of the Post Office Act; but unless for the causes specified above, and in Sections XXXVII. and XLVIII. of the Post Office Act, all Post Office authorities are prohibited from detaining any letter, paper or packet received for delivery by post.

Newspapers, &c., not to be detained for examination, but to be forwarded marked "Doubtful."

IX. All letters, newspapers or other papers and packets received for despatch by post, or banghy post, shall be weighed at the Post Office of despatch, and shall be stamped with the office stamp, and marked single, double, &c., as the case may be; and all letters, &c., the full postage on which has not been pre-paid by stamps, shall have the postage to which they are severally liable marked on them. Service letters shall never be re-weighed prior to delivery, nor newspapers, except in case of suspicion. Banghy parcels shall in all cases be re-weighed on delivery. The re-weighing of private letters shall be at the discretion of the Officer in charge.

Letters, papers and parcels to be weighed at Office of despatch.

X. Persons not belonging to the Department shall not be admitted into the interior, nor permitted to examine the records of any Post Office, without the special permission of the Post Master General, to whom, or to the Post Master, applications for information or redress must be made, either in person, or in writing, by the party requiring the same.

Examination of Post Office records not permitted to the public.

XI. At each Presidency Post Office, banghy parcels will be received every day, Sundays excepted, for despatch, from 10 A. M. till 5 P. M., and newspapers and letters every day till 6 P. M., after which hours, respectively, they will be received till 7 P. M., on payment of an extra half-rupee each, which shall be credited to Government.

Hours of receipt at Presidency Post Offices.

XII. At Receiving Houses and places where there are letter boxes, letters, papers and packets not exceeding 12 tolahs in weight will be received daily from 11 A. M. to 4 P. M., or at such other hours as may be determined by the Post Master General, provided that no Receiving House shall remain open for less than five hours daily, and that letter-boxes for letters unpaid and prepaid by stamps be kept open, day and night, except for a quarter of an hour subsequent to the time fixed for the closing of each mail.

At Receiving Houses.

XIII. At Provincial Post Offices, banghy parcels will be received for despatch from 10 A. M. till 4 P. M., and letters and newspapers till 5 P. M.,

At Provincial Post Offices.

after which hours respectively they will be received till 5½ P. M., on the sender paying an extra half-rupee each, to be appropriated as provided in Section XI.

Office hours for reference.

XIV. Although all Post Offices will be open for receipt of letters, papers and parcels as above, official references shall be made to Post Office authorities only between the hours of 11 and 5, Sundays excepted.

Delivery of letters, &c., at Presidency Post Offices.

XV. At each Presidency Post Office, there shall be three deliveries daily, the first delivery not to be later than 7, the second at 11 A. M., and the third at 3 P. M., at which hours, respectively, the peons shall quit the Office with the letters, &c., entrusted to them. All letters, papers and parcels received from 3 P. M. till 5 A. M. shall be sent out at the first delivery, all from 5 to 10 A. M. at the second delivery, and all from 10 A. M. to 3 P. M. at the third delivery, and mails received after 3 P. M. shall not ordinarily be opened till the following morning, except when received by Express or from seaward.

At Provincial Post Offices.

XVI. At Provincial Post Offices the delivery of letters, papers and parcels must depend upon the hour of the arrival of the mails at each station, after which they shall be delivered with all possible despatch.

Immediate payment of postage required.

XVII. The delivering peons are prohibited from going out of their usual course to deliver letters, papers or parcels, and from delivering them without immediate payment of the exact amount of postage; and they are not bound to give change. Should they be subject to detention, they are not to deliver the letters, papers or parcels, but to return them in the evening to the Post Office for delivery the following day.

Complaints how to be preferred.

XVIII. Whatever postage is marked on a letter, paper or parcel must be paid at once on delivery, after which any complaint of over-charge will be duly attended to. In all complaints of over-charge or unnecessary delay in delivering letters, papers or parcels, the covers or envelopes bearing the Post Office stamp must be presented for inspection; and when any complaints are preferred against any peon, the number on his badge should be specified.

Despatch of mails from Presidency Post Offices.

XIX. From each Presidency Post Office the mails shall be despatched daily at 8 P. M. and the banghies as soon after as possible.

From Provincial Post Offices.

XX. At Provincial Post Offices the packets for all mails to be despatched in the course of the night shall be finally closed at 6 P. M.; but for mails which usually pass in the course of the day, the packets shall be made up half an hour before the time appointed for the arrival of such mails, which are in no case to be subjected to any detention beyond the regulated time. Notice of the hour at which such packet is closed shall be hung up outside the Office, both in English and in the language of the district, after which hour, letters, papers or parcels received shall not be forwarded till the following day, unless such mails should not arrive until after 6 P. M., in which case a second packet shall be made up.

Letters, &c., damaged, not to be received.

XXI. The Post Master at any station, or person in charge of the Office, shall have power to refuse letters, papers or parcels bearing the appearance of having been opened and re-closed, or otherwise improperly dealt with, unless the writer or sender thereof shall attest with his full signature, that they were sent in that state.

Post Offices not to receive valuables for despatch.

XXII. In order to protect, as far as possible, the public mails from the chance of robbery, Officers in charge of Post Offices shall not knowingly receive coin, bullion, precious stones or jewels for despatch, either by letter or banghy post.

Post Office prohibited from giving change.

XXIII. The servants at the several Post Offices are prohibited from giving change to parties sending or receiving letters in any case.

Registered letters.

XXIV. Letters will be registered on payment of a fee of 4 annas, and parties posting such letters will be furnished with a receipt bearing the address of the letter and the office stamp. The fee must in all cases be paid in money. On the delivery of a registered letter, a receipt for the same must be given to the delivery peon.

Receipts will not be given for letters, &c.

XXV. Receipts will not be granted for any letters or papers received at any Post Office for despatch, except in the case of registered letters; and will be granted for parcels only when presented ready written, either in books or on separate slips of paper along with the parcels. Receipts so presented will be duly stamped.

Notice to arriving vessels for disposal of packets.

XXVI. On the arrival of any ship or vessel off any British Indian port, a printed notice, under the signature of the Post Master of the port or station, shall be delivered to the Commander by the first boat despatched to board the vessel, according to the requisition of which, the Commander shall proceed to dispose of such packets as he may have on board, as directed in Section XL. of the Post Office Act, a copy of which Clause shall be communicated to the said Commander.

Master Attendant to notify intended departure for all vessels.

XXVII. The Master Attendant of each Presidency port, or such other Officer as may be directed by Government, shall furnish the Post Master with early intimation of the intended departure of all vessels to any part of the world, and the Post Master shall cause a list of the vessels for which packets are open to be published weekly in the official Gazette of his own Presidency.

Post Master to publish weekly lists.

Post Master to publish weekly notice of packets despatched.

XXVIII. The Post Master shall also cause to be published weekly, in the official Gazette of the Presidency, a notice of the several dates up to which packets have been despatched by each vessel carrying a mail, that may have left the port.

Public despatches to be compactly made up.

XXIX. All public despatches are to be made up in the most compact form possible, and whenever two or more letters are despatched from any one Office to the same individual, by the same day's post, they are to be put up under one cover, provided they do not, in the aggregate, exceed 12 tolahs weight.

When bulk of mails exceeds regulated weight how to be disposed of.

XXX. When the number of covers received at any Post Office shall cause the weight of the mail to exceed the regulated weight, the Post Master is authorized to keep back a portion of the heavier public despatches and imported newspapers till the following day, but private letters and public letters marked "Despatch" shall not be kept back.

Expresses.

XXXI. Despatches to be transmitted by Express must bear on the face of them the words "By Express," and the signature in full of the Officer sending them.

Public Officers to employ them sparingly under a penalty.

XXXII. As the employment of Expresses interferes with the celerity and regularity of the ordinary mails, and is attended with expense, public Officers are enjoined to employ them as sparingly as possible, and any public Officer despatching an Express, when the exigency of the Public Service does not, in the opinion of the authority to whom he is subordinate, require it, will be held answerable for the expenses attending that method of transmission. Public Expresses from a Presidency Post Office can only be ordered by a Secretary to Government.

Expresses for private persons.

XXXIII. Expresses may be employed by private individuals at the discretion of the Post Master applied to, on payment being made at the rate of 4 annas per mile in advance.

Commanding Officers may receive letters for their own Regiments.

XXXIV. Letters directed to Native Officers, or men of their Regiments or Detachments, shall be delivered to an Orderly, or any other fit person, who shall be deputed by the Officer Commanding the Regiment or Detachment to receive the same; but letters on which postage may be due shall not be delivered to such person, unless the postage be first paid.

Letters addressed to public Officers on private affairs to be prepaid by stamps.

XXXV. Letters which individuals address on their private affairs to any Government Officer must be sent pre-paid by stamps; and this rule is to be understood to include letters transmitting Bills of Exchange, Promissory Notes, Receipts, Government Securities, &c., to the Accountant General, Government Agent, or any other public Officer. When public Officers write letters on such subjects to individuals, they shall subscribe on the envelopes, with their official signatures, the words "Bearing Postage."

Postage on letters on Public Service to be charged to the Department to which Officers signing them belong.

XXXVI. The postage on letters and parcels sent on the Public Service, by the public Officers mentioned in the subjoined lists, shall be charged to the Departments to which they severally belong; such letters must be addressed according to the subjoined form :—

Form of Address.

ON THE PUBLIC SERVICE ONLY.

Offg. Secy. to the Govt. of India.

GENERAL RULES RELATING TO THE RECEIPT, DESPATCH AND DELIVERY OF LETTERS BY DISTRICT POSTS.

Approved of by the Governor General of India in Council, on the 12th August 1854.

1. Wherever any local establishment may be maintained for the conveyance or delivery of the Police, Revenue or other official communications, it shall also be made use of for the conveyance and delivery of private correspondence, and be designated a District Post.

2. All Office or Road establishments, attached to any District Post, will be under the control and management of the Officer to whom they may be entrusted by the Local Government.

3. Such Police Stations and other Public Offices, as may be selected by the Local Government, shall be constituted District Post Offices, but this shall remain under the management and supervision of the same officials who are at present in charge of them.

4. A Letter Box, with a slit in the top or side, shall be fixed in a conspicuous place outside of every District Post Office. The words "Letter Box," in English and the Vernacular of the district shall be painted on each box in legible characters.

5. All letters (except those to be specially registered,) intended for despatch from any District Post Office, must be dropped into the Letter Box. No receipt will be given. Every letter posted at a District Post Office must have its proper postage stamp affixed to it.

6. Any person wishing to post a registered letter at any District Post Office can do so on payment of a registry fee of four annas, in addition to the ordinary postage chargeable on the letter, according to its weight. A receipt in the proper form must, in all cases, be given to the poster of a registered letter, whether it be demanded or not. One anna of the registration fee will be allowed to the person registering the letter, the remaining three annas must be sent with the letter by the same day's despatch to the nearest Post Office.

7. Every District Post Office will be supplied by the Post Office Department with registered letter covers, forms of receipt and of register, and with the rules relating to registered letters.

8. Except when it may be opened for the purpose of taking out the letters preparatory to their despatch, the Letter Box shall remain locked, the key being in custody of the person in charge of the Office.

9. Fifteen minutes before the hour at which the despatches of the Office are usually made up, the Letter Box will be opened and the letters in it taken out. Those addressed to places to which there is a direct communication through the District Post will be separated from all other letters, sorted and packed in covers addressed to the Officer in charge of the District Post Office from which they will be delivered. The remaining letters will be made up into one packet and addressed to the nearest Post Office with which he has a communication.

10. A Chulan or Letter Bill in the Vernacular (Form 1) will be sent with every packet despatched from a District Office to a Post Office. The Deputy Post Master or person in charge of the Post Office will, after satisfying himself that the contents of the packet agree with the Chulan, copy the entries into his register, sign, and by the next day's despatch return the Chulan. The receipted Chulans will be filed and form the only record in any District Post Office of the despatches made from it.

11 All Chulans are to be numbered consecutively in a series, commencing on the 1st of May; and if any District Post Office is in the habit of sending packets to more than one Post Office, the Chulans sent to each Post Office will be numbered in a separate series.

12. All letters sent from one District Post Office to another will be accompanied by a Chulan (Form 2), which will be receipted and returned to the Despatching Office, to be filed as a record.

13. All letters received at any Post Office, to the address of persons resident in the same district, but beyond the limits of any ordinary post delivery, will, if the Post Office be at the head-quarters of the district, be sent with a Chulan (Form 1) to the Officer in charge of the District Post, to be by him sorted and forwarded to the District Post Offices of the several sub-divisions in which the residence of the addressees may be situated.

14. Persons in charge of Post Offices in the interior of districts receiving letters for persons residing beyond the limits of their ordinary delivery, but within the sub-division of a District Post Office with which they have direct communication, will send them, if pre-paid, for delivery to that Office, with a Chulan (Form 1.) Letters for persons resident in the district, but within a sub-division with which the Receiving Office has no direct communication, must be sent to the Post Office of the head-quarters of the district. All letters bearing postage for delivery in the interior must be sent to the Post Office at the head-quarters of the district.

15. Officers in charge of District Post Offices will carefully compare with the Chulan the contents of every packet received. If the Chulan is correct, it will be receipted and returned; if not correct, the discrepancies will be noted thereon.

16. A delivery book (Form 3,) showing the names of persons entrusted with the delivery of letters, will be kept in every District Post Office, and be the only record of letters received for delivery.

17. Letters will be delivered by such persons and under such rules as the Local Government may, from time to time determine. Every person, through whom any District Post letter may be delivered, is authorized to receive a fee of one pice (a fourth of an anna) for his own use, in addition to any unpaid postage which may be due on it.

18. All postage realized on letters sent from any Post Office for delivery through the District Post will be remitted every Saturday to the Post Office at the head-quarters of the district with the remittance book (Form 4.) The person in charge of the Post Office will give a receipt for the amount in the opposite column and return the book by the first despatch. At the close of the month, a balance will be struck, showing the postage still due to the Post Office on letters which have been received; this balance will be brought forward and a new account commenced on the 1st of the following month.

19. All letters, which from any cause cannot be delivered, will be returned with as little delay as possible to the Post Office from which they were received and if any unpaid postage be due on them, credit for the amount will be taken in the remittance book. Unpaid letters are never, under any circumstances, to be sent from one District Post Office to another.

20. A monthly memorandum (Form 5,) showing the number of letters received for delivery at each District Post Office, will be prepared by the person in charge and sent on the 2nd of the following month to the Officer in charge of the Post Office at the head-quarters of the district. Persons in charge of Post Offices will prepare similar memoranda and send them to the Post Office at the head-quarters of the district. The Officer in charge will, before the 15th of each month, prepare a general statement showing the number of letters posted at, and delivered through the agency of the District Post Office in the preceding month.

By Order of the Most Noble the Governor General of India in Council,

ACT No. XVII. OF 1854.

An Act for the management of the Post Office, for the regulation of the duties of Postage, and for the punishment of offences against the Post Office.

Repeal of former Acts.

I. Act No. XVII of 1837, Act No. XX. of 1838, and Act No. XVII. of 1839 are hereby repealed, except so far as they repeal the whole, or any part of any other Act or Regulation, and except as to any act or offence which shall have been done or committed, or to any money which shall have become due, or to any fine or penalty which shall have been incurred, or to any proceedings which shall have been commenced, before this Act shall come into operation.

Exclusive privilege of carrying letters vested in the East India Company.

II. Wheresoever, within the territories under the Government of the East India Company, posts or post communications are, or shall be established by the East India Company, the said East India Company shall have the exclusive privilege of conveying by post, from one place to another, all letters other than letters conveyed by Her Majesty's mails, except in the following cases, and shall also have the exclusive privilege of performing all the incidental services of receiving, collecting, sending, dispatching, and delivering all letters, except in the following cases, that is to say:

1. Letters sent by a private friend in his way, journey, or travel, so as such letters be delivered by such friend to the person to whom they shall be directed, without hire, reward, or other profit or advantage, for receiving, carrying, or delivering the same.

2. Letters solely concerning the affairs of the sender or receiver thereof, sent by a messenger on purpose.

3. Letters solely concerning goods or other property sent either by sea or land, to be delivered with the goods or property which such letters concern, without hire, reward, or other profit or advantage, for receiving, carrying, or delivering such letters.

But nothing herein contained shall authorize any person to make a collection of such excepted letters for the purpose of sending them in the manner hereby authorized.

Prohibitions.

III. Wheresoever, within the said territories, posts or post communications are, or shall be established by the East India Company, the following persons are expressly forbidden to collect, carry, or deliver any letter or letters, or to receive any letter for the purpose of carrying or delivering the same, although they shall not receive hire or reward for so doing, that is to say:

1. Common carriers of passengers or goods and their drivers, servants, or agents; except letters solely concerning goods in their carriages.

2. Owners and Commanders of ships, steamboats, or other vessels passing on any river or canal, or to or from any port in the territories under the Government of the East India Company, and their servants or agents; except letters solely concerning goods on board.

Penalties for breach of privilege.

IV. Every person who shall convey otherwise than by the post a letter not excepted from the said exclusive privilege shall, for every letter so conveyed, forfeit a sum not exceeding fifty rupees; and every person who shall be in the practice of so conveying letters not so excepted shall, for every week during which the practice shall be continued, forfeit a further sum not exceeding five hundred rupees; and every person who shall perform otherwise than by the post any services incidental to conveying letters from place to place, whether by receiving, taking up, ordering, collecting, carrying, or delivering a letter or letters not excepted from the said exclusive privilege, shall forfeit for every such letter a sum not exceeding fifty rupees; and every person who shall be in the practice of so performing any such incidental services shall, for every week during which the practice shall be continued, forfeit a further sum not exceeding five hundred rupees; and every person who shall send a letter not excepted from the said exclusive privilege otherwise than by the post, or shall either tender or deliver a letter not so excepted in order to be sent otherwise than by the post, shall forfeit for every such letter a sum not exceeding fifty rupees; and every person who shall be in the practice of committing any of the acts last mentioned shall, for every week during which the practice shall be continued, forfeit a further sum not exceeding five hundred rupees; and every person who shall make a collection of excepted letters for the purpose of sending them otherwise than by the post shall forfeit for every such letter a sum not exceeding fifty rupees; and every person who shall be in the practice of making a collection of excepted letters for such purpose shall forfeit, for every week during which the practice shall continue, a further sum not exceeding five hundred rupees. Every person who shall carry, receive, or deliver a letter, or collect letters contrary to the provisions of Section III. of this Act, shall forfeit for every such letter a sum not exceeding fifty rupees; and every person who shall be in the practice of committing any of the acts last mentioned shall, for every week during which the practice shall be continued, forfeit a further sum not exceeding five hundred rupees.

Appointment of Officers.

V. For carrying on the service of the Post Office, it shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council to appoint, or to authorize the local Governments to appoint, such Officer or Officers, with such official styles or designations, and to vest them with, and delegate to them such powers not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act, as the said Governor General of India in Council may deem expedient.

Postage rates on letters.

VI. Wheresoever posts or post communications are, or shall be established by the East India Company, postage, if pre-paid by a stamp or stamps as hereinafter provided, shall be charged by weight on letters transmitted by the letter post by sea or land, or partly by sea and partly by land, according to the following scale:

On every letter not exceeding a quarter of a tolah in weight, six pies.

On every letter exceeding a quarter of a tolah, and not exceeding half a tolah in weight, one anna.

On every letter exceeding half a tolah, but not exceeding one tolah in weight, two annas.

On every letter exceeding one tolah, and not exceeding one tolah and a half in weight, three annas.

On every letter exceeding one tolah and a half, and not exceeding two tolahs in weight, four annas.

And for every tolah in weight above two tolahs, two additional annas; and every fraction of a tolah above two tolahs shall be charged as one additional tolah.

Every packet or other article transmitted by the letter post shall be deemed a letter within the meaning of this Section, unless it be a packet or other article on which a different rate of postage shall be chargeable under this Act.

The rates of postage specified in this and the following Section may be charged on all letters or other articles which shall pass through any Post Office, provided that such postage shall not be charged on letters or other articles received through Her Majesty's Mails, when such letters or articles are delivered at the place of receipt; nor on any letter or article transmitted by Her Majesty's Mails, when posted at the place of dispatch of such Mails; nor on any newspaper received by sea otherwise than through the East India Company's post and delivered at the place of receipt; nor on any newspaper posted for dispatch by sea otherwise than through the East India Company's post, when posted at the place of dispatch.

Postage rates on newspapers, &c.

VII. Wheresoever posts or post communications are, or shall be established by the East India Company, postage on newspapers, pamphlets, and other printed or engraved papers transmitted by the letter post by sea or land, or partly by sea and partly by land, shall be charged by weight according to the following scale:

1. On every imported newspaper, pamphlet, or other printed or engraved paper—

If the same shall not exceed six tolahs in weight, two annas.

If the same shall exceed six, but shall not exceed twelve tolahs in weight, four annas.

If the same shall exceed twelve tolahs in weight, there shall be charged and taken two additional annas for every six tolahs in weight above twelve tolahs; and every fraction of six tolahs above twelve tolahs shall be charged as six additional tolahs.

2. On every newspaper, pamphlet, or other printed or engraved paper not imported—

If the same shall not exceed three and a half tolahs in weight, two annas.

If the same shall exceed three and a half tolahs, and not exceed six tolahs in weight, four annas.

If the same shall exceed six tolahs in weight, there shall be charged and taken two additional annas for every three tolahs in weight above six tolahs; and every fraction of three tolahs above six tolahs in weight shall be charged as three additional tolahs.

An extra or supplement to any newspaper, bearing the same date as the newspaper and transmitted therewith under the same cover, shall be deemed part of the newspaper.

Nothing contained in this Act shall be construed to oblige any person to send any newspaper, pamphlet, or other printed or engraved paper through the Post Office, but it shall be lawful for all persons to send the same in any other manner.

VIII. A newspaper, pamphlet, or other printed or engraved paper shall not be sent by the letter post at the rates prescribed in the preceding Section, unless the following conditions be observed, that is to say:

Newspapers, &c., how to be sent by post.

1. It shall be without a cover, or in a short cover open at both ends.

2. There shall be no word printed on such newspaper, pamphlet, or other printed or engraved paper after its publication, or upon the cover thereof, nor any writing or mark upon it or upon the cover of it, except the name and address of the person to whom it is sent, and the name and address of the sender.

3. There shall be no paper or thing enclosed in or with any such newspaper, pamphlet, or other printed or engraved paper.

IX. Any newspaper, pamphlet, or other printed or engraved paper sent by the letter post, in respect of which the above conditions shall not be observed, shall, together with any thing enclosed in or with the same, be charged with postage at the rate which would be charged on an unstamped letter of equal weight.

When to be charged with letter postage.

X. Proof sheets marked as such may be sent by the letter post at the rates prescribed for newspapers, provided the contents be correctly certified on the cover by the signature in full of the sender, otherwise the same shall be charged with postage at the rate which would be charged on an unstamped letter of equal weight.

Proof sheets.

XI. Inland banghy postage shall be charged by weight and distance, on parcels sent by the banghy post, according to the following scale:

Inland banghy postage.

For Distances	Miles.	If not exceeding in weight: 20 Tolahs. Rs. As.	100 Tolahs. Rs. As.	200 Tolahs. Rs. As.	300 Tolahs. Rs. As.	400 Tolahs. Rs. As.	500 Tolahs. Rs. As.	600 Tolahs. Rs. As.
Not exceeding,	100	0 2	0 4	0 8	0 12	1 0	1 4	1 8
Not exceeding,	300	0 6	0 12	1 8	2 4	3 0	3 12	4 8
Not exceeding,	600	0 12	1 8	3 0	4 8	6 0	7 8	9 0
Not exceeding,	900	1 2	2 4	4 8	6 12	9 0	11 4	13 8
Not exceeding,	1200	1 8	3 0	6 0	9 0	12 0	15 0	18 0
Exceeding, ...	[illegible]	1 14	3 12	7 8	11 4	15 0	18 12	22 8

Provided that several letters shall not be enclosed in a banghy parcel under a penalty not exceeding fifty rupees, and letter postage shall be chargeable on every letter contained therein.

XII. Books, pamphlets, packets of newspapers, and of printed or engraved papers other than newspapers, provided they do not exceed one hundred and twenty tolahs in weight, and be sent without covers or packed in short covers open at both ends, and provided the postage thereon be pre-paid by means of a proper stamp or stamps to be affixed thereon as hereinafter provided, shall, if sent by the banghy post, or by sea as banghy parcels, or partly by the banghy post and partly by sea, be charged with the following rates of postage, without reference to the distance to which they may be carried:

Books, pamphlets, &c.

If not exceeding twenty tolahs in weight, one anna.

If exceeding twenty tolahs, but not exceeding forty tolahs in weight, two annas.

And for every twenty tolahs in weight above forty tolahs, there shall be charged and taken one additional anna; and every fraction of twenty tolahs above forty tolahs shall be charged as twenty additional tolahs.

If any such book, pamphlet, or packet exceeds one hundred and twenty tolahs, or if the postage chargeable thereon be not pre-paid as aforesaid, it shall be subject to the rate of postage prescribed for banghy parcels in the preceding Section of this Act.

XIII. Banghy postage, when chargeable by distance under Section XI., shall be calculated and charged according to a Polymetrical Table of distances, showing, as accurately as practicable, the distance by the nearest road between every two Post Office Stations in India, which Table shall be prepared by order of the Governor General of India in Council and corrected from time to time as need be. Each Post Master General shall prepare from the aforesaid Polymetrical Table, in the English and Vernacular languages for the use of every Post Office under his control, a list of all the other Post Offices of India, arranged alphabetically and showing the distance of each of them from the Post Office for the use of which it is made; and such list shall be affixed in some conspicuous place in such Post Office.

Limitation of weight of letters where there is a banghy post.

XIV. Where there is a banghy post established on any line of road, no letter or other article exceeding twelve tolahs in weight shall be conveyed by the letter post on that line of road, except in such cases, and under such restrictions as the Governor General of India in Council may direct; and every letter or other article not exceeding twelve tolahs in weight shall be conveyed by the letter post, unless expressly directed to be sent by the banghy post.

Where there is no banghy post.

XV. Where there is no banghy post established on any line of road, letters, parcels, and packets exceeding twelve tolahs, and not exceeding forty tolahs in weight, shall be received and transmitted by the letter post. Letters shall be charged according to the scale in Section VI., and newspapers, pamphlets, and other printed or engraved papers according to the scale in Section VII. of this Act, as the case may be; parcels and packets shall be charged with banghy postage according to the scale in Section XI. or Section XII. of this Act, as the case may be, if it be certified in writing on such parcel or packet, under the full signature and address of the sender, that it does not contain any letter or other written communication, or any newspaper, pamphlet, or other printed or engraved paper. If any such certificate be false, any such thing contained in such certified letter or other article shall be charged with postage according to the rates specified in Section VI. or Section VII. of this Act as if sent separately, and the sender will be subject to the penalty hereinafter provided. Parcels exceeding forty tolahs, and not exceeding six hundred tolahs in weight, shall be transmitted along any such line as banghy parcels; but it shall be in the discretion of the Post Master or Deputy Post Master, to whom such parcels are brought for dispatch, to forward them at such times and in such manner as may be convenient.

Letters and other articles exceeding twelve tolahs, but not exceeding forty tolahs.

Certificate.

Parcels exceeding forty tolahs.

Where banghy parcels and letter mails are conveyed in the same carriage.

XVI. Whenever the Post Master General of any Presidency shall have notified in the official Gazette, that the banghy post is conveyed in the same carriage with the letter post along any line of road, it shall not be lawful to send by the banghy post any letter or written communication of less weight than twelve tolahs, or any packet of newspapers; and every person who shall knowingly send by the banghy post, along any such line of road, any such letter, written communication, or newspaper enclosed in in a parcel, shall forfeit for every such offence a sum not exceeding fifty rupees, and postage shall be charged for every such letter, packet, or newspaper, as if sent separately by the letter post.

Ship postage on parcels.

XVII. On all parcels chargeable under Section XI. with banghy postage according to distance when conveyed by land, ship postage shall be charged when they are conveyed by means of the East India Company's post by sea according to the following scale, viz.:

On every parcel not exceeding one hundred tolahs in weight, eight annas.

And for every hundred tolahs in weight above one hundred tolahs, eight additional annas; and every fraction of one hundred tolahs above one hundred tolahs shall be charged as one hundred additional tolahs; and if such parcel be conveyed by the East India Company's post, partly by banghy and partly by sea, ship postage shall be charged in addition to inland banghy postage.

Limitation of weight and dimensions of parcels.

XVIII. No parcel exceeding six hundred tolahs in weight, or three feet in length, or one foot in breadth, or one foot in depth, or two thousand five hundred and ninety-two cubic inches in bulk, shall be received at any Post Office for dispatch either by ship or steamboat, or by banghy post, except in such cases and under such restrictions as the Governor General of India in Council shall direct. On parcels exceeding six hundred tolahs in weight, when so forwarded, there shall be charged and taken an additional single rate of banghy postage according to distance for every hundred tolahs above six hundred tolahs; and every fraction of one hundred tolahs above six hundred tolahs shall be charged as one hundred additional tolahs.

Ship and inland postage on foreign covers must be pre paid.

XIX. Letters and newspapers posted for dispatch, either by Her Majesty's Mails or otherwise to Ceylon, or to any place to which a post communication shall not have been established by the East India Company, upon which the full amount of postage chargeable under this Act has not been pre-paid by a postage stamp or stamps, shall not be dispatched, but shall be dealt with as unclaimed letters are hereinafter directed to be dealt with. No parcel shall be received for dispatch as above to any such place, unless the full amount of postage chargeable thereon shall be pre-paid in money or by a postage stamp or stamps. Provided that nothing in this Section shall be construed to require the pre-payment of British postage on letters, parcels, or other articles, upon which the pre-payment of such postage has been left optional by Her Majesty's Post Master General.

Postage on letters, &c., not pre-paid.

XX. Subject to any alteration which may be made by virtue of the power hereinafter vested in the Governor General of India in Council, letters posted for dispatch, either by sea or land, to any place to which a post communication is, or shall be established by the East India Company, upon which the postage chargeable under Section VI. of this Act has not been prepaid by a postage stamp or stamps, shall be forwarded to their destination, and upon every such letter double postage shall be charged on delivery.

Newspapers, pamphlets, and other printed and engraved papers so posted, not pre-paid by a postage stamp or stamps, shall be forwarded to their destination, and the postage chargeable on them shall be levied on delivery: but no money shall be received at any Post Office in pre-payment of postage on any letter, newspaper, pamphlet, or other printed or engraved paper so posted. On parcels so posted, the postage chargeable according to Section XI. or Section XVII. may be pre-paid in money or by a postage stamp or stamps: when not pre-paid, they shall be forwarded to their destination, and the postage thereon shall be levied on delivery.

Governor General in Council may direct pre-payment of postage in all cases.

XXI. It shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council at any time to direct that all or any letters, packets, parcels, or other articles, shall not be forwarded by post, unless the postage thereof shall be pre-paid by means of a proper stamp or stamps; or that on all or any letters, packets, parcels, or other articles on which the postage shall not be pre-paid by a stamp or stamps, or otherwise, as the said Governor General in Council shall direct, there shall be charged such higher rates of postage as from time to time may be deemed expedient, not exceeding double the rates of postage hereinbefore specified.

Letters, &c., with insufficient stamps, how charged.

XXII. If any letter be posted, having affixed thereto a postage stamp or stamps, the value of which shall be less than the rate of postage to which such letter would be liable if duly and properly stamped when posted, there shall be charged on such letter a postage of double the amount of the difference between the value of the stamp affixed thereto and the postage to which such letter would be liable as aforesaid if duly and properly stamped when posted. If any parcel, newspaper, pamphlet, or other printed or engraved paper shall be so posted, having affixed thereto any such stamp or stamps, the value of which shall be less than the rate of postage to which the same would be otherwise liable under this Act, there shall be charged thereon a postage equal to the amount of the difference between the value of the stamp or stamps affixed thereto, and the postage to which such parcel, newspaper, pamphlet, or other printed or engraved paper shall be otherwise liable, as aforesaid.

Re-directed letters.

XXIII. On every letter or packet, which shall be re-directed and forwarded by the letter post, from any place to which it shall have been conveyed by the letter post, there shall be charged for the postage thereof from the place at which the same shall be re-directed, in addition to all other postage paid or due thereon, the rate of postage to which it would be liable, if posted and pre-paid by stamp at the place where it shall be re-directed.

No dangerous substance to be sent by post.

XXIV. No person shall knowingly post, or send, or tender, or deliver in order to be sent by the post, any letter, parcel, or packet containing any explosive or other dangerous material or substance; and any person contravening this prohibition shall forfeit for every such offence a sum not exceeding two hundred rupees.

Governor General of India in Council may alter the rates of postage.

XXV. It shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council at any time to authorize the levy of postage at rates different from those prescribed in this Act, provided there be no increase made thereby in any particular of the rates so prescribed, except as provided in Section XXI. of this Act.

Letters and packets once put into the Post Office.

XXVI. No person having delivered into any Post Office any letter, parcel, or packet shall be entitled to recall the same; but nothing in this Section shall prevent the re-delivery of any such letter, parcel, or packet to the sender thereof, subject to such rules and regulations, if any, as the Governor General of India in Council may direct; but newspapers, pamphlets, or other printed or engraved papers may be so recalled or restored, provided that the person claiming the same shall satisfy the Officer in charge of the Post Office that he was the sender thereof, and provided the amount of postage which would have been due thereon, if the same had been forwarded, be paid.

Steam postage.

XXVII. The postage charged on letters and packets by Her Majesty's Post Master General, under the name of Steamer or British packet postage, or by any other denomination, shall, after the rates of such postage have been published in the official Gazette of any Presidency, be recovered in the same manner as postage chargeable under this Act.

Postage stamps.

XXVIII. All letters and other articles, having a stamp or stamps affixed thereto, (such stamp or stamps in every case being affixed on the outside and being equal in value to the rate or rates of postage to which such letters or other articles are liable under this Act,) shall, provided the stamp or stamps shall not have been used before, be considered as pre-paid.

How to be provided.

XXIX. The Governor General of India in Council shall cause postage stamps to be provided, denoting such values as the said Governor General of India in Council may direct, and shall give such orders, and make such other regulations relative thereto, as may be deemed expedient.

Postage stamps to be under management of any Officer to be appointed

XXX. Postage stamps provided as aforesaid shall be under the care and management of such Officer or Officers as the Governor General of India in Council shall direct; and all sums of money realized by the sale of postage stamps shall be carried in the public accounts to the credit of the Post Office.

Vendors of postage stamps to be appointed.

XXXI. The Governor General of India in Council may make rules for the appointment and government of vendors of postage stamps, and thereby direct how and under what terms and conditions postage stamps may be supplied to them for sale; and whether any and what security shall be given by such vendors, and whether any and what remuneration or discount shall be allowed to them, and how and in what manner and at what time or times such vendors shall keep and render their accounts and pay over the proceeds of any sales made by them or re-deliver the stamps entrusted to them.

Vendors to be bound by rules.

XXXII. Government vendors of postage stamps shall be bound by such rules, and in case of any wilful breach thereof, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding two hundred rupees, in addition to any other proceedings to which they may be liable.

Penalty of vendor refusing to supply stamps.

XXXIII. Any Government vendor of postage stamps, who shall be convicted of refusing or unnecessarily delaying, without reasonable excuse, to furnish postage stamps to any person desiring to purchase the same, and tendering in lawful currency the full value thereof, (the stamp vendor having in his possession for sale sufficient stamps of the description and value required,) shall be subject to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees.

Penalty of vendor selling stamps for higher price than the value denoted thereby.

XXXIV. Any Government vendor of postage stamps, convicted of taking from a purchaser a higher price than the value denoted on the stamps sold, shall be deemed guilty of extortion, and shall be punished, on conviction, with imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for any term not exceeding six months, or to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees, and shall also be liable to refund to the purchaser the whole amount proved to have been taken in excess, which amount may be recovered by such purchaser before a Magistrate in the same manner as any penalty under this Act.

Penalties for forging stamps, &c.

XXXV. Clause 1. If any person shall forge or counterfeit, or cause or procure to be forged or counterfeited, any die, plate, or other instrument used for the purpose of making postage stamps; or if any person shall forge or imitate, or cause to be forged or imitated, any postage stamp; or if any person shall knowingly, and without lawful excuse (the proof of which excuse shall lie on the person accused,) have in his possession any false, forged or counterfeited die, plate, or other instrument resembling, or intended to resemble, either wholly or in part, any die, plate, or instrument used for the purpose aforesaid; or if any person shall stamp or mark any paper or other substance with any such false, forged, or counterfeit die, plate, or instrument as aforesaid; or if any person shall knowingly use, utter, sell, or expose for sale, or shall knowingly and without lawful excuse (the proof of which excuse shall lie on the person accused) have in his possession any paper or other substance having thereon the impression of any such false, forged, or counterfeit die, plate, or other instrument as aforesaid; or having thereon any counterfeit stamp resembling, or intended to resemble, or to be mistaken for a postage stamp, such person so offending, and every person knowingly aiding, abetting, or assisting such person in committing any such offence, shall be punished with imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding seven years, and shall also be liable to fine.

Forged stamps may be seized.

Clause 2. Any Officer of Police may seize and transmit to the Magistrate any such forged or counterfeit die, plate, or other instrument, or any such forged or counterfeit postage stamp.

And searched for.

Clause 3. Any Officer of Police having power by law to search for stolen property may, subject to the provisions under which he is empowered to make such search, proceed to search houses or other places in which there may be reasonable cause to suspect that there is any such forged or counterfeit article, and shall seize and transmit to the Magistrate any such counterfeit article that may be found therein.

Penalties for evading postage stamp duties.

XXXVI. If any person shall fraudulently remove any postage stamp from any letter or other thing to which such stamp shall have been affixed; or if any person shall knowingly use any such stamp or stamps so fraudulently removed; or if any person shall fraudulently erase or remove, from any such stamp or stamps, any writing or other matter or thing thereon written or impressed, every person so offending shall forfeit a sum not exceeding two hundred rupees for every such offence.

Postage on unpaid letters, &c., to be paid by the receiver.

XXXVII. The person to whom any letter or other article, the postage of which has not been paid, shall be delivered, shall not be bound to pay the postage if he forthwith return the same unopened, but if he open the same, he shall be bound to pay the postage due thereon. If he forthwith return the same unopened, the sender of the letter or packet shall be bound to pay the postage thereof. If any person shall refuse to pay any postage which he is legally bound to pay for any letter or other article, the same may be recovered for the use of the East India Company by any Post Master General, or by any Officer in charge of a Post Office, by order of a Post Master General, in the same manner as a fine may be recovered under this Act; and it shall be lawful for the Officer in charge of any Post Office to withhold from the person so refusing, until such postage be paid, any other letter or packet addressed to that person, not being superscribed as on the public service. Provided always, that if a letter or other article shall appear to the satisfaction of the Post Master of the Office of delivery to have been maliciously sent for the purpose of annoying the person to whom it is addressed, the Post Master of the delivery Office may remit the postage.

Registered letters.

XXXVIII. Any person posting a letter or other article shall be entitled to require that it shall be registered at the receiving Post Office and that a receipt shall be granted for such registered letter or article, and it shall be lawful for the Governor General in Council to direct, that, in addition to any rates of postage payable under this Act, a fee not exceeding four annas shall be charged on any letter or other article which the sender thereof shall require to be so registered, and such registration fee shall be paid on the letter or other article being delivered at the Post Office.

Expresses.

XXXIX. It shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council to fix and order any rate of postage to be charged for the conveyance of letters or other articles by express, in addition to or instead of any other rates of postage chargeable on such letters and articles under this Act.

Commanders of inward-bound vessels carrying mails, how to proceed.

XL. When any vessel arrives by sea at any place within the territories under the Government of the East India Company at which there is a Post Office, the Commander of such vessel shall, as speedily as possible, cause every letter and packet on board of such vessel, which is directed to that place, and not excepted from the exclusive privilege of the Post Office, to be delivered either at the Post Office or to some Officer of the Post Office authorized to receive the same; and if there be on board any letter or packet directed to any other place, and not excepted from the exclusive privilege aforesaid, the said Commander shall, as speedily as possible, report the same to the Post Master of the place at which he has arrived, and shall act according to the directions he may receive from such Post Master, and the receipt of such Post Master shall discharge such Commander from all responsibility in respect of such letter or packet. Every Commander of a vessel who shall wilfully disobey any of the directions contained in this Section, shall be punished with a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees.

Penalty.

Detention of letters on board prohibited.

XLI. Every person, being either the Commander of a vessel inward-bound, or any one on board such vessel, who shall, within the said territories, knowingly have in his possession any letter not excepted from the privilege of the Post Office, after any part of the letters on board the said vessel shall have been sent to the Post Office, shall forfeit for every such letter a sum not exceeding fifty rupees, whether the letter be in the baggage or on the person of the offender or otherwise in his custody; and every such person who shall detain any such letter after demand made for the same by an Officer of the Post Office shall forfeit for every such letter a sum not exceeding one hundred rupees.

Bounty money.

XLII. For every letter delivered by the Commander of any ship in conformity with the directions of Section XL. of this Act, the Officer in charge of the Post Office shall pay to the said Commander the sum of one anna; and the sum of one anna shall be chargeable as postage on such letter in addition to any other postage chargeable thereon under this Act. Provided that no payment shall be made to the Commander of any vessel on account of the delivery of any letter, unless the claim of such Commander shall be preferred before the vessel leaves the place at which the letter was delivered, or before the expiration of two months from the date of the arrival of such vessel. Provided also, that nothing contained in Sections XL., XLI. and XLII. of this Act shall extend to any letter or packet conveyed by Her Majesty's Mails.

Commanders of outward bound vessels to receive mails on board.

XLIII. The Commander of every vessel leaving any place in the said territories by sea shall receive on board of such vessel every letter and packet which he shall be required so to receive by any Officer of the Post Office, and shall give a receipt for such letter or packet; and every Commander of a vessel who shall wilfully disobey any direction contained in this Section shall be punished with a fine not exceeding one thousand rupees.

Unclaimed letters, &c.

XLIV. Clause 1. A list of all letters, packets, and parcels posted and addressed to persons who cannot be found, shall be prepared daily in every Post Office and exposed for not less than two weeks in the most conspicuous part of such Office; and all such letters, packets, and parcels, which shall have remained three weeks unclaimed in any Office, shall, if the sender's name and address are written on the cover, be returned to the Posting Office to be delivered to the sender free of all charge; all letters, packets, and parcels, of which the sender's name and address cannot be ascertained, unless they be opened, shall, after remaining unclaimed for three weeks as above, be forwarded to the Office of the Post Master General of the Presidency.

To be opened, &c.

Clause 2. The Post Master General, or some person duly appointed for the purpose and bound to secrecy, shall immediately open all such letters, packets, or parcels, and if the address of the sender can be discovered, shall enclose them in dead letter covers and return them to the sender. All letters, packets, and parcels, of which neither the person addressed nor the sender can be found, shall, after they have remained unclaimed in the Office of the Post Master General for one year, be destroyed.

Money, &c. found therein.

Clause 3. All money found in any unclaimed letter, packet, or parcel shall be paid into the Public Treasury, and all other valuable property found as above shall be sold by the Post Master General of the Presidency, or by some one duly authorized by him for that purpose, and the proceeds of the sale shall be paid into the Public Treasury for the benefit of any person who may have a right thereto, after deducting all sums due from such person for postage.

Refused letters, &c

XLV. Letters, parcels, or packets rejected unopened by the person to whom they are addressed shall be forthwith sent to the Office of the Post Master General of the Presidency, who shall open the letter, parcel, or packet, and take measures to recover the postage from the sender, or shall at his discretion destroy the letter, parcel, or packet; and all money, or other valuable property, which such letter, parcel, or packet may contain, shall be disposed of in the manner prescribed in the preceding Section, with respect to such money or property contained in unclaimed letters.

Franking abolished.

XLVI. On and after the passing of this Act, the privilege of sending and receiving letters and packets by the post, free of postage, whether official or otherwise, shall wholly cease; and all letters and packets, to which any such privilege now extends, shall henceforth be charged with the same rates of postage as any other letters sent by the post. Provided that letters and packets on the public service, certified to be such by the signature of any public officer, authorized in that behalf by the Governor General of India in Council, shall be forwarded by the post as if they were duly stamped, and the postage due thereon shall be charged to the several public departments, from which such letters or packets are sent, in such manner as the said Governor General of India in Council shall direct.

Letters on the public service duly certified as such, how to be charged.

Penalty for false certificate.

XLVII. Every person who shall, for the purpose of defrauding the Post Office Revenue, wilfully certify, by writing, on any official or other letter or packet delivered at any Post Office for conveyance by post, that which is not true in respect of such letter or packet, or in respect of the whole of its contents, or shall knowingly send or deliver, or attempt to send or deliver for conveyance by post, any letter or packet with any such false certificate thereon; and every person who shall knowingly send, or permit to be sent by post, under color or pretence of an official communication, any letter, paper, writing, or other enclosure of a private nature; and every person who shall aid, abet, or conceal any of the offences in this Section above-mentioned, shall, for every such offence, forfeit a sum not exceeding five hundred rupees.

Letters, &c., suspected to contain contraband articles, or writing in contravention of this Act, how to be dealt with.

XLVIII. If any Officer in charge of a Post Office shall suspect that any letter, parcel, or packet, lying for delivery at his Office, contains any contraband article, or any article on which duty is owing to Government, or that any letter, parcel, or packet lying for delivery at the Post Office, contains any writing or enclosure in contravention of the provisions of Sections VIII., XV., XVI., or XLVII. of this Act, it shall be lawful for such Officer to summon the person to whom the letter, parcel, or packet is directed to attend at the Post Office by himself or agent within forty-eight hours after the arrival thereof at that Post Office, and to open the same in the presence of the person to whom it is directed, or of that person's agent, and if that person shall not so attend by himself or agent, then to open it in the absence of that person. Provided that if the Officer in charge be under the rank of a Post Master, he shall call in two respectable persons as witnesses before he shall open a letter, parcel, or packet in the absence of the person to whom it is addressed. Provided also, that in all cases the opened letter, parcel, or packet shall be subsequently delivered to the person to whom it is addressed, unless it be required for ulterior proceedings, and that the opening of the same, and the circumstances connected therewith, shall be immediately reported to the Post Master General. It shall also be lawful for any Officer in charge of a Post Office to refuse to forward any parcel or packet through the Post Office by sea to any foreign port or to any place not on the continent of India, unless such parcel be accompanied by a Custom House Pass.

Government not responsible for loss.

XLIX. The Government shall not be responsible for any loss or damage which may occur in respect of anything entrusted to the Post Office for conveyance, and no person employed by the Government in the Post Office Department shall be responsible for any such loss or damage, unless that person shall cause such loss or damage negligently, maliciously, or fraudulently.

Penalty for secreting, opening, or making away with letters, &c., by persons employed in the Post Office.

L. Whoever being in the employ of the Government in the Post Office Department shall fraudulently secrete, make away with, or appropriate any letter, parcel, or packet which may have been entrusted to him, or anything contained in any such letter, parcel, or packet, or shall mutilate or break open any such letter, parcel, or packet, or any banghy parcel or box, with the intention of fraudulently appropriating anything therein contained, shall be punished with imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding seven years, and shall also be liable to fine.

Penalty for detaining mails.

LI. It shall not be lawful for any person, unless acting by express order of the Government, to detain, except for a criminal offence, a Post Office messenger, whilst carrying the mails, or to detain any carriage or horse upon which the mails are being carried, or on any pretence to open a packet in transit from one Post Office to another; and every person who shall be guilty of any of the above-mentioned offences shall be punished with a fine not exceeding five hundred rupees.

Penalty for retaining letters, &c., delivered by mistake.

LII. Every person who shall fraudulently retain, or wilfully secrete, or make away with, or keep or detain, or, being required to deliver up by an Officer of the Post Office, shall neglect or refuse to deliver up a post letter or other article which ought to have been delivered to any other person, or a post letter bag containing a letter or other article or packet which shall have been sent by the post, shall be punished, on conviction before a Magistrate, with imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding two years, and shall also be liable to fine.

Penalty for neglect on the part of persons employed to carry mails.

LIII. Every person employed to convey or deliver any post-bag, or any letter, parcel, or packet sent by post, who shall be guilty while so employed of any act of drunkenness, carelessness, or other misconduct, whereby the safety of any such bag or letter, parcel or packet shall be endangered; or who shall loiter or make delay in the conveyance or delivery of any such bag, letter, parcel, or packet; or who shall not use proper care and diligence safely to convey or deliver any such bag, letter, parcel, or packet, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees; and any person employed to deliver a letter, parcel, or packet sent by the post, who shall not duly deliver the same, shall, within a reasonable time, not exceeding twenty-four hours, report the fact at the Post Office where he received such letter, parcel, or packet, and return the same; and if any such person shall wilfully make a false report, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding fifty rupees.

Penalty for embezzlement by persons employed in the Post Office.

LIV. Whoever being in the employ of the Government in the Post Office Department, and being entrusted to receive money for postage duty or any other public purpose, shall fraudulently appropriate the same, shall be punished, on conviction before a Magistrate, with imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding two years, and shall also be liable to fine.

Penalty for fraudulently altering marks on letters, &c., by persons employed in the Post Office.

LV Whoever being in such employ as is described in Section LIV. shall fraudulently put any wrong mark on any letter, parcel, or packet, or shall fraudulently alter, remove, or cause to disappear, any mark or stamp which is on any letter or packet, or shall fraudulently use or place with or upon any letter or packet any stamp which shall have been removed from any other letter or cover, or shall aid, abet, or conceal any of the above-named acts, shall be punished, on conviction before a Magistrate, with imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding two years, and shall also be liable to fine.

Penalty for incorrectly preparing documents, or secreting documents by persons employed in the Post Office.

LVI. Whoever being in such employ as is described in Section LIV., and being entrusted with the preparing or keeping of any document, shall, with a fraudulent intention, prepare that document incorrectly, or alter that document, or shall aid, abet, or conceal any of the above-named acts, or secrete or destroy that document, shall be punished, on conviction before a Magistrate, with imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding two years, and shall also be liable to fine.

Penalty for sending letters without charging postage, by persons employed as above.

LVII Whoever being in such employ as is described in Section LIV., shall send by the post, or put into any post bag, any unstamped letter, parcel, or packet, upon which postage has not been paid or charged in the manner prescribed in this Act, intending thereby to defraud the Government of the postage on such letter, parcel, or packet, or shall aid, abet, or conceal any such acts, shall be punished, on conviction before a Magistrate, with imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding two years, and shall also be liable to fine

Fines how to be recovered.

LVIII Any person, whether a European British subject or not, who shall be guilty of any offence for which, according to the provisions of this Act, he shall be liable to a fine only, shall be punishable, for such offence, by any Justice of the Peace for any of the Presidency Towns of Calcutta, Madras, and Bombay, Magistrate, Joint Magistrate, or person lawfully exercising the powers of Magistrate; and any person hereby made punishable by a Justice of the Peace shall be punishable upon summary conviction.

Conviction to be quashed on merits only. Form of conviction, &c.

LIX. No conviction, order, or judgment of any Justice of the Peace shall be quashed for error of form or procedure, but only on the merits, and it shall not be necessary to state on the face of the conviction, order, or judgment, the evidence on which it proceeds, but the depositions taken, or a copy of them, shall be returned with the conviction, order, or judgment, in obedience to any writ of certiorari, and if no jurisdiction appears on the face of the conviction, order, or judgment, but the depositions taken supply that defect the conviction, order, or judgment shall be aided by what so appears in such depositions.

Magistrate may refer charge to his Assistant.

LX. A Magistrate may refer for trial and decision any charge of an offence hereby made punishable by fine only to any of his Assistants, or to any Deputy Magistrate lawfully appointed to exercise the powers of a Covenanted Assistant, and in such case every such Assistant or Deputy Magistrate may exercise all the powers vested in a Magistrate, subject to all the rules applicable to criminal cases deputed to such Assistants or Magistrates acting judicially.

Government may authorize Assistants and Deputy Magistrates to exercise certain powers.

LXI. The local Government may give general authority to any such Assistant or Deputy Magistrate to exercise, without reference by a Magistrate, any of the powers which they are hereby rendered competent to exercise upon reference by a Magistrate, subject to appeal to the Magistrate from any conviction by such Assistant or Deputy Magistrate, within one month from the date of the conviction. Provided that a Magistrate may at any time call from any of his Assistants, or from any Deputy Magistrate subordinate to him, any case pending before such Assistant or Deputy Magistrate.

Fines how levied.

LXII. All fines imposed under the authority of this Act, for offences punishable by fine only, by any Justice of the Peace, Magistrate, Joint Magistrate, or person lawfully exercising the powers of a Magistrate, or by any Assistant to a Magistrate or Deputy Magistrate, may, in case of non-payment thereof, be levied by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the offender, by warrant under the hand of any of the above-named Officers, and in case any such fine shall not be forthwith paid, any such Officer may order the offender to be apprehended and detained in safe custody until the return can be conveniently made to such warrant of distress, unless such party shall give security to the satisfaction of such Officer for his appearance at such place and time as shall be appointed for the return of the warrant of distress, and such Officer may take such security by way of recognizance or otherwise; and if upon the return of such warrant, it shall appear that no sufficient distress can be had whereon to levy such fine, and the same shall not be forthwith paid, or in case it shall appear to the satisfaction of such Officer by the confession of the party or otherwise, that he has not sufficient goods and chattels whereupon such fine or sum of money could be levied if a warrant of distress were issued, any such Officer, by warrant under his hand, may commit the offender to prison, there to be imprisoned only, or to be imprisoned and kept to hard labor, according to the discretion of such Officer, for any term not exceeding two calendar months, where the amount of the fine shall not exceed fifty rupees, and for any term not exceeding four calendar months where the amount shall not exceed one hundred rupees, and for any term not exceeding six calendar months in any other case: the commitment to be determinable in each of the cases aforesaid on payment of the amount

Imprisonment if no sufficient distress, &c.

Moiety of fines to Informer.

LXIII. A share not exceeding one moiety of every fine imposed and recovered under this Act may be awarded to the informer.

No proceedings to be taken without an order.

LXIV. No proceedings shall be taken for the recovery of any such fine without an order of Government, or an order in writing of the Director General of the Post Office, or of a Post Master General

Servants of East India Company committing offences in Foreign States in alliance.

LXV. If any servant of the East India Company, who shall be employed by the said Company in the Post Office Department, or shall be appointed a vendor of postage stamps, or entrusted by the said Company or any of the said local Governments with the sale of postage stamps within the dominions of any Foreign Prince or State in alliance with the said Company, in which a post shall be established by the said Company, shall, within the dominions of such Prince or State, commit any act hereby prohibited, or omit to do any act hereby required to be done, by any person similarly employed, appointed, or entrusted as aforesaid within the territories under the Government of the said Company, such servant of the said Company shall be guilty of an offence, and, on conviction thereof, shall be punished in the same manner as if such act had been done or omitted within the said last-mentioned territories, and every such person may be tried, convicted, and punished, either by fine or otherwise, according to the nature of the offence, by any Court or Officer duly empowered by the Governor General of India in Council to take cognizance of offences committed in such dominions by servants of the East India Company, or by any Court or Magistrate, or other competent Officer, in any part of the territories within the Government of the East India Company, in the same manner as if the offence had been committed in such part of the said territories.

Interpretation.

LXVI. The word "Magistrate" in this Act shall include Joint Magistrates and persons lawfully exercising the powers of Magistrates, and the word "fine" shall include a penalty or forfeiture, or a sum of money due upon a forfeited recognizance.

Governor General in Council may frame rules

LXVII. It shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council to frame rules for the conduct of the Post Office not inconsistent with this Act, and therein to prescribe the regulations, conditions, and restrictions according to which all letters and other articles shall be posted, forwarded, conveyed, and delivered

Books, &c., sent by post to or from the United Kingdom.

LXVIII Unless the Governor General of India in Council shall otherwise order, nothing in this Act shall authorize the charge of postage upon printed books, magazines, reviews, or pamphlets (whether British, Colonial, or Foreign) sent through the post from the United Kingdom to any place to which there shall be a post established by the East India Company, or from such place to the United Kingdon, provided the British postage chargeable thereon be pre-paid.

Governor General in Council may exempt from postage letters sent to or from the United Kingdom.

LXIX. It shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council, by an order in Council, to direct that postage shall not be chargeable under this Act on any letters or other articles to be specified in such order sent through the post from any part of the British Dominions to any place to which there shall be a post established by the East India Company, or from such place to any part of the British Dominions, subject to such conditions, as to the pre-payment of British postage or otherwise, as the Governor General of India in Council may think fit

District dawks.

LXX. It shall be lawful for the Governor General of India in Council to frame Rules for the management of all or any Zemindaree, Thannah, or other District dawks, and to declare, from time to time, what portions of this Act shall be applicable to such dawks and to persons employed in connexion therewith.

Commencement of Act.

LXXI. This Act shall commence and take effect from and after the first day of October, 1854

RULES FOR THE MANAGEMENT OF THE POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT

Passed by the Governor General of India in Council, on the 12th of August 1854.

All existing orders passed by Government rescinded.

I. All existing Rules, General Orders and Proclamations issued by the Government, for the guidance of the Post Office Departments of the different Presidencies and Settlements of India, saving such as relate to Dawk Travelling and matters of account, shall cease to have effect from 1st of October next, and the following Rules and Orders shall be substituted for the same, to be in force at all Post Office Stations in any of the Presidencies, Settlements, or Possessions of the East India Company, and to take effect from the above-mentioned date.

Receipt of letters, &c., for despatch by land or sea.

II. Letters, papers and parcels shall be received at every Post Office, for despatch by land or sea, to every part of India, to Ceylon, and to every other part of the world with which there is a Post Office communication Unless specially superscribed for the first despatch by land or by sea, or by some particular ship, they shall be sent by such route as shall appear to the Post Master to afford the means of most speedy and secure transmission. Letters and papers not exceeding 12 tolahs in weight shall also be received at every Receiving House or other place which the Post Master General may appoint. Letters, papers and parcels shall likewise be received for despatch by post as above at every Thannah or District Dawk Office.

Receipt of letters for Foreign countries viâ Great Britain or Ireland

III. Letters, papers or parcels required to be transmitted viâ Great Britain or Ireland to foreign countries must unless the pre-payment of postage from the United Kingdom to such countries be optional, be addressed to the care of an agent or other person in the United Kingdom, by whom the foreign postagedemandable at the London General or other Post Office may be paid. Such postage cannot be received in this country, and unless it be paid through an agent as above described, the letters are liable to be returned to India.

Name of sender of any letter, &c., not to be demanded

IV The name of the sender of any letter, paper or parcel shall not be demanded in any Post Office, whether the postage be pre-paid or not.

Letters to be received at any station for delivery at such station

V Letters, papers or parcels shall be received at any Presidency or Provincial Post Office, or Receiving House, for delivery at the same station, within the ordinary range of delivery

Limitation as to weight of parcels.

VI Parcels exceeding 600 tolahs in weight may be received at the discretion of any Officer in charge of a Post Office for despatch along any line of road on which the banghy parcels are not carried by foot-runners; but no parcel exceeding 2,000 tolahs in weight shall be received at any Post Office for despatch by banghy or letter mail under any circumstances whatever.

Parcels received from seaward in excess of maximum weight how to be treated

VII Parcels received by post from seaward, exceeding the maximum weight, which may be sent by banghy post, shall be made over to the Collector of Customs for publication in his lists of Unclaimed Packages.

Newspapers, &c., not to be detained for examination, but to be forwarded marked "Doubtful"

VIII Newspapers or other printed or engraved papers, packed in open covers, or letters certified to be on the Public Service, respecting any of which there is reason to believe that the provisions of the Post Office Act have been infringed, shall not be detained for examination at the Despatching Office, but shall be forwarded marked "Doubtful" The Post Master receiving such letters, &c, by the mail, shall then be guided by the instructions laid down in Section XLVIII. of the Post Office Act; but unless for the causes specified above, and in Sections XXXVII. and XLVIII of the Post Office Act, all Post Office authorities are prohibited from detaining any letter, paper or packet received for delivery by post

Letters, papers and parcels to be weighed at Office of despatch

IX All letters, newspapers or other papers and packets received for despatch by post, or banghy post, shall be weighed at the Post Office of despatch, and shall be stamped with the office stamp, and marked single, double, &c., as the case may be; and all letters, &c, the full postage on which has not been pre-paid by stamps, shall have the postage to which they are severally liable marked on them. Service letters shall never be re-weighed prior to delivery, nor newspapers, except in case of suspicion Banghy parcels shall in all cases be re-weighed on delivery The re weighing of private letters shall be at the discretion of the Officer in charge

Examination of Post Office records not permitted to the public

X Persons not belonging to the Department shall not be admitted into the interior, nor permitted to examine the records of any Post Office, without the special permission of the Post Master General, to whom, or to the Post Master, applications for information or redress must be made, either in person, or in writing, by the party requiring the same.

Hours of receipt at Presidency Post Offices

XI At each Presidency Post Office, banghy parcels will be received every day, Sundays excepted, for despatch, from 10 A M till 5 P. M, and newspapers and letters every day till 6 P M, after which hours, respectively, they will be received till 7 P. M., on payment of an extra half-rupee each, which shall be credited to Government.

At Receiving Houses.

XII. At Receiving Houses and places where there are letter boxes, letters, papers and packets not exceeding 12 tolahs in weight will be received daily from 11 A. M. to 4 P M., or at such other hours as may be determined by the Post Master General, provided that no Receiving House shall remain open for less than five hours daily, and that letter-boxes for letters unpaid and prepaid by stamps be kept open, day and night, except for a quarter of an hour subsequent to the time fixed for the closing of each mail.

At Provincial Post Offices.

XIII. At Provincial Post Offices, banghy parcels will be received for despatch from 10 A. M. till 4 P. M, and letters and newspapers till 5 P M, after which hours respectively they will be received till 5½ P M, on the sender paying an extra half-rupee each, to be appropriated as provided in Section XI.

Office hours for reference.

XIV. Although all Post Offices will be open for receipt of letters, papers and parcels as above, official references shall be made to Post Office authorities only between the hours of 11 and 5, Sundays excepted.

Delivery of letters, &c., at Presidency Post Offices.

XV. At each Presidency Post Office, there shall be three deliveries daily, the first delivery not to be later than 7, the second at 11 A. M and the third at 3 P M. at which hours, respectively, the peons shall quit the Office with the letters, &c., entrusted to them. All letters, papers and parcels received from 3 P M till 5 A M. shall be sent out at the first delivery, all from 5 to 10 A M at the second delivery, and all from 10 A. M to 3 P. M at the third delivery, and mails received after 3 P M shall not ordinarily be opened till the following morning, except when received by Express or from seaward.

At Provincial Post Offices

XVI. At Provincial Post Offices the delivery of letters, papers and parcels must depend upon the hour of the arrival of the mails at each station, after which they shall be delivered with all possible despatch

Immediate payment of postage required.

XVII The delivering peons are prohibited from going out of their usual course to deliver letters, papers or parcels, and from delivering them without immediate payment of the exact amount of postage, and they are not bound to give change. Should they be subject to detention, they are not to deliver the letters, papers or parcels, but to return them in the evening to the Post Office for delivery the following day.

Complaints how to be preferred.

XVIII. Whatever postage is marked on a letter, paper or parcel must be paid at once on delivery after which any complaint of overcharge will be duly attended to. In all complaints of over-charge or unnecessary delay in delivering letters, papers or parcels, the covers or envelopes bearing the Post Office stamp must be presented for inspection; and when any complaints are preferred against any peon, the number on his badge should be specified.

Despatch of mails from Presidency Post Offices.

XIX From each Presidency Post Office the mails shall be despatched daily at 8 P. M and the banghies as soon after as possible.

From Provincial Post Offices.

XX At Provincial Post Offices the packets for all mails to be despatched in the course of the night shall be finally closed at 6 P. M, but for mails which usually pass in the course of the day, the packets shall be made up half an hour before the time appointed for the arrival of such mails, which are in no case to be subjected to any detention beyond the regulated time. Notice of the hour at which such packet is closed shall be hung up outside the Office, both in English and in the language of the district, after which hour, letters, papers or parcels received shall not be forwarded till the following day, unless such mails should not arrive until after 6 P. M., in which case a second packet shall be made up.

Letters, &c., damaged, not to be received

XXI The Post Master at any station, or person in charge of the Office, shall have power to refuse letters, papers or parcels bearing the appearance of having been opened and re-closed, or otherwise improperly dealt with, unless the writer or sender thereof shall attest with his full signature, that they were sent in that state.

Post Offices not to receive valuables for despatch

XXII. In order to protect, as far as possible, the public mails from the chance of robbery, Officers in charge of Post Offices shall not knowingly receive coin, bullion, precious stones or jewels for despatch, either by letter or banghy post.

Post Office prohibited from giving change

XXIII The servants at the several Post Offices are prohibited from giving change to parties sending or receiving letters in any case.

Registered letters

XXIV Letters will be registered on payment of a fee of 4 annas, and parties posting such letters will be furnished with a receipt bearing the address of the letter and the office stamp The fee must in all cases be paid in money. On the delivery of a registered letter, a receipt for the same must be given to the delivery peon.

Receipts will not be given for letters, &c

XXV Receipts will not be granted for any letters or papers received at any Post Office for despatch, except in the case of registered letters, and will be granted for parcels only when presented ready written, either in books or on separate slips of paper along with the parcels. Receipts so presented will be duly stamped.

Notice to arriving vessels for disposal of packets.

XXVI On the arrival of any ship or vessel off any British Indian port, a printed notice, under the signature of the Post Master of the port or station, shall be delivered to the Commander by the first boat despatched to board the vessel, according to the requisition of which, the Commander shall proceed to dispose of such packets as he may have on board, as directed in Section XL. of the Post Office Act a copy of which Clause shall be communicated to the said Commander.

Master Attendant to notify intended departure for all vessels.

XXVII The Master Attendant of each Presidency port, or such other Officer as may be directed by Government, shall furnish the Post Master with early intimation of the intended departure of all vessels to any part of the world, and the Post Master shall cause a list of the vessels for which packets are open to be published weekly in the official Gazette of his own Presidency.

Post Master to publish weekly lists.

XXVIII. The Post Master shall also cause to be published weekly, in the official Gazette of the Presidency, a notice of the several dates up to which packets have been despatched by each vessel carrying a mail, that may have left the port.

Post Master to publish weekly notice of packets despatched.

XXIX. All public despatches are to be made up in the most compact form possible, and whenever two or more letters are despatched from any one Office to the same individual, by the same day's post, they are to be put up under one cover, provided they do not, in the aggregate, exceed 12 tolahs weight.

Public despatches to be compactly made up.

XXX. When the number of covers received at any Post Office shall cause the weight of the mail to exceed the regulated weight, the Post Master is authorized to keep back a portion of the heavier public despatches and imported newspapers till the following day, but private letters and public letters marked "Despatch" shall not be kept back.

When bulk of mails exceeds regulated weight how to be disposed of.

XXXI. Despatches to be transmitted by Express must bear on the face of them the words "By Express," and the signature in full of the Officer sending them.

Expresses.

XXXII As the employment of Expresses interferes with the celerity and regularity of the ordinary mails and is attended with expense, public Officers are enjoined to employ them as sparingly as possible, and any public Officer despatching an Express, when the exigency of the Public Service does not, in the opinion of the authority to whom he is subordinate, require it, will be held answerable for the expenses attending that method of transmission Public Expresses from a Presidency Post Office can only be ordered by a Secretary to Government.

Public Officers to employ them sparingly under a penalty.

XXXIII. Expresses may be employed by private individuals at the discretion of the Post Master applied to, on payment being made at the rate of 4 annas per mile in advance.

Expresses for private persons.

XXXIV Letters directed to Native Officers or men of their Regiments or Detachments, shall be delivered to an Orderly, or any other fit person, who shall be deputed by the Officer Commanding the Regiment or Detachment to receive the same but letters on which postage may be due shall not be delivered to such person, unless the postage be first paid

Commanding Officers may receive letters for their own Regiments.

Letters addressed to public Officers on private affairs to be prepaid by stamps.

XXXV. Letters which individuals address on their private affairs to any Government Officer must be sent pre-paid by stamps; and this rule is to be understood to include letters transmitting Bills of Exchange, Promissory Notes, Receipts, Government Securities, &c., to the Accountant General, Government Agent, or any other public Officer. When public Officers write letters on such subjects to individuals, they shall subscribe on the envelopes, with their official signatures, the words "Bearing Postage."

Postage on letters on Public Service to be charged to the Department to which Officers signing them belong.

XXXVI. The postage on letters and parcels sent on the Public Service, by the public Officers mentioned in the subjoined lists, shall be charged to the Departments to which they severally belong; such letters must be addressed according to the subjoined form.—

N. B.—The privilege of sending letters by post, without actual payment of postage, extends only to letters exclusively on the Public Service, and all Public Officers are prohibited from sending on service letters relating to the private concerns of individuals, though they may be in reply to communications addressed to them in their official capacity. Such letters must either be pre-paid by stamps, or sent bearing postage.

All Periodical Returns and Reports, and all letters not of an important or confidential na ture, are to be packed in covers open at each end.

Letters on the Public Service, not intended to be permanently retained on record, are to be written on paper of the smallest size (compatible with clear and legible writing.)

All letters, &c., received for despatch, to be marked with the appropriate office stamp, and with the amount of postage.

XXXVII. All letters, papers and packets whatever, received at any Post Office in India, for despatch by post, whether paid, stamped, or liable to postage, as the case may be, are to be marked with the appropriate stamp, bearing the name of such Office of despatch, and when slide stamps, showing the date of the month and year, are not provided, the said date must be entered in writing across the middle of the face of the stamp. If the letter or packet received for despatch be bearing postage, the amount of postage due must be entered in writing on the face of the letter.

All letters, &c., received for delivery, to be stamped, but the postage, unless undercharged, not to be marked.

XXXVIII. All letters, papers and packets whatever, received at any Post Office, by post, for delivery at such Office, are in like manner to be stamped with the appropriate office stamp, and marked with the date of the month and year; but the amount of postage paid or due is not to be marked, unless the letter has been under-charged with postage at the Despatching Office.

Obliterating stamp.

XXXIX. All postage stamps on letters, papers or parcels must be carefully obliterated with the stamp furnished for that object; and the black composition supplied for the purpose must be used in all cases. Letters bearing stamps, which have been previously obliterated or defaced, must be treated as unpaid letters.

Post Master not himself to affix a stamp on letters, &c.

XL. No Post Master is allowed to affix a postage stamp to a letter brought unstamped to his Office.

Forward letters, &c., to be stamped and marked with additional postage.

XLI. Forward letters, papers or packets, i. e., those which follow a party addressed from station to station, are to be stamped at each Office of fresh despatch, and marked with the additional postage due on such fresh despatch.

Extra weight of bangly parcels to be marked.

XLII. On bangly parcels the exact weight must in all cases be entered in writing on the face thereof.

Other letters, &c., how to be stamped.

XLIII. Supplementary rules, regarding the shape and size of the office stamps to be used on the several description of letters, shall be, when necessary, circulated by the Director General of the Post Office.

At such Post Offices as have more than one delivery daily, letters &c., to be stamped A M or P. M., according to time of delivery.

XLV. At such Post Offices as have more than one delivery daily, all letters, papers and packets must be marked with a stamp, showing at which delivery they were distributed

GENERAL RULES RELATING TO THE RECEIPT, DESPATCH AND DELIVERY OF LETTERS BY DISTRICT POSTS.

Approved of by the Governor Gener l of India in Council, on the 12th August 1854.

1. WHEREVER any local establishment may be maintained for the conveyance or delivery of the Police, Revenue or other official communications, it shall also be made use of for the conveyance and delivery of private correspondence, and be designated a District Post.

2. All Office or Road establishments, attached to any District Post, will be under the control and management of the Officer to whom they may be entrusted by the Local Government.

3. Such Police Stations and other Public Offices, as may be selected by the Local Government, shall be constituted District Post Offices, but this shall remain under the management and supervision of the same officials who are at present in charge of them.

4. A Letter Box, with a slit in the top or side, shall be fixed in a conspicuous place outside of every District Post Office. The words "Letter Box," in English and the Vernacular of the district shall be painted on each box in legible characters.

5. All letters (except those to be specially registered,) intended for despatch from any District Post Office, must be dropped into the Letter Box. No receipt will be given. Every letter posted at a District Post Office must have its proper postage stamp affixed to it.

6. Any person wishing to post a registered letter at any District Post Office can do so on payment of a registry fee of four annas, in addition to the ordinary postage chargeable on the letter, according to its weight. A receipt in the proper form must, in all cases, be given to the poster of a registered letter, whether it be demanded or not. One anna of the registration fee will be allowed to the person registering the letter, the remaining three annas must be sent with the letter by the same day's despatch to the nearest Post Office.

7. Every District Post Office will be supplied by the Post Office Department with registered letter covers, forms of receipt and of register, and with the rules relating to registered letters.

8. Except when it may be opened for the purpose of taking out the letters preparatory to their despatch, the Letter Box shall remain locked, the key being in custody of the person in charge of the Office.

9. Fifteen minutes before the hour at which the despatches of the Office are usually made up, the Letter Box will be opened and the letters in it taken out. Those addressed to places to which there is a direct communication through the District Post will be separated from all other letters, sorted and packed in covers addressed to the Officer in charge of the District Post Office from which they will be delivered. The remaining letters will be made up into one packet and addressed to the nearest Post Office with which he has a communication.

10. A Chulan or Letter Bill in the Vernacular (Form 1) will be sent with every packet despatched from a District Office to a Post Office. The Deputy Post Master or person in charge of the Post Office will, after satisfying himself that the contents of the packet agree with the Chulan, copy the entries into his register, sign, and by the next day's despatch return the Chulan. The receipted Chulans will be filed and form the only record in any District Post Office of the despatches made from it.

11 All Chulans are to be numbered consecutively in a series commencing on the 1st of May; and if any District Post Office is in the habit of sending packets to more than one Post Office, the Chulans sent to each Post Office will be numbered in a separate series.

12 All letters sent from one District Post Office to another will be accompanied by a Chulan (Form 2), which will be receipted and returned to the Despatching Office, to be filed as a record.

13. All letters received at any Post Office, to the address of persons resident in the same district, but beyond the limits of any ordinary post delivery, will, if the Post Office be at the head-quarters of the district, be sent with a Chulan (Form 1) to the Officer in charge of the District Post, to be by him sorted and forwarded to the District Post Offices of the several sub-divisions in which the residence of the addressees may be situated.

14 Persons in charge of Post Offices in the interior of districts receiving letters for persons residing beyond the limits of their ordinary delivery, but within the sub-division of a District Post Office with which they have direct communication, will send them, if pre-paid, for delivery to that Office, with a Chulan (Form 1.) Letters for persons resident in the district, but within a sub division with which the Receiving Office has no direct communication, must be sent to the Post Office of the head-quarters of the district. All letters bearing postage for delivery in the interior must be sent to the Post Office at the head-quarters of the district

15. Officers in charge of District Post Offices will carefully compare with the Chulan the contents of every packet received. If the Chulan is correct, it will be receipted and returned; if not correct, the discrepancies will be noted thereon.

16 A delivery book (Form 3,) showing the names of persons entrusted with the delivery of letters, will be kept in every District Post Office, and be the only record of letters received for delivery.

17 Letters will be delivered by such persons and under such rules as the Local Government may from time to time determine. Every person, through whom any District Post letter may be delivered, is authorized to receive a fee of one pice (a fourth of an anna) for his own use, in addition to any unpaid postage which may be due on it.

18. All postage realized on letters sent from any Post Office for delivery through the District Post will be remitted every Saturday to the Post Office at the head-quarters of the district with the remittance book (Form 4.) The person in charge of the Post Office will give a receipt for the amount in the opposite column and return the book by the first despatch. At the close of the month, a balance will be struck, showing the postage still due to the Post Office on letters which have been received; this balance will be brought forward and a new account commenced on the 1st of the following month.

19. All letters, which from any cause cannot be delivered, will be returned with as little delay as possible to the Post Office from which they were received and if any unpaid postage be due on them, credit for the amount will be taken in the remittance book. Unpaid letters are never, under any circumstances, to be sent from one District Post Office to another.

20. A monthly memorandum (Form 5,) showing the number of letters received for delivery at each District Post Office, will be prepared by the person in charge and sent on the 2nd of the following month to the Officer in charge of the Post Office at the head-quarters of the district Persons in charge of Post Offices will prepare similar memoranda and send them to the Post Office at the head-quarters of the district The Officer in charge will, before the 15th of each month, prepare a general statement showing the number of letters posted at, and delivered through the agency of the District Post Office in the preceding month

General Post Office Notifications.

Export Overland Mail v à Southampton and Marseilles, per. P. and O. Co.'s Steamer Oriental, direct from Calcutta.

NOTICE is hereby given, for general information, that the Mails for Suez and the intermediate Ports, (Madras, Ceylon, Aden, Penang, Singapore and Hongkong,) intended for transmission by the Peninsular and Oriental Company's Steam Vessel Oriental, will be closed at this Office on Monday the 4th proximo.

C. K. Dove,
Deputy Post-master General.

Fort William, General Post Office, The 22nd August 1854.

No. 2259.

The Deputy Post Master General regrets to inform the public, that from a communication received from the Post Master of Tezpore it appears, that the Calcutta Mails of the 22nd ultimo, for Tezpore, Assam, Seebsaugor and Debrooghur, and also the Mails for those places sent from Gowhatty and Mungledye on the 31st idem, were totally lost, with the Dak Boat, on the night of the latter date, at "Pobamaree Chapree," a little above Mungledye. The accident is attributable to the falling in of the bank, which fell on the boat, and caused the same to sink immediately.

C K Dove,
Deputy Post Master General.

Calcutta, General Post Office. The 15th August 1854.

The Business connected with the Calcutta Post Office having been made over exclusively to the charge of the Deputy Post Master General, the public are requested from this date to address that Officer direct, on all matters connected with that Office.

J. R. Burlton Bennett,
Post-master General of Bengal.

Calcutta, General Post Office, The 1st July 1854.

Rangoon Post Office Notice.

Letters and Newspapers, which should be addressed to Rangoon only, are frequently directed by mistake to Pegu or Burmah, and letters, &c. intended for delivery in Pegu, Prome, Bassein and other places in the Provinces, are in like manner erroneously addressed to "Rangoon, Burmah." The Rangoon Post Master begs to notify that, with such vague directions, this Department is left to find out to which of the Stations such letters should be forwarded, and from want of information, great disappointment is felt when they are despatched to the wrong Station. To obviate this, it is desirable, that parties posting letters in Calcutta or elsewhere, should be careful to direct them to their respective Stations, and to inform their Agents and Correspondents, when leaving one place for another, of their change of address, to ensure letters being directed to the proper Station. A list of places in the Pegu Provinces or in Burmah, and their distance from Rangoon, is annexed below, viz.:

Donabew,	40	miles

Sittang,	67	,,
Shoaygyeen,	90	,,

Yandoon,

Letters addressed to public functionaries, whose head-quarters or residence is in Rangoon, should be addressed "Rangoon," instead of Pegu or Burmah; but if intended for delivery at other Stations, should be addressed to those Stations, the word Rangoon to be omitted.

(Signed) C. M. Crisp,
Post Master.

The LIGHTHOUSE is in N. Lat. 55° 25′ 45″, and W. Long. 5° 32′ 16″.

The DEVAAR LIGHT will be known to Mariners as a REVOLVING LIGHT, which shows a bright white Light once every half-minute.

The Light is elevated about 120 feet above the level of high water of ordinary spring tides, and may be seen at the distance of about 15 nautic miles, and at lesser distances, according to the state of the atmosphere: to a nearer observer, in favourable circumstances, the Light will not wholly disappear between the intervals of greatest brightness. The arc, illuminated by this Light, extends from about S. ¼ E. by compass to about W. b. N., and faces Northwards.

And the COMMISSIONERS hereby further GIVE NOTICE, that Her Majesty, by Order in Council, dated 29th December 1853, was pleased to order and direct that, upon the Erection and Lighting of the said Light upon the Island of Devaar, there should be paid, in respect thereof, for every Vessel belonging to the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland (the same not belonging to Her Majesty or being navigated wholly in ballast) and for every Foreign Vessel, which by any Act of Parliament, Order in Council, Convention or Treaty, shall be privileged to enter the Ports of the United Kingdom, upon paying the same Duties of Tonnage as are paid by British Vessels, the same not being navigated wholly in ballast, which shall pass or derive benefit from the said Light, that is, which shall arrive at or depart from any Port or Place in the Bay or Loch of Campbeltown, if the burthen of the same shall not exceed Fifty Tons, Six-pence, and if the same shall exceed Fifty Tons, for each additional Fifty Tons, or part of Fifty Tons, Six-pence.

And Her Majesty was further pleased to order and direct, by the said Order in Council, that in respect of the said Light on Devaar, and in respect of another light in Loch Ryan, on the South side of the Basin of the Clyde erected by the said Commissioners, there shall be paid by every Vessel before described, and under the exemptions aforesaid, which shall navigate on a distinct voyage within the Great Basin of the Clyde, bounded by a line drawn from the Point of Corsewall to Glenarm in Ireland, on the South-east, and from another line drawn from the Mull of Kintyre to Fairhead, in Ireland, on the North-west, and on all other sides by the coasts of Ireland and Scotland surrounding the said Basin, a similar rate of Toll to that above set forth, being at the rate of Three-pence for each of the said Lights.

Double the said respective Tolls for every Foreign Vessel not privileged as aforesaid,

Provided always, that Vessels arriving at or departing from any port or place within Loch Ryan, or within Campbeltown Loch, and paying the rates for such respective voyages, shall not in addition be liable in payment of the rates for navigating the Basin of the Clyde.

The above rates are, by another Order in Council, declared to be subject to the following abatements on payment :—

Over-sea Vessels, Twenty-five per cent
Coasting Vessels, Ten per cent.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 30, 1854.

Legislative Council.

19th August 1854.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 19th of August 1854, and referred to a Select Committee, who are to report thereon after the 23rd of November next :—

A Bill for the further Improvement of the Law as administered in Her Majesty's Supreme Courts; for the transfer and abridgment of the Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction thereof, and for giving additional powers in certain cases to Justices of the Peace, with regard to offences committed out of their jurisdiction.

Business of Supreme Courts to be transacted on four sides only, viz., Plea, Equity, Admiralty, and Crown sides.

I. The business of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts, after this Act comes into operation, shall be transacted on four divisions or sides of the Court only, viz., the Plea, the Equity, the Admiralty, and the Crown side

In Admiralty or Vice Admiralty suits, Court empowered to call in Assessors.

II. In any suit brought on the Admiralty side of any of the Supreme Courts, or in any Vice-Admiralty Court in the Territories subject to the Government of the East India Company, which is likely to involve any question of nautical skill, the Court shall have power to summon from persons possessing such skill one or more, not exceeding three in number, to sit as Assessor or Assessors to the Court on the trial of the cause ; but such Assessor or Assessors shall not be required to deliver his or their opinion or opinions publicly, and the Judge or Judges may retire and confer with him or them in private, and the decision of the case shall rest with the Court.

Remuneration of Assessors.

III. The Court shall have power to allow a remuneration to each Assessor for his attendance, at the rate of one Gold Mohur each a day, and such remuneration shall be in the first instance payable by the Promovent, as part of his costs in the cause.

Assessors to be sworn, &c.

IV. The Assessors must swear, or solemnly affirm, or must affirm as the case may be, that they will give their opinion honestly and truly according to the Evidence.

Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction to be transferred to the Equity side.

V. The jurisdiction which the said Supreme Courts possessed prior to the passing of this Act on their Ecclesiastical side shall cease on that side and be transferred entirely to the Equity side of the Court, except as to suits pending at the time when this Act comes into force, and the jurisdiction as to matters of Ecclesiastical Limitation of Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction.

Jurisdiction shall be limited to Causes Testamentary, including Administrations and Causes Matrimonial. Provided that in any suit for restitution of conjugal rights, the Proviso, as to cohabitation.

Court shall be at liberty to limit its sentence to one for alimony, without making any order to compel cohabitation.

Procedure in Ecclesiastical matters to be the same as on the Equity side.

VI. The procedure as to matters which were of Ecclesiastical cognizance, and which are directed to be transferred to the Equity side, shall be that which may be in force on the Equity side, modified by the Rules and Orders of the Court, so far as it may require to be modified in order to give effect to this Act.

Probate or Letters of Administration granted by Supreme Court in one Presidency to have effect throughout British India.

VII. When any Probate or Letters of Administration has, or have been granted by any one of the said Supreme Courts to any other person than the Administrator General of such Presidency, respectively, and there are Assets of the Estate in any of the other Presidencies, it shall not be necessary to obtain any fresh grant of Probate or fresh Administration in any other of such Presidencies, but the one first granted shall operate throughout the territories of British India, and shall, as to any Assets therein, be of the same force and effect as if it had been granted by the authority of the Supreme Court of the Presidency in which such Assets may be.

VIII. Clause 1*st* When any Letters of Administration shall have been granted by any other of the Supreme Courts after such first grant as aforesaid, and without the assent of the Executor or Administrator to whom such first grant has been made of Probate or Letters of Administration as the case may be, such letters shall be liable to be revoked by the Court granting the same on the application of the Executor or Administrator under the first grant; but all acts done under them in the due course of Administration shall be valid to all intents and purposes. The Administrator under the second grant shall, when it is revoked, be liable to account to the Executor or Administrator under the first, and to pay over to such Executor or Administrator under the first, whatever may remain in his hands to be distributed.

Letters of Administration granted by any Supreme Court after grant of Probate or Letters of Administration by the Supreme Court of another Presidency, may be revoked.

But acts of Administrator under the second grant to be in the meantime valid, &c.

Administrator under second grant to be accountable after revocation to Executor or Administrator under first grant.

Clause 2*nd*. When Administration, or Administration with the Will annexed, shall have been granted ex-officio to the Administrator General of one Presidency, and there are Assets belonging to the Estate in another or other Presidencies, it shall not be necessary for the Administrator General of another Presidency in which there may be Assets to take out Letters of Administration, but each may act as to the Assets within his Presidency, in the collection and distribution of them, in like manner as if he had taken out Letters of Administration in the Presidency in which he is Administrator General, and each shall be entitled to his Commission on the Assets collected and distributed by him, as though there had been separate grants of Letters of Administration to each; and the Letters of Administration to the Administrator General, by virtue of his office, shall be expressed so as to give to each Administrator General in each Presidency the right to collect and distribute the effects in his Presidency, and each shall be answerable for his own acts and defaults only, and not for those of any other Administrator General. And when any Administrator General has taken out Letters of Administration, and he has reason to believe that there are Assets in another Presidency, he shall forthwith certify under his hand to the Administrator General, of such Presidency, the fact of his having taken out such Letters of Administration, and shall give such information as he possesses as to the existence of Assets in the Presidency of the Administrator General to whom such communication is addressed. And it is further enacted, that each Administrator General shall give notice, in like manner as the Administrator General taking out Letters of Administration is obliged to give notice, that he claims to administer in his Presidency, by virtue of such grant of the Court which issued the Letters describing it, and thereupon any party disputing his right and intending to claim the right to probate, or to administer in that Presidency to which such notice relates, may apply to the Supreme Court of the Presidency of the Administrator giving such notice, for a grant to himself, and to revoke, so far as it relates to the particular Presidency, the original grant, which the said Court shall have power to do as fully as if such grant had been one of that Court. It is further enacted, that such certificate shall, on its production, be sufficient proof of the grant of such original Letters, which shall be judicially presumed to be in the regular form directed by this Act.

A grant in one Presidency to the Administrator General ex-officio shall empower the Administrator General in other Presidencies, respectively, to collect and distribute Assets in each, without applying for fresh grants to the Courts of their respective Presidencies, saving rights as to Commission.

IX. When any suit is instituted in any of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts, on the Equity side thereof, such Court shall proceed with the suit if it embraces any matter of equitable jurisdiction, and in such suit determine all matters, whether of Law or Equity, that therein arise, and give all such consequential relief as may be necessary to give full effect to the rights determined, and in so doing shall have power to bring before it, by notice, provided such person be subject to its jurisdiction, any person not a party to the suit, whose rights may appear to be affected by the enforcement of such consequential relief.

Supreme Court may, in any Equity suit, determine questions of Law arising therein.

And may bring before it by notice persons interested, though not parties to the suit.

X. In any Bill or Claim which is filed in any of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts after the time when this Act comes into effect, for the specific performance of any agreement, the relief may be asked in the alternative for a specific performance or for damages; and the Court shall have power to award damages if it think that, under the circumstances, it would not be equitable, or proper, or practicable, to give relief by specific performance, in like manner, and to as full an extent as damages might be given in an action at Law for the same breach of agreement.

In suits for specific performance, Supreme Court may award damages instead of decreeing specific performance.

XI When any action is instituted in any of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts, on the Plea side thereof, such Court shall proceed with the action if it embraces any matter of jurisdiction on the Plea side of the Court, and all defences on equitable grounds which might have been made the subject of an application to a Court of Equity to restrain proceedings at Law, in such a suit, under the like circumstances, shall be made matter of defence in that suit; and no Bill shall be filed to restrain or interfere with the progress of the suit on the Plea side, and in like manner the Court shall hear and determine in such action any equitable defence on the part of the Plaintiff to any set-off or counter-claim which may be pleaded by the Defendant, and it shall have power, on either party, by an order in the nature of an injunction, to stay the further prosecution of Equitable defences allowed to actions instituted on the Plea side.

Bills to restrain progress of suits on the Plea side not allowed.

Plaintiff may set up any equitable defence to set-off or counter-claim.

Court on its Plea side may make orders

in the nature of injunctions

the action, pending any inquiry which it may see fit to direct, and also to restrain the opposite party, either temporarily or perpetually, from doing any act with reference to the subject-matter of the suit, as a Court of Equity might have restrained such party upon a Bill filed, and praying an injunction against him

Supreme Courts on their Plea side, and Courts of Small Causes to have jurisdiction to try actions on lost negotiable securities

XII From the time when this Act comes into operation, Her Majesty's Supreme Courts shall have jurisdiction to try on the Plea side an action on a lost negotiable Bill of Exchange or other negotiable security, as to which, before this Act came into operation, the remedy would have been on the Equity side of the Court alone, and shall have power to order indemnity to be given by the Plaintiff recovering in such action, in like manner as it would have been ordered by the Court on the Equity side thereof, and to stay execution until such security be given And the several Courts of Small Causes at the Presidencies of Fort William, Fort St. George, and Bombay, respectively, shall have, within the limits of their respective jurisdictions, the same jurisdiction and powers as are hereby enforced in the Supreme Courts, as to such causes of action.

Supreme Court may in any action on the Plea side direct an account to be taken in like manner as on the Equity side

And may stay proceedings till account taken

Certificate of Judge or Officer taking account to be sufficient proof of its result.

XIII If in any action at Law it becomes necessary for the determination of the rights of the parties to take an account which cannot be conveniently taken in open Court, the Court shall have power to direct the account to be taken in like manner as upon a Bill or Claim filed on the Equity side of the Court, and may, if there is no other question to be tried or decided in the cause, stay further proceedings therein until such account be taken, and the certificate of the Judge or Officer taking the account shall be sufficient proof of the result of such account

Whenever questions arise as to whether Executor, &c., has Assets, opposite party not bound to allege or prove existence of Assets, but may call on Executor, &c., to admit Assets, or to show that he never received any, or has accounted for them

XIV In any action or suit, whether original or continued by revivor, or in any stage thereof, wherein a question arises, whether an Executor or Administrator or other Representative has Assets to satisfy the demand, the opposite party shall not be bound to allege or to prove the existence of such Assets, but may call on the Executor or Administrator, or such Representative, either to admit Assets sufficient to satisfy the demand, or to show that he either never received any Assets of his testator or intestate, or that he has duly applied and accounted for the same.

Choses in action, &c., to be assignable at Law

Assignee to sue in his own name.

XV. All choses in action and rights, capable of being recovered and enforced at Law, and which are now assignable in Equity only, shall be assignable at Law, and in every action for the recovery thereof at Law, the Assignee shall sue for the same in his own name, and not in the name of the Assignor, and in every such action the right of the Plaintiff to recover shall be subject to any claim of set-off which the Defendant may have either against the Plaintiff personally or had against the original or any successive Assignor before notice of such assignment.

Plaintiff's rights to be subject to any set-off of Defendant against Plaintiff himself or against the original or any subsequent Assignor before notice.

Assignee need not make Assignor party to action or suit.

XVI It shall not be necessary to make the Assignor a party to an action at Law or suit in Equity by the Assignee of any chose in action against the party liable in respect of the matter assigned, and such party liable shall, in the absence of fraud on his part, be as effectually discharged from his original liability, by the proceedings in such action or suit, as he would have been, had the alleged Assignor of such chose in action been a party to such proceedings.

Assets in Equity to be also Assets at Law.

XVII. All Assets, which are Assets in a Court of Equity, shall also be Assets at Law, and all debts, whatever the nature of them, shall be paid pari passu after the death of any Debtor dying after the passing of this Act, by his personal Representatives, or in any suit for the administration of the Estate of the said person. Provided that this provision shall not impair or affect any mortgage, pledge, or lien, legal or equitable, whether given by the Law or the act of the party, or any payment bonâ fide made by any such Representative in ignorance of the insolvency of the Estate.

All debts after the death of Debtor, whatever their nature, to be paid pari passu.

Proviso—that mortgages, pledges, &c., and payments made in ignorance of insolvency, are not to be affected by the above provision

Receiver may bring actions with the assent of the Court by which he is appointed.

XVIII. A receiver shall have authority to bring any action in respect of the property of which he is appointed receiver, in his own name as receiver, but such action shall not be brought without the assent of the Court which has appointed him a receiver ; and shall be under its control, so far as the same may be exercised without clashing with the authority of any other Court.

Persons appointed by letters ad colligendum bona may take legal Estate for the purpose of protecting it, and may bring action in same manner as Administrators.

But may not alienate Estate without leave of Court.

XIX. All persons appointed by Letters ad colligendum bona, shall take the legal Estate for the purpose of protecting the Estate, and shall have authority to bring actions in the same manner as Administrators may sue ; but they shall not have authority to alienate the Estate without the order of the Court under whose authority they act.

Where Plaintiff or Defendant require discovery in aid of any action or defence thereto, Court may, if satisfied with the affidavit of such party, direct the opposite party to answer interrogatories.

XX. When the Plaintiff or Defendant respectively require discovery in aid of an action at Law, or defence thereto, in any of Her Majesty's said Supreme Courts, it shall be lawful for such party by affidavit to state the reason why he requires discovery and as to what it is required ; and if it sees that such discovery ought to be given, the Court thereon, shall direct that the party to the suit from whom the discovery is sought may answer to interrogatories to be exhibited to him for such purpose. Provided that the party asking for such discovery shall be liable to pay the cost of obtaining it, to the party giving it, whatever be the event of the suit, in like manner as if a Bill of pure discovery had been filed on the Equity side of the Court and answered. Provided always, that the Court shall have and exercise the same power to compel a full answer to such interrogatories as it might have exercised had such interrogatories been filed in a suit for discovery in the Equity side of the Court, and shall have the same power as to the costs of procuring such full answer as it would possess in the Equity side of the Court, if the answer to a Bill of Discovery were insufficient.

Proviso that the party seeking discovery must pay the costs of obtaining it.

Further proviso as to power of Court to compel a full answer and to provide for costs thereo.

XXI. And whereas it is desirable to avoid the inconvenience of making public bodies parties to suits, in which they have no interest, and where the contest is as to the right to property of which they are only the depositaries or managers for others, it is further enacted, that it shall be lawful for any of Her Majesty's Courts, upon the application of any party interested, by motion or petition in a summary way, without Bill filed, to restrain the East India Company from paying the interest due or to become due on any of the Promissory Notes of the said Company, commonly called Government Paper, or from renewing or permitting the renewal of any such Government Paper, or from parting with any Government Paper, which may have been paid into or deposited in the Public Treasury; and also to restrain any other public Company, whether incorporated or not, from permitting the transfer of any Stock or Shares in such Company, which may be standing in the name or names of any person or persons, or body politic or corporate, in the books of such Company, or from paying any dividend or dividends due or to become due thereon.

Supreme Court may, in a summary way, without Bill filed, restrain East India Company from paying interest on, or renewing or parting with, Government Paper deposited in Treasury.

And any public Company from transferring or paying dividends on any Stock or Share.

XXII. Every order to be made upon such motion or petition as in the preceding Section mentioned, shall describe the Promissory Notes, or specify the amount of the Stock, or the particular Shares to be affected thereby, and the name or names of the person or persons, body politic or corporate, in which the same shall be standing; and upon the application of any party interested may be discharged, varied, or continued, as the justice of the case may require, by the Court granting the same, and the Court shall have power to award such costs upon any such application as it shall see fit.

Orders made in pursuance of provisions of preceding Section to describe and specify Notes, Stock, Shares, &c., to be affected thereby.

Such orders may be varied or discharged, &c

XXIII. In no case, except by special order of Court, shall any Company, or any Servant or Officer of any Company, against which proceedings may be taken under the provisions of the last Sections of this Act, be made a party, either to the application for obtaining the order to restrain, or to any application to discharge, vary, or continue such order, or to any suit or proceeding which may be instituted, either before or after the issuing of such order, for the purpose of determining the title or right to the Government Paper, or other Stock or Shares which may be the subject of such order, and in every such suit or proceeding, it shall be lawful for the Court wherein the same is pending to order the East India Company, or any of the Officers thereof, or any other public Company, or any of the Servants or Officers thereof, to deal with the Government Paper, Stock, or Shares which are the subject of the said suit or proceeding, or the interest or dividends of such Government Paper, Stock, or Shares as the said Court may deem just, although the Company or person upon whom such order is made is not a party to the suit or proceeding wherein the same is made.

No Company or Officer of a Company to be made a party to such proceedings, except by special order of Court.

But Court may order East India or other Company how to deal with the Government Paper, Stock, Shares, &c., although Company not party to suit or proceeding.

XXIV No action or suit shall lie against the East India Company or any public Company, or any of the Officers or Servants thereof, respectively, for any thing bonâ fide done, or omitted to be done by them, or any of them, in pursuance of any order made under the provisions of the foregoing Sections; but any person aggrieved by such order must assert his rights against the party at whose instance the same shall have been obtained.

No such Company to be liable for any thing bonâ fide done, &c., in pursuance of any such order.

Remedy of party aggrieved by any such order

XXV. And whereas by Act No. XVII. of 1852, it has been made lawful for persons interested, or claiming to be interested, in any question cognizable in Her Majesty's Courts within the factories of the East India Company, on the Equity, Plea, Ecclesiastical, or Admiralty sides thereof, respectively, to concur in stating such question in the form of a special case for the opinion of such Courts, in which special case such facts and documents as may be necessary to enable the Court to decide the question raised thereby, are to be admitted and stated; and whereas it is expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act and to enable such persons, in the form of a special case, to take the opinion of the Court upon the questions of fact as well as upon the questions of law in dispute between them, it is enacted that, from the time when this Act comes into operation, it shall be lawful for any persons desirous of stating a question in the form of a special case for the opinion of the said Courts, but unable to concur upon all the facts necessary to enable the Court to determine such question, to state both the facts and documents which are admitted between them, and the questions of fact which are bonâ fide in dispute between them, and to pray for the decision of the Court upon such disputed questions of fact, and subject thereto, for its opinion upon any question of Law or Equity arising either upon the facts as admitted, or the facts as found, or upon both together; and the Committee of the Estate of any lunatic, and a husband in right of his wife, and a married woman jointly with her husband, and the guardian of an infant, and a guardian specially appointed by the Court for the purpose of concurring in a case; and the Court in the appointment of such special guardian shall respectively have, and may exercise such and the same power of concurrence in a case involving disputed issues of the fact, as heretofore they had, and might have exercised with respect to a special case stated under the said recited Act.

Where parties desirous of stating a special case cannot agree on all the facts, they may state those admitted and also those in dispute.

Committees of lunatics, guardians, &c., may concur in such statements.

In special case involving disputed facts, Court how to proceed.

XXVI. Upon any special case involving disputed questions of fact, the Court shall have power in its discretion, either to determine the case subject to its finding upon certain issues of fact, or to proceed to the trial of such issues, and to reserve its decision upon the other questions in the case, until such facts shall have been found, and upon the trial of any issues of fact requiring the examination of witnesses, it shall proceed in the same manner, and shall have the same power of examining and dealing with such witnesses as it would have had upon the trial of an issue directed under Act XXI. of 1848.

Upon the trial of issues arising out of such special case, and requiring examination of witnesses, Court to proceed as under Act XXI. of 1848.

Provisions of Act XVII. of 1852, to apply to special cases involving disputed facts, except where they are modified by this Act.

XXVII. Except so far as they are modified by this Act, all the provisions of the said recited Act XVII. of 1852, relating to the statement and determination of special cases stated under that Act, and to the effect of such determination, and to the right of having a special case re-heard, or of appealing from the decision thereon, shall extend to and apply to special cases involving disputed questions of fact.

Parties may by consent have questions in dispute between them tried without formal pleadings.

XXVIII. From the time when this Act comes into operation, it shall be lawful for any parties who are desirous to try, without formal pleadings, any question within the jurisdiction of Her Majesty's Courts, which is bonâ fide in dispute between them, to present to any of the said Courts a petition verified by affidavit, and stating that the question or questions to be tried are bonâ fide in dispute between them, and the nature thereof, and that all the litigant parties consent to have such question or questions tried without formal pleadings, and are subject to or submit themselves to the jurisdiction of the Court; and thereupon it shall be lawful for the Court to order that such question or questions shall be tried without pleadings, and to proceed to try the same as if the several issues of fact or law had been regularly raised upon formal pleadings, and to give judgment or make a decree in a summary way accordingly; and the judgment so given, or the decree so made, shall be entered, and execution shall issue thereon, and the parties shall be bound thereby, in such and the same manner and to the same extent as upon a judgment recovered, or a decree made in a regular suit.

Judgment or decree thereupon to have same effect as judgment or decree in a regular suit.

On criminal trials, where adjournment necessary, Court may at its discretion permit Jurors to go at large until time fixed for meeting again.

XXIX. When any trial for any crime in any of the Supreme Courts, by reason of its length, requires to be adjourned until another day, the Court shall, on its adjournment, permit the Jurors to go at large until the time of meeting again according to the adjournment, unless under the particular circumstances of any case such course seem inexpedient.

Court may allow Jury after retirement to be supplied with lights, food, &c.

XXX. When the Jury retire to consider their verdict, the Court may, if it see fit to do so, order them to be supplied with suitable accommodation, lights, and food, &c.

If Jury cannot agree after six hours' deliberation, but a majority of not less than 3-4ths are agreed, verdict of such majority to be as valid as if Jury unanimous.

XXXI. In any criminal trial by Jury in any of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts, if the Jury, after they have retired to consider their verdict, cannot agree thereon, then, after they have remained six hours in deliberation on the case, they may return into Court and declare their inability to agree, and if the Court shall not send them back to consider the case further, and if the majority, not being less than 3-4ths in number of the whole twelve, are agreed, the Foreman shall declare, without naming or otherwise distinguishing the individuals composing the majority or minority, that 9, 10, or 11, as the case may be, have agreed on their verdict, but that the Jurors are not unanimous; and thereupon the verdict shall be recorded as the verdict of the major part of the Jury, stating therein how many Jurors agree in that verdict, and the verdict so delivered shall, to all intents and purposes, be as valid in Law as if it had been the verdict of an unanimous Jury, and the judgment shall be entered upon it, as on a verdict of the majority given according to Law; and it shall not be necessary to record in the judgment the opinion of the minority.

If after six hours' deliberation 3-4ths of Jury are not agreed, the Court may discharge Jury, and defendant may be tried again for the same offence.

XXXII. If, after a Jury in any such criminal trial in any of the said Supreme Courts shall have been in deliberation on their verdict for a time, which, with reference to the amount of evidence in the case, shall appear to the Court ample for a full and deliberate consideration of the evidence, not being less in any case than six hours, they shall return into Court and state that 3-4ths in number are not agreed, and express their inability to agree, the Court may discharge them from giving a verdict; and in that case the Defendant shall be liable to be tried again for the same offence, but only once again, and shall not be put on his trial a third time, whatever be the result of the second trial, provided the same proceed to an end without interruption by sickness or death, or other sudden accident after the commencement of such second trial.

But in no case Defendant to be put on his trial for the same offence a third time, if the second trial proceeded to an end without interruption.

Where Jury discharged from verdict, Court empowered, under certain circumstances, to order that no second prosecution shall take place.

XXXIII. If the Court, where the Jury is so discharged as aforesaid, shall be of opinion, either from the slightness of the proof and the apparent difficulty of procuring better proof on another trial, or from the slightness of the offence in itself, or under the circumstances of its commission, that a second prosecution would not advance the interests of Justice, it shall have power to direct by its order, to be endorsed on the Record, that no other prosecution for that offence shall take place; and that order may be pleaded in bar of any other prosecution or that offence.

XXXIV. If any other prosecution should be instituted in the same Court for that offence, the Court may order the Clerk of the Crown to prepare such plea for the Defendant, if he have not counsel and desire it, and may allow him to withdraw his plea of Not Guilty at any stage of the cause before verdict, and put in the above plea.

If after such order a second prosecution be instituted, Court may direct a plea to be preferred for the Defendant.

XXXV. Where any offence which may be tried in any of the Supreme Courts has been committed on the High Seas or other place beyond the jurisdiction of any Justice of the Peace, it shall be lawful for any Justice of the Peace, within the limits of whose jurisdiction the offender may afterward be, on complaint or information of such offence, to issue his warrant for the apprehension of such offender, and he shall have power and authority by such warrant to order the party to be brought before himself, or some other Justice of the Peace, in the same Commission, or before a Justice of the Peace in and for the place where the offence was committed, for examination, with a view to the commitment of such person for trial before such Supreme Court; and the Justice of the Peace before whom such party shall be brought shall proceed in the same mode in such examination, and in taking and forwarding the depositions, and shall have the same powers in all respects for the summoning and enforcing the attendance of witnesses, and otherwise, as if the offence had been committed within the limits of his jurisdiction as such Justice, and the depositions taken in such mode and returned shall be subject to all Laws that apply to depositions taken before Justices of the Peace, for crimes committed on land, and which they must, conformably to Law, send up on commitment to the Supreme Court.

Justices of the Peace empowered to inquire into offences committed on the High Seas or places on land beyond the limits of their Commissions

XXXVI. Whenever a private person, or a public Officer, may arrest or detain, on suspicion or charge, for a reasonable time, with a view to inquiry, or to bring the arrested person before a Peace Officer or Justice of the Peace, on such matter of suspicion or charge, supposing the offence to be committed on land, such arrest and detention shall be justifiable also by such persons respectively for crimes of the same class committed at sea, but subject to the same limits as to the right of arrest and conduct in assertion of such right as apply to crimes of the same class committed on land.

Private persons and public Officers to have same authority in respect of offences committed on the High Seas as on land.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

19th August 1854

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 19th of August 1854, and referred to a Select Committee, who are to report thereon after the 23rd of November next:—

A Bill to extend the operation of, and regulate the mode of executing Writs of Execution in Her Majesty's Supreme Courts of Judicature.

Whereas it is desirable to extend the operation of, and regulate the conduct of Writs of Execution out of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts in certain cases, It is enacted that,

Preamble.

I. Under any writ of fieri facias issued in any of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts, on any side of the Court, may be seized and taken any lands, houses, or other immoveable property of the party against whose effects such writ issues, whether his estate or interest therein be legal or equitable, as also money, bank-notes, cheques, bills of exchange, promissory notes, hoondees, Government paper, bonds, or other securities for money, and also debts belonging to the said person, and the Sheriff or other Officer having the execution of the writ shall be at liberty to pay or deliver over to the party suing out such execution any money or bank-notes which shall so be seized, or a sufficient part thereof, and shall, with the order of the Court, endorse over or transfer, and without such order shall hold any such cheques, bills of exchange, promissory notes, bonds, specialties or other securities for money as a security or securities for the amount by such writ of fieri facias directed to be levied, or so much thereof as shall not have been otherwise levied and raised, and may, where he retains the same, sue in his own name as such Sheriff or Officer, for the recovery of the sum or sums secured thereby, or for any debt seized as aforesaid, when the time of payment thereof shall have arrived; and the payment to such Sheriff or other Officer, or to the party entitled under such endorsement or transfer by the party liable, with or without suit, or the recovery and levying execution against the party so liable, shall discharge him to the extent of such payment or of such recovery and levy in execution, as the case may be, from his liability on any such cheque, bill of exchange, promissory note, hoondee, bond, specialty, security, and debt; and such Sheriff or other Officer may, and shall pay over to the party suing out such writ the money so to be recovered, or such part thereof as may be sufficient to discharge the amount by such writ directed to be levied; and if after satisfaction of the amount so to be levied, together with Sheriff's poundage, and all lawful charges and expenses, any surplus shall remain in the hands of such Sheriff or other Officer, the same shall be paid to the party against whom such writ shall be so issued, unless the same is duly attached in the hands of such Sheriff or other Officer. Provided that no Sheriff or other Officer shall be bound to sue any party liable upon any such cheque, bill of exchange promissory note, hoondee, Company's paper, bond, specialty, security, or debt, unless the party suing out such execution shall give security to the Sheriff for indemnifying him from all costs and expenses to be incurred in the prosecution of such action, or to which he may become liable in consequence thereof, the nature and amount of such security to be determined, in case they cannot agree, by the proper Officer of the Court in which such action

Sheriff empowered under any writ of fieri facias issued on any side of Supreme Court to seize immoveable property.

And money, bank-notes, debts, &c.

And to pay money or bank-notes to executive creditor.

And with the order of the Court to endorse over, and without such order to hold cheques, bills of exchange, &c.

And to sue in his own name for amount secured by bills of exchange, &c.

Or for debts.

Proviso as to indemnity for Sheriff.

shall be brought, or if the Court shall so order, by some other person to be appointed by the Court for such purpose; and the expense of the proceedings to obtain such security shall be deducted out of any money to be recovered in such action, and the net proceeds only in this and other cases provided for by this Act shall be considered as received in satisfaction of the debt due to the executive creditor.

Sheriff empowered to receive interest on Government paper seized by him.

II. If the Sheriff or other Officer under any writ of fieri facias shall seize any Government paper standing in the name of, or belonging to the party against whose property such writ shall be issued, he shall have power to receive the interest due on such Government paper, whether specially endorsed or otherwise, and to sign a receipt for the same; and also to sell and dispose of such Government paper through a broker at the market rate of the day; and if the endorsement of such party shall be requied to transfer such Government paper, the Sheriff or other public Officer shall endorse the same, thus—"A. B. by C. D., Sheriff"; and such endorsement shall be as effectual to pass the said Government paper, and to give a good title to the holder thereof as if the same had been endorsed by the party himself or his duly constituted Attorney.

And to sell, and where endorsement necessary, to endorse such paper.

No debt to be sold by Sheriff.

III. No debt shall be sold by the Sheriff under the process of the said Court, any Charter of any of the said Supreme Courts to the contrary notwithstanding, but the same shall be realized in the mode hereinbefore directed. Provided that nothing in this Act contained shall prevent the making of any interlocutory applications or order for the payment of any admitted debt that has been seized under a writ of execution into the hands of the Sheriff.

Proviso as to application for payment of admitted debt signed by Sheriff.

When seizure of immoveable property or of choses in action or debts is to be by notice and not by actual seizure.

IV. When any property that the Sheriff or other Officer is by the first Sec- of this Act directed to seize, shall consist of lands, houses, or other immoveable property in the possession of tenants to the party, the seizure must be effected by notice in writing to such tenants and not by actual seizure of the premises, and where the property belongs to the defendant by an equitable and not a legal title, and the trust is of that character that he is not entitled to possession of the lands, houses, or other immoveable property, or to the receipt of the rents and profits thereof himself, or his title is in remainder or reversion, then actual possession must not be taken of the property, but seizure must be made by notice to the tenants, if any, or to the party in possession as before, and also to the trustees or some or one of them, if they are known, or otherwise in such mode as the Court may direct; and all choses in action and debts which are not secured or evidenced by any of the securities before named, must be seized by means of notice only to the debtor or person liable to satisfy the said debt or claim. And after such seizure as aforesaid, no payment which is made to any person other than the Sheriff or other Officer, or to such person as he may appoint to receive it or the Court may order, shall be any discharge, unless it be made in payment of any prior debt, charge, lien, or expense, or cost, which would be good against the party against whom such execution issued, but the payment to the Sheriff or such Officer shall operate as a full discharge of the party liable, and all claims to the money must be asserted against the Sheriff or such Officer in such case; and all rival claims thereto shall be adjusted, settled, and discharged by interpleader between the parties.

After such seizure no payment except under certain circumstance to any one but the Sheriff to be a discharge.

Payment to Sheriff to be full discharge.

First writ of execution to have priority over other writs.

V. As to priority of writs of execution, directed to levy money, it is enacted that the writ which is first delivered to the Sheriff shall be first executed, and that shall have priority over other writs; and that no writ of execution against property shall be delivered to the Sheriff or received by him to lie in the office without the order of the Court. And as to subsequent writs of the like kind, the money raised, whether it be of a surplus under a former writ or of the property first seized, but not sold, shall be distributed ratably amongst all the creditors having writs in the hands of the Sheriff, at any time prior to the receipt of the money by the Sheriff, according to the amount of their debts, without regard to priority. In case any dispute shall arise as to the proceeds of such execution, the Sheriff may pay the fund into Court, deducting for his cost and expenses and poundage, and other claims, if any, and the claims of the respective claimants shall be settled and adjusted in the said Court by interpleaders amongst themselves.

No writ of execution to be delivered to Sheriff, to lie in the office without the order of Court.

Levy of subsequent writs to be distributed ratably among creditors having writs.

Dispute of claimants to be settled by interpleaders.

Shares, dividends, &c., may be attached in books of public Company.

VI. If any person, against whom any writ of execution shall have issued, shall have any shares in any public Company in India, subject to the jurisdiction, or within reach of its process, and whether incorporated or not, such shares standing in his own name and in his own right, or in the name of any person in trust for him, or shall be entitled to any interest in the dividends, interest, or annual produce of such shares, it shall be lawful for the Court or a Judge, on application of the party having recovered such judgment, to make an order ex-parte to attach such shares, and such dividends, interest, or annual produce shall be attached in the books of the said public Company, to answer the purposes of such execution; and such shares shall not be suffered to be transferred, nor shall such dividends, interest, or annual produce be paid until such order of attachment shall be withdrawn, discharged, or disposed of, and no disposition in the meanwhile by such debtor shall be valid or effectual as against such party recovering such judgment and obtaining such order of attachment.

During such attachment shares not to be transferred, nor dividends, &c., paid.

Copy of order of attachment to be served on debtor.

VII. A copy of such order of attachment shall be served on the debtor, or his Attorney or Agent, and unless the said debtor or some other person interested shall, within the space of twenty days from the service of such order of attachment and copy, or from the date of the last service, or such other time as the Court or a Judge may think reasonable, show sufficient cause to the contrary, it shall be lawful for the Court or a Judge, if he shall so think fit on proof of the service of such order of attachment and copy, to make an order on all persons, corporations, and public Companies, whose act or consent is thereto necessary, to transfer the said shares belonging to the said judgment debtor, and standing in his own name or in the name of any trustee for him for his own benefit, into the name of the said Sheriff or other Officer as aforesaid, or to make payment of such dividends, interest, and annual produce to the said Sheriff; and all such persons, whose act or consent is so necessary as aforesaid, are hereby required to obey such order, and are indemnified for all things done or permitted, pursuant to such order. Provided also, that it shall be lawful for such Court or a Judge, on the application of the debtor or any person interested, to discharge or vary such order for attachment and to award such costs on such application as to the said Court or a Judge shall seem just

And if he does not show good cause, Court may order transfer of shares or payment of dividends, &c., to Sheriff

Indemnity of parties obeying such order.

VIII. If such debtor shall have an interest in any such shares, or the dividends, interest, and annual produce thereof, not vested and in possession, but contingent or in remainder or reversion, it shall be lawful for the Court or a Judge, on a like application to be made by the party obtaining such judgment, to make an order ex-parte, that such shares, dividends, interest, or annual produce, or a competent part thereof, shall stand charged with the payment of the amount for which such judgment shall have been recovered, and interest, or so much as shall remain unsatisfied unless satisfactory cause shall be shown to the contrary by the said debtor or some other person interested within a time to be named in such order, and such order shall be served on the debtor or his Attorney or Agent; and unless cause shall be shown to the contrary within the time specified in such order or at such time as the Court or a Judge may think proper it shall be lawful for the Court or a Judge, if it or he shall so think fit on proof of the service of such order, to make the same absolute; and such order shall entitle the creditor to all such remedies as he would have been entitled to if such charge had been made in his favor by the debtor. Provided that such Court or a Judge shall, on the application of such debtor, or any person interested, have full power to discharge or vary such order, and to award such costs upon such application as the Court or a Judge may think fit.

Where interest of debtor in shares, dividends, &c., is not vested, but contingent, Court may make ex-parte order that such shares, &c., shall stand charged with payments.

Such order within a certain time to be absolute unless cause shown to the contrary.

Proviso as to discharge of such order in certain cases.

IX. If such debtor shall have an estate or interest in any property which shall be standing in the name of the Accountant General of the Court, or of any other Officer of the Court, or in the dividends, interest, or annual produce thereof, it shall be lawful for the Court or a Judge to make such order as to such property, and the dividends, interest, and annual produce thereof, as it or he might have made if the same had been standing in the name of a trustee for such judgment debtor.

Where interest of debtor is in property standing in name of any Officer of Court

X. A plaintiff or defendant arrested under any writ of capias ad satisfaciendum shall be entitled to his discharge from such arrest on payment or tender to the opposite party or his Attorney in the cause, or to the Sheriff or Gaoler in whose custody such person may be under such writ, of the amount directed to be levied by such writ.

Party arrested under a capias ad satisfaciendum entitled to discharge on payment or tender of the amount of levy to opposite party or his Attorney, or to Sheriff or Gaoler.

XI. A written order under the hand of the Attorney in the cause by whom any writ of capias ad satisfaciendum shall have been issued shall justify the Sheriff, Gaoler, or person, in whose custody the party may be under such writ, in discharging such party, unless the party for whom such Attorney professes to act shall have given written notice to the contrary to such Sheriff, Gaoler, or person, in whose custody the opposite party may be, but such discharge shall not be a satisfaction of the debt unless made by the authority of the creditor, and nothing herein contained shall justify any Attorney in giving such order for discharge without the consent of his client.

Written order of Attorney issuing capias ad satisfaciendum sufficient for the discharge of a party by Sheriff or Gaoler, unless the client shall give written notice to the contrary.

Attorney not justified in giving order for discharge without the consent of his client.

XII. A Sheriff shall not be liable in an action for escape or other breach of duty to pay damages beyond the amount of the loss which his breach of duty has really occasioned, in like manner as if he had been sued in the form of an action on the case

Sheriff not to be liable for escape, &c., beyond the amount of the loss really occasioned.

XIII. A writ of execution sued out after the commencement of this Act, if unexecuted shall not remain in force for more than one year from the date of such writ, unless renewed in the manner hereinafter provided, but a writ of execution, whether sued out before or after the passing of this Act, may at any time before its expiration be renewed by the party issuing it for one year from the date of such renewal, and so on from time to time to time during the continuance of the renewed writ, by being marked with the seal of the Court, and with a memorandum, signed or initialed by the Officer, of the date of the day, month, and year of such renewal, or by such party giving a written notice of renewal to the Sheriff, signed by the party or his Attorney and bearing the like seal of the Court, and memorandum signed or initialed by the Officer as aforesaid, and a writ of execution so renewed shall have effect and be entitled to the same priority as the original writ would have had. Provided, however, that no writ of habere shall be renewed without the special leave of the Court or a Judge.

Writ of execution, if unexecuted, not to remain in force more than one year unless renewed.

But may be renewed from time to time.

Renewed writ entitled to same priority as its original

Proviso as to writ of habere.

XIV. The production of a writ of execution, or of the notice renewing the same, purporting to be marked with such seal and initialed as aforesaid, showing the same to have been renewed according to this Act, shall be sufficient evidence of its having been so renewed.

Production of writ, or of notice of renewal, sufficient evidence of renewal.

XV. All property of every kind that may be seized under a writ of fieri-facias, issued from the said Supreme Courts respectively, may be seized also under a writ of sequestration issued from the same, where a sequestration is a process of the Court, and the seizure must in all cases be made in the mode directed by this Act as to seizures under writs of fieri-facias; and where a sale is ordered, it shall apply only to those seizable things which may be sold, and shall not authorize the sale of any property which is prohibited to be sold by this Act.

All property seizable under a fieri-facias may be seized under a writ of sequestration.

XVI. No writ of execution or sequestration, which shall issue out of any of Her Majesty's said Supreme Courts, shall bind the property as against any purchaser for value bonâ-fide without notice, or as against any mortgagee or pledgee, or other person having a lien, legal or equitable, as against the execution debtor, by advancing on the goods or property bona-fide without notice, or as against the process of any other Court, except from the time of its actual execution by seizure according to the nature of the property.

Writs of execution or sequestration not to bind property as against bona-fide purchasers for value without notice, &c.

Nor as against process of other Courts.

Except from time of actual execution by seizure.

W. MORGAN,
Clerk of the Council.

Legislative Council.

19th August 1854.

THE following Bill was read a second time in the Legislative Council on the 19th of August 1854, and referred to a Select Committee, who are to report thereon after the 23rd of November next:—

III. The Governor General of India in Council, on the occurrence of any public emergency, is hereby authorized to take temporary possession of any or every Telegraph established under licence within the territories under the Government of the East India Company.

Government may take possession of every Telegraph established under licence.

IV. It shall be lawful for the Governor General in Council to frame rules for the conduct of the Electric Telegraph not inconsistent with this Act, and therein to prescribe the regulations, conditions, and restrictions, according to which all messages and signals shall be transmitted.

Governor General may frame rules for the conduct of Electric Telegraphs.

V. The Government shall not be responsible for any loss or damage which may occur in consequence of failing to transmit with accuracy any message entrusted to any person in charge of any Office of the Electric Telegraph for transmission, and no person employed by the Government in the Electric Telegraph Department shall be responsible for any such loss or damage, unless that person shall cause such loss or damage either through his culpable neglect, fraud, or malice.

Government not responsible for any loss or damage.

VI. Every person who shall intrude into a Telegraph Office without the permission of the person in charge of the Office, or shall wilfully obstruct or impede any signaller or other official in the performance of his duty, shall be liable, on conviction before a Magistrate, to fine not exceeding one hundred rupees

No person to intrude into a Telegraph Office.

VII. Every person who shall cause, or attempt to cause, any interruption to the transmission of signals along the line, by wilfully cutting or injuring the wire or line, or any portion thereof, or by wilfully injuring any instrument or apparatus, shall be liable to imprisonment, with or without labor, for a term not exceeding two years, or to fine, or to both fine and imprisonment.

Penalties for cutting the line.

VIII. Whoever, being in the employ of the Government in the Electric Telegraph Department, shall fraudulently or maliciously secrete, make away with, or omit to transmit any message which may have been entrusted to him for transmission, shall be liable to be imprisoned, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding two years, or to fine, or to both.

Penalties for omitting to transmit messages.

Penalties for preventing the transmission of messages.

IX. Every person employed to make signals along the line, who shall fraudulently or maliciously retain, or wilfully impede the transmission of a message along the line, or being required by any Officer of the Electric Telegraph Department to transmit a message, shall neglect or refuse to make the requisite signals, shall be liable to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding two years, or to fine, or to both.

Penalties for carelessness and neglect in the delivery of messages.

X. Every person employed to convey or deliver any message sent by Electric Telegraph, who shall be guilty while so employed of any act of drunkenness, carelessness, or other misconduct, whereby the safety of any such message shall be endangered, or who shall loiter or make delay in the conveyance or delivery of any such message, or who shall not use proper care and diligence safely to convey any such message, shall be liable to a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees.

Penalties for fraud.

XI. Whoever, being in the employ of the Government in the Electric Telegraph Department, and being entrusted to receive money for the transmission or conveyance of messages or any other public purpose, shall fraudulently appropriate the same, shall be punished, on conviction before a Magistrate, with imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding two years, and shall also be liable to fine.

Penalties for altering a message.

XII. Whoever, being in such employ as is described in Section XI., shall fraudulently alter any message, shall be liable to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding two years, or to fine, or to both.

Penalties for fraudulently altering documents.

XIII. Whoever, being in such employ as is described in Section XI., and being entrusted with the preparing or keeping of any document, shall, with a fraudulent intention, prepare that document incorrectly, or alter that document, or secrete or destroy that document, shall be liable to imprisonment, with or without hard labor, for a term not exceeding two years, or to fine, or to both.

Penalties for sending messages without payment to Government.

XIV. Whoever, being in such employ as is described in Section XI., shall send by the Electric Telegraph, any message upon which the charge prescribed in the rules and regulations of the Department has not been paid, intending thereby to defraud the Government of the charge on such message, shall be punished, on conviction beforea Magistrate, with a fine not exceeding one hundred rupees.

Fines how to be recovered.

XV. Any person, whether a European British subject or not, who shall be guilty of any offence, for which, according to the provisions of this Act, he shall be liable to fine only, shall be punishable, for such offence, by any Justice of the Peace, for any of the Presidency Towns of Calcutta, Madras and Bombay, Magistrate, Joint Magistrate, or person lawfully exercising the powers of Magistrate; and any person, hereby made punishable by a Justice of the Peace shall be punishable upon summary conviction.

Conviction to be quashed on merits only. Form of conviction, &c.

XVI. No conviction, order, or judgment of any Justice of the Peace shall be quashed for error of form or procedure, but only on the merits; and it shall not be necessary to state, on the face of the conviction, order, or judgment, the evidence on which it proceeds; but the depositions taken, or a copy of them, shall be returned with the conviction, order, or judgment, in obedience to any writ of certiorari; and if no jurisdiction appears on the face of the conviction, order, or judgment, but the depositions taken supply that defect, the conviction, order, or judgment shall be aided by what so appears in such depositions.

Mode of realizing fines.
